Dakota City Eagle: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Culler received the sad news this week that their son-in-law, Levi Elliott was accidentally killed near Pimberton, Colo. He was in the employ of a mining company, sinking a prospect hole and had put in the last blast on Friday of last week, which failed to explode. On Saturday he went to remove it and was seen no more alive, the supposition is that the blast was discharged by his pick. The remains were recovered on Sunday, mangled almost beyond recognition. He leaves a wife and four small children.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ferguson are expected home from Chicago this week. Mr. Ferguson went to Chicago over a month ago for the purpose of undergoing an operation for appendicitis. Dr. Sears, the noted surgeon, was consulted, and instead of telling Mr. Ferguson there was nothing the matter with him, he took the Wayne man into the hospital and let him see a couple of appendicitis patients cut open. That settled it with our old friend and citizen. He concluded at once that he didn't need operating on for anything. The DEMOCRAT will be glad to see Bro. Ferguson come home a well man.

There is some talk that Frank Kruger is going to close up the saloons by injunction or some such process, taking the matter into district court next week. The DEMOCRAT does not credit the reports. Mr. Kruger has too much shrewd business sense to do any such foolishness. Then again, the saloons cannot be held accountable for the turning down of Kruger's petition for license. Of course Messrs Mildner and Franks are pleased over the result and probably did what they could in a legitimate way to help a good thing for them along. For three years the city council has decided this matter in the same manner, and when a majority of the voters do not like it they can turn the present board out to grass and get a set of stoken-bottles that will give us all a license.

$5,000 for a Bull Dog

It is said "Boss" Croker of New York paid $5,000 for a bull dog. The reason the bull dog is so valuable is because they hang on when they get a hold, and wear longer in a fight than any other dog. Now, that is just like our "Bull Dog" shirts, they will hang on a man's back longer than any other shirt, and the shirts are longer, too. Then, too, they will out-wear any other kind of a shirt made. When a man buys a "Bull Dog" shirt he will hang on to that kind of a shirt and buy no other. The only difference between a bull dog and our shirt is in the price. Our shirts you can buy for fifty cents and they beat any shirt made for that price. Why not try one?

Speaking of Hobson and Funston as great heroes, an exchange considers Hobson the superior because it prefers the manner in which he worked his mouth.

The public will now be surprised to learn that J. Sterling Morton, in the 60's, was a rabid copper-head and made the most bitter speeches of his life in favor of slave-holding. No wonder J. Sterling, gold-bug and corporation counselor, always stood for the classes as against the masses.

WASHINGTON NEWS.
April 30, 1902.

The manner in which our military affairs are at present being conducted in the Philippines is casting an indelible stain upon the honor of the American people and is disgracing the American soldier before the entire civilized world. Through the aid of a censorship which is established over the press, the dark deeds of the past year have been withheld from the public, and few of the American people had any knowledge of what was really going on in those islands. But now witnesses are being called before the senate committee and the details of frightful acts of cruelty practised by the American soldiers upon the natives are being brought to light.

One means of securing information from natives was to bind and gag them, place them upon their backs, and with the aid of a syringe pour water down their throats until the body was distended to almost twice its natural size, and to expell the water again by pressing upon the distended abdomen and striking the body with the butt-ends of rifles. In some instances salt was also placed in the water.

It is difficult to conceive how American soldiers and officers who are the off-spring of centuries of civilization could ever engage in work of this character. A short time ago information reached this country that one of the generals in command of a force of troops going through one of these islands for the avowed purpose of purifying the natives, had shot to death unarmed prisoners. So grave was the charge, and of such a startling character, that he was tried by court-martial. It developed in the trial that General Smith, who is superior officer, had ordered him to kill all males over ten years of age and take no prisoners. When it became known that such an order was actually given by a United States General a chill of horror went over all the thoughtful people of this country and the press of Europe has been upsparring in its arraignment of the extreme brutality and cruelty of such an order and such a policy. Last Monday upon the floor of the house, Mr. Sibley, a republican representative from Pennsylvania, speaking of this incident, made use of the following language:

"Therefore, when I am compelled to read utterances contained in military orders that make the blood of man run cold, when I have heard statements made that we are cruel in the conduct of that war, I have thought perhaps the partisan was speaking. But when I have read, as I have within the past forty-eight hours, that a general wearing the uniform of the army of the United States, one who stands under the shadow of our flag, issues orders, not to conciliate a province, but to leave it a howling wilderness and to kill all over ten years of age, then it seems to me that humanity must have marched backward for eighteen centuries and that Herod again appears.

