WAYNE REPUBLICAN

Published for the Proprietor, W. E. Howard, at the office of the Wayne Republican, 107 S. 1st St., Wayne, Nebraska, March 17, 1910.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE TICKET.

For Judge of Supreme Court, A. M. POST, of Columbus. For Regents of State University, G. W. DALRY, Ret. Clerk JOHN N. DAYDEN, Kearney.

COUNTY TICKET.

For Treasurer, J. R. MANNING. For Clerk, F. L. NEELY. For Sheriff, RANDALL FRAZIER. For Judge, KNOCH HUNTER. For Superintendent, W. E. HOWARD. For Coroner, JOHN P. GERINGER. For Surveyor, LUDWIG ZIEMER. For Commissioner and Deut. C. T. S. GONS.

When you vote for J. R. Manning for Treasurer, you vote for a man square, upright, honest and that will not prostitute his office for personal ends.

Read over papers ought to keep the most reliable reports out of their columns if they do not want to be set down as untruthful in their editorial utterances.

Knoch Hunter is not the county's chief justice and a man well versed in probate matters and will be fair and impartial as a County Judge. You will do the proper thing to vote for him.

The hog, cattle and sheep are probably short in the price of eggs, butter, wool and mutton are bringing better prices than last year. It's poor logic that would stand the head on all things.

Get into the best wagon and ride with Manning, Frazier, Neely, Howland, Knoch Hunter, Geringer, Ziemer and Gons. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes.

John P. Geringer is the best assessor and Ludwig Ziemer the best surveyor and if you want to vote for the wisest man for assessor of the county and the best of the county named "Republicans" and Wayne county will have the best lot of assessor in the history. There can be no mistake in going it straight from top to bottom.

The Omaha Bee claims that the value of the wheat, corn, oats, hay and crop of the State of Nebraska for the year 1909 will exceed $50,000,000 and adding to this all the products of the farm, if we do over $100,000,000. Another year of the same kind of crops, with present prices maintained and there would be enough commodities to go up to decent funeral procession.

The Democrat runs an original matter Tribune statement in regard to Mrs. J. R. Clark of Lincoln being a non-resident owner of the State Journal. It doesn't say a figure to be being part owner of the Journal or anything else for that matter, what the voters of the state are interested in is what portion of Bartley's defalcation can be deducted from her and other taxpayers.

The Nebraska Independent, the organ of the populace (the men) in the State house that pays railroad, and with a lot of other things that do not do. Can it be possible that our popular brethren have "inferior victims to the press" habit after all the pawing and rooting they have done about the southern corporations.

F. L. Neely has done business too long in Wayne county and with her people for them to need any assurance that she will make a good county clerk. We as a clean man personally and in business, with correct habits and reputation in his neighborhood will measure both sides of the official and in as a being the best clerk of the county as that she will rise November second.

A vote for Ben Frazier means a vote for a man that has been tried and proven honest, capable, and a man of high character.

For a man that has done work for the farming and stock interests of the county, a man whose habits and habits has never been assailed by adversity and one whose honesty in all respects is unquestioned. Cast your vote for him and he is assured that he will do his duty and set out in doing so to make any grand stand plays or seek only to line his own pockets at the expense of the unfortunate.

The Public Schools need a man at their head of good judgment and one that is fully abreast of the times in educational work. W. E. Howard possesses these qualifications in an eminent degree and will devote his entire time and talent to the office if elected. Let no campaign talk of those seeking a few dollars more from you, by a nomination to vote for him. He is not tied down or handicapped by promises that will hinder him in properly discharging the duties of the place.

Some very smart work is being done by friends of Ben Frazier's in opposition. If those fellows don't know enough to tell the truth and believe that the way to win is to make a campaign by intimidation and young boys may begin to fight some of the county friends that will not leave in the air they are carrying out in the county. It is an honorable thing to stand up for a man that is as honest as a politician. There will be no need of singing or parading to the aid of Ben Frazier. We can only be expected to expose the moral turpitude of the man that is opposing him in office.

By day and night from now until November 2, the candidate for office will go about seeking to get the support of the voters in the county. You need not go about looking for those who will always be some of the voters who will stand up for him. You need not walk the streets and say that you are for the democratic kind of men. You need not walk the streets and say that you are for the republican kind of men. You need not walk the streets and say that you are for the republican kind of men. You need not walk the streets and say that you are for the republican kind of men.

Mr. Neely and Mr. Geringer have been successful in getting the support of the voters in the county. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes.

I think the republican candidates for commissioners in the second district in the last election were known by one of the county friends of the republican kind of men. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes. They are good enough company for anybody and will stand by their craft clear of clothes.

Knoch Hunter, Lincoln, Neb. Oct 1, 1909. This work has developed some further starting points in reference to the former defalcation of Ben Frazier. McCook in reference to the governor's knowledge when he approved the second Bartley bond. Bartley was already short at the time of the defalcation. Bartley was already short at the time of the defalcation. Bartley was already short at the time of the defalcation.

The most important fact in the development of the human body is the fact that the brain is the seat of all our thoughts and feelings. It is the brain that controls our actions and determines our fate. Therefore, it is of the utmost importance that we should take care of our brains and keep them in the best of health. This can be done by following a few simple rules: 1. Get plenty of sleep. 2. Eat a healthy diet. 3. Exercise regularly. 4. Avoid excessive stress. 5. Keep your mind active. By following these rules, you can ensure that your brain is in the best of health and that you are able to think clearly and act wisely.
