Ran Frazier Kills Himself.

About seven o'clock last evening P. H. Kohl received a message stating that his brother-in-law, Ran Frazier, had died at four o'clock, later intelligence by phone brought the sad news that Ran had taken carbolic acid. Today's Omaha papers state that Frazier was out of work, became dispondent, and about three o'clock yesterday afternoon he walked into his home, nodded to his wife, and went up stairs to his room. In a short time Mrs. Frazier went up and found him strangling to death, he having swallowed two ounces of carbolic acid. A doctor was gotten in a hurry but Ran was dead before the physician arrived. Phil Kohl went to Omaha this morning and the remains will be brought to Wayne Sunday for burial.
 Deceased was 50 years old and ten years ago was rated one of the best fixed men in Wayne county. Drinking and the Keely cure were his undoing. About a year ago the family went to Iowa to live on a ranch, but that was too quiet a life for Ran, and being an experienced cattle man he got a good position with a South Omaha commission firm and the future looked very promising until the old habits came to bring him to the above sad ending.

Dan Harrington says he had a long talk with Mr. Frazier in Omaha last Saturday and he was very moody and despondent. The DEMOCRAT understands that he leaves his widow and son $10,000 life insurance.
 R. Philleo & Son got in a car of anthracite last Friday which was quickly gobbled up.
 Upon hearing of the death of Ran Frazier Bob Carr said he had been expecting it, that he had been with Ran for about three weeks last fall and it was impossible to keep Ran straight.
 Billy Dammeyer is proving a very acceptable host in the bowling alley, and doing a nice business. To the best bowler in ten pins this month he gives a box of cigars, Frank Kruger being at the lead of the list at present with a score of 227.

"Doc Baker" Goes "Batty."

Three Times to Shuffle Off But Fails to Connect with the Happy Hunting Grounds.
 Most everybody in Wayne county knew A. J. Ecklund, better known as "Doc Baker," from his business of peddling medicines, and "Doc" had a good many friends in Wayne who will be sorry to learn of his mental aberrations as recounted by last Saturday's Omaha News. Baker went to Oakland last fall and expected to return and canvass Wayne county this month. He was a jovial sort of a fellow except when drinking. The account of his troubles as printed in the News is as follows:
 Andrew J. Ecklund, giving his address as Oakland, Neb., was lodged in the city jail at four o'clock yesterday afternoon to prevent him from taking his own life. He had been attempting to kill himself by asphyxiation in a local rooming house.
 He stated to the police that he had made several attempts and had been contemplating self-destruction for the past three weeks. His first attempt was made at Oakland several days ago, where a revolver which he had obtained for the purpose of killing himself was taken away from him by a friend. He later attempted to cut his throat with a knife but it was dull and he only succeeded in inflicting a slight wound, the mark of which he still carries. In Ecklund's pockets were found pawn tickets of various dates, showing that he had obtained money by pawning all his personal property, even down to his clothing. The officers believe he is insane, but he told an intelligible story and acted as though he was only despondent. He has been driving a medicine wagon for a company that distributes its medicines through the country.

 Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cook left Monday morning for Glenwood, Io., where they will settle up an estate left by Mrs. Cook's mother, recently deceased.
 A. R. Davis says the DEMOCRAT's story of last week about his "going out" with "Miss" O. A. King was incorrect in that he only dressed King up for a social function, and later on called at the Love hotel, where Albert Berry, who was aware of the hoax, requested Landlord Love to secure "her" a room.
 H. Sewell lost a horse in a peculiar manner last week. He had driven up to W. M. Wright's barn, when B. F. Swan's shetland pony came chasing around, apparently terribly scaring one of Mr. Sewell's horses. Before the latter could drive away the pony galloped back for the third time, and when Sewell got his horse home and in the barn the animal dropped dead, "scared to death," the owner firmly believes.
 Death finally came last Friday night to release the long-suffering body of Georgie Hunter from the ills that had so cruelly racked it since the day of its birth. Deceased was 15 years old, the daughter of last December, years old, a helpless little sufferer in both mind and body. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon from the residence, Rev. Dawson officiating. Lou Hunter, the father of the child, came from Akely, Minn., to attend the funeral and get his family ready for removal to the above place. Others here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Poff, George, Frank and Fred Knaggs, and Grandma C. E. Hunter, all of Wakefield, and Mr and Mrs. G. Inman of Norfolk.