"I have read of the water cure. I believe that was exaggerated. Can any man whose blood bounds in his pulses, any man who has read his Bible, or who has been reared at the knee of a Christian woman, justify the perpetration of such cruelties upon another man who wears the guise and image of his Creator? And yet, we hear this man attempting to justify acts by which men are pumped so full of water to nearly drown them, and then brought back to life by thumping them with the butts of muskets. That is not civilization, that is not christianizing the world.

"A friend of mine said a few minutes ago, 'Oh, you had better

"The square peg in the round hole" figuratively expresses the use of means unsuited to the desired end. A great many people who have been cured of dyspepsia and other diseases and who are all the time enjoying the best of health and vigor by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery say: "We tried many medicines with only temporary benefit. It was not until we began the use of 'Golden Medical Discovery' that we found a complete and lasting cure." It is not a matter of opinion that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery holds the record for the perfect and permanent cure of indigestion and other diseases of the stomach and associated organs of digestion and nutrition. It is not a palliative. It cures the cause of disease and builds up the body with solid healthy flesh, not flabby fat.

"It is with pleasure that I tell you what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pellets' have done for me," writes Mrs. T. H. Baker, of Pelee, Kansas Co., Texas. "Two years ago I was taken with stomach and bowel trouble. Everything I ate would give me the pain. I lived two weeks on milk and even that gave me pain. It felt as though I would starve to death. My doctor attended me and gave me pills, peppals, two said catarrh of the stomach and bowels. They attended me (one at a time) for one year. I stopped taking them and tried other patent medicines, got no better, and I grew so weak and nervous my heart would flutter. I could not do any kind of work. Now I can do my house work very well, am gaining in flesh and strength, and can eat anything I want.

Accept no substitute for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

wait and hear his defense." I hope the President of the United States will have the courage, upon what the man admits, to discharge him dishonorably from the service he has disgraced. He admits that he issued the order to leave the province a howling wilderness and to kill all above ten years of age, the innocent with the guilty. That man never ought to be permitted to stay in the service of the United States until the sun goes down. He is a disgrace not alone to the party, but to every man who ever wore the uniform of the United States, and he is a blot and a disgrace to our present civilization. Wait and hear what his justification may be! That man does not live who can justify such orders.

Republicans who seek to justify present conditions in the Philippines, state in a half-hearted way that the natives are treacherous and cruel themselves, and that warfare of this character is always necessary when waged by a civilized power against an uncivilized enemy, but the evidence now being taken before the senate committee, which is engaged in investigating the conditions in these islands, will, when completed, make a volume of such bloody horror, such extreme brutality, such hideous cruelty, that it will cause every American who loves his country and honors his flag to feel shame, remorse and horror that this great nation has ever engaged in such a work, and every citizen must feel that this is a republic, that on each and every one of us, to some extent, must rest the blame for this foul blot upon our civilization. If by such means the Filipinos were induced through terror to submit to the rule of this government, still the result of such a policy could only be to inspire such feelings of hatred in the breasts of this people, that even centuries of time could not eradicate it. The sentiment is steadfastly growing that it should be the policy of this country to establish in the civilized portions of the Philippine Islands, among the christian people, a form of civil government, with the promise made to them that as soon as they are able to manage their own affairs they will be given their independence. Such a policy would establish a republic on the Island of Luzon, and some one or two others of these provinces where the people are educated and intelligent. It would then solve the problem of how to deal with the numerous other small islands occupied by savage and uncivilized tribes, the same as the American Republic was called upon to deal with the tribes of warlike American Indians who inhabited the interior of this country years ago.

Furchner, Duerig & Co.

Chicago Chronicle Clifkers.

