Hits, Coleridge 9, Wayne 4.

Bartley Confesses.

The World-Herald this morning contains a partial confession from ex-treasurer J. S. Bartley in which the latter puts a heavy yoke upon the republican party leaders of the state, as follows.

H. L. Goold, republican nominee for regent of the State university, is a beneficiary of the Bartley shortage.

He has had in his possession for more than eight years over $1,000 of money belonging to the school fund of the state of Nebraska.

He voted the Keith county delegation in the state convention solidly to demand the return of his benefactor to the penitentiary.

Other beneficiaries of the shortage combined to force Bartley's return to prison to prevent exposure of their participation and forestall effort to make him disgorge.

Official republican declaration of honesty promulgated by men who demanded that Bartley serve sentence for stealing money that is in their pockets.

In an interview with a World-Herald reporter at the penitentiary on Wednesday, Former Treasurer Bartley says that Goold got the money.

Obtained it on August 18, 1893, in direct violation of law, and has never returned a penny of it.

For the purpose of investigating the truth of the statements, a World-Herald representative went to Lincoln on Wednesday to see Bartley at the penitentiary and inquire as to the facts.

The former state treasurer was found at work in the penitentiary greenhouse. He was told that the World-Herald had received information from Ogalalla that H. L. Goold had some of the money which Bartley was convicted of embezzling, and for which he was now serving sentence; that Goold had joined in the demand that Bartley be returned to the penitentiary, and had been put forward as his party's nominee for another term as regent.

"What is the truth about it?" he was asked.

Bartley made no response, but began pacing up and down the narrow aisle between the banks of foliage. His face was an exposition of contending emotions.

"Did you, or did you not, let H. L. Goold have state money to which he was not entitled when you were state treasurer?"

The question was propounded in direct form, and calling for either affirmation or denial, without equivocation.

Bartley stopped short, and said quietly, but firmly.

"Well, I don't know as there is any reason why I should lie to protect a man who voted his delegation in the convention to send me back to the penitentiary when I have already served a six-year sentence, and must admit the truth or lie about it. Yes, I did let him have the money."

"How much did you let him have?" "I do not care to state."

"Was it as much as $1,000?" "Yes, it was."

"It was state money?" "Yes, it was paid with a check signed by J. S. Bartley, state treasurer."

"Did he pay it back?" "No, he still has it, and I hold his paper for the full amount."

"Did he solicit you to let him have this money without being entitled to a penny of it and knowing that it involved a violation of the law for you to let him have it?"

"Certainly."

"When did he get this money?" "August 18, 1893."

"That was before Goold was elected regent of the university?" "Yes, two years before."

"And during the years thereafter during which you were both in state office he did not pay back a dollar of it?"

"Not a penny."

"That sum was included in the shortage charged up against you?" "Yes."

"And that is the Goold nominated for regent at the recent convention, and the one who voted in the Keith county delegation in support of a demand that you be returned here to serve out a sentence for embezzling that money?"

"Yes," replied Bartley grimly, as he turned to walk again among the plants and flowers.

Vreeland-Miller.

At the residence of Dr. A. B. Cherry in Winside, occurred on Wednesday, Oct. 9th, the happy mating of Miss Rhoda Y. Miller to Mr. Lucian Vreeland. Only relatives of the contracting parties were present, among them being Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Miller and Oscar Miller of Sioux City, Nellie Miller of Lincoln, H. B. Miller, father of the groom, who has spent the past summer in Illinois, Mrs. Miller and Mr. Vreeland, sister and father of the groom. The bride was beautifully costumed in a wedding gown of black tulle and blue and black ribbon. After the wedding ceremony at 11:30 an elegant dinner was served, the young couple leaving on the 1:40 train for Sioux City. The bride's going away dress was a handsome tailor-made suit and large black Gainsborough hat. They went up to South Dakota where Mr. Vreeland has a ranch to look after, and from there they will visit in the east, being "at home" in Sioux City Jan. 1st.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Several new students entered College this week.

Miss Anker of this county is one of the new arrivals.

