Roosevelt Believes in Large Families; And So Do We.

It is refreshing to know that the head of this nation believes in large families. We hear it frequently remarked that the rich do not have children and that society people don't want them. The only Queens in this country are the women that have raised families. Every good man feels, when he meets a mother, he is in the presence of God's choosen creature and willingly respects her by taking off his hat.

God will bless Roosevelt for standing up for the family. Speaking of large families reminds us that there usually is quite a number of boys in a large family and some parents may have had trouble to find clothing that give satisfaction. We have had over 25 years experience in clothing boys and we can save you money and much trouble if you will call on us before you buy your boy's suits. Our spring suits are now in and our boy's clothing is made to resist hard wear and is the latest style. Now don't make the mistake so many do and buy anything for a boy. It costs no more to buy stylish clothing here than others ask for out of date clothing. Boys like nice clothing and if you buy here you will get nice suits and made better—will wear longer—and cost less than others ask for inferior kinds. Remember we have shoes that boys can't wear out. Now don't read this and say its only an advertisement, but call and see if it is all true. It costs nothing to see our boys clothing and it will please us to show it even if you then decide to buy elsewhere. You are invited to call and see our spring line of boy's clothing before you buy.

Louie Hanson, who lives south of town, had quite an experience last Sunday night, and so did some other people who were out all night hunting him, fearing he might get drowned in some of the ponds. Louie was in Altona Sunday and filled up on the stuff that makes Altona famous. When night came he was fired out, and started away with his team. He didn't get home and searching parties started out looking for him, the Altona beverage man joining in the hunt. At daylight Hansen and his team turned up near Wakefield, somewhat the worse for hard

Peterson & Berry

Two Toms to One Dog

Last Tuesday afternoon Tom Caswell, who lives near Randolph, saw a fellow taking the 2 o'clock train east. There was nothing peculiar in this if it hadn't been that the stranger to Caswell was accompanied by a bird dog of some rare species that Caswell had lost about three months previously. The other man was Tom McDonald, who has worked in the bowling alley most of the past winter. McDonald claimed he had raised the dog, and refused to give him up, while two of Caswell's friends identified the pup as the long lost bird scenter from the Caswell place. To clinch the matter the animal ran to Caswell and appeared glad to see him. However, McDonald got away on the cars with the contested property while Caswell hunted up the sheriff. The latter was just going to the gun club meeting to kill a brace of red ravens, but gave that sport up to join the dog hunt. Messages were sent to Dakota City and Pender so as to intercept McDonald either way he might go. In a couple of hours the sheriff at Dakota City telephoned he had the man and dog and that the man refused to part with the canine. Sheriff Mears told the Dakota City officer to hold both and would go down next day for them, and that weakened McDonald and he settled by returning the dog to Wayne on the evening train.

John Elliot Sues the Railroad Company

John D. Elliott of Winside today filed a notice of suit against the C. St. P. M. & O. railroad company for $789.35, damages alleged to have been made him by reason of the fatal accident that befell his daughters the first day of last November at which time Mamie Elliott was instantly killed and Alice Elliott, aged 13 years, badly injured. The above sum includes actual expenses entailed by reason of the tragedy.

The Palace Livary Barn Sold

Strahan & Warnock sold the Palace livery barn stock to John D. Massey last Saturday, the transfer being for about $2,000 worth of horses and vehicles. Mr. Massey has been a resident of Wayne since last fall and lives in the Ran Frazier house which he bought over a year ago. He also owns a couple of good Wayne county farms, is a money maker and will "make the mare go" some at the Palace. Mr. Strahan will continue in the horse business, while Mr. Warnock will shoot ducks and keep a couple of roosters at the old Gregory stand.

Omaha Markets

NYE & BUCHANAN CO.

Beef steers made an advance of 15 to 20c last week but lost most of it first two days this week. However, Wednesday recovered, rose again and the market now has a healthy tone again. Principal cause of decline was the big run of 30,000 in Chicago Monday and 2 days heavy run here.

We quote best beef steers $4.60 to $5, good $4 to $4.50, warmed up $3.75 to $4; choice cows and heifers $3.50 to $4, fair to good $2.85 to $3.40; canners and cutters $1.50 to $2.50. Choice stockers and feeders $2.20 to $4.40, good $3.75 to $4.20. Bulls slow sale at $2.50 to $3.70; veal $4 to $6. Hog receipts light, range $7 to $7.45. Sheep receipts light, market steady to strong.

