At a church entertainment recently out in Kansas a demure little old maid of very retiring disposition was to sing a part with the minister. When their duet came the deacon announced: "Miss Surrywell will now sing 'Put Me in My Little Bed' accompanied by the minister." No wonder every one laughed and the little old maid fainted. In entering an airship for competition at St. Louis during the world's fair the inventor says he will require 150x25 feet space in the air. So many airships are being entered that the management is in doubt about promising so much space. Let us hope however, that the modest man will be accommodated. Give him plenty of room. An airship is no vest pocket concern. Senator Bacon thinks congress should give attention to some plan for increasing the circulation of the Congressional Record. His opinion is that the price should be reduced from $3 for the long session and $4 for the short session to $2 for the long session and $1 for the short session.—Sioux City Journal. How would it do to make the price 10 cents and then give every man 20 cents if he refused to take it?

Griggs, who now resides at Mapleton, Minn.: "By dad, Goldie, I have got it where the chicken got the ax, the bumps. We have plenty of sawd for good sleighing if it was not piled up. The People's Lecture course is proving to be a happy success. No better lecture has been given in Wayne than the one Thursday night by Dr. Loveland of Vinton, Iowa, whose subject was "Follies of Fogysim." The speaker declares fogysim to be a jury that pronounces judgment on all matters without summoning any witnesses or examining any evidence. "The home is to be cherished above all places and fathers and mothers are to be respected in supreme degree; the church is the citadel of the nation's righteousness, and yet, the two most stubborn trenching places of fogysim are the home and the church." "That fogysim which puts creed above deed, and doctrine above life, which adheres to the methods of the fathers and scorns the ways of common sense, the speaker held up to ridicule in a pleasing manner, yet with forceful telling blows. A splendid physique, a rich, melodious voice, the grace and finish of a scholar and orator; these are some of the qualifications that give to Dr. Loveland his power on the platform. We trust that an early return engagement may be secured for him in Wayne. The next lecture in the course will be given Feb. 20, by Bishop Hirst on the subject, "Will the Educated Woman Marry?"

People who are not accustomed to taking "40 roll" will find this prime old rye just what they need for colds and the grip. HERMAN MILDNER. Will Hogwood had a sorry mishap last Monday while on his rural delivery trip to Altona. He told his boy to hold the team while he went into a house. The son started to clap his hands to keep them warm and the team ran away, one horse being very badly cut up in a barbed wire fence. Wednesday an attempt was made to bring the horse home in a bob sled, but the sled upset and the job was given up. The horse is expected to recover in a month or two. The Hartington News tells the following story on Tom Zeigler of that place who was a member of the last legislature: "But speaking of the legislature, reminds us of Tom Zeigler. You all know Tom, the tall geezer who has to stoop under his own umbrella and is obliged to tie a knot in his neck before he can get his shirt on. Well, he was telling a little experience of his to a crowd in the Grand hotel a few evenings ago. 'When I was in Lincoln last winter,' he said, 'one lobbyist offered me $4.68 for my vote on a certain measure. 'You accepted it didn't you?' asked Jim Conway. 'I did not' replied Tom, 'my conscience wouldn't permit me to take it because it wasn't more than half what is customarily paid, and I wouldn't have had the nerve to look my fellow members of the legislature in the face if I had cut prices.'"

