FATAL BATTLE WITH DESPERATE OUTLAWS

Two Officers and a Desperado Are Killed in Fight at Bakersfield, Cal.

A MUCH WANTED MAN

James McKinney Had Many Murders to His Credit in the Southwest— Besieged in a Fortified Chinese Joss House.

Bakersfield, Cal., April 21.—James McKinney, the outlaw, was shot and killed here Saturday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Tibbets was also killed, and Constable Packard was fatally shot. Sheriffs Kelly of Kerns, Collins of Tulare and Levin of Arizona, with Officers Will and Bert Tibbets, Guards Tower and City Marshal Packard, surrounded McKinney shortly before 11 o'clock Saturday morning at the Chinese house. Will Tibbets and Packard approached McKinney in the house and ordered him to surrender. McKinney answered by shooting. Will Tibbets was shot through the stomach and died shortly after. Packard was shot through the neck and shoulder and died a few minutes later. Sheriff Kelly, a brother of the dead deputy sheriff, shot McKinney through the mouth and neck, killing him.

McKinney had been in Bakersfield for a long time and was harbored by friends in the city. He was a well-known outlaw and a regular habit of the place with McKinney was that he had a desperado's habit of shooting at anyone who got in his back with his eyes closed.

Hulu did not let the order to come to the barricaded house, and the fight went on for several hours. He was taken to the county jail and tried to take his life by hanging himself.

Another possibility of McKinney was known to live in the house where he was shot, but he would not surrender. At 4:30 o'clock the building was set on fire and in fifteen minutes the man was smothered and killed.

Had Bad Shooting Record.

McKinney was accused of having committed several murders. He was a native of California, and was first sent to the penitentiary for a long term for a murder. He was later released on parole, but after his release he went to Bakersfield, where, in the latter part of 1906, he shot and killed Tom Sears, a gambler, as the result of a quarrel over a woman. No one saw the fight and McKinney was acquitted.

Early in July in Portland he killed Harry Orr and wounded another man, John Willis and another man in a drunken row. He made a sensational escape from custody, and for several months wandered pretty much untraced around the country. A few weeks ago Sheriff Collins located him at Hermosillo, Mex., and he was taken to his extradition was made. The Mexican authorities, however, had released him before the arrival of the papers, and he disappeared again. He was later located at Bakersfield, where he was shot.

NOT THE RIGHT FACE.

President's Countenance Doesn't Go With 'God Bless Our Home' Motto.

Washington, April 20.—A local photographer who makes a specialty of the portraits of President Roosevelt is announcing that the photographs of Mr. Roosevelt do not sell. "There is no demand for them," said the photographer. When Mr. McKinley was in office, he sold twenty of his photographs where he now sell one of Mr. Roosevelt. Photographs of McKinney still outsell those of Roosevelt.

The photographer did not think it was because Roosevelt was unpopular. The only reason he could see was that as a rule people who buy portraits of President McKinley are the ones who keep "God Bless Our Home" over the door of the parlor, a big family Bible on the parlor table and pictures of Washington and Lincoln on the parlor walls. Probably Mr. Roosevelt's popularity to be a prime favorite with this class of people.

DEIENED NEW TRIAL!

Mrs. Lillie Is Sentenced to Imprisonment for Life for Killing Her Husband.

David City, Neb., April 21.—Judge Good Saturday overruled the motion of Mrs. Lena Lillie for a new trial and sentenced her to imprisonment for life at hard labor. Mrs. Lillie was bold and defiant in replying to the court's question whether she had anything to say. She said:

"I am not guilty, and I feel I have not had a fair trial as a citizen of the United States. I feel that no more monstrous injustice ever happened at Nebraska than this just perpetrated here. Witnesses have sworn to false statements which they could not believe. Then she sat down with eyes flashing; but the piteous sobs of her mother and father, who sat near her, caused her to rise and compose herself and weep. She will be taken to Lincoln in thirty days. Meanwhile the case will be appealed to the supreme court.

