Take clock repairing to Mines. Best bargains on earth—E. J. JONES Dr. Heckert, dentist, over Miller's W. A. Ivory, dentist, over First Nat. Bank. Try P. L. Miller & Son's Amazon Brand Bulk Pickles. Phone Homer Skeen for all type-writing work. Office over postoffice. CORN CRIBBING will be higher, Buy Now of E. M. SMITH. Bake with Success Patent. It is the flour that beats all others. $1 per sack. BUGGIES:—Just call at our repository and get our figures—you'll buy from Jones. Farmers, go to P. L. Miller & Son and buy the very best machine oil for only 40c a gallon. The republican papers of the county are all evidently unanimous for J. M. Cherry for sheriff. Nothing finer in the country than those beautiful new Bookcases and secretaries at Gaertner's. And then they were happily married after he had bought one of those new buggies of Eli Jones. Now is the time to buy a set of dishes. P. L. Miller & Son carry eight different patterns in porcelain ware. Candidates for office are likely to run down if not well fed. To be fat, healthy and successful should try P. L. Miller & Son's groceries. The weather after being almost perfect for three weeks, turned decidedly cold last Tuesday night. But next Tuesday is when things will freeze up to beat the band. The boys raised sheep Tuesday night, as many as one and a half on Wednesday morning. Let the boys have their fun, we are all young once. Mrs. Ware anywhere—"What lovely things you have, Mrs. Bargaingetter. Mrs. Bargaingetter—"Yes, they are lovely and they are cheap. I bought them at P. L. Miller & Son's store." The Wayne Republican says R. H. Gibson's letter in last week's DEMOCRAT is a good thing for A. A. Welch as Gibson is a booby. Well, let the Republican try to do so. We'll see what S. B. Russell's friends have to say about it next Tuesday. There doesn't appear to be much money put up on this election. Two years ago the republicans had all kinds of coin and a pretty good ticket. This year of prosperity they have no money and a miserable ticket. 'Tis well. A few republicans of Wayne, of which crowd the Republican is chief spokesman, are still very sore over the defeat of F. L. Neely two years ago, and are now electing John R. Coyle to vent their spleen. As a matter of history Coyle made a gentlemanly and clean campaign two years ago and defeated Mr. Neely fair and square, so far as he is concerned. The trouble with the Neely and Republican outfit is that they had previously done the Herald and its friends some dirty work, and the Herald crowd turned the tables on them in '97 and beat Neely into the ground. Therefore, these fellows who are now lying about Coyle are mighty small potatoes and still showing their wounds which will not heal—because their blood is bad. What has become of the repeated assertion that "the market reports was doing the talking for the republican party." The farmer is still waiting for this much wanted prosperity to come, and lift the price of his products, so that he may enter into the "bargain" circle of enjoyment which reached the trusts articles. He has cheerfully paid the trusts prices and smiled, but the market report of the field, there is a shortage of 150,000,000 in the wheat crops, and we have the best tariff bill ever enacted and trust prices have increased from 20 to 100 per cent, labor is of course all employed and according to the protection theory must have been laboring like a house afire ever since McKinley started the wheels of prosperity and wheat is worth 49 cents, oats 14, corn 19, potatoes 15 and other farm products in proportion.

Chattel Mortgage blanks for sale at the DEMOCRAT office. I have just unpacked a number of elegant new Rockers. J. P. Gaertner.

August Hohneke and Charley Green of Hoskins were in town yesterday. LaRoy Millard's minstrels is one of the best troops on the road, they will be at the Wayne opera house Nov. 8.

County Judge Hunter yesterday married G. A. Halkens of Bloomfield and Miss Matilda Ufecht of Wayne. The new election laws do not seem to cut much figure with a certain gang of eight seven kinds of beer were sent out south of Wineside to make the Germans vote for a republican candidate. Chaplain Mailley is squealing like a whipped child because his "private correspondence" to his superiors while he was in the Philippines has been made public. The question naturally arises, did Mailley tell the truth while he was yet in the Philippines and liable to court-martial for criticizing his superior officers, or is he telling the truth now that he has returned to Nebraska and entered the employ of the Republican State Central Committee, which committee is now very busy handling out some $60,000 of Hanna boodle.