Dr. J. C. Clark, the Sioux City eye specialist, will be at the Boyd hotel, Wayne, on Monday, February 10. The U. P. freight went through today as usual. Anyone wanting to buy nice city residence see Henry Goll. F. W. Burdick says he will move to Seattle, Wash., about April 1st. Homer Graves is getting ready to move to Pierce county where he has bought a big farm. Mr. Jensen was a visitor from Altona today and made the DEMOCRAT feel good for a "case." Everybody says the Poor Man's Place is the right place to go to get a glass of real good keg beer. Subscribers who fail to get copies of the DEMOCRAT will please call next door to postoffice for them. For bargains just keep your eye on our north show window. A surprise for you next week, don't miss it. P. L. MILLER & SON. The DEMOCRAT puts up the biggest and best sale bills for the money. We also can give you any auctioneer's sale dates. R. P. Uncle Henry says he will leave for Washington when he gets easy rates. I have the only, real Pabst Milwaukee case beer in the city. You want some to tone up your system before spring opens up. Phone or call on me at the Poor Man's Place. HERMAN MILDNER. Miss Leona Hunter has received notice that her ship will sail Feb. 26 instead of the 15th. Miss Hunter will leave Wayne a week from next Monday on her long journey to the Philippines. The Farmers' Institute is not being very well patronized by the farmers. The grangers evidently think an infestation of this kind is related to populism and are uneasy, lest it interrupt the "full dinner pail." G. J. Savidge and J. W. Turner have a matched shoot at bluffs today. They saw George shot at 25, the other day and didn't hit a feather. As Billy Anderson says, he isn't much good to gather fodder for a restaurant. Hon. M. F. Greeley of South Dakota and Mrs. Laws of Minnesota will address the Farmers' Institute tonight. Levi Diltz, who is up from Wakefield attending the institute, says he has heard both speakers and they are good talkers. The rural mail carriers are "earning their money" for a starter. Being green hands at the business and going up against very severe weather was enough to make the boys think that working for Uncle Sam was a hard proposition.

Officers Charged With Shooting and Striking the Fugitives While Living Wounded and Helpless—Inquest Is Held.

Batler, Pa., Feb. 4.—The terrible fate of the Biddles, both of them dying of their wounds Saturday night, was the topic of conversation here Sunday, and a curious throng of people have been defying the storm, hanging about the jail entrance in vain attempts to get to see the bodies of the dead murderers. A great deal of sympathy for the boys is expressed on all sides, and not a few of the female portion of the crowd expressed a desire to see what manner of man Ed Biddle was, that he should exert such a wonderful influence over men, and particularly over the crowd, and that he should be killed by the officers in the manner which was held in the jail, and nothing concerning their deliberations could be learned until late in the afternoon.

He had me go and leave the door open. "None of your key-holes for me, sonny," he said, and I left the door open and went to the bar.

He was growing more and more excited, and this alarmed me, for my father was very low that day, and I thought he was going to die.

He had me go and leave the door open. "None of your key-holes for me, sonny," he said, and I left the door open and went to the bar. For a long time, though I certainly did my best to listen, I could hear nothing but a low gabbling; but at last the door opened, and I could pick up a word or two, mostly oaths, from the captain.

HOUSE DEBATES

THE OLEO BILL

HOUSE DEBATES

Most of the Day Spent in Discussing the Pending Measure.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The house devoted most of yesterday to general discussion of the oleo margarine bill. The opponents of the measure attempted to filibuster against it at the opening of the session, but were beaten by more than a two-thirds vote.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

The speakers yesterday were Messrs. Henry of Connecticut, Haskins of Vermont, and Graft of Illinois, in favor of the measure, and Messrs. Wadsworth of New York, Foster of Illinois, Burleson of Texas, and Clayton of Alabama, in opposition to it. Those who advocated the bill favored the adoption of the substitute, which is designed to prevent the fraudulent sale of oleo margarine under the guise of butter.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

Both majority and minority reports were filed on the war revenue repeal bill. The majority report says the probability of early withdrawals of troops from Cuba and the reduction of the force in the Philippines will make further reductions possible, and also reviews the condition of the treasury. In conclusion the majority report says: "It cannot be denied that a large surplus furnishes temptation for extravagant expenditures. It is therefore generally believed to be well to keep the national expenditures within reasonable bounds, it should be relieved from the pressure of a large surplus. It is therefore suggested that certain taxes be allowed to remain."

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

The minority report approves the measure as it stands, but says that it should have been made long ago. It also advocates a general revision of tariff taxation with the retention of duties on raw materials. It says that a general denunciation of the Dingley law as the mother of trusts, and the report says that it enables manufacturers to charge for greater prices to home consumers than are received abroad for the same goods, which is characterized as "plain robbery."

