

Blank Books,
School Supplies,
Window Shades,
Wall Paper,
Pianos and Organs,
Musical Instruments.

We have recently added a superior line of wine, red ink for fine writing, fountain pens, etc. The DeWolf's nickel and Aluminum pens.

News Depot:
JONES' Bookstore.

LOCAL NEWS.

Take clock repairing to Mines.
Best buggies on earth—E. L. Jones
Dr. Heckert, dentist, over Miller's
W. A. Ivory, dentist, over First Nat. Bank.
Mrs. Fred Philoe entertains this evening.
WANTED—Good teamster. See J. C. Pawelski.
Try E. L. Miller & Son's Amazon brand Pickles.
A 14lb son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gus Mettlen this morning.
Mrs. T. Berry of South Sioux City is a guest of Wayne relatives.
Good pine kindlings only $1.25 per dray load. D. H. Sullivan.
Phone Homer Skeen for all type-writing work. Office over postoffice.
CORN CRIBBING will be higher, Buy Now of E. M. SMITH.
Bake with Success Patent. It is the flour that beats all others. $1 per sack.
Wakefield Journal: Ed. Pratt expects to move his family to Wayne the first of Nov.
BUGGIES—Just call at our repository and get our figures—you'll buy from Jones.
Nothing finer in the country than those beautiful new Bookcases and secretaries at Gaertner's.
There will be no miss-carriage of justice if you elect Hon. Andy Shinn county judge—not in Wayne county.
And then they were happily married after he had bought one of those new buggies of Eli Jones.
Now is the time to buy a set of dishes. P. L. Miller & Son carry eight different patterns in porcelain ware.

Delays are Dangerous.

Don't wait, supply yourself at once with some of those fine frost proof Blankets at Ahern's.

If you have any balky horses, bucking brooks or light-beeled mules you want broke and trained see me about it. J. C. PAWELSKI.

Candidates for office are likely to run down if not well fed. To be fat, healthy and successful should try P. L. Miller & Son's groceries.

Geo. Loebach entertained his friends last evening in honor of his birthday. The choir of the German Lutheran church, of which Mr. Loebach is a member, was present.

Mrs. Buyanywhere—"What lovely dishes you have, Mrs. Bargaingetter. Mrs. Bargaingetter—"Yes, they are lovely and they are cheap. I bought them at P. L. Miller & Son's store."

WANTED—A man to take the county right for a good paying business, money easily earned and only a small amount invested. Address: OMAHA WA. PAPER CLEANING CO. 715 So 13th, Omaha, Neb.

Ross Hammond says the republicans must concentrate their power to elect county judges this fall that a Mark Hanna strike of clerks and judges of election will handle the national ballots in 1900. Every fusion voter in the county should not only vote for Hon. Andy Shinn but get out and work for him until the polls are closed.

Remember the Special Cloak Sale
Next Monday, Oct. 30th, at AHERN'S.

Please come to my first party Oct. 25th; do not be tardy; and bring an extra "shift." Fetch along your mamma, your uncles or your aunts; come in little dresses or come in little pants," was the invitation sent to her months old friends by Miss Gladys Goldie for Wednesday of this week, from 2 to 5 o'clock. The little "creepers" had a good time and plenty of "music" with it. Master Myron Reed carried off the honors of the occasion, being the "best baby in the house"—because he did all the sleeping. Those present were Masters Myron Reed, Russell Marion James, Glen Bracy and Clare Brown; Misses Frances Kate, Suzanne Wightman, Elizabeth Mines and Gladys Goldie.

The Nebraska Democrat.

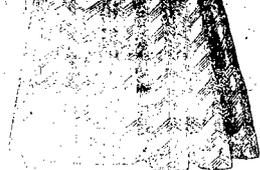

FOURTEENTH YEAR.

WAYNE, WAYNE COUNTY, NEB.. OCT. 27, 1899.

$1 PER YEAR.

READ THIS OVER.

Our Sales are Running Ahead of Prosperity.

Good times seem to be in evidence at the rate prosperity comes from every section of the country, but nowhere will a better object lesson in this respect than in this store, more people are buying goods here and buying them easier than ever before. We deserve a share of the credit of course, for no other store offers such values as these.

Boy's Clothing

- 3 piece suits for boys, value $2.50, our price $1.25.
- 2 piece suits, all wool, silk stitched, value $4.50, our price this week 2.95.
- 3 piece suits, silk stitched, fancy trimmed, $6.00, our price $3.50.
- 3 piece, clay woosted, guaranteed all wool, blue and black, for boys 16 to 19, $12.00 values, our price this week $7.50.
- Knee pants, all sizes 15c.

We are agents for W B Corsets

Hats.

In men's and boys caps they all look to us for price and quality as we always lead and never follow. Bring in the boys we can fit them in a good heavy cap for the winter at 15c worth 25c, and one unequalled at 25c. Men's caps from 25c to $1.25 in cloth, plush, silk lined. Come in and let us fit you.

Shoes, Shoes

Well I guess so, we can fit them all. Babies, Misses, Boys, ladies and men, both in shoes and overshoes at unheard of prices, think of it, fit the baby with nice shoes at a cost of 15c and the little miss at 25c while the boy and young lady will only cost you 75c.

Underwear,

Five full cases of underwear disposed of in the past month, how could you sell so much in so short a time do you ask. Simply having the goods when people want them and at a price that will move them. Come right along, we have plenty more at the same price.

We are agents for New Idea PATTERNS.

WILSON BROS., WAYNE.

Vote for Shinn.

Vote for Andy Shinn for county judge; he's all right.

Put a little reform into the office of county judge—elect Andy Shinn.

I have just unpacked a number of elegant new Rockers. J. P. Gaertner.

An immense crowd will be in town tomorrow night to hear Hon. John P. Ahern.

Ray Reynolds is taking a week's layoff owing to a slight mistake in his health, his position at the depot being ably filled by Col. Thos. Coyle.

Subjects of Sunday's sermons at the Baptist church: Morning "The Bible." Evening, "Our Sunday Law and the Way it is Observed in Wayne."

Hon. Andy Shinn is a farmer of more than ordinary intelligence. Put him on the county bench and every farmer can get a just verdict from the court.

Commissioner Richard Russell was in town yesterday and reported the corn picking as progressing rapidly and that it will be about all cribbed by Nov. 1st. Mr. Russell says the yield generally is ten bushels per acre short of expectations.

Buy your CORN CRIBBING of E. M. SMITH.

Revenue collector Seely was in town yesterday.

Mrs. John Stallsmith is visiting her son at Grand Island.

The Germans will make a parsonage out of the old church building.

Henry Lueders is remodeling the room on Main street formerly occupied by Kruger's saloon and will move his barber utensils there next week.

"Great Scott! what good bread that is, Maria." "Yes William, and that is made from that 99 cents a sack flour we got at P. L. Miller & Son's grocery."

Norfolk Times: Sheriff Jack Cherry was in the city yesterday, and arrested Julius Connor who is charged by M. S. Moats with taking and disposing of mortgaged property. The sheriff and his prisoner returned to Wayne on the afternoon train.

Sheriff Cherry has a new boarder, Julius Connor from near Randolph. Mr. Connor sold a cow which was included in a bunch of mortgaged stuff, the complaint being filed by M. S. Moats. The new boarder is very acceptable to Mrs. Ole Will iams who has heretofore been lonesome.

Messrs Horaby and John Dimmel were visitors from Winside yesterday.

"Jones pays the freight on those 16-inch stirring plows and then sells them for only $14.

He's a little slow in the start-off, but watch him hit the home stretch—Hon. Andy Shinn for county judge.

FARMERS—When you want a good square meal for a quarter visit Aug. Schwaerzel's restaurant.

Man wants but little after a hard day's toil if he has one of those fine new Couches at Gaertner's to rest his weary bones.

Republicans have been kicking for a year for a change in county judge. You make a creditable bargain when you elect honest Andy Shinn.

The Winside Tribune, speaking of the republican candidate for treasurer, says: "He's old business itself." McKee must have been taking in the corn palaces and carnivals.

Outing and Fleeced Flannels.

Just the fabric for night robes, wrappers, children's dresses etc. We have a fine line of these goods at 5 to 10c per yard. Ahern's.

Winside Tribune: There is no reasonable ground for comparison between the candidates for county treasurer than that of ability to properly perform the duties of the office, and in this respect there can be no comparison.

No comparison that will reflect credit to the republican candidate. Fred Volpp has always done business on his own capital. He is in business today and will continue to be one of our most trusted citizens whether elected or not. Now, if you are anxious to make comparisons give us the facts in regard to your candidate, who is not now, to the best of our knowledge, interested in the welfare of Wayne nor Wayne county one penny's worth.

J. S. French was in Omaha Wednesday.

Mrs. Blair of Sioux City is visiting her son, the doctor.

C. O. Fisher has lost 70 or 80 pigs by the cholera route.

Superintendent Keiper of the Norfolk asylum was in town Tuesday.

Dr. Clark, the Sioux City oculist is at the Boyd hotel today and tomorrow.

The markets today: wheat 50%, corn 20%, oats 16, barley 26, rye 38, flax $1.03.

Fred French is teaching for Ed. Lundberg, at Emerson, until after election.

Farmers, go to P. L. Miller & Son and buy the very best machine oil for only 40c a gallon.

Judge Hunter married Miss Bertha Bernhardt and L. Bruce, both of Hoskins, on Wednesday.

Charlie Robbins was in Norfolk Wednesday to meet Mrs. Robbins on her return from Colorado.

The Herald this week states that it is supporting Bert Brown for clerk. This is a joke. Can you see it?

Only ten days before election, but ten days is time enough for the fusion candidate for county judge to make a winning race. Vote for Andy Shinn.

