If you want your disease treated. Our work is entirely with causes of disease, as we find the sub-luxations in the vertebrae, causing dormant nerves that lead to your diseased organs. This is the reason for diagnosing your case from your spine. KIROPRACTIC science is entirely with causes. Chronic cases have their diseases treated for years. Why not let KIRO remove the cause, nature will do the rest—if it be one day or twenty years standing? Kiro is not a treatise on microbes, bacteria and bugs causing disease—but that they are simply there taking up the dead matter—therefor our organs become diseased from lack of nerve force on account of pinched nerves.

The Greatest Hog and Cattle Fattener

PRUSSIAN STOCK FOOD is acknowledged by all feeders and growers as the best. It makes hogs and shoats grow wonderfully fast. IT STARTS RUNTS GROWING and keeps them growing. Pigs will average 300 Pounds in six months.
CLEANS OUT WORMS AND PREVENTS CHOLERA!

38 STEERS FATTENED WITH PRUSSIAN STOCK FOOD
SOLD FOR EIGHT CENTS A POUND
March 27th, 1910, I bought a few bags of Prussian Stock Food. I had lost all hope of getting any more out of my stock. I put them in my feed and within a few days they were eating a lot of it. I had a cow that was very thin and I put her in with the stock. She ate a lot of it and soon became fat. I also had a pig that was very thin and I put him in with the stock. He ate a lot of it and soon became fat. I am using Prussian Stock Food and I can't say enough for it. It is the best I have ever used. I will feed it to all my stock from now on. I will feed it to all my stock from now on. I will feed it to all my stock from now on.

SAVED HOGS FROM CHOLERA.
Knapo-Curo Prevents Hog Cholera!
At this season of the year when cholera is liable to become prevalent, disinfect and kill the germs by spraying and sprinkling the hogs and pigs with the disinfectant. Write us for our special offer on 50 lbs. Prussian Stock Food and 1-2 gallon Prussian Knapo-Curo. If no reply in two weeks, we will send you a 50 lb. bag of Prussian Stock Food and 1-2 gallon Prussian Knapo-Curo. The Sioux City Journal says the Boston Bloomers "won a loose game" when the girls played in Sioux City.

More people in the United States are remembering the toy pistol with more acuteness than they are remembering the Maine.

After seeing a ladies' ball team play against a men's team, there is just one burning ambition left and that is to see two female aggregations bump into each other.

Mr. Cleveland is not raising Cain. He is raising boys—future presidents. It's hard to kill them off.—Sioux City Tribune.

Still its a good bet that if he doesn't raise "cane" now he won't raise any "future presidents."

The Norfolk News says tournament funds got low the first day of the firemen's meet, and a man named Winter went around to the saloons and got $10 from each. Perhaps he wouldn't have met with such a frost had his name been "Good Old Summer."

Bixby of the State Journal thinks that if Grover Cleveland wants to keep coils of fire on W. J. Bryan's head he should name that new baby William Bryan Cleveland. Mr. Bryan might not take it as a warm compliment, however.

Last year we had a governor who attended all the horse and live stock shows, and this year we have one who attends all the Methodist revivals. In other words, last year we had the south end of a horse going north, and this year—may we hope to have the north end of a horse going south.

The Wayne Herald says the people in that vicinity are not praying for rain. We wonder if the Herald editor would pray if they did need rain?—Pierce Call.

If the Herald editor would pray for it, it is undoubtedly the reason why the Almighty makes it so wet.
Once upon a time, says the Lyons Sun, a lady ordered her local paper stopped because she didn't like the color of the editor's wife's hair, or some like trivial offense. Later she had an item that she wanted to see in print and requested its publication. After the paper was out she repaired herself to a neighbor's to see the item and read the balance of the news. Some people are humorists and don't know it.

The Omaha Bee still hammers the railroad corporation tax dodgers, and at the same time hollers its head off for J. B. Barnes for supreme judge, a man who has been in line for the railroads and probably never off for supreme judge, and everybody who favors the tax dodging corporations should rah for Barnes to the echo.