October 23 last David City was aroused by information that Harvey Lillie, a grain merchant, had been killed by a burglar. Mrs. Lillie, in bed beside him, saw a man enter the room and go over to him. At his command she lay still, and allowed him to escape. Then she saw the man return with a bundle and there was no trace of the murderer. The police were called and on December 23 Mrs. Lillie was arrested, charged with the murder of her husband. Her husband had got $2,000 life insurance, which she had been told she could have if she could get a divorce. Circumstantial evidence seemed to bear against her.

The town was soon torn by factions, one believing in the innocence, the other in the guilt of the woman. A trial was called for trial and adjournment was at that time.

March 10 the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and recommended life imprisonment. The verdict was a surprise, but it was not unexpected. Mrs. Lillie was in the jail with facts. Mrs. Lillie was in the jail with facts. Mrs. Lillie was in the jail with facts. Mrs. Lillie was in the jail with facts.

HOLTZ, The Tailor.

The calling out of the National Guard to protect President Roosevelt while enroute through Nebraska is a "stain" at the integrity of the state and a reflection upon the president's fighting capacity.

An Iowa exchange remarks that the papers are making fun of Secretary Shaw's portrait, painted by Chantrau, because it represents him with his hands in his trousers pockets. But Shaw doesn't care. He is holding his own, all right.

Down in Tennessee a girl baby has been born with three hands and arms. When she grows up she will be a great catch for some lazy lout. Before marriage she can hug and hold the reins and after marriage can use the washboard and hold the baby. All women ought to be made that way.

It seems that Mr. Baker, former partner of J. Pierpont Morgan, has declined the office of assistant treasurer of the United States, but the president, at least, has the consolation of knowing that he offered this important position to a man whose name, according to the New York Herald, appears on the directorate of twenty-two corporations, among them the Northern Securities company (which is being prosecuted in the merger suit), the Burlington railroad, the Erie railroad, the Al-malgamated Copper company, the Federal Steel company and the National City Bank of New York.—Commoner.

"We happened," says the Kiowa County Signal of Greensburg, Wis., "to see a small child last summer wearing those ridiculous half-hose and from her knees half way to her ankles was bare. We wondered what vain and foolish mother had invented the idiotic custom, for as we gazed upon the little lassie we noticed that her poor little legs were sunburned and covered with mosquito bites. And do you know that foolish custom is not confined to children? We saw a married woman get into a carriage a short time ago, and accidentally—accidentally, now, mind you—but, say, this thing has gone far enough, and we don't know, anyway, how the dickens to get it in the paper without our wife seeing it.

A Chicago householder has freed his mind in a "card" in the papers addressed to all persons willing to do general housework: "If you come and stay long enough to create mutual feeling of admiration and you think we live to far from State street, we will sell our home and move down town. If you don't want to wash your own clothes we will send them with our laundry and pay for them. If you don't like to wait on the table we will turn the kitchen into a cafe et noir and all walk out and wait on ourselves. Sometimes I don't get home to dinner until 7 o'clock, and if that is to late you can have it any time, for there is a road-house three blocks from the house where I can always get a cheese sandwich. Sometimes on Sunday I like to have breakfast about 10 o'clock and dinner about 4 or 5, but if you want to get out early, you can have dinner at 12 sharp, and we will try to enjoy it. Anyway it will give me a chance to see a ball game. We think our children are pretty nice, but if you don't we will turn them out as soon as the weather permits. The nurse and you have separate rooms on the third floor. She is very lady-like, and if she is objectionable to you in anyway we will let her go. My wife will try very hard to please you, but if you don't like her I will let her—Well, anyway, these things I have mentioned are some of the trifles which have caused many a labor strike in our home. But they could all be remedied if we only have a perfect understanding when you 'sign' with us.

