Watching Them Sprout.

A visitor to the primary departments of the city schools, this week, would find the first report very interesting, so many little ones have entered for the spring term. A DEMOCRAT reporter visited Miss Hunter's room on Wednesday and found the little "ideas" already reading such sentences as "I see a cat." Some would get the "I see" and "cat" mixed but most of them got it right. It is surprising how soon the little tots fall in with the school discipline. Some very amusing things happen. One little fellow, raising his hand said: "Is school going to be out now?" "Not yet," answered the teacher. "Then I've just got to stretch," and he "stretched." "What shall we sing?" asked Miss Hunter at the opening of school; the little hands flew up. "Well Gilman you may choose." But Gilman called for "Sweet Bunch of Daisies" and that wasn't one of the school songs, so they sang some thing else. The A class was doing some splendid number work, the pupils read with remarkably good expression. The B's did fine writing and all were happy because they were no longer the "baby" class. The whole room of sixty-five pupils were exceedingly quiet and orderly.

In Miss Britton's room the children were all writing a story about the maple tree; from the time it budded till the maple sugar was made, and illustrating it all as they went along. Some of the leaves and buds looked rather wilted; some of the trees as our's did last June; the buckets which caught the sap were quite tippy; the fires didn't burn well; the kettles did not hang straight and must have spilled the sap. But the fancy cake of maple sugar came out all right and looked so natural it made a fellow wish for some of the real article. It was a fine little exercise.

The A class read with as nearly perfect expression as Miss Hunter's A class and of course a much harder lesson; their reading, too, was clear and distinct. The B class were much interested in their spelling lesson, little Clara McGinty getting the head mark. The manners of the little folks were noticeably good.

The beginners in Miss Hunter's room this term are: Majorie Hunter, Ruth Sherbahn, Elsie Mildner, Goldie Chase, Jacob Berg, Florence Miller, Henry Kruger, Carl Sandt, Marguerite Healy, Gilman Weber. In Miss Stocking's room are Ruby Bell, Myra Bell, Iris Griggs, Luella Bush, Gladys Douzel and Marie Douzel.

For the Little Folks.

Lakeside, Wash., April 3, 1901.

DEAR EVA:
I cried when I left Wayne because you were not with me. The reason they call this town Lakeside is because it is by a lake. There is a river running and falls chasing it into the lake. I saw a boy fishing and he caught a sucker, that is the name of the fish. I saw Christmas trees on top of the mountains. There was a lady went up to the top of the mountain but it hurt her side. We live upstairs because somebody else lives down stairs. After awhile we will have the whole house. I have seen lots of steamboats. Lizzie went out on the lake boating with a girl her size but she could row lots.

THE DEMOCRAT

WAYNE, NEBRASKA.

W. S. GOLDIE, Editor and Publisher.

Subscription, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID IN ADVANCE, $1.00.

At the present time it looks as though Aginaldo would lose to Mrs. Nation as the George Washington of the 20th century.

Senator Dietrich is going to Washington to learn how to act like a real senator. He ought to take a course of sprouts from Admiral Sampson on "how to act like a gentleman."

An investigation of the sweat shops of Chicago showed that sewing girls are paid an average of 90 cents per week. That's where the Hanna brand of prosperity sprouts, evidently.

Republican papers are all patting themselves on the back because a republican legislature removed what protection the barbers had against scab labor but the barbers are not crowing over the achievement.

The prospects are good for a whole lot of building in Wayne this season. A good warm fire among a lot of our old shacks of business houses would greatly facilitate matters in this direction. Let the good work go on.

Why should people dread to grow old when it is a perfectly natural and proper order of things, asks the State Journal. If the ultimate disorganization of the body means a larger freedom for the spirit and a happier environment, it is an event to look forward to with fond expectations. But still most people cling to the earth with considerable tenacity.