The death of Pope Leo XIII brings a sense of sadness to all irrespective of creed or religion. The Pope was a grand old man, one of the really great men of the past century. To those who attain the highest earthly perfection comes the greatest heavenly reward. May Leo's soul rest in peace and eternal happiness. As the World-Herald says:

"We contemplate the death of a man whose influence on the largest single ecclesiastical organization in the world has been direct and supreme, and on the whole body of Christians and on the world, profound, for twenty-five years.

"It is the death of one whom an ancient and persistent polity, with a concurrence of the civil powers of the earth, ranked with the most powerful of temporal rulers, and by half of Christendom he was exalted high above them. He was a spiritual monarch reigning, as the claim is made, in the stead of Christ himself, over 250,000,000 willing subjects, a population surpassing that of the most considerable Christian nation in the world.

"We besides observe the demise of a venerable and kindly man who was solicitous to keep his splendid mental and physical powers usefully employed to the very last.

"I feel," said the dying pontiff, "that I have done all the good I could for the church and for the world," and both are likely to agree that the verdict which his resigned and satisfied spirit passed upon himself was the only verdict another could reach in consideration of his character and his deeds."

Hearing an old settler say the other day that the wet and the dry periods would come in Nebraska in cycles of anywhere from eleven to twenty years, Mr. Loveland went to work to find out how well the records would bear out this alleged experience. He took the South Platte region of Nebraska, all of its east of Adams and Webster counties, and figured out the rainfall for the growing months of April, May, June and July. Beginning with the dry year of 1877, he found two wet seasons, one dry one, then five wet summers in a row, followed by three dry ones. This brings us down to 1889, which was wet. The next year was dry, the next one was wet, and then came four dry seasons all together during the panic period, followed by plenty of rain in 1896. The following five summers all had less than the normal precipitation, while the next one, 1902, was wet. The normal rainfall for the three months is fourteen inches. Every year when the rainfall exceeded this is called wet, while those with less are marked dry. The recapitulation shows that fifteen of these years were dry and eleven were wet. "If you can get any cycle out of this," says Mr. Loveland, "you do well."

The death, recently, of Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnston, who was for many years associated with Washington social life, reminds the Washington Times of a very pretty story relating to that charming woman. It is said that when living in London with her uncle, James Buchanan, then United States minister to the court of St. James, an English nobleman who was very devoted in his attentions to the lovely Miss Lane was seated next her one evening at dinner at the house of Lord Blank. Miss Lane was noted for her beautiful hands, which were small and exquisitely proportioned, and, casting his eyes upon them, the Englishman softly quoted Grey's lines: "Hands that the rod of empire might have swayed;" and leaning back in his chair complacent in the knowledge that he had paid a graceful compliment, was somewhat disconcerted when the fair American smilingly replied: "Or waked to ecstasy the living lyre!"

You Bet!
Coleridge Blade: The Wayne Democrat seems to feel that the Hartington Herald favors the prosecution of T. F. Ziegler for partisan reasons and on the tit-for-tat theory recalls a republican defaulting treasurer who never paid back a cent nor spent a minute in durance vile, all of which may be true but two wrongs don't make a right. In matters of this kind it behooves the press to rise above partisan lines.

The Blade believes the Herald has been sincere in its course for these reasons: T. F. Ziegler was a democrat, two of the county commissioners are democrats, the county attorney is a democrat. To the people of Cedar county it will appear that as democrats these have all endorsed the Franklin pith to "hang together or certainly hang separately." But had an earnest effort been made to locate the guilty party, the democratic party locally would have cleared its skirts and have been in a position to command confidence. Were the Wayne Democrat on the ground and could it hear the democratic voters express their opinions about the way this Ziegler matter has been manipulated, it would not throw lurs at the Hartington Herald. The democratic party locally is "cocked" that's all, unless it betrays itself and how can the party do anything when its elected representatives sit back indifferently and Gould fashion say "The people be d—" and that they "don't expect to run for office any more anyway."

It's the duty of the press of Cedar county to stand for justice regardless of who is aggrieved. Men with a smack of democracy in them can't bring themselves to understand why some poor friendless man should go to the pen for two years for stealing a few old brass rings while a man who steals $25,000 from the public treasury should be shielded or perhaps lifted up on a joss altar and bowed down to.