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

While approving in general the policy of repealing the war taxes, we insist that certain taxes on accumulated profits be retained. The measure generally is believed to be well to keep the national expenditures within reasonable bounds, it should be relieved from the pressure of a large surplus. It is therefore suggested that certain taxes be allowed to remain."

Mr. Burleson of Texas also opposed the bill. Mr. Graft of Illinois supported the bill, and settled down to a long session of the bill's opponents. Mr. Clayton of Alabama closed the debate for the day with a speech against the bill, while the majority report was being read. He said that the measure and appealing to his brothers on the democratic side to stand by the bill, and that he would not be a party to its passage. He said that he believed the present law was constitutional.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The house devoted most of yesterday to general discussion of the oleo margarine bill. The opponents of the measure attempted to filibuster against it at the opening of the session, but were beaten by more than a two-thirds vote.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

The speakers yesterday were Messrs. Henry of Connecticut, Haskins of Vermont, and Graft of Illinois, in favor of the measure, and Messrs. Wadsworth of New York, Foster of Illinois, Burleson of Texas, and Clayton of Alabama, in opposition to it. Those who advocated the bill favored the adoption of the substitute, which is designed to prevent the fraudulent sale of oleo margarine under the guise of butter.

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

Both majority and minority reports were filed on the war revenue repeal bill. The majority report says the probability of early withdrawals of troops from Cuba and the reduction of the force in the Philippines will make further reductions possible, and also reviews the condition of the treasury. In conclusion the majority report says: "It cannot be denied that a large surplus furnishes temptation for extravagant expenditures. It is therefore generally believed to be well to keep the national expenditures within reasonable bounds, it should be relieved from the pressure of a large surplus. It is therefore suggested that certain taxes be allowed to remain."

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

The minority report approves the measure as it stands, but says that it should have been made long ago. It also advocates a general revision of tariff taxation with the retention of duties on raw materials. It says that a general denunciation of the Dingley law as the mother of trusts, and the report says that it enables manufacturers to charge for greater prices to home consumers than are received abroad for the same goods, which is characterized as "plain robbery."

WAR REVENUE REPEAL

Two Reports Filed on Proposed Bill, The Minority Urging That Certain Taxes Be Allowed to Remain.

While approving in general the policy of repealing the war taxes, we insist that certain taxes on accumulated profits be retained. The measure generally is believed to be well to keep the national expenditures within reasonable bounds, it should be relieved from the pressure of a large surplus. It is therefore suggested that certain taxes be allowed to remain."

The Dixon Index, by Hugh Gibson, will make its initial appearance today.

The ground hog "went away back and sat down." He saw something on his day.

Magnet has a newspaper, published by Hammond & Smith. The little town of Altona, in Wayne county, wants a paper, also, if there are any more suckers in the county who have money to throw at the birds.

There is a vast amount of humbuggery in hypnotism—about ninety-eight per cent.—State Journal.

That's no doubt the reason the republican party is said to have hypnotized the voters of Nebraska in the fall of 1900.

Bixby says the only reason Edward Rosewater does not stand as an independent candidate for the presidency of these United States is because he was not born in this country. And if he had been born in this country he wouldn't be Rosewater.

After praying forty years for a baby a New Jersey couple placed a small want ad in a newspaper and that same night a bouncing boy was left on the doorstep. Prayer is alright if you aren't in a hurry, but for quick returns printer's ink is the thing.

The World-Herald is still worrying about the Declaration of Independence which notable document was thrown overboard in 1900. It is the Bartley pardon of Savage that is now occupying the attention of the public, dear World-Herald.

A Wayne preacher observes that the best proof that preachers are not preaching for the money there is in it, is because they could earn three or four times their present salary doing something else. Well, good many of us fellows who are doing "something else" came from Missouri.

It is now an open secret why the Oxnards made an attempt last year to allow the beet grower to secure a small portion of the profit. The sugar beet beaters would probably learn to give the farmers decent treatment if they, the sugar makers, were put in honest competition like other people.

Dennis O'Leary, who served 60 days time on the Wayne Republican and went to Woodbine, Iowa, to go into the drug business, has purchased the "Twinner" newspaper at Woodbine. A Wayne business man, who has the best of reasons to know what he is talking about, says Dennis was an accomplished and versatile liar.