The charter fee paid to New Jersey by the United States Steel Corporation amounted to over $220,000. It is estimated that the treasury of the state will this year receive $2,100,000.00 from the trusts domiciled there alone, including fees paid on filing certificates of trust incorporations. And the present costs of the state government are less than $3,000,000 yearly. In other words New Jersey is meeting over two thirds of the expense of its state government from the trusts it has turned loose to prey upon the other states.

There is an appalling significance in the recent revelations of the wholesale suicide of Chinese women outraged by European soldiers, these dreadful stories coming not in the form of sensational and irresponsible publications for catch-penny purposes, but in authoritative reports made to the state department at Washington.

It must be remembered that the soldiers perpetrating these deeds, in shame for which the women of China are killing themselves by the thousands, are soldiers of the civilized Powers of earth. It must also be remembered that the deeds are done in the Twentieth Century, not in those early ages when rapine and the violation of the women of a conquered race were the usual accompaniments of war.

When these things are remembered it is difficult for us to believe that civilization is anything but a thin veneering of artificial polish over an unchanging substance of savagery. We shudder to read of the bestiality of ancient times, but is there any story of the deeds of those times more filled with horror than the story of Europe's Twentieth Century sins in China?—Republic.

Of all glad things of tongue or pen hook beer is now on tap again.

News item—Hon. John Timothy Bressler will repair his sidewalks when he gets good and ready.

Walter Wellman is going to again try and capture the north pole. If successful he will then tackle a more difficult job, that of finding Pat Crowe.

J. Sterling Morton is going to build a crematory at Nebraska City. J. Sterling is a wise man but he'll not be able to cheat the devil that way.

A Cuban editor got up a cartoon showing Cuba crucified between two thieves, McKinley and Gen. Wood. It was such a dirty snub at Mark Hanna that the paper was at once suppressed by the national authorities.

Do not doff your winter flannels; do not soak your overcoat; keep your muffler always handy to protect your precious throat. Do not think that winter's vanished and that vernal spring is here just because there greets your vision flaming ads for "fresh hook beer."—W-H.

Bixby in the State Journal says "the courts will never lack for occupation while people continue to get married before getting acquainted." That's true; there'll be no divorces when people get well acquainted before marriage. Marriage necessarily comes before the divorce.

The Omaha police can't catch Pat Crowe but when it comes to jailing boys for earning a living by cleaning up dirty alleys they are "copy on the spot." But then, Omaha is reaping a legitimate harvest. At her last municipal election her citizens stood by the thieves, grafters, gamblers and prostitutes as against a clean city administration. It is only to be regretted that more of her sons of honest labor are not thrown into prison.

It is not only against the law to sell a man a gold brick, but the recent legislature has made it unlawful for a person to sell any kind of brick in Nebraska unless they are 8 1/2 inches long, 4 inches wide and 2 1/2 inches thick. Violation of the act is made punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500. Now, if the next legislature will regulate the size of a plumber's bill, a ton of coal and a ham sandwich, life would be worth living.—Norfolk News.

Better have the ice man regulated, too, while you are at it.

The Sioux City Tribune has taken the contract to beat Geo. D. Perkins of the Journal out of the republican nomination for governor of Iowa. Why? Oh, simply because Perkins is a product of Sioux City; a home-made man and a successful newspaper publisher. Ever since the Tribune became a paper without a party it has zealously labored to pull down instead of build up. It, like J. Sterling Morton's Conservative, is full of a jealous hatred of ambitious individuals within their own territory. If Perkins were governor of Iowa (as he undoubtedly will be if nominated) it would be a grand thing and a benefit to the metropolis he has helped make; even the Tribune would get a glint of the glory in it; but the latter paper, for years a maligner of its own party, is now to narrow-minded to grasp the possibilities for its own betterment.

It really was so nice a day that we ought to write a sonnet. But we can't—our heart is sad. Because of the bill for the bonnet.

A wag has figured out that the reason Mrs. Nation is so obstreperous is because she lives in the only Kan state in the union.

