Closing out a million dollar lumber for last Friday.

Gen. Grant's sons are to be again enrolled with good positions by their pals.

The enlargement of Co Street Park in Portland is to be ready for the Wide Hats by the first of July.

The Democrat was between the evening number from Chicago on Friday and Saturday, and it was not delivered.

The Angle Hotel in Omaha is still crowded to a point of uncomfortableness, and there is about all that is every should.

The Post Office appointments in Wayne continue to have called a good many applicants. Who is blamed for it?

The official weekly bulletin of the weather bureau has changed that of the politics of Dakota, just the reverse of usual.

Since Tom Reed resigned as chairman of Ways and Means, the Democrats have had no opportunity to do anything in the way of tariff legislation.

The people of Valentine are expecting a fire that they will spread if the town will be injured. But a fire in such large sum usually expected. That Valentine has any good reason to hope will be a problem to most people.

The Republicans in Nebraska are doing their confidence to fill the vacancy in the Illinois legislature caused by the death and one of the Democratic members. This gives the Republicans 102 votes on a joint ballot, and leaves the minimum legal to the United States Senate of 51 the Republicans have to have a majority for a quorum.

What would be thought of a country where a Democratic President, the Democratic Congress, and a Democratic majority in Michigan, by the concurrence of the ballot box, should wait until nominations and the election of the Governor, and then give their joint direct instructions to the Governor-elect, and then give effect to the instructions of the people? Why, it would be a monstrous perversion of the ballot box, for the people's will is to be ignored, and the will of the people of the state, the majority of the people, is to be ignored, and the will of the people of the state, the majority of the people, is to be ignored, and the will of the people of the state, the majority of the people, Stallion to shoot—Mr. Lewis takes 120 head, Wm. Cantry 80, and Gary Simmons 40 head, of yearling heifers. That is the way to make profitable market for the best country—Hub Republican.

This is a specialty of country editor, and the more crude and country he is the stronger its development. He can seldom tell what he is fighting about, or what he hopes to gain in the squabble. He knows that it disgusts readers, places him at a disadvantage with others business men, makes him appear small, selfish and narrow, and yet the bitterness in his soul must find vent in some direction and he takes this means of unloading his gall regardless of consequence to himself.—York Times.

Messrs. Webber, after carefully looking over the ground decided that the prospect for the town and country were sufficient to justify them in erecting a mill here, and as soon as the necessary preliminary arrangements can be made they will begin building. The mill will be built in the best manner, and have a capacity of fifty to seventy five barrels a day. The only aid they require is the donation of the site and a reduction from the regular freight rates on the material used in the mill. These Dr. Crawford has guaranteed them and nothing lies in the way of getting it. The site selected is on the north side of the rail road, south of D. W. Britton's residence, as good a location as could be desired. It is but justice to Dr. Crawford to say that the mill was secured by his almost unaided exertions and the people of the town should properly appreciate his efforts by making it unnecessary for him to contribute a cent toward the expense of the site. If some of the rest of us, who sometimes sneer at the Doctor's enthusiasm would show a little more of it ourselves it would be better for the town.

The school children will be delighted to know that their geographical knowledge must be mended. Charleston is now the capital of West Virginia, instead of Wheeling.

The smaller boys gathered all the old cow bells and tin pans they could find and gave Hunter Mc Watter and bride the benefit of an old fashioned charivare Saturday night.

Plant melon seits and save the trouble of raising them from the seed. Inquire of P. C. Maurer.

Rev. Webking came near having a runaway last evening his horses becoming frightened by flying paper.

The race between Dr. Crawford's and Lute Dearborn's hopes has been postponed until a week from Saturday.

A large number of contractors are expected here this evening to bid, after the letting of the contract for the jail.

The concert at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was very good and attended by a large audience but the program was entirely too long for such an occasion.

A gentleman who has been enlarging his store, and whose first name is Henry Ley carried his books and a number of valuables to his bed room the other night in order that they might be safe, and carefully locked the door and slept the sleep of the innocent. He did not notice until morning that the whole end of the room had been taken out the day before.

The city council took up the question of water works Saturday night in a manner that gives grounds for hoping that something will be done. The entire matter will at least be investigated and the feeling of the citizens ascertained, and an election on the question of issuing bonds called if thought best. That the building of water works would not only be the best, but in the end, far the cheapest for protective the village could get we have no doubt whatever. The plan that is being talked over contemplates the building of a reservoir on the highest accessible point in town, which is near R. F. Feather's residence, from which mains would be laid to Main street, running on that from the town hall to the depot, with hydrants at proper intervals, provision being made to lay mains in the other streets as fast as needed. An elevation of nearly eighty feet above the Depot would be secured, which would be sufficient to throw water over that building.

Aside from the protection the water works would give a large percentage of their cost would be saved every year in reduced rates of insurance, which are now very heavy. Whatever is done the village cannot afford to remain in its present unprotected state, and if water works are not put in some other arrangements must be made. It is simply a question of getting the most possible protection at the least cost, but it would not be well to get partial protection simply because it is cheap.

BARB WIRE

These are the vulgarisers of the human system. They proceed from impure blood and from a serious derangement of the digestive organs. They are annoying, painful, and sometimes dangerous. They may be driven out by toning up the system, and this can best be done by the use of Brown's Iron Bitters. Messrs. Hinsdale & Hallinan, druggist, Annapolis, Md., say: "We sold lots of Brown's Iron Bitters. All who use it seem pleased. We hear not one complaint."

It is proposed to utilize the Indianapolis park for the preservation of the bison.

ST. JACOBS OIL

THE GREAT GERMAN REMEDY FOR PAIN.

CURES Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swellings, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Frost Bites, AND ALL OTHER BODILY PAINS AND ACHES.

THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO. Successors to A. Vogeler & Co. Baltimore, Md., U. S. A.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters and Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and Indigestion. ANSWERED.

Billhead

The country has produced no medicine of more real merit than Brown's Iron Bitters. Its wonderful curative powers are now generally known throughout the land. It is not a patent medicine in the sense that it is a secret nostrum, but it is a medicine of well-known composition, and its virtues are so manifest in the cure of dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, and all diseases of the liver, that its use is now recommended by the best physicians. It is not a cure-all, but it does cure a large class of diseases where other tonics do not even relieve. It is not a cheap medicine, but it is the cheapest in the end, because it does what other tonics do not do. It is not a new medicine, but it is a medicine which has been tried by the test of time, and has proved its value. It is not a medicine which should be used only in emergencies, but it is a medicine which may be used with perfect safety by the most delicate woman or child. It is not a medicine which stimulates temporarily, and then leaves the patient worse than before, but it is a medicine which permanently strengthens the system by its action upon the blood, which is the source of life and health to every part of the body. It is not a medicine which cures one disease and then allows another to fasten upon the patient, but it is a medicine which, by its action upon the blood, cures all diseases which have their origin in a disordered condition of the blood, and prevents the development of other diseases which would be the sure result if the blood should remain in its impure condition. It is not a medicine which cures one class of diseases and then allows another class