Lambs	$6 00-6 50
Yearlings	5 50-6 00
Wethers	5 30-5 60

An effort is being made by the state legislature to find some technicality in the pardon of Jos. Bartley that he may again be returned to the penitentiary. Like the effort to locate the parties who got the state's funds through Bartley—republicans high in the party's ranks—it may safely be stated that this investigation against the ex-treasurer is simply a "bluff."

Here's an out-of-date item that may be news to some folks. Henry Lage and Miss Matilda Ulrich were married Feb. 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Lage received a large number of handsome presents.

THURSDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Lincoln, Neb., March 5.—The senate this morning recommended for passage the bill providing for the sale of the lands intended for disposal of its stock in bulk, to be notice five days before, with the county clerk.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Lincoln, Neb., March 6.—A bombshell was exploded in the senate this morning when the committee on accounts and expenditures handed in a report that by implication censures Secretary of State March and suggests the good faith of several supply houses. Their bills that came to the committee's hands were examined and in two the members reported the bills as amended. In several cases the articles ordered were used for other offices in the building, and the committee says they have not the remotest idea where the bills were used for the articles or not.

SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
Lincoln, Neb., March 7.—The senate this morning passed the bill providing for the sale of the lands intended for disposal of its stock in bulk, to be notice five days before, with the county clerk.

...Delicious Old Wines...

I have just received a shipment of what I believe to be the best wine ever sold in Wayne, or at least, the choicest grade I have handled in twenty years at the liquor business. It is the "pure quill" and just what you want at home for a good spring tonic. The price is easy for the poor and rich.

A Good Spring Medicine

Lies in a case of "the stuff that made Milwaukee famous." I can sell you any brew of bottled beer you desire. Pabst, Schlitz, Budweiser, Blue Ribbon, etc. In whiskies what did you ever sample that was better than "Old Oscar Pepper," (the DEMOCRAT MAN's favorite.) Come and see us.

A Record Breaking Sale

The Lessman & Merritt sale of Shorthorn cattle last Saturday was the most successful sale of thoroughbred cattle pulled off in this whole section of country for the season. It outclassed the grand combination two days sale recently held in Omaha on an average of $10 or $15 per head, and beat a great sale held in Des Moines, Iowa, some $2 per head. Col. E. Cunningham accounts for this remarkable success by stating that this particular section of the northwest has more money, better opportunities of handling good stock and a larger demand for it than any other section of the middle states. The females at this Wayne sale brought on an average of $107.50 per head; the males $115.50. The individual sales made were:

To A. B. Clark, Wayne, 2d Princess, coming 2 years old, price $90. Dutch Girl, aged 21 mos., $120. 85th Lady Brampton G., 15 mos., $95. Scotch Cup, bull 7 mos. old, $130.

To B. P. Peterson, Carroll, Princess 4 years old, $125. Mand Jewel, 7 years old, $125. Queen Beauty and May Flower, aged 21 mos., $70 each.

To J. R. Melchert, Bloomfield, Golden Maid, coming 2 years, $75. Mary Logan, 7 year old $95. Roan Princess, coming 2 years old, $100.

To L. W. Prouty, Randolph, Rose Elmwood, cow 3 years old $105. Rose Bell 24, 21 mos., $115.

To B. E. Smith, Magnet, Mand Jewel 24, coming 3 years old, $120.

To R. E. K. Mellof, Roan Kirk, 14 mos. old, $60.

To A. E. Smith, Magnet, 65th Lady Brampton and her calf $140.

To J. E. Britton, Iowa, 51st Rose Pleasant Ridge, 5 years old, $220.

To Geo. Bramer, Rose Cup Bearer, 13 mos. old, $125.

To Jud Garwood, Carroll, Rose Taurus, 16 mos. old, $75.

Wakeful Children

For a long time the two year old child of Mr. F. L. McPherson, 59 N. Tenth St., Harrisburg, Pa., would sleep but two or three hours in the early part of the night, which made it very hard for her parents. Her mother concluded that the child had stomach trouble, and gave her half a one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which quieted her stomach and she slept the whole night through. Two boxes of these Tablets have effected a permanent cure and she is now well and strong. For sale by Raymond.