The Pender Times says: Henry Ley was elected mayor of Wayne as he has been annually for the last fifty years. Mr. Ley is a democrat.

People in Omaha who haul off rubbish or refuse are thrown into jail for so doing. A great many Wayne people are evidently afraid the same ridiculous rules prevail in this town.

The World-Herald says Philander Knox has been drawing $50,000 a year as general solicitor for the steel trust. He will draw $8,000 a year attorney general. What's that? No, Philander will now draw $58,000 a year.

Nine Chicago preachers ripped Carter Harrison up the back just the Sunday before election. God heard their prayers and put Carter in for mayor again by nearly 30,000 majority. Undoubtedly every one of those ministers believes that God made a mistake. He is likely to make another mistake with a whole lot of these preachers when the latter shuffle off and think they are about to slide into everlasting glory.

The Central City Democrat is of the opinion that when Dietrich rises in his seat and catches the eye of Teddy, the vice-president will remark "the senator from Thompson," while Millard will be recognized as "the senator from Rosewater." This is eminently fitting, for don't you know these two illustrious citizens are charged with the duty and given the capacity and divine right to do all the thinking for the republican party in Nebraska. They could not go to the senate themselves because they have too many personal enemies, but by their dummies are accepted without question. This leaves the corseted gentleman from Fullerton in a bad boat—too lazy to work and too stupid to steal, he may know what it is to be wanting a meal—unless McKinley takes pity on him again and gives him a job in the post office department in Cuba.

That will cure him of the stupid habit.

The DEMOCRAT has always believed that the administration or United States could have saved many lives and millions of dollars by using good horse sense instead of bullets and dishonesty in dealing with the Filipinos, but don't, for pity sake, class us with such papers as the Johnstown Democrat which says:

Aginaldo in his prison is still the brave and splendid hero a forlorn resistance to an alien despotism which started with false pretense and continues with canting hypocrisy. He is still the striking figure of a noble drama of national hope and aspiration. And behind the walls of the jail in which he has been lodged while his captors recount the exploit of perfidy his voice must call and his example of self-sacrifice and devotion must appeal to all that is best and truest and highest in the breasts of his unhappy people.

Yes, he is a peach of a hero; a most striking figure! In just about three years from now he'll be out here in Nebraska campaigning for the republican party, and he'll have such a standing with Mark and Mack that the World-Herald and Commoner won't even remember that he was once their protege.

TOO MUCH

Exercise is as bad as too little for the growing girl. It is very easy for her to overdo, and this is especially dangerous at that critical period of a young girl's life when she crosses the line of womanhood. It is not an uncommon thing to find the foundations for years of after misery by neglect of necessary precautions at the first "change of life."

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes regularity, but it gives health to the entire womanly organism. It is the best medicine for a peculiar ailment to women because it cures the causes of disease completely and permanently. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor any other narcotic. It cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

"After a number of months I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowan, of 122 Bank Street, Washington. "I tried various remedies, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply and commenced treatment at once. I had not used your Favorite Prescription a week before I began to feel better, and, as I continued, my health gradually improved, and is improving every day."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, 24 paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Discord at Concord.

Concord is said to have tied itself to Mrs. Nation's hatchet handle for two years, the ticket elected at the late municipal election being pledged to pass no legislation disapproved by Mrs. Nation and to inaugurate all reforms demanded by that great reformer. Considerable discord is expected in Concord later.—S. C. Tribune.

How About the Sulu?

The aunties declare that the cause of liberty in the Philippines will live. Most certainly it will—right in the folds of the stars and stripes—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Tut, tut! How about Sulu? Does liberty live right in the folds of the stars and stripes waving over Sulu? Does the stars and stripes in Sulu stand for anything more than weak truckling to a polygamous, slaveholding heathen who draws a salary from Uncle Sam's treasury because he allows the stars and stripes to float there? What sort of liberty lives in the folds of the stars and stripes when the flag floats over a lot of slaves who are kindly permitted to buy their freedom just as soon as they can save enough of their wages working for nothing a week to pay the market price? Of course liberty lives right in the folds of the stars and stripes. So does slavery and polygamy, and taxation without representation, and carpetbagging, and loot and plunder and injustice. A whole nestful of things lives in the folds of the stars and stripes since the republican party has arrogated to itself all right, title and interest in what was once the flag of the free and the self-governed—World-Herald.