Wonder how much boodle the Norfolk News gets for upholding the graft of the Oxnards? Ninety-nine out of every hundred people in Madison county would derive a direct benefit from abolishing the protection given the beet sugar kings, still the News insists upon furthering the iniquitous parasites. A little "special legislation" for the general good is what is demanded of congress.

All newspapers are prone to make mistakes, but the Dixon Leader caps the "climax" on obituary notices. After making numerous minor blunders the Leader finishes up with: "Her sickness has been over two years duration of a disease which your light so shine before men that others may see your good works and glorify your father which is in heaven." That's enough to turn grief to anger.

J. E. Hays, a traveling man of Lincoln, has been selected by Gov. Savage to draw the salary of state oil inspector. E. R. Zizer, who has been spending this money, has been made post-master of Lincoln.

Lyons Mirror: What a g. o. p party it is. Grand old party! Rats! Grand party of Bolins, Battlers, Moores, Savages, Steuffers, broken pledges, rottenness, crookedness, stealing, robbery, embezzlement of state funds, hypocrisy, deceptions, boodle to carry election, Clem Deavers. Ugh! Standard Oil John M. Thurston, trust defenders, defiers of the Declaration of Independence. Oh, what a mighty host of ignoble men and hideous deeds.

Milheim (Pa.) Journal: The Filipino may not know what liberty is but he has enough sense to see that the article offered by the American government is counterfeit. He can see that carpet bag officials are not the missionaries or apostles of liberty. He has sense enough to know that a great nation will not spend three hundred million to "carry liberty and the blessings of civilization" to a people who can get these things for themselves. Are we to make American citizens or subjects of the Filipinos?

A Sort of Creed

To live to our highest in all things that pertains to us;

To lend a hand as best we can to all others for this same end;

To aid in righting the wrongs that cross our path by pointing the wrong-doer to a better way, and thus aid him in becoming a power for good;

To remain in nature always sweet and simple and humble, therefore strong;

To open ourselves fully and to keep ourselves pure and clean as fit channels for the Divine Power to work through us;

To turn toward and keep our faces always to the light;

To do our own thinking, listening quietly to the opinions of others, and to be sufficiently men and women to act always upon our own convictions;

To do our duty as we see it, regardless of the opinions of others, seeming gain or loss, temporary blame or praise;

To play the part of neither knave or fool by attempting to judge another, but to give that same time to living more worthily ourselves.

To get up immediately when we stumble, face again to the light, and travel on without wasting even a moment in regret;

To love all things and to stand in awe or fear of nothing save our wrong-doing;

To recognize the good lying at the heart of all people, of all things, waiting for expression, all in it's own good way and time;

To love the fields and wild-flowers, the stars, the far-open sea, the soft warm earth, and to live much with them alone, but to love struggling and weary men and women and every pulsing living creature better;

To strive always to do unto others as we would have them do unto us. In brief—

To be honest, to be fearless, to be just, to be kind. This will make our part in life's great and as yet not fully understood play truly glorious, and we need then stand in fear of nothing—life nor death; for death is life.

Or, rather, it is the quick transition to life in another form; the putting off of the old coat and the putting on of a new; a passing not from light to darkness but from light to light, according as we have lived here; a taking up of life in another form just where we leave it off here; a part in life not to be shunned or dreaded or feared, but to be welcomed with a glad and ready smile when it comes in it's own good way and time.—Ralph Waldo Trine in "Mind."

The Springfield Republican thinks that Whitelaw Reid is just the man to represent us at the gorgeous ceremonies accompanying the crowning of King Edward.

His "cinch" on the great court function is, in one respect, very fitting. Mr. Reid is emphatically persona grata at the British court. An Anglophile to the core, a great admirer of British imperial ideals, and one, also who has viewed with satisfaction the destruction of Dutch republics in South Africa, in order that the British monarchical system might expand. Mr. Reid will be received with utmost cordiality in London.—Pittsburg Post.