LaRoy Millard's famous minstrels at the opera house Nov. 8. Buy your CORN CRIBBING of E. M. SMITH. Miss Mears came home from Sioux City last night. Rev. F. M. Williams of Lincoln will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. Assistant State Superintendent of schools Beck was in town yesterday on educational matters. Boys! Eli Jones has this week received a new stock of buggies that will put a smile on any maiden's face. "Great Scott! what good bread that is, Maria." "Yes William, and that is made from that 90 cents sack flour we got at P. L. Miller & Son's grocery."

At the present rate of increase it is only a question of time, and short time at that, until the fighting blood of Wayne will be forced to go to war, or at least join the army. The United States army has increased the past year from 25,000 men to 99,160, and still the enlisting stations are looking for all the raw recruits that volunteer.

The Dearborn-McNeal syndicate is making strenuous efforts to bolster up their man Wilkins by making the false statement that P. H. Kohl is trading off Coyle for Volpp, votes. The facts of the matter are that Mr. Kohl is making a vigorous fight for John Coyle's election as well as for Fred Volpp. Every democrat in the county is supporting Messrs Volpp and Coyle with the exception of perhaps a few fellows who are members of the Wayne Sporting club. At the time of the future convention there was considerable ill feeling between members of that party, but the contending forces have gotten together stronger than ever before. Because F. A. Dearborn and W. H. McNeal have always been in the business of trading off their own party candidates to elect "good fellows" on the other ticket is no reason why they should imagine, for a minute, that real democrats and true republicans are built on this plan. As the DEMOCRAT has heretofore stated, neither love of friends and relatives nor big money will persuade us in supporting any poor kind of a republican for office.

Wayne Republican.—Because Bert Brown is a gentleman at all times and under all circumstances and because he does not indulge in revelties that degrade and unfit him for the duties of an official, he is branded by the pushers of his opponent as a prohibitionist charge that is as groundless as it would be to say that John R. Coyle never gets drunk. If Cunningham can prove to us that he ever saw Coyle drunk or unfit to attend his duties at the court house DEMOCRAT man has been in Coyle's company considerable the past few years and we have yet to see him under the influence of liquor either at home or out of town. No one in Wayne county ever found John Coyle else than a gentleman. Talk about "indulging in revelties that degrade," why not look at your own ticket? You have out of the dirtiest beasts in the state of Nebraska on it, and every body knows that the crime of drunkness, if it is a crime, would be in infinitesimal compared to the notorious debauches at questionable resorts indulged in continually by your own candidate.

Gibson Makes Answer. I have been asked to notice certain slurs in Cunningham's paper in regard to my open letter replying to Judge Moses. The people who notice that this slubber does not pretend to deny what I have alleged. Those statements cannot be met and the good people will vote accordingly. Go on with your low bred phrases, poor conscienceless cormorant, it is hard for you to say anything but what you were bred. You can make slurs and sling it but you can't make people believe you and you have found this out since you have been "capping" on the streets. A big raw-boned fellow like you—a kind of cross between a navy and a long-shore-man ought to be ashamed to make noise living setting up type in big bare falsehoods, booming people that can't boom themselves by honest, trustworthy work. N. B.—The above paragraph is for the public to notice. You, Cunningham, are entirely beneath my lance. R. H. GIBSON.

Wayne Republican.—Because Bert Brown is a gentleman at all times and under all circumstances and because he does not indulge in revelties that degrade and unfit him for the duties of an official, he is branded by the pushers of his opponent as a prohibitionist charge that is as groundless as it would be to say that John R. Coyle never gets drunk. If Cunningham can prove to us that he ever saw Coyle drunk or unfit to attend his duties at the court house DEMOCRAT man has been in Coyle's company considerable the past few years and we have yet to see him under the influence of liquor either at home or out of town. No one in Wayne county ever found John Coyle else than a gentleman. Talk about "indulging in revelties that degrade," why not look at your own ticket? You have out of the dirtiest beasts in the state of Nebraska on it, and every body knows that the crime of drunkness, if it is a crime, would be in infinitesimal compared to the notorious debauches at questionable resorts indulged in continually by your own candidate.

Gibson Makes Answer. I have been asked to notice certain slurs in Cunningham's paper in regard to my open letter replying to Judge Moses. The people who notice that this slubber does not pretend to deny what I have alleged. Those statements cannot be met and the good people will vote accordingly. Go on with your low bred phrases, poor conscienceless cormorant, it is hard for you to say anything but what you were bred. ### Boy's Clothing

Dress the boy right and you will be proud of him and he of himself, as one sensible mother remarked, children are better mannered when well dressed. They are half awkward and ill at ease when in shabby attire, and its true that it don't cost much to dress a boy well, and here is the proof. Good 3 piece suits, sailor color, nicely trimmed $1.25. Good three piece, vest suits, in gray, black and blue $2.25. Good three piece, vest suits, in different colors $2.75. Good three piece, vest suits, all wool 3.00 to $4.50. ### BRYAN AT SYRAGUSE.

