The Presbyterians are reported to have had a red hot time at a meeting Wednesday night when an effort was made to decide between choosing Rev. Lowery and Chittenden as permanent pastor. The vote was nearly a tie, and some pretty severe things were said before the cooler heads could call for an adjournment. "Rotten!" was the expression a good deacon was heard to make yesterday morning. It is too bad, but the devil seems to have gotten a strong hold on the good Presbyterians, and he is now breaking out on them just like a case of Bloomfield small pox.

Rusco & Holland's Uncle Tom Show here on Wednesday night again demonstrated the fact that there is no show on earth that will draw like Uncle Tom. But Rusco & Holland's is an exception in that it is a pretty good aggregation of players. "Little Eva" is one of the most remarkable child performers ever seen in the city. Her songs and story telling delighted the audience as well as surprised everyone. Uncle Tom, Topsy, Cousin Ophelia, St. Clair and the others were admirably reproduced for the millionth time. The company carries no band, but puts all its talent on the boards. It is about the best we "have taken the children to see" for thirty years past.

Last Saturday a deal was made whereby J. M. Ross of Rodney, Iowa, comes into possession of the quarter-section of land owned by J. L. Stiner. It is a splendid farm and the consideration was $50 per acre. Mr. Stiner purchased it three years ago for $85 per acre and made a nice little speculation out of the deal. He expects to leave this locality, but has not yet decided on a location.—Republican.

Dennis O'Leary, editor of the Wayne Republican, was formerly a member of a Tom show, taking the role of Lawyer Marks. Dennis says it was "dead easy" to get into the style of the play, but he didn't think it was as becoming a vocation as printing, so returned to his first love. Mr. O'Leary would like to get up a few home talent plays this winter, and is evidently right up-to-date in that line.

Chas. Reynolds, clerk of the district court, received word from Lincoln Saturday that Theodore Erich, sent to the asylum from this county, is dying of lung fever and making inquiry about the whereabouts of his people. Erich, it will be remembered, cut off his hand at Winside last summer while in a demented condition. He had been working in that vicinity for a couple of years.—Republican.

Advertisers should remember that a dollar spent in advertising in a paper that is read by all the people—if they have to borrow or steal the sheet—is worth two dollars thrown away where nobody looks for it. The DEMOCRAT has the biggest list of readers in Wayne county, and they hump themselves, every week, to get the paper.

The Nebraska Normal College is eclipsing all former records, the enrollment this week being over 250 students and many more to come before the holidays. No other school in the western states, all conditions considered, can compare with the progress of the Nebraska Normal, and the best feature is the school merits every bit of success it has attained.

There will be a determined effort when congress meets the first of December, to repeal the present bankruptcy law. Consequently, those who wish to take advantage of the provisions of this law should do so at once. The DEMOCRAT believes this is one of the best laws ever passed, as it gives to everyone who wishes to pay his debts the privilege of doing so and saving all of his exempt property. The act is a legal right and perfectly honorable, the court costs as a rule run about $40. People who are in debt and wish to get out should take advantage of this law at once and from the number of filings in the U. S. court it looks as though there would be lots of business the coming few months.

...Wayne Piano Parlors...

I have just received from the Newman Bros. factories of Chicago, the finest lot of organs ever seen in this city. They are models of the organ builders art, both in case, design and richness of tone, having a set of patent pipe reeds which gives to them the finest of pipe organ tones. There has never been anything like them here before. This patent is owned and controlled by the Newman Bros. Co., and is not to be found in any other organ. The bellows of these instruments are five inches larger than any other 5-octave organ made, consequently they have greater tone power. They are all mouse proof and every one is warranted for a term of five years. You will be surprised at the reasonable price that I am selling them for, and if you are thinking of buying an organ come in and see these before making your selection.

In pianos I have only the very best, and in any color of wood; mahogany, walnut or oak, all of the very best triple veneer. We have just got settled in our new parlors and will be pleased to have you call at any time.

Fishes are gathered up by means of a net with a hook attached to the lower end, with which the sponge fisherman is very expert. He lies upon his stomach in the stern of a boat looking through an ordinary water bucket with a glass bottom, which does away with the glare from the water and allows him to survey the bottom leisurely, while the boatman rows or sculls the boat. A school of fish, the size of a school of herring, from which a half dozen or more of these small boats fish. It returns to port when it is loaded, or at night, the case may be.