Nothing in a Name

The day is past when everybody wants one kind of steel range. This store has sold in the last four months over 30 steel ranges, of three or four different makes. If you don't feel like putting $55 or $60 in a range, we have a fine one for $40, and a good one for $35.
 A few years ago it was hard work for this store to sell a steel range because people thought there was only one kind made and we didn't have that kind. Now they have found out that we have some of the very best ranges manufactured.
 Think of it! 30 ranges in four months! Why did we sell them? Because our Ranges and Prices are Right!

NEELY & CRAVEN

The Russian government has set about regulating the eggs at which shall marry in Turkestan. It has been customary for Mohammedan girls to marry between the ages of 10 and 12 years, but orders have been issued now that the minimum age shall be 14. The Tartar and Turcoman chiefs are much incensed, as all seek to obtain brides as young as possible. Russian officers require but 15 per cent. of the girls who marry under 12 die before they are 20.

American tourists abroad often comment upon the literal translation into English of notices in foreign languages. The well meant efforts of landlords and others to convey, in the language of the visitors, the meaning of the native, often produce laughable results. A Vienna dispatch to the London Express says: An Austrian engineer of note, Herr Wetkovic, has invented a new type of ship which he claims will be capable of traveling at lightning speed. Herr Wetkovic declares that when perfected it will maintain a speed around the world to be made in a week. The ship does not displace water, but glides over the surface like a skate over ice. Ingenious contrivances are constructed to minimize friction and air resistance.

SENTENCE COMMUTED.

Colonel Arthur Lynch Gets Penal Sentence for Life.

London, Jan. 23.—The sentence of death passed upon Colonel Arthur Lynch has been commuted to penal servitude for life.

BULLS ON THE RUN.

Injailing of Heavy Lines on Already Weak Market Causes a 2-Cent Decline of May Wheat.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—May wheat declined about 2 cents today, and the "bull" campaign received a severe setback. Disappointing foreign advices and letup in the export demand resulted in unloading of heavy lines upon an already weak market. The leader of the campaign, who has been an active buyer in the past few weeks took but small part in trading today, and the market was left without material support.

Late in the day it was reported J. Ogden Armour, who has been a leader in the "bull" movement, had disposed of anywhere from 7,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels of wheat during the day. It is estimated that his net profit amounted to about $600,000.

JUST FALLS WITH RAIN.

Fine Sand, Supposed to Have Come From Guatemala Volcanic Eruption, Found in San Francisco.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 23.—Small catches of an extremely fine white sand or dust were seen on many asphalt pavements when the rain had dried. Scientists say this dust must have fallen with the coming of the rain. It has not been seen here before. It is believed to have come from the volcano of Santa Maria in Guatemala, which broke out in violent eruption on October 10, and caused the death of a great area of cultivated land. The theory is that the dust, being lighter than air, was carried 2,000 miles from the point of its ascension.

HANGING TO A TREE

Gruesome Find on a Farm Near Norfolk Creates a Mystery.

HAD MONEY ON PERSON

Man Was Between Fifty and Sixty Years Old, and Evidently Had Deliberately Suicided—Used Wire for Rope.

Norfolk, Neb., Jan. 23.—Tuesday morning an unidentified man was found hanging to a tree on the farm of A. Hill, two miles north of this city. The body had evidently been hanging there some time. The position was such as to appear like one standing. Mr. Hill first saw the man there Sunday, but thought it was some one out hunting. Yesterday morning, seeing him still in the same place, Mr. Hill went near enough to ascertain that the man was dead, and came to town and reported the discovery to the sheriff. The body had been fastened around the neck and over a limb of a tree and the man had strangled himself by lifting his feet from the ground. The body was taken to the undertaking room of Session & Bell to await identification.