CHAMPION OF THE PEOPLE ADDRESSSES CITIZENS OF OTTOE.

Denounces the Republican Party and its Fight for Empire and Militarism.

Syracuse, Neb., Oct. 25.—A cold and dreary day, a cold and drizzling rain, skies dark and overcast—these were the untoward conditions that William F. Bryan met this afternoon on his arrival at Syracuse to greet his friends of Ottoe county. But if the weather was unpropitious the crowd was decidedly the reverse.

Hundreds of people were at the depot as Bryan came in, cheering him and pushing and reaching to grasp his hand. They escorted him up town, many of them tramping down the middle of the muddy streets, the better to see the familiar features so well beloved. It was at Syracuse nine years ago in his first campaign for congress that Mr. Bryan met his series of debates with W. J. Connel, presenting him with a copy of Gray's elegy in a country church yard. From that day to this a love and reverence for Bryan has been cherished in the breasts of the fusion forces of this vicinity.

That sentiment was never before; not even in 1896. It is so long as it is this fall. The open fight which is being waged by the republicans against Bryan, that Grover Cleveland's wish might be gratified, has aroused his friends in Ottoe county to a feeling of stern resolution and unconquerable purpose. They are going to exert their every endeavor to see that Holcomb's majority is so large this fall that Grover Cleveland and Mark Hanna cannot fail to realize that Nebraska has again chosen Bryan and repudiated McKinley.

DEMOCRACY UNDIVIDED.

In Ottoe county are many Germans, and almost to a man they are opposed to the republican policy of a big standing army, and they realize that to defeat this measure the only way can be made to count this fall if it is to be a bulwark against the entire republican ticket.

Mr. F. E. Haas introduced Mr. Bryan in his own words and as if it were an hour and a half the leader of the nation's democracy pleaded with the people of the country to stand by their old and tried principles. Mr. Bryan quoted from Mark Hanna, his statement that the people need not worry about the trusts, that the republican party would take care of them.

WHAT A VOTE MEANS.

Mr. Bryan took up in turn the leading issues of the campaign and asked the voters this fall declare themselves. "If you are opposed to the republican policy of a big standing army, of taking care of trusts, of imperialism, of a big navy, register your opposition by voting for Grover Cleveland and Mark Hanna, the candidates."

DELAYED ON THE ROAD.

Weeping Water, Neb.—It was after 9 o'clock tonight when Mr. Bryan reached Weeping Water, having been almost an hour on the road between this place and Syracuse. The frequent and heavy rains the road has become exceedingly heavy and the mist and

BANKS ARE ORGANIZED

AND ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN THE POLITICS OF THE STATE.

T. H. Tibbles, of the Nebraska Independent, Shows Up Some of Their Methods.

Lincoln, Neb.—(Special).—The banks are thoroughly organized and are actively engaged in the politics of the state. The officers of these institutions are continually standing up on the house-tops and thanking the Lord that they are not like other men. They insist that they are as solid as the rock of ages, financially, politically, intellectually, and otherwise, and so long as these institutions are assuming to set the standard of excellence they should have no objections to the reading of their own sworn statements to the state banking board.

Let everybody be thankful that there are a few bright and shining examples among the banks which do not take such an egotistical position. T. H. Tibbles, editor of the Nebraska Independent, is one of the editors in Nebraska who watches the bank statements closely and make an attempt to analyze them systematically. And because he makes a plain statement of the financial condition of Nebraska banks, the gold standard crew hate him worse than the devil hates holy water.

Here is the abstract of the report of the condition of the state banks at the close of business September 11, showing a total of 403 banks, an increase of five banks.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Assets, Liabilities, and Total.

UPON THE DISSECTING TABLE.

