LOCAL NEWS.

Prof. Conn was in Norfolk last night.

Miss Mamie Wallace was an arrival in the city this morning.

Hear Sam Jones at the opera house next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Williams and Mrs. P. L. Miller were Sioux City shoppers yesterday.

Dr. Nieman reports a girl baby at the home of Henry Pfleger, arriving last Tuesday.

Ralph Sullivan is home from Sioux City where he has been staying for several months.

That grand vocal combination, the Ottumwa Male Quartet, at the opera house tomorrow night.

Down at Norfolk they call it the "grip." The News prints nearly half a column list of the sick.

The Herald says County Commissioner Russell has bought the Healey residence near the standpipe.

Madison opened up with electric lights last Monday night. Fred Largent was master of ceremonies.

Ed. Stover left for southeastern Iowa Wednesday morning to look after his deceased father's estate.

Jas. Britton and Ed. Lundberg have been in Lincoln all week and still no prospect of electing U. S. senators.

Dr. Nieman went out to a school in Brenna precinct yesterday and vaccinated 56 persons, mostly students.

Peter Baker is going to take a drove of young cattle up to Lynch where his son Nick is running a ranch. He will stay up there several weeks.

While being vaccinated last Wednesday Harry Armstrong fell in a dead faint and suffered quite a bad fall on the floor of Dr. Wightman's office.

News Agent Davies is in receipt of a letter from the Chicago American stating that owing to a change in the mail service the Chicago Sunday papers will now reach Wayne at 5:40 p. m.

A large number of seats have been reserved for the Ottumwa male quartet entertainment at the opera house tomorrow night. It is one of the very best things on the road and will please any one who likes vocal music.

Carl Hoffman of the Lindholm furniture house, Sioux City, was in town Tuesday to see F. H. Jones, and Mr. Jones was in Sioux City to see Mr. Hoffman. Carl said he had a "hunch" not to come but didn't heed it.

Omaha Drivers Journal, 21st Perry & Porterfield of Wayne sold two loads of stacks of their own feeding at $5.05. They also had a car of hogs.

The above cattle were consigned to Geo. Adams & Burke and topped the market.

Grand President Fred Volpp accompanied by Aug. Piepenstock, Henry Klomping, Peter Baker and Hans Otte were in Omaha Wednesday night instituting a new lodge of Sons of Hermann. The gentlemen report a magnificent time.

T. H. Fritz, our new electrician, has been in town this week looking for a residence and getting ready to take charge of things March 1st. Mr. F. has the appearance of a wide-awake hustler and he and Uncle Pete will keep the city property in apple-pie order.

Seven new members were initiated into Wayne lodge No. 108, A. O. U. W., last night by Deputy Grand Master F. F. Miller. Those who rode the goat were Geo. Roberts, Chas. E. Bartlett, Geo. Hofeldt, Chas. H. Warner, J. G. Tomlinson, J. R. Donley and J. G. Mines.

Dixon Tribune: D. H. Sullivan was calling on friends in Dixon last Thursday and Friday. He is now offering his farm north of Dixon for sale; also his store at Wayne.

D. H. has secured a "fat take" with one of the big wholesale houses. He may or may not sell his Wayne business as it is a good enough thing to keep.

Sam Jones, Rev. Sam Jones, will lecture at the opera house next Wednesday night. Sam is one of the few preachers who are confessedly talking for the money there is in it, and also one of the few who earns his salary.

Local pastors will please take no offense at this item; it is simply an advertisement for Sam Jones.

Scarcely a day passes now that the DEMOCRAT does not catch one or more new subscribers, and the agreeable feature of it is they come unsolicited and are always cash in advance. The DEMOCRAT doesn't claim to be the best paper in the county but we are always humping ourselves to make it most interesting for the average run of humanity.

Are You Sure You Get What you Pay For?