E. J. Vaughn Dead.

Mrs. E. J. Vaughn received a message last Sunday afternoon from Bonesteel, S. D., stating that her husband had been found dead. The sad story of his death was not learned until yesterday, when J. P. Hoagland returned to Wayne with the news. Mr. Vaughn had taken a homestead in Gregory, S. D., and had been there for several weeks improving the place and making arrangements for the removal of his family to their new home. At the time of his death he was hauling wood, when in some manner the team and wagon fell over an embankment twelve feet high, the wagon and heavy load of wood falling on top of Mr. Vaughn, and it is supposed being him instantly. This happened on Friday of last week and the terrible accident was not discovered until Sunday, Mr.

Vaughn was a member of Logan Valley Camp, No. 1076, M. W. A., of this place, and the members of the Bonesteel, S. D., camp took charge of the dead body, made all necessary arrangements for shipment and accompanied it to Stuart, Neb., where they were met by Mr. Hoagland of the Wayne camp. The body arrived in Wayne Wednesday afternoon and was conducted to the Baptist church by members of the Woodmen organization where the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Welden. The services at the cemetery were conducted by the Modern Woodmen.—Herald.

In Memory of Ed. Vaughn.

Gone to his rest, dear father,
Sleeping his last long sleep,
Resting in calmest contentment,
Unconscious of those who weep.

Even when the sky was cloudy,
And the way seemed dark and drear,
He smiled and clung to duty
As if the heavens were clear.

Faithfully he went through life,
A heart throbbing for sorrow and grief,
A hand outstretched to the needy,
A longing to give relief.

A perfect man, this father,
If God's perfect one made:
We know his spirit's in heaven
"Tho' in dust his body is laid,

His bright, happy face
Will be missed by us all,
But when Jesus calls
We must answer the call.

—MRS. SKADDIN.

Remember we are always

headquarters for Fine Dress

Goods and Trimmings.

Ahern's

Chattel Mortgage blanks for sale at the DEMOCRAT office.

For Sale—400 feet of corn cribs at 75 cents per foot. F. A. Berry, Carroll, Neb.

Good eight horse power unmounted just the thing for grinding—Price $20. See F. E. Mosz, Wayne, Neb.

Made Stylishly

Absolutely All-wool

SUITS

AT

Mind you, we state plainly absolutely all-wool. The tricks of mixing Cotton and shoddy with wool makes it hard to know when a suit is all wool—did you ever take the trouble to find out?

We Offer a Most

Extraordinary OVERCOAT

VALUE AT

Harrington & Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Alexander are rejoicing in the arrival of a daughter.

Boys! Eli Jones has this week received a new stock of buggies that will put a smile on any maiden's face.

Every democrat, every populist and every silver republican can vote for Hon. Andy Shinn for county judge and never regret it.

A special train will bring the Harrington and Wakefield people to the Altgeld meeting tomorrow night, Norfolk is also talking of a special. It will be hot time.

He has the necessary legal ability, the proper ideas of the terms "honor," "honesty" and "justice;" he is the better man for county judge—Hon. Andy Shinn.

Don't forget to vote for Chas. W. Reynolds for clerk of the courts. Four years ago one-third of the voters neglected this office.

Charley Reynolds is the only capable candidate in the field for clerk of courts. The office needs a live man and Charley can do the work satisfactorily.

Don't any of you fellows worry about John R. Coyle. Coyle isn't an inconsistent man. He voted for candidate Brown. Brown thinks a saloon is a damnable place until it comes to an election and then you find him in one trying to curry favor from that class of voters. We like to see a man stand on his honest convictions; there are some things more to be desired in this world than a county office.

If you want a Tailor made Suit, a Jacket, Cape or Fur Collarette one that is well made, will fit and wear see our line. Ahern's.

LECTURE POSTPONED.

De Witt Miller, the noted lecturer to speak here Nov. 1st, has indefinitely postponed his engagement.

Hon. Andy Shinn for County Judge.

Reform voters will be pleased to learn that at a meeting of the county central committee of the populist party last Saturday Andy Shinn was chosen as candidate for county judge, and the nomination unanimously ratified by the democrats. The DEMOCRAT knows of no man in Wayne county who is more deserving or more capable to fill the position of county judge than Mr. Shinn, and we can say this in face of the fact that that gentleman had a little difference with the DEMOCRAT a few years ago, is not a reader of this paper, and we look for no favors at his hands if elected for years. Mr. Shinn was chairman of the democratic central committee and one of the foremost, sincerest and hardest workers in Wayne county for Wm. J. Bryan democracy. Mr. Shinn has scores of warm friends who will be only too glad to help elect him to the office of county judge, for in him they will have a man of good repute, an honest democrat of the Jeffersonian stamp. Let us get a hustle on and a boon for Andy and land him a winner. Time is short but a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether will everlastingly defeat his opponent.

Remember the

Special Cloak Sale

Next Monday, Oct. 30th, at

AHERN'S.

FALL FOOTWEAR.

New fall styles arriving daily. Prices make it unnecessary to take something "just as good" elsewhere. The only place in Wayne County where you can buy Goe. E. Kieths fine shoes, The Little Giant School Shoe. Pontiac's famous Footwear. The correct styles at the correct price.

MAUTE'S SHOE STORE.

ROSKICKY ARRAYS M'KINLEY'S POLICY OF EXPANSION, IMPERIALISM AND MILITARISM

The following article on "Anti-Imperialism Among Citizens of Bohemian Extraction" was prepared for this paper by Hon. John Rosicky of Omaha. Among our citizens of Bohemian birth or extraction Mr. Rosicky has been for years a stalwart character. In politics, in social affairs and in the world of letters and commerce he has been a leading factor.

"In republican circles for the past twenty years John Rosicky has been a man whom the prominent leaders sought out for counsel and advice. As a man of great force on the rostrum, speaking several languages, and as one of the strongest writers, his services have always been in urgent demand. Personally in politics he has been a 'hewer of wood and a drawer of water' but his loss to the support of the republican party in its policy of expansion, imperialism and militarism constitutes one of the severest reverses which that plan of the campaign has met with in the west.

John Rosicky was born at Humpolec, Bohemia, on the 17th day of December, 1857. He attended the public school of his native city and at the age of 12 years was sent to the capital of Bohemia, Prague, where he attended college for two years. In 1861 he emigrated with his parents to this country and for about four years lived on a farm in Grant county, Wisconsin. In 1865 he moved to Milwaukee, Wis., and later in the same year removed to Chicago. For several years he was employed in the grocery, flour and feed business, establishing himself in the same line. In 1870 he took the address of George Greeley and went west, clear to the Pacific coast, where he was employed in California and Oregon. While returning in 1873 with the intention to settle in Chicago, he was arrested on a charge of finding the state a land of much promise, he settled in Crete, since when he has been a resident of this state. In the fall of the same year he established himself in business in Crete, which, however, he discontinued after two years to take a position with the "Patriot," then the only Bohemian paper in the west. At first he filled the position of manager, but later he assumed the duties of an editor. In 1877 he became the publisher, by a purchase of the paper from the late George W. Miller, and building the same up to one of the most influential papers of that language in the country. Later in 1878 he was organized under the name of Pokrok Zapr. party and company, and established a printing plant, where established thirty after the company undertook the publication of the Bohemian language, the Hospodar, which Rosicky is, as well as of the Pokrok, which is the most influential Bohemian paper in the west. At the same time the Knihovna Americka was also added as one of the publications of the company. In 1882 the company, by increasing its facilities, established itself in the three-story and basement block, 1815 North La Salle street, under the title to the National Printing company, of which Mr. Rosicky is, as he has been all the time, the general management and control.

CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT

bodied man for conscription and service in the army of their oppressors, to be used in any cause, right or wrong. This vast army is used against themselves on every occasion, to overawe them and uphold a government and tyranny of an unjust government.

CONSIDERING THE COST.

The Bohemians notice the alarming growth of the public debt of every European nation, caused mainly, if not entirely, by the need of money to stop a minute and consider. The debt of the United States was insignificant before the civil war, but that terrible struggle caused the same to mount to $3,000,000,000 in spite of the oppressive war taxes which were then levied for war purposes. The peace following the war was an absolute failure, for the army enabled us to abolish the war taxes and reduce the debt to less than $600,000,000 by 1892. Now, in spite of the enormous annual war tax, our debt has assumed a colossal figure, and the respectable figure of over 1,000,000,000. But how is it in Europe?

The public debt has grown as follows:

Austria-Hungary	1890	1898
France	1,533,000,000	$2,850,000,000
Germany	1,830,000,000	4,440,000,000
Italy	360,000,000	2,230,000,000
Russia	170,000,000	1,100,000,000

THE TERRIBLE BURDEN OF TAXATION IN THE OLD WORLD.

And what about the terrible burden of taxation which the old world? What keeps the people of the old world in poverty and misery? It is the grinding extortion of the ever unsatisfied Mosaic of militarism. The "armed peace" costs Europe now over four billion marks, or $1,000,000,000 annually, a terrible burden for the taxpayers. The Bohemians in Austria have to bear more than their share and as much of the burden as the other countries contribute to the Austro-Hungarian budget 150 million florins annually, but receives out of the public treasury in return only 20 million florins. The country (one-fourth the area of Nebraska) is being drained at the rate of 130 million florins, 52 millions dollars, annually. The people of Bohemia pay an average of 20 florins direct taxes and 2.7 florins indirect government taxes—about $10.50 per capita—exclusive of local taxation, a burden which in consideration of the condition of the people, poor, etc., is well-nigh unbearable. And yet the government must constantly scheme for some new tax to be levied to meet the demands of militarism, militarism, THEY CAME WITH A CHANGED JOY AND SORROW.

The naturalized citizen has fled, not with joy, but with sorrow, from the country of his birth, which he loved as dearly as anybody loves his country, to avoid oppression of despotism and evil results of militarism, militarism, in order to enjoy the blessings of freedom and liberty and secure them for his descendants. He has learned in his free land to appreciate these blessings. He knows from and by his own experience the difference between a free government and one dominated by military power and knows what conditions should prevail in a free state.

THE QUESTION WHICH CONFRONTS US.