We think the Wayne Democrat appreciates that sentiment.

After a fellow has taken some of the red hot days in other burges he's bound to believe that Wayne does things up about as brown as any of 'em.

The Dakota City Herald says: We have noticed that the very people who make sport of Editor McNeal because his daughter ran away with the true love of her heart, generally have daughters of their own that a cross-eyed man would not run away with for a million simoleons paid in hand.

A Minnesota editor has a gasoline engine. He is much impressed with it and comments on its qualities so the world may read the following chaste language, which will be highly appreciated by other manufacturers who have sat up nights with the same kind of little limb of Satan. He says:
"In the southeast corner of this ornate and beautiful print shop there sets, on a Portland cement pedestal, one of the pests of which you wail. Small and insignificant, black and greasy, the seven or eight pounds of iron and two or three wheels in its make up, contain more real simon-pure cussedness than a cargo of Missouri mules. For hours—long, weary hours—have we sat by it and on it and around it, and fixed this and that and this, only to have it remain inert, while the clock and the mail train went on. The dam in the river aids in making the mill go, while a thousand dams won't phase one of these piebald puerillanous contraptions.

WE ALL DRINK Schlitz THE BEER THAT MADE MILWAUKEE FAMOUS

In the Schlitz brewery you will find a plate glass room. In it are cooling pipes, over which the hot beer drips. Above it is an air filter, and no air comes into this room save through that filter. But, after the beer is aged, we filter it, then bottle and seal it, then sterilize every bottle.

We take triple precautions because beer is a saccharine product. Impurities multiply if they get into it. There is no grade between absolute purity and utter impurity. Every bottle of Schlitz is absolutely pure, and purity is healthfulness. Your physician knows—ask him.

BINDER RUNS OVER HIM

Homer Scace Comes Near Being Cut up Into Sausage

An experience that nobody would care to take over if sure of no worse results happened to Homer Scace last Sunday morning. Homer was going to try the binder on a field of five, on the farm adjoining town. He had made one circuit of the field and was on the second when the horse on the grain side switched its head around to scare off the flies, and caught its bridle on the harness of the other horse's harness, ripping the bridle off. The team started to run and Homer jumped off the seat and ran around to head the bridled horse when he animal knocked him down and the machine passed over him with the team on the jump. The lucky lad fell flat on the ground in front of the sickle and was practically unhurt, the knives cutting his cloths and barely drawing blood from one leg. The horse ran over a fence and the binder was all bound up. The accident makes a good text for a Sunday school lesson—if it had happened on a week day the young man would have been cut into fiddle strings.

Doc Cartwell and son Bill got home Saturday from the west, the latter on a visit and the former to stay in Wayne county as long as the Lord will let him. Doc was in several of the western states and in his own words, got a belly-ful of it. He says that whole country out there is nit. He saw Elgie Perrine and three Jones in Spokane, both of whom he is land business. Mr. Perrine has lost the sight of one eye in recent years but can still "show 'em." He also met the Girtons and other former Wayneites. Doc says he has no use for a country where they have to work both sides of it; give a guy rope to keep you from falling down the mountains while mowing a handful of feed, and then use a sled to slide the stuff into the shed. To make a long story short the fruit of the west is full of worms and the country full of prunes.

Wheeler & Wilson No. 9 Sewing Machine No. 9

The Rotary Hook displaces the old, out-of-date, unmechanical and troublesome shuttle.

The Frictionless ball bearings and perfect mechanical construction enable it to be operated with one-third less exertion than is required by ordinary machines. It sews three yards of goods while a shuttle machine sews two.

It makes the most elastic and most perfect stitch whether sewing light or heavy goods.

With our superior attachments the greatest variety of work is possible. Do not make the mistake of buying a sewing machine until you have given the Wheeler & Wilson No. 9 a trial.

"SUMMER FOOD" Has Other Advantages. Many people have tried the food Grape-Nuts simply with the idea of avoiding the trouble of cooking food in the hot months.