Advice to Republicans

The Union Pacific railroad company has recently invested in ten water softening plants the sum of $20,000 for the benefit of their locomotive tubes. At Columbus analysis has shown that there are twenty grains of solids in every gallon of water, and the machines put in are expected to make the water 95 to 98 chemically pure. This is designed to save the company large sums of money in extending the life and usefulness of the boiler tubes that are made of iron. There is an example in this for people who will insist on pouring this same water into their systems without purification. If it will get away with boiler tubes why should people continue to expect that the delicate tissues of their bodies can stand more than the metal of the locomotives, and yet many of them take no precaution, but run this lime and alkali through their system without a thought of the damage it may do their internal machinery. If the railroad company finds it profitable to purify water for its boilers it should certainly be of benefit for the people to purify for their systems or eschew water altogether.—Norfolk News.

Some Thoughts about Toledo Jones.

Did you ever stop to think about the real bigness of Jones—"Sucker Rod" Jones of Toledo, as he is sarcastically called by some? A man without a party has been four times elected mayor of a great Ohio city. The newspapers were against him. They couldn't use him. The republicans were against him. They couldn't sway him. The democrats were against him. They couldn't use him. And all the people were for him.

The men whose hands were scarred with the marks of honest toil said, "Here is a man who loves humanity more than money or power. He tries to do what is right. He belongs to plain folks. Wealth has not made him proud, nor position changed his nature. He loves children, music, flowers and his fellowmen. He has a great heart that always beats true. He greets the man with a million as an equal. He preaches the doctrine of fairness and lives it. He is our friend, and we believe that he is honest.

Now that explains the election of Jones. Principle is always bigger than party if the people can only be made to believe. In every city there are more good people than bad ones. Prove to them that a candidate does possess the qualities that exist in Jones of Toledo; clinch the fact in their minds that he is honest, honest, unselfish and the friend of that great mass of humanity that toils against odds, that is always in the majority, and no political machine, no matter how powerful, can avail against his simple and unassuming integrity.

We are not painting Toledo Jones as an angel. He has faults, for he is human. He makes mistakes. He does unwise things. He has not made Toledo a second Eden. But he is honest. He has been gifted with the power to get close to men's hearts and make them believe in his sincerity. When the roll of destiny is made up, if we mistake not, there will be a high place reserved for the man who loves children, flowers and humanity and who has asked no higher title than that of the people's friend. Perfect Health

Is within the reach of almost every woman. The weakness, nervousness and irritability from which so many women suffer is in general due to disease of the delicate womanly organism. When the disease is cured the general health is re-established. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It promotes regularity, dries disagreeable and enfeebling drains, lessens inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. When these diseases are cured, headache, backache, nervousness and weakness are cured also. "I was very weak and nervous when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' about a year ago," writes Mrs. M. E. Everett, of 89 Oxford Street, Woodstock, Ont., "I had been suffering for seven long months, and had taken medicine from a physician all the time, but it seemed to make me feel much worse. My stomach was so bad (so my doctor told me), and my nerves were in such a state that I would start at the least noise. I felt irritable at all times, and was not able to do any of my own housework; had to keep help all the time. How I suffered! God and myself alone know, I was treated by several of the best physicians, but your medicines, but the first bottle seemed to help me. I took five bottles of Favorite Prescription, two of Golden Medical Discovery, also two vials of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. I can highly recommend these medicines to all who suffer as I did. I never had better health than I now enjoy, and it is all owing to Dr. Pierce's medicines."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to Ward off an Attack of Rheumatism