The case of Brigadier General Funston in all its bearings emphasizes the wisdom of the aphorism: "Don't slop over."

Several people high in authority stopped over very decidedly when, as a reward for the sneaking capture of a little Tagal in Luzon, he was pitchforked into a brigadier generalship in the army of the United States.

This was bad enough, but what is even worse is the fact that Funston himself has been slopping over ever since.

The Sherman antitrust law was not intended to be mere harmless thunder. The criminal section of the act is as follows:

Every person who shall monopolize or attempt or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize any part of the trade or commerce among the several states * * * is guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of $5,000 or one year imprisonment, or both.

If Mr. Roosevelt is in earnest he will instruct the United States prosecuting officers to enforce the law in all its provisions, criminal as well as civil. He cannot become a "man of the people" by pretending to enforce the antitrust law while not enforcing it.

The way to proceed against criminals—beef criminals as well as steel criminals—is to indict them for their crimes and bring them to trial before a jury.

After three weeks of hard work in forming the shipping combination Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan is put off with a beggarly $12,500,000 as a recompense. Mr. Morgan had hoped to take a trip to the mountains or the seashore this summer, but under the circumstances probably the best he will be able to do will be to take a larger flat and perhaps keep a dog.

Life has its compensations. If we weary of viewing the disagreeable proceedings of General Smith in Samar or if we become discouraged at the ascendancy of the trusts we can turn with joy to the contemplation of Mr. White-law Reid's coronation knee breeches. Every cloud has a silver lining.

One of the edifying spectacles of the season is the sorrowfully reprehensible attitude of Mr. Cane Sugar Havemeyer toward the beet sugar crowd. Of course as the senatorial investigation progresses we shall be regaled with the grief of Mr. Beet Sugar Ox-nard at the wicked doings of the cane sugar gang. There is material for a mighty good comic opera in the situation.

Can there any longer be a doubt as to the superiority of the Anglo-Saxon over the supine and indolent Latin? What, for instance, are the puny performances of Don Valeriano Weyler as compared with all-conquering achievements of General H. R.

J. Smith of "howling wilderness" celebrity.

President Roosevelt's address to the graduating class at the naval academy would have been more impressive if he had had Admirals Dewey and Schley on the spot to show the midshipmen where he hit them for presuming to detract from the glories of the absentee department.

Bobby Burns knew nothing about the beef trust. But if the administration continues to trifle with the conspiracy to raise the price of beef only the members of the trusts will be able to say the "Grace Before Meat" which Burns wrote:

Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some would eat that want it;
But we hae meat and we can eat,
Sae let * * * eat it.

Burns wrote at this point "the Lord be thankit."

Whether the workingman whose dinner pail of alleged prosperity now lacks meat will substitute Roosevelt or trust where the post-mentioned the Deity makes no difference in the result.