Phillips threw up his hands and legs to ward off the blow, and was struck on the left foot, the blade cutting the left toe to the bone. The doctor, who is a college athlete, recovered his feet and with his fists, breaking several bones in the right hand in doing so, and pitching him through the window to the ground below. The assailant was heard to yell as he sprang from the window sill. The noise aroused the occupants of the hotel and scared the intruder away. Dr. Phillips has no clue to his assailant's identity, as the room was dark and he knows of no motive for the attack. He will be able to resume his work in about two weeks.

GRAY SCORES WINNERS

Chairman Wanted to Know About the Case of Mrs. Duffin

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—The Marple company continued presentation of its case before the Anthracite Coal Strike commission today.

Edward Ross, a public accountant who has examined the accounts of the Marple company during the last ten years, testified the average net earnings of the 300 contract miners who had worked from last October to the first half months was $654 a year. There were twenty-nine men who had earned an average of $1,528.

Witness to explain the case asked by Michael Burns, who had testified before the commission that she was unable for nearly ten years to secure work for her own and her sons' services because of their indebtedness to the company at the time of his death.

Witness Could Not Answer. The witness became confused and was unable to answer Chairman Gray's questions as to whether the boy or his mother had received any cash during the period mentioned by them.

Chairman Gray displayed considerable impatience, and said: "Of all things in this world, a professional accountant, who can't see anything unless it is in a column of figures!"

Addressing the company's counsel Chairman Gray said: "The Marple company's case is a very strong expression of opinion without reason. This man knows only what his figures show."

An Iowa woman has made the remarkable discovery that sapolio is a good cure for corns. A knife to cut out the olio will also fix the corns when the sop has been applied.

The Norfolk News got out a double-header last Saturday because its gas engine wouldn't work on Friday. There is nothing on earth like a gasoline engine—unless its another gas engine.

Kansas has at last done something to wipe out the stains Carrie Nation placed on that state. The legislature served notice on all the senatorial candidates to hike back to Washington and attend their own business.

Speaking of the state legislature the Norfolk News says: "Whatever is done must reflect glory or discredit on the republican party." What an absurd statement—that it is possible for a republican legislature to reflect discredit on its party!

Speaking of Senator Smoot of Salt Lake notoriety the Omaha News remarks that: "the sharp edge of the polygamy issue has been sadly dulled since the sultan of Sulu, with his numerous wives, has been taken to our national bosom with a motherly hug, and his harem maintained at Uncle Sam's expense."

Dr. Henson of Chicago is another enthusiast of the belief that the rich men shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven unless they consecrate all their worldly possessions to the Lord—through such agencies as Henson. As the Chicago Chronicle remarks, Deacon Baer, the coal baron, will enter a demurrer to this prognostication.

Our reporter, says an exchange, was in the butcher shop the other day and was somewhat startled by the boss addressing the delivery boy in these words: "Now boy, look lively. Break the bones in Mr. Antony's chops, and put Mr. Gleason's ribs in your basket; and, by jove, here's Mrs. R—'s liver that she left on counter yesterday; and take Joe Large's feet out of pickle and deliver right off." "All right, sir," replied the boy, "just as I saw Miss J—'s leg off."

This is not the first time—there has been liars since Adam fooled Eve. Folks will lie some of them. Now, you old hens who have nothing else to do, and ye nasty, dirty, contemptible hypocrites, called men, roll this under your tongue as a "sweet morsel." The devil will get you by and bye. His conductor will look at you and cry out: "All aboard for hell!" and when he gets you he won't have much. Say, if you don't want to get run over by the cars keep off the track. More to follow on next train.—Exchange.