Nearly half a century ago the experiment of putting horse meat on the market was made for the first time in Austria. A government decree of April 20, 1854, gave legal permission to cut up and sell horse meat as an article of food. During the rest of that year and in 1855, 943 horses were slaughtered for food in Vienna; the number rose in 1859—the last year for which statistics are obtainable—to 25,640 head.

SMALLPOX AT LONG PINE

Sixty Cases Reported There—Health Board's Powers.—Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 13.—The inability of the state authorities to make and enforce quarantine regulations against the spread of smallpox and other contagious diseases was revealed at a special meeting of the state board of health. The board may advise and direct, but it has no legal authority to command. Local boards, however, are empowered by law to organize and impose necessary regulations and upon them rests the responsibility of enforcing their own rules.

Under a resolution of state authority was brought to the attention of the board by the receipt of a telegram from E. F. Dodd of Long Pine, which reported the existence of sixty cases of smallpox in that place. The message was directed to Governor Savage and in it the request was made that the board assist in preventing the spread of the disease in the localities. Governor Savage summoned the members together and a meeting was held in his office at the state house yesterday.

Long Pine is a town of about 1000 people, situated on the eastern boundary line of Brown county. It is the division point of the Elkhorn railroad and as such is the stopping place for a large number of railroad employes and others who travel over territory 100 miles or more, both east and west. Smallpox was first discovered there about a month ago.

Assuming all the authority it could under the board communicated by long distance telephone with the Elkhorn railroad officials at Omaha to stop at the town, it is not for the fact that Long Pine is a division point of the railroad authorities would comply with the request, but as it is they will not permit the train to stop at that place through the place without stopping. They still have the matter under consideration, however, and may yet see their way clear to do as they please.

Word was received from the railroad officials that there are only thirty-five cases in Long Pine at present. Information from the same source was to the effect that schools in the town had been closed and all public meetings postponed.

A law passed by the last legislature provides that the county boards shall have power to make and enforce regulations to prevent the spread of contagious diseases into the unincorporated territory of the county and to make and enforce quarantine regulations for the purpose of preventing the spread of health. Under this section of the law the county authorities may take action with a view to confining the disease where it now exists.

TRAVELING MAN

Thomas Shane Wins a Bride and a Fortune.—Omaha, Neb., Nov. 12.—A Birmingham, Mo., special says: Thomas Shane of Omaha, a former employee of the Union Pacific shops, has won a pretty bride and a fortune by his heroic efforts in saving the life of a little child.

Shane was riding on an Ontario and Western engine, which was pulling up to Sidney, N. Y., at a high rate of speed when a 3-year-old child tumbled into the track. His death seemed inevitable and Engineer Holt shut off the steam, turning his head to avoid the terrible sight, but Shane, who was present on foot, clambered out onto the covecatcher and clinging with one arm to the rods of the locomotive, leaped forward and with a mighty push captured the child.

Standing on the platform waiting for a train was Miss Croser, a pretty and wealthy young lady, who was so impressed by the deed that she sought an introduction through the conductor of the train. She asked Shane to call, and as a result a mutual regard ripened into love and the gallant hero has since by his deed won a bride and a fortune.

Butte, Neb., Nov. 12.—At 2 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the rear of the Schelost saloon. Before getting under control ten buildings in the heart of the town were destroyed. It is not expected that he can recover. He was the proprietor of a grocery store at St. Joseph.

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 12.—Illinois upset Iowa 27 to 0. Illinois played a perfect Saturday afternoon. The score, 27 to 0, does not tell how much the visitors outplayed the locals. The Illinois players were: T. J. H. Becking, and smashed Iowa's line to pieces. Stahl, the famous guard, was the star of the game. Fatal dashes into Iowa's line were made by Stahl and King. In the fourth year, Captain Lindgren, Brundage and Fairweather covered much ground with the ball. Fairweather, a freshman and a green player, carried the pigskin fifty yards through the entire Iowa eleven, returning a punt. Illinois wrecked Iowa's guards back with swift work against interference by Stahl and King.

