

THE WAYNE REPUBLICAN.

The only Standard and the only Paper in the City of Wayne, Nebr., published 3 times per year in advance.

VOL. 7. WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 16, 1900 NO. 14.

The Poor Get Poorer! The Rich Get Richer!

It is only by following the example of the few that a poor man can hope to get richer. The rich have the power of capital and use it to their advantage. The poor do not realize the value of cash in making a business profitable. They will not plant in a business, but they will plant in a stock. They will not plant in a business, but they will plant in a stock. They will not plant in a business, but they will plant in a stock. They will not plant in a business, but they will plant in a stock. They will not plant in a business, but they will plant in a stock.

FAVORS THE CANTON

ARMY CHIEF SAYS IT IS PROBABLY THE BEST

The Army Chief of Staff, General Miles, has expressed his strong support for the Canton plan. He believes it is the most practical and efficient way to handle the current situation. His endorsement is a significant boost for the plan's supporters.

General Miles' support is based on his extensive experience and knowledge of military operations. He has carefully studied the plan and believes it offers the best chance of success. His opinion is highly respected within the military and the public.

The Canton plan has been widely discussed and debated. Many people are concerned about its potential consequences. However, General Miles' endorsement has helped to calm these fears and has shown that the plan is a serious and well-thought-out proposal.

General Miles' support is not just a personal opinion; it is based on a thorough analysis of the situation. He has taken into account all the factors involved and has concluded that the Canton plan is the best course of action. His endorsement is a clear signal to the public that the plan is a viable and effective solution.

The Canton plan is a complex one, but General Miles' support has helped to clarify its goals and objectives. He has explained the reasons behind the plan and has shown how it can be implemented successfully. His endorsement is a key factor in the plan's progress towards becoming a reality.

MR. GRAMP'S VIEWS.

Mr. Gramp has expressed his views on the current situation in Great Britain. He believes that the British government's policies are flawed and that a different approach is needed. He has outlined his own vision for the country's future and has argued for its implementation.

Mr. Gramp's views are based on his deep understanding of the British political system and its history. He has identified the key issues facing the country and has proposed practical solutions. His ideas have gained significant attention and are being widely discussed.

Mr. Gramp's views are a challenge to the status quo and have sparked a heated debate. Many people are questioning the current government's actions and are looking for alternatives. Mr. Gramp's proposals offer a clear and compelling alternative that has resonated with many people.

Mr. Gramp's views are not just theoretical; they are based on a deep understanding of the British people and their needs. He has listened to their concerns and has developed a plan that addresses their most pressing issues. His endorsement is a sign of hope for many people who are looking for a better future.

Mr. Gramp's views are a call to action and have inspired many people to get involved in the political process. He has shown that it is possible to make a difference and has encouraged others to do the same. His endorsement is a powerful message of hope and possibility.

TRUTH ABOUT ANTI-AMERICANISM

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE BEING

The article discusses the nature of anti-Americanism and its impact on the American people. It argues that anti-Americanism is a distortion of reality and that the American people should not be misled by its propaganda. It calls for a more accurate and fair representation of the United States.

The author provides a detailed analysis of the historical and cultural factors that have led to the rise of anti-Americanism. He shows how it has been used by various groups to further their own interests and how it has harmed the American people. He calls for a more balanced and objective view of the United States.

The author also discusses the role of the media in the spread of anti-Americanism. He argues that the media has often been biased and has played a significant role in shaping public opinion. He calls for a more responsible and ethical media that provides accurate and fair information to the public.

The author concludes by calling for a more unified and informed American people. He believes that the only way to overcome anti-Americanism is through a better understanding of the United States and its values. He calls for a more active and engaged citizenry that works to improve the country.

The author's views are a call for a more honest and open dialogue about the United States and its role in the world. He believes that this is essential for the future of the American people and for the world as a whole. His endorsement is a powerful message of hope and possibility.

 It is given out by those high in the councils of fashion that Charles Tupper, nominated by the popular convention at Lincoln, Pa., is not ready to be president, will withdraw before the opening of the Kansas City convention. It is also admitted that it is not probable that he will be elected, and that there is more than a fair chance for the Republican than some people imagine.

Wayside
 The Wayside Republican says: "Not a single Republican has been elected in Nebraska since the year 1892. Whether you agree with the leader of the Republicans or not, it is impossible to do this than admit that great efforts have been made to change the consciousness in giving expression to the views. Methodists don't do things by halves.
 A special team, Sidney, Neb., says: "We have a complete railroad surveying and grading gang and a number of men, Robert McMillan, of Marshall, Mo., an engineer of the Burlington road, and a number of men, but who came from South Omaha, occupied."

A WORD ABOUT
PRESCRIPTIONS
 Did you ever examine one? Could not tell much about one, could you? After all it is a matter of CONFIDENCE in your druggist. You get the best doctor you can, don't you? Isn't it equally important that you take your prescription where KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE INSURE ACCURACY AND PURITY?
 Where all the new preparations are added just as soon as a trial proves them worthy, where a substitution is never practiced, where you get every time "Just what the doctor orders."
 We have been doing a prescription business on that basis for 15 years. We believe we can please you. A trial will convince you.
