NEWS AND COMMENT.

Prof. Durrin, of Wayne, was in town on business Tuesday and a guest at the Col. Dennis home.—Coleridge Blade.
 Geo. Albee and wife, of Wayne, were Hartington visitors last week. Mr. Albee is also in town today.—Hartington News.
 The Wayne high school basket ball team arrived last Friday noon and at 6:30 p. m. engaged the Hartington high school team in an interesting game. The Wayne girls are no match for our girls when it comes to basket ball. The score at the end of the game was 30 to 2 in favor of the Hartington team. The gate receipts were about $30, which indicates that Hartington takes considerable interest in the game. In the evening the visitors were tendered a ball and banquet, which proved a pleasant social event. The Wayne girls are certainly a bevy of charming and well behaved lassies.—Hartington Herald.
 E. R. Lundberg, of Wayne, was a caller yesterday and talked insurance instead of politics.—Rev. Father Weber, of Wayne, will hold services in Winside next Sunday. It is also thought that arrangements will be made by which a commodious Catholic church will be erected.—H. E. Siman was heartily congratulated by hosts of friends in Winside over his unanimous nomination for county attorney. Harry is very popular here and if he has a personal enemy in this section we have never heard of it.—Co. Supt. Bright moved to Wayne this week and Winside loses an estimable family. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bright will be sadly missed here and we almost hope that he will be defeated next time so that perhaps it will bring them back to our town.—Did Br'er Gibson get caught in the late Bressler land slide? Not any. He saw it coming and hiked it for a safe place. It will be a cold day when Br'er Gibson gets fastened up so tight that he cannot wriggle out.—Winside Tribune.
 John T. Bressler, of Wayne, is a candidate for state treasurer on the strength of laying new sidewalks around his property. That's a good issue—keep it before the people.—Solomon High Mass was observed at the Catholic church here Tuesday morning, being the Month's Mind of Mrs. Catherine Leahy. Rev. Fathers Fennessy, of Jackson, and Weber, of Wayne, conducted the services. The choir of Wayne furnished the music.—Editor Gibson is making a good paper out of the WAYNE REPUBLICAN. He is a hard worker and deserves success. Gibson for some years was a democrat at Ponca, but a short time since announced that he had changed his views and would be a republican henceforth. A good many of our newspaper friends sneer at him for so doing but the Herald deems him an honorable man to do so. The fault of most newspaper men in Northeast Nebraska is they ally themselves to a certain clique from whom they derive their sustenance and henceforth they advocate the opinions and aims of that clique, right or wrong. We know of newspaper men claiming to be democrats who are firm believers in the gold standard and did everything in their power to defeat Bryan when he gained control of the democratic party in Nebraska yet they are afraid of their own convictions and hang onto the party for the few crumbs business men of their political faith give them. Out with the newspaper man who is tied to a stake! Out with one who will sacrifice his principles for a mess of pottage or fear of a politician! Praise to a newspaper man who has conviction and dares express them, and if he finds his position wrong and frankly acknowledges it. So hide bound is our fraternity that a rascal, a renegade, a lecherous villain is often a saint in the newspapers and a good man often slurred and abused. It ought not to be, but it is a fact. Editor Gibson may change his politics as often as he chooses without losing the esteem of the writer.—Dako's County Herald. (Fusion.)

 Grant Mears and Kimball, the horse M. D., took a little trip to Lincoln, Tuesday. Sheriff Mears returned at once, but Kimball concluded to remain and has a good position in one of the states strongest institutions which will probably command his attention until well into the spring of 1904.
 Prof. R Durrin gets a car load of marble every few weeks and is turning out many fine monuments. His work is very much finer than a great deal shipped in to some places and the price is certainly lower as few factories send their men here as they know it is useless to figure on a piece of work after Prof. Durrin puts figures on it, unless they can slight the work in some way.
 The abundance of cherries this year make some places look very inviting. There isn't a spot on earth where finer cherries are produced than ours, varieties considered. Plant cherry trees instead of boxelders. Don't waste your time growing the latter as they are a harbor for more kinds of bugs and moths than any other. Plant ash trees on the street and fill the yard with cherry trees.

STEEN'S ICE CREAM

We have a demand for ice cream, taxing our full capacity. People have come to know the difference between Jersey dairy, evaporated cream, ice cream from products made largely of starch, gelatine, etc. We have a growing home demand and an outside demand that keeps us busy. We use the entire product of several dairies who deliver us their prepared cream daily. We use a gasoline engine to convert it into a frozen state and supply several neighboring towns in competition with factory cream offered at a lower price. Quality tells. We have just added rotary fans to our establishment to make it pleasant for our visitors and when you call they

WILL KEEP YOU COOL

- PIANOS - THE CHICKERING

"I quite realize that the tone of the Chickering piano is finer and more beautiful than can be found in the pianos of any other maker, but I cannot see why this should be; I cannot understand why the Chickering should be alone in this delightful quality," said a recent purchaser.
 Unconsciously this lady repeated the old question of the whole piano industry, for every manufacturer in America for decades past has been trying to discover the secret of the wonderful Chickering tone. Small fortunes have been expended on experiments with the idea of "equaling the Chickering," but no manufacturer has been successful in the attempt. It has come to be almost a recognized conclusion by thoughtful piano men that it is a hopeless task.
 They cost a little more money than other makes yet are so popular that the great factories in Boston are unable to supply the demand, having on their books orders for over 1,000 of their new style A and others which they will not be able to ship before next December, yet the purchasers are willing to wait for them.
 We sell them direct from the factory at prices you cannot obtain elsewhere.