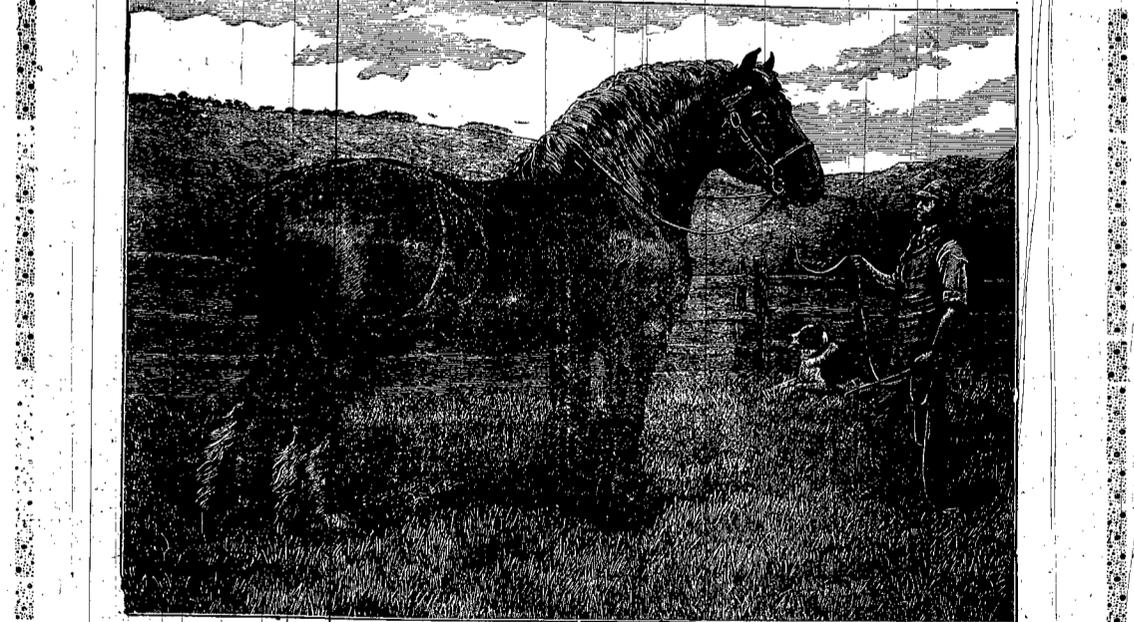

Major Gardener, serving in Philippines, finds himself in trouble and is threatened with a court-martial trial. His crime is "telling the truth" about affairs in the islands.

Major Gardener sent a report which reached the war department stating that army officers had been guilty of cruel practices toward the natives of the locality where they were stationed. Secretary Root tried to suppress this report, but it fell into the hands of General Miles, who caused it's contents to be communicated to members of congress.

That was the crime of General Miles for which Mr. Roosevelt threatened to retire him from the service, but the president changed his mind on that subject. General Miles will stay, but he will be "ignored." That is to be his punishment.

It is now reported that Major Gardener will be court-martialed because he has not furnished "specifications" regarding the charge he made.

The men guilty of criminal acts are not to be punished. The officer who reported the facts—he is the guilty man. The penalty for their crimes will fall on him.

Lincoln Champion, King of Stallions!

At $15 to insure mare in foal. The get of "Linc" have brought the highest prices of any horses sold in our county, and topped the Chicago market, some teams selling for $400 in cash, and one individual horse bringing $450. "Linc" is the sire of Dell Strickland's stallion—the dam being a two-year-old filly of C. Nairn.

Gentlemen! breed for good horses; money earning-horses that will do you credit. There is more money in raising good draft horses than any other kind. Don't try to raise an all-purpose horse—there are none. It would be mighty handy if a lady could pull out her poodle into the form of a greyhound so it could catch a jack-rabbit, and shut him up short before meal time, but we can't get honest horses made as man-made the telescope—in portable form. Nothing taking its diet from earth, manger or spoon, grows in telescope fashion. The man of "all trades" was handy 100 years ago; he was a cobbler shoemaker, a cobbler carpenter and a cobbler tinsmith, but now it takes good work to please a man of taste and culture and we must have specialists in men and horses. You can trot your misfit drafts to town after their day's work is done, forcing them to do "all-purpose" work, but they won't last long, and soon adopt a tired trot. "Linc" is an imported and a noble cultured animal, and when people criticise him they make themselves a "laughing stock."

Whooping Cough
A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINKNEY HALL, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by Raymond.

David Cunningham and W. O. Gamble left Monday morning for another year. The petitions were read; that of Herman Mildner was granted and the matter of O. D. Franks under way when Frank Kruger arose and filed what some people called a remonstrance, but was only a protest, against the granting of licenses to Messrs Mildner and Franks. As the protest contained no charges nor reasons why the licenses should not be granted the council ignored the interrupter and after favoring Franks for a permit, sat down on Oom Paul five votes to one. Messrs Mildner and Franks at once opened up for business and there has been no perceptible shadow thrown across their paths as yet. The DEMOCRAT wants to congratulate the church people upon their good judgment in not mixing in the fracas, as it is understood an effort was made to get them to go into the remonstrance business. So far as the action of the council is concerned, some people think they did the proper thing and others believe "there is a nigger in the fence" somewhere, and fail to discern the real object of the city duds in turning down a $1600 bonus. With "malice towards none and charity for all," the DEMOCRAT's opinion is that it was a most ridiculous piece of folly, that is, viewing it purely from a business standpoint. If two saloons is all the town wants, why didn't the council raise the license to $2400 each for the two places? Do you suppose for one holy minute, that there is a single member on the city council who would not jump a ten-foot picket fence to get that $1600, if it was his individual business instead of the city's? As for the argument that the prohibs would capture the town next spring, or that there wouldn't be two applicants next year for $1600 licenses, it is as specious as the plea of some politicians that to "benevolently assimilate" the Filipinos they must all be put to death, their homes burned and the country made "a howling wilderness." However, we first warders, who sign saloon petitions and are willing to have them in our ward, have the power to make the non-property-owning, prohibitive sap heads in the other wards go hungry or eat their remonstrance. We can attempt to get a new council—of business men—and if we fail we can make them plant their saloons along side the drug stores and centralize the liquor selling business.

