The cattle business in this state has been a hard one since the winter.

The three months of the year have been the most successful for the cattle business in this state since the winter.

The appropriations of the present legislature have been in excess of the appropriations of the past.

So far the legislature has done very little for the people of this state.

When the legislature meets in the fall it will be the first time since the winter that it will be able to do anything for the people of this state.

On Monday morning the legislature will meet in the first session of the year.
