WAYNE REPUBLICAN.

Published at the Post Office at Wayne, Nebraska, as second-class matter, March 10, 1879. Postmaster: W. E. Brown.

Hold your own stock and think it a club of a kind.

Persons in haste get your money before you die. A. N. H.

Going around on a bicycle today shows that you will find it a very good business.

The commission has again to be prorogued. The legislature has adjourned. The fight for places has long since died.

On Monday, Dec. 27th, the general election in a large number of States.

The new work will be done in the winter. It is a very good thing that remains to be done in the winter.

The election of a new governor has raised the question of a new constitution.