The DEMOCRAT has one of the nicest quarter blocks of residence property in the city for sale. It only takes $300 to buy one-half of it.

The cheapest thing in town this month is a piece of job printing done at the DEMOCRAT office. Phone 74 and we'll call for the work.

Jas. Donabue, at present an employe of Robt. Baird, south of town, is probably the happiest man in the county and for the best of reasons. His fiancée, Miss Lizzie Morgan, a wealthy young lady from Boston, will arrive here May 24th for "better or worse." Jim's friends are preparing to give him the grandest shindig ever pulled off within the precincts of Plum Creek.

J. C. Walling, a nephew of F. W. Richardson, who moved here from Lancaster county and occupies the Caspar Karn farm north of town, becomes a DEMOCRAT reader this week. Mr. Walling farmed near Lincoln for some 16 years and says it invariably was too dry to raise good crops. Last year all the farmers of that section got was a little winter wheat. Speaking of the price of farms and the rate of rentals he says they are low in Wayne compared to the southern part of the state, so we can still expect a further raise here.

Rev. Birrel and wife arrived last Thursday and the gentleman occupied the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday. Mr. Birrel says he first learned the printing business, going from that into the ministry. He appears to be a good, practical man and a very good preacher—probably because he got his early training in a printing office. Then, again he isn't the sort of a man who, after living in a town four years can walk seven blocks in the heart of the city and not recognize an acquaintance. In short, Mr. Birrel could hardly be termed a "Chesscat." We Presbyterians are proud of our new preacher if we did stumble around a good deal to find one.

John Britton, who now lives at Sanburn, Iowa, was in town over Sunday, and says his home city is all ripped-up-the-back and tattered and torn at the tail ends over the doings of Revivalist Cordner, the same chap who raised so much "Texas" in Wayne a few years ago under a tent. At Sanburn the gentleman got a number of old hens to confess their short-comings with the husbands of other women, and these confessions were passed about until the whole town was—onto Cordner. There were open threats to chase him and the local divine out of town, and the two saiply scrubs thereupon armed themselves with revolvers and to bluff the natives went out for a little target practice. Then the mayor made a home run for the town by having the preachers arrested and fined for discharging firearms in the city. A temporary lull in hostilities is being taken until the ripe-egg season is on.

To Be the Same Old Game

A short decisive, session of the city council Tuesday morning settled the saloon scrap in Wayne for another year. The petitions were read; that of Herman Mildner was granted and the matter of O. D. Franks under way when Frank Kruger arose and filed what some people called a remonstrance, but was only a protest, against the granting of licenses to Messrs Mildner and Franks. As the protest contained no charges nor reasons why the licenses should not be granted the council ignored the interrupter and after favoring Franks for a permit, sat down on Oom Paul five votes to one. So far as the action of the council is concerned, some people think they did the proper thing and others believe "there is a nigger in the fence" somewhere, and fail to discern the real object of the city duds in turning down a $1600 bonus. With "malice towards none and charity for all," the DEMOCRAT's opinion is that it was a most ridiculous piece of folly, that is, viewing it purely from a business standpoint. If two saloons is all the town wants, why didn't the council raise the license to $2400 each for the two places? Do you suppose for one holy minute, that there is a single member on the city council who would not jump a ten-foot picket fence to get that $1600, if it was his individual business instead of the city's? Will Harm the Hunters

All parties take due notice that I will not allow any hunting on my place west of town, and furthermore that trespassers will be given the full benefit of the law. A word to the sensible is sufficient.