If a woman has been thinking of her easter bonnet for six weeks was it possible for her to think of God and her bonnet at the same time on such a lovely day as Easter Sunday was?

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S COMPANION

Available Place at the English Court Occupied by Miss Knollys. New York Sun: A very plain and unassuming woman occupies, today, in England, a place which the first ladies of the land might well desire. Miss Knollys has for years been the companion and trusted friend of the queen and the queen has as much influence with Queen Alexandra as any woman in England.

The princesses are devoted to the gentle white woman, and the king is her good friend. It is said that King Edward will make her a peeress in her own right, that she may be eligible to one of the high places near the person of her majesty.

This question of places in the new court is causing the many burnings, and, although the new sovereign is too tactful to make speedy and sweeping changes, there are rumors and insinuations of removals. Some of the old favorites have been pensioned. Others, who do not need pensions, have simply been dropped.

One of the two East Indian attendants, who always assisted Queen Victoria to get into and out of her carriage, has already gone back to India, and it is said that the queen will call the king's attention to the fact that she is definitely known about the changes.

Changes of presentation jewels and emblems marked "E. R." which were given to the late queen is being conferred, and the new queen, upon his mother's dress and jewelry.

Her Supposition. Washington Star: Did you say you took a stroll at the theater while you were in London? asked Miss Cayenne. "I answered the young man who was talking to me," she proceeded pensively, "but I must have been none of the best productions that the critics condemned for their horseplay."

A WOMAN'S HEART.

Mrs. Samuel G. Dyer Tells a Harrowing Tale of Suffering. McCarroll, Mich., April 8.—(Special)—Mrs. Samuel G. Dyer of this place has given the following interesting letter for publication:

"For years I suffered intense pain in the region of the heart. I doctored with the best physicians. For some time, but the pain always returned. My heart was so bad that I would have to sit up in bed for hours, to get relief. I would be awake almost all night. I am 62 years of age, and no one can understand how much I suffered with this trouble.

"About a year ago I heard of Dodd's Kidney Pills and commenced to use them. From the first my condition improved. The pain in my heart gradually grew less, and my general health much better, and now I can say positively that I am entirely cured. I can sleep all night, and enjoy almost perfect health. I thank God for the cure that has been kind to me through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"I have thought long over the matter of giving this letter for publication, and am doing so now without any solicitation whatever, and simply because I feel it to be my duty to express the profound gratitude I feel for my recovery, and to let others who may be suffering as I was know how they may find a cure. I know that nothing else but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me, because I have taken no other medicine for over a year. I feel better now than I have for many years, and it is all due to the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills."

At Classified News. Indianapolis Press: "I hear that the new things at McCoon's are wonderful. There were so many fine things, the boys that I was rapturous about, that I was rapturous about."

OLD FORT CLINTON IS TO BE DEMOLISHED

An Appropriation by Congress for the Destruction of the Historic Redoubt.

THE BATTLEFIELD OF THE CADETS

Spot Where Young West Pointers Have Long Met in Plastic Encounters—Was Originally Named After Benedict Arnold.

West Point, N. Y. (Special).—Alumni of the United States military academy have learned with amazement that included in the appropriations for the maintenance and improvement of the academy made by the congress recently adjourned, which amounts to more than $300,000, is an item of $5,000 for the demolition of old Fort Clinton. This sum has been allotted for filling in the ditch and leveling the parapets of the great revolutionary relic, whose innumerable associations with military and academic, have made it especially dear to all students of West Point.

