Ice Water from Lakes to Gulf

BY NATHAN D. UERNER

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—(Special Dispatch.)—The project of a canal to carry ice water from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico is being revived with renewed vigor. The project, which was first proposed in 1825, has since that time been the subject of many schemes and plans. It is now being revived by a new group of engineers and financiers who believe that the project is now feasible.

The project is based on the fact that the Great Lakes are the largest source of fresh water in the world. It is estimated that the lakes contain over 100,000 cubic miles of water. This water is now used for navigation and other purposes, but it is not used for irrigation or other purposes. The project is to build a canal that will carry this water to the Gulf of Mexico, where it can be used for irrigation and other purposes.

The project is being revived because of the increasing demand for water in the South. The population of the South is increasing rapidly, and the demand for water is increasing accordingly. The project is being revived because it is now feasible. The engineers and financiers who are now working on the project believe that the project is now feasible because of the advances in engineering and the availability of funds.

FEARS FOR CONGER

HOPE FOR HIS SAFETY IS FAST FALLING. Officials Feel that Their Graves Approbations Are Likely to Be Realized as They Meet—Minnesota Republicans Also.

Washington: None of the members of the cabinet who were present at last Friday's meeting could see the least change for the better in the situation. It was stated every possible effort is being made to secure intelligence of the military whereabouts, but with no results. When the cabinet meeting broke up there could be no doubt the members shared the general depression at the lack of news from the cabinet. With unwilling to admit that for an hour was fast falling. The cabinet members were fast falling. The cabinet members were fast falling.

A WORD ABOUT PRESCRIPTIONS

Did you ever examine one? I should not feel much about one, would you? After all it is a matter of CONFIDENCE in the doctor. You get the best doctor you can do it. You get it again, but you take your prescription where...

KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE
ACCURACY AND PURITY?
 When all the new preparations are added just as soon as a trial proves them worthy, when what is known is never passed, when you get every thing that the doctor orders.

We have used every prescription business that has been for 12 years. We believe we can please you. A trial will convince you.

Wayne O. Randolph 8.

That is what the boys thought after one man was called to the task had the night long before. Wayne Randolph on Friday afternoon and then the game stopped short. It was a pretty good game of ball as far as the playing was concerned, but we were not in the line of business of getting on with the game beyond of and in this respect nothing else was said.

Judge Powers of Norfolk was the only Friday.

George was one of Randolph's best men at the ball game Friday.

They say it is a good thing that the boys were not in the line of business of getting on with the game beyond of and in this respect nothing else was said.

Are you Willing?

To run the risk of annoyance and discomfort certain to be found in all ready made clothing, to have a collar or two of the price:

Isn't it better to pay that small difference and get a collar that you can select not only the cloth and pattern, but have the style you prefer, the pocket of the kind and number you like, and generally get what you order. Just in ready made clothing you will have these advantages and have to take more you can get.