Can he sympathize with a policy which will lead to militarism, is pregnant with danger to our liberties and in all probability will bring upon this country the same evil results which are loved as dearly as he loved his own country of birth, which is now the land of the birth of his children and will be the heritage of his descendants, the same unfortunate conditions, which forced him to abandon his own country? Shall he help to bring upon his children and future generations the same evil results which he fled to avoid? To all such questions, when thoroughly considered, he must reply, emphatically, "No." And thus we find among the citizens of Bohemian birth and other nationalities, an overwhelming anti-expansion and anti-imperialist sentiment.

New Skirt Helps Shoplifters.

Fashion has become an accessory of crime and misery has been added thereby to the burden of responsibility on the shoulders of store detectives during the holiday season.

George Ostreicher of New York, one of the oldest and most successful in the business, made the discovery when he caught Amelia Levy, alias "Black" Amelia, in the act of dropping a package of silk through the opening at the top of a dress which she was wearing. It was one of the biggest shoplifter's bags ever found on a pickpocket.

"Black" Amelia is one of the cleverest pickpockets in the city, and her profession and has so long a record against her that ex-Chief of Police Byrnes says he can give only a brief bit of it in his book, where she figures as the heroine of a chapter.

Whether "Black" Amelia is the discoverer of the adaptability of the new skirt to the needs of her criminal calling, or if she has been a victim of another's ideas, she is the first to be caught employing it.

When Ostreicher discovered "Black" Amelia she was finely attired in one of the latest styles of dress, a heavy cloth, closing on the side of the front with a scalloped edge and row of buttons. "Black" Amelia, with a companion, was seen in the act of slipping up the side of the skirt in its stiff paper case in which it is always kept.

Heretofore shoplifters have taken the silk from the dress in order to fold it into the smallest possible parcel for concealment. The new fashion requires the stiff paper. To Ostreicher's amazement the skirt was closed by the side through the side opening of Amelia's fashionable new skirt.

It was a revelation to the detective, who had never thought of watching women wearing such a skirt. Amelia was investigated the smoothness with which the scheme works was disclosed. The biggest black cambric shoplifter's bag ever found was tied around her. It was fastened to the opening seam of the dress skirt, which closed with real buttons and buttons. Its opening was perfectly flat in the bag. Heretofore women have ripped dress seams, made dress pockets in which are cut slits or concealed cuts near the waist in order to drop the proceeds of their thefts into the under bags.

Beekeping is an expensive enjoyment at Bath, England. Miss Key, an inhabitant of that beautiful city, sued her husband for damages, caused by defendant's bees. She was badly stung twice and the bees frequented her garden to such an extent that she had to leave it. The jury awarded her $50, and the judge granted an injunction, with costs on the higher scale.

BRYAN'S OHIO TOUR.

HON. SILAS ALEXANDER HOLCOMB.

It is a little like carrying coals to Newcastle to tell the intelligent voters of Nebraska anything about Governor Silas A. Holcomb and the grand record he made as governor of this state. The people of Nebraska were not long in learning his worth as chief executive of Nebraska. They soon began to call him "The best governor Nebraska ever had" and to show that they believed what they said, they re-elected him by over 21,000 plurality in 1896.

HOLCOMB ELECTED GOVERNOR.

Six years ago Holcomb was selected by the populists as their standard-bearer in the campaign for supreme judge. That was before the days of fusion with the democratic and the vision of the voters between the nominee of the democrats for supreme judge naturally resulted in the election of the republican candidate. But the populists were determined to secure the election of their own candidate, and the following year they nominated him for governor. He was even then being as district judge, out in the western judicial district, and the people naturally followed the course of his life, straight-forwardness and undoubted ability. Populists from all over the state had become acquainted with him during the campaign of 1893, and recognized in him a man who would make himself felt in the world.

So he was nominated for governor. The democrats were then whining and joining hands with the populists and helped the state from republican misrule. Governor Crouse, the best republican governor who had sat in the gubernatorial chair in years, was not in good standing with the manipulators of his party, and they turned him down for Thomas J. Majors, a notorious demagogue, who had been a member of the board of education in Lincoln, and who had been sat down upon by the republican ring on several occasions, and, thirsting for revenge, he fought the republican nomination of Holcomb.

GOV. HOLCOMB'S PREDICAMENT.

Holcomb was the only one of the fusion nominees who pulled through, and early in January, 1895, he took his seat as governor with six weeks to go before the expiration of his term. The republican party began a systematic effort to cripple Holcomb's administration. Every conceivable mean thing was done. The state was divided into republican and republican party that year, went partisan mad in their efforts to "put the pop governor in the hole." But through it all, Governor Holcomb held a dignified course and came out unscathed.

Silas A. Holcomb has the judicial mind, careful, deliberate and painstaking; he must have all the facts before him, and he is not hurried by the question; then he decides deliberately, conservatively and justly. He will be supreme judge for all the people.

HE OWNS THE COURT.

Behind the curtains it is said the Nebraska supreme court as at present constituted has one representative of the E. & M. railroad, one representative of the P. & O. railroad and one representative of the people. After January of next year, with Holcomb as president, the people of Nebraska will have two representatives upon the supreme bench—two judges who will perform their duties fearlessly, earnestly and justly, securing ever the maximum of equal rights to all, special privileges to none.

CHAPLAINS ARE NEEDED.

Washington, D. C.—(Special.)—Secretary Root has ordered as the available chaplains in the army to the Philippines. When Congress increased the strength of the army from 25,000 to 100,000 men temporarily at the last session it failed to make provision for chaplains, overlooking the clause limiting them to 30. Of this number at least ten of those holding commissions are supernumerated and altogether unfit for active service at domestic posts, so the service has been rather short of chaplains. The regular chaplains are already in General Otis' army corps. With their denominations they are: Captains Henry Swift, Episcopal; Charles C. Pierce, Episcopalian; Walter Marvinne, Episcopalian; Charles W. Vreeland, Episcopalian; Patrick J. Hart, Roman Catholic; Edward H. Fitzgerald, Roman Catholic; Joseph H. Sullivan, Presbyterian; J. A. Randolph, Methodist.

The chaplains ordered, all of them held voluntary commissions for duty in the Philippines, are: Captains John S. Siebold, Episcopalian; Newell L. Pichard, Episcopalian; Charles S. Walkley, Episcopalian; Orville J. Naylor, Methodist; David H. Caldwell, Methodist; Halcy C. Cavitt, Methodist; Ruter W. Springer, Methodist; Leslie R. Graves, Presbyterian; James W. Hillman, Presbyterian; Cephas C. E. Bateman, Baptist.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The United States transport Sherman has arrived at Manila.

Bound for Manila, the cruiser New Orleans has sailed from New York.

The New Orleans board of health reported two new cases of yellow fever and no deaths Saturday.

Tommy West knocked out Charlie Stevenson in the thirteenth round at the Greenwood Athletic club in Brooklyn.

The president has appointed Edward P. Kingsbury of Central Wash. to be surveyed at Olympia, vice MacClemison, deceased.

Covelo, Cal.—In a prize fight last night between George Coxy and Jim Hall, two local pugilists, Hall received a serious injury to the head, which was fatal. He was unconscious for several hours.

Washington, D. C.—The degree of masonry was conferred on Rear Admiral Schley by Benjamin B. French lodge of Arlington Heights, Md., at the conclusion of the session Rear Admiral Schley held a reception.

Des Moines Ia.—George Ervin, a student at Penn College, Oskaloosa, had his skull fractured in a football game between Highland Park colleges and the University of Iowa. Physicians say his recovery is doubtful.

New York, Oct. 24.—There is no change for the worse in the condition of Vice President Hobart. Though up and about the house at Paterson, N. J., he receives no one but his closest friends.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 24.—The waters of the Mississippi have reached a threatening stage. Unsorted logs in the booms are in danger of being carried away. The cause of the trouble is the heavy rain which has been pouring great volumes of water into the Mississippi. It is feared the booms above will be carried away and many millions of feet of logs lost.

New York, Oct. 24.—Sir Thomas Lipton was conferred with the honor of being the designer of the Shamrock, at the Fifth Avenue hotel. While it was not officially given out that the conference concerned the design of a new boat for the transatlantic route, it was thought necessary on the Shamrock to improve her speed, the conference is known to have been along that line.

St. Paul, Minn.—J. N. Hill, vice president of the Great Northern railway, stated that there was no ground for the rumor that a strike is imminent among the employes of the Great Northern system. He says: "On the contrary, no dissatisfaction has been settled among the employes receive the highest wages and are entirely satisfied with the condition. The satisfaction at any time in the road's history, it is the most satisfactory of any movement of traffic, which is greater than at any time in the road's history."

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 24.—Pearl Hart, the Arizona woman bandit, who escaped from jail at Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 12, was arrested yesterday at Deming, N. M., with a child and a dog, and a horseback, with a male companion. She was taken back to Tucson.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 24.—The delegates to the International Commercial Congress, now in session here, in conjunction with the National Export Exposition, have been in Washington for the purpose of calling upon the president.

Peoria Ill.—Fred Patee, president of the Patee Bicycle company and ex-chief consul of the Illinois division of the League of American Wheelmen, was yesterday elected to the position of secretary for manslaughter. Patee was charged with having engaged Dr. Bell Howard to perform a criminal operation on a child, who was killed by Howard's trial for murder begins next week.

Chicago, Ill.—Passenger train time here between Chicago and Kansas City is to be shortened an hour or more. Next Sunday will be the first of the new schedule between these two cities will be cut from fifteen and a half hours to fourteen and a half hours. The reduction will be participated in by the Rock Island, Chicago & North Western, Wabash and Alton roads.

Jackson, Miss.—One new case of yellow fever was reported in Jackson by the state board of health today. Five patients are now under treatment. There are also several cases of typhoid, citizens over the refusal of the board to divulge the names and locality of the patients.