"For years when spring time came on and I went into gardening, I was sure to have an attack of rheumatism, and every attack was more severe than the preceding one," says Josie McDonald, of Man, Logan county, West Va. COLLEGE NOTES.
Mr Salyards of Meadow Grove enrolled this week for the spring and summer.
Mr Jas Steele was a pleasant caller Saturday. He is enjoying his first year of teaching.
The social Saturday evening was one of the most enjoyable of the year. All enjoyed it much.
The plumber has been overhauling the waterworks and putting it all in a more satisfactory condition.
Mr John Rohrer of Pierce county returned to college Saturday for the remainder of the year. He has just finished a successful term of teaching. He is a splendid young man and an earnest student.
Mr Cronk of the 1901 class spent Sunday visiting friends. He has completed his second year of teaching in Madison county. He spent two years as a student here and was a most faithful worker.
Rev Dawson conducted chapel Friday morning. He made a very practical address to the students on "Habits." His talks are very practical as well as full of interest to all. The students show their appreciation of his kindness.
Miss Jennie Bellows of Madison writes a pleasant letter and informs us that she has been elected to a position in the Emerson schools. She has been a student here several terms and was a strong student. Her reputation as a teacher is the best.
Several of the students are securing good positions for next year, also a number of former students. Good preparation for teaching and faithful work as teachers are the recommendations that aid in getting good positions. May all worthy ones get advanced.
The Y W C A is well attended and the members are preparing some good weekly programs. The same is true of the Y M C A. These associations are appreciated by most of the students and are given all possible encouragement by the teachers. Much good is accomplished through them.
Prin A. E. Little was down from Carroll Saturday calling on friends. He is a successful teacher and his success well illustrates what an earnest student may do. He graduated in 1901; taught one year in a country school. His work advanced him to the principalship at Carroll; his success there takes him to Winside next year. The future alone can tell of further success. He succeeds because he deserves it.
Henry Raubach, the genial whole-souled teacher and ex-college student, came over from Tekamah Saturday for a short visit with his many friends in the city and college. During the past six years, he has spent three years at the college and three years teaching; this year in Burt county. He graduated from the Teachers' course in 1899 and from the Scientific course in 1902. He was always among the leaders of his classes and is now among the leaders in teaching. He is deservedly popular with all who know him and, doubtless, the future will treat him well. But few students of the college were better known or better liked by the people of Wayne than Mr Raubach. All are pleased with his success and outlook for the future. His superintendent, his school board and his patrons highly recommend him as a student, a teacher and a gentleman. He returned to his school Sunday afternoon.

TOM FARRAND.

BY DAD.

Those warm-handed fortune tellers made their annual visit to Wayne Tuesday and had a good time of it. At the Capital one of them encountered A. Danielson and John Gustafson. Mr. Danielson was induced to place 15 cents in the palm of his paw, which was quickly covered by the dark skinned creature. Then Mr. Gustafson laid a half-dollar in the flat of his hand with equally astonishing results. About this time the proprietor started to lead the dam-sell from the room, against the vigorous protests of Charley Johnson, and the muscular objections of John, who wanted his money back. Mr. Gustafson pulled one arm of the black flirt and Mr. Franks on the other, while Charley pulled--some fresh back beer. All that was lacking was the man with a kodak.

"As a boy we have gone to town from the farm and bought whisky at 25c a gallon to furnish the men who were doing the mowing and cradling. Everybody did so in those days. Today not one farmer in 50 would think of doing such a thing. Public sentiment has changed wonderfully on this line in a half century."--Rockford Register.

Yes, a change of about $3 on the price of a gallon would possibly have a tendency to change public sentiment in regard to the use of vinegar, also. Then think of the difference in the quality of the whisky! Ugh!--Cherokee Democrat.

It appears that the more treacherous and meaner a man is in politics the bigger his reputation as a pillar of the party. When a favored disciple is given the "grapes" and forthwith proceeds to "lend aid and comfort to the enemy" he should be given the good swift kick that he doesn't always get.

A nice looking young man, wearing a brown mustache and a pair of blue eyes, called at this office last Saturday and informed us that there was something doing up at the court house, "a wedding from Randolph" and to please not print it in the paper. I told him we knew all about it; had seen them get off the train, etc. The y. m. seemed very much surprised to know that a newspaper man could learn so much without being told anything, but promised on a stack of bibles to "set 'em up" sometime if we would keep it out of the papers. How the fellow and his bride ever expected to get back to Randolph and not have "the news" printed on their faces is what puzzles by dad. "Know it?" why you would know they had been apliced from the way they lifted their feet off the ground.

