Letter from Nelson Grimsley.

Arlington Hotel, Seattle, Wash., March 27, 1902.

Mr. F. W. BURDICK, Wayne, Neb. Dear Sir: Your valued favor of the 17th inst. came to hand this morning. I thank you for replying so promptly. You are by odds the best correspondent I have.

We had expected to be home by this time but I suppose we are fortunate in escaping such weather as you are having and besides, I have bought another piece of property and it will be perhaps ten days before the matter will be entirely closed up. Will enclose you a clipping from a morning paper mentioning the deal. If Seattle makes the growth that is predicted for here, the Pike street property may be very valuable in a few years. Lots within three blocks of it are now worth $300 a foot and business is fast growing that way.

As it is, a $4000 flat on them would bring $140 per month, so you see the percentage of income on a total investment of $7000 would be about 2 per cent a month and the lot increasing all the time in value.

I paid $60 a foot though I see the paper says $55. An architect told me yesterday that a flat, to accommodate four families, could be put up for $5000 and would easily rent in that location for $35 per month for each division.

Just at the present time the four saw-mills that are running right here in the city can not keep up with the local demand and lumber is said to be high, though all kinds of clear dimensions, such as 2x4, 2x6, etc., up to 32 feet long is quoted at retail at $9.50 per thousand. At Fort Blakely, just across the sound and in sight of the city, is the biggest mill in Washington. Most of their lumber is sent to foreign countries.

Am waiting for Neely and J. Harrington to get here for if they don't find anything in eastern Washington to suit them, I can put each of them "onto" something in the wholesale way that looks good to me and will make plenty of money if they wish to take it up.

I have met some parties from a point in Idaho who came here with fat cattle and from what they tell me their country is far ahead of the Big Bend country. They have a level prairie 25400 miles in extent where 40 bushels of wheat or 60 of barley or from one to two tons of timothy can be grown per acre annually and farms under cultivation at $10 to $20 per acre. The fact that they can grow timothy without irrigation indicates a better rainfall than the Bend country has. I want you to visit that locality as we come east. One firm there sold 76 binders last year.

Last Sunday we visited Edgar Sherman and family who live at South Park. He will be remembered by most of the Wayne people. Edgar and his brother Merritt and I walked back into the big timber where trees 6 feet in diameter and 250 high are to be found. Have heard of some good buys in timber land here but there are so many chances to invest money that one cannot even look at all of them.

There is a club being formed here of the people from the states named. It is to be called the Iowa, Nebraska and South Dakota club. There was a meeting in the parlors of this hotel Wednesday evening and some 40 or 50 of the boys from these states attended. It is thought the membership may reach several hundred. The object is to get acquainted and to be mutually helpful to each other in a business and social way. There is to be a vice president from each of the three states part of whose duties it will be to look especially after the new arrivals from their respective state. I was tendered the Nebraska part of it. I think it will be a good thing.

Weather fine. No frost for a month past. The Alaska rush is expected to set in within two or three weeks. Hoping you and family are well and with regards to the "boys."

NELSON GRIMSLEY.

"CANNED" A CANNER

Happy, Go-Lucky Love Locked Up For Rushing the Rum Demon.

It is only a few weeks ago since the DEMOCRAT was informed by Jos. Love that he, Love, had leased his hotel and was going to Switzerland or Hades. The trip to Switzerland has evidently been declared off. Mr. Love was arrested at the instance of the city of Wayne, Clarence Corbit complaining witness. It appears Mr. Corbit, sr., had received a pint of whiskey early in the day of yesterday and an investigation disclosed that Joe Love had purchased the only pint bottle, and upon being accused of getting the stuff for Mr. Corbit he denied it, but made matters equally as bad for himself by stating that he bought the pint for Peter Coyle. Mr. Coyle acknowledged the "corn," also, and under the city ordinances Police Judge Feather assessed Mr. Love a fine of $50, such fine being mandatory upon the part of the police judge. Love refused or couldn't pay the fine and was taken in charge by Sheriff Meers last night and looked up in the county jail. City Attorney Witham says he can be kept in jail for 16 2/3 days, or until the fine shall have been paid. The execution of the ordinance under which he is committed reads as follows:

Sec. 11. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, barter, give, buy, or furnish malt, spirituous or vinous liquors, or intoxicating drinks of whatever kind to any person who is in the habit of getting intoxicated, and whose wife, child, father, mother, brother, sister or guardian shall have given notice to any saloon keeper, either verbally or in writing, not to sell or give such persons intoxicating drinks. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay the sum of $50. It will readily be seen by the above that there are no doubt several fellows around town who ought to be keeping Mr. Love company. However, the DEMOCRAT prefers not to offer any comments upon the incident. We are only sorry it all had to happen.

Wm. Wright is in Duluth. Boyd county lands for sale. P. H. KOHLERT. W. M. Gue was down from Windsor Saturday.

Anyone wanting to buy nice city residence see Henry Goll. When you smoke a Wayne Leader cigar you are getting something good. At the English Lutheran church next Sunday Holy Communion will be administered.

Next Sunday I will have a supply of good ice cream on sale for Easter Sunday dinner. T. SARGENT. The Baptist Sunday school will render an Easter program at the church next Sunday. All are cordially invited.

Some of the young people planned and executed a delightful surprise on Miss Mary Mettice last Saturday night. Henry Lueders yesterday received the slickest barber shop mirror in the town. It is a two-chair piece and cost over $100 spot cash.