He was alone in his car and was presumably loading his revolver, or clearing it, when it was discharged, the ball entering the stomach. He was removed to the hospital. It is not expected that he can recover. He was the proprietor of a grocery store at St. Joseph.

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 12.—Illinois upset Iowa 27 to 0. Illinois played a perfect Saturday afternoon. The score, 27 to 0, does not tell how much the visitors outplayed the locals. The Illinois players were: T. J. H. Becking, and smashed Iowa's line to pieces. Stahl, the famous guard, was the star of the game. Fatal dashes into Iowa's line were made by Stahl and King. In the fourth year, Captain Lindgren, Brundage and Fairweather covered much ground with the ball. Fairweather, a freshman and a green player, carried the pigskin fifty yards through the entire Iowa eleven, returning a punt. Illinois wrecked Iowa's guards back with swift work against interference by Stahl and King.

THINK LAND LAWS ARE TOO LIBERAL

One Reason Given for Agricultural Depression in the East.—Washington, Nov. 14.—The industrial commission yesterday made public its review of the evidence taken before the commission on the subjects of agriculture and agricultural labor. Among other subjects discussed is that of agricultural depression, of which the commission speaks as follows: "The cause most often assigned for the depression is the increased production, due to the opening of western lands in advance of the natural demand, especially through the agency of liberal land laws and grants of land in aid of railroad construction. The competition of the west should be rendered especially severe by the policy of the railroads in making freight rates relatively low for the growing crops. The old staple products having thus become unprofitable in the east it became necessary for farmers to change their methods of production. It is in their crops taking up especially the culture of products which are not easily transported long distances. Thus truck farms have largely superseded large grain crops. Even such a perishable commodity as milk is transported much longer distances than formerly since the introduction of refrigerator cars.

THREE MORE TAKEN.

Trio of Fugitive Convicts Caught at Bazaar, Kan.—Kansas City, Nov. 13.—Three more of the twenty-six fugitive convicts from Fort Leavenworth prison were captured at Bazaar, near Cottonwood Falls, Kan., late yesterday afternoon by penitentiary officers. The light in which one of the convicts was shot. The captured men are Guilbert Mullen, white; Fred Robinson, mulatto, and Sol Robinson, white. Robinson, the mulatto, was wounded but not seriously. He was also shot while making his escape from the prison last week. None of the guards were injured yesterday. Only nine of the convicts have yet to be taken, and the whole party is on the lookout.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 14.—Two of the convicts captured near Cottonwood Falls last evening, Guilbert Mullen and Southernland, are the men who captured Sheriff Cook near here last Sunday. The other two convicts, and joined them, it is thought, after the capture of the convicts in Council Grove Monday night.

THE DEMOCRAT

WAYNE, NEBRASKA. W. S. GOLDIE, Editor and Publisher. SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID IN ADVANCE, $1.00.

Bixby says "damned difference" if the court does rule that Admiral Schley said "d—n the Texas."

Business is a little quiet at present, but its easy to tell at this time that the man who plants an early crop of ads will reap the biggest crop of holiday trade.

If there is anything wrong with the DEMOCRAT this week just charge it up to Uncle Tom's Cabin. Tom's been dead so long he won't mind being blamed for most any old thing.

Platte is the only county on the map, this fall, that looks good to a democrat from a political standpoint. As the Humphrey Democrat says the party candidates "got the whole smear."

Gov. Ezra P. Savage's Thanksgiving proclamation is a little too long for a democratic paper to print so soon after election. It's all right for Ezra and his kind, they have reason to feel that way.

William Jennings says the Commoner went to press too early last week to make comments on the election. Billy might as well this week say that election is too d—d old to make any comments on it.

The State Journal says the democratic party "is absolutely obliterated as an important influence in any of the northern states." This is real mean of the Journal, because the statement comes pretty nearly being true.

Gov. Beckham goes after Gov. Durban of Indiana in red hot fashion. The matter of securing a requisition for fugitive Taylor the alleged Kentucky murderer hiding in the Hoosier state, will now be carried to the supreme court.

It doesn't necessarily take a lot of Indians to have an Indian summer.—Randolph Times.

Guess not. We have a whole lot of "Indians" in Wayne county but have seen no summer, unless it be a summary of election bets, and that gives us a chill.