A nervous looking man went into Robert Hefsti's the other day and sat down for half an hour or so, when a clerk asked if there was anything she could do for him. He said no, he didn't want anything. She went away, and he sat half an hour longer, when Hefsti went to him and asked if he wanted to be shown anything. "No," said the nervous man, "I just want to sit around. My physician has recommended perfect quiet for me, and says above all things I should avoid being in crowds. Noticing that you did not advertise in the papers, I thought this would be as quiet a place as I could find so I just dropped in for a few hours of isolation." Hefsti picked up a bolt of paper cambric to brain him, but the man went out. He said all he wanted was a quiet life.

Preachers are creating all kinds of excitement of late. At Richview, Ill., a preacher smiled after being placed in his coffin and the funeral had to be postponed several days.

There are some decidedly cheap skates living in the First Ward of Wayne. One of them has arrived at the conclusion that it is worth $13 to sign a saloon petition. For particulars see Herman Mildner.

The contract for the public building at Norfolk has been given to the Congress Constructing Co. of Chicago, at a price of $83,550. The building is to be completed by June 1, 1904, and work will be commenced in the early spring.

Poet Bixby sings: Why don't our church soloists give us a little music with words which contain something of the soul of worship? Ninety per cent of the songs they sing are positively flat and insipid, profitless and provoking because the words are empty mouthings instead of something containing the elements of life.

Indications point to the passage of the Fowler bill by the present congress. While about every industry is being gobbled up by the corporations the DEMOCRAT can see no reason why the little country town banks shouldn't also be put out of business, especially since nearly without exception their owners vote for the candidates who support such things as "Fouler bills."

Gov. Pennypacker of Pennsylvania thinks his state is too "liberal" to the universities of England and Chicago through the agencies of Carnegie and Rockefeller, and proposes an export tax on iron and oil for his particular state. When Pennypacker thinks his state is the only commonwealth doing business at a loss he misses his guess. Every state in the union is paying tribute to the gigantic thieves of Pennsylvania.

"It is reported that there was a prodigal daughter in town last week. Reader, throw the mantle of charity around her. The chances are that more than a score of prodigal sons were in town also. The prodigal son returns home—the fattest calf is killed and an 18-karat gold ring is hung around his finger. How about the prodigal daughter? No real, no jewelry. "Get out of the house, you miserable hussy," is what she gets on her return home. What a wicked lot of people there are in this world, and many of them meaner 'on the sly' than the prodigal daughter. No prodigal daughter ever went wrong without the assistance of a prodigal son, but as soon as he returns he is accepted in society. It is not fair, is it girls? Do right boys; do right girls, and when the last summons comes you will be registered on the book of goodness "all right."—Hartley Journal.

Marconi has perfected the receiver for a pocket wireless telegraph system. The transmitter is not perfected, but is promised at an early day.

At last the poet's prediction of girding the earth in forty minutes is in danger of realization, the girdle being the vibrations of human hearts in continuous consciousness through contact with earth vibrations.

A machine by which each spoken word can be preserved with all its tender shades of meaning has also been perfected, and a pocket size will no doubt be on the market in due time. At no remote day voices at the antipodes will telephone wirelessly to each listening ear, and the syllables can be made to resound to the end of time whenever desired.

The man as he treads the earth is going to be a lordly creature.

With only one superior, the really new woman. She will have to have a pocket. A bag will not serve.

"Men," remarks the Kansas City Journal, "are inspired by such a lofty spirit of virtue that they would scorn to make a spectacle of their figures or their graces. It may be said, without the fear of successful contradiction, that no man ever descended so low as to take 10 cents a head from his countrymen for an exhibition of his personal charms. And by the same token, the innate modesty of man has kept him scrupulously away from the field of art. No one ever saw the figure of a man scantily wrapped in mosquito netting and standing on a bold pedestal in representation of 'morn,' or 'night,' or 'joy,' or any of the other emotions. Scripture has recognized this modesty in man from times immemorial."

Nebraska Has Some Cheap Ones

Chicago Chronicle: It is reported that a congressman has been offered a bribe of $5,000. If he accepts it he ought to be fired out of his seat for cutting the union scale.