Washington, D. C.—(Special.)—Surgeon General Wyman has received a telegram from Inspector Woodbury of the Maryland State Police, dated at Rio Janeiro, Brazil, saying that the plague had made its appearance at Santos, Brazil. He said that there had been a case of the disease, and that autopsy in the fatal cases confirmed the diagnosis. He also said that isolation was impossible.

Manila.—(Special.)—Three insurgent officers were arrested and imprisoned by General MacArthur for their part in a Filipino commission, headed by a Filipino major general, to visit General Otis in order to discuss peace terms with the American army. The officers, American prisoners, as well as to consider methods for the release of the Spanish prisoners. The request was rejected by General Otis. The insurgent officers are expected to return to receive his answer.

AT SANDUSKY.

At 8:30 in the evening the Bryan-McLean train reached this city, having traveled 1,255 miles and a travails of thirteen counties of northwestern Ohio, a large crowd greeted the train, and a well organized and large procession formed an escort to the court house where the speaker was met by Mayor George C. Bela presided and presented Mr. Bryan, who discussed national issues at length.

"We want the rights of all respected and no privileges to the few. That is the Jeffersonian doctrine and the teachings of the Declaration of Independence. All men are created equal. It is not the right of the few to quote the Declaration of Independence. That document was revered at one time in the history of this country. Now it seems there is a cast of mind which says we hope the clouds will soon roll by.

"Do you believe that all men are created equal? If you do, I hope to create a republic which will advance to a greater equality than my faith is unfounded. I believe all citizens ought to stand equal before the law. Are you republicans willing to accept this document as the basis of our government, and apply it? Mark Hanna repudiates it.

"You have in this vicinity a soldier's home and a soldier's grave. You have upon him the sad face of Abraham Lincoln. You cannot find a true soldier who does not believe that Abraham Lincoln is the greatest product of our civilization.

"I want the soldier to contrast modern republicanism with that of Abraham Lincoln. The present tendency of the republican party to advance the interests of the wealthy in disregard of the masses of the people of this country. Lincoln said: 'The Lord must have loved the common people because he has made so many of them.' Lincoln mentions the common people today he is called a demagogue and is trying to array one class against another. Today the republican demagogue is Mark Hanna. He is measured according to his pocketbook and that man is a demagogue who dares to listen to the heart beats of democracy." (Applause.)

THE COMMERCIAL TRAVELER.

On the gold question Mr. Bryan believed present methods simply meant a government of the syndicates aided by the trusts and monopolies. Touching the trusts, he said:

"If you want to know what the trusts are, consult the commercial travelers. They are the mightiest power in the land, too. If I did not believe this to be true, I could consult Mr. McKinley. I remember in the campaign of 1896 they had delegates visit him at Canton, Ohio, and they were all there to me, and I had to go to them. Mr. McKinley made a speech to them, saying among other things: 'I know the trusts are a great power in the land, but I am not a such great recruiting officer in the United States, they go everywhere.'

"What will the traveling man say when they go to Canton, Ohio? These men are not employed by the trusts might go to Canton again, take a band with them, and have it play the dead march from Saul. (Laughter.) I sympathize with the commercial traveler. I regret his misfortunes and am sorry for his political mistakes.

Mr. Hanna's Cleveland speech was taken up and discussed much in the same manner as during the day, Mr. Bryan ridiculing the proposition that the republican party could and would take care of the trusts. He said that he had delivered fifty speeches (twenty-seven in Kentucky and the rest in Ohio, in addition to many short talks along the way. There were times in Kentucky in the vicinity of Hopkinsville, when a train speed of sixty-five miles an hour was attained and in Ohio twenty-four miles in one instance was covered in twenty-three minutes.

CROWDS IN OTHER TOWNS.

Bucyrus, O.—It is the general opinion of those accompanying the special train that there were over 8,000 here. Mr. Bryan was cordially received and in his treatment of the topics of the day displayed the same vigor and voice that characterized the early part of the day.

Bellevue, O.—A year and platform speech was made by Mr. Bryan, a good crowd being present. Mr. Bryan appealed to those present to support the ticket this fall, in the interest of the greater content of 1900.

ANTI-IMPERIALISM AMONG CITIZENS OF BOHEMIAN EXTRACTION.

None of the newspapers published in the Bohemian lands of this country are supporting the policy of expansion and imperialism carried out by the present administration, which is an illustration of the course of the administration of "doers" of administrative naturalized citizens of that birth or extraction. Per that the course pursued at present by the administration is against the interests and ultimate benefit of our country.

A DEEP-SEALED PRINCIPLE.

This sentiment is by no means accidental, but is characteristic of the people and being natural in consequence of the expansion which they have had. The Bohemian people were not an aggressive people. While their history notes very many struggles, too many for their good and benefit, these were not struggles for conquest, but of defense. They have not sought any aggrandizement at the cost of their neighbors, they have only sought to secure for themselves the rights of liberty and justice to all, which made them so popular in the eyes of the world, and prevented them from being conquerors.

OUR BOHEMIAN CITIZENS.

The Bohemian immigration to this country dates from the year 1848. That memorable year marks an epoch in the history of most continental nations. It was a year of awakening from the long sleep of despotism, the people were, however, soon overwhelmed by the power of despotism, and it was the long and bitter struggle of the Bohemians almost without exception allied themselves with the anti-slavery party. The first Bohemian newspapers in this country, "Slovak Ameriky," "Slovak Noviny," at St. Louis in the same year, and "Slavie" at Racine, Wis., in 1853 were all anti-slavery and union papers.

UPHOLDS DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

Bohemians have always rejoiced at the liberation of every people and sympathized with all who are oppressed. There is no people on earth that have endorsed more heartily than the Bohemians the self-evident truths of the declaration of American independence, that all persons were created equal and that the rights of the people are derived from the consent of the governed. It is therefore not surprising to find among the naturalized citizens of Bohemia the sentiment that it is wrong that these glorious United States of America, the pride and hope of the liberty-loving people of all climes, the home of the brave, should be the land of conquest, for subjugation of a people on another hemisphere, people of an entirely different race and civilization, and that the Bohemian people are intended to be subject to our authority and prey of our politicians—even if this war is carried on under the cloak of civilization.

THE BITTER FRUIT OF EXPERIENCE.

But there are other reasons besides, why the sentiment of the Bohemians is against the policy of aggression and expansion. They are the bitter fruit of their own experience. Their experience and the history of every other European nation, teach that expansion cannot be upheld without a large standing army, a powerful navy, and that these cause unbearable burdens. They apprehend that expansion into the other hemisphere, the danger of complications with the other great foreign powers and to the condition of "armed peace" which is the bane of the people of Europe. They know that a large standing army is a menace to the rights and liberties of the people, leading always ultimately to the fall of republics, overthrow of freedom and establishment of "strong" despotic governments.

THE EVILS OF MILITARISM.

There is no other people that has suffered more through the evil of militarism than the Bohemian people. Militarism has cost them more than a few dollars and cents, but also a tax in life and blood. To be a defender of the rights and liberties of a country is an entirely different proposition from being a tool of military power, to be used as its plans and schemes require. The former means patriotism, the latter servitude. The Bohemian people of this country have and have to submit all and every available

STATISTICS OF THE CHINA MISSION.

The statistics of the China mission connected with the Episcopal church show that for the year ending July, 1899, there were 109 congregations, 2,861 baptized church members, 901 communicants.

STATISTICS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA COAL PRODUCTION.

The volume and value of Pennsylvania's coal production for 1898 was 118,547,777 short tons; spot value, $18,761,225. Anthracite, total product, 33,329,644 short tons; spot value, $16,414,237. Bituminous, total product, 85,165,133 short tons; spot value, $13,347,588.

STATISTICS OF AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGES.

Statistics of average weekly wages just issued from Maine, covering the cotton mills in that state, show that the men's wages average $7.88 per week, those of women $5.60 and of children $2.73.

STATISTICS OF THE WASHINGTON POSTS.

Washington, D. C.—(Special.)—Director of Posts Valle has sent to Postmaster General Smith a letter entering an absolute denial of the published charge of mismanagement of the mails at Manila. Mr. Valle said:

"I wish to state positively that there has never been a single letter for the states opened in this office or by any means after the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

DEATH IN THE STORM.

Denver, Colo.—(Special.)—A special to the Republican from Great Falls, Mont., says: Four men are dead and probably eight more in Teton county, from the recent storm. The dead are all sheep herders. They are as follows: Norman E. White, and one other employed by W. E. Flowers; Will Graham, working for the Homer Sheep company, and a man named Jack. Two herders named McKinley and Conley, working for J. C. Quigley, are probably dead, as they are missing, though their sheep have been found.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

DEWEY'S HOME IS SELECTED.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 24.—The Dewey house committee, which has in charge the purchase of a home for the admiral from the money received by popular subscription, has selected the house at No. 1747 Rhode Island avenue, northwest, known as the Fitch house. The house is one door removed from the corner of Connecticut avenue in which is regarded as the most desirable section of the city. It is understood that the amount of popular subscription was sufficient to cover the cost of the house, its furniture and all incidental expenditures.

TRYING TO HEAD OFF ANDRADE.

Caracas, Venezuela, Oct. 24.—A vigorous attempt will be made by the acting president to prevent General Andrade, who fled yesterday morning to La Guayana, without transferring power, from leaving without transferring power, and valuable government property.

United States Minister Mason, the dean of the diplomatic corps in Caracas, is said to have a view of obtaining his assistance for the provisional government, but he declined to interfere in any way with the flight of General Andrade.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

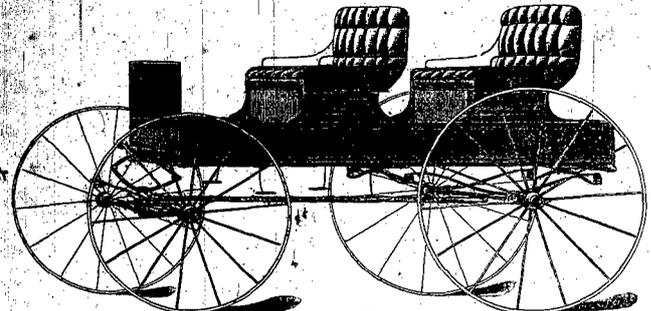

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

STATISTICS OF THE TETON COUNTY.