No one feels satisfied with a purchase, unless they feel what they paid for. Every person feels cheap when they pay a good price and get a poor article. No one is satisfied when they pay more for any article than other people can buy it for. It is a satisfaction to know when you buy anything that you bought it at the lowest price. Time is so precious to waste buying our everyday needs at a two-priced store. Money is too valuable to spend at a store where they sell goods for all they can get. A merchant that makes an article one dollar and tells you you can have it for seventy-five cents is not worthy of your confidence. A merchant that marks his goods so you cannot tell the price is a coward and is afraid to meet honest competition. Your money is as good as anyone else's and should buy as much. A merchant that sells you an article for less than it is worth will surely beat you the next time. If you trade at the 2 JOHNS you are sure to get what you pay for. Here every article is marked in plain figures and no matter how large or how small the sale nothing less than the price marked will buy the goods. No matter if you are rich or poor you can buy as many goods for one dollar as anyone else at the 2 JOHNS. You will always feel satisfied that you are buying at the lowest price no matter if you buy of the Dutch John or the Swede John, or anyone else connected with the store, the price is the same. If a merchant tells you the price of a suit is ten dollars, but you can have it for eight-fifty the chances are that you can buy it at the 2 JOHNS for seven fifty, just what it is marked in plain figures. You can lose nothing trading with the 2 JOHNS. Every thing is bought for cash and sold to all alike and as cheap as you can buy in a large city. Then all goods are warranted to give you satisfaction. Besides you deal with experienced clothing men who have devoted a lifetime to the clothing business. Then again you have the largest stock to select from. You will prosper and always feel satisfied that you are getting what you pay for if you trade at the 2 JOHNS. If you are not trading at the 2 JOHNS give them a trial. It costs nothing to try them. Your money cheerfully refunded if not satisfied.

THE 2 JOHNS

No Cause for Alarm.

The people of Wayne have been considerably stirred up the past week over the small pox scare. We call it a scare because it comes just as near being small pox as McKinley prosperity means good times and plenty of money. Then it is a full sister to McKinley prosperity for it all comes from benevolent assimilation with the dirty dagos of Cuba and the Philippines. Two or three weeks ago the DEMOCRAT called attention to the case of Geo. Crossland, who was the first afflicted, and the cause of the spread of the contagion. Whether small pox or measles, most any dampfold would know enough to have all such patients promptly excluded from the rest of our townspeople, but the attending physician, Dr. Blair, and the city authorities simply sat around like a knot on a log waiting to see if the disease would spread, and their expectations appear to have been favorably gratified. Mayor Ley now informs the DEMOCRAT that no matter if the sickness is only plain measles every case will be promptly quarantined and no serious results are now looked for, and there is absolutely no just cause for serious apprehension either upon the part of Wayne people nor those of contiguous territory. The symptoms appear to be more those of varioloid small pox than the genuine article, and the patients are only slightly indisposed with no harmful results.

G. C. Davis showed the writer a couple of photographs of small pox patients, taken at Plattsmouth, in 1882. They are simply horrible specimens of the real thing and the Wayne doctors are perhaps excusable for treating this Wayne malady in a slighting manner. However, while there is so much small pox in nearly all the surrounding towns the city of Wayne will do well to immediately stamp out these few cases of itch, measles or Filipino fandango as quickly as possible and thereby avoid sensational stories that we do have the genuine thing.

As a precautionary measure nearly everybody is being vaccinated, and the city school board has taken steps to see that every pupil is promptly inoculated with the preventative description.

Are You in a Pickle?"

To tell the truth I am "in a pickle." In fact, I am overstocked with pickles and will make a cut price to close out what I have on hand. My price for 30 days will be 25c per gallon so don't go elsewhere and pay more money for the same article. This is another "eye opener" to cash buyers and so are the following quotations:

Also, don't forget us when figuring on buying an organ or piano, nor that our Mr. D. K. Hern, one of the most experienced piano tuners in the state, is always ready to answer all calls for his services.

Mellowrich Coffee sells rapidly, consequently the supply is always fresh. For sale only by D. H. Sullivan.

Aug. Piepenstock was in Omaha Tuesday and Wednesday and Col. Reynolds had charge of the 'big store' during his absence.

John Keast came home last night where he went with a car of cattle for A. B. Everingham. John says he watched the Sioux City Linsed oil factory burn down yesterday forenoon, the conflagration lasting four or five hours and entailing a loss of $21,500.

J. C. Harner, who says he knows something about small pox, says there are no cases of that disease in Wayne, what we are afflicted with being black measles. Just the same, he says all such patients should be put under quarantine, and is surprised at the lax methods of physicians and the board of health.