The smoke of a "Western Beauty" is a delight to anybody. Always call for the Beauty-when you want the best nickel cigar in town.

An ordinary life policy in the Northwestern Mutual Life of Milwaukee for 20 years will cost you an average of $5 per $1000 per annum. See E. R. SURBER, phone 82.

Clerk of the Courts [Charley Reynolds] says he didn't see any good looking girls in Fullerton. The Wayne maidens are pretty nice and good enough for him.

FRANCE,—all styles at wholesale price. No. 9 and no. 7 wires, and O. K. hog fence for 2 1/2 cents per rod. Time given, stretchers furnished. Write W. L. ROBINSON, special agent, Carroll, Neb.

If you want insurance why not take a policy in some good, reliable company. For a young man, the 20-year Life or 20-year Endowment is a good policy. You are through paying in a limited term, and have a loan on which you can draw for a fund or cash when you need it. For older men the Ordinary Life policy is a good policy. I represent the Northwestern Mutual Life of Milwaukee and the Aetna Life of Hartford, besides several others and will be glad to give you any information along these lines. E. R. SURBER.

There is something remarkable in the success of the Nebraska Normal College. In its infancy it was full of poverty but President Pile has pumped that all out. Staid right with it through thick and thin—mostly awfully thin—until now its success is no longer a matter of conjecture. From all the information the DEMOCRAT has ever gleaned about schools and colleges we judge that the one up on the hill is perhaps the most pushing, wholesome, successful institution in the United States or any other old set.

Let's all take hold of the clothesline and pull for a new building for Pile, for ourselves, the community at large and the good of education.

Yes, They're Wanted

We mean the famous Van Camp line of pork and beans and canned soups. We have them in the beef, pea, tomato, ox-tail, chicken, mock turtle, and bouillon at 10 cents a can, and we want every woman in Wayne county to use a can of these goods. Pork and beans, per can 15 cents, large size 20 cents. P. L. MILLER & SON, Star grocers.

Royal Flour, $1.15 per sack. P. L. MILLER & SON, Star grocers. Charles Mix county lands for sale. PHIL H. KOHLERT, agt.

Jas. Elliott and wife leave next week for Oklahoma. WANTED—At once, German girl for general house-work. MRS. AUG. PIERPONT. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Jones arrived home Monday from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Armstrong of Kansas City are guests of the former's parents. Miss Mamie Wallace has been re-elected a member of the Pierce school faculty.

Epler has the nicest and earliest potatoes for garden purposes in the market. A nice girl baby arrived at the home of D. A. Jones last Sunday, the first time such a thing has happened in ten years.

George Wadsworth got a letter last evening from Harry Osborn in which the latter went into raptures over Lakeside, Wash., saying it was "finer than silk."

Prof. W. E. Howard leaves next Monday for Waukon, a town in north-east Iowa, where he will work for an uncle who has a large number of business interests. Mr. Howard's family will probably go later on if he likes the position.

A letter was received yesterday from J. H. Goll in which he stated his party, Messrs Kohl, Schmoll and others were about to leave the wheat country near Spokane for the Wayne colony at Lakeside, Wash. Henry says he's disgusted with all that country out there and will be home Monday a wiser man than ever.

Last Monday, Mar. 24th, Judge and Mrs. H. H. Moses celebrated their golden wedding, the following ladies giving the worthy couple a surprise party: Messames Pingrey, E. R. Chace, J. D. King, Rodgers, C. O. Fisher, Dean, Hunter, Horton and Cunningham. The wedding present was a gold-lined fruit dish in a silver vase.

The Ladies Aid society elected the following officers for the coming year at their meeting at Mrs. Ley's on Wednesday: Mrs. Ley, president; Mrs. Williams, vice president; Mrs. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Wilbur, treasurer. A fine tea was served and a pleasant afternoon spent.

Judge Hunter says he thought he was going to have a wedding or a lawsuit yesterday, but he got neither. Other parties around the court house were looking for a marriage ceremony or a little fun. The parties present were Miss Sadie Bettis, her step-father, J. J. Moor, and Jas. Hancock, all of Carroll. The party stayed about the judge's office for some length of time and the young lady is reported to have hung onto the young man with a grip like death. However, they all left without any perceptible trouble. Mr. Moor and Miss Bettis going home, and Mr. Hancock said to have taken the cars for the east.

Making a Sensation

With fragrant flowers, potted plants and trimmings of all sorts the Easter opening at the Bayer Sisters millinery parlors, beginning Thursday, was a gala affair. Early in the day the store was crowded with ladies and the parlors have been busy as a bee hive ever since. The Bayer Sisters thoroughly understand the art of making the finest Easter things for the money. If you expect to "be in the procession" next Sunday morning you must call at their parlors and get a proper headgear. Never mind the price, that's easy.

Mrs. Lou Hunter was an arrival this morning. Cecil Rhodes, the South African King, died Wednesday.

Miss Queenie Mellor will arrive home next Monday from College. Ralph Claybaugh will leave Sunday for Aken, Minn., where he looks over the homestead country.

Markets today—Wheat 54 1/2, corn 45, oats 36, rye 41, flax $1.49, barley 45.

The Juvenile History club are having their annual banquet today at the home of Miss Florence Welch.

Mrs. A. A. Welch will address a district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society at Hartington next Wednesday.

Atty. Berry is looking over Carroll today. Frank probably figures they'll need a lawyer up there before the saloon fight is settled.

The DEMOCRAT is informed that Frank (Deac) Whitney is to be married Sunday and will return to Wayne with his bride next Tuesday. Many happy days to you, "Deac".