Mr. Lloyd Cunningham visited Chapel last Friday and gave the students a splendid talk.

Mr. Wilson of Sheridan county has returned to complete the Scientific course, he finished the teachers' course last year.

Miss Felber of Cedar county enrolled this week to take up work to prepare for teaching, also Mr. Wipof of Hutchinson county, S. D.

Mrs. Crum of Madison who is a delegate to the Federation was entertained at the College this week. Her niece is a student with us and the visit was very pleasant for both.

State Supt. Fowler addressed the students Wednesday morning in Chapel. He made an excellent talk which was enjoyed by teachers, students and visitors. He was not able to remain and witness the class work.

Mrs. Hall of Lincoln, state president of the Y W C A addressed the young ladies Tuesday afternoon in a most practical talk of an hour. She took supper with the officers of the association and spent a short time visiting them at the dormitory.

Mrs. Ella W. Beattie of Chicago visited the College Thursday morning with several of the Federation delegates. She gave us an entertaining talk which was appreciated by all. Certainly the College was favored this week with so many pleasant visitors and such practical and instructive talks as are heard in Chapel.

The students had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. Stoutenborough of Plattsmouth Thursday morning. She attended Chapel and took part in the exercises. She is an able woman who appreciates school work and has something to say to encourage young people in their efforts to inform themselves.

The majority of the students as well as the teachers attended the federation meetings Tuesday and Thursday evenings. But few have been benefited by the meeting at Wayne more than the students for they have met and heard many of the ablest women in the state. A young person receives much encouragement and hope from such people.

Several of the visiting women attended some of the classes during the week and it is very gratifying to all of us to hear of the good things they had to say not only of the class work but of the student body, our surroundings, our accommodations and the conduct of the students. The College has more firm friends by these visits and doubtless we all will the more appreciate our advantages for this meeting.

Flattering reports from the county districts indicate that Ed. Reynolds will be elected sheriff with one of his old-time supporters. The DEMOCRAT has made a number of inquiries, from republicans and democrats alike, and they all have the same opinion—that the mud-batteries of the Wayne Republican simply disgust the public generally and injure the cause of the republican candidate. A competent official is bound to make some enemies.

Mr. Reynolds has incurred the displeasure of a few by strictly fulfilling the duties of the sheriff's office. If you have personal objections to Ed. Reynolds being elected, then carefully size up the ponderous responsibility you are assuming by voting for the other fellow.

I have some private money to loan on choice town property, at low rates. Call soon.

YOUR EYES!

Sight is the most inestimable of all blessings, blindness the most woeful of afflictions. 95 per cent of all eye trouble is primarily caused by defective eye sight. Dr. Charles McCormick, a noted oculist of Chicago, says 98 per cent; Dr. P. C. Tanevsky, an oculist of New York, says 80; Dr. J. E. Brown, oculist in charge of State Institution for Blind at Cleveland, Ohio, says 97 per cent. We all agree that a larger part of all the eye troubles come from refractive trouble. My experience as an eye specialist enables me to diagnose and treat those troubles very successfully. My methods are original and new. I use no poisonous drugs; spectacle lenses are my only therapeutic. Headache, nervousness, red inflamed lids, crossed eyes, smarting, itching, or burning sensation, spots floating upon vision, dimness, blurring, etc., are all symptoms of eye strain. Examination and consultation free at Boyd Hotel Monday, October 22.

"I had no other thought than to vote the straight republican ticket, this fall," says a prominent republican of Wayne, "until the Wayne Republican commenced its dirty campaign against Ed. Reynolds. Now, I shall cut out the republican candidate for that office on my ballot. No doubt Ed. Reynolds isn't an angel, but he has always been a pretty good citizen of the town, and what the Republican says about him could be told of many men in higher places. Of course, I continued the speaker, "that little affair at the school house wasn't just the thing, but there are scores of men who would have done the same thing or worse for less reason. It's about time to cut this mudslinging business out of local politics, and I for one intend to let the editor of the Republican know he is just where he was when Reynolds beat him for the place."