Rev. Joe Jones, brother of Sam Jones, is conducting a revival in Atchinson county. The other night he delivered a sermon on the family relation. "Tell the old woman," he said, "that she is pretty and sweet—it may be a lie, but let'er go anyway. You'll see her get up on her hind feet and rare around like a cat havin' a fit." To the women he said, "Dress up and look neat around the house. Here you are sloshin' around the house with a Mother Hubbard wrapper on and one sock down. You go to meetin' and say you've got the perfect love, and the bld man's got no buttons on his breeches."

The Harper county (Kan.) man, says the State Journal, who sued his neighbors for $5,000 damages got no better than a hung jury. The neighbors had hidden him on a rail and ducked him in a horse pond because he spoke disrespectfully of President McKinley. At the trial it was brought out that what the man said was this: "McKinley is not a d—d bit better than I be, and he can afford to take the chances of being killed half a dozen times over at the salary he gets." This was said before the president died, and not much attention was paid to it at the time. But after the president died the neighbors got to thinking it over, and with much thinking, got madder and madder, and at last they met in a body and rode the man on a rail and ducked him in the pond.

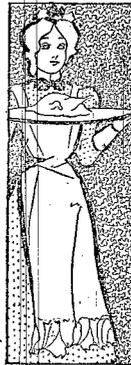

What Two Women Did

Miss Margaret A. Haley and Miss Catherine Goggin have recently shown what persistence and courage can do. The teachers of Chicago were brought face to face with a reduction in the school appropriation. Upon investigation they found that a larger sum could be expended for education if corporations would bear their fair share of public burdens. Beginning with this proposition, the ladies abovementioned, after informing themselves as to facts, brought complaint against the board of equalization, and asked the court to compel the board to list for assessment about two hundred and thirty-seven million dollars worth of property belonging to twenty-three Chicago corporations. At first the corporations were inclined to smile at the effort of two comparatively unknown women. Having dealt successfully with a number of prominent and influential men, the corporations felt justified in looking down with contempt upon the plans of a couple of school teachers. But the school teachers were fortunate in getting into a court presided over by a righteous judge, and before long the corporations began to realize that they were engaged in a sure enough law suit, and the farther they went into the suit the bigger it got. They couldn't buy the teachers out or scare them away; they couldn't frighten the judge or corrupt him, and finally, in spite of all they could do, they were brought face to face with the law. The decision was against the board of equalization and therefore against the corporations. An appeal was taken to the supreme court of the state, but the decision of Judge Thompson was sustained, and unless some United States court can be found to restrain the collection of tax it looks very much as if justice, accepting the invitation extended by Misses Haley and Goggin, were about to take up

Young Girls

Are often engaged in doing the work of a home under the most trying conditions. Nature cries out against the stopping and lifting, the running up and down stairs at times when labor should be as light as possible. It is owing to overstrain or self-neglect under these conditions that the foundation is laid for serious womanly disease. Irregularity is the first step to impaired womanly health.

Perfect regularity may be established by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives me much pleasure, writes Miss Ella Sapp of Jamestown, N. D.

Perfect regularity may be established by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives me much pleasure, writes Miss Ella Sapp of Jamestown, N. D. "I had suffered for three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pain in my back and stomach. I could not stand at all without fainting. Had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better. Now I have taken two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am entirely cured, and in two months' time when all other medicines had failed."

for a home in Chicago. All praise to these fearless women and all honor to the just judge who listened to their petition! This is a case that ought to strengthen the faith of those who are inclined to be pessimistic.—Commoner.

A Sioux City preacher, Rev. Holman, has struck a new and practical scheme to better the conditions of the laboring men. Mr. Holman contemplates the erection of a large church that will be open for business and pleasure seven days in the week as well as evenings. In addressing a meeting in Sioux City on the subject of "The Church and the Laboring Man," the reverend gentleman said in his sermon that the laboring man did not want a class in the church—he wanted a church where all meet on an equal footing.

