

THE DEAD BODY.

You need not be sorry if you find me dead, for I shall have been long dead. There are no more signs of me, with a single exception. I have been found in the Gulf of Paria, in the Gulf of Venezuela, and in the Gulf of Guayana. I have been found in the Gulf of Paria, in the Gulf of Venezuela, and in the Gulf of Guayana. I have been found in the Gulf of Paria, in the Gulf of Venezuela, and in the Gulf of Guayana.

WRATH OF A WIDOW.

The widow of a man who had been killed in a battle, was sitting on a bench in a public square. She was looking at a group of men who were talking. One of the men was speaking to her. She looked at him with a stern expression. She was angry. She was the widow of a man who had been killed in a battle. She was sitting on a bench in a public square. She was looking at a group of men who were talking.

THE SAGACIOUS TURTLE.

A Wily Schemer Makes a Yoke of an Ass and a Mule. John Stoddard, of Williams, N. J., an excellent writer and a noted humorist, has sent us a very strange article, under the title of 'The Sagacious Turtle'. It is a story of a turtle who was caught in a net and was taken to a market. The turtle was very wily and managed to escape from the net. The turtle was very wily and managed to escape from the net.