The reception tendered the federation ladies at the Bressler home Wednesday evening was a magnificent social affair.

Sioux City Journal: Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Vreeland have arrived in Winside, Iowa, from Winside, Neb., where they were united in marriage at noon Wednesday. The bride's name was Miss Rhoda Miller and her home is at Winside. Mr. Vreeland lives at Gann Valley, S. D., where he is the manager of a large ranch owned by himself and Prof. H. A. Miller, of Sioux City. Mr. Vreeland is a brother to Mrs. H. A. Miller.

Miss Gertrude Weber proved a most accomplished hostess last Saturday evening, entertaining complimentary Miss Sigma Bondeson of Omaha. Progressive high five was played, Miss Goldie Brookings and Harry Fisher winning the honors and a box of bon bon each. Light refreshments followed by a musical program completed a most pleasant evening. Those present were Messrs and Mesdames England, Evans and Misses Craver, Britton, Criss, Hunter, Jones, Fucker, Brookings, and Messrs C. and H. Craven, Jones, Criss, Fisher, Miller, Stout, Lundborg and Tucker.

Delinquent tax lists are sadly delinquent in length this year and fail to bring much comfort to the hungry newspapers.

Mr. Dooley, in his discussion of life at Newport, says that three things are necessary for a happy life at that famous watering place: "In th' first place, ye must have the money an' ye must have th' look iv havin' it, an' ye must look as though it belonged to ye." The last, he adds, is the hardest of all.

The Republican press appeared tickled to pass around the news that Chancellor Andrews was an anarchist and a "liar," but they make a very bad mouth when it comes to correcting the false report they helped to spread. There isn't any meaner thing growing than the average partisan Republican editor.

And now the sugar trust has the beet sugar trust on the to-boggan. Henry T. Oxnard, president of the beet sugar trust, is making a great fuss over being driven to the wall, and says the outcome will be dearer sugar for the people. Oxnard is one of those sure-thing beets whom the DEMOCRAT is glad to see get his belly full of the trust troubles.

The Louisville Courier-Journal speaking of the assassination of the President, asks: "Is it not time for this foreign riff-raff and their Democratic fellow-conspirators who take refuge in our free government only to plan the destruction of all government, to be crushed." Mr. Watson does not specify to what "Democratic fellow-conspirators" he refers, but other editorials which have appeared in his paper suggest that he had in mind the six million Democrats who supported the ticket in 1896, when his influence was given to the Republican party.—Commoner.

Ex-Senator Manderson gives it as his opinion that anarchy and socialism must be stamped out. The trouble with ex-Senator Manderson is that he, like thousands of others, fails to distinguish the sweeping and fundamental difference between anarchy and socialism. The two are as radically different as darkness and light. It is not a compliment to the information of the general public that the terms are so often and so persistently confused. Anarchists would destroy all government; socialists seek the very opposite. Anarchists would have government do nothing; socialists would have government so enlarged that it would direct and control great business activities now carried on by private individuals. Anarchists despise the franchise; socialists believe that the intelligent ballot is the one-great hope of society. It is high time that men learned to distinguish between the two.

The Commoner is not an advocate of socialism, but it wants its readers to know the difference between socialists, who favor extending the scope of the government, and the anarchist, who would destroy all government and seeks to gain that end by the knife, the bullet and the torch.—W. J. Bryan.

The York Times says: "The fusion editors will get their wind again in a little while." Get our wind, did you say? Why, Lordy! that's all we have to live on.

Czolgosz isn't the only fellow who is nervously awaiting the latter days of October. There are whole lot of politicians waiting to see where the "lightning will strike."

The Stanton Register says Rosewater is being wrung out of Nebraska politics and the unsavory old Jew will soon be numbered among the J. Sterling Morton has-beens. There never has been much difference between a J and a Jew, anyhow.

No nomination or election expense statements will be required from township nominees or township officers-elect for the year 1901. This amendment to the election law simplifies matters in the townships and removes quite an objection to accepting nominations for minor offices where there is little remuneration.