Let us dissect this statement. The resources exactly equal the liabilities. That's bookkeeping. Loans and discounts are evidences of indebtedness owing by the banks' customers to the banks; if the banks are good, and the presumption is that most of them are, they will become available assets some time. Overdrafts are also debts due the banks by depositors. Stocks, securities, etc., are also evidences of indebtedness by corporations and municipalities. Due from national, state and private banks and bankers is another debt due these state banks, and all good so long as the national, state and private banks and bankers do not close their doors for repairs. Current expenses and taxes paid is a curious item to stand as a resource, but that's another trick of bookkeeping; the expense account is debited for all expenses paid, and until the books are closed it stands as a debt due the bank; when finally closed the amount of this item reduces the undivided profits just so much. Premiums on bonds, etc., cannot be regarded as an asset because the bonds will sell enough to recover the premiums paid; but the item goes in just like the expense account. "Assets not otherwise

TALK ABOUT WOMEN.

One of the rapidly thinning band of old abolitionists is Mrs. Frances E. H. Hall of Pittsburg, who celebrated her 74th birthday recently.

General Joubert's wife has gone with him in all his campaigns and is said to be the only woman who has seen the development of his strategic plans. A bill has been presented to the senate of Brazil, authorizing women to practice the law in professions. Here, therefore there has been no question that country as to "why is marriage a failure?"

Miss Anastasia Miller of Versailles, Ky., a student at Wellesley, left the class the other day because she found herself seated beside a fellow-student who was a member of the same class. Her friends have been summoned, and it is supposed that she will have to surrender or leave. She is said to expect to have to do the latter.

The widow of former Governor Atkinson of Georgia has created something of a sensation in business and social circles by going into the field as a general agent for the first and life insurance companies. She says her purpose is to make a living and educate her five children. She is already doing well and has received letters of congratulation from numerous society women.

A schoolgirl at Wabash, Ind., is suffering from paralysis of the muscles of the mouth, caused by a persistent chewing gum. As a result the left side of her mouth is drawing up toward the ear, and whether the affliction will yield to treatment, aided by refraining from the vicious practice, is still problematical.

Mrs. Jennie June Croly, who founded the New York Woman's Press club ten years ago, resigned as president of that organization, largely on account of ill-health and will return to England to reside there in the future. The work of new editorial boards expected to take place soon. The principal candidates are Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden and Rev. Phoebe Hanaford.

A suit in New York over a sum of about $700 left by a widow is being fought on the ground that since the woman's income was only $25 a month she could not have saved any money, and the cash must, therefore, have been a part of the deceased husband's estate. The court has ruled in favor of the woman, and the cash must, therefore, have been a part of the deceased husband's estate.

FILLS OF FASHION.

At present there seems not the slightest indication that the winter will be shorter of their popular dip or a sweep at the back. A new and stylish French walking coat in Louis XVI style is round-detailed, cut away on the fronts and has two under arm darts which extend down over the hips. The coat fits as closely to the figure as a French riding habit.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

London contains eighty-five women physicians. Mexico sold the United States $2,000,000 worth of hides last year. Day county, South Dakota, has produced more than a million dollars worth of American shoe manufacturers can undersell the local producer in South Africa.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

Therapeutic value of the new steel works at Joliet, Ill., will give employment to about 1,800 men, the company now operates the old Fox steel plant at Joliet. Employees of the Dodge Manufacturing company at Mishawaka, Ind., are preparing to start a co-operative store for the benefit of employees of all the factories of that city. They allege exorbitant prices for the necessities of life.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

The mission income for the last year in Great Britain amounted to $12,750,000. Of this sum the Church Mission society, of the city of London, church organization within the Church of England, received $1,500,000. Next comes the British and Foreign Bible society, whose work is done in the field of the home fields, and it received about $1,000,000. The London Missionary society received about $750,000.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

This seems to be a season of unparalleled growth in the telephone business, says the Electrical Review. In New York about a thousand new instruments a month are a month are being installed, while in Chicago about eight hundred new stations are connected monthly. Were it not for the shortage and high price of copper, making cables and wires, the growth of these figures would be largely exceeded. To a degree the same state of things holds good for the independent companies and all lines of public communication.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

Liquids spilled by children while drinking will not penetrate the clothing of a new bib is used, having its upper portion of similar shape to those now in use, while the lower part is formed of an absorbent sort of sufficient diameter to take up the liquids spilt.

LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

By the use of a Colorado man's invention an ironing board can be used in connection with an ordinary table, a pair of spring brackets being pivoted on the table legs with means for securing them in an extended position when the board is to be used.

A Letter Written while he was in the Philippines Shows What Manner of Man He is.

MANILA, P. I., Jan. 30th, 1899.—Hon. W. L. Stark, Washington, D. C.: My dear friend—Yours of Dec. 21 is at hand. I thank you for giving the matter your attention. I, as well as others here, feel that we should now be at home had not some dirty work been done somewhere.