"I made the rounds of the Sioux City saloons Saturday. After looking things thoroughly over, I find that the lobby of the Mondamin hotel and the saloons are the only places in the city where a man is welcomed without question. I was impressed more than anything else by the uniform courtesy of the barkeepers and the saloon men. I know many men behind the bar and they are not bad fellows at heart. They treat a person with kindness and with courtesy. There must be some good in men of that sort."

"When my new church is built there must not be a question mark about it from cellar to roof garden. I have a man in this church who is in favor of putting three preachers to work on eight hour shifts when the new church is completed. (Continued applause.)"

Mr. Holman said the big churches in the city were kept locked all week long; and he thought this should not be. He wants a place where men will be welcomed with as much cordiality as they are now in the saloons.

"When I get the thing to going I want to have entertainments in the church two or three nights a week or even oftener, where a man may pay 10 or 15 cents and have all the fun he wants. The idea of course would be to furnish clean recreation, but not resort to dull and uninteresting things just because it's in a church. The people want something to laugh at. They have too much trouble and sorrow and I believe there should be laughter and light and happiness in the church."

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—is the order of woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem, then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Beecher's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. BREMNA AND PLUM DRECK
Hello, coming in from town. I found what reason for my feeling.
German Brothers was at the country school Wednesday.
A pleasant time was had Friday by the scholars in school district 125, the occasion being a social and a box supper.
Albert Anderson and wife were at the county seat Wednesday.
D. H. Ganser returned from Omaha Saturday.
Magsan Paulsen left for Pender Saturday to visit relatives.
Lawrence Brown and wife, Fay Arnold and Mrs. Bertha Brown spent Sunday at Altona with Chester Brown and family.
I tried to get the mail, but now it is "lost".
One of our neighbors had quite a streak of luck while out hunting all day and shooting away his belt full of ammunition without any success but while on the way home ran into a snow drift and slept on a jack rabbit and broke its front legs and captured it.
Geo. Thies made a business trip to Wisner Tuesday.
Emil Splitzger from Altona was at the county seat Monday.
The Altona harness shop is running full blast now days.
Uncle Sam's team took quite a sabbath while coming in to Altona Monday afternoon running through two or three wire fences and breaking down a number of posts, so serious damage done otherwise.
Jake Winger and Andy Chance were down to Altona Wednesday.
Bert Miller and William Thompson have moved on the place vacated by Marshall Anderson.
Monday made us think of the days as used to be when the country was new.

Omaha Markets
NYS & BUCHANAN CO.
Feb. 5, 1902.
Receipts of fat cattle the past week have been very heavy, rather more than wanted, and prices have broken from 15 to 25c. There was a large run yesterday, about 6000 and market was generally 10 to 15c lower. The receipts today much lighter, 3000, with prices about steady.
Butcher stock has been in good demand all week and prices are about the same as week ago. Stockers and feeders have been in fair supply. Good weight and quality in good demand and prices firm. The bulk of receipts were of the light and common grades and they were lower.
Receipts of hogs have been less than looked for and prices have been about steady. Prices yesterday were to higher and strong to 5 higher again today. Prices range from $5.65 to $6.40, bulk of sales $6.00 to $6.20. Some light hogs very hard to move.
There has been very little change in ether receipts or prices on sheep. What change in price there is, is for the better. We quote lambs $5.00 to $5.80, yearlings $4.60 to $5.10, ewes $3.75 to $4.25.

Speaks From Experience
A Populist exchange asserts that it is services could not be purchased to support Republican fiscal policy and corruption and various other qualifying attributes for a cool hundred thousand dollars. The gentleman is giddy with his figures, cut it down to thirty cents.
Wayne Republican.
Thirty cents! Well, but the people over at Ponca say you sold out to the g. o. p. too cheap, Bro. Gibson.

Any Old Thing.
Queen Anne was once surrounded by a host of gayly dressed courtiers, and in the throng was an old man of 83, wearing the plain dress of a country farmer. "Have you ever seen such a sight before?" asked a looker-on, and the throng was startled to hear the old man say: "Never since I sat in her chair." It was Cromwell's son.

