Feb. 4, 1897.
All matters present.
"Upon motion the following resolution was passed:

Comptroller's Proceedings.
The County Treasurer is directed to make out as required by Sec. 154 Chapter 77, Art. 1, Compiled Statutes, and file with the County Clerk on or before noon of February 9th, 1897, a statement in writing setting forth in detail the names of each person charged with personal property tax which he and other collectors have been unable to collect, the cause of his inability to collect such tax, and, he is hereby potently that he will not be credited with any amount of tax which he is able to collect by Officers Waugh or otherwise, but that he shall make a list of all such names to be sent to the county clerk before he can be credited with any tax and relieved from liability for the same.

This report to be filed on the first day of the month in which he is authorized to issue return warrants and collect taxes.