Manager Jas. Britton has the honor to announce that he has succeeded in securing for the evening of March 7 Mr. Ed. Redmond and his excellent company of 16 people in the high class comedy, "Prince Romiro." They come direct from the larger cities of the east, where this high class comedy has made Mr. Redmond not only famous, but also a fortune within the last year.

We want you to visit our room of special bargains in small as well as large boys' suits. These suits have been taken from our regular stock and put on separate tables to be closed out. We are offering what we have left of them at 40 per cent discount. Every suit is well worth the regular price marked, but we make this reduction in order to close out all odd suits by March 1st. DAN HARRINGTON, The Leading Clothier.

Only one chance in years to visit a "novelty works on wheels." All kind of sharpening and repairing. Watch for the wagon.

The Ponca Leader is very wrathful because citizens of that town are soliciting signatures to a petition for a pardon for bank thief Dorsey. The people whom Dorsey robbed are too poor for their signatures to the instrument to be of any value.

Norris' Long Suit.

Judge Norris, who was rewarded with a fat office for allowing himself to run against a cyclone in the shape of Congressman Robinson, is a great letter writer and many of the republican papers are running whole columns of his Manila articles. In fact it is hard to imagine what his other duties are except promptly and cheerfully drawing his salary. But these letters show that he is onto his job and he depicts the situation from a very helpful standpoint. Mark Tagley is nowhere, for the genial judge can find brightness and hope where Mark would be all despondence. The war situation in particular is the judge's long suit and he derives much satisfaction in seeing the happy conclusion, and in a late letter is in "hopes the war will soon be ended now that election is over." This alone is worth a year's salary to the administration.—Dixon Tribune.

LOCAL NEWS.

T. B. Beckert, Dentist, over Miller's.
D. H. Strickland is in Chicago this week with horses.
Theo. Barnhardt of Hoskins made this office a social visit Tuesday.
Mellowrich Coffee sells rapidly, consequently the supply is always fresh. For sale only by D. H. Sullivan.
John Lewis is shipping about 25 cars of brick this week. Most of it goes to Edwards & Bradford Co's and a lot to Carroll.
The Perrin hotel is right up to high watermark these days. Robert is putting up the best table board for the money ever offered in the town.
Mr. and Mrs. Charley Welch, residing south of the city, celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary by inviting all their relatives to dine with them Feb. 22.
Ray Reynolds came up from Sioux City to spend Sunday with his folks. Ray looks as though he was one of the few young men who can take care of themselves in that city.
Drake & Bryant, proprietors of the Novelty Repair Works, a "repair shop on wheels," will be in town until March 15th. Grinding razors, scissors, fixing guns, sewing machines, or typewriters, anything in that line.
Mrs. Leslis Baker of Hoskins has written the Sioux City Tribune that her husband had left her and her children in desperate circumstances and that she was anxious to learn his whereabouts. Mrs. Baker should take a Wayne paper.

An item in last week's DEMOCRAT stated that S. E. Auker had been a big loser by shipping four cars of cattle to the "Fioe" commission house of Chicago. It should have been the Drum, Flato & Co. commission firm. Local cattle dealers have figured that Mr. Auker was swindled out of about $300 on the shipment.
Mr. James Herat and Miss Mary Burk were married last Sunday evening at the home of M. S. Bowles, next door to the Love here. Rev. Welden officiating. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only Miss Bowles and Mr. George Deibel being present. The DEMOCRAT wishes the happy couple years of prosperity and many little villages.
C. C. Bostedder was in Emerson all last week and reports that town chock full of sickness and quite a number of deaths having occurred recently. There much sickness all over the state. People who are afraid of catching contagious diseases should keep themselves scrupulously clean, and blood and bowels in firstclass order. It is nearly always the case that persons who keep cooped up and are afraid to go about their general routine of business are the first ones to catch whatever is going.