Many parties are in the mountains, including ladies, which have not been heard from. They have tents and food, but may not escape. They are William Coburn, Charles McDonnell, and their wives, of Dupler, now in the Sunrise reservation, and W. F. Falston and four sons in Birch Creek canon.

The severity of the storm may be judged from the fact that it took four hours and four days to bring in the body of Willingham in a toboggan. Snow four feet on the level in parts of Teton county.

Big People
Buy Their Fine
Buggies

Of the Leading Dealer, Eli Jones.
Wagons and all kinds of Machinery at WAR PRICES

HE SHOOTS STRAIGHT OUT.

WINSDE, Neb., Oct. 22, '99.
Brother Goldie: Again I come to ask you for a little space in your paper. I want to have a talk with the fusion forces as I think this seems to be the only method by which I can reach them. Some of the best friends I ever had have said to me "Thank you" better keep out of politics," but listen what another man has said about politics. Whitlaw Reed said in 1873 in a commencement address: "What I wish first to insist upon is the essential worth, nobility, primacy indeed, of the liberal pursuit of politics." It is simply the highest, the most dignified, the most important of all earthly objects of human study. Next to the relation of man to his maker there is nothing so deserving his best attention as his relation to his fellow men. The welfare of the community is always more important than the welfare of any individual, or number of individuals; and the welfare of the community is the highest object of the science of politics. The course and current of men in masses that is most exalted of human studies, and that is the study of the politician. To help individuals is the business of the learned professions. To do the same for communities is the business of politics. To aid in developing a single career may take the best efforts of the teacher. To shape the policy of the nation, to fix the fate of generations—is this not much higher as the heavens are high above the earth? Make the actual politician as respectable as you may, but the business of politics remains the highest of human concerns.

"You see, I had to wash and iron and bake and scrub; so Monah always made out my vouchers and cashed my warrants."—O. B. Reese.

The wise and economic administration of William McKinley is, we are told by the McKinley organs, responsible for the high price of beef cattle. We understand these same organs are right in the vicious promulgation of free silver bery that is responsible for the low price of wheat and potatoes.

In a righteous cause it has never been necessary to frantically appeal to the patriotism of the American people, says the Omaha World-Herald. They were always ready at the first intimation that their services were needed. It is only when a cause is not righteous or good the country has to "appeal to the patriotism of the people."

Captain Patrick O'Hara of Washington said at Chicago Tuesday: "I have been a life long republican, an abolitionist and union soldier. I vote against McKinley or any other man who stands for the administration's present policy of aggression." It is in order for all the republican whoopers from Mark Hanna clean down to denounce this veteran as a "opper-head," "Tagalo" and "traitor."

If Judge Reese, in 1889 and 1890, really needed his wife, C. B. Reese, to render him "clerical assistance" at the state's expense, how does it come that all the clerical work of preparing and signing vouchers and receiving and cashing the warrants made out by C. B. Reese, was done by the chief justice himself? How easy it would have been for C. B. Reese, wife and "clerical assistant," to make out her own vouchers and receive and draw the money upon her warrants, while the chief justice was buried in the eyes in musty tomes and great piles of manuscript neatly prepared by the aforesaid trusty "clerical assistant."

Wells Bored
On short notice and lowest expense. See ASHER L. HURLBURT.

BRENNAN AND PLUM CREEK.
Corn picking is all the go nowadays.

Hans Larson has completed his new house.

D. R. Bastian is making his regular trip up the creek Sundays.

The Nelson Bros., father is quite ill and at present is confined to his bed.

Mr. Lewis Larson and wife have just returned from Omaha where they have been with their child who is being treated for deafness.

The school at No. 8 closed last week, the teacher, Miss Clara Thompson, has given entire satisfaction, and is well liked by all the scholars.

We suppose that the new court house will soon be completed and we wonder what the county will do with the dirty shack that is now used for a court house?

A young man living one mile west of LaPorte thought he would try his muscles a few days ago, he knocked his mother down and kicked her and blacked her eyes and then skipped the country. If he ever comes back to this neck of the woods he will stretch hemp.

Mr. Henry Hafel, a well known young man of Carroll came on Coon creek one day last week after Miss Sidney Madson and while passing the place of M. S. Englebert picked up a sack of seed corn that was left by the side of the road, and was left by the team to come along that was in the field but a short distance away. He took the corn to Mr. Andrew Spikes place, a near neighbor, and emptied the corn in Mr. Spikes' hog pen, and said: "He did not care for the corn but wanted the sack." If the sack is returned to the owner, that will settle the trouble. If not, something will be done.

J. G. MINES
Leading Jeweler

Choosing wedding gifts for friends, or jewels for personal adornment, is always a pleasurable experience when visiting our store. There are so many novelties, in fine designs and settings, such a fine array of handsome Silverware, Mantle Clocks, fine Watches, Rings, etc., at such reasonable prices that it is a genuine surprise when you see the figures.

J. G. MINES
Leading Optician,

F. M. SKEEN & CO.,
Law, Real Estate, Farm and City Loans
INSURANCE AND COLLECTIONS.

Best Bargains, Best Terms, Best Locations, Lowest Interest, all on Commission.

Strictly square dealing with everybody. No law suits growing out of careless or illegitimate transactions. No oppressive rates of interest. No foreclosures or hardships on those with whom we have dealt in seventeen years of extensive dealing in real estate and personal properties.

We sell and exchange on commission Farms, City Property. Stocks of Merchandise, Mills and Manufacturing concerns in different localities,—in fact all kinds of Real Estate and Personal properties. Have for sale and exchange in Wayne, Cedar, Dixon, Pierce and Knox counties, Farms, City Property, Prairie, Grass and Hay lands, Pastures, Lease lands, College and School land, Rental farms, Brick buildings, Livery Stables, City Lots. Have tracts from 5 to 1000 acres of improved and prairie lands ranging in prices from $10 to $50 per acre; some of these have the very finest groves, bearing orchards and vineyards, living, hydraulic, and well water, some on terms as easy as cash rents in older counties.

Have property in Chicago, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Omaha, Sioux City, and various towns throughout the west listed for sale and exchange. Have excellent facilities for selling and exchanging property anywhere in the United States with both eastern and western clients and correspondents.

Many wanting to sell and exchange come to us, knowing we have property in nearly every state and territory, that we keep posted in location and values in outside property all over.

We give special attention to property heavily incumbered and liable to foreclosure. Have saved a great many from foreclosure and loss by making sales and exchanges for those who could not otherwise realize out of their property. If you wish to buy, sell or exchange any kind of real estate or personal property communicate in person or by letter and your business will receive prompt, careful and legitimate attention.

A Few Bargains from a Large List of Farms.

- No. 1. 160 improved, 6 miles from Wayne, living water; price $4160.
- No. 2. 160, improved, 1 1/2 miles from Wayne; price $5360.
- No. 3. 160, improved, 7 miles from Wayne; price $4100.
- No. 4. 160, under plow, no buildings, 7 miles from Wayne, $3680.
- No. 5. 160, under plow, 6 miles from Wayne, $3500.
- No. 6. 160, under plow, 7 miles from Wayne, $3500.
- No. 7. 320, under plow, 5 miles from Wayne, $8160.
- No. 8. 12 fine farms near Wayne at from $30 to $40 per acre.
- No. 9. 880 acres, nine miles from Wayne, fine bearing orchard, all under cultivation, good house, large barn; bottom and upland, evenly divided; an excellent tract for cattle ranching. Price reasonable.
- No. 10. 700 acres fine cattle ranch at $40 per acre. First class improvement.
- No. 11. 380 acres prairie land at $11.50 per acre, good soil, 6 miles from good town.
- No. 12. 320 acres, improved, 22.50 per acre; a bargain.
- No. 13. 240 acres, improved, 22.50 per acre; a bargain.

Call on or address
F. M. SKEEN & CO., Wayne, Nebraska.
OVER POSTOFFICE.

Ladies and Misses Underwear

In this lines we cannot be excelled. Our stock is the most complete in the city, and the prices are right.

Union Suits, Hoods, Shawls, Fascinators, etc., etc.

August Piepenstock.

Perfumes..

Soap--Toilet Soap

RAYMOND'S DRUG STORE.

Wayne, Neb.

Wholesale and Retail

Wholesome Food Products

They will send you just what you want when you want it.

Nice, clean fresh groceries at the right price and delivered promptly. Try us.

LOCAL HASH.

Robt. Carr and D. A. Danielson were in Norfolk Monday.

Ex-Senator Wm. V. Allen will speak in Wayne Monday evening, Oct. 30.

County Clerk Coyle says it hailed to beat the ground up at Carroll Tuesday afternoon.

Everybody was glad to see the rain pour down Monday, Tuesday. It will save us fellows a whole lot of grief during the winter months when the "old lady" needs soft water.

Notice!

The Jones livery now occupies the new barn of Nels Grimsley on opera house square. Patrons will find good teams and rigs there, on all occasions.

Herman Mildner will be home from Omaha tomorrow.

The DEMOCRAT carries the best line of nickel cigars in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kinney of Randolph were in the city Monday.

John P. Altgeld at the Wayne opera house Saturday night, Oct. 28.

The Germans had a jolly picnic at their hall northwest of town last Sunday.

Robt. Perrin came home Saturday from Iowa where he has been selling fence machines.

An up-to-date new stock of Couches, Rockers, Bookcases and Secretaries at J. P. Gaertner's.

Look up John P. Altgeld's reputation as a public speaker. It will pay you to drive 20 miles to hear him.

Louis Neurenberger is not shackled by any "ring" or political consideration. If elected commissioner he will do good, independent work for his district.