Order of Hearing on Petition for Appointment of Administrator

In the County Court of Wayne county, Nebraska.

State of Nebraska, County of Wayne, ss. To the Heirs and to all persons interested in the estate of Fred Ulrich deceased:

On reading the petition of Anna Ulrich praying that the administration of said estate be granted to Anna Ulrich as administratrix. It is hereby ordered that you, and all persons interested in said matter, may, and do, appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county, on the 18th day of March, A. D. 1903, at One o'clock p. m., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and that the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this Order in the NEBRASKA DEMOCRAT, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

Witness my hand, and seal of said court, this 21st day of February A. D. 1903.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism, Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism. I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published.

No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured.

I am neither doctor nor a professional—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make.

Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Indiana.

F. MÖLKENSTHIN, Prop.

Complimentary to Rev. Ernst

Yesterday was a very important day in the history of the South Presbyterian church of this city as it marked the severance of the relationship existing during the past four years and seven months between pastor and people, Dr. A. F. Ernst preaching his farewell sermon prior to his departure on Wednesday for Macomb, Ill., where he will occupy the pulpit of a large prosperous church to which he was recently called. The occasion was a sad one for the South church whose members have been greatly attached to their pastor during his labor here. The evidence of his popularity was attested by the large congregations which assembled at the morning and evening services to listen to his last words in his old pulpit. These congregations were not limited to the members of his own church but were composed of the members of other protestant denominations of the city who also deeply regret the departure of Mr. Ernst. The evening service was a union one and occupying the pulpit with Dr. Ernst were Drs. McLean and Wright who took part in the services and voiced in fitting words the general appreciation of the departing clergyman on the part of the community. They also testified to the high regard in which Dr. Ernst is held by his brother ministers in the city and in the Freeport Presbytery who regret to lose him from their circle.

Without disparagement to his predecessors it is safe to say that in the long history of the old South church Dr. Ernst has proved the ablest minister to occupy its pulpit. He has been earnest and sincere in his work and by his every act has endeared himself to his flock. His pastorate has been eminently successful. Measured by additions to his church or congregations the record which he has made may not make a great showing, but success is not evidenced alone by figures of this kind. He has labored faithfully to discharge his whole duty to his congregation and in these labors he has advanced the spiritual welfare of his people perhaps no other minister in his church has done. Furthermore his work has been done modestly and absolutely without self-glorification, which is the highest praise that can be tendered to any man engaged in the ministry or any other public work. These sermons which he has preached from his pulpit Sabbath after Sabbath have been strong sermons, full of doctrine, full of faith, full of hope and not without effect upon his hearers. It had long been realized that so small a church could not expect to permanently retain a minister of Dr. Ernst's ability. His sermons have been worthy of larger audiences than those which Galena can supply and in seeking a wider field of activity and usefulness he takes with him the cordial good wishes of his own church, of sister churches and of the entire community.

Summons by Publication

To Rachel Davis Isaacs, Non Resident Defendant:

You are hereby notified that on the 20th day of February, 1903, Daniel Isaacs filed a petition against you in the District Court of Wayne county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a divorce from you on the grounds that you have wilfully abandoned him, the said Daniel Isaacs, without just cause for more than two years last past and have wilfully deserted him for more than two years last past.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday the 6th day of April, 1903.

Dated February 20, 1903.

Read it Through 'Twould Spoil this Story to tell it in the Headlines

To use an eighteenth century phrase this is an "or true, tale." Having happened in a small Virginia town in the winter of 1902, it is a story very much of the present. Up to a short time ago Mrs. John E. Harmon, of Melfa Station, Va., had no personal knowledge of the rare curative properties of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. "Last January," she says, "my baby took a dreadful cold and at one time I feared she would have pneumonia, but one of my neighbors told me how this remedy had cured her little boy and I began giving it to my baby at once and it soon cured her. I heartily thank the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for placing so great a cure within my reach. I cannot recommend it too highly or say too much in its favor. I hope all who read this will try it and be convinced as I was." For sale by Raymond.