JOHN LARISON.
John tells the DEMOCRAT he proposes to make a "howling wilderness" of the first hunter he catches. He has put up with the nuisance until patience has got to be rank foolishness.

Fallerton, 28729; one of the best bred sons of Allerton; at $25 for the season.
Duke of Wayne, son of Union Medium 2:18 3-4. Stands at $15 for the season.

No town in Nebraska can boast of three as famous and well-bred trotters as the above stallions. Union Medium was foaled in '94. Is a beauty of a chestnut in color; stands 15 1/2 hands high, weighs 1180 lbs. He is one of the best bred trotters in the country.

Fallerton is a seal brown horse, is of grand finish and fine disposition. He was foaled in 1894, his sire being the noted Allerton, 2:09 1/4.

Duke of Wayne is one of the magnificent sons of Union Medium (2:18 3/4). He stands 17 hands high and weighs 1270 lbs.; is coming four years old. He shows up some of the best foals in the country, one of which took the prize at the county fair last fall.

Percheron Stallions

Villiers 13169 8081 Colmar 24734 43789
Foaled March 28, 1889, imported in 1890, sire Briard 5317 (1630), dam Robin 5697. Villiers is a jet black, weighs over a ton, and for many years stood at the head of the stud of Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman, the famous Illinois Percheron importers and breeders. As an individual he is without doubt one of the grandest horses that was ever in the United States, as a producer of the best there is in horse flesh he is easily at the top. He will make the season of 1902 at the barn of his owners in Wayac.

Is a deep iron grey, foaled April 5th., 1898, imported by Dunham, Fletcher & Coleman in 1900, sire Navarin (42555), dam Birche 23002. He is certainly a splendid type of the Percheron family, being only four years old yet weighing a ton, and is an animal with splendid action and abundance of life and good disposition. We believe that in Colmar we are offering to the breeders of this section of the state of Nebraska a horse they will appreciate and we have faith to believe he will prove himself a noble sire.

TERMS: The Service Fee for either of The Above Horses will be $20.00 to Insure Mare in Foal.

...IN THE STUD...
TAMMANY TIM 34283
Season of 1902
Full brother to Hinky Dink, 2:25 1/2, first start, fourth heat, in winning race. By Union Medium, 4:12, 2:18 1/2, Dam Alice G., 2:29 1/2, Dam of Hinky Dink, 2:25 1/2. Tammany Tim was foaled in June 1897. He is a handsome bay horse, 16 1/2 hands high, weighs 1225 lbs. The only stallion standing in this part of the state whose first three dams are producers of 2:30 trotters, or better. In conformation he is a grand horse, clear cut head, intelligent countenance, strong shoulders, powerful back, lips and stifles, all gracefully combined to produce strength and speed. His blood lines are of the best, the most popular and prolific speed producing combination in trotting blood lines, the kind that gets the money on the race course and the prizes in the show ring. That he will beget speed and grand road qualities there is no doubt, as he not only inherits, but possesses these qualities in a marked degree. Even common mares bred to a horse of this class, cannot fail to produce foals that will find a ready market as carriage horses or roadsters, as well as general, all purpose horses.
Terms: $15 to insure in foal.

In a recent article a prominent physician says: "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent, he has but one resort left, namely, the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by Raymond.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome

BY DAD.

Good morning! Did you get your license?
An old resident remarks that Hon. John T. Bressler's early training as county treasurer of Wayne county, makes him an ideal republican candidate for the state office, and that if Mr. Bressler should be nominated and elected, as appears quite probable, Messrs. Bartley, Messer and Steuffer will never have occasion to blush for the official conduct of their accomplished successor.

About the best joke I heard this week was perpetrated by O. D. Franks. Oscar said: "Why if three of us were to pay $1600 each we'd have to sell a poorer grade of whisky."