Everybody is invited to the C. E. social at the home of Mr. Mark Stringer on Friday evening, Oct. 27. Bring your ten cents for initiation fee of the Secret society.

The aggregation behind the republican candidate for treasurer are badly scared and with good and sufficient cause. Past it in your hat that right will triumph, Fred Volpp will be our next county treasurer.

Wayne friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. A. B. Charde and daughters are getting along nicely in Omaha.

Mrs. Charde receives a good salary from the exposition, and her eldest daughter teaches in the city schools.

Burglars broke into four Norfolk business houses Monday night and got two or three dollars for their work.

They probably failed to read the Norfolk papers or they would have known that Norfolk business men don't carry anything to sell, even.

A republican says: "I understand the county clerk has the neatest and best kept set of books on file at the court house. That is good enough; I am not going to take chances trying a green hand, and I will advise my friends to support Mr. Coyle for a second term."

A letter was received this week from Mrs. F. Wheeler dated at Durban, Natal, S. Africa. She describes Durban as being a most beautiful city.

Mr. Wheeler was still at the mines near Johannesburg but expected to be driven into Natal, the English province.

Five train loads of soldiers went through here Sunday night and Monday morning but no one appeared to care to learn that they were bound for the Philippines to "uphold the honor of the flag." In fact about the only comments heard was that they had no business disturbing Waynites who sleep the early hours of morn.

The DEMOCRAT presents its readers with a change in its patent interior this week. It will repay every subscriber to "turn the paper inside out" and read: "Rosicky Arraigns McKinley's Policy of Expansion, Imperialism and Militarism," "Bryan's Ohio Tour," "Hon. Silas Alexander Holcomb Exposed," "Commercial Travelers to Fight the Trusts," "Cruel War's Price," "Hanna Favors Trusts," "Why We Cannot Conquer Them," etc.

Every democrat and every populist should make it their duty to vote for and support Louis Neurenberger for commissioner in the first district. It is true we have a fusion majority on the board now, but we want to know it that way, and the election of a republican this year will make it just that much harder to defeat a republican next fall. Mr. Neurenberger is a careful and economic business man. He has by thrift and honor done well for himself and has the interests of the county at heart. Give him your vote.

Hon. John S. Robinson gave three or four hundred Wayne people a most entertaining and delectable talk last Friday night. It contained more truth than poetry, and that is why local republicans, who heard him, have been sitting around the corners, with faces as long as Otis' Filipino death list.

Congressman Robinson first explained the necessity for staying by the party's local ticket, and to not let any personal prejudice give aid to the opposition. He then took the republican press to task for their little and contemptible remarks upon Ex-Gov. Holcomb; talked 16 to 1 in as convincing and logical a manner as ever; lambasted the trusts, and correctly stated that they were all of the republican faith, and all of them supported modern republicanism. But it was on McKinley imperialism that John S. let his searchlight linger with the best effect, and his caustic arraignment of our British president did an American's heart good. "Who will hold down the flag" on our slave-holding, polygamous possessions? Send the query along to Congressman Roberts, whom the McKinley adoration society is trying to unseat.

CATTLE FOR SALE.
Thirty-eight head of fine three-year-old feeders. Enquire of or write W. H. Buzrow, Wayne, Neb.

For one, don't care who brings these reforms about, why, bless your soul, I can remember when we asked to be swallowed by the republicans or a republican. In 1892, at our National convention, we sent a committee to Indianapolis to see if Walter Q. Gresham didn't want to swallow us, why did we do that? We knew that the rank and file of the republicans wanted him for president but those eastern chaps, who make presidents, dare not trust him. They knew he was honest and they were fearful they could not use him in their nefarious work of manipulating the finances of this country.

In conclusion let me say to that friend who has not time to go to the election, I know better—we all have time to go, and I do hope there will not be a single "stay at home voter" this year. On the result of this election depends the result next fall and now you have a chance to take the supreme court out of the hands of the enemy. Will you do it? We will wait and see.

Yours for a clean sweep,
H. B. MILLER.

POLITICAL HASH

Ross Hammond's plan is to prevent the people from reading anything calculated to injure the republican party. Ross isn't a traitor; he's simply a d--d fool.

President McKinley staid up until one o'clock in South Dakota, but wouldn't or couldn't even be civil to his betters in Iowa. McKinley is easy. He knew South Dakota patriotism was not up to Sulu standard, but he loved the Hawkeye state was already all he desired it to be.

The republicans are making a special effort to capture the offices of county judge and clerk all over the state. Ross Hammond intimates that Mark Hanna will need these officials in his business next year.

"Yes, papa made out all my vouchers and cashed all my warrants but one. He's a big, smart man, my papa is, and anyway, I was at school and hadn't time to fuss with it."—Harry A. Reese.

HARD AND SOFT COAL

AT

Pv. Elevator.

The Best Policy

Is only to make statements measurably truthful. You can't fool all the people all the time, and we prefer not to try it any time. We are not philanthropists, and do not give goods away, but we sell them at figures affording us a fair profit and you an honest bargain. Call and get prices. Leave your order and be well dressed.

HOLTZ THE TAILOR.

A Good Lift

Toward home comfort is when you purchase the right sort of a stove for parlor, sitting room or kitchen. There are so many varieties of stoves that it will be worth your while to examine several before investing. You could not possibly miss it if you come in here and invest in our Superior Ranges and our Air Tight Stoves.

You will find that it will be money well spent and you will never have any other after using them.

Otto Voget, Wayne.

For Bargains in all kinds of

Winter Clothing

See

Furchner, Duerig & Co.

German Store,

Wayne, Nebraska.

Hebron is to be lit by electricity.

Durwell will soon have telephone connection with the outside world.

Little child of a Cassara Corlet, of Proma was bitten by a rattlesnake, but prompt medical attention saved its life.

The Herman Advertiser is a new candidate for public favor. A. B. Brewster is the editor. It is nonpartisan politically.

J. W. Boor of Boone county raised $100,000 in cash from the agricultural department.

It is estimated by stockmen that at least 25,000 more cattle will be wintered in Holt county this winter than last. There is yet room for more and cheap lands for new settlers.

H. W. Beck was threshing for G. H. Long at his place near Campbell when the grain caught fire from the engine and destroyed Mr. Beck's separator and about 70 bushels of wheat for Mr. Long.

Miss Meyer, living between Edholm and Otway, swallowed a snake and four days ago she was taken to her room from her mittens with her teeth while picking corn. The burr lodged in her throat but did not hurt much until evening when she was taken to the hospital and brought to Bellwood and it was with much trouble that Dr. Hewitt removed 'eh troublesome burr.

The residents of the land which was overflooded last spring in Dakota county by the lake spreading out over their land are talking of digging a ditch across the north end of the property to the Missouri river for the purpose of draining off the water and redeeming the land for farming. Hundreds of acres of fine farming land are at present under water when if the ditch were dug the water would disappear.

Colonel W. F. Cody is expected home at Plattsmouth next week for a few days' visit. From there he will go directly to the Big Horn basin, where he intends to spend several weeks hunting. General Nelson and several other distinguished men will be his guests during the hunt.

Fire totally destroyed the college building belonging to the North Dakota college association. The loss is about $1,000, insured for $2,000 in the North American and Connecticut Fire Insurance companies. The building was originally built and used for a hotel, and was known first as the Tillenburgh and later as the Reno. Four years ago it was partially burned and was purchased by the college and repaired. A year ago the college closed its doors, and since then the building has been occupied by families. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A destructive fire was narrowly averted at Gretna Sunday at noon during a violent windstorm. The fire occurred in the summer kitchen of the Gretna delivery barn, which was entirely destroyed, together with the contents. The structure belonged to John Hickey and was valued at $10,000. The origin of the fire was unknown, but it is supposed to have caught from matches in the hands of children.

Immense forest fires, miles in extent, are raging in the mountains near Parsons, W. Va. Millions of feet of lumber have been destroyed and other property in the vicinity has been damaged. The origin of the fire was unknown, but it is supposed to have caught from matches in the hands of children.

Howard Greeley, 17 years old, student in the High school at Atkinson, is missing. He was last seen on Sunday, October 15, when he left his boarding house without notice, taking no one with him. He had sold his room in an untidy condition, which was not in harmony with his usual custom. His home is twenty miles northeast of Atkinson, where his parents are now living. He is a very bright boy and is very popular. Every possible effort is being made to locate the youth by telegraph and otherwise. Greeley took part in helping to locate the body of a man who was killed by a traveling hypnotist in the city. It is thought by some that the influence brought to bear upon him has turned his mind in this direction. He is a very bright boy and is very popular. He is a very bright boy and is very popular.

Sheriff Cole at Auburn received a telegram from the sheriff of Hancock county, Iowa, stating that he had arrested and was holding George H. Roy, for whom the state of Nebraska had a warrant for a robbery at Cheesman, at Brownville, last February. The prisoner admits he is the man wanted and offers to return to Cheesman in a week, pay a $200 fine and a $100 bond, and a $100 bond. The state offered the usual reward of $200, but all efforts to learn his whereabouts have been unavailing until the telegram was received from Garner.

Three large elevators have been destroyed by fire in Cheesman county within a week. In each instance the origin of the fires could not be explained and incrimination is strongly suspected. The first fire occurred at Monroe on the night of October 1, when the large elevator belonging to the Monroe Grain company was entirely destroyed. To go with contents, entailing a loss of about $40,000. The second fire was at Cheesman on the night of October 1, when the elevator of the Crowell Lumber and Grain company at Lindsay was burned to the ground, together with much other property valued at over $100,000. On the day night of this week the large elevator and feed mill of W. E. Cole at Monroe was destroyed, also the Union Park elevator at Cheesman. The loss in all cases is only by hard work being lost, but the part of the town was saved.

There is a great demand for hands to work corn in Johnson county. Most farmers want a man who can do 2 1/2 cents per bushel and board the workers. Hands who board themselves get 3 cents per bushel. The ears are large and a good hand can make pretty fair wages.