Getting Ready for Spring.

Everybody feels after the winter season is past that they must make some arrangements for spring. It is like commencing all over again what you finished last year. Farmers are now looking up their machinery and finding out how they are fixed for seed. Merchants are getting ready for spring trade and right here we wish to remark that we are ready and in better shape than ever before. Now, if you will take a little time before work opens up and look us up you will save a number of dollars this spring in getting ready for the summer work. After you get to work you will be in too big a hurry to look into our business and will continue to buy your clothing where you have been. Remember we have everything men and boys wear, and the best made. You don't have to pay as much as you have been paying at other stores and get better goods. Look at our Bull Dog shirts for fifty cents. See our plow shoes for one and a quarter, and one and a half dollars. Try on a pair of our overalls at sixty-five cents and you will be convinced that you can save at least ten per cent. Next week we will tell you some store news that will surprise you. If you are not trading here, get in line with the crowd for this store is going to be even more popular this year than last. We have more clothing, better clothing and lower prices than any store in Wayne. Why not try us?

This is the only place you can buy the Pure Gum Snag Proof Boots. Price $4.00. This is the only place in Wayne you can find a complete stock of Men's and Boy's shoes. Price lower than elsewhere. Why not trade here.

The DEMOCRAT is informed that Frank (Deac) Whitney is to be married Sunday and will return to Wayne with his bride next Tuesday. Many happy days to you, "Deac".

The Ladies Aid society elected the following officers for the coming year at their meeting at Mrs. Ley's on Wednesday: Mrs. Ley, president; Mrs. Williams, vice president; Mrs. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Wilbur, treasurer. A fine tea was served and a pleasant afternoon spent.

London M. A. F.: "The old order changeth, and daylight drawing rooms belong to the past. There are arranged and shaded even in the arrangements, and in the present case it is the night that wins. Society women consider that they have scored a triumph over the old order."

In the homes of Balkan peasants nothing is so highly as the fire on the hearth, for it is regarded as sacred, and is never allowed to go out. Tradition says that if it is extinguished, the household will be cursed, and that in many cases the death of the fire is a sure token that some member of the family will speedily die.

"There is a growing tendency to give heading of growing trends," says the head of the book department of a big department store. "A few years ago such a thing was almost unheard of."

Exchange: When a Scotch schoolmaster entered the temple of learning a few mornings ago he read on the blackboard the following: "The pupils expected there would be a combined cyclone and earthquake, but the philosophic pedagogues contented themselves with praying, as usual."

Europeans are just waking up to the fact that the pressed steel freight cars of American railways present great advantages. The Pressed Steel Car company of Pittsburgh has sold over 1,800, more than 120,000 cars of this class which are now in use in America, Australia, China, Japan, India, Egypt, and elsewhere.

A Russian nobleman of wealth has cut up a curious series of ceiling decorations. Every ceiling in his mansion contains a fresco dealing with an episode in the career of his ancestors, and the whole forms what is perhaps the most complete series of fresco ornamentation. Nearly half a million has been expended upon this extraordinary work.

A Cavacane (Ireland) dog barked. The bark frightened a cat, which sprang upon a table. The shock upset the table, and the cat, which thereupon dashed round the room and into a stackyard, spreading fire on every side, and which had been a good deal of a farmer's son was seriously burned.

House cleaning at the Vatican has not been thoroughly cleaned for a century, and so the authorities thought to do a good job. They accordingly kept 5,000 men for a month, and used 2,000 loaves of bread a day to clean wall paper.

Chicago Tribune: "Laura, these biscuits of yours are unusually fine this morning. I think I never tasted better." "George Ferguson," here she looked up at him and smiled. "You are up to now? Are you going to tell me you can't spare the money for those rugs I wanted to buy today?"

Washington Star: "What do you think of this Shakespeare-Jacon controversy?" "Well," answered the man who is not much of a book reader, "I think they had better get on with the credit for not putting the public to the expense of a court of inquiry."

American foresters are trying to give a public lesson in the fact that long-lived trees may be grown under protection of short-lived trees, but eventually take their places and form the permanent stand.

The investigations of the Pennsylvania Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis shows that in the sparsely settled country districts the death rate from tuberculosis is only one-fourth of that of the cities.

With a view to check the furious driving of motor carriages, the Dover (England) corporation has resolved to station police officers at various points, who are to watch, to time the speed of the drivers.

British fruit growers are adopting the method of covering their crops with paper sheets during the cold months, small outlay in labor and paper results in considerable saving in the long run.

Coroners in Baltimore are appointed by the governor for a term of two years. There are seven coroners in Baltimore, all of them physicians and all having separate districts of town.

Ivory carving in India, formerly an art encouraged by the native princes, has decayed, owing to the preference of the natives for ivory carvers, jewelers and Brummagen products.

As the work of restoring the Araucaria forest in the island of Easter, Chile, has been completely ruined, several large nails having been driven into them.

The worst mosquito-infested neighborhood in the world is the coast of Borneo. The streams of that region are, at seasons, unpassable because of the clouds of mosquitoes.

London Tit-Bits: "You say O'Hannigan leaves the orphans home in a legacy? " "Indeed, it is quite large." "How much?" "Twelve children a goat, begorra."

Philadelphia Evening Bulletin: "Maude never goes anywhere without dressing for it." "Oh, no; she'd hurry up and get a new dress ready if she knew she was going crazy."