I have no doubt that it was the intention of the war department to relieve us with the regulars now en route, but things are in a very unsettled condition here at present. The natives are determined to be satisfied with nothing short of independence, now or prospectively, and declare themselves ready to fight to the death rather than yield. I read their papers regularly (published in Spanish), and if the utterances of their editorial writers are any index to the sentiments of the people our work is cut out for us the moment it is known that the policy of the administration is for annexation. At the adoption of their constitution at Malolos not long since one of their speakers (the principal one, in fact) said: "We are ready to dig a large grave for ourselves and our invaders." THE ANNEXATION OF THESE ISLANDS AGAINST THE WISHES OF THE PEOPLE WOULD BE A GROSS VIOLATION OF EVERY PRINCIPLE HELD DEAR BY AMERICANS. IT MUST NOT BE AND I HOPE YOU WILL FIGHT IT.

A word about Colonel Stotsenburg. ON THE DEATH of his application through military channels for an original coloncy in one of the new regiments to be created in the expansion of the regular army. It is the hope of the entire regiment that he will not get it. He is very unpopular, and deservedly so. He is one of the most selfish men in the army. What few friends he had before he was made colonel have become soured upon him. When his regiment is mustered out he will be the most unpopular man in Nebraska. To make an impression upon the generals at the next general inspection he is driving the men very hard, and his connection with the outpost duty they have to do, is telling on them severely. Our sick list which fell off rapidly after we came to camp is again climbing up. The regiment is again being used as a tool to further S.'s personal schemes. Oppose his appointment and get him out of his own regiment and you will earn the eternal gratitude of the First Nebraska.

"This letter is strictly personal and private. Am well. Yours truly, JAMES MAILLEY." "Chaplain First Nebraska Cavalry." "I certify that the above is a true copy of the original letter of Chaplain James Mailley, now on file in this office. P. H. BARRY, Adjutant General."

Altgeld Meeting a Success.

Fusionists are feeling good over the grand and magnificent speech of Hon. John P. Altgeld last Saturday night, which was superior to anything ever heard in Wayne. An immense audience was present, many being unable to get in the opera house. After several good selections by the band, Guy R. Wilbur introduced the speaker and for an hour and a half Mr. Altgeld held the closest possible attention. Mr. Altgeld's appearance and speech was a great surprise to many. Gentle in manner, of a kindly nature, and of great appealing force, he is the last man in the universe one would suspect of harboring other than the most loyal devotion to a country. One of the great scholars of the period, Wayne was highly honored by his visit. A synopsis of his speech will be found on page 6 of this paper.

A Dialogue of '99.

If our friend Eph, had been at the right place at the right time would have heard the following conversation; one of his "used-to-be-friends" being the principal character in the play.
Farmer Jones:—"I say, Brown, how are you feeling along school lines for the coming election?"
Farmer Brown:—"Well, I'll tell you, Jones, I am a republican to the back bone, but I don't like to see that gang of Cunninghams this week get away with me."
F. J.:—"Go slow, Brown. Remember you have always stuck up for the Wayne Republican and wanted to kick me out for saying it printed more lies than truth."
F. B.:—"Well, I've got my own individual interests at stake, now. That's different you know. The position of county superintendent lies very near my own door; almost like a department of my own home. Why, talk about an up-to-date superintendent! There isn't a better posted person in the county than Miss White, especially on educational matters. I don't think she needs any more practice! Lundberg doesn't hold a comparison to Miss White if we consider the number of years."
"Why, Jones, I'll tell you what is an honest fact. I dropped into the teachers association up here in the old Presbyterian church, one day, and I heard Ed Lundberg say, with these very ears of mine, that we had through the high school of Wayne that he did not know a verb from a proposition, and there were a hundred teachers there who heard him say the same thing. And he said furthermore, that he had boys in his school, twenty years old, whom he couldn't make understand and use, capital letters properly."
"Talk about being fortunate in being able to secure the services of such a young man. Why, Jones, there are dozens of young teachers right out in the county schools who have better plans of teaching and can better handle the difficulties which beset the teachers of rural schools than that angel of a Lundberg. Any one who has ever attended a teachers meeting where he took an active part will say the same thing."
F. J.:—"Perhaps he will make a good enough superintendent after he has been in office a few years. Ha, ha, ha."
F. B.:—"Stacious no goodnads! Have we got to train up young gabble-gabble-know-nothings at the peril of our own children's welfare? I tell you Jones, it is no trifling matter. It is altogether too risky. What do we want a superintendent for, anyway? Why, Miss White knows every chick and egg in the county, she knows what she knows, she knows them wherever she sees them. Knows them when she sees them in Wayne as well as at their homes, and calls them by their names, too. And not only that, but she knows their parents and their general condition of affairs surrounding each. And I tell you that she knows more about it than any superintendent who has ever been in a difficulty arising in any school, and we write to Miss White about it, she knows all about the school; all about how it has been taught before; and all about how the neighbors get along and who has ever made trouble before. She knows just how each school house is furnished; what they need and what they don't. She knows just what schools need men teachers and which ones can be best handled by the loving influence of a lady. I tell you, Jones, she knows just what a superintendent ought to know, and for my part, republican or no republican. I wish the wheels of politics would stand still long enough to elect a superintendent who has been tested and tried, who has but one purpose in life of living, studying and dying for the children of this generation, and who has always been more thoughtful of others than herself. We have had men for superintendents before and they all had to, or at least claimed to, vote for the same other business at the same time as that position did not take all their time and did not pay as much as they could make at something else."
F. J.:—"Well, Brown. Here's my hand. We'll make a democrat out of you yet."
F. B.:—"No, never. But I have got sense enough to vote for the interest of my family and I hope every man in Wayne county will do the same, regardless of his politics or of what the papers may say about it."
A TEACHER.