Receiver Whitmore of the First National bank of Neligh announces there will be a liberal dividend on the assets as soon as the checks can be returned from Washington. This will make 40 per cent that has been distributed in the past. As the assets of Nebraska are in a record in the bank books in this section.

THE TRANSVAAL WAR.

BOERS CAPTURE TWO CITIES FROM THE BRITISH.

Rumor, However, That Boers Were Repulsed at Mafeking with a Loss of 1,500.

London, (Special).—Last week was one of the most exciting known in the history of the world, as the Boers gathered there to learn the fate of the expedition to Gordon's relief.

The news that the Fifth Lancers had been ordered to march to the front and other friends of the regiment to inquire for news.

The gravest intelligence seems to be that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

The news that Commandant Joubert's northern column, with twelve guns, is now at Dannhauser is startling. Although the Boers have shown considerable activity in Natal, there is nothing to indicate that they are yet prepared for a serious combined attack.

It is reported that the Boers are in the hands of the officers at Elandslaagte. For it is understood that the whole line was patrolled.

It is reported were allowed at the front and it is known that the British information, and it is learned that General Sir Stewart White has been making extensive movements in that direction, and developments are hourly expected.

WAR SPIRIT RAMPANT

ENGLAND THOROUGHLY ENTHUSIASTIC OVER SITUATION.

London Talks Nothing But War and Is All Excitement Over Movements of Troops.

London, Oct. 24.—War talk reigns supreme everywhere in England. London is teeming with people notable for their loyalty to the British empire, when troops are being plied into transports and when everybody from her majesty down is saying "Good-by," "God bless you" and "Good luck to you." The news of the proclamation in their "horrible slaughter" and the ordinarily pacific stock brokers talk incessantly of strategic and military tactics.

There is nothing of the traditional shopkeeper element visible in British character since the first shot was fired. A multitude of military details and volunteers are being sent to the front and almost everybody who has ever been in South Africa takes the first opportunity to air his views as to the fighting capabilities of the British army.

The news of Friday's fighting in Natal made a tremendous sensation in London and the Duke and Duchess of the King's Royal Rifles and the Dublin Fusiliers greatly stimulated the universal enthusiasm. The total British force at the front is now estimated at 100,000 men, immediately preceding the announcement of the engagement, include the Eighteenth Hussars, the Natal mounted volunteers, the first of the King's Royal Rifles, the Second Dublin Fusiliers, the Devonshire regiment, the Dorsetshire regiment, seven field batteries, three field companies and three field batteries, a total of about 4,000 men, opposed to a Boer force estimated at twice that number and possibly reaching a higher figure.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Probably no other officer in the British army has seen more fighting than General Sir William Penn Symons, the commander of the Fourth division of the Natal Mounted Volunteers. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever. He is a white-haired man, but his eyes are as bright as ever.

Dr. CLARK
 Eye Specialist,
 of Sioux City, will be at
HOTEL BOYD,
WAYNE,
OCT. 27 and 28

RAILROAD TIME TABLE

EAST.	C. St. P., M. & O.	WEST.
8:00 A. M. Sioux City Passenger		5:00 P. M.
8:30 P. M. Sioux Hills Passenger		9:30 A. M.
7:25 A. M. Way Freight		2:30 A. M.
ARRIVE. BLOOMFIELD BRANCH. LEAVE.
7:00 A. M. Mixed.		9:30 A. M.
2:40 P. M.		5:05 P. M.

Corrected June 2, 1907. T. W. MORAN, Agent.

BY DAD.
 The melancholy days have come,
 The saddest of the year;
 A little too hot for whisky,
 And too cold for beer.
 That is what we heard one of the local sports singing the other day.

They tell me that one of the classical ladies of the town recently prepared and read before the society to which she belongs an elaborate and scientific article on "literature" in which the Police Gazette and NEBRASKA DEMOCRAT were held up as the two most horrible examples in the western hemisphere.

A campaigner was out in the northwest part of the county the other day, and to get in a political wedge in a conversation with a doubtful voter asked: "How do you think Fred Volpp is going to run in your precinct?" "Well, I hardly know," replied the doubtful one; "Fred Volpp is an awfully good, nice fellow, and I'd like to vote for him only for what a republican told me about him the other day." "What was that?" anxiously queried the politician; "Why, he told me that Volpp wouldn't let his wife talk one word of English to their children." It was an easy matter to clinch that vote for Volpp, as the latter has been married ten or twelve years and is not yet a daddy. And, under the circumstances we can hardly blame the canvasser for telling the farmer that the republican candidate was even meaner than Volpp for he wouldn't allow his children to talk neither English or Dutch.

"I," shouts a prominent republican, "am going to vote the whole fusion county ticket, and I'll tell you why; that party's candidates can't do anything to perpetuate the organization to which they belong and I believe in adding to that class of society so that we may soon be rid of the entire cheese." I asked him what he was driving at and for answer he handed me the following statement:
 Fred Volpp, married 13 years, no children
 John Coyle, " " " " " "
 J. M. Cherry " 15 " " " "
 Andy Shinn " 23 " " " "
 Chas. W. Reynolds, too young
 Charlotte M. White too

A good many farmers are just now looking for men who can husk eighty bushels of corn per day. The farmers ought to capture them in the spring. That's when they are thickest.

A fashion paper says that opera gowns will be worn lower this season, and an exchange says this seems to mean unusually narrow bells.

Ask Jeweler Mines why he was on last Monday morning singing: "Little Drops of Water," and "Through the Keyhole in the Door."

The night of the republican funeral last week Mr. and Mrs. Skeen were among the dozen of people or so assembled at the opera house, Mrs. Skeen being the only lady present. When F. M. Northrop commenced his wheezing claptrap Mr. Skeen pulled his hat down over his ears, got up and was followed out of the house by his better half. The next morning a close friend of Mr. Northrop's asked Mr. Skeen why he so plainly showed his disrespect for the county nutmeg, and received the reply that: "I didn't go up there to hear John Bressler's office boy sputter, not by a h—l of a sight."

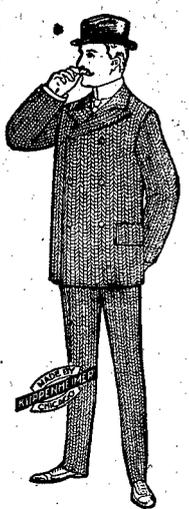

A half dozen people who heard young Whittaker orating (?) at the opera house last week have been wondering why the boy didn't say something aside from trying to abuse Silas A. Holcomb; the whole burden of his song being that he, Whittaker, was a democrat but opposed to Holcomb because Holcomb didn't take all the money appropriated by the state for house rent. The whole thing hits the ground with one of those dull sickly hits, when it is known that this kid Whittaker is married to Judge Reese's daughter. Wouldn't such a con game blow out—Bob Wilkin's cigaroot.

It looks as though blood might flow before election day. The Winside Tribune refers to our county superintendent as a "fossil."

COLLEGE NOTES.
 Mr. Kempster leaves today for Cripple Creek, where he has accepted a position as shorthand clerk.
 The dormitory students held a pleasant social in the chapel last Saturday evening.
 Mr. Arhus of Boyd county was visiting some college students from his county last Friday.
 Several of the students wrote the county examination last Friday and Saturday.
 Miss Lizze Meher a former student visited her sister and other friends at the college over Sunday.
 Miss Chase was called to Pierce last Saturday on account of her father's serious illness. She writes that he is very low and not much hope of recovery.
 Miss Bailey who was a member of last year's graduating class spent Saturday and Sunday visiting the teachers. She is meeting with much success in her teaching.
 Rev. Young with Mr. Bancroft of New York visited college last Friday. The latter gentleman conducted chapel exercises and made a very pleasant talk to us. He is secretary of the Sunday School Union.
 The majority of the students who room at the dormitories attended the lecture Monday evening. All were well pleased and will attend the entire series.
 Miss Agnes Leonard's brother visited her Saturday and Sunday. He has just returned from Manila and is glad to get back to his South Dakota home. He was in the First South Dakota regiment and went through much of the fighting around Manila.
 Mr. Ashton writes the college that he is getting along well as principle at Boelus. He was a member of the teachers class of '07. He attended with us last summer and did some advanced work in Latin and sciences.
 Miss Hattie McGurdy went to her home

THE 2 JOHNS
One Price Cash Clothing House.

One Month In Wayne
 We have been here long enough to demonstrate to our entire satisfaction that we have made no mistake in locating here. Our business so far has been more than double what we expected and with our sales daily increasing we feel that the people of Wayne county appreciate our efforts to please them. We wish to say to all who have had occasion to send to Omaha and other places for clothing that we will be pleased to duplicate price and will be glad to order anything that we may not have for you and you need not take anything unless satisfactory.

We will Pay Express Charges

We sell many lines not sold here before and our NEW METHOD of selling, will, we think, please you. With us you take no chances in buying. Our experience of over twenty years enables us to select only such goods as will give entire satisfaction. Much of our goods is manufactured expressly for us and nothing like it can be purchased elsewhere. We sell the same line every year so you need not experiment in trading with us. Try us and see how different it is to buy clothing at an exclusive clothing store and of experienced clothing salesmen. We have the only exclusive clothing store in Wayne and make clothing a study. We will please you and will satisfy you that in trading with us you get the best and cheapest.

We have Exclusive Sale
 Of Kuppenheimer Clothing, Suits, Shoes, Tiger Hats, Socks Underwear. All these lines we have handled for 20 years and we guarantee every article. Duck coats and Overalls are made expressly for us and are different than any you have been buying. Give these goods a trial and you will buy no other.

we buy for Cash we sell for Cash

Insure you the very Lowest Prices.

Everything is marked in plain figures and sold at one price to all

John H. Kate.
 We speak German and Swede.

at Madison last Friday. She is spending this week in Kansas City with her father who is there to attend a large cattle sale.

Among the new students this week are Mr. Muehling of Platte county and the Misses Longcor of Harlin, Iowa. The former will take the commercial course and remain till April. The ladies will remain until August and complete the teachers course.