A Dakota county corn husker picked 100 bushels of corn in one day and then let the train run over him. Now, if he had only waited until after corn picking season to do his husking he'd have had sense enough to get off the track.

Mark Murray of the Pender Times says his brother editor—republican, of course—was so puffed up Wednesday morning after election nobody recognized him. After all, we democrats of Wayne county are not so badly off as poor Mark. The republican editors up here got it in the neck, also.

A preacher named A. Wagge persuaded a farmer of Vermont to pile his tobacco crop in one immense bonfire, at a cost of $8000, to prevent the farmer burning himself in the next world. Holy smoke, but that Wagge is different from the others, for most of them nowadays want to have "money to burn."

While the fusion forces are down in defeat, let us not forget that it is not the first time that democracy has gone down in defeat. That it will arise again to trouble the victors, none will deny. The party is too great to be crushed by defeat. It has a mission to fill and will come forth in good time in the full flush of hope and confidence. It is the party of human liberty and as such is bound to leave its impress upon humanity, whether marching under the banner of defeat or victory.—Fullerton Post.

If writing letters would do the business, both Miss Stone and Pat Crowe would come in.

A new gun has been invented that shoots twenty-one miles. The republican pop guns of Nebraska can beat that distance.

After all, we small fry don't need to feel so badly. Just think of what W. J. B. and the Commoner have to go up against.

Besok Dr. F. Warren, utexaminerad ogon och oron lakare fran Leipsig Tyskland, a hans kontor i Bloomfield, Nebraska. Senaste methoder mangarig erfarenhet. Is the way the Wausa Gazette pours the soup into the defunct democrats of Knox county. Wouldn't it knock your socks stiff?

The republicans now think they have the democracy hung up by the boot tops. Whenever a political organization gets to feeling it has the whole earth in its grasp it is pretty nearly sure to drop all of it. When Cleveland was elected in 1892 some local republicans predicted g. o. p. had seen its last day. It's always darkest just before light. Such a man as David Bennett Hill and a brand new democratic platform may sweep the whole country in 1904.

The Chances for Hill

Those political prophets who the next day after an election can predict all the changes which will occur before the next election are now appointing ex-Governor David Bennett Hill to the leadership of the New York democracy, succeeding "Boss" Croker's disastrous maladministration. The leader of the New York democracy inevitably becomes the national democratic leader.

Undoubtedly Governor Hill is one of the most acute politicians and statesmen in the country. He is a democrat of the indelible stamp. He is an honest man from top to bottom. In New York democratic politics he was overborne in influence by the brutal and shamelessly corrupt forces which Croker applied to party management. Croker says that he will "stay."

But there is a power in the honesty and determined purpose of the democratic masses which Croker will be unable to defy unless he and his followers are bent on the destruction of the democratic party, which they were unable longer to rule for their selfish and meretricious purposes.

Yet it is too early to select the democratic statesman who shall be invited by the popular vote to assume the leadership of the democratic party. It may be Hill and above the democratic horizon there now appears no vision of leadership which he might not realize and fill. But as the future unfolds there will be many objects to attract the popular attention.

Next year, after congress adjourns, elections will be held in forty states. Governors, with other state officers, and members of congress will be chosen. Out of the events of 1902, not out of the events of 1901, the democratic leadership of the future will be evolved.—Chicago Chronicle.

Anarchy and the Marriage Tie

A sister of Professor Herron, the notorious socialistic agitator who recently defied conventional society by a public common law marriage, has announced her intention of following her brother's footsteps by contracting a marriage without formal rite, either civil or ecclesiastical.

Miss Herron gives the same reason for her radicalism—the littleness and inconsequence of formal ceremonies when compared with the so-called sanctity of a love marriage. She will wed her affinity without conventional ceremony, because she and her prospective husband both affect to hold in contempt the formal pledges that society from time immemorial has associated with the marriage tie. "What do such vows count for," asks Miss Herron, "if the hearts are afire with love which knows no explanation from the lips?"

It is idle to attempt serious argument when such a creed as the above is promulgated as worthy of public attention. Everyone knows that the promulgators of such a creed are anarchists at heart. It is nonsense to draw fine distinctions between the so-called philosophical belief in individual freedom and the out-and-out anarchistic doctrine that the individual is the sole judge as to his or her relations with society at large.