Mark Hanna's spiel about being a union labor man is an infallible sign that another presidential campaign is about here. Mark is the greatest in the United States when it comes to fooling the laboring man.

By dad, if things don't "liven up a bit in town I'm going to cut this feature of the DEMOCRAT out. Or perhaps you think it's dead now.

In Memoriam

Mrs Lulu Mears Clubb was born in Greenell, Iowa, August 21, 1876. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mears, moved to Wayne, Neb., when Lulu was but six years of age. Here she grew up to young womanhood. She attended the Wayne High school, took special instruction in music at the Normal college and was a graduate in elocution of that institution. Five years ago she entered the nurses training school of the Samaritan hospital, Sioux City. At the end of two years she completed her course and entered upon the practice of her profession. This she followed with enthusiasm and success until her marriage to Mr. Harry H. Clubb of Sioux City. This happy event was celebrated at the home of the bride's parents in Wayne on Christmas day last. Last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, after a week of suffering, the patient spirit left the tired body. The funeral was held on Tuesday from the home in Wayne, and there with appropriate religious services, and in the presence of many relatives and friends and amidst a profusion of flowers her body was committed to the grave.

A brief life yet one which was full of service. A brief life but one not too brief to express many of the noblest types of young womanhood. First of all there was that love and thoughtfulness of parents for which parents long. The mother who watched so many days and nights by the bedside of the father who with anxious waited at home for each bit of news with hopes unrealized, find comfort in the thought that the daughter who went out from beneath the parental roof to win her way in the world was ever thoughtful of them and ever loved the old home. She was devoted to her profession. Into it she put her mind and heart. She aspired to be the best preparative and the best service. She had high ideals of her work; to do good was her thought. No wonder she was loved by her associates in the hospital and esteemed by the medical staff. In her last days of intense suffering the aid of the best surgical skill and the most careful nursing was lovingly rendered her. From patients to Iowa, Nebraska and Dakota sent inquiries, flowers and messages to one who, by her skillful nursing, had saved their lives and who, by her beautiful personality, had won their love. The marriage of the deceased to Mr. Clubb of Sioux City forms another chapter. Mrs. Clubb was less than four months a bride. The fragrance of the orange blossoms almost mingled with that of the flowers in memoriam. If life thought is measured by pulse beats and not by figures on the dial then the union was short. "Mamma won't get well so that I can live in our new home?" and "Oh Harry, I do so want to live to make you happy," expressed the hope of the new bride, which came into her life. By the bedside the devoted husband watched, hoped, prayed and--"bowed" passed under the rod. She bore her days of suffering, and with an unchristian faith. When she died she was in the Presbyterian church, she had since lived in the fellowship of the church. She could not understand the meaning of all her suffering but she could trust. With patience she bore her days of suffering, and with an unflinching trust approached the end. The end, yes, and the beginning. While the city slumbered and sorrowing loved ones stood round about, angels came and bore her sweet spirit to the great beyond.

Winside News:

(From the Tribune)

Mrs. Tracy and Miss Edith Jones visited relatives in Wayne last Saturday.

Mrs. John Larson of Wayne visited her friend Mrs. F. S. Tracy last Thursday.

H. A. Ramsey has accepted a position at Boone, Iowa, and has gone to that point.

The Sunday closing ordinance has been drawn up and will probably be acted on at the town board's next meeting.

Young Davis from near Carroll was taken to St. Mary's hospital some time ago to be treated for appendicitis and went through it all right, but now has the mumps.

Mrs. H. E. Siman has been ill this week with an attack of pteris.

Miss Nellie Ross was up from Wayne to attend the Woman's Club banquet and returned to her school duties Sunday afternoon.

Rev. Karpenstein of Wayne will preach in Trinity church next Sunday as Rev. Gehring was called to preach in Pierce, Neb., on that day.