A young man was calling on his best girl, a Miss Dederman, near Norfolk, and in fooling with his revolver the girl was shot right through the nose. That is a bit out of the ordinary course of events in such cases and Miss Dederman can congratulate herself that while she nose less than some other girls the young fellow will see that she is not a Dederman the rest of her natural life.
She was sitting up with a sick man. No professional nurse was she. Simply sitting up with her love-sick lover.
Giving him Rocky Mountain Tea. Raymond's drug store.

Plainview had another bad fire on Monday. Four new brick buildings erected on site of those consumed a few months ago going up in smoke. The people evidently want a plain view up there.
The sky looks blue, the sun shines brighter, a feeling of youth and strength creeps over the soul after taking Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Co. Raymond's drug store.
A nine-year old girl of Madison county took a lantern into the attic by the light of which she studied her Sunday school lesson. The lantern fell over the girl and burned her to death. Of course, had the girl been a boy and the bible a time novel the tragedy would have been taken up by the Sunday school teacher as an intervention of Providence.

A Pennsylvania young man hugged his girl so hard that two of her ribs were broken. He must have caught her side-ribs.
The Gazette, Herald and Sun, three papers published in Nelson county, Neb., were held up by the postmaster recently. A business firm had never used a "grab sale," which consisted of goods put up in packages valued at from 25 cents to $10, and the purchaser could take his choice for 25 cents.
The postmaster took the position that it was a lottery and refused to pass the papers through the mail. The postmaster general has been asked for an opinion. In the meantime the advertisement in question is cut out prior to mailing the papers.

To teach his son obedience to nursery rules Napoleon gave strict orders that he never be admitted to his apartments if he came thither alone. One morning the little King of Rome came trotting along the corridor, and, looking up at the tall officer on guard, impudently ordered: "Open the door for me. I want to see papa." The officer, true to his instructions, answered gently but firmly: "Sir, I cannot open the door for your majesty." "Why not?" demanded the little autocrat; "I am the little king." At the gentle reminder: "But your majesty is all alone," the golden-haired cherub seemed somewhat nonplussed; but his governess appearing a moment later, he seized her hand, and thus protected, stamped his tiny foot and cried: "Open the door! The king wishes it!" This time, all being in order, the tall officer flung the door wide open, so loudly announcing: "The King of Rome!"
During one of Charles Dillon's engagements at Belfast, when playing Macbeth he arrived at the scene when he should repeat the well-known line: "The devil damn thee black, thou cream face'd lion." But no messenger appeared before him. Rushing to the wing Dillon called out, "Why don't you come on sir?"
"I'm waiting for my cue, sir," replied the actor.
"You've got it, sir," said Dillon.
"No I've not, not the one Barry Sullivan always gives me."
"What is that?"
"Come on, you d—idiot!"

Meserve Not Guilty

A special from Lincoln last night reads: C. J. Smyth was in the city yesterday. Speaking concerning the approaching trial of J. B. Meserve, at Omaha, in which Mr. Smyth will appear for Mr. Meserve, he said:

"We will meet them on the issues. We want an acquittal on the charge and we shall get it. Mr. Meserve is not guilty and we expect to show it. We shall not move to quash the indictment, as has been suggested, but will defend on the merits of the cause."

"Mr. Meserve stands charged with appropriating to his own use interest on $60,000 state funds deposited with the Union Stock Yards National bank of South Omaha, amounting to $3,000. This indictment was returned without investigating the records of the state. It was returned on information of ex-Bank Examiner McGrew, now connected with an Omaha bank, who gave hearsay evidence, and the testimony of an officer of the South Omaha institution."

"There was no effort made to secure evidence as to whether or not this interest alleged to have been paid was credited to the state. That wasn't a part of the political plan."

"As to whether or not Mr. Meserve was technically guilty of embezzlement in placing $60,000 of state funds in a bank that is said not to be a state depository, and funds that are not authorized to be placed in banks, is not an issue. Nothing is said on this subject in the indictment. The money was all returned, if it was placed there for safe keeping, and every cent was turned over to Mr. Steufer."

