CAPITAL TOPICS.

[illegible]

A decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court of Ohio, in the case of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad company, appellant, against the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad company, appellee, in which it is held that the court of common pleas had jurisdiction of the subject matter of the action, and that the service upon the defendant company was sufficient. The decision of the court of common pleas is reversed, and the cause remanded for further proceedings according to law.

[illegible]

The Grand Army encampment at Philadelphia, which commences next week, promises to be a very large affair. The railroads north, south and west of Philadelphia have made arrangements to carry the veterans at one fare for the round trip. The Pennsylvania railroad will run special trains from Washington, Baltimore, Harrisburg, Pittsburg and other points, and will carry the veterans and their families at one fare for the round trip. The Baltimore & Ohio will run special trains from points on its lines, and will carry the veterans and their families at one fare for the round trip. The Philadelphia & Reading will run special trains from points on its lines, and will carry the veterans and their families at one fare for the round trip. The Pennsylvania railroad will also run special trains from points on its lines, and will carry the veterans and their families at one fare for the round trip. The Philadelphia & Reading will also

A POSTAL COURTSHIP

"She really is the prettiest little creature I ever saw," said Mr. Willoughby Valley, as he turned from the window for the sixth time that morning, and addressing his friend, who was clearing away the breakfast things, "who on earth can she be? The people who own Newton's old Mr. Addison's house opposite?"

"Oh, yes, she is very pleasant," replied the handmaiden. "I met her cook at the grocer's the other day, and she said that her master's name was Hiram Harding Cooper. Uncle and I think he was staying here on leave of absence with his wife and daughter."

"Yes, I remember now, I heard of it. Cooper, of course, I knew the name. Well, I must call, I suppose, and see if I can be of any service to the young lady. Do you know, Jane, I think she looks very like—"

"Yes, I know, sir, I think so too. Shall I take the tray, sir?"

"Yes, Jane, I'm ready. Well, I think she looks very like—"