Rev. Welden of the Baptist church was married last Wednesday at Lincoln to Miss Cashman of that city. They will be home next week and reside in the residence east of J. R. Coyle's.

The friends of E. Hunter are circulating the report that Andy Shinn is going to leave the county and is not wanting the office of county judge. Such disreputable methods ought to gain Andy lots of votes.

A republican from Hancock precinct informs the DEMOCRAT that John R. Coyle is the choice of the people for county clerk and that he will be elected by a large majority. John, it appears, has more than pleased the people his first term and no fault can be found with him.

The Republican publishes what purports to be a text of the agreement between the United States and the Sultan of Sulu, but willfully, maliciously, and ignorantly, those paragraphs relating to slavery and polygamy, and which will be found in the DEMOCRAT of today.

The Republican is cracking up Bob Wilkins this week because he is leader of the band and has always been ready and willing to furnish music free of charge to the churches. When the band refused to go to the train last Saturday evening to escort Hon. John P. Altgeld up town (for a fee) the boys all claimed that Rickabaugh the democrat was responsible for the job. But Wilkins IS LEADER of the organization and he couldn't do the proper thing by the people when he got paid for it.

Take notice of "Our Pious Old Bally," illustrated, on inside pages of our Bravan's speeches, England in a Bad Fix. Striking at Liberty, They have Method in Their Madness, Old Glory Trained in the Mire or the Mc Kinley contract with the polygamous Sultan of Sulu, Views of Senator Allen. What has the Populists done? and Reese's Baked-off. All the above articles are well handled, and worthy every voter's attention. Read our inside pages closely.

The sporting men of the town are making desperate efforts to land R. W. Wilkins in the treasurer's office, while the better element of the county is just as determined to elect a safe business man. All voters who take into consideration the responsibility of this office will not stop to argue the matter. There is but one wise course to take and that is to be on the safe side and select the best man for the place.

Norfolk Tribune: It is reported that Senator Thurston, the Knight of the Rose, was billed to speak at Wayne but the republican managers there asked to be excused, and the British divine who so basely slandered the late Col. Stotsenburg is to speak there tomorrow night. To those of our subscribers who are residents of the western part of Wayne county, we desire to call attention to the fact that Miss White has made the best superintendent they have ever had; an her opponent was not a soldier in the Spanish or Philippine war, although some republican papers have given currency to this fable.

If it is possible that the republican party of Wayne county can get "in the saddle" this year with the ticket they have in the field, then we are willing to pass politics up. Even their candidate for county treasurer, whom they deem their strongest man, and for whom they are throwing every bone else overboard to elect, is a party whom no fusionists would dare even suggest as a candidate for county office. The republican party is indeed in hard lines when a few, yes, a half dozen members of that party, and one man who has styled himself a democrat, can dictate to the whole organization of the county and nominate a man who is objectionable to the rank and file of the republicans and repulsive to everyone else.

This is the gentleman who will serve the people the next two years as county treasurer. He is a clean man, an honest man and a gentleman deeply interested in the welfare of Wayne county. He is not an habitual cigarette fiend nor a devotee of fast women; and will always be found at home attending to his business.