The anarchist, whether disguised with the halo of so-called refinement and ethical superiority or openly arrayed against all forms of law and government, is a pestiferous enemy to human society. The theory that the individual is all and society nothing is the basis of all such avowals of independence as were made by Professor Herron when he wedded his alleged affinity. That his example is to be followed by one of his own kin merely proves that false views of what conventional society has a right to claim from the individual are lamentably contagious.—Chicago Chronicle.

Esau Buck and the Bucksaw

An old farmer of Arkansas, whose sons had all grown up and left him, hired a young man by the name of Esau Buck to help on his farm, says the Hartford, Conn., Daily Times. On the evening of the first day they hauled up a small load of poles for wood and unloaded them between the garden and the barnyard.

The next morning the old man said to the hired man: "Esau, I am going to town today, and while I am gone you may saw up that wood and keep the old ram out of the garden."

When the old man had gone Esau went out to saw the wood. When Esau saw the saw, he saw that he couldn't saw it with that saw. Esau looked around for another saw, but that was the only saw he saw; so he didn't saw it. When the old man came home he says to Esau: "Esau, did you saw the wood?" Esau said: "I saw the wood; but when I saw the saw, I saw that I couldn't saw it with that saw, so I didn't saw it."

The old man went out to see the saw, and when he saw the saw he saw he saw that Esau couldn't saw with that saw. When Esau saw that the old man saw that he couldn't saw with the saw, Esau picked up the ax and chopped up the wood and made a seesaw. The next day the old man went to town and bought a new bucksaw for Esau Buck; and when he came home he hung the bucksaw for Esau Buck on the sawbuck by the seesaw.

Just at this time Esau Buck saw the old buck in the garden eating cabbage; and when driving him from the garden to the barnyard, Esau Buck saw the bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw, and Esau stopped to examine the new bucksaw. Now, when the old buck saw Esau Buck looking at the new bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw, he made a dive for Esau, missed Esau, hit the seesaw, knocked the seesaw against Esau Buck, who fell on the bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw. Now, when the old man saw the old buck dive at Esau Buck and miss Esau and hit the seesaw and knock the seesaw against Esau and saw Esau Buck fall on the bucksaw on the sawbuck by the seesaw; he picked up the ax to kill the old buck; but the buck saw him coming, and dodged the blow, and countered on the old man's stomach, knocked the old man over the seesaw onto Esau Buck who was getting up with the bucksaw off the sawbuck by the seesaw, crippled Esau Buck, who broke the bucksaw and the sawbuck and the seesaw.

Now, when the old buck saw the completeness of his victory over the old man and Esau Buck and the bucksaw and the sawbuck and the seesaw, he quietly turned around, went back and jumped into the garden again, and ate up what was left of the old man's cabbages.

The disfiguration caused by skin disease, even more than the tormenting irritation which is so commonly associated with it. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery generally results in a complete cure of eczema, pimples, eruptions and other forms of disease which have their cause in an impure condition of the blood.

"I was troubled with eczema from the crown of my head to the soles of my feet," writes Mrs. Ella Quick, of Cass City, Lincoln Co., Mich. "I could not walk at times, nor wear shoes. I thought there was no help for me, at least the doctor said there was none. I went to see friends at Christmas time and there I heard of the good that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery had done for them, and it was advised to try it at once. For fear that they might neglect it my friends sent to the drug store and got a bottle and made me promise that I would take it. I had been getting worse all the time. I took thirteen bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and ten vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and used the 'All-Do-It' Ointment, which made a complete cure. It was slow, but sure. I was taking the medicine about eight months ago, and would say to all who read this, 'Try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery before wasting time and money.' Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the 'Discovery.'"

THE ARENA.

Under the editorial management of Charles Brodie Patterson, B. O. Flower, and John Emery McLean.