Fort Clinton, built in the early days of the revolution, was one of the most substantial of the many redoubts and small forts located in this region. It commanded a clear, sweeping view of the Hudson, and the base of the hill on which its walls of masonry now crumbled to dust, were built, was fastened one end of the famous chain stretched across the river at West Point to keep back the ships of King George.

Named for Benedict Arnold. It was originally named Fort Arnold, after Benedict Arnold, then patriot leader, and traitor. After Arnold's treason Washington changed the name of the fort to Clinton.

It is here stored old trophies of war, and many relics and mementoes of the substantial of the many redoubts and small forts located in this region. It commanded a clear, sweeping view of the Hudson, and the base of the hill on which its walls of masonry now crumbled to dust, were built, was fastened one end of the famous chain stretched across the river at West Point to keep back the ships of King George.

Where Cadets Fought It Out. The battle ground is located within the fort, in the extreme northwest corner, under the spreading branches of a live oak, which marked out a twenty-foot ring, which served during the golf season as a putting green, and within the circle occur the contests with the ancient tradition has appointed to settle the differences of two combatants. This historic "field of honor" has been in especial request since the establishment of the "cadet corps" of West Point, than any other place on the reservation.

The largest appropriation made by congress for the academy is under the head of "cadet grounds." It is for the enlargement of Grand Central for the enlargement of Grand Central, for which is situated the cadet mess. For this $70,000 has been set aside.

The cadet hospital will be enlarged and new sets of mess halls, and there were lately one hundred automobiles in the United States, while now there are thousands. The progress of new automobile inventions and serviceable devices. The whole country is now a "motor mad."

declared an official of the United States patent office the other day, while another writer has written that more patents filed for automobile devices today than for any other branch of invention. The progress of new automobile inventions and serviceable devices. The whole country is now a "motor mad."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. By local applications as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten can be cured by the use of Pao's Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Good Advice. Margaret E. Sangster: To college and business women alike, to all who must be wage-earners, the practical virtues apply: get a high value on your self, dear lover, and live up to your own estimate. Have before you an ideal of love, wisdom, and duty, and pray daily that you may not fall below it. If the precise work you wish for does not offer itself, do not give up, else, even if you do so only temporarily.

London Answers: "If ever again you use that word 'she' instead of 'it,' I shall consider it to be a personal insult," screamed Reginald's sweetheart. "It's very rude, in my opinion, to use the same word for ships and such things as you do for ladies!"

"But, my dear," protested Reginald, "everyone does it, and I don't see why you should look at it in that light."

"I don't care what you see or don't see!" cried the furious young lady. "I object to it!"

"I think there is good reason for it in some cases," said Reginald. "A locomotive, at any rate, is rightly called 'she.'"

"Indeed!" exclaimed the girl, putting on a weather-office look which seemed to say—"expect squalls." "And why?" Reginald hastily prepared to depart before replying. "Then he said: 'Because it makes such a horrible noise when it tries to whistle.'"

How She Acquired Them. Washington Star: "What a clear, melodious voice that young woman has!" exclaimed the admiring youth.

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne. "And what an air of queenly authority!"

"Yes. But voice and manner are easily accounted for. She was once a telephone operator in the main office."

A Month's Test Piece. If you have Deafness, write Dr. Shoop, Berlin, Wis., Box 28, for six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Secretion. 25 cents per bottle. Send no money. Pay $2.00 if cured.

THE BEST HE EVER SAW.

A Missourian Pronounces on the Farming Possibilities of Western Canada.

Just at present considerable interest is being aroused in the fact that a few new districts (of limited acreage) are being opened out by the Canadian government in Saskatchewan and Assiniboia (Western Canada), and any information concerning this country is eagerly sought. Mr. W. B. Corser, of Higginsville, Lafayette County, Mo., was a delegate there during last summer, and writing of his impressions, he says:

"I found surprising yields of grain of all descriptions. One farmer I visited threshed off 175 acres:

"Six hundred bushels of wheat from fifteen acres, forty bushels to the acre."