The State Journal alleges that Editor Hearst of the New York Journal, Chicago American and San Francisco Examiner, is hiding lest some one call him to account for the course of his newspapers previous to the assassination of the president. The State Journal evidently doesn't read Hearst's papers or it would know what the American people think of such miserable tools of politics as the State Journal confesses itself to be.

Comparing the first six months of the republican administration in Nebraska to the last six months of fusion state government there is an increase in state expenses of just $48,019.53. Add to this the half million dollars lost by fire through the incompetency of republican state employees and you can arrive at a just conclusion as to whether it paid to vote the republican ticket last fall. What do you "full dinner pail" fellows think about it, upon careful consideration? And are you going to duplicate the 1900 mistake by voting for Judge Sedgwick, another member of the Bartley gang, this fall?

During six years of fusion administration, the people of Nebraska learned more about state business than in all the years preceding. The fusion state officers were always ready to assist the newspaper men in every way to present matters in a clear light. Some representatives of certain republican papers were prone to garble facts to suit their employers, but, on the whole, the people acquired a fairly accurate idea of what was being done.

It's different now. Treasurer Stueffer is about the only one who gives out much to the newspapers, and he'd be glad to quit if he could. But he's under fire now from every side and if not very careful will say a good deal he may be sorry for.

What's the matter with those two-for-a-cent administration organs which stood by Sampson before the investigation commenced? They aren't saying very much now. It looks to the DEMOCRAT as though a number of administration idols would fare about as badly as booby Sampson. Public opinion was correct as to whom the credit for smashing Admiral Cervera's fleet belonged. Public opinion was correct when it demanded war with the piratical Spaniards in Cuba. Public opinion was correct when the war in the Philippines was denounced as needless slaughter. It was right in terming the war in South Africa British highway robbery and murder. You can nearly always bet your boots that this thing called public opinion is right—and have two pair of boots where only one pair grew before.

Who Owned the Rabbit?

A Frankfort, Ky., man, lunching last Saturday with a party of dry goods men at the Arkwright club, got engaged in a discussion of the Schley-Sampson matter and before the controversy got very heated or acute he was reminded of a tale that has been circulating down in the blue grass country and is known as the Proctor Knott "rabbit story."

"Ex-Governor Proctor Knott and John Yerkes," said he, having agreed to tell the tale, "were discussing the claims of Sampson and Schley to the credit of smashing Cervera at Santiago. Mr. Yerkes took the ground that all the honor of that memorable conflict belonged to Admiral Sampson and was inclined to entirely ignore Commodore Schley's part in the affair.

"The governor listened until his companion had finished, and then, with that characteristic twinkle in his eye, said: 'My dear sir, it is exceedingly gratifying to me to hear you take the position you have in the matter. It is like a balm to my conscience and settles a point that has worried me many a day. I was walking through the woods once with a boy friend of mine when we saw a rabbit run into a sink-hole. We stood around the hole awhile; then I told the boy to watch while I went to get some fire to smoke the rabbit out. When I returned the boy had the rabbit. I took it away from him claiming that it belonged to me because I told him to catch it if it came out. That was over fifty years ago and you are the first man who has ever agreed with me that the rabbit was mine. I feel now that I was right in taking it and my conscience is at rest.'

"Mr. Yerkes looked solemn for a few moments, then smiled a feeble smile and changed the subject."—New York Commercial.

It is a tough proposition for this country to send missionaries out to civilize the heathen Turk and then be compelled to pay money for their ransom from a band of brigands. Evidences are multiplying that the only way to civilize the Turks is to make them "good Indians" and for some progressive power to take hold and conduct their government.—Norfolk News.

Is that so? Why not leave the Turks alone? Because they have a few brigands among them is some "progressive power" justified in murdering the whole people and stealing their country? The missionaries might better stay at home. It's cheaper for them to stir up trouble here.

Speaking of the Sampson-Schley investigation the Omaha News says: It is as yet entirely too early to venture a prediction as to the verdict which will be rendered by the Schley court of inquiry. Admiral Schley has not yet had his inning. Several "dull, sickening thuds" have been heard from the direction of Washington thus far, resulting from the evidence of the government.

