WAYNE REPUBLICAN

Published weekly by the Republican Publishing Co., Wayne, Nebraska. Entered as second class matter, June 15, 1902, under post office number 100, Wayne, Nebraska. Post office at Wayne, Nebraska, established June 15, 1902.

It was reported by Mr. Bryan to the effect that "All that I have to do is to try to do my duty as a citizen and I shall be satisfied." He said that he had no other business to attend to.

Notwithstanding the fact that the government has a large amount of money in the treasury, it is necessary to raise money to carry on the war.

Mr. J. H. Webster of Lincoln, has just got a letter from a good friend in Washington. It is a copy of a letter which was sent to him by the president of the United States.

 Wonders of the world, but the human mind that is the wonder of the world.
 Wonders of the world are the things that we see with our eyes, but the wonders of the human mind are the things that we see with our hearts.

OKLAHOMA HARVESTERS HUN BY MAN POWER.

The harvesters in Oklahoma are using man power to harvest the crops. The machines are not yet ready for the work, and the harvesters must use their strength and skill to get the crops in.

The harvesters are working hard to get the crops in. They are using their strength and skill to get the crops in, and they are doing a great job of it. The crops are being harvested in a timely manner, and the harvesters are doing a great job of it.