"Six hundred bushels of barley from ten acres, sixty bushels to the acre."

"Fifteen thousand bushels of oats from 150 acres, 100 bushels to the acre."

"The samples were all No. 1. "I also saw a considerable number of stock. Swine do well and there is no dearth of hogs. There are a good source of income to the farmer. The cattle on the range beat anything I ever saw. Fat and ready for beef, fully matured and ripened on the nutritious grasses of the prairie. I am firmly convinced that this country offers better facilities for a poor man than any I have ever seen."

Information concerning these lands can be had from any agent of the government, whose advertisement appears elsewhere.

Metaphorically Speaking. Indianapolis Press: "Now," said the editor, "why do you say of Hon. Shicks that he trims his sails to catch every breeze? He is no seafaring man."

"I couldn't very well say he trimmed his whelkers to catch the breeze, could I?" asked the editorial writer.

It aches with Thompson's Eye Water. When writing to advertisers it will be to your interest to say you saw their advertisement in this paper.

Nervous Prostration. A Noted Boston Woman Describes its Symptoms and Terrors.—Two Severe Cases Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ADELE WILLIAMSON.

"I am so nervous! no one ever suffered as I do! There isn't a well inch in my body. I honestly believe my lungs are diseased, my chest pains me so, but I have no cough. I am so weak at my stomach, and have indigestion terribly, and palpitation of the heart; am losing flesh; and this headache and backache nearly kills me, and yesterday I had hysterics. "There is a weight in the lower part of my bowels, bearing down all the time, with pains in my groins and thighs—I can't sleep, walk, or sit, and blue—oh goodness! I am simply the most miserable of women."

This is a most vivid description of a woman suffering with nervous prostration, caused by inflammation or some other diseased condition of the womb.

No woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is no need of it. Read about Miss Williamson's case and how she was cured.

Two Bad Cases of Nervous Prostration Cured.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM;—I was suffering such tortures from nervous prostration that life was a burden. I could not sleep at all, and was too weak to walk across the floor. My heart was affected so that often I could not lie down at all without almost suffocating. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it worked like magic. I feel that your medicine has been of inestimable benefit to me."

Mrs. ADELE WILLIAMSON, 196 N. Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.

"I had nervous prostration terribly, caused by female weakness. I suffered everything; was unable to eat, sleep, or work. After a while I was induced to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I really began to improve on taking the first bottle. I continued to take the medicine, and am now better in every way, and feel like a different person. I am simply a well woman."

House cleaning days have come again! the saddest of the year; the "cleaner" gets into the cellar and find there is no "cheer." (You just thought I was going to say beer, didn't you?) He works all through the forenoon at a lively, break-neck pace, and when the cellar's reached he finds—what? Naught but an empty case! Sometimes they find the cellar right; sometimes they find it wrong; some times they find a bottle "short," some times they find "one long," some times they sing the "whole song" through, some times just a "verse"—and, well some times when the old man finds his bottle empty, you ought to hear him curse.

A friend has asked me to get off a little "josh" on my Uncle Philleo, but I won't do it, because—well, a fellow gets tired twanging on one or two strings all the time. His pointer for a paragraph didn't amount to much, anyway. It seems little Perry Theobald and young William Mellor were discussing the question of the latter's size with regard to the old man's non-church going proclivities and chances of a warm future. The boys were considerably disturbed over Mr. Mellor's spiritual condition, when young Theobald ventured the opinion that he guessed "Bob" would come out just as well as the men who were always going to church; "why," said he, "just look at old man Philleo; always going to church and all the prayer meetings, and every morning when he drives his old cows through our alley I hear him say: 'Go on there, you old b——!'"

A bright little Wayne girl says: "I'd jots rather travel with papa than my mamma cause my mamma is always running out of money."

A Wayne young housewife started all her relations one day last week by "acing" a snake in the flour bin. Several neighbors were called to dispatch the snake, when it was discovered to be only a bug burrowing under the surface.