Probably the Ghost of that Dorg

Chicago, Western Publisher: A very large, hideous hoodoo, with deer colored eyes and a grapevine tail, has been chasing the Wayne (Neb.) DEMOCRAT man in a mad effort to induce him to take to drink. The hoodoo put an imaginary brick in the wheels of the job press and broke the press, the hoodoo wagged his tangly tail in the way of a form and it "pled," the hoodoo blew his breath into the concentric of the gasoline engine and it coughs terribly, but produces no power. The hoodoo went further and kicked in the windows, disrupted the printshop chimney, melted the rollers, broke the office towel and other commandments. The editor fumigated with formaldehyde and thought he had the hoodoo "faded." In a moment of unguardedness, however, the evil spirit pointed his finger at the old Prouty Press. The wopperjaw fell into the tumbling pot, the gimgewmcrack jumped the bed of the rollerinkum—and the junk man called with a dray. But you can't keep a Democrat down and the editor was all smiles next day whooping 'er up for Wayne and Wayne business.

Miss Wall Taken Back

Sheriff and Mrs. Mears left Sunday afternoon for Lincoln with Miss Anna Wall, the insane woman who was only returned to Wayne from the asylum three weeks ago. Miss Wall gave the sheriff plenty of excitement for awhile. When he went to the residence of Smallstick, a relative of Miss Wall's, to get her, she ran upstairs and crawled under some carpets. The parties, accompanied by the sheriff, went up stairs after her and pulled the carpet off the woman, and the latter then straightened out on her back and acted as though she were dying. Mr. Mears remarked that he guessed they would have no use for him, as the woman was about dead, and at that she sprang to her feet and gave him the merry hal hal Saturday night, while in jail, she tore every particle of clothing off her body and ripped the apparel into shreds and shoved it through the bars. In the morning, when Mears went in to feed her, she approached him holding a blanket up in front of her. After giving the sheriff the "compliments of the day" she faced about and put Grant in the rear. The poor woman has had it in for the sheriff ever since he first arrested her last fall and when she nearly tore his "star" off. Mrs. Mears had to accompany her husband to Lincoln because the sheriff was afraid to get within handshaking distance of the woman.

GEO. W. THIES.

BY DAID.

A pretty good story is out on John Massey, the new proprietor of the Palace Jigery. Mr. Massey was going home the other evening and happened along just as Smallstick, the little German, was attempting to get Maude Wall, the insane woman, to go home. Miss Wall appealed to Mr. Massey to keep Smallstick from both sides; that she had left a lot of money in the house when she went away, and now the little German was coming to get her, too. Mr. Massey straightened up and informed the woman that he made it a rule to never interfere in family quarrels, etc., never suspecting that the woman was crazy and not the wife of the man who was with her.

Billy Dammeyer was telling, or trying to tell, the boys a "good one" on Wall Golden, the other day, and started in with "let me tell you." Startled Billy right; he was "told you" to get the taradum out of his thorax before he started on anybody.

In Afghanistan, under a recent proclamation of the ameer, robbers are placed in cages and hung in prominent thoroughfares as a warning to others. I would like to see that tried in this country, just to see how Rockefeller would look in a cage.

Gov. Micky believes it a divine right to hang such brutes as Niengenfind, but when it comes to the robbers who manage the corporations, why, it's a horse of another color—a right of the devil to protect them.

A few of those Winsiders who moved up to Denhoff, B. D., had better advise the DEMOCRAT a small remittance, or, by dad, I'll send my hoodoo after them.

By dad, physical culture doesn't seem to be a necessary education in this town. The promulgators of the scheme, who came here from Sioux City, went home disgusted. Their men's class dwindled down to three, and that was not enough to interest the females, let alone pay expenses.

Well, as D. King Harn reports it, the lecture on "Thin Funks" never phased us. The speaker just talked about folks who were thin mentally, and of course that's out of our class, reaching only such fellows as Northrop, Ferguson, et al.

"It is very amusing," remarked a business man one day this week, "to listen to the jealous carping of some Baptists and Presbyterians over this Methodist pipe organ. 'Naw, we don't want such a cheap thing as that,' 'No, no, why that wouldn't buy a mouth organ for our church?' If they want a pipe organ why don't they get a decent instrument? Darn their jealous church-going pictures," and the speaker's lip curled up with undisguised disgust.

Here's a grand opening for Joe Love's microbe killing laughter: "Fort Dodge water is so bad that infants refuse to be baptized in it until it is boiled."