Sleeping after eating is condemned by a German physician, who has shown that experimentally, when movements are lessened, and acidity is induced.

London took practically one-half of the ice imported by England during 1901. The total of fifty-one parts of the United Kingdom being 460,946 tons, valued at $269,897.

Water thrown upon ice in the Arctic regions will shiver it just as boiling water breaks glass. This is because the ice is so much colder than the water.

"What tea pills—fourteen to the ounce—of a Caucasus grower are simply compressed tea in a convenient form for the traveler."

ARRESTED AGAIN

New Charges Against Frank C. and Henry C. Andrews. Detroit, Mich., March 27.—Frank C. Andrews, vice president of the wrecked City Savings Bank, and Henry C. Andrews, cashier of the bank, were arraigned yesterday afternoon on new warrants issued on complaint signed by the attorney general. The two defendants were made against the men. One charges them jointly with willful misappropriation of the funds of the City Savings bank, while the other charges them with misappropriation and F. C. Andrews with aiding and abetting. The complaints are based on certain alleged receipts and drafts issued February 5 and 6. Their hearings on both complaints were set for April 4, the date of their examination by the expert accountants which have been made against them. Inasmuch as F. C. Andrews is now in jail and H. C. Andrews is already under arrest, the expert accountants' compliance in the sum of $1,000 was accepted for the two new warrants.

THE DEMOCRAT

WAYNE, NEBRASKA. W. S. GOLDIE, Editor and Publisher. Subscription, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID IN ADVANCE, $1.00.

The Commoner of last week hands Grover Cleveland a bouquet that the old rebel democrat ought to be able to get a few cents out of.

In reply to an insolent squib in the Stanton Picket, Senator Allen, in his Madison Mail, prints a long letter denying the charge of the Picket that he, Mr. Allen, has his knife ready to politically disembowel Congressman Robinson, and avowing the warmest friendship for John S., whom he affectionately refers to as "a younger brother."

Ex-convict Jos. Bartley is now out campaigning for Gov. Savage. Reports are that Bartley "fixed" his home county sqld for the man who set him free. First thing we know the boodle treasurer will take a run to Norfolk and secure the services of Editor Huse of the Norfolk News in the Savage cause.

Sioux City is having considerable of a stir over city election, the issue being gambling houses or no gambling houses. Both parties are making a profusion of promises as to what will happen to the gamblers, but it is safe to predict that the republican candidate, city editor of the Journal, Caldwell, will be elected, and any fool can gamble on gambling and gamblers finding a safe retreat in Sioux City. Caldwell is a ripe and racy sport, himself.

A whole car load of American soldiers were returned from the Philippines recently, going to Washington by way of Omaha, where they will be placed in the government asylum for the rest of their lives. Yep, they were mad. "benevolently assimilated," "water cured." The cost of the Philippine Islands, at four hundred millions, is nothing compared to the butchered thousands of natives and the dead, dying and hundreds of insane Americans.

Printers may be considered a tough lot and a printing office a tough place, but this is not necessarily true, says the Stanton Picket. In fact it is far from the rule. Of the 3890 prisoners in the Texas penitentiary not one of them is a printer or newspaper man, while there are ministers, lawyers, doctors, teachers, photographers, music teachers, barbers, bar tenders, farmers, bankers and numerous other professions there represented. We are informed that the same is true of the Nebraska penitentiary. Just why this is we are unable to state, unless it is due to the fact that the printer seldom get what is due him.

Poor old John Bull is to be pitied. He can control America's president and the president's secretary of state, Johnny Hays, and they are perfectly willing to do anything John Bull requests of them. But the Jackasses which John Bull buys in Missouri are altogether a different kind of an animal and John Bull has not succeeded in "showing" the Missouri mule as yet. This explains why the American mule stampedes every time John Bull needs him in a fight. What further proof do you want, that there is more genuine Americanism in the Missouri mule than in the republican administration at Washington.—Omaha Quill.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

March 24, 1902.

The irrigation bill which provides for a national system of irrigation for arid lands, passed the Senate some days ago, and has been favorably reported to the House. It will doubtless be called up for consideration within the next few weeks. The Nebraska members of congress are by no means a unit as to the merits of this measure. The Nebraska senators both voted for its passage in the senate. The objectionable features which present themselves to the members of the House will probably divide their vote on the bill, if it comes up in its present shape. Under the provisions of the bill, the Government, out of the proceeds derived from the sale of public lands, is to construct reservoirs and dams at the head waters of streams, and by these reservoirs and dams, conserve the waters which go to waste in floods in the spring time, so that the conserved waters could be used for irrigation purposes during the dry months. But the bill provides that the waters so stored and conserved by the Government, when they pass into the channel of the stream, shall be subject to the control and governed by the irrigation laws of the state through which they pass. It is contended that such a law would give the states in which the head waters of the streams are located, the power to consume and use all the waters stored by the Government at great expense, and that such states as Nebraska would obtain no benefit from the system as the waters would be exhausted on the arid plains of Colorado and Wyoming, and that little, if any, of the stored waters would ever reach the boundaries of Nebraska.

An effort will be made by the Nebraska members to amend the law so as to provide that the national Government shall have control of the distribution of the conserved waters, so that all states having arid or semi arid lands, through which the streams pass, can share in the benefits of the enterprise, and if such an amendment cannot be attached to the bill, a majority of the Nebraska delegation will doubtless oppose its passage, if insisted upon in its present form.