This man's name is Coyle. He it was who laid low the "strong man" of the republican menagerie two years ago. Examine the features closely.
This written of him that he deceives his looks, and is very vicious, at least that is what the pious-bald-knob hath printed in "the only straight republican paper." It is said though, by one who knows baldy to a touch-off, that it all happened because baldy loseth much money on the "strong man" two years since, and for that loss must taketh Coyle's scalpsets.

This handsome appearing gentleman has been well styled "a peach of a candidate" although his name is plain Cherry. He ran so hard two years ago that the opposition had considerable difficulty persuading a live man to appear against him this year.
While it looks easy for Jack, he will appreciate whatever his friends can do for him.

BY DAD.

The Herald springs its annual gag, "beware of roobacks." The Herald office is the only place in Wayne county where such animals are given birth.

Editor Baird of the Hartington News says a Wayne correspondent of the News reminds him very much of Clay; not Henry Clay, but common, every day clay.

"The King can do no Wrong" will be used next year by the republican press, instead of "McKinley," "Uphold the Flag,"
"Prosperity," "Honest Dollars," etc.

Cunningham, Mr. Cunningham, plaintively and piteously beseeches the church people to make Bob Wilkins custodian of the county moneys because, forsooth, Bob has been furnishing the churches with music. Isn't that convincing? And upon the same hypothesis if a millionaire hires a dago to make merry for him on the harp, the dago, as a matter of "one good turn deserves another" becomes the millionaire's private secretary.

Of all the sickening, disgusting slush ever printed, this rot about "upholding the administration and the flag" takes the whole bakey. Just when Mark Hanna foreclosed his mortgage on the American flag is not not yet a matter of history, although everyone who reads knows when he got his clutches on the administration. "The King can do no wrong!" shrieks the Wayne Herald, and "if there are those who believe the people of this county won't uphold the administration and the flag, he will discover his error after election is over." What profound argument this warning contains, and how the little editor must be more than pumped full of patriotism, prosperity and glory-hallelujah who will haul the flag-down-is-a-damndtraitor-copperheadcause-mckinley-putt-there-begosh.

Editor Eph Cunningham just imagines that he has the county clerk's scalp dangling at his belt this week. But big Eph is doomed to discover that he has only been butting his head against a stone-wall. We have already heard a number of republicans say that John Coyle has been a resident of Wayne county 10 years, and we have never yet heard of him. Eph Cunningham has lived in Wayne for some six years but we have never heard a good word for him. The verdict, therefore gentlemen, is that after listening to the plaintiff's evidence we find for the defendant without prejudice.

Miss Bailey of Groton, S. D., came in Sunday, she will spend the remainder of the year in completing the teachers course.

Mr. G. W. Swanson who has spent 25 weeks in college goes to his school in Dixon county tomorrow. He is a strong student and will return as soon as his school closes.

Miss Lundquist spent Sunday with her parents at Bega. She will go out to teach at the close of the term but will return to continue her course of study in the spring.

Miss Chace returned Monday. She spent a week with her father who is very sick. He was much better when she left him but not out of danger.

Messrs Shreve and Lamason of the shorthand class took Altgeld's speech Saturday evening. They were pleased that they were able to get it all and then transmit it accurately.

Rev. Bithel with Rev. Cobb attended chapel on Tuesday morning. Rev. Cobb conducted the devotional exercises, after which he told us about the schools in Corea.
He has spent some time in Corea as a missionary.

Next week closes this term which has been successful in every sense. The new term will open Nov. 13. Many new students will enter at the beginning of the term.

WINSIDE NEWS.

Miss Matilda Schwink of Wayne is visiting her brother John of this place.

Miss Mary Mettlen visited her brother's family first of the week.

Bob Wilkins and Ed Lundburg were on our streets Wednesday. In fact candidates of all faiths are numerous.

Gus Tracy was in Wayne last Saturday.

Es Senator Allen came in unannounced last Saturday afternoon and spoke to a large audience at the evening. Had the meeting been advertised the house would not have held the people.

The ladies of the Catholic League held a Hallow'en party at the home of Mrs. J. E.
Clayton on Tuesday evening. A good time was enjoyed by all playing halloween games until a late hour. Judge Allen was the guest of the evening. The entertainment netted the ladies about $12.

Rube Allen, the impersonator, did not have a very large audience at the M. E. church.

young lady at Vermillion, S. D.