For two years I had been a sufferer from catarrh of the stomach due to improper food, and to relieve this condition I had tried nearly every prepared food on the market without any success until six months ago my wife purchased a box of Grape-Nuts, thinking it would be a desirable cereal for the summer months.

Would it be possible, he thought, to locate him in one of the unoccupied rooms, and then, when he offered, make his way out of the building? Then he figured that by this time the police would be acquainted with the manner of his escape, and having invested the building on all sides below, would proceed to investigate the inmates one by one as they had done on many a similar occasion.

Going to the end of the hall where he stood, he stepped down on the floor, and then he risked a leap, and even if such a thing could be accomplished in safety, he would only fall into the hands of the men who were lying in wait for him.

As he came out of this room, he thought he heard the sound of steps behind him, and he turned to see if they must have got on my trail," he muttered. "Well, the only thing to do is to try and reach the roof, perhaps by means of some other building. If not—well, I shall be caught."

As he approached the stair again the sound of the voices below became louder, and from the fragments of conversation that drifted up, he judged that the police were making an examination of the rooms on the lower floor.

He had reached the stairs again, and cautiously, that he might not awaken the sleepers, ascended them slowly. Whoever it was investigating the lower rooms, he did not take any notice of the noise, and fragments of what was said satisfied Job that the police were in the building.

He had not reached the upper floor, which, from the silence that prevailed, he judged to be unoccupied. There was a small iron ladder leading to the roof, and without a moment's hesitation, he climbed this, and opening the trap closed behind him on the roof.

He closed the trap carefully, and seeing a pile of old lumber near at hand, he placed himself behind it, and, with his strong arms, he piled them up. When he found that there was nothing else of a weighty nature that he could use, he turned to the window, and sat down on the pile of boards to consider his situation.

It was only a short piece, but he took it up tenderly, undid the knots and found that it was still of too short length to be of any use. He looked to the right end of the roof, and then saw below him a low building that looked as if it were a factory of some kind.

It was a long journey they made together, and Job was heartily glad that he had not been obliged to go out, for he had no desire for a run in the tired condition. He was still worrying his brains trying to recall where he had seen the man before, and ever the search eluded him.

They had reached the uptown residential district of the west side of the city, and Job was suddenly turned to the right, passing a narrow alleyway, and passed before a door set in a white wall, and began to fumble in his pocket for a key.

As he stood there with the light of a street lamp shining upon his face, Job Hendricks, out in the street, saw a man who he had never seen before, and he was looking at him as if trying to conceal his emotion.

PE-RU-NA IS ESSENTIAL TO WOMEN

Says Dr. M. C. Gee, of San Francisco. CONSTANTLY increasing number of physicians prescribe Pe-Ru-NA in their regular practice.

Pe-Ru-NA has performed so many wonderful cures in San Francisco, that it has become known as the valuable remedy. I have frequently advised its use for women, as it finds it assures regular and painless menstruation.

Pe-Ru-NA occupies a unique position in medical science. It is the only internal systemic catarrh remedy known to the medical profession today. Catarrh of every one will admit, is the cause of one-half the diseases which afflict mankind.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-Ru-NA, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

AT AHERN'S

BY DAVID

The circus is coming.

Wayne Herald: Now that the cruel war is over and the excitement has abated, let the angel of peace hover over the natives of the city. Especially those who live on the gossip afforded through the mistakes of others and forget their own, as they toil with an imaginary God in a vain effort to hypnotize Christianity. What a mockery is the phrase, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

To which one of "the cruel wars" do you refer, Mac?

John M. Thurston fell off a dam at Coney Island, N. Y., yesterday and was almost drowned. The dispatches state "the soon recovered when taken out of the water," but do not say what he said to the Rose, oh, Rose, when he arose.

According to the Norfolk News one of the chief attractions at the firemen's tournament was a wild girl "who is the lowest type of femininity that was ever turned loose." Turned loose? Why aren't all your wild girls "loose" all the time?

"The Kansas girls are shocking," says an exchange. Well, it's all in the grain.

Bixby says not to be afraid of lightning; if it hits you you will never know it. That's what makes a fellow afraid—never knowing it.