By dad, it looks as though our minister had the best connections with the happy hunting grounds. He, on Sunday morning, prayed that if the town must have two saloons he hoped the Good Lord wouldn't burden us with a third one. Rev. Bithell, I am told, prayed that if we had to have two of them here holes called saloons that sold whisky after closing time and on Sundays, he couldn't see that there were any worse than two. The house of lords "watercured" the 3d saloon proposition, and not only that but Rev. Bithell got a "call" from one of the lords and was requested to disgorge any information he might have to the effect that the saloons were doing business nights and Sundays. The reverend gentleman promptly denied having made any such statements.

About the only thing that equals a Kansas cyclone—to twist up and untwist things—is republican politics in Wayne county. Just a few months ago the Cunningham-Chace faction had everything squeezed out of the Bressler faction excepting the Wayne Herald. But Mr. Bressler, single-handed, landed the "grapes," and now is a candidate for state treasurer with the loyal and hearty support of all the scrappy republicans of the county. We'll have to give John credit for being the best wire-pulling politician in northeast Nebraska. Inferior generals may go out and coral the country delegate, but whenever there is anything of "intrinsic" value to be got you can safely bank on John stepping out and getting it.

Marguerite Chace will make a good reporter some day. She tells me that recently Miss Skiles, her teacher, told her and Zoe Mellor that it was silly to talk about the boys, and then the Mellor girl overheard Miss Skiles and Miss Brookings talking about their wedding dresses, and the little ladies thought that was kind of silly too. Marguerite says three of the teachers are "going to be married this summer and quit teaching." I asked her who the Misses Brookings and Skiles were going to marry and she said she didn't know, but the other one was "going to marry Jimmie, of course."

It looks to me as though some of our Wayne young men would object to having all the Hansen girls slaughtered by those young men from Boyd county.

Talking about weddings, they say a young lady in the west part of town is soon to marry a Marquis, and that the latter won't be able to Lerner anything when he gets her.

Memorial and Decoration Day services will be as follows:

Sunday, May 25, 1901, services will be held in the M. E. church at the usual hour, sermon by Rev. W. M. Wheeler of South Omaha.
Friday, May 20, the Decoration Day services will be held in the opera house at 2 p. m. The address will be given by Dr. Rowland of Lincoln. At 12:30 p. m. all "old soldiers and soldiers of the Spanish-American war" will meet at the Masonic hall and march to the cemetery and decorate the graves of all deceased soldiers, after which the procession will return to the opera house to attend the services. The public is invited very cordially to attend both these services, and especially the soldiers are requested to be present and honor the day. Let us lay aside our usual duties for one day and commemorate the death of those who freely gave their lives for the land we all love.
MARK STRINGER Commander.

Mrs. Steen enjoyed a visit from her brother, Mr. Gilbertson of Chicago over last evening.
Talking about job printing you miss the mark if you fail to find out how well and how cheaply the DEMOCRAT can supply your wants.
Herman Mildner has finally made a deal for the Volpp property on Main street and contemplates erecting a brick building for saloon purposes.
Vaughn Davis was down from Carroll Wednesday, getting ready for his divorce case next week. Vaughn says he does not expect the defendant to make any defense.

MARRIED.

At high noon, Wednesday, May 7, at the home of the bride in this city, Miss Amanda Hansen to Mr. W. H. Slaughter of Butte, Boyd county, Rev. Johnson of Concord officiating. Mr. Slaughter is in the real estate business at Butte and is an all-around hustler. His bride is an accomplished young woman, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen, can now pride themselves on having two sons-in-law, both of whom are Slaughters for business and pleasure.

A Tough Ley.