Some years ago alarm was felt in this country over the advent of the Russian thistle and stringent laws were passed by many of the western states, providing for its destruction. But now it seems that the Russian thistle, in place of being a curse, is a great benefit to the arid sections of the West. Some of the enterprising farmers of Colorado have discovered that the much despised Russian thistle is the most valuable forage plant that can be found for arid sections of the west. The thistle in certain sections of Colorado is not only permitted to grow, but is seeded in the field. At a certain stage of its growth, while it is still green and tender, it is cut and cured for hay, and reports from that section of the country would indicate that the hay obtained from the thistle is the most valuable crop of that article which can be produced. Cattle thrive on it and will prefer the hay of the Russian thistle to the finest alfalfa or clover. It is only cut once in a season, and after being cut, it is allowed to go to seed and then is plowed under. This insures an immense crop for the next year. It is believed that this successful treating of the Russian thistle in Colorado will be of much benefit to the arid districts of Nebraska, as it is claimed the thistle will grow in almost any kind of land, which is worthless for any other purpose, and will make a crop with scarcely any rainfall to assist it. And so again the ingenuity and skill of the American farmer has discovered a valuable use for an article which a few years ago was considered absolutely worthless and in fact a menace to agriculture.

Horse Sense.

"Any fool can take a horse to water, but it takes a wise man to make him drink," says the proverb. "The horse eats when hungry and drinks when thirsty. A man eats and drinks by the clock, without regard to the needs of nature." Because of careless feeding and drinking "stomach trouble" is one of the most common of diseases. Sour and bitter risings, belching, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, headache, and many other symptoms mark the beginning and progress of disease of the stomach. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It cures through the stomach diseases of other organs which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach, and allied organs of digestion and nutrition. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cures obstinate cough and heals weak lungs.

"I was taken with grippe, which rendered it heart and stomach trouble," writes Mr. R. R. Caudin, Montana, Alleghany Co., N. C. "I was unable to do anything a good part of the time. I wrote to Dr. Pierce about my condition, having full confidence in his medicine. He advised me to take his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' which I did. Before I had finished the second bottle I began to feel better. I have used nearly six bottles. I feel thankful to God for the benefit I have received from Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I can highly recommend it to all persons as a good and safe medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels healthy.

SHORT STORIES.

Sir Henry Roscoe, in a privately printed book of lectures, says that once when he and the German scientist Busson were traveling together in England, they met a lady who mistook Busson for his cousin, the Chevalier Busson. "Have you finished your book, 'God in History,' yet?" she asked him. "No, madame," he replied; "I regret that my untimely death has prevented my doing so."

"The latest in yells," says the Kansas City Journal, "is that of the convicts on their way from the jail in the county in which they are sentenced to the penitentiary. A gang of fifteen of them from Buchanan county, the sheriff's 'guests' on a special car, gave vent to this yell at each railway station they passed between St. Joseph and Jefferson City, a few days ago: "Two years—five years—we will stay; didn't like St. Joe anyway!"

Li Hung Chang, had, beyond all doubt, an iron will and a very unseemly heart. Once, when he was viceroy of Chi-Li, a man who had tampered with a telegraph wire was brought before him. The man wrung his hands and begged for mercy, saying that he would never touch the wire again. "Don't be vexed, my good fellow," said Li, "nor trouble yourself any further about the matter."

I shall take care that it does not happen again." Then he turned to the jury and gave the order: "Cut off his head!"

In his autobiography, "The Making of an American," Jacob A. Riis tells the following anecdote of General Grant's clobbering by a New York policeman just after his second term in the Presidency: "He was staying at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, when one morning the Masonic Temple was burned. The fire-line was drawn halfway down the block toward 5th Avenue, but the police were much hampered by the crowd, and were out of patience when I, standing by, saw a man in a great ulster, with head buried deep in the collar, a cigar sticking straight out, coming down the street from the hotel. I recognized him at sight as General Grant. The policeman who blocked his way did not. He grabbed him by the collar, swung him about and hitting him a resounding whack across the back with his club, yelled out: 'What's the matter with you? Don't you see the fire-line? Chase yourself out of here, and be quick about it.' The general never said a word. He did not stop to argue the matter. He had run up against a sentinel, and when stopped went the other way. That was all. The man had a right to be there; he had none."

The other day Mrs. Norma Adams and Samuel Gardner, who live on adjoining farms began a suit to determine the ownership of a brood of fourteen turkeys. The brood, headed by two old hens, a white and bronze, had been running loose for some time. All summer Mrs. Adams owned the brood, but when she and Mr. Gardner's turkeys were the mother of the brood. One of the witnesses before the justice testified that he had once turned a dog upon the straggling band of turkeys. At the approach of the dog, the young turkeys flew into a tree, the bronze hen ran into the woods, while the white hen stood under the tree and gave battle to the dog, which she repulsed. Then called the brood to her, and they marched off. After hearing this witness, the justice decided that the white hen was the mother of the brood, and gave the turkeys to Gardner.

Here's one that happened in Sioux City a few days ago. A lady entered a crowded street car an old man holding a little boy on his lap, arose and offered her his seat. "Oh, no, keep your seat, thank you," replied the lady, "and hold your boy." "Oh, that's different," replied the old man, who was slightly deaf, "I had to stand up five days once myself with a boy. I am sorry for you." And he resumed his seat amid the roar of laughter which followed.

week. There is nothing more beautiful on the face of the earth this week than the millinery stores—unless,
perhaps the milliners.