WINSIDE NEWS.
 Victor Carlson has bought the Andy Shinn farm east of town and will make it his future home. Victor thought a year ago that Illinois was a better state than Nebraska and moved there, now he says there is no place like this state.

Charles Jones who lives three miles south of here was riding a horse when it slipped and fell throwing him and falling on him in such a manner as to break his ankle. Dr. Cherry was called to reduce the fracture.

There was a German family came to town Thursday to have their photos taken and it took two wagons to haul them all in. Who says they can't raise crops in Nebraska.

Some of Dr. Bumpus' patients and friends of osteopathy here are much interested in the outcome of his trial.

Mrs. Dr. Cherry is assisting Mr. Crosby in the bank while Mr. Chapin takes a short vacation.

The Catholic ladies are preparing to give a Halloween social.

Mrs. Larson of Minneapolis is visiting her sister Mrs. John Cookus.

Mrs. B. Ramsey is quite sick at present.

Wm. Wright was in the city this week looking after his interests here.

Ed. Rennie shipped cattle to Chicago last Monday and Jim Baird to Omaha Wednesday.

The new residence Ed. Cullen is making a good showing. When it is completed it will be one of the best houses in town.

Harry Workmann has another car load of good horses in town which he is selling to farmers.

CARROLL NEWS.
 New boy babies have registered at the home of Charles Marshall and T. Casey.
 M. S. Merrill was in town this week from Vermillion.
 J. G. Morrison of Lincoln is building a dwelling house on his property. And still they come.
 Dr. Little of Bloomfield was visiting friends here Wednesday evening.
 The placing of the name of Andy Shinn on the ticket by the fusionist seems to meet with the approval of the silver people here and believe he will be a strong candidate so far as the people of this section of the county is concerned.
 Howell Reese lost two steers by lightning Tuesday afternoon. This makes three losses Mr. Reese has had by lightning in less than a year. He will not lose much as he carries insurance.
 If the weather is favorable a large number from here will hear Altgeld at Wayne Saturday evening.
 Grant Swartz, aged 15 years was accidentally shot by another boy at Minneapolis, Kansas, where his folks reside, last Saturday and died Sunday. His body was shipped to this place and the funeral was held in the M. E. church Wednesday afternoon, a minister from Sioux City preached the funeral sermon. His remains were laid to rest in

AN OPEN LETTER
Being a Reply to Judge Moses' Letter in the Herald of Oct. 5th.

The Judge says his reasons for voting for Mr. Welch for District Judge are so many that he fears people won't have patience to hear them and gives as his first the "scratching" a name which it represents "fraud." I would like to see a laudable reason—now, to "scratch backs"—there's not one of any substance in his whole long letter. To be sure he states the words "ability," "honor," "honesty," and "principle" or its plural; as well might he have dusted these words out of a pepper castor; they are dry, common nouns that do not stand for the proper noun, Anson A. Welch. Let us examine this man Welch's practice and SEE. In the year 1885, the year our so called Agricultural Society was organized, Mr. Welch was treasurer—the man who handles the money, mind you—and here's the way his Cash Book read: Cash $970.00; (on a stated date); on other dates $150.00; and so on. Not a name stated as to who bought shares at $10.00 each nor even the number of the share. The whole moneys the BOOKS showed as received were entered in this way and if any one should look whether the money he paid for shares was accounted for the "bookkeeper" could only say, "It may be in this $970.00 or it may be in that $150.00; and the man who paid the money in for his shares might say, "And it may be in your pocket!"

There was a great deal of money taken in that year by selling shares and at the gate also, and only ten cents on the dollar paid in premiums. A good many were newcomers and strangers in the county and UNSEASONED. In fact that was the year "unfortunately that" "all of the people were fooled PART OF THE TIME," and so it was believed that the agricultural society would be conducted true to name, and every body was above suspicion, (I mean of the outlanders of course. There were stool pigeons in those days, but the outlanders didn't know it.) A Cash Book kept in this way is like throwing the money into a basket without keeping any account of it. No person would permit his bookkeeper to keep a book in this way, nothing could be traced. Years afterwards when the books came into my hands, I looked them over, and talked about this; then the next time I saw them, after they passed out of my hand, these leaves of Mr. Welch's bookkeeping were all cut out and not to be found. Deny this you who dare, by showing the book. Is this the kind of a man you want on the bench, Mr. Moses?

Another case connected with this so-called Agricultural Society is the Olmsted case. Mr. Olmsted had contracted with Mr. Ran Frazier, the then president of the society and the duly appointed party to contract for the remaking of the trotting track on the fair grounds, and no party denied the fulfillment of the contract by Olmsted. Welch was employed either by Olmsted before he died or by his widow afterwards, and if this man Welch was true to his client in this case no person could think so for a minute. Mrs. Olmsted was not present, all was entrusted to the management of her attorney and—well "Man proud man clothed with a little brief authority plays such' fantastical before high Heaven as make the angels weep." There were no angels there, but, had there been a brass monkey, its ears should have buzzed off for very shame. Did Mrs. Olmsted get judgment? Not! and Mr. Olmsted's widow and Mr. Olmsted's little orphans—they were then small—were cheated out of their rights by this high handed hold-up. Is THIS the man you want on the bench, Mr. Moses? Is this the oraque man you want us to set a galaxy of "honor," "honesty," "legal ability" and a lot of other literary gems around? "Forbid it Almighty God!"

Another little case went through court that I don't care to be brief about, because it was my own. This man Welch was counsel for the city when it was organized into a body corporate, and he fixed up the papers and bounds and limits, and took me and my 20 acres into the city although I forbid it. He didn't take me in for love or for my benefit at all—just "FOR REVENUE ONLY," and said he could HOLD me in—He's a lawyer! I said he couldn't. The result was I lawed him OUT. Now he was NOT a lawyer of "ability" else he'd have made his opinion GOOD, or else he knew BETTER than his word and told what he knew to be false—Take it which you please Mr. Moses, and then tell us if this is the man you want on the bench to see truth and justice upheld. I might refer to other cases in which this man Welch was employed in the capacity of county attorney where the way they were handled by him was an outrage. Passing by these by mere mention, let me ask you how you were pleased by the way Welch prosecuted the Rash case. Rash was a brute and premeditated murderer—you may not have heard about him at all or if you have, have forgotten about him and Welch and the whole thing—Well as I was going to say he lived down near where you do, and he murdered his whole family, wife and children—murdered his wife while his own little son hung to his legs, screaming to his father to not kill his mother, but he killed her, and then killed his son. Well Mr. Moses your friend Welch, was prosecuting attorney at that time, he was detailed or elected to take care of the commonwealth and the people of Wayne county knows how he did it. Rash plead "insanity," the only plea he could put up, but if you think Rash or Welch or both were "insane" at that time, nobody else that ever I heard talk about it, thought so and I hope they won't forget this outrage when they come to vote. Rash insane! not much, he had sense enough to pick the best attorney in the county when the judge told him to choose an attorney to defend himself, and this brute murderer slid safely through Welch's hands, and left our county—Welch and the costs. Be candid Mr. Moses, and tell us the real reason you skip from your party to vote for a man of this record. You know this man is not what a judge ought to be. Let me refresh your memory by reminding you that your own son who studied under Welch was so disgusted with the practice that he quit and became an honest farmer. If through such misrepresentations as set forth in your letter, this man should unfortunately for the people of this judicial district, be elected, will he not be a tool of the Bar and a disgrace to the judiciary?
 R. H. GIBSON, REPUBLICAN.

M. N. Conover is now in Chicago at the hospital.
 He hasn't time to call round and see you, but you know he is honest, and the poor man's friend—Hon. Andy Shinn for county judge.

Man Wanted!

Has been the cry of late. Now, I can your man if you want a
Load of Hay
 Load of Straw
 Load of Cobs

Or hauling done of any kind. Will also much trees or take any job that comes along.
J. C. Pawelski.

Ladies Wraps.

Owing to a large shipment of Ladies Jackets, Capes and Collarettes, we are in better shape than ever to please you in this line. Never before have we shown such good values in Ladies Jackets, at $5.50, 6.00, 7.50, 8.00, 9.50. Also good assortment of Childrens wraps. Now is your chance before the sizes are broken.

Overcoats

See out overcoat line for men and boys, they are right, also Fur coats, prices always the lowest.
 Yours for business,

THE RACKET

J. M. STRAHAN, President.
 Frank Strahan, Vc. President.
 H. F. WILSON, Cash.
 NATHAN CHACE, Ass't. Cashier.
FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $100,000
 DIRECTORS.
 J. M. Strahan, George Bogart, Frank M. Northrop, Frank Fuller, John T. Bressler, Frank E. Strahan, H. F. Wilson, General Banking Business done. Accounts of Merchants and Farmers solicited.

See Them Come.

They are coming to Hornby & Co's. store by Train loads to buy their Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Gents Furnishing goods and Groceries for they know that we can save them money.
 We are also running a feed and flour exchange and will give you as much flour, shorts and bran as you can get at the mills. We are also selling the far famed Mystic Mills flour and will sell it to you cheaper than you can buy the same grade any place else. Bring in your butter and eggs and get the highest market price for them.

W. B. Hornby & Co.
 CARROLL, NEB.

Cold Chilly Winds

Will soon be whistling through that summer suit, and they will say "why not buy good tailor made clothes of the new tailors,

Tweed & Reed?

We have a fine line of sample goods to select from, and our prices are going to be very moderate. We guarantee our goods to fit your frame be you tall fat or lean.

First to Come
 Will get the best bargains and the best selections. Always glad to meet you and have a little talk on this subject.

Tweed & Reed
 The Main Street Tailors, Wayne, Nebraska.

MILLINERY

We have just received a new order of

Winter - Hats

all kinds of

STREET - HATS

Large assortment of Kid Gloves from $1.00 to $1.50.

Miss H. Wilkinson,
 Opposite Postoffice, Wayne.