Misses Myrtle Benson and Nora Russell were in Winside last Sunday.

caller at the home of his uncle, A. H. last Monday.

Alva McClusky of South City visited his parents over Sunday.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Nov. 2, a girl.

Mrs. A. Huff was at Norfolk between trains Saturday.
They say W. M. Gue was mad because a cart happened to stray upon top of his office last Tuesday. He expects to sit up all night with a shot gun next Halloween and the boys will probably put a wagon and team on the shot gun while he sleeps.

II. N. Moore of Red Oak, Iowa, is here looking after his farm in this vicinity.

BRENNAN AND PLUM CREEK.

Some of these days seem as if we ought to prepare for winter.
Spak Bodenstead has got through threshing and is picking corn for his brother near Altona.

Chasley Lund is having a hydraulic well put down on one of his farms.

A. N. Stanfield went to Lincoln last Monday and from there goes to Mansfield, Ohio, his former home.

County Clerk Coyle was interviewing the voters of this locality last Wednesday, and by the way, John ought to have the support of all of us to put him there again.

Some of our early birds are through picking corn and others will soon follow.

Ed Wright finished his threshing last Wednesday.

They can boast of their big corn crops in Kansas, but we can go there one better here in Wayne county. All we have to do is to back our shellers in to the field and shell a day and a half without pulling up.

Every voter should come out to the election. There is more than one reason why we should turn out and wake up, boys, and show your colors.

Vote for VOLPP, COYLE, and WHITE and the CHERRIES will blossom on the hill.

Lute Chichester and Adam Bastian were callers at Geo. Peters last Sunday.

Hamer Wilson and wife were sight-seeing in this locality last Sunday.

What has went with all our big compickers? We don't hear of any hundred or hundred and fifty bushel pickers. We suppose they have gone south to chop wood.

Albert Bastian and Miss Florence Liv-inghouse were guests at the home of Eli Bon-awitz last Sunday.

Fred VanNorman was called to Iowa last Saturday to attend the funeral of his brother child. He returned Monday.

Chet Brown's song now is "Time has changed since those days."
The winter term of School at dist. 26 will start next Monday.

We have seen C. J. Lund of Wayne rushing a water wagon the last few days. We suppose next year he will be hauling water for some threshing machine.

HOSKINS.

R. M. Waddell returned from western Nebraska Wednesday.

There was some fine speaking at the school house Wednesday evening. Senator Allen probably told the people more truth in the short time he was speaking than they have heard during this campaign.

R. M. Waddell has purchased the Peterson property and will move in soon.

Rev. St. Clair, so it is given out, will preach at Hoskins next Sunday.

We heard a republican down here observe the other day that if Eph Cunningham will keep poking his nose into the woman's rows at Hoskins and let politics alone perhaps his party may win in Wayne county this fall.

A dance at Woodman hall this (Friday) evening, all invited.

Peter Kotz returned from Dakota last week accompanied by his sister, who comes for a visit with Nebraska relatives.

E. Gleason and family are moving back

CARROLL NEWS.

Miss Mary Williams left for Sioux City
Wednesday where she has accepted a position in one of the large stores there; her many friends wish her success.

The people of Carroll witnessed an exciting horse race between a horse belonging to Shaffer, the liveryman, and a horse belonging to Bert Hurlbert. Each side put up $25 and Shaffer received the decision of the judges and got the money.

Griffy and Harvey Garwood and many more of our citizens heard Altgeld at Wayne Saturday evening and were pleased with the speech which was full of solid arguments and free of abuse.

Justice Yarny tried a very interesting law suit Monday. Mrs. Wortham was plaintiff and Frank Hurlbert defendant. The jury decided in favor of the plaintiff.

There was a lecture, show and a party all at the same time here Wednesday evening and good crowds at all. The size of Carroll a couple of years would not have permitted this.

About all the men running for office in Wayne county were here Tuesday and went away well satisfied with their treatment when here. Good people are always welcome here.

August Fredrickson.

I live near
Hubbard, Neb.
I am a farmer
and well known
in this community. Last winter I was laid up
with liver and kidney disease. I had heard of a case
and nervous prostration. We doctored and doctored but they only carried off my money and left me no better. I was determined to try Craig's Indian Remedies and I will confess to all who are troubled with these complaints that I commenced to mend from the start. I was doing light work in a few days. I gained strength rapidly and I put in a large crop and tended it, taking the medicines and working every day, and after taking three treatments I am strong and well and able to do hard work.

Peter Kotz returned from Dakota last