In the first place, the testimony all along has been that the blockade off Santiago was not maintained at a distance of twenty to twenty-five miles at night, as stated by Admiral Sampson in his article which he wrote for the Century magazine. On the contrary, all the witnesses agree that it was maintained at a distance of from three to six miles, with a patrol inside the blockading line.

Then come witnesses who testify that Admiral Schley noted signs from the harbor at Santiago, indicating that the Spanish fleet was preparing to leave; that this information was imparted to Admiral Sampson, and that he, nevertheless, left for his famous conference some twelve miles away.

The next important evidence is that, far from running away, as charged by "Historian" Maclay, and confirmed by Admiral Sampson, the Brooklyn was in the thick of the fight.

THE NEW BABY

Opens up a new world to the loving mother. If it is a strong, healthy baby that new world is a world of happiness. If it is a weak, fretful child the new world is full of anxiety. It has been proven in thousands of cases, that the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes all the difference between strength and weakness in children. Healthy, happy mothers have healthy, happy children. "Favorite Prescription" gives the mother strength to give her child. It makes the baby's diet practically useless and promotes the secretion of the nourishment necessary to the healthful feeding of the nursing child.

"I have been using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and can say it is just what you advise it to be," writes Mrs. Victor J. Heidin, of Leonardville, Riley Co., Kansas. "I began taking it just two months ago, and my baby came and was greatly benefited by its use. The doctor who attended me said I did about as well as any one he had seen (as I was sick only about three hours) and also that my 'Favorite Prescription' was 'one patent medicine' which he did not have faith in. We now have a darling baby boy, strong and healthy, who weighed nine pounds when born. During this month he has gained three and one-half pounds. Have never given him one dose of medicine." Have never given him one dose of medicine."

She received the greater number of shots from the Spanish fleet, and herself inflicted 34 per cent of the injuries to the enemy's vessels from her 5-inch guns, disregarding the damage her other and larger guns did.

Then it develops that the famous "loop" was ordered by the captain of the Brooklyn, before Schley knew of it, although he later approved it; and further, that had this turn not been made the leading Spanish vessels would doubtless have escaped.

On the whole, Admiral Schley has no cause to fear the result of the investigation thus far, and he has been practically vindicated in the course he pursued, even at this point.

When he produces his own evidence it is safe to say that there will be some testimony given which will at least shake up the Sampson adherents.

THE COMMONER. (Mr. Bryan's Paper)

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of the Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and the DEMOCRAT together for one year for $1.75. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $2.00.

In order to introduce it into your home The Sem-Weekly State Journal will be mailed from now until January 1, 1902, for only twenty-five cents. This will give you a paper every Tuesday and Friday and will be almost as good as a daily. It will give you all the markets which just now is a valuable feature, worth to every farmer many times the cost of the paper. The Journal is printed at the State capital and is more of a state paper than any of its competitors. It prints the news of the world fresh from special wires in its own office and prints it twice a week, while it is fresh and doesn't charge you any more for it than does the old-fashioned weekly. Kobert Anderson and two little ones went to Sioux City Sunday to see wife and mother. Mrs. Anderson is the lady who was relieved two weeks ago of an 88-pound tumor. She was anxious to see her baby and little boy. There is a world of pathos in the incidents this family is passing through, but a cold, careless world cares but little for that. It is the troubles of the aristocrat and millionaire we weep over.

Tom Hill was a caller at this sanctuary last Saturday, and stated that he had a stray horse in his pasture, which he wanted advertised as such. The description was carefully taken, but the copy was not yet cold when Asher Harburt called and said he had put the horse in Hill's pasture upon instructions from Tom to do so, but the latter had quite forgotten the agreement entered into. Mr. Hill was not called to set 'em up yet, but he'd better do so in the immediate future.

Peter Kautz, formerly of Hoskins, writes the DEMOCRAT as follows from Clarkson, where he is now located: "As you have a new writer in Hoskins for your paper, you will find $1.00 enclosed, in cash, for which send me your paper to Clarkson, Neb."