The COMING AGE has been merged into the ARENA, and B. O. Flower, who founded and built up the ARENA, has returned to its editorial department in which work he is associated with Mr. Charles Brodie Patterson, president of the Alliance school of Applied Metaphysics, author of a number of leading works devoted to the New Thought, and one of the most advanced philosophical thinkers of the times, and Mr. John Emery McLean, who for the last two years has been the working editor of the ARENA, and is now associated with Mr. Patterson in the editorship of the MIND. This able editorial staff is assisted by the strongest and most authoritative thinkers in the New World, who from month to month contribute their best thoughts to the review which for many years has occupied a foremost position in the very vanguard of the great authoritative magazines of the English-speaking world. It is the determination of the present management to restore the ARENA to its old prestige and make it absolutely indispensable to all wide-awake and progressive people. Here is a list of a few contributors to early issues. They are sufficient to indicate the authoritative character of the ARENA under its new editorial management:

Dr. R. Osgood Mason.

Question Answered

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bilio-ness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get Dr. G. C. Green's reliable remedy at Raymond's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

Hans Hanson says there were about fifty "ball players" in Wilbur precinct who forgot to vote. Wait until the boys have "troubles of their own," then we'll help Nichols shoot the dye stuff into them!

The very largest fusion gun was trained this fall, at Fullerton, upon the dauntless crew who ran the good old ship, Republican. It thundered forth peal after peal, and landed shells from deck to keel, and still the boat remained unshaken, for not a damshot took effect.

Cold slugs of democratic hate struck but refused to penetrate, and when the smoke of battle cleared and silence followed, it appeared the fusion gunboat in the fray had fairly blown itself away, its wreckage floating toward the Platte, its crew defunct—hurrah for that.

I asked Undertaker Gaptner for a little holiday advertising; one day this week, and he said, "Yes; just tell them I have a nice line of caskets which I will sell very cheap." Now, wouldn't that kill you?

Squire Burdick "went up Salt Creek" last Tuesday. The squire had on a brand new suit and expects to get a few wyes in the Mormon city before the preachers' petition reaches congress.

The Cherokee Democrat says yesterday evening and this evening the heavens will be full of shooting stars. Good heavens! didn't we see enough of them last week!

Awfully sorry, but if somebody doesn't pay a subscription very soon we'll not be able to ransom turkey for a Thanksgiving dinner, by dad.

A Baxter Springs official recently arrested a woman who has worn pants for five years.—Cherokee Democrat.

That's funny. By dad, there are a lot of women in Wayne who would be arrested if they didn't wear 'em—at least when the streets are muddy.

By dad, if times get much duller, business in the bankruptcy court ought to pick up. I wish people weren't so dang proud, anyway, and would grasp the opportunities that are presented them. Now, all you fellows who owe me from one to nine dollars on subscription, if you go through bankruptcy I can just play even on the advertising. There's no limit to the game, and the other fellows will no doubt be glad to get accounts "squared" if it is done in a round-about way.

R. H. Johanson says: "Goldie, you'll have a good one on the Presbyterians, this week, won't you? They had a riot last night, and tonight they have ice cream to cool it off!"

The statement by a Wayne editor that there are or was a nest of anarchists in Wayne is well and sufficient disproved by the fact that not a single man, boy, woman or girl turned out Tuesday night to see the "assassination of McKinley," not even the few elect who held "comps" to the entertainment, which had been handed out by the redman in advance.

I am in receipt of the following epistle from Tolerton & Stetson of Sioux City:

Mr. O. D. Franks of your city has given us your name and we take the liberty of addressing you and asking you to call at the "Capital" saloon the night of the opening, when he will ask you to smoke free of charge on him a Senora Cubana Boston Londres Cigar.

By dad, there's an "opening" for your life; a capital opening; a chance to get on the outside of a whole lot of good things to put inside. Be there! Well, I guess yes, if there's room for a shadow!

Considerable of a sensation was sprung among the city drymen yesterday, and the boys say the next Tom show that comes to town will be able to engage an expressman at low rates. Henry Claybaugh was sent from one car to another to collect for a bill of groceries, and the sight that met his gaze as he entered the apartment, unannounced, would have made Charley Tower tremble. "Close the door behind you," was the only remark the angel gave Henry, as she deftly counted out his change. Henry says he is too old a man to be visiting circus bath rooms.

Wonder where such papers as the Sioux City Journal would get a rag to chew if Bryan and the whole push of us joined the G. O. P.?