Protection that Doesn't Protect

The great haste some of the organs are making to point out that the free coal bill passed last week has not yet had the effect of lowering the price of coal strongly suggests their fear that they may not have the chance a little later. It also advises the fact that the organs consider their readers a pretty ignorant lot. And at the same time it is good evidence of the fact that the organs themselves are not very deep.

A little reflection might tell them that no matter how they may comment upon the subject now, or be compelled to comment later, they cannot justify the coal tax of 67 cents a ton. If the price of coal goes down as a result of removing the duty, the public will insist upon keeping coal free. The experience of this winter with high coal will last the country a long time. On the other hand, if the price does not go down, what need is there for a tax, from the standpoint of the protectionist? If the high average price is maintained under free coal it will be quite unnecessary to have a protective duty of 67 cents or any other amount.

Of course it is worse than absurd for the high tariffites to declare now that the removal of the duty has resulted in no good to the public, but they cannot say anything in the future in favor of putting back the tax that will be any more convincing than what they are saying now.—Sioux City Tribune.

Where Education is a Curse

"The other day the dean of one of the largest of our colleges for women made an impassioned appeal to young mothers not to waste their time in the personal care of their babies, but to give them over to trained nurses while they devote themselves to study and such outside work as would fit them to be companions for their children when they are grown."

Read that, ye old fashioned mothers of the race.

A "dean" of a woman's college tells young mothers they waste time in the personal care of their babies.

The writer regrets the news item does not name the particular dean guilty of this treasonable utterance. There are some things he would like to throw at her.

Wasting time!

Nature is in no hurry either with pre-natal or post-natal processes.

When nature starts to make a human being it proceeds deliberately and it makes that being, at its birth and for a long time afterwards, helpless. Nature does that purposely. It has a reason for it—to develop the mother's care and the mother's love. In that development is the safety and progress of the race.

Whatever takes a mother from her child is against nature and if the separation is without good it is a crime.

The mother needs the child no less than the child needs the mother. They are made for each other. "What God hath joined together let no man (or silly 'dean') put asunder."

Napoleon realized the sad needs of France when he said it was "mothers."

And the greatest need of America today is mothers—mothers who will not shrink from any of the natural responsibilities of motherhood, who will be mothers first and ladies afterwards.

No man and no woman ever amounted to anything who did not have a mother who loved her child into being and cared for that child as long as she lived.

Tendency of the Times

The tendency of medical science is toward preventive measures. The best thought of the world is being given to the subject. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. It has been fully demonstrated that pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, can be prevented by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of influenza (grip), and it has been observed that this remedy counteracts any tendency of these diseases toward pneumonia. This has been fully proven in many thousands of cases in which this remedy has been used during the great prevalence of colds and grip in recent years, and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. Pneumonia often results from a slight cold when no danger is apprehended until it is suddenly discovered that there is fever and difficulty in breathing and pains in the chest, then it is announced that the patient has pneumonia. Be on the safe side and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the cold is contracted. It always cures. For sale by Raymond.

A Most Liberal Offer

All our former readers should take advantage of the unprecedented 'clubbing offer' we this year make, which includes this paper, The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute Editions and the Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm home. To them we add, for local, county and general news, our own paper, and make the four one year only $1.25. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named, which we club with our own, are well known throughout the West, and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Iowa Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west; The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer, while the Special Farmers' Institute Editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer, as it will hold good for a short time only. Samples of these papers may be examined by calling at this office.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a most valuable medicine for all kinds of coughs, colds and croup. I have never used in my family, and I have not words to express my confidence in this remedy.—Mrs. J. A. Moore, North Star, Mich. For sale by Raymond.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism, Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cure" you have tried I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured.

I am neither doctor nor a professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself, these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Indiana.

Dr. J. C. Clark

EYE SPECIALIST

Sioux City, Iowa.

