MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR THE LATE SENATOR JAMES H. HAYNES

Norfolk expects another big day to the west and many of the State City people think that the day will be the best of the year. It will connect Norfolk with Union, South Dakota. The right of way has already been secured and work will be commenced very soon.

Col. Bryan wishes to quit and understand that he is not on the D. & W. band wagon. He joins in the welcoming chorus with the feeling: "Nothing is so true as that done to prove to him and the world that his distinguished services are appreciated by his countrymen."

Senator had received a number of offers for the purchase of his personal effects. He has decided to sell them to the State of Nebraska for the benefit of the poor.

The will of the late Senator has been proved and the executor has filed a report with the court. The will is found to be valid and the executor is authorized to distribute the assets of the estate.

The city council has passed a resolution to honor the late Senator by naming a street after him. The council also passed a resolution to purchase a monument to be placed in the city square.

CHILDREN ARE VERY IMPORTANT

Children are very important. When they are sent to school, we always remember that they are not discriminating buyers and we take special pains to see that they get what both you and they want.

When you always try to be prompt, a walk through the store will always be a little weary about the things which they are sent upon. It is better to be prompt than to be late.