DRESSMAKING—We wish to announce to the ladies of Wayne county that we are prepared to do dressmaking, cutting and fitting on reasonable terms, reside one block west of M. E. church in Mrs. Broad's residence, and invite patronage.

EVA BROWN and Mrs. C. SHELDON. One of Wayne's prominent Sunday school teachers, namely L. M. Petersen, superintendent of the Baptist classes, had an early invitation to fold up his hands and confess judgment last Sunday morning. It would appear that Petersen was a professional beat, and Aug. Piepenstock, by whom he was employed, accused him of being worse than that. After coming to Wayne about a year ago upon the legal profession and the sheriff of Wayne county to assist them in getting square with the gentleman.

Petersen hadn't been in this town long before he needed fixing up by the church, and his access into the Baptist Sunday school must have been dead easy. Last Saturday he sold some of his household effects and Sunday morning was ready to get out of town, but Atty. Berry and Sheriff Cherry got him at the depot, and facing a warrant for arrest for beating a board bill at the hotel Love, Petersen weakened and gave the officials a bill of sale for a cook stove (which the DEMOCRAT understands belongs to Chace & Neely) and some clothing. He was then allowed to pull out, leaving other numerous creditors to mourn his advent into the city.

Any Old Thing A Highland hotel keeper was one day having a squabble with an Englishman in the lobby of the hotel about his bill, says the Scottish-American. The stranger said it was a gross imposition—he could live cheaper in the best hotel in London. The Highland landlord replied: "Oh, nae doot, sir, nae doot, but dae ye no ken the reason?" "Not a bit of it," replied the stranger, hastily.

"Weel, then," replied the host, "as ye seem to be a sensible bit callant, I'll tell ye. There's 365 days in the Lunnon hotel keepers' calendar; but we have only three months here. Dae ye understand me noo, freen?" We maun make hay in the Hielan' when the sun shines, for it's unco seldom she dist."

A story oft told is that of Lord —, who, when a young man, was opposing Mr. Sugden, subsequently Lord Chancellor of England, in a parliamentary contest, says Household Words.

"He's the son of a country barber," said the noble lord. Replying afterwards, Mr. Mr. Sugden said: "His lordship has told you that I am nothing but the son of country barber; but he has not told you all, for I have been a barber myself, and worked in my father's shop—and all I wish to say about that is that had his lordship been born the son of a country barber he would have been a barber-still. That to my mind is quite clear."

A Highland laird who could not afford to keep his own piper was accustomed to employ the village piper when he had company, says the Highland Bagpipe. On one occasion, through some oversight, Donald had not been given his preliminary glass of whisky before he began his performance. Accordingly, he found his bagpipe in a most refractory temper. The laird asked him what was the matter with them, and Donald replied that the leather was so hard he could do nothing with it.

"What will soften it?" asked the anxious laird. "Och! just whisky," said Donald.

A tumbler of whisky was at once brought, which Donald immediately drank.

"You rascal!" said the laird, "did you not say it was for the bagpipes?" "Och, yess, yess," said Donald, "but she will be a ferry peculiar pipes this. She aye likes it blawed in."

A number of good stories that are floating about Forfarshire in connection with the late Provost Fyfe are legion, says the Scottish-American. One day, when he was only a bailie, he was on the bench of the Burgh police court. The first case called was that of an old woman, who toddled into court with the utmost unconcern.

"Weel, Janie," said the bailie, "fat's brocht ye here."

Officer of the court—"Please, yer honor, she was caught stealing wood frae Balmain-anner plantation." Bailie—"That belongs to the toon, din't it?" Officer of court—"Yes, your honor." Bailie—"Then things hae come to an awfu' pass if we cannot take a bacfu' o' sticks from our ain plantins. Gae' wa' ye, man, are ye no ashamed of yersel? And, Janet, ma wumman, whenever ye want any more sticks, just gang the same gait and get them. Fat's the world comin' tae?"

Question Answered Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Raymond's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.