Wanted—Two rooms, furnished for light housekeeping. Enquire at this office.
Everyone should drink Mellowrich Coffee. It is without an equal. Sold exclusively by D. H. Sullivan.
1000 yards of Carpets on hand yet, will close them out at from 20 to 55c. Also Matting at 13 to 20c.
DAN HARRINGTON.
Tone up your system and avoid the grip or even worse, fever! Try a bottle of that excellent California wine sold by Milderer.
Have you tried the Perrin house for a square meal? It is now being run in firstclass shape and furnishes the best table board in town.
Take Rocky Mountain Tea. See it exterminate poison. Feel it revitalize your blood and nerves and bring back that happy, joyous feeling of boyhood days. 35c. Ask your druggist.
B. Mossman and sons were visitors from Carroll last Saturday. He reports the hotel business as good. Mr. Mossman has the distinction of being the first real good hotel man in Carroll.
Roosters often crow over eggs they did not lay. Same with people who sell an imitation Rocky Mountain Tea made famous by the Madison Medicine Co.'s advertising. 35c. Ask your druggist.
Annual Convention National Creamery Butter Maker Association.—St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 19-23. For the above, tickets will be sold Feb. 18th and 19th, good returning until and including Feb. 25th. Fare $9.55.

FOR GOOD HARD BRICK
Go to the John Lewis brick yards. We now have an ample supply and will be pleased to fill all orders.

Pay your DEBTS by taking advantage of the bankruptcy act. Over 5000 have freed themselves from debt, in Chicago, alone. Do this before the law is repealed. $75 to $100 pays all expenses and gives a clear title. For free advice or consultation see or write to P. W. CAIN, Pender, Neb.

A Bit of Bad Luck.

Republican: That was a great end off Goldie gave his "daddy" in last issue of the DEMOCRAT and from what we know and are able to learn the old gentleman is all O. K. but you know even the best of men sometimes have pretty bad luck with their offspring. It is said that the first man on earth was a pretty good sort of a fellow, but you remember he had a son that went to the devil and from that day to the present there has been an adage that "every flock has its black sheep" and the family of Goldie senior is not unlike others in this respect.

Insurance Notes Turn Up.

New and interesting litigation is certain to follow an attempt on the part of the receiver for the Underwriters Mutual Fire Insurance company of Sioux City, to collect a 10 per cent assessment on premium notes given the company when it was doing business. The company went into the hands of a receiver in 1894 on application of the policy holders, who suffered losses and could not get a settlement. Omaha Bee, Dec. 31.

The plan of doing business was to take from policy holders, notes for sums about the equal to what payments would be in an old line company on the policies taken out. It was represented to the insured persons that these notes would never be collected since all losses would be met by the regular assessments and that the notes were merely to guarantee losses and make the company stronger. These notes remained in the hands of the receivers as a part of the assets of the company. No effort was made immediately to collect the notes.

Now, after six years waiting, the receiver has sent out to all persons giving these notes that they must pay 10 per cent of their face to meet demands of creditors of the company. In several places policy holders have combined together to fight in the courts any attempt to collect on these notes or unpaid premiums. At Iowa City a fund was raised in 1891 and placed in a bank to be used to fight such cases. This fund has remained there drawing interest until this time and now the committee in charge has hired a lawyer and will resist payment. The same is true elsewhere in Iowa, for the company did business all over the state in its brief existence.

BY DAD.

Your nose is red,
Your cheeks are blue,
You've had the grip
And cured it, too.

I don't wonder that women and children get so scared over being vaccinated. It stands to reason that the injection of cow matter would make them cow-ardly.

The Cherokee (La.) Democrat tells a yarn about a man named Chick who got the grip and "had to take his bed." That looks like a big swallow for a chick, but perhaps he's a full-grown rooster. I remember thinking I had a grip on a Chick, once upon a time, but failed to swallow it though I tried hard enough, by dad: Eh, Billy?

A Wayne lady is wondering what Dr. Wightman would do if called upon to vaccinate a bevy of girls on their limbs. I don't think that is much of a conundrum. I don't believe Doc would do anything but just vaccinate them.

I wonder when Editor Cunningham will get through telling the people what a "chump" he has always been for supporting everything from a man to a mouse because it was a republican? Then his continual protest that he doesn't want an office, or isn't looking for anything? Great Scott, don't the dear people know why he isn't looking for one of the soft snaps? For just the same reason a whole lot of us "don't want anything." When the next campaign rolls around and you find Cunningham isn't supporting all the republican candidates it will be because of some dirty political job and not for the reason his republican candidates are not "white men."