The Kansas City Journal explains that "one reason why Mr. Bryan is no longer the idol of the plain people is because so many of the plain people are now idle." It would appear that many of the plain people were idle on Nov. 5th last, at least very few of The Babies Here.

There were no less than two hundred people at the depot last night to see the babies arrive from the orphan's home in New York, to seek homes among the people of Wayne county. Two gentlemen and two nurses accompanied the children and they were taken to the Perrin house to be cared for over night. This forenoon, at ten o'clock, the opera house was full of people who were there either out of curiosity or to get a child. Superintendent Tice of the Home made quite a long talk on the subject of child saving and told some interesting anecdotes concerning his numerous trips to place the poor babies in homes. Then the little ones were taken up, the youngest first, a fair-haired, happy looking baby of twelve months. It was a touching scene to witness and there were many wet eyes in the room when the little ones were offered. There were three or four little tots and then the ages ranged from four to thirteen years. Following is the order in which they were introduced to their future protectors: Henry McKenna, 4 years old to L. L. Edmundson; Frank Doherty, 10 years old to E. E. Benson, from near Randolph; Margaret Canavan, 11 years old, to Rev. Bible; Samuel Canavan, 5 1/2 years old, Benj. Elliott; Sadie Canavan, 3 years old to Guy Richards; William H. Ahbey, 12 years, to Amos B. Everham; Roy Sherman, 2 years, to H. U. Roland; Edna Evans, 14 years old, to Judge Moses; Charley Rich, 9 years, to W. D. McGee; Dickran Granchion, 9 years, to J. T. Engelhardt, from near Winside; George Franklin May, 5 1/2 years, Benj. Cox, Winside. Charles Webb, the oldest boy was not taken.

The society uses great precaution in securing homes for their charges. Supt. P. W. Tice visits every place where a child is given and if found satisfactory a contract is made. Later on an inspector visits each home and if he deems it necessary the child is taken away. Rev. J. W. Swan, state agent, informs the DEMOCRAT that over 60 homeless little ones have found places in Nebraska since September last.

GRANT MEARS.

She's a Real Beauty

Miss Marie Williams, who is clerking at Joslin's, the biggest store in Denver, gets the following notice in the Denver Times: "If you ask them at Joslin's to point out the prettiest salesgirl you may depend upon the answer, 'Well, now, we have so many—' If you will look around a little and talk to the girls you will find out that they will all tell you about the girl at the jewelry department. When you see her you will not be disappointed. Marie Williams is her name and she is as pretty as a picture. If you admire 'Tojetti's' heads you will admire Marie Williams. She has the reddest lips, the whitest teeth, the brownest eyes and the creamiest complexion. Miss Williams' beauty is not the only charm she possesses, for like Shakespeare's Cordelia, 'her voice is soft and low,' and her manners most pleasing. While you are apparently busy over the purchase of a buckle or a brooch it is a temptation to linger just to watch the girl behind the counter. She does not seem to know she is any different from the other girls, and that's the best part of it."

Hit With a Spade

The railroad company has resumed the work of putting in the new side-track to be known as Sholes, five and a half miles this side of Randolph. At the commissioners meeting last week, in spite of the protest of Commissioner Carroll, having voted to surrender a part of the established highway for the new siding. The location of this new town has been the means of dividing the people of that section into two hostile camps and much bad blood has been engendered. Indeed, so bitter has become the feeling that it is reported that on Friday last a wordy discussion, M. S. Moats became so enraged that he struck at Henry Burdham's head with a spade. The latter threw up his arm to ward off the blow, and partially succeeded, the point of the spade just touching his forehead and inflicting a cut over the eye. Mr. Burdham also received a cut on the elbow which prevented him from using his arm for several days. On Monday afternoon Mr. Burdham went to Wayne and swore to a complaint, charging Mr. Moats with assault with intent to kill, but up to Wednesday morning no warrant had been served, owing to the absence of the county attorney. It is a bad thing for the neighborhood, and it would have been better for all concerned if no attempt had ever been made to secure a siding.—Carroll Index.

Proceedings.

Wayne, Nov. 7, 1901.

