Remember, Hubert's sale on the 10th,
A. B. Prince established a number of his young friends in his home in the city of Saturday evening.

Deceased to wit—Mr. George Coan of Curlew Co. and Mrs. Adolph Dobson of Wayne Co.

Professor Wright of the Wichita School was in the city Saturday checking books for the month.

Miss Deane, daughter of Mr. J. P. Deane, of Wayne Co. was in the city yesterday.

James Reid is at home again from his visit of several months to his old home in Ireland, which he enjoyed very much.

Mr. G. B. Richards, a prominent citizen of Nebraska, was in the city yesterday on his way to Chicago on business.

The Pilgrims Progress Illustrated series of Mr. Montgomery at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening was a great drawing card.

Miss B. B. Chittenden returned from Hartington Saturday where she had been helping to get her schoolmates, Mrs. F. W. Chittenden.

A person who has captured and managed the Chicago was held for so long that the memory of him falls in the city.

The well known case in the southern part of the county was on the ground for a killing of a man and was very sad.

There will be new houses and gained by farmers of Wayne Co. this year. Many of them have paid out during the past year and have not yet received the fruit and money which will improve the farms and they will use it.

The Farmers' Loan and Trust company has a very interesting and important case in the city this morning.

WAYNE REPUBLICAN

Published for the Proprietor, Wm. H. Holtz, at the office of the Wayne Republican, No. 101 Main St., Wayne, Neb., March 15, 1898.

New York is talking of establishing a colony for consumptives in the Adirondacks.

Omaha expects to have professional baseball this year as she has secured the Grand Rapids, Michigan franchise.

The New York banks find money flowing in on them in such vast amounts that they have reduced their rates on deposits to ten per cent.

The Corcoran steamer plying between Seattle and Alaska points was wrecked on the coast of Alaska. All her passengers and crew 25 in number were rescued.
