WAYNE REPUBLICAN

E. DENNINGMAN, Editor and Publisher. Published at the Union Block of Wayne, Nebraska, every Wednesday except the third of each month.

Admitted Fifth Class, second class at>Please on last Tuesday.

Lynn of the Wayne Republican. Through its columns we have already spoken of its confidence for legislative success in Kansas.

General Weyler of the Spanish army is expected to visit to Chicago to put down the rebellion and not meeting with any satisfactory measure of success in completing the task assigned him.

The truth, we believe, has been purchased by a popular agent, and we are glad to see the principles of this almost perfect organization. May it be successful in all these undertakings.

It is almost certain that a strong movement for some great political reform is being organized in this State. It is not only a political movement, but a moral one, and we are glad to see the principles of this almost perfect organization.

The (National) Free Press says that A. Brown will not be nominated for state treasurer by the party of Nebraska. It is a point of view, and we are glad to see the principles of this almost perfect organization.

The (National) Free Press says that A. Brown will not be nominated for state treasurer by the party of Nebraska. It is a point of view, and we are glad to see the principles of this almost perfect organization.

If an attempt is made to make a political movement, we are glad to see the principles of this almost perfect organization.
