THE NEBRASKA LEGISLATURE.

It is a recognized fact among Nebraskans that no matter what legislative paper they read at other times during the legislative session they will find the same old news. This legislative paper on the ground, can get the latest news of the law makers and frequently give the news of the day. It is a paper that is read by the people of Nebraska. It is a paper that is read by the people of Nebraska. It is a paper that is read by the people of Nebraska.

CHAPTER XII—Continued.

Arrived at the pool, he asked Lady Bell to look up Angela, and she went down the stairs for Angela, but she found her in bed.

There was a red face upon the Captain's face, and he said to her: "Angela, if you want a long stretch of good life, go toward the head of the pool. The spring there is the best."

"When ready to sleep, Angela turned with a smile to the Captain.

"Why are you so pale, Captain?" she asked, sweet smile of the girl.

"The pool was warm and beautiful when you entered."

"The head of the pool was a little better than the other."

"For a few feet in the distance, the water was warm and beautiful. For a few feet in the distance, the water was warm and beautiful. For a few feet in the distance, the water was warm and beautiful."

Before he reached the pool he saw a woman who had been in the water. She was a woman of great beauty and she was looking at him with a smile.

"Who are you?" he asked.

"I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years."

"Why are you in the water?" he asked.

"I am in the water because I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years."

"Are you a woman?" he asked.

"Yes, I am a woman. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years. I am a woman who has been in the water for many years."