Probably a goodly number of readers of the daily papers have been interested in the story of the banishment from the British court of Lady Grayville Gordon. The first time I met Lady Grayville was in the summer of 1879. Her mother, the widow Humble, bought a section of land adjoining Dad's old homestead in Plymouth county, Iowa. Their new house and barns was a revelation to us pioneers. Maggie Humble was a lovely girl of 17, blonde hair, and her face full of a rich English color and her form—a perfect apparition to an uncouth country boy. Her two younger twin brothers were great sportsmen and it became my happy lot to accompany them on their hunts and share their guns and ammunition. In this way it frequently happened that I ate lunch or dinner at the "mansions," Gontchenkow, and I think the most astonishing mess of food I ever put in my mouth was some baked tomatoes that Lady Gordon prepared, and say, mister, with that face right across the table from me—I had to swallow the d—d stuff. Another time I was rushing across the Humble fields and just as I approached a small stream Lady Gordon and her two younger sisters stood up on the bank—they all dived way down with the fishes and I went away back—round a section of land to get home, by dad. It was when Fred B. Close, Lady Gordon's first husband was coming here, that I was returning from McLeans, or Horseback, one day, and met the fair Maggie going, in like fashion, to town. The floods had carried away the bridges and she inquired with considerable anxiety in her voice about a ford I had crossed a mile back. Summoning up all the sand I could muster I offered to go back and help her cross. It was necessary for me to lead her high-strung equine and in mid stream I shouted to her to "hold her feet up." That spoiled the whole affair for me; ten miles away my face still burned at the thought of it—"hold your feet up!" but Maggie appears to have stepped pretty high ever since. The family moved to Pipestone where Harry Humble, one of the twins, got into the servant girl's room by mistake, and finding such matters are not so easily paid for in this country as in "bloody Hingland" the rich Close Bros. shipped him back to that country where he soon afterwards was killed by being thrown from a horse.

HARRINGTON The Leading Clothier.

Charley, the other twin, died in the south last year, probably from too much sport. Fred Close was a dare-devil horseman. Just before he was married he was nearly killed in a hurdle race, and a few years later met his death in a polo game in Sioux City, owing to having one arm in a sling when he entered the game. His immensely wealthy widow went to England and married one titled ass to allay the suspicions of the wife of another snob, that the sweet, modest little maiden of twenty-four years ago was not trifling with her husband's affections. The other woman dies, the May flower of the Iowa prairies is divorced from jackass No. 1 and marries No. 2. No. 1 asks the court for his child and "Maggie" says it isn't his, but No. 2's and only married 1 so 2's wife wouldn't badger her husband on account of his attentions to—hold your feet up—by dad.

Bixby, in Star's Journal: Rev. Mr. Allenbach, who is acting as spiritual adviser to Convict Niengenfind by request of Chaplain Martin, on Wednesday administered the sacrament to the condemned man and he is supposed to be as nearly fixed for glory as possible under the distressing circumstances surrounding his wretched and profitless life. This is perhaps an improper time to discuss the possibilities or probabilities concerning the future of one whose conversation was delayed until fifteen minutes after the eleventh hour, but people can't help thinking and wondering, and nobody in the wide world knows. Let us say, as it were in parenthesis, that it doesn't pay to take chances. You want to get good early. Make heaven here and take it across with you. The view from our sad sight is screened.

And maybe it is well; We don't know just where Niengenfind Will land—no one can tell. Perhaps some day he may adorn A bright and shining sphere For now, as true as you are born He's catching hell down here.

SOCIETY NOTES

A big surprise party was given Mrs. August Piepenstock last Friday evening by her neighbors and friends. The ladies took their lunch with them and had a most enjoyable farewell party as Mrs. Piepenstock and children soon leave for California. Those present were Mesdames Biltzer, Gohl, Koch, Volpp, Mildner, Dammeyer, F. Piepenstock, Johnson Liedtke, F. Kruger, Hendrich, Lueders, Liendecker, Denkinger Hansen, Lerner, Thielman.

Mesdames Crossland, Cherry, Elliot and Dawson served supper to over a hundred people at Mrs. Crossland's yesterday evening at the "Tea and Talk." The attendance and receipts were larger than on any former occasion of the kind.