During the past year it has been frequently reported to me that some unprincipled person has been traveling from house to house representing himself to be Dr. J. C. Clark of Sioux City, Iowa, and by such representation has defrauded many persons by selling them worthless spectacles. To protect the public from such frauds, I publish this, offering a reward of $50.00 for the arrest and conviction of such person.

I have been making regular trips to Wayne during the past six years and my patients are my best friends. If you are troubled with headache, nervousness, red inflamed eyes, dizziness, crossed eyes, itching burning lids, spots floating before the vision, abnormal growths called Pterygiums, loss of memory, inability to see distant objects distinctly, lines or letters running together, pains running from base of brain down spinal column, convulsions which precede the menstrual period, do not poison your system with drugs which have left thousands confirmed invalids, when by having the cause removed nature will do the rest. The exhaustion of nerve forces produced by eye strain are the cause of troubles above mentioned. My work is all guaranteed.

I use no drugs of any kind, spectacle lenses are my only therapeutic.

I Will be at Wayne Feb. 2, '03.

The Two Johns had a Dream.

We had a dream and we saw a great army mounted on white elephants rushing through this country and dealing death and destruction to all combinations and trusts. You may not believe in dreams but we do. We are going to shape our business to meet the great change that is going to take place in this country. To do this it will be necessary for us to make some sacrifice and all that do not believe in dreams can take advantage of the great reductions we make. We are going to clean up everything we have in heavy winter goods. This is no dream. Goods are going up but we believe in dreams and are going to sell all our winter clothing at a great reduction.

We will commence this sale Monday, Feb. 2. For Two Weeks we will give a Discount of 20 Per Cent on all winter clothing except on Staley Underwear. This sale will positively close Saturday Feb 14

This is not all, but will we sell odds and ends on our bargain table and in the windows at 1/2 price. Every person knows that our goods are all marked in plain figures and sold at one price, therefore you know that our goods are not marked up, but you get the reduction if you buy now, and this is no dream.

Have Been Waiting. All that have been waiting for a reduction on Fur Coats now have a chance to get what they want, as our stock is still complete. Fur coats have advanced and you can save about 40 per cent on next year's price. Don't wait if you want one. We commence this sale with all kinds but they will not last long. Men's Ulsters and Overcoats have been reduced in price and with the 20 per cent off, you buy them at less than cost. This is no dream. A full line of Ladies' and Misses' styles and sizes will be shown, and every garment is guaranteed, as to fit, workmanship, goods and price. You are invited to come and see this great line. Yours truly,

THE RACKET.

BY DAID.

I guess, by dad, the "new woman" is here now. A "coed" at one of the eastern colleges has had a "prominent student" fined $75 for stealing two kisses from her ruby lips. We don't see married gossamer never ran up against anything like that when we were "young and in our prime."

By dad, there must be plenty of easy money in Carroll. Shortly after the Walden went up there to run a saloon he paid his subscription on the "Truth" as Nick Quillen calls it. It is Feb. 1904. This week he sends us another plunk, which puts him in the "glory seat" till 1905. Ike, you are trumps with the DEMOCRAT, may your tribe increase and replenish the earth.

A gentleman waiting for his mail, at the postoffice, the other day suggested that chairs should be provided for those who got tired standing up such a monotonously long time. Yes, by dad, and a lunch counter and lodging house could also do a good business. And if things don't quicken up this "truth" he would be well to also have a parson in the crowd to marry those who get stuck in the "wait" and an undertaker to bury those who dropped dead from extreme exhaustion.

One of the conductors on the branch line tells a good story on the day after yesterday. A couple of traveling men got bunched out of something like 150 plunks in a saloon up there, and afterwards amused themselves by throwing beer kegs through the windows. When they went to the depot to get out of town the city marshal endeavored to put them under arrest, but they bluffed him out by telling him he had to have a warrant. The conductor held the train a few moments while the marshal hunted for his papers. When the latter got in the car to read the notice to the first victim his hands shook as though he had the ague, and the crowd bunched on whether he would get his man or get queered on the job. The man of the grip then asked to see the paper and explained to the badly frightened officer that his name wasn't "Sam Jones," at all, and he couldn't take him and wouldn't get him by a "punch" while the conductor held the train for the Wausau Weenie and the sandy traveling men made their get-away in high spirits.