Tom Hill's boy, aged about twelve, broke his right arm last Saturday evening. Tom was late going home from town due to selling some cattle, and the little fellow tried to do up the chores. In tumbling a bale of hay out the loft he struck his elbow on a scantling and broke—the elbow. Dr.
Leisenring reduced the fracture.

At the combination sale of Aberdeen Angus cattle at Omaha on the 18th and 19th of this month, the four-year-old cow, Pride of Brema, 5th, raised by F. E. Moses, brought the sum of $1025.00. Only one animal of the sale brought as much. The animals offered at this sale, 116, were drafts from 12 of the best herds of the United States.
This indicates that Wayne county is in the first rank for the breeding of thorough bred cattle.

all for $2.10. Don't all speak at once.

H. B. MILLER'S LETTER.

We arrived in St. Paul about two and a half hours late, the road was taxed to its utmost capacity, four sections, ten cars each, loaded with pilgrims, looking for better things. Question: will they find? Saw dust and brand and screenings are three of the great industries of St. Paul and Minneapolis, Mankato manufactures a great many rocks.

After leaving the Twin cities, we traveled through a large scope of country, there are miles and miles of road that certainly didn't cost more than $5.87 1/2 to grade, I saw many places I thought would be a good place to get a load of wood. I also saw a hog. I neglected to say that there is a tight smart of water goes to waste in the Twin cities.

Thursday morning at 3 o'clock we found ourselves side tracked with a crippled engine at a town in North Dakota, Berthold, a brand new town surrounded by a large scope of country, everybody in a good humor, lots of show. After a six or seven hours rest away we go again, soon left the snow behind us. The little towns after we struck Montana are composed of the balance of powers, saloons, largely, some cattle, some horses, lots of log cabins. Reached the Rockies early in the night, I don't think the road is strictly an air line, but up creeks and down rivers, through tunnels. We reached Bob Goshorn's town along towards lunch time.
A land agent told us Bob was in bed yet, every town has one or more land agents and they all have their piece by heart, many of them acted to me as if they might be a little selfish, perhaps not.

We found many saw dust factories throughout the mountains and to look at the supply one would think it more than equalled the demand and I noticed the Twin cities, Spokane and many of the little mountain towns had water going to waste. We reached Wenatchee ten hours late, at 10 o'clock p. m., we were side-tracked and remained in the car over night.
At Spokane we lost many of our neighbors,
found Mark and Bob's boys at Wenatchee, goods all loaded on the Camano, a steamer that runs from Wenatchee up to Chelan falls, 40 miles, and on up thirty miles farther the Columbia river is quite a stream, we had not gone far until we ran against a current we could not stem, we had a long wire rope on a windlass on the bow of the boat, two men took the end of that rope, they ran out a plank and away they went up the river, when it was unreeled they sat down on the end or hooked it into something, the boat swung out, the rope began to wind up on a steam capstan or something and away we went, one other place we repeated the same operation. Lauded at Ohelan falls at 4 o'clock p. m., found liveries awaiting us and we went to Chelan four miles away and Lakeside five miles. Everyone's friends met them at landing but mine, Wm., failed to get my card. My old friend Charlie Johnson and lady took me in and cared for me and perhaps you think I didn't know how to appreciate the kindness. So far as I have looked over the country, Brother Gamble would call it gently undulating.

March 14th. I find in looking over what I have written that I have jumped a cog, I noticed all through the mountains that the water runs down hill. We found Spokane to be a grand city. We took the boat about daylight, there is a wagon road on both sides of the river up to Chelan, not very level, the river is bounded on either side by the Cascade mountains, very abrupt in many places, we found three ferries on our way up landed three times, we found a ranch at the mouth of every little gulch, they looked small to tenderfoot but Mark J. claimed they were large ranches, we used to think that Mark's word was reasonably good, but I tell you we got so we made some allowance. The Great Bend wheat country lies east of the river, we found grain houses at the different landings, they are built some ways from the river and slides made to run the wheat down into the boat, wheat is all sacked, they run so fast down these shoots the sacks often burn and when they strike the boat they bust. And now I get back to Charlie Johnson's, Sunday morning I arose, got up, went out, the sun was coming up in the south and I think I never saw so bright a sun, the larks and robins were singing in every direction. I looked up the lake and such a lovely view, the lake as smooth as glass and snow clad mountains in all directions; Chelan Butte away to the southeast 5000 feet above the lake and 25 miles to the southwest stood Old Stormy, 7000 feet in the air (called Old Stormy on account of the many storms that occur) covered with snow ten months out of twelve. Charley hitched his 23 year old team to the buggy and away we went around the lake seven miles to Brother William's.
Found him and family very pleasantly situated about a mile and a half north of the lake and about 500 feet up in the world on a nice level piece of bench land. I can't see that Wm. is any younger than when he left Wayne. Lizzie is very much of an invalid but very cheerful, helpful and as bright as a dollar. Pearl is more than a pearl to her mother, almost a diamond. Lizzie's appetite is fairly good but she is afraid to eat too much for fear she will get so fat that Wm.
and Pearl can't handle her. I am living on Brown Leghorn eggs and fruit of all kinds.
I have jumped a cog again, Charlie's team is the same team he had in Wayne and they are right up on the bit, $500 would not buy them. Charlie's boy Toed, who crawled out from in under the coal pile up at Apex the time of the 1888 blizzard, is a way up steamboat man, at the top. The people of this country are nearly all from some other locality. We have about all professions here but the osteopath physician, the doctors are rather philanthropic, if they don't get their pay at the time they render the service they wait until they do; they are very liberal in their charges when called in the country they have to go up hill more or less, mostly more, they don't go directly up but angle a while one way then then the other until they reach the summit.