Of partners he has had a few, some good, some bad and all too "new," but show me one who made a stake, or failed to find our Perry a pluke.

It is common rumour about town, especially among the old married men, that the U. D. club of Wayne will in the next few months be almost doubled in numbers, and that this also applies to the several ex-members of the club who have recently left Wayne. It is expected that that there will be a grand rush of our pickaninnyless married ladies to join the order of the U. D.'s, although when it is known how the club determines the standing or size of the individual members, as introduced by an ex-officio member now of Omaha, it will readily be seen that these new applicants will be way short on expectations.

The latch hangs on the outside, and the folks within look sad, cause time it hangs quite heavy and they haven't their by dad. But pretty soon the pasteboard that is nailed upon the wall will be torn off by Miner and—well there's no place like home after a fellow's got accustomed to having one.

An Iowa exchange gives an account of a Mrs. Rieffing breaking her arm while cleaning house. She stood on a table which upset with her. By dad, that ought to teach the women a good lesson; though they don't at all mind breaking a man's heart with such goll darn foolishness.

The millinery days are here. The most expensive of the year; You buy a hat for 14 cash. Then kick because you were so rash.

The millinery days have come. And now by dad I'm on the bum. 'Twill take me 90 days to get. What sweetheart paid for her last pet.

Cherokee Democrat: One subscriber up at Pipestone, who was cut from the list last week, writes us as follows: "Enclosed you will find draft for $1.50 so you will keep my paper coming. I can get along without Cherokee but I can't get along without your paper. When I got to town and did not get my paper I was mad, and if you don't send me the papers for this week I will kick the sole of your d— pants if I ever come to Cherokee again." In sending him a receipt we told him that the sole of our pants was entirely worn out by sitting around waiting for delinquents to pay up, but that we still had something to fall back on, and if he could find that he could kick it when he came down.

A "Phat Take."

Printers' Auxiliary: Wayne papers have their lot cast in pleasant places. Each of them the other week carried from fourteen to fifteen columns of display advertising and a great of "paid locals" that presaged a plethoric purse. Newspaper men in the surrounding towns are congratulating their Wayne brethren on "phat takes" constantly clogging the advertising and job books.

A "phat take," eh! Well, if some of you surrounding town newspaper men could get a squirt at the prices secured for those luscious ads you would keep your congratulations for the first dago and pole-climbing bear that pollutes the spring atmosphere. Only the 1st of this month the writer was confronted with a receipted bill of two dollars for 60 inches of display advertising and a lengthy "reader" thrown in, the same being a bill "rendered" by one of our "big circulation" "contemporaries." But that's only an instance where his purse was made "plethoric." Probably a whole lot of you fellows wish you had an advertiser like our "2 Johns," our best card. How much does he pay? Six cents per inch for top of first page and re-set every week; just enough to keep a $10-a-week printer earning his salary while he's putting it up. Why is business thus? Just because we have two newspaper men (?) either one of whom would walk forty miles to skin the other; both are printing blanket-sheet papers in a "pillow-case" town; each of them red-hot prosperity shouters; one makes a living as postmaster and the other as an auctioneer. How do we live? by working fifteen hours a day Sundays included. Kicking? not a darn bit of it, but don't, for heaven's sake, be jealous of the DEMOCRAT'S advertising business; we are simply placed between the devil and the deep sea.

The DEMOCRAT is sorry to learn from Mr. Thorp that his son Roy is in very bad health and no apparent hope for improvement. Roy came home from the Philippines about three or four months ago and for a time was able to come down town. He has contracted chronic dysentery. One of his comrades who came home in the same ship recently died of this complaint at his home in Kansas. With Harry Thorp, who is still soldiering in the far east, it is different, that climate quite agreeing with him.

Now that the election is over it would be to the interest of the board elected to see that the sidewalks are put in good shape and prevent damage suits against the corporation.