A country exchange, in speaking of the death of a prominent citizen, says: "From the first there was no hope as he had the best physicians in town." An editor will tell the truth occasionally unconsciously.

Yes, Albert, it is true that all of the real swell ladies' half have clocks on them, but they don't put hands on the clocks.—Cherokee Democrat.

Well, it is possible to have good time without hands, by dad.

It was the same price—ten cents—to see the calf in the tent on Main street or at the basketball game, last Saturday night.

The Norfolk News thinks Gov. Mickey has too much religion in him to be sound to the core, and says: Governor Mickey, like his predecessor, is quite a hand to attend meetings, but unlike his predecessor he does not attend live stock shows and bull fights, but makes a specialty of Epworth Leagues and other religious gatherings, and really between the two styles of meetings, it is not unlikely that the people of the state would appreciate the present governor's taste the best.

Ed. Smith says the DEMOCRAT was away off on Hidden Fortune talk last week when it said the Wayne holders had sold out at 35 cents per share. Ed says he sold a bunch of it at 35, another lot at 30, some at 27, and would be glad to close out at 28. The missing proposition was evidently well named—for the fellows who can't see through it.

"Now, what would you think" said a resident of "piety" bill the other day, "if when walking beneath the trees near your home in the early morning you should see where all the grass hadn't been tramped down; should pick up a newspaper with a well-known married man's name on it, and also a lady's hair pin?" Well, I rather guess we'll just take it all out in thinking, but the man who lost the paper can recover it by getting particulars at this office.

One of the last letters written by the late Atlee Hart of Dakota City was to an old friend, Lee M. Warner, Caddo, I. T. In it Hart said: "Have had all kinds of grief and trouble. Got my leg broken in October, had pleuro-pneumonia in November, mother died in December, got ligament of ankle tore loose in January, grip in February and hurt my back in March—the Lord only knows what next will happen." The Lord may or may not have known what next would happen, but at all events He called Atlee to his eternal home a month or so lately.

A good yarn is told on a certain married man who thought he had solved the servant girl question. He formed a pact with the girl, that is, he was to give her four dollars a week for her services while his wife supposed the girl was only getting three. All went smoothly until the girl got to bragging to her co-laborers, and then her girl friends began to kick for $1 per, so-and-so was getting that much, etc. Interested parties went to the certain married man's better-half to object to a $4 precedent being established, and she said "it taint so," and the girl said "it is too," and when the "old man" was called on the carpet he had to dance to a merry tune with words of his own composition. Perhaps it's safer after all to let the old lady do her own housework, by dad.

As an evidence of the strenuous fight the local papers put up to get "news" to print these days just notice the time we had getting Byron Hoile home from Seattle. Last Friday the DEMOCRAT thought it had a "scoop" when it stated that Byron would be home the following Saturday, but the Republican passed up any such formalities as time and truth and not only stated Byron was home, but that he was looking fine and was glad to get back. However, the young man appears to have had a notable and printable career getting home, as the following batch of telegrams picked up at Harrington's last evening would indicate:

Seattle, 7-15-1903. To my friends at Wayne, Neb. Will leave for home today.

BYRON HOILE. Salt Lake, 7-17-1903. To my friends, Wayne, Neb. Will spend Sunday here with the Mormans.

BYRON HOILE. Salt Lake, 7-18-1903. To my friends, Wayne, Neb. Will leave for Denver tonight. Got seven wives.

BYRON HOILE. Denver, 7-20-1903. To my friends, Wayne, Neb. Arrived here this morning. Landed in jail for bigamy.

BYRON HOILE. Pike's Peak, 7-21-1903. To my friends, Wayne, Neb. Have cold feet.

BYRON HOILE. Denver, 7-22-1903. To my friends, Wayne, Neb. Will get home Thursday evening or Friday morning.

BYRON HOILE. And he got here last night.

No telling what may get you this hot weather, but the best thing for cholera morbus or snake bite is to have a bottle of O. O. P., Oscar Pepper, sold by Herman Mildner.

The DEMOCRAT is told that Mrs. Nuremberger of Leslie residence has purchased the Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, now occupied by the doctor.