Some vaccinate upon the arm, Youngladies have a better form; But whether on your arm or ham The doctors make a $50 "slam."

The boys are telling a good story at John Kaye's expense. The night they were up at Randolph (up all night) a gang of them went into lame Lucas' restaurant for a lunch. Mr. Kaye called for cakes, "give me some cakes, I want two cakes," yelled the German talking John in English. Lucas was very busy and paid no attention to our townsmen. "Bring my cakes! why don't you get my cakes!" shouted John Kaye. "See here, fellow," growled Lucas; "I'm running this place and if you don't shut up I'll throw you out." "Yes, cakes is what I want; bring me two cakes!" screamed Two Johns never hearing a word the now thoroughly enraged Lucas was saying. At this juncture the restauranter grabbed a club, nearly as dangerous as his pancakes, and started for his hungry patron, but friends interposed and a horrible tragedy was narrowly averted.

If you knew your young lady acquaintance was vaccinated on the exterior of her pedal prognosticator would you ask "how is your vaccination working?"

S. H. Welch the jeweler says he is going to put in a full line of musical instruments. He'll probably follow this up with a stock of dolls, baby cabs and a "full line" of "napkins." That's the way the music business caught me, by dad.

Wonder if Judge Norris has got the small pox. Didn't notice any of his Philippine polka dots in the Republican or Herald this week. The judge will begin to think he is earning his salary when he takes this Filipino disease.

A scratch on the arm seems to be all the doctors need for an excuse to pull your leg.

The Tekamah Burtonian says a musical cigarette is the latest thing out. Every time you open the box and take out a cigarette it plays: "Nearer My God to Thee."

Hellow, George; how do you enjoy your birthday?

Henry Goll says it may sound a little fishy but as a matter of fact that story in this week's Republican is precisely true. The tale as told by the Republican is to the effect that Cheney Chase dreamed he was dead and when he knocked for admission to the golden city he was given a piece of chalk and told to go to the recorder's office where he would find a blackboard upon which he must write an account of all the evil deeds he did in the flesh. That as he was entering this office he met Henry Goll rushing out, and when he inquired the cause of the latter's haste Henry bawled out that he was after another piece of chalk. Now, Henry tells me he recollects quite well meeting Cheney because the latter asked him, "what kind of a show will our poor friend Cunningham stand when he runs up against this proposition?" Henry also says that when he accosted Peter for the second marking stick he was asked by the doorkeeper: "Where are you from, Bro. Goll?" "Wayne," promptly answered Henry. "And what's your politics?" queried Pete. "Oh, I'm a republican," said Henry, nervously, as he remembered the poor Boers. "Well, then it's all right," said Peter in a more kindly voice. "Just take all the damn chalk you need. Any of you poor miserable republicans who were forced to live in Wayne and compelled to read and support Eph Cunningham's paper have my sympathy and instant forgiveness; The wonder to me is that all you fellows didn't have to hike straight out to hell."

Selfishness in a man is a very disagreeable and unhappy feature in his life. Selfishness is a quality wherein one thinks of and regards his own good alone, and cannot bear to see his neighbors prosper, and he wants everything himself. We find such men in every community. The eyes of such men are blighted in their own vision. The sun, moon and stars are not grand to him because they are not his and the growing lilies in the valley, and the beautiful prairie flowers have no charm for him because anybody can gather them and they are not exclusively his own. A neighbor who has a better house, a better piano or horse is disliked, because these things are better, and the selfish man too must overreach his neighbor in the beauty and value of his surroundings and then he is not fully content. The selfish man cannot bear opposition in business, it loads him with grief, and he hates himself. The narrowness of his mind, and the ingratitude of his heart forbid his reaching out into that broad field of thought which would rise above such petty feelings.

Had Better "Luck" at the Old Home.

LeMars (La.) Post: "Good men are invariably proud of their dad, a striking example is W. S. Goldie of the Wayne DEMOCRAT. He is proud of his daddy, and well he has a right to be. We have known his father for many, many years and know naught but good of him. The old man is a gentleman and scholar and even with his eighty-two years hanging over his shoulders he can get up a stick of type or write an editorial leader with many sixty years his junior. Mr. Goldie of the Wayne DEMOCRAT pays his father the following compliment," etc.