People have been known to die here but it is not a very common occurrence. We have quite a few Indians here, there are two varieties, male and female, they are very intelligent and industrious. Wm's folks all speak the language very fluently, what I mean by that is they know some words.
They can raise anything in the shape of stock from a wood tick to a beef critter. A wood tick is a little larger than a body louse, is dark colored, has a number of legs, he

they will remain there until they get as large as an olive tree. Higher completed, otherwise they are highland. I see the steamer going up the lake, goes up one day and back the next, 50 or 60 miles. The lake is fed by the river Stehcken and the outlet is the Chelan river, runs three miles away into the Columbia, it too, runs down hill. The lake is very deep, we can look across it four miles away and see Mark hunting fodder. I don't think Brother Benson or Mr. Richards have grown much since coming to this country, Steve is away looking up a victim to sell a patch of ground to Mrs. Russell has grown younger, the new look as of yours, Ole Stinger looks as rugged as ever, Sloan Skiles is trying to learn to smoke, we lost Ben at Spokane. Our porter told me a good one, he said in Virginia they hardly ever done much to the colored folks for going after chickens, maybe give them a dose of buckshot but if they took cool they had to go up ten days. He said they were having a revival and a had boy threw a male chicken in the window and they all went after him, the minister said, "never mind dat chicken, I'll do de pickin, no see a kicken, all tings come to dem dat way." Politics was a side issue in our car. I think my near neighbor was a demo-pop, he had a boy named Bryan. As near as I could learn Bob O. votes fermist me, but he is a price of a good fellow to travel with.
I know but little of the political complexion of the people in this community but as near as I can ascertain the most of the government officials vote what is known as the republican ticket, some of Charley Johnson's most in-imate friends think he voted that way at the last election and there may be some others.

MAGNIFICENT HORSE.

Since PLEASURE and MONEY are the two principal things desired, an article combining these factors is just what is wanted. Both pleasure and money are found in a high-class driving horse. It is certainly a great pleasure to drive one with size, style and action and one that, when called upon, can step past your neighbor with ease.

The sons of the great Union Medium (2.18%) not only possess this quality but transmit it to their get, in a marked degree; and when placed in the market meet ready sale at top prices. People within reach of Wayne have an opportunity that cannot be enjoyed in any other locality in the state.
More better bred and faster horses stand at Wayne than can be found in any other locality in the West.

There stands at the Fair Grounds DUKE OF WAYNE
(one of the best bred sons of Union Medium 2.18%) whose first, second, third and fourth dames are standard and registered. This fine young horse stands seventeen hands high, weighs 1270 and is coming four years old. He has fine style and action. In 1900 he was bred to only eight mares, and one of his get won first prize as the best sucker at the County Fair last fall. Common mares bred to a horse of this class cannot fail to produce a foal that will find a ready market as carriage and roadsters, as well as all purpose horses. We have placed the fees for this grand young horse within the reach of all.
He will stand at the Fair Grounds for $15 to insure in foal.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

BY DAD.

Perhaps everybody in this part of the world is not familiar with the biography of M. P. Ahern, Wayne's popular drygoods man, but with the printers and members of his own family M. P.'s writing is no joke, being a perfect imitation of Horace Greely's penmanship. Young James Ahern, who is clerking in a Chicago department store, gets off a good run at his daddy's expense. He wrote home about the burdens connected with his position, the chief one being that he had to open and read an average of 400 letters per day and 375 of the writers had all gone to the same school as his respected sire.

Probably most DEMOCRAT readers have heard that old story about Horace Greely's perplexing penmanship. It was something like this: In the old New York printing office was a concocted compositor "who never got stuck" on his copy. Some of the boys got a few sheets of the noted editor's copy paper, caught a dandy long-legs spider, dipped the latter's legs in some ink and then chased him up and down the paper. It was then hung on the hook for the smart typho. The editorial printer came in, took the copy, set type on it for quite awhile but finally declared he'd have to go and see the "old man" to find out what a word was. He took the copy to the noted writer, and Horace after scanning the sheet a moment, replied with considerable warmth: "Rehabilitation, you d—d fool!"

One of our most popular and beautiful young ladies, who teaches a class of Presbyterian infants, passed through a very embarrassing ordeal last Sunday. "Teacher," spoke up one little limb of inquisitiveness, "when are you going to be married?" The blushing young woman essayed not to hear and went on with a thrilling description of Daniel in the den. "But teacher," in a very loud voice, "when are you going to be married?" "Why do you want to know?" replied the young lady in a tragical whisper. "Well, just because," went on the little one, "my mamma says you are going to be married soon and we will have to get a new teacher, and I don't want any new one." The child was finally quieted with a promise that no marriage would occur, but then, I wouldn't do to tell anybody else for we have better authority by telegraph, by dad.

"My, but you are getting nice and fat," said Miss White to me upon her return to the city this week. "Why, when I was here before you were not quite so fat as a toothpick, and now you are nearly as fat as a match." And then Tom Hill laughed like a spring cyclone, just as though it was "any bones on him."

After all the fool Yankee didn't do anything so very foolish with Prince Henry. The emperor of Austria yesterday washed the feet of twelve old men and twelve old ladies. After the feet was performed each of them got a sack of money. Well, you don't have to live a thousand years in this country to get your feet washed by an "emperor." There are a few of 'em in Sioux City and more in Omaha, the only difference being they take the sack.

