The Market.
 The following are the market prices for various commodities as reported by the market makers:

Wheat	12
Barley	11
Corn	10
Oats	8
Hay	24
Butter	24
Eggs	18
Pork	24

Market Notes:
 The market for wheat was steady, with prices ranging from 11 to 12 cents per bushel. Corn prices were also steady, ranging from 9 to 10 cents. There was a slight decline in the price of oats, which fell to 7 cents per bushel. Hay prices remained high, around 24 cents per ton.

New Market:
 The new market for various commodities is showing a steady increase in prices. This is due to the high demand for these goods in the region. The prices for wheat, corn, and oats are all higher than they were a few months ago.

Market Outlook:
 The market outlook for the future is generally optimistic. It is expected that the prices for most commodities will continue to rise, due to the increasing demand and the limited supply.

Market News:
 The market news from various regions indicates a general upward trend in prices. This is particularly true for wheat and corn, which are the most important crops in the region.

Market Report:
 The market report for the week ending August 15th shows a significant increase in the price of wheat. This is due to the fact that the supply of wheat is low, and the demand is high.

Market Summary:
 The market summary for the week shows a general increase in prices for most commodities. This is a positive sign for the economy and for the farmers of the region.

WOMANHOOD

IS MRS. CLEVELAND'S PROPERTY?

It is a question that has been asked many times. The answer is, it is not. Mrs. Cleveland's property is not the property of the nation, but the property of the people. The nation has no right to take it, and the people have no right to give it.