While up in Winside last Saturday I heard a pretty good hard coal story, as related by one of Winside's merchants. It appears that last summer a certain company up there had several loads of anthracite stored in its Winside bins. In July this coal was held at $9.50 per ton with no takers—the denizens were buying ice. In August the company's officials wrote Jerry Hays, their local agent, not to sell any of the coal, that was expected to go out of sight in price and they looked for some nice fat profits on the Winside stock. Jerry at once answered them that the coal was all engaged at the $9.50 figure and he thought as well to do them a good turn before he went to North Dakota. It didn't take any urging to induce the business men to grasp the opportunity. That coal was all gone in about the time it takes to tell it, and as Jerry put it, the company made profit enough at the July price. There has been no hard coal famine in Winside and there won't be this winter.

The Herald says Representative Gregg has introduced more bills than any other member of the legislature. That is a doubtful compliment for the professor, by dad.

Parties from Altona say that Rily Rooth, who has been running the local bar down there, has reformed and will go to Kansas to stomp the state with Carrie Nation.

Speaking of the DEMOCRAT's criticism of the manner in which Uncle Sam's business was done at the local postoffice, a business man of the town says he was looking for an important business letter for about a week. He was sure the postoffice had been sent to him but was at a loss to know how to get it. Finally he met a farmer on the street, and the latter pulled out the long missing letter, with the excuse that he got it with his mail some time previous and had carried it out to his farm before noticing to whom it was addressed. There probably isn't a letter of this kind in the office—aside from what some "hoop, able" gentleman may bleed the job for—a subscription paper should be passed around among those concerned to have the present evils eradicated.

Signs of spring—the DEMOCRAT has received its last batch of government bonds, compliments of Congressman Robinson. John must be wanting to do all he can for his friends as he sent us a "double header" this time. The seeds are here for distribution and every man, woman and child is entitled to a sack whether they voted for John Robinson or pay for the DEMOCRAT or not. Call and get some and may the Lord bring you a bounteous harvest.

Omaha Markets
NYE & BUCHANAN CO.
The weak cattle market of Friday has continued this week. Receipts are heavy, especially in Chicago. We believe the steer market will improve some when this run of butcher stuff stops. Market now is simply rotten.

We quote best beef steers $4.50 to 4.75; good $4 to $4.40, warmed up $3.50 to $4; choice cows $3.25 to $3.75, fair $3.75 to $4; calves $3.50 to $4.50; Stock and feeders in limited supply; good $3.75 to $4, fair $3 to $3.50.

Hog receipts are more liberal and the advance is checked. Range $5.35 to $5.64. Sheep market continues satisfactory, although not quite so high. Very few feeders arriving.

Lambs $5 25-5 75
Yearlings 5 00-5 35
Wethers 4 75-5 50
Ewes 3 25-4 25

A Word of Explanation.

South Omaha, Neb., Feb. 4, 1903.
WAYNE DEMOCRAT.—No doubt you will announce in this week's issue, my brother Ran's death and burial. I make it as a request that you state the facts in reference to the cause of his death, etc. We admit that he took carbolic acid, but the reason why he took it is the point. It was not because he was out of work, or stranded for money, as they had money in the bank, and they also owned a good lot in South Omaha which they paid $700 cash for. They also owned some personal property as well as all their house goods, and more than that, Ran had a good job here with the Nebraska Live Stock Commission Company, he worked the day he took his life, and had been to work before that. The trouble was simply this, his wife had made arrangements to move to Wayne which he was opposed to and he tried to persuade her not to leave him, as there are parties here who Ran got to go and talk to his wife and try and persuade her not to leave him, she said, No, said she had promised to go and would not break her word. When Ran saw she was determined to go he then took his own life, as he told me as well as other friends, that he never could part with Clarence, and when he went home and saw his wife was packing up, he then said he would go back down and get his watch. He went back down town and got his watch, paid some small bills, got his shaving cup and bid them all good by and I suppose got the acid, while down town and then went straight up and finished the job right there, but the reports in the Omaha papers are not correct. Now you may do as you like about making a full statement, but I ask you as a friend and justice to my brother Ran that you state facts or say nothing. Please mail me a copy of your paper so that I can see what you say about it.

Randall R. Frazier was born in Newton, Ohio, on Oct. 7th, 1852, moved to Iowa, March 1870, moved to Wayne county, Neb., March 1881, moved to Silver City, Iowa, April, 1902, moved to South Omaha July, 1902.

Yours very truly,
WM. FRAZIER.

Lost in a Snow-storm

A man living fourteen miles north of Wayne left Wayne about the time the snow storm struck Wayne. He got lost and was out nearly all night but was saved because he had on Staley underwear. Why will men die when they can buy Staley underwear at the 2 Johns.

All this week, cooking exhibit at Terwilliger Bros., GREAT MAJESTIC RANGE. You are invited.

Mrs. Mel Norton has purchased the house and lot just west of T. W. Moran's and will build a new house in the spring.

"Inspiration of the Scriptures" and "Character" are the topics at First Presbyterian church Sunday. The evening topic is the first of a series on subjects pertaining to practical life and conduct. You are welcome.

Dick Carpenter has purchased Garfield Hoquewood's rural mail outfit and will operate the same himself. Dick ought to be a popular mail carrier and the patrons of these routes take pretty good care of the fellows who accommodate them.

Low Jones had a little strenuousity before getting away from Wayne last Monday. It appears Lou got a bill of goods some time ago from Frank Gaertner and according to Frank's story they were to have been paid for at time of delivery. Frank threatened to attach Lou's stuff at the depot, so Mrs. Jones went into the store and paid the bill, then Mr. Jones called to whip Mr. Gaertner. About the time the youngster began to mix things John Gaertner grabbed Bro. Jones and pitched him out of the store, quickly ending hostilities. John has attended too many funerals of other people to have any trouble at this late date in haddling those who are only dead financially.

Nothing in a Name

The day is past when everybody wants one kind of steel range. This store has sold in the last four months over 30 steel ranges, of three or four different makes. If you don't feel like putting $55 or $60 in a range, we have a fine one for $40, and a good one for $35.

A few years ago it was hard work for this store to sell a steel range because people thought there was only one kind made and we didn't have that kind. Now they have found out that we have some of the very best ranges manufactured.

Think of it! 30 ranges in four months! Why did we sell them? Because our Ranges and Prices are Right!

Are You Ready to Die

There is a serious question and if you are not ready you had better buy Staley underwear and live. It is risky business to put off such an important thing at this season of the year. What do you gain if you don't buy Staley underwear and die? Call at the 2 Johns before it is too late.

To Home via Pierce

The following appeared in last night's Sioux City Tribune as a special from Lincoln:

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 5.—Gottlieb Neigenfind, the murderer of his wife and John Breyer of Pierce county, who will hang March 13, and is now in the penitentiary, is not at all disturbed by his impending fate. He is indifferent, talks nonchalantly of his impending execution and is apparently enjoying himself while life lasts.

The man in solitary confinement and is permitted to see but few visitors. He has waxed fat and has gained thirty pounds since his incarceration. He is also a great deal cleaner and looks much better than he did when recently his attorneys fought in vain for his life.

A resident of Pierce, at which town he was tried, visited him recently and broached the subject of his execution. Neigenfind laughed, seized upon the subject of his death eagerly, and remarked that when he was hanged he expected to be ticketed to the other world via Pierce. In that event he would stop off and make his many friends there a neighborly visit.

Asked whether he wanted to send any news to Pierce he said no, unless that it was he would like to, but was unable to do so, owing to the fact that he had not been able to circulate around much late.

Notice to Teachers