CHOICE SEED CORN.

"Pride of the Nishnabotna."

This Corn was bred in Northern Iowa by a member of Seed Corn association. It is a bright golden color, finely shaped ears; 70 pounds in the ears will shell more than 56 pounds of kernal. Germination strong. Out of a handful of 57 grains 56 sprouted. This corn ripened perfectly. It was grown by one of the best corn-raisers in Montgomery county, Iowa.

Legal Notice

George B. Wilbur and Eugene C. Wilbur, defendants, will take notice that on the 26th day of March, 1902, Guy R. Wilbur, plaintiff, herein filed his petition in the district court of Wayne county, Nebraska, against said defendants and others, the object and prayer of which are to obtain a judgment and decree confirming the shares of the defendants in the land herein described and for partition of the same, to wit: e 1/2 of the nw 1/4, section 26, township 27, north and range 3, east of the 6th p. m. in Wayne county, Nebraska, and in case the same cannot be equitably divided that the same be sold and the proceeds distributed to the parties entitled thereto; Also a decree finding and adjudging the defendant, Eugene C. Wilbur, dead, he having disappeared more than eight years prior to the 26th day of March, 1902, since which time he has not been seen nor communicated with by his family, relatives or friends who knew him. Plaintiff prays also for other general equitable relief. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 5th day of May, 1902. Dated March 26, 1902. Guy R. Wilbur, plaintiff.

A New Lecture Course for Wayne

An entertainment, course of four numbers, consisting of three lectures and one musical, will be given at the Baptist church in the near future. April 10, 15, and May 1 and 6 are the dates. The course will open with an illustrated scientific lecture by Prof. F. M. Gregg of the Wayne Normal. Prof. Gregg is well known to our citizens as an entertaining speaker and a clever scientist. He will explain and illustrate wireless telegraphy, as well as many other wonders of modern science.

April 15, Rev. J. W. Conley D. D., of Omaha, will lecture on "Character Building." Dr. Conley, recently of Chicago, is now pastor of the First Baptist church of Omaha. He ranks among the best lecturers of the west.

May 1, a musical will be given. It will be under the direction of Prof. M. S. Davies who will be assisted by the best musical talent of Wayne.

May 6, Rev. H. O. Rowland D. D., of Lincoln, will lecture. Dr. Rowland has probably been the speaker at more college and high school commencement than any other man in the state. He has repeatedly lectured before the students of the State University and the Perit State Normal.

A word as to the price: It has been the desire of the promoters to secure a course of a high order of merit and yet within the reach of everyone. Consequently course tickets will be sold for 50 cts. Single admission 20 cts. A liberal patronage on the part of the public is asked. The course is under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U.—Republican.

A HOT TIME IN HOSKINS.

Last night at about three o'clock a cry of fire was heard in our little town and on arriving at the place of the fire it was found to have started in the blue front saloon from the inside, as it was so fire that the proprietor, P. Kautz, was unable to save any of the contents, books included. The barber shop, with only a space of perhaps a foot and a half between it and the saloon, next caught fire, Barber Kanin saving everything in the line of furniture, although losing some $60, which he supposed safe in his pocket. The bank was saved by the presence of mid and hard work of all present, though Banker Crosby shows some rather badly burned hands this morning.

If there had been a hard wind as has been the rule this spring, the whole block would have, in all probability, been burned, which would have included the postoffice, Benser's store, which is one of the Shannon buildings, and of course the looks of that side of main street is spoiled in a measure, but of course some of the Hoskins blow hard would build up that portion, thus insuring Hoskins against missing Shannons, who would, if still doing business here, have built up again.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Principal Vaughn, of the Winside schools, called on college folks Saturday.

The class in advanced physics enjoyed a visit to the power house Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. Ivory and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harrington were guests at the College for Sunday dinner.

Miss Hopkins returned Saturday from a visit of a week at her home in York. She reports a pleasant time.

John Connery, who completed the Commercial course here the past winter, has taken a position as book keeper in the bank at Newcastle.

Amelia and Jessie Reeves enjoyed a visit this week, from their mother and sister at Little Blaine. The visit proved to be mutually enjoyable.

Mrs. McCurdy came up from Madison county, Thursday of last week, to accompany home her son Honor, who was convalescing from an attack of mumps and measles.

The term orations of the graduating class will be given Friday, Saturday and Monday evenings, beginning promptly at 7:30. A high standard is to be given to the one adjudged to have delivered the best oration.

Miss Wallace has been re-elected to serve again in the Pierce schools, having already filled her present position for three years. Miss Wallace completed the Scientific course with the class of '99 and is an alumna of whom the school is justly proud.

Quite a number of students took the recent county examination and the majority passed with creditable records indeed. The school of course rejoices with the young people in their success.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels came up from Stanton Friday evening, and their son Richard returned with them Saturday, the demands of the farm calling for his services at home. Mr. Daniels has had an excellent record as a student and will be missed in all the circles in which he has moved.

The presidential nominating convention last Saturday night, conducted by the Parliamentary law class developed a propounderance of Democrats, in which Wm. J. Bryan received the nomination. A committee of Mr. Bryan and his acceptance is expected in due time.

A FEW FACTS.

Following the following pretty invitation, received by many people, you will find a program of song and instrumental music, that will be exceptionally good and interesting, even if the old opera house does need a little frescoing, paint and other articles too numerous to mention: "You are cordially invited to attend a social given by the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Mary's church of the Wayne opera house, Monday, March 31, 1902."