Ordinarily it would be called a tough Lie, but knowing the victim's brother, Mayor Ley, so well, we'll have to believe the following clipping sent Mr. Ley by his brother. The accident occurred in a western mining town—Joseph Ley, the man who had such a miraculous escape from death at the Six Eagles mine, March 2d, when blown up by 36 sticks of giant powder, was in town the past week. Mr. Ley is still slightly lame from the effects of his injuries, but he can move around and is feeling fine as silk. Probably not another man in a million could pass through the same ordeal and live to tell the story. On the day of the accident he was working near the blacksmith shop when his attention was attracted by something burning on the inside. He stepped in to investigate and went up the forge where, unknown to him, 36 sticks of giant powder were being thawed out. He was within two or three feet of the powder when the explosion occurred. The building was torn to splinters, quite a considerable portion of the flying debris finding lodgment in Mr. Ley's person. He did not lose consciousness, but dragged himself some hundred feet before assistance came. He believed himself fatally hurt. When the doctors arrived they spent several hours removing the remnants of plank, scraps of tin and a general assortment of foreign substances from his body. How Mr. Ley escaped death, why he was not blown to atoms, is one of those mysteries inexplicable. His hat was torn to shreds, his trousers to ribbons, yet not a bone was broken. Some missile broke the ring from his watch and indented the case, which he carried in his job pocket. People whom Mr. Ley meets look upon him with awe and wonder that he can possibly be made of to stand a shock that would pulverize the hardest rock.

The town board, with the Methodists in majority are making queer work with saloon matters. It seems to be a case of good Lord, good devil, we don't know whose hands we may fall into. Last year saloon license was $700, and we had two saloons, one more than this little town should have. This year they may have been newly converted for they raised the license to $1200 then after a few days they backed and put it down to $900. Kruger, the only applicant so far, doesn't want a license that bad, and now the saloon men will have to go dry until the drug store comes and then be sick to get a drink. Common sense says that one saloon made to run strictly according to law is preferred to lot chronic sick people or a hole in the wall. We know and so do they that a Methodist can't license a saloon and be a good Methodist no matter if they try to compromise with the devil and raise it to $2000. Better forgo the great salary and greater glory that goes with the office of a member of Hoskins' town board before some strange prank on their part gets Sheriff Mears and that load of chains after 'em. That they were the choice of Hoskins people as members of the board is no compliment to their christianity, and the vigorous kick now being made by the whole town shows they were expected to go easy in saloon matters. Now the Methodist board are up against the proposition is it not our duty to close the stores on Sunday?

Mrs J E Hayes received from a Chicago publishing house, Wednesday, 500 copies of a song entitled "Friends Evermore," both words and music being composed by herself.

The town board had quite an interesting meeting Monday night. L S Needham has had some trouble with the town because of his having had property across the railroad tracks taken out of the town tax list. Monday night this matter assumed serious proportions and as Atty Siman had arranged to defend Needham against the town the board very promptly and appropriately separated Mr Siman from his salary as town attorney, an office that required little work and brought him a yearly stipend. Knives of interested men could have been seen Tuesday morning on Main street consulting in low and solemn tones concerning this action. Mr Siman looked a little puzzled but it is hard to imagine why he should have expected to, earn wages from both parties in a suit. Lawyers are very curious people as a general thing but this is even odd for one of that class. The board of health, also, is called up at present and we are awaiting another meeting of the board to see how that will develop.

Clyde Hodgson went to Hoskins Wednesday with George Goble.

COLLEGE NOTES.

Mr Robt Elliot of Winside spent Sunday with friends at the college.

Mr Relyea as foreman with several carpenters are at work on the new dormitory. The work has been delayed some awaiting the arrival of material.

Miss Minnie Reeves, one of Madison county's most successful teachers, spent Saturday with her sister and brother who have been with us since September.

Rev Bithell conducted chapel exercises Tuesday morning. He addressed the students on the topic "Somebody is better than Nobody." It was a splendid address and was favorably commented on by the students.
Mrs Elic writes that she is enjoying her visit to California. She will remain another week and then stop at several places on her way home. She will not return before the first of June, and may remain till the 15th.
Several students enrolled the past week for the remainder of the year: Miss Jenkins of Madison county, Misses Cunningham and Finnegan of Newcastle, Miss Larson of this county are among the list. Three or four are expected next week.
The summer term will begin the 9th of June and all indications are that it will be the largest attendance the college has ever had during the summer. It is hoped to get the new building ready for use by the middle of June. A large number of former students will be here next term.

The college has sent out 2000 catalogues and about 5000 cards and small circulars during the past two weeks. The results from this advertising matter will be seen in an increased attendance this fall. Doubtless the building will be well filled early in the year, a larger attendance than that of last fall is looked for. The serious question is class room which it was expected would be provided.