The Juvenile History club will celebrate their 6th anniversary at the Northrop home Saturday evening. The members of this well-organized little society are Misses Helen and Winifred Northrop, Kate and Ruth Bressler, Florence Welsh, Sarah Assit, Mary Mellor, Myrtle Moses, Kate Lewis and Lela Tucker. They are taking Holland history this year.

Mrs. Walter Weber delightfully entertained the Card club last Tuesday evening. The Young People of the Christian Endeavor society have a big shadow social at the church parlors this evening. Miss Elsie Sprague gives the entertainment, and by means of card board, etc., gives a quite wonderful performance.

In the shooting case of Hughes vs Darnell the defendant was fined $10 and costs, not so much for the shooting as for carrying concealed weapons.

The Chauncey Depew of this section, E. R. Gurney, was billed for a speech at the teachers' meeting in Emerson last Saturday and those present say it was the event of the day.

A little child of Wm Dangburg's was taken ill last week and died last Saturday. The little one was buried Monday, the funeral being preached by Rev. Press.

Sidney and Frank Price expect to go to Canada in about a month or less to improve the land purchased and homesteaded last fall.

Harry McClusky and A L Beeson started for McLean Co, North Dakota, Tuesday morning with the laudable expectations of acquiring a homesteaded land, and in a way become horny handed farmers. They expect to be gone about a week.

Frank Laase will assist E W Callen this summer in the implement trade and is now at work. Ed and Frank will make a strong team and they will probably use the dull times in going out and catching a desperado or two.

The North Dakota pilgrims arrived at Denhoff last Saturday, being nearly three days on their journey. We are glad they got through safely and also that we were not near enough to hear the emphatic language used, particularly by Lowry, as they went whirling along at the dizzy rate of six miles an hour.

Herbert Lund last week received a couple of little alligators from Florida and has placed them in the front window of the drug store where they are attracting much attention from those who never saw anything in this line before. We understand that the little brutes were sent by Wylie McClusky.

Dr. J. C. Clark, EYE SPECIALIST

If you have headache, nervousness, red, inflamed lids, crossed eyes, itching eyelids, spots floating before vision, abnormal growths upon eyes called pterigium, dimness of sight, cannot maintain vision long at any one time for close work, cannot see distant objects well, lines or letters run together from base of brain down through spinal column, convulsions which precede the cerebral functions, stomach troubles, etc., do not poison yourself with drugs which have left thousands confirmed invalids, when by having the cause removed nature will do the rest. The exhaustion of the nerve forces produced by eye strain is the cause of the troubles above mentioned. Spectacle lenses are my only therapeutic. All work guaranteed. Letters below are only samples of thousands I have upon file. This is my tenth year in Sioux City and I have patients for a radius of four hundred miles around. Inquire of them.

Mrs. August Shipman, 811 West Eighth Street, says: "I am pleased to tell of the great benefit I received from my treatment with Dr. J. C. Clark. I was in such a nervous condition that I became fearful of losing my mind. I had such pain in my head running clear down through my spine, and I could not do my work and look after my family. I had taken medicine and tried everything that was recommended and was growing worse continually until I went to Dr. Clark, and he said my whole trouble came from my eyes, and that glasses perfectly fitted would remove the cause. I engaged Dr. Clark to take my case and as soon as I put the glasses on I began to get better. I stopped taking medicine at once and I am happy to state that now I am in good health and have none of my former troubles."

Dr. J. C. Clark, Sioux City, Iowa. My Dear Sir—After having been again restored to good eyesight, I wish to inform you of it. I cannot express my feeling of gratitude toward you for help you have been able to give. I had never been in a worse condition than I was before I received your glasses. It was getting worse daily. My eyes could bear no light and my headache was so severe that I was obliged to seek a dark room. This was my condition the last two days before my glasses arrived. I received them at noon and put them on immediately. The change which I have undergone the first twelve hours is remarkable. I was able to get one of my studies before 8 o'clock that evening and now I can do more work than formerly. My mind is able to work again, the headache is gone and my eyesight is as perfect as any man's, if I have on my glasses. I have not been hindered one minute from my studies, but if necessary can study until 12 at night. I have no doubt any more, but firmly believe that you understand your business as an eye specialist. If you so desire you may use these lines. With my best wishes and thanks to you, I remain, Truly Yours, GERTT GROTTES.

Mr. Grotters is a student at the Orange City High school. Dr. J. C. Clark will be at Wayne Monday, March 16, 1903.