"We shall be ready for trial Monday and shall seek a speedy disposition of the case, interposing no dilatory pleas. It would be a shame to let an innocent man like Meserve stand in the light of possible crookedness any longer than is absolutely necessary. Immediate trial will clear him at once of any possible suspicion that has been cast on him by this indictment."

An Independent Cuss

We know it is customary for a new man when he takes charge a paper, to tell what wonderful things he intends to do in the future, but really we have not very little to say. Some changes will be made, of course. The good people who read the Tribune in the future will perhaps miss the thrilling patent medicine locals, but we cannot help it. They are fired bodily, never to appear again. In politics the paper will be, not neutral, but decidedly independent. The Tribune will support whom it pleases, regardless of party lines and in county politics we want it understood that a Winside man, no matter what ticket he is on, will receive all the support we are able to give him.—Winside Tribune, by J. IT WAS A MISTAKE.

Last week we advertised that we would give 25 per cent. off on Boys' and Children's Suits for 30 days. That was a mistake, and we wish to correct that mistake by saying that we will not give any discount after the 15th of February. We find that the suits are going fast and at the rate they are going now we would not have any suits to sell at the end of 30 days. We never advertise anything we have not got in stock, therefore we make the time February 15. If you want Boys' and Children's Suits now is the time you can get them for less than cost, but remember that after February 15 prices will be regular. Don't forget to tell your husband to buy a suit of Staley All-Wool Underwear if he complains of being cold or has a cough or rheumatism. It is cheaper than doctor bills and better than patent medicine. We still give 25 per cent. off on all Overcoats. We have bargains in Men's Suits. Arctics are cheap. Felt Boots at half price. Don't freeze, we can keep you comfortable for a small sum. We know some secrets about dressing that other merchants don't know. See us and we will tell you how to keep warm. It costs less to dress comfortable here than anywhere else. Why not try us and see for yourself?

Order of Hearing

The State of Nebraska, ss.
Wayne county, ss.
At the session of the County Court held at the County Court room in Wayne, in said county, on the 6th day of February A. D. 1902.

Present E. Hunter, County Judge.

In the matter of the estate of Dorothy Bernhardt deceased.

Whereas, letters Testamentary have this day been granted to Theodore Bernhardt as executor of the estate of Dorothy Bernhardt deceased, it is hereby ordered that creditors be allowed six months to present their claims against said estate for adjustment and allowance, and that said Theodore Bernhardt be allowed twelve months to settle up said estate from the 10th day of January A. D. 1902.

It is further ordered that notice be given to the creditors of said estate to appear before me at the County Court room of said county on the 10th day of July, 1902 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, by publication in the NEBRASKA DEMOCRAT, a newspaper published in said county, for four weeks successively prior to the 7th day of March, 1902.

E. HUNTER, County Judge.

A Big Cut in Price.

The Nebraska State Journal has reduced its price to subscribers outside of Lincoln and suburbs from $7.90 to $5.00 per year, including the big Sunday paper, or $4.00 per year without Sunday. The price of the Sunday issue will be $1.50 per year.

By this action it is presenting its state readers with thousands of dollars, but the result will be thousands of new subscribers, thus enlarging its usefulness and adding to its value as an advertising medium. Instead of any lessening in the effort to make it a first-class State Paper, the Journal will be improved in every department, making it the best newspaper in the state for Nebraskans. It is published at the State Capital, which has always been the center of things political and social of a state nature. The Journal's state telegraphic service excels that of all competitors which, with its complete associated press reports and special telegraph service from Washington, make it the paper for Nebraska people.

A. L. Bixby's department is one of the most widely read in the west, and the fair and unprejudiced editorial treatment of all state matters has made the Journal thousands of warm friends.

This big reduction in price which now makes the six week day papers eight cents a week, and the seven day paper ten cents a week, will make the Journal the most widely read paper throughout Nebraska.

A Most Liberal Offer

All our former readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its special Farmers' Institute Editions and the Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add, for local, county and general news, our own paper, and make the price of the four one year only $1.25. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named, which we club with our own, are well known throughout the West and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention by their great agricultural and live stock paper of the West; The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer, while the Special Farmers' Institute Editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published.