Perrin Long surprised his Winside friends yesterday by coming to town, it being the first time since he was taken sick. Mr. Long looks thin and is rather weak but the trip to Colorado he is expecting to make will fix him all right.

Every town in the state asking for rural mail service apparently gets it except Winside and it is a query what Senator Millard is good for except to cash big drafts for men like Joe Bartley. The Winside petition was sent him last summer and that seems to end it.

Mrs. Cooper and daughter Florence, who have been in Winside for some time visiting Mrs. A. T. Chapin, who is Mrs. Cooper's sister-in-law, left yesterday for Wayne where they will visit for a while before returning to their home in Crawford, Nebraska.

August Wittler of Wayne was a welcome visitor at the Tribune office yesterday. Mr. Wittler is a member of the present efficient board of commissioners and will probably be re-elected next fall.

The Tribune has lost its very valuable correspondent at Hoskins and regrets it very much as he was an unusually good one and furnished a surprising list of news each week. He has quit writing for papers altogether so it is some satisfaction to know that our loss is nobody else's gain.

HOSKINS

Methodist whisky got a couple of young men in a little trouble the first of the week. Bad enough to pay for the stuff without paying for the consequences.

Mr. and Mrs. Capdor enjoyed a visit with a brother's family from near Wayne Thursday. Tillie Ferris is at Wayne working at the Claybaugh boarding house.

Rev. Kessler preaches next Sunday at the M. E. church.

To bad that, the Herald and Tribune could not get the best correspondents, but had to put up with any old thing. Well, we can't help it. We can't correspond for all the papers and are quite satisfied to send items to the DEMOCRAT.

Mr. and Mrs. Oldenburg were over in Pierce county calling on friends Tuesday.

Ernest Zutz of the Norfolk Bank was in town last week visiting his parents.

Louie Williams and Fred Ziemer attended the party at the Bell home north of town last Friday night.

Artie Weatherholt came over from Norfolk Monday to visit relatives.

We hear that the Tribune's correspondent was threatened with a horsewhipping for slander last Friday morning. Well, we guess it would not come amiss.

Born, April 14th, to Mr and Mrs C. Long, a son.

M. J. Dendlinger and wife, Mr and Mrs Otto Kuhl, Dr. Grunwald, Frank Phillips and Ralph Burbank went to Winside last Friday night to attend the dance.

Miss Ollie Elliott went as usual to her Winside home last Saturday and returned Sunday evening.

Louie Ziemer is away in the interest of the Milwaukee Machine Co.

Dr. Scruggs was called to Hoskins Tuesday to see Melvin Case who is much worse this week.

Ralph Burbank was calling on friends in town last Friday.

Louis Haag went to Foster last week to take the place of second man with the E. & B. lumber co.

The families of Geo. Weatherholt, Sherman Weatherholt and John Ziemer went to a party over at Geo. Miesky's near Melvin last Saturday evening.

The Tribune's correspondent forgot us last week while he had his days of slander and spite and revenge at "one who was there." Wonder who the unlucky creature was and who the stranger was who was in town enquiring for them.

C. T. Rohrke of Hader, who is at present traveling in the interest of the McCormick Machine Co. was in town Tuesday visiting with his nephew, R. G. Rohrke.

Geo. Colbert visited over night at the Strickland home last of the week.

Mr. Leary of the Winside livery barn was in town Monday.

There was a pleasant surprise party out at the Geo. Colbert home Wednesday night. A few from town were in attendance.

"Grandma" was very bad last Friday morning. We hear he is better now. This last spell is worse than any preceding.

The E. & B. Lumber Co. have in a big shipment of all kinds of building material and that assistant auditor is hustling for all there is in it. Oh well, Frank Phillips is alright and don't need the Tribune correspondent to boom him.

A tatter is as bad as a liar and a dog that will bring a bone will always carry one. To bad that the Tribunes correspondent can't find a thing to roast me about without lying and kicking up all my relatives, but he is good at all such dirty work.