Mrs. Lucy Buffington joins the Sherman Stock Co. of Minneapolis August 15th. Miss Buffington has been in poor health of late months but she now starts out with a good company.

SOCIETY NOTES

The Lutheran church people had a most enjoyable picnic out at Bressler's grove yesterday.

Messdames Ed. Mitchell and J. J. Williams drove to Laurel yesterday to visit Mrs. J. Tower.

Dr. Sisson will occupy the M. E. pulpit next Sunday.

Miss Bertha Armstrong has made a contract to travel with the Sherman Stock Co. of Minneapolis as pianist. This is the same company Miss Buffington will play with. The DEMOCRAT hopes Wayne will get a date.

Mrs. A. G. Mettlen of Brenna assisted by Mrs. W. M. Krielder gave a very delightful party to her lady friends last Thursday p. m. Ice cream, cake, and lemonade being served at five o'clock. The ladies all went home feeling it was good to get together occasionally to drive dull care away.

Tuesday evening was an ideal one for the brilliant reception given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Philco, in honor of their youngest son, Edward, and his bride.

The guests were met at the door by Master Frederick Philco while Master Epler showed the way to the dressing rooms and to the reception room upstairs where a large number of presents were displayed.

In the front parlor Mr. and Mrs. R. Philco with the bride and groom received the large number of guests who showered congratulations on the proud and happy looking groom and wished much happiness to the smiling bride who looked very sweet in her wedding gown of white. The house decorations were exceptionally beautiful, sweet peas and green being the prevailing color scheme. The alcove in the back parlor was like a fairy bower with its draperies of feathery green and here Miss Gamble in a pretty decolette gown of pink presided over the punch bowl. Messdames Epler and Damon assisted by the Misses Beckenhauer and Benschoff served refreshments in the dining room. The hostess was further assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Fred Philco, Miss Jennie Bayer and Miss Clara Philco.

Several choice selections were given during the evening by the fine vocalists present which were very much enjoyed.

Among the out of town guests were noticed Mr. and Mrs. George Philco of Carroll, Mrs. Mickel and Miss King of Omaha, Miss Southworth of Minneapolis, Miss Baker of Crete, Mrs. Wheeler of Sioux City and Miss Stringer of Lincoln. The young people will be home in their cottage on the north side Aug. 1st.

HOSKINS

A good many Hoskins people were at Norfolk Tuesday to witness the opening of the tournament and as the Hoskins Hose company were to participate in the parade, were all more or less interested in same. It came as a surprise that the Hoskins fire department was far ahead in all ways of any other company in the parade. There was nothing there that could approach them and the word was passed around the many spectators present that Hoskins was sure winners of the first prize but when it came to the committee composed of Norfolk men and men from other towns, they only received 3d place, which was a great injustice as every one on the ground knew Hoskins was fairly and honestly entitled to first place. Under those circumstances 3d money was nothing short of an insult and the boys should have thrown it in the committee's face and gone home. Of course Norfolk gave them a nice little puff in their local newspaper and tried to soothe them with an invitation to be escorted by the band to the river side and there give an exhibition of throwing water. In fact, did everything but what it was Hoskins right to expect, first money in parade. Grand Island had no right to first prize, but Grand Island is a big town and got it all the same. Hoskins is a cipher in Norfolk estimation and now they know it. Hoskins got the seat of his pants beautifully kicked Tuesday but it did not deter the majority of the town going up Wednesday and Thursday and pouring their money into Norfolk's coffers.

Kate Waddell was home Sunday and to Norfolk Monday.

Hoskins was well represented at Norfolk Tuesday and Thursday.

Jennie Waddell returned Saturday from a two weeks visit at Wayne, Wausa and Carroll.

Mrs. Ferris and children went to her parents home near Norfolk Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oldenburg, Jim Benish and Tillie Ferris were passengers to Norfolk Monday evening.

M. J. Dendinger was at Sioux City last Thursday.

Mrs. Antha Case celebrated her birthday with a party of relatives and friends.

Gus Schroeder returned from Courtland last Friday.

Mrs. B. E. Fenner and Selina went to Sac City, Iowