The Secretary of War at Last Tenders His Resignation to the President.

TO TAKE EFFECT THIS MONTH

He is Anxious to Relinquish His Portfolio as Soon as Possible.

ACCEPTED BY THE PRESIDENT

Letter Received by the Secretary From McKinley Late This Afternoon—Misgivings Very Brief.

Washington, July 20.—Secretary Alger has received from the president a letter accepting his resignation, to take effect August 1. The secretary did not make the terms public, but read it to a few intimate friends.

Letters Made Public.

Late this afternoon the letters of Alger and McKinley were given out. The following is the text of Alger's letter of resignation and the president's reply:

"Sir—I beg to tender my resignation of the office of secretary of war, to take effect at such time in the near future as you may determine the affairs of the department will permit.

"In terminating my official connection with your administration I wish for you a continuance of health and the highest measure of success in carrying out the great work entrusted to you. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

"R. A. Alger.

"Hon. R. A. Alger, Secretary of War—Dear Sir: Your resignation of the office of secretary of war, dated July 19, is accepted, to take effect the 1st of August, 1899. In thus severing official relations which have continued more than two years, I desire to thank you for the faithful service you rendered the country at a most exciting period and to wish you a long and happy life. With assurances of high regard and esteem, I am, yours, sincerely,

"Wm. McKinley.

The belief is gaining ground in well informed circles that Elihu Root, of New York, will be tendered the secretaryship of war.

Washington, July 20.—Secretary Alger will relinquish his portfolio before August 1. He called on the president shortly before noon and was with him a few minutes. When he left he appeared to be in excellent spirits. His face was wreathed with smiles as he expressed to several newspaper men who gathered about him his appreciation of their good wishes.

"You feel relieved of a great burden," one of them suggested.

"Yes, I do," replied Secretary Alger. "Hereafter I will only have my own burden to carry."

The secretary said he would relinquish his portfolio as soon as pending routine matters in the department were cleared up and Assistant Secretary McKeljohn, to whom the war office will be turned over pending the appointment of Alger's successor, is ready to assume charge. Assistant Secretary McKeljohn wired this morning he would be back Saturday.

"I shall retire before August 1," said Secretary Alger. He said he would go back to Michigan and for the present, at least, devote his attention to his health. The secretary said he knew nothing of his successor.

Asked as to whether he would press his senatorial candidacy, the secretary replied: "I cannot tell now."

Postmaster General Smith saw the president today. As he left the white house he gave emphatic denial to the suggestion of his possible transferal to the war office. "I have troubles of my own," he said, smiling.

Every member of the secretary's family outside of Washington wired approval of his action of yesterday, and although the secretary himself did not exhibit any of them, there is reason to believe they included messages from some persons very prominent in political life.

When Secretary Alger arrived in his office he entered immediately into a conference with Adjutant General Corbin and Major Hopkins. Senator Fairbanks was also called. He was taken into the private office and a half hour spent in conversation. Up to noon, at which hour the secretary left the department for home, the president's letter accepting his resignation had not been received. While it has not been definitely decided, it is probably Alger will relinquish the duties of his office early next week, perhaps Monday.

Who Will Succeed Him?

The most absorbing and generally discussed topic at the moment is the choice of a successor to Alger. Many names are mentioned in speculation, but it can be stated with authority that the president has made no revelation. Both Secretary Long and Postmaster General Smith, who were with the president a short time, expressed the belief that no member of the cabinet would care to be shifted to the war department. Among the many names most prominently mentioned is that of General Horace Porter, ambassador to France. Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, called at the white house during the day and urged the promotion of Assistant Secretary McKeljohn. Nearly every general who figured in the recent war has been mentioned as a possibility. General James H. Wilson being about the most prominent in this class. A strong belief is expressed in certain circles that the successor of Alger will come from New York. In this connection the name of Elihu Root has been suggested. A high administration official said today that the next secretary of war will not only be a New Yorker, but a lawyer as well. The authority for this statement was in consultation with the president today, and stated that while it may be said that as yet a selection has not been finally passed upon, New York, now without representation, has the strongest claim for recognition.

Quiet in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 20.—Nine of fourteen lines of the big consolidated system were in operation this morning. There were no disturbances.

THE NEW CABINET MEMBER.

Career of Elihu Root, Now Secretary of War.

New York, July 25.—Elihu Root, the new secretary of war, is one of the most successful corporation lawyers in New York. Born in Clinton, small town in Oneida county, New York, 56 years ago, the son of Professor Oren Root, of Hamilton college, he supported himself by tutoring while he studied law in the university law school. He was admitted to the bar in 1869, and at once set himself a practice which is said to bring him an income of $50,000 a year.

He first came into prominence as one of the counsel for William M. Tweed in 1873, when he joined with William Fullerton, John T. Brady, and O. Bartlett and William Eggleston in requesting Judge Noah Davis to send the case to some other judge, on the ground that their client could not get a fair trial before Judge Davis.

Fullerton, Graham and Willard O. Bartlett were fined $250 each by Judge Davis, and when they were in their youth, merely censured Mr. Root, William Bartlett and Mr. Eggleston.

Richard Croker, in the campaign last fall, made a savage attack upon Mr. Root, who was advocating the re-election of Judge Joseph P. Day. Mr. Croker asserted that Mr. Root had received from Tweed four lots in Madison avenue at a nominal consideration of $20,000, and from Thomas H. Ingersoll, who was convicted with Tweed, one lot for a "nominal" consideration of $10,000.

When Mr. Root was asked to have any reply to make he said: "Not a word. I shall have nothing to say now or at any other time. I shall ignore the whole matter."

Among the noteworthy cases in which Mr. Root has appeared was that against the whisky trust in 1882. An attempt was made to bring in a technical case which declared illegal Mr. Root appeared in defense of the trust and argued that the system of giving rebates to dealers on condition that they would handle only the trust product was not in restraint of trade.

Mr. Root was attorney for Judge Hilton in the contest for the Stewart millions, and for the Hamilton family in the suit of Eva Mann to establish her claim to be the widow of Robert Ray Hamilton.

Mr. Root has been an independent republican in local politics, and for many years was one of the leaders in the fight against the Platt machine. He was brought into line by the Roosevelt campaign, when he became Colonel Roosevelt's counsel and one of his advisers.

Mr. Root was United States attorney for the northern district of New York from March, 1888, to July, 1885. He was vice president of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York for several years, vice president of the New York Grant Monument association, at one time president of the Republican club, and is now president of the Union League club. He has been a trustee of Hamilton college since 1888, and has served as president of the New England society in the city of New York. He received the degree of LL. D. in Hamilton college in 1894. He was one of the most prominent members of the state constitutional convention, and served as chairman of the judiciary committee. The judiciary article was one of the most important divisions of the constitution, and was drafted by Mr. Root. His home in this city is in East Sixty-ninth street.

BUYS KILLARNEY LAKES.

New York Man Purchases Famous Muckross Estate.

New York, July 25.—At last the lakes of Killarney have fallen into the hands of a citizen of America. A. G. Peck, of Cohoes Falls, N. Y., has bought the Muckross estates on the lakes of Killarney, about which there has been so much talk. The price paid was $27,000, approximately $185,000 in the money which Mr. Peck made as a manufacturer of axes in this country. Americans with a love of the Emerald Isle have lately shown decided inclination to purchase those lovely and historic lakes.

First it was Howard Gould. He took his bride, who was Catherine Clemons, to the "winding bays and woodland dells." She was entranced, and asked for them of her husband. But the sale was not made.

Then it was Richard Croker who longed for them. He did not purchase them, but he had a hand in the matter.

The fever for the possession of the lakes of Killarney spread. It seized the blood of President James Coogan, of the borough of Manhattan; and of John F. Carroll, vice boss of Tammany; and of Senator George W. Plunkett. This syndicate concluded that it must have the lakes.

But the Erie and Irving Americans were hesitating; the price of Killarney was not so Mr. Peck is considered lucky in getting them for $185,000.

The Muckross estate is magnificent and beautiful. It includes about 400 acres of arable land and plantations, including Briken and Diris islands, and the old abbey in the grounds overlooking the lower lake.

There is also the demesne of Leamington on the upper lake, with its fine residence, Glebe house, its cottages, deer forests, and its thickly wooded plantations of Tomies, Purple mountain, and one part of Caber-nabone and part of Mangerton and Torc. This estate includes also about 20,000 acres in all, in which are the famous cascades known as O'Sullivan's and Torc.

M'Laurin Will Be Senator.

Mississippi Primaries Show He Has a Sure Thing.

Jackson, Miss., July 25.—Returns from the primaries held in Mississippi prove beyond question that Governor M'Laurin will be senator from Mississippi to the present time. M'Laurin has 72 instructed votes to his credit and only 90 are necessary to elect. A recapitulation of the counties yet to hold primaries gives assurance that M'Laurin is certain of 18 more votes and has a fighting chance in the probability of being considered by the conservatives as doubtful.

"Private" John Allen, the opposing candidate, has 38 votes.

Call for Beef Tongue.

St. Paul Globe: If my critics can point to one thing in my official career that I have done that I ought not to have done, or that I have not done that I should have done, I shall be very glad to surrender my present official duties.—Russell A. Alger.

Oh, beef, where is thy tongue?

Senator Ross, of Vermont, was once an expert on snowshoes and the swiftest racer on them within several miles of his home.

ELIHU ROOT IS THE NEW WAR SECRETARY

IS CONGRATULATED BY ALGER

Retiring Secretary Sent His Successor a Letter Yesterday Urging Him to Accept the President's Offer.

The president leaves for the Adirondacks the middle of next week. Alger is expected to resign and consult with him there.

Secretary Alger had confidently expected the appointment of Mr. Root and was very much pleased at the president's choice. This was evidenced in the following letter which Secretary Alger addressed yesterday to his successor:

"My Dear Mr. Root—All I know is what the newspapers say, that you are to succeed me as secretary of war. Should it come to you I most urgently urge you to make a sacrifice and accept the position. With your knowledge of law and your excellent health you can serve the country in a way given to few men. Sincerely yours,

"R. A. Alger."

IT'S ARBITRATION OR WAR

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Sensational Statement on Alaskan Boundary Dispute.

Toronto, July 22.—A special from Ottawa says:

A violent criticism of the American position concerning the Alaskan boundary was made by Sir Charles Tupper at this morning's sitting of the house brought forth a statement from Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

"It is clear," he said, "there are only two ways in which the difficulty may now be settled, arbitration or war. I have no hope at this moment that we can settle the question by compromise. No one wants war. We must exhaust every means of removing the difficulty by peaceful methods. I have not given up the hope that it is possible to agree to an arbitration. Negotiations are still going on. We must find some means of bringing about a peaceful settlement."

FINED $100 FOR POLYGAMY.

Mormon Church Leader Must Quit Living With Fourth Wife.

JRGES CANADIANS TO BE CALM

James Gazette Alarmed at Utterances of Tupper and Laurier.

London, July 25.—Commenting upon the debate in the Canadian parliament Saturday regarding the Alaskan boundary question the St. James Gazette says:

"The brisk air of the United States and Canada is conducive to strong words, which would never pass the lips of an European statesman until the order to mobilize was given of issuing. No one thinks of war in connection with the Canadian-American dispute. Yet, since it is we who will have to fight if Canada makes the quarrel, we must plead with our fellow subjects to use a quieter style. If Sir Charles Tupper's words mean anything, he desires the presentation of an ultimatum which could only mean war. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, though calmer, was tolerably emphatic. As things are going now, we are drifting to a very serious diplomatic collision with the United States, which Great Britain is earnestly anxious to avoid."

LARGE FORCE UNDER ARMS.

Eight Hundred Soldiers Under Arms at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 25.—All the available military force in Cleveland is under arms. Early this morning a call was issued for Battery A, First Ohio artillery, three companies of the Tenth Ohio infantry and the Cleveland Rifles, an organization which could only mean war. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, though calmer, was tolerably emphatic. As things are going now, we are drifting to a very serious diplomatic collision with the United States, which Great Britain is earnestly anxious to avoid."

MARTINELLI AT MADISON.

Madison, Wis., July 25.—The most noted service in the history of western Catholicism occurred here yesterday, when Apostolic Delegate Martinelli, attended by a distinguished retinue of archbishops, bishops and priests, sang pontifical mass in St. Raphael's church. The big edifice was crowded to the doors. Bishop Burke, of St. Paul, and the papal nuncio, the apostolic nuncios were held last evening.

The clergyman present at the mass were: Archbishop Kazer of Milwaukee, Bishop Messmer of Green Bay, Bishop Burke of St. Joseph, Mo., Fathers W. J. Dalton of Kansas City, J. A. He will leave Green Bay Thursday night for Clifton, N. Y., to visit the eastern summer school.

He will leave Clifton on the following Tuesday for Washington, stopping at Philadelphia on his way. The apostolic delegate highly commended the officers of the western summer school for the superior grade of work being done.

MAILBOX ROBBER HOGAN CAUGHT

He Escaped From Ohio Penitentiary

Columbus, O., July 25.—Timothy Hogan, the noted mail box robber, who escaped from the penitentiary May 8 last, was returned to the penitentiary Saturday night.

It was almost impossible to get Hogan to tell a word, but he finally consented to his capture in New York. He was in a vacant house when surrounded by the police to the door and he was captured. He said that there was little chance of escape and fled to a room in the house, in which he meant to go into hiding, but upon entering the room three revolvers were immediately pointed into his face and he could do nothing but throw up his hands.

In getting his escape from the penitentiary in a box he said he was about to give up more than once and call for help, as one of the slats had become loosened from the box, which he was carrying, and the tobacco was falling upon him, which almost smothered him. He had a knife with him to cut a hole in the box in case he needed air, but he was not allowed to use it. As soon as the boxes were unloaded he kicked off one of the slats with his foot and escaped from his hiding place. He left Columbus the next day. His capture reveals his whereabouts up to the time of his capture.

SERIOUS RIOTING IN CLEVELAND SUNDAY

Street Car Loaded with Passengers Blown Up and Several Persons Badly Hurt.

MORE TROOPS ARE NEEDED

Mayor Farley Declares He Will Call for Four More Companies Today—Clashes Occur With Police.

Cleveland, O., July 25.—The rioting which continued throughout Saturday night was continued Sunday and there were several severe outbreaks of violence, but no clashes between the mobs and the troops.

Cars were started running as usual in the morning on all but one or two lines. Soon after 1 o'clock a thousand or more persons gathered on Burton street and proceeded to obstruct the track. When a car came along with two policemen on board it was attacked by a shower of stones. In spite of the policemen the non-union motorman and conductor were roughly handled. One of the policemen fired at the mob, the bullet striking a man named Wenick. The mob assaulted the officers, both of whom were struck repeatedly with stones, and but for the intervention of a Catholic priest the officers might have been lynched. A patrol wagon loaded with policemen arriving, the rioters dispersed, and the cars were taken back to the bars.

There was a serious disturbance on the Broadway line at the corner of Petrie street, where a mob of 3,000 assembled in the afternoon and obstructed the track. Finally a car came along having on board Sergeant Burrows and a private of militia and Detective Kelo. The officer ordered the mob to disperse, but the rioters showed fight. Then Sergeant Burrows and the one soldier, with fixed bayonets, faced the mob and aimed a few shots. There was a sharp fight for a few minutes, during which a perfect shower of stones fell about the detective and the soldiers, some smashing the car windows. The police afterward charged the mob, making several arrests.

The military on guard at the Holman avenue barns on the south side were annoyed during the greater part of the day by a jeering mob and fifteen arrests were made there with the assistance of the police.

On the afternoon a mob of 1,000 conceived the idea of blocking the track on Orange street by placing a big boiler in the middle of the street and building a fire around it.

The plan worked successfully, and cars were delayed for nearly an hour, when the police drove the mob away, but out the fire and the obstacle was removed. Three men were sent to the hospital with wounds made by policemen's clubs.

As a result of the shooting of the driver of a grocery wagon in South Brooklyn yesterday by a non-union conductor, the mayor of that village issued an order to the marshal to arrest all non-union conductors who carried concealed weapons.

The non-union conductor found was stopped and arrested. All were subsequently bailed out by the company. A small riot was started at the corner of Pearl street and Franklin avenue, when a young woman struck a man who asked her to board a non-union car. A crowd of union sympathizers stoned the car, and a squad of police finally cleared the street.

Car Blown Up.

A Euclid avenue car loaded with passengers was wrecked by an explosion of dynamite which occurred before 11 o'clock last night. Four persons were badly hurt. The names of the injured: Mrs. E. C. Martin, compound fracture of the skull, right arm broken and internal injuries, which may prove fatal.

Albert E. Fassett, bruised injured.

Dora Schlessner, bruised about the body.

The police are searching for the buggy in which the dynamite is supposed to have ridden.

The explosion tore out the front end of the car, smashed all the windows and destroyed the brake. After considerable search for the dynamite, a call for ambulances was sent out. The motorman, Wm. Draggers, who came from Cincinnati, was dazed by the shock. The force of the explosion was so great that it shook all the houses in the neighborhood, and was heard for a mile or two around the city. There is no clue to the identity of the person who placed the explosive on the track. Persons living in the neighborhood say they saw a man in a buggy stop at the corner of Kensington street, where the explosion occurred and get out of the tracks, and then drove rapidly away.

After the explosion a large crowd assembled, and those who were suffering from the shock were cared for until the ambulances arrived. Most of the hurts were confined to bruises about the feet and legs. Mrs. Martin fainted before she was taken from the car. All were taken to their homes in ambulances.

Passengers who were on the car say the explosion seemed to lift the whole front end of the car, and it tipped over the floor for more than half the distance from the front end. The car was, in fact, a complete wreck, but, strange to say, it did not leave the track and was taken to the barn by the next outbound motor.

The police were immediately summoned to the scene of the explosion, and a force of men was detailed to investigate with a view to running down the person who placed the explosive on the track.

NO HOPE FOR MRS. MAYBRICK

London, July 25.—In the common Michael Davitt asked the government if, in view of the fact that the conduct of Mrs. Maybrick in prison had been uniformly good, the home office would not recommend royal clemency in her case.

Sir Mathew White Ridley, home secretary, said he was unable to hold out hope of exceptional treatment for Mrs. Maybrick. The home secretary added that he was not aware of the existence of any reason for royal clemency.

ALLISON TALKS OF TRUSTS.

Says Republican Party Always Opposed Illegal Combinations.

Narragansett Pier, R. I., July 25.

"If the democratic friends who have been making such a loud outcry against combinations of capital will bring forth a bill at the next session of congress designed to restrain injurious trusts they will see that the question of trusts is not a political one. There is no necessity for waiting until after the campaign of 1900 before bringing this question to an issue. I maintain that the republican party is no more responsible for the enormous outgrowth of organized capital than the democratic party, the populist party, or the socialist party."

These are the words of Senator William B. Allison, of Iowa, chairman of the senate committee on appropriations. At present he is at Narragansett Pier, with Senators Burrows of Michigan, Platt of Connecticut and Aldrich of Rhode Island, for the purpose of drafting a party currency reform bill.

"Continuing he said: "The republican party is now and always has been against illegal combinations of capital. When I say this I mean precisely what the phrase implies. If proof of this is needed it is sufficient to refer one to the Sherman anti-trust law of 1890, which occupies a conspicuous place on our statute books today. The law, embodying as it does the views of some of the ablest lawyers in the senate, was designed by republicans and passed by a republican senate.

"If I mistake not, the venerable Senator Edmunds, of Vermont, was chairman of the judiciary committee when this law was framed, and such well-known lawyers as Vest of Missouri, Pugh of Alabama, and the late Senator George of Mississippi, all veteran democrats, were on the committee when the Sherman bill, as it came from the committee, was the best measure that could have been formulated.

"It may be, however, that developments of the last four or five years have necessitated some modifications or amendments to the Sherman law. If such be the fact, and our democratic friends, who seem to be pretty busy just now in endeavoring to load upon republican shoulders all the trust evils, can suggest a remedy for these evils, I am ready to accept it, and to bring it forward, as I suggest above.

"I seriously question whether it is within the power of the federal government to deal directly with the alleged trust evil.

"What of republican prospects?" was asked.

"Very better," replied the senator with a smile.

"The old ticket over again?"

"Yes, and I believe without opposition. At this time I foresee nothing to prevent the re-election of McKinley and Hobart."

"Still, you undoubtedly believe the democratic party in the south, southwest and west will not consent to elect the silver question, and with Bryan as their standard bearer?"

"I look like Bryan, now, don't I?" they will undoubtedly make the same old fight over again."

ROOSEVELT TO INVESTIGATE.

Will Look Into Strikers' Charges Against Traction Companies.

New York, July 25.—Governor Roosevelt, it is said, is taking personal cognizance of complaints that have been made by street car employees about the alleged wholesale violation of the ten-hour law by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company and the Metropolitan street railway. The governor is not pleased, it is said, with the way the overtures of the board of mediation and arbitration have been met by the presidents of these two companies and has requested the board of mediation to investigate into the alleged violations. Both companies, when their employees complained and members of the board offered their services, declared there was nothing to arbitrate. The governor is of the impression there is something to arbitrate. The companies are violating the ten-hour law. He does not compel them to arbitrate, but if the law is being violated he desires the fact to be known. It is said the governor very likely will be heard from on the subject if the situation is as bad as the strikers have painted it.

Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is a Constitutional Cure. Price 75 cents.

Washington Evening Star: "One reads so many stories of men of eminent intelligence that it would be hazardous for a doubter to express his disbelief in almost any gathering of men at the present day," remarked a well-known Washington politician. "I have known a number of instances where a man of high intelligence, after a number of years ago when I was studying medicine that convinced me that the new method of treating catarrh of the bladder at least be credited with the possession of a very considerable amount of reasoning power. I have known a number of students at the medical institution at which I pursued my studies to wear a certain physical defect, which they distinguished from others at the college. A horse belonging to the establishment was used as a great deal of medical department, and the animal seemed to have a special preference for the embryo of the horse. The great danger of the disease was that a number of us were gathered in a little circle under a lawn in the rear of the college, the animal in question had used to be turned loose to nip the grass in the locality, came toward the group limping very badly. He came to a stop a dozen or more feet away from the crowd, and carefully surveying the lot of us, finally made up his mind what he wanted to do, and without any hesitation limped directly to my side, whinnied, stuck his nose against me, and then limped away to the forelock. Looking down, I discovered a large nail imbedded in the frog of his nose. The great danger of the disease, I learned, and I soon realized the interesting fact that the animal desired me to help him. He was very intelligent, and I had some difficulty, and the horse whinnied with relief and walked away. Being in a hurry, I did not stop to pick me out to attend to the wound. I glanced at my fellow students and found the solution of the problem. One of the group had his medical badge upon his coat, but myself. # The Donkey Was the Radical.

Pittsburg Dispatch: A story—unearthed from nobody knows where—is being circulated concerning the late election of Lord Charles Belford to the house of commons. He was returned from York City. While the vote were being polled a costermonger arrived on the scene to record his vote. His donkey was decked out in sumptuous green ribbons, the emblems of Belford's opponent. The vote having been asked the customary question, answered shortly, "I go for Lord Charley, Lord bless him!" Thereupon the members of the opposing faction made a dash for the good man to convince him that according to the emblems he carried he must cast his vote for their candidate. Thus challenged, he replied, "Oh, it's all right, I'm sorry; it's my donkey that's a radical, but he's an ass."

REGISTER OF TREASURY.

Hon. Judson W. Lyons, Register of the United States Treasury, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says:

Per-una Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O.

Gentlemen—I find Per-una to be an excellent remedy for the catarrhal affections of spring and summer, and those who suffer from depression from the heat of the summer will find no remedy the equal of Per-una.

Judson W. Lyons.

No man is better known in the financial world than Judson W. Lyons. His name on every piece of money of recent date, makes his signature one of the most familiar ones in the United States. Hon. Lyons' address is Augusta, Ga. He is a member of the National Republican Committee, and is a prominent and influential politician. He is a particular friend of President McKinley.

Remember that choera morbus, cholera infantum, summer complaint, bilious colic, diarrhoea and dysentery, catarrh of the bowels, the Stomach, Catarrh of the bladder, Per-una is an absolute specific for all these ailments, which are so common in summer. Dr. Hartman, in a practice of over forty years, never met a case of any of these ailments, which are so common in summer, or other morbus, and his only remedy was Per-una. Those desiring further particulars, send for a free copy of "Signe's Catarrh" and dress Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

An Age of Experts.

Richmond Times: This is peculiarly an age of experts. It is peculiarly an age when the man who expects to succeed must very early choose his path, and his ability must be shown in early life by giving himself the benefit of special training in the direction indicated, must concentrate his whole mind, heart and strength upon the subject which he is pursuing and must not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

"Why, we named our organization the 'Daughters of More Freedom.'"

Convincing Instance.

Washington Evening Star: "One reads so many stories of men of eminent intelligence that it would be hazardous for a doubter to express his disbelief in almost any gathering of men at the present day," remarked a well-known Washington politician. "I have known a number of instances where a man of high intelligence, after a number of years ago when I was studying medicine that convinced me that the new method of treating catarrh of the bladder at least be credited with the possession of a very considerable amount of reasoning power. I have known a number of students at the medical institution at which I pursued my studies to wear a certain physical defect, which they distinguished from others at the college. A horse belonging to the establishment was used as a great deal of medical department, and the animal seemed to have a special preference for the embryo of the horse. The great danger of the disease was that a number of us were gathered in a little circle under a lawn in the rear of the college, the animal in question had used to be turned loose to nip the grass in the locality, came toward the group limping very badly. He came to a stop a dozen or more feet away from the crowd, and carefully surveying the lot of us, finally made up his mind what he wanted to do, and without any hesitation limped directly to my side, whinnied, stuck his nose against me, and then limped away to the forelock. Looking down, I discovered a large nail imbedded in the frog of his nose. The great danger of the disease, I learned, and I soon realized the interesting fact that the animal desired me to help him. The horse had therefore plainly recognized the insignia and acted accordingly."

An Observing Young Man.

San Francisco Bulletin: Apropos of lamp shades, a funny thing happened lately in a family of vivacious but not over-wealthy girls. They are all ingenious—the kind to make a dress in the midst of fun and chaff, then dance in it all night. The great danger of the disease, I learned, and I soon realized the interesting fact that the animal desired me to help him. He was very intelligent, and I had some difficulty, and the horse whinnied with relief and walked away. Being in a hurry, I did not stop to pick me out to attend to the wound. I glanced at my fellow students and found the solution of the problem. One of the group had his medical badge upon his coat, but myself. A Slight Mistake.

A joke is told of one of our neighbors, which deserves immortality. Brig. Gen. Spinola early in the war was stationed in North Carolina, with a brigade under him, and as he was one of those mushroom commanders whom the stress of civil war had called up from civil life, he naturally enough intrusted the routine duty and drilling of the brigade to a major detailed for the purpose.

Call for Convention.

The Peoples Independent Party Electors will nominate candidates Aug. 22nd.

Lincoln, Neb., July 10, 1899.—The Peoples Independent Party electors of the state of Nebraska, are hereby requested to send delegates from their respective counties, to meet in convention in the city of Omaha on Tuesday, August 22, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m., at Creighton hall, corner of Fifteenth and Harney streets, for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices:

One Judge of the Supreme Court. Two regents of the State University, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention. The convention.

The representation is based upon one delegate for each county, and one delegate for each one hundred votes, or major fraction thereof, cast for Hon. W. A. Poynter for Governor at the election of 1898. Wayne county is entitled to representation as follows: Eight delegates.

It is recommended that no proxies be allowed, and that the delegates present cast the full vote of their respective delegations.

It is further recommended that nominations for county officers be made at the convention, selecting delegates to the state and judicial conventions. Where two conventions are held we would recommend that you reorganize the County Central Committee at your first convention, and send us the names and postoffice address of the Chairman and Secretary and Committeemen at once.

The headquarters of the committee at the time of the state convention will be at the Paxton Hotel, corner of Fourteenth and Farum streets, Omaha, Nebraska, where delegate tickets may be had.

Dr. Howard, the entomologist of the department of agriculture says that to do away with horses will do away almost wholly with flies. But wont we then see the automobile fly?

Some of the DEMOCRAT readers term the "Verdict" articles now being run in this paper as — unadulterated falsehoods. As a matter of fact the Verdict prints the absolute truth and is always able to prove every assertion made. It is the truth that galls the republicans.

Paris has paid $60,000 for snakes for her exposition. If she had expended a very small portion of that amount for the purchase of Cherokee bootleg whisky it would have been a better investment and there would have been more snakes seen.—Cherokee Democrat.

A Sioux City girl, Elsie Older, has captured a "kissing bug." The darn fool bug was monkeying around her window at her home and she got it in her handkerchief. It is not recorded that the bug attempted to kiss her. This may be taken as an evidence that the "kissing bug" doesn't get stuck on the older girls.

Attorney General Smyth has won new laurels for himself and the whole state in prosecuting to a successful issue the suit against ex-treasurer Bartley, in the Omaha courts last week. Nebraska has an able and unrelenting legal fighter in the person of the present attorney general who looks after its interest as has never been done before.

Last Saturday Governor Poynter bought a railroad ticket as long as a man's arm and is now on his way, accompanied by Adjutant General Barry and Judge Advocate Stark, to San Francisco to welcome the First Nebraska regiment on its arrival there. These distinguished gentllemen go to assist in looking after the sick and wounded boys on their return home again and no pains will be spared to make them comfortable and the balance of their journey home pleasant as possible.

The World-Herald says:—A fair correspondent asks us how to avoid the "kissing bug." We would say that if the "kissing bug" wears a silk hat, with a frock coat, a torture collar, with a negligé shirt, curls his mustache and smokes cigarettes, the best way to get rid of him is to smash him over the head with a piece of lead pipe, he being incapable of taking a hint. If, on the other hand, the "bug" dresses neatly and with due regard for common sense, saves his money and don't fozzle away his time playing golf, we advise our fair correspondent to cultivate him instead of avoiding him. We hope we have made our position clear.

The recent flop of Senator Thurston will throw the advocates for a single gold standard into a rather awkward "posish." In fact it keeps them a guessing to keep up with flopper Thurston. The fact is that Thurston and every other republican in Nebraska were bimetalists until Mark Hanna gave the order to flop—now that Mark Hanna is absent in England fishing for campaign boodle—Thurston has taken another flop and is trying to get back to the people, but whether his intentions are honorable or whether he is simply making an attempt to hoodwink them again on the international fozzle is a question. Thurston has betrayed the people to often to easily gain their confidence again.

The republican party must be very hard up for campaign material when they attack a man for standing by his friends and showing that he possesses some degree of gratitude, the most admirable trait of character one can possess. This morning's Bee accuses Secretary W. F. Porter of purchasing carpet for his office from a firm, a member of which is on his official bond. The paper does not state that the carpet was not purchased as cheap if not cheaper than from any other firm in the city, but simply puts Porter on the rack for buying the carpet from a friend rather than trading with one of his avowed enemies. What a crime this is to be sure. Of all the dark and dastardly crimes perpetrated by any of the fusion state officials this is certainly the most flagrant.

The house rent item in Governor Holcomb's administration seems to be a bug-bear in the eyes of the republican state smelling committee. It is true the governor did accept the house rent as specified by law, but did no more nor less. They failed to say anything about Gov. Thayer who drew out $2000 house rent in advance and the very next day his wife bought a new residence.

It has been the custom to furnish the governor a home by paying rent, and legislatures have always made appropriations for it without reserve. Governors Boyd and Crouse are the only executives who vetoed that item in the general appropriation but these governors lived in Omaha. The republican legislature last winter appropriated $25,000 to buy an executive mansion for the governor, so much did they see the necessity thereof. It should be borne in mind that $400 was left in the treasury of the Holcomb house rent fund which these astute gentlemen seem to omit in their investigations.

THE FAKE SMELLING COMMITTEE.

The republican ringsters of Nebraska have had some pretty rough sledding of late years. Occasionally they, in their efforts to get their snouts into the public feed trough, would ge-

The greatest danger to life in the city is not the car with its clanging gong, but those silent invisible foes, the germs of disease. The prevalence of consumption in cities is largely due to the frequent expectation of diseased persons, whose dried sputa mixed with the dust and blown into the air, is inhaled by some luckless man or woman. Sanitation may minimize these perils but can never obliterate them. The essential thing is to educate every person to the knowledge that the germ can find no permanent lodgment in a healthy body. Keep the blood pure, the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition in sound health and you are practically germ proof.

This disease resisting condition is obtained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves, and heals the lungs. Even when there is obstinate cough, bronchitis, spitting of blood and other conditions, which, if neglected, lead to consumption, the faithful use of Golden Medical Discovery will, in almost every instance, effect a cure.

"I was taken sick in July last year, and was not able to do any kind of work until November," writes Mr. Noel W. Orvin, of Langley, Alaska. "I had been coughing up small hard lumps of phlegm for about a year before I was taken sick. I called a doctor, who said that one-half of my left lung was gone and advised me to leave my home and go to the country. I wrote to you for advice. I took your bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I sincerely believe has done me more good than all the other medicines I have ever taken."

some disappointed fusion office hunter to swear to something sensational, but it don't wash with the people. Just now they are going over the "ballot frauds" which they have thrashed for the third time. Their chief witness is the man who wanted a job from the pops and was turned down. He immediately turned "states evidence." Another witness is one Ole Nedlund, who was Gene Moore's deputy auditor. He didn't know anything about Gene's shortcomings but could smell a pop scandal a mile away. Since he was jarred loose from the public crib he has been a political striker for Chairman Snyder's (of beet sugar bounty fame) state committee. This is the material that the g. o. p. are utilizing to regain the people's regard and confidence. They forget Abraham Lincoln's remarks that you can't fool the people all the time, but the fellows who are running the g. o. p. in Nebraska have darned little use for Abe Lincoln or anything he said. The committee who are handling the investigation are republican senators with no authority of law. They tried to get an appropriation of $2,000 through to feed on but the governor cut it off.—Pender Times.

THE VERDICT
What does a glance bestow by way of picture? It is black, black, black with a prurient Republicanism. Money is above merit and the dollar more important than the man. Corruption and snobbishness are in conjunction. And they set the fashion. Slowly yet surely money is shifting our theories, whether of business, society or state. It is digging at the base of every American thing. One sees it in a White House, pawned and pledged to a Hanna-headed syndicate who "loaned" to it. One note is with the Donagys and the Rainfords in the pulpit; or hears it pipingly from some university, as some "professor" says his slight and narrow prayers and burns to his musty incense of his aloofed flattery. Money is King, and labor its cupbearer. Money is mounted and rides down labor as it pleads. What is a review of the past three years at Washington, save a review of money? McKinley in the White House—by money, Hanna with a seat in the senate, the power behind, before, under, over, and all about the throne—by money. Twenty million paid to Spain—for money; and to profit Spanish bondholders. Three millions paid to Cuba—for money; and to be subsequently sapped up by invading American corporations who suggested and urged its payment. A war in the Orient; a war all blood and un-Americanism, waged—for money, and to make fat a list of contractors. A plot to disgrace an Admiral—for money. A conspiracy to degrade a General—for money. There isn't one act of government that fails to find its last foot on money. Manhood is nothing; dollars go for all. Whether it be Abner McKinley as a spectacle diving into contracts; or Oberlin Carter, convicted, sentenced and dismissed the army for the ing off his whisky with one jerk like the comedian in the "Black Sheep" they find fault, eh? Do you know one thing? Do you know that Crockrell, for instance, isn't worth a dollar, even if he is senator; and that "Dave" Francis is worth two million? Do you know that? I said I did. "Then," went on Cleveland, whacking the table so as to startle the bottle and glasses into a jump of two inches. "I'll tell you another thing: A man who, like "Dave" Francis, is worth $2,000,000, is just two million times as much interested in the welfare of this government as a man like Crockrell, who isn't worth $1, and should be listened to by a President just two million times as much." And as it was in the day of Cleveland, so it is in that of McKinley! Money is listened to, and nothing but money. And manhood—mere man!—as feathers to anvils compared thereto!

There's our precious war of the Philippines, for which its best friends—the beef ring and kindred birds of contract prey—can find nothing better than apology. Do you know what it costs? The other day the Verdict, in speaking of the 800 annual millions appropriated by last congress for public expense, and which McKinley (Hanna) would have you to believe was brought so high by this war, took occasion to say that the war was fought on borrowed money. That no part of the deficit of 114 millions and which the administration is busy lying down to some 88 millions—was caused by the war. If you care to know what this war—for money—costs; also how much of the deficit—for money—was caused by the war, lend your eye to the following: Official figures are invited to put the deficit at $88,875,000, and the public is led to believe that this loss is due to the war with Spain. As a matter of fact the war with Spain did not cause the deficit. On the contrary, if there had been no war and no war taxes the deficit would have been larger, and started the country. Republican crime and contract loot have been hidden by the war. The cost of the war is shown thus:

War department	$229,000,000	$92,000,000
Navy	65,000,000	59,000,000
Total	$294,000,000	$151,000,000
Subtract from $294,000,000 the cost of both departments in 1898, and have; cost of the war, $143,000,000. To meet the cost of the war Congress voted extra taxes and a bond issue. The returns from these taxes are seen in the following table:
Increase in tobacco tax	$ 15,000,000
Increase in spirit tax	7,000,000
Increase in beer and ale tax	40,000,000
Stamp tax	42,000,000
Miscellaneous internal revenue	8,000,000
Total	$112,000,000
Sales of Pacific railroad bonds	$ 12,000,000
Sales of war bonds	175,000,000
Total increase over 1898	$299,000,000
Expenses of the war	143,000,000
Extra revenue not used for war purposes	$156,000,000

Thus it will be seen that, so far from the war having caused the deficit, it actually produced an extra revenue of $156,000,000; and yet the total deficit for the year is $88,875,000. If there had been no war and no war taxes, the deficit would have been $444,875,000. Democrats might do well to paste these statistics in their sornobers. "War" has been used by the administration to shelter swindles, and buckler corruption from discovery.

Belden News:—"What the city dailies clip from the country papers has struck the editor of one of them as passing strange. The dailies usually pass right by what a fellow thinks over when he writes it and sort out some tommyrot of a squib that was simply shoved in on the spur of the moment to save sawing off a chunk of plate with a jack knife. This is a poser, unless it be a sly intimation that county editors know most when they don't think."

presumably has no grudges to feed and favorites to reward. His pressing duty is to secure an honorable peace with the natives of those islands. That they want peace is conceded. The United States does not wish to enslave them or tyrannize over them, but desires that they shall be free, happy and prosperous. With these benevolent purposes in view and with an adequate force to overcome the malcontents, there is no reason pacification of the Islands should be a slow or difficult task. Gen. Otis, honest and painstaking though he be, is not the man to pacify the Filipinos. The general commanding the army, Nelson A. Miles, is the man to perform this great work. He should be sent to the Philippines at the earliest possible date to set right the affairs which A'ger and Otis have bogged so persistently.

Secretary Root has here a great opportunity to distinguish himself and to serve the nation well—Chicago Record.

There has been considerable discussion about the bad quality of brick going into the foundation of the new court house, and that the brick are bad goes undisputed. That the whole foundation be condemned is imperative and the DEMOCRAT hopes the proper parties look after this matter. It may be that Superintendent Lundburg is acting under instructions but that should "cut no ice" with the taxpayers. The foundations must be thrown out and built with brick, not clay.

SUDDEN DEATH OF

"BOB" INGERSOLL

Apoplectic Stroke Ends the Life of the Great American Agnostic.

"OH, BETTER" HIS LAST WORDS

Had Been Feeling Unwell for Several Days, but His Illness Was Not Considered Serious.

New York, July 24.—Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll died at his home, Walden-on-Hudson, near Dobbs Ferry, yesterday afternoon. His death was sudden and unexpected and resulted from heart disease, from which he had suffered since 1898. In that year, during the republican national convention, he was taken ill and had to return home. He never recovered from the attack of heart disease and was under the care of physicians constantly. For the last three days Mr. Ingersoll had not been feeling well, but Thursday night seemed to be better than he had been since when he retired. Yesterday morning he arose at his usual hour and joined the family at breakfast. He then said he had spent a bad night, but felt better. He had been suffering from abdominal pains and tightness about the chest. He did not think his condition at all dangerous. Colonel Ingersoll spent the morning swinging in a hammock and seated on the veranda with members of the family. He said he was better and had no pain. At 12:30 o'clock he started to go upstairs. On reaching the head of the stairs Colonel Ingersoll turned into his wife's room. The colonel and his wife discussed what they would have for luncheon. After talking for a few minutes Colonel Ingersoll crossed the room and sat down in a rocking chair. He leaned his head upon his hand, which rested on the back of the chair. Mrs. Ingersoll asked him how he was feeling, and he replied: "Oh, better."

These were his last words. A second after he uttered them she was dead. The only sign noticed by Mrs. Ingersoll was that the whites of his eyes suddenly showed. There was not even a sigh or a groan as death came. Doctors were hastily called, but their verdict was that death had come instantly. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral, but it will probably take place Monday at the house and the interment will be in Sleepy Hollow cemetery at Tarrytown.

Mrs. Ingersoll was the only person in the room, although various other members of the family were present in the house at the time when he died. Death came to him as he recently expressed a desire that it should. He often times said he wished to die slowly with a full consciousness so he might tell those about him how he felt. Recently he expressed a desire to change of desire to die painlessly and without warning.

ACTS ON ARBITRATION.

Third Committee of the Hague Adopts Most of the Articles. The Hague, July 24.—The third committee has adopted the thirty-four articles of the arbitration scheme, with the exception of the five clauses relating to international courts of inquiry, sections on which various delegations, and sections from the Roumanian and Serbian governments to their delegates.

An effort was made to obtain the substitution in article 27 of the words, "deem it useful" for the phrase "consider it their duty." This was rejected. Captain Mahan, of the American delegation, declared that he could not modify his views and that he would maintain his previous attitude. The American delegates explained that they voted with the British delegation on the subject of explosive bullets because they did not wish to modify their objection to any kind of restriction upon the production of war material. Captain Mahan and Sir Julian Pauncefote finally moved the suppression of the clauses proposing a formal convention upon the other three points of the Muraviev circular. This was agreed to, and the amended report will be submitted to the full conference tomorrow, when it will be decided whether the conclusion of a convention upon the three disputed points is possible. A fresh convention for adapting to naval warfare the Geneva convention of 1864 will also be submitted to the conference.

PHILIPPINES MISSION WORK.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the Island. New York, July 24.—General Secretary Wood, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, has received information of the organization in Manila of the first Episcopal or Church of England work in the Philippine Islands. Preliminary services had been maintained since March in parlors of resident members of the Church of England by Rev. Dr. Charles C. Pierce, chaplain of the United States Army. A report has been made by John Howe Peyton, who, with some other workers, was sent out by the Brotherhood and went to Manila under a commission of Bishop Deane, of Albany, to investigate the religious conditions in the Philippines and return in time to report to the missionary council at St. Louis in October. In his report Peyton says a building has been opened across the street from the principal barracks in Malate and named Church house. Rev. Hugh Nethercott, the Episcopal clergyman, has two lay workers. An adjunct of this is a Trinity Church house in Manila is a medical dispensary to which many poor Filipinos have already applied for relief. Two men sent out by the Brotherhood are at work in Manila hospitals and one conducts in the church house a class of young Filipino men who are learning English. Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of a site for a church. A missionary committee has been organized and charged with the duty of church extension in the Philippines.

MEXICAN LOAN ATTACHED.

Republic May Be Compelled to Pay Repudiated Claim. New York, July 24.—By a shrewd legal move in this city, the Republic of Mexico may be compelled to pay or compromise an ancient and long-ago repudiated claim against it for millions of dollars.

An attachment has been served on J. P. Morgan & Co., with whom the Republic of Mexico is alleged to have secured a loan. The attachment was issued by Judge Gleason in the supreme court and is based on a judgment in favor of John G. Hassard for $3,075,000. Mr. Hassard eventually succeeds in getting the money the case will be in some respects remarkable. His claim extends back to the turbulent days of the revolution which finally threw the Emperor Maximilian from power and founded the republic. Prior to and during the war, in order to raise money to carry it on, many of the Mexican states negotiated loans on bonds, disposing of them wherever a market could be found. When the present republic was finally formed by an amalgamation of all the states, many of the states repudiated their debt and refused to pay them by refunding in bonds of the republic. In this deal some of the holders of the original bonds were left out through failure to take proper steps or ignorance of the scheme.

To this class of debtors belongs Mr. Hassard. He became the owner through a business transaction of $3,075,000 of the bonds issued by the United States of Mexico and the state of Tamaulipas and San Luis Potosi, each bond being for $100, bearing 7 per cent. interest from the date of issue, September 1, 1865. They were redeemable after twenty years. Mr. Hassard made strenuous attempts to obtain payment of his principal claim from the Mexican government, but got no satisfaction. Eventually he brought suit, and years of litigation resulted, ending in his obtaining judgment. Mr. Hassard, however, has never been able to find any property of the defendant government within the jurisdiction of the United States. His opportunity came recently, when a Mexican government admitted to J. P. Morgan & Co. a loan for $110,000,000. It is understood that $25,000,000 of these bonds are to be disposed of in the United States and Amsterdam while the remainder are assigned to England and Germany. The bonds have so far had a ready sale on the curb at prices ranging slightly above par. They are quoted today at 100 1/2. The money is to be loaned into the hands of J. P. Morgan & Co. from the sale of these bonds is subject to Mr. Hassard's attachment. The principal and interest on the bonds Mr. Hassard holds now amount to more than a certificate will be given by J. P. Morgan & Co., stating that property of the United States of Mexico and the United States is in the firm's possession, and the property will either be handed over to the custody of the sheriff to await the outcome of the suit, or a bond given to secure the production of the property when demanded by the court.

GOLD TO SPARE.

Mint Director Discusses the Klondike Output. New York, July 24.—George E. Roberts, director of the mint, discussing the output of gold from the Klondike country said: "We already have received $11,000,000 in gold from the Klondike this calendar year. That is as much as last year's entire receipt from that region amounted to, and from information received from the Klondike it is believed that this year's total yield will reach $18,000,000 to $20,000,000. We shall have all the gold we need in these parts this year and in addition shall no doubt be able to supply the metal to anyone else who desires to purchase it."

LEVIES A FORCED LOAN.

Mobile, Ala., July 24.—Mail advice from a steamer by the last from the steamer indicate that the latest revolt in Nicaragua, in the Meridional department, is causing the administration of President Zelaya serious concern. Since the rising of General Reyes in the Bluefields region, there have been no communications from that region against Zelaya that he has succeeded with aid from the liberal administrations of Honduras and Salvador. It is said in a letter received in this city that Zelaya has issued an order for a forced loan of $900,000, to be raised immediately, and the president has instructed departmental commanders to insist that every available resident of Nicaragua assist the republic without delay. The letter adds that the censorship exercised mainly by the governmental control of the telegraph lines is to learn "any news of the revolution in Nicaragua except that sent through the press of this country from bordering republics not in sympathy with Zelaya, but that the fact of a forced levy tell eloquently the distress of the Zelaya administration."

TALKS THROUGH FAMOUS MEDIUM

Mrs. Cora Richmond Delivers an Address Under His "Control," but Auditors Fail to Recognize Ingersoll.

Springfield, Mo., July 23.—Fully 5,000 people attended the Zoo park Spiritualist camp meeting last night to hear Mrs. Cora L. V. Richmond deliver an address under the control of Robert G. Ingersoll. Mrs. Richmond claims to have been the first earth medium through whom the spirit of Henry Ward Beecher found a voice. Under a song by the choir President Underwood introduced the medium to the eager audience. No speaker ever had a more attentive hearing. There was not a whisper or a movement in the crowded pavilion. Mrs. Richmond began to speak in the first person, addressing the audience as Colonel Ingersoll, and describing the sensation experienced in dying. She said that Ingersoll spoke, through her, as follows: "I take the first opportunity to inform my friends of my condition. My soul stands by my clay body. Had I been true to my convictions I would have bowed to the spirit land. Now I learn my mistake and am here to warn others. I found no hell; neither heaven with abalaster streets, no throned monarch with angels playing harps for his delight. I found joy such as comes to a mariner when in the dark and storm-tossed sea a ray of light appears. "From the awful death silence comes surpassing glory, spiritual life. Friends welcome me; loved ones gone before call me. I did not travel to a distant land, but was there in awakening. I saw a mystery, but it was not as he really dead?" I saw eyes coming toward me and welcoming me to the spirit land. "First I thought, 'Is this a dream?' Next I realized I was in a land of spirits. I felt as one shut up in an airtight enclosure; then released. A heavy cloud seemed to fall and I entered the spirit world. "I received a message about a future life; nothing I said against theology. "The difference between the theological heaven and hell and this realm is as great as life and death. Death does not separate from harmonious existence. I hail chairman and friends. Come, weary and doubtful, I will show you the spirit solution. "The spirit said that the other life was yet a mystery, but that no announcement of unconsciousness interrupted at death. In passing out of the body there was no pain, but a quickened sensation, as though debris had resulted. "The message spoke of the agnostics' failure to investigate the evidences of immortality and candidly returned my 'materialistic' views that Colonel Ingersoll had ever taught. While doubting a future life, the speaker had always longed for one and never felt satisfied with his philosophy when standing by the side of an open grave. With respect to his own life, he was a logical superstitious and bigoted. The spirit of the great free thinker had no word of apology to make. Colonel Ingersoll had found no wrathful wardens guarding the tree of life, no yawning abyss for a single erring soul, no throned monarch of the spirit world with angels tuning their harps for his delight. "There was no flight through space in reaching the other life, but the two worlds seemed to intermingle. The spirits live and move with the sphere of earth life. The sense of liberty grows rapidly with the consciousness of the spirit released from its earthly moorings. vast vistas of golden lights mark the future course of the spirit in its exploration of the new world of life and freedom. "The spirit had already discovered that each soul enters into an inheritance of his thoughts and deeds in this life immediately at death. There was no escaping the law of compensation and retribution. Whatsoever is sown in this world must be reaped in the next in the message which Mrs. Richmond delivered from Colonel Ingersoll. "The address lasted about a half hour, and closed with a statement that speaking through a new instrument and organism was not easy or safe for the medium. The style of address was clear and sometimes elegant, but the language did not suggest Colonel Ingersoll's rhythmic, resonant eloquence. The audience felt the absence of the great orator's characteristic periods of eloquent repetition and an inspirational speaker was injured by her performance last night."

REVOLT IN PHILIPPINE CHURCH

Movement to Break Away From the Spanish Priesthood.

Manila, July 24.—6:15 p. m.—A Filipino priest named Gregorio Agripay, with the insurgents, is trying to lead a revolt among the priests of the church in the Philippines from the Spanish priesthood. The archbishop threatened to excommunicate the owners of Spanish papers publishing announcements of Protestant and Masonic meetings, whereupon an American paper warned him that he might be bundled out