In the matter of the alteration and change in the public road along the north easterly side of the right of way of the C. St. P. M. & O. Ry., in the south one-half of the northeast quarter of section 10, township 27, range 1, petitioned for by C. O. Sellan et al. On consideration of the same the board find that the owners of the land necessary for the proposed change have in writing filed their consent thereto with said petition. On motion by the following vote—Russell, aye, Wittler, aye, Carroll, nay,—the prayer of said petition was granted and said public road changed as follows:

That at a point on the northeasterly line of the right of way of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway, which is 1083 feet from the intersection of said line of right of way with the east line of said Section Ten, the said road with such point for its center shall run thence northeasterly at right angles with said right of way line 188 feet center, thence southeasterly and parallel with said right of way line, to said east line of said Section Ten, so that said road shall for 1000 feet from the east line of said Section Ten be on its southwesterly side, 100 feet from said right of way line.

And the following proportion of said road was vacated:

Commencing at the east line of Section Ten, that is the road on said east line, and extending northwesterly along said right of way of the C. St. P. M. & O. Ry. for a distance of 1000 feet.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boesche's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Raymond's drug store. Get Green's Special Almanac.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Chase spent the interval between terms at her home in Pierces.

Mrs. Eaton, a field matron at the Rosebud agency, was here over Sunday visiting her daughter, Beale.

Walter Vaught spent Saturday at the college. He reports the Stanton county small pox cases as diminishing in number.

From the way in which chapel is crowded this week one is reminded of a normal or winter term rather than of the usual fall term.

Mr. Mullen, the Indian agent at Rosebud, stopped over between trains one day last week, much to the delight of his daughters, Amy and Nora.

A foot-ball game has been arranged between the college team and the team from Pierces, to take place at the fair grounds on Thanksgiving day. A great game may be expected.

An impromptu social was indulged in Monday evening and was seemingly much enjoyed. Another is being planned by the Crescent Literary society for Saturday night next.

The Philo Literary society has organized this term with John Wilson as president, Jennie Powell as vice-president, and Miss Palmer as secretary. The Crescent executives are W. E. Sweeney, 2nd Albert Berry, while Miss Thosteson is the keeper of records.

The play rendered by the Philo society last Thursday evening, proved to be entertaining in a high degree. All who took part acquitted themselves with credit, but special mention must be made of the "comedian" Mr. Paul, the "villain" Mr. Willis, and the "eccentric old man" Prof. Wolfe. The proceeds from the play amounted to over thirteen dollars.

A remarkable series of planetary conjunctions will happen the latter half of this month, when the three brightest planets will be close together in the evening sky, visible in the southwest for two hours and a half after sunset. On the 17th Venus, now traveling rapidly eastward, will overtake Jupiter, and on the 18th will pass Saturn. Such proximity of these planets does not occur only once in about twelve hundred year.

The winter term of school commences on Monday in district 26.

Nick Cullen and William Pond came through here Saturday with their colts from where they had been for the summer pasture.

A stable and two new chimneys are the latest additions to Allona.

Some of the fifty and sixty bushel corn fields have divided down to twenty-five or thirty since election. What's the matter, boys, don't let your courage fail that quick.

H. M. Damme was on the market with wheat Wednesday.

John Watts was dehorned cattle at Andrew Jensen's Wednesday.

Chester Brown has rented the McMaken farm for next year.

Alex Suhr was on the market with hogs Wednesday.

John Livinghouse reports the missing of some meat from his farm lately.

Dick Ritge was at the county seat on business Wednesday.

T. J. Snyder intends going to the Hot Springs to find a cure for rheumatism.

THE COMMONER.

(Mr. Bryan's Paper)

The Commoner has attained within six months, from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic, and social problems. To the columns of the Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

A local contractor had a faithful Miesian working for several years, says the Albany Journal. A few weeks ago the employe announced his intention to pay a visit to a brother in the west. He was to be gone a month, and the contractor, being a good-natured fellow, purchased a valise for "Tim." The night Tim was to quit, the valise was presented to him with a few kind words. Tim looked rather surprised for a moment, and then asked: "Ruther suden am I to do with that?"

"Why, put your clothes in it when you go away," answered the boss.

"Put me clothes in it," said Tim, "and what in the devil'll I wear if I put my clothes in that?"

Explanations were considered unnecessary.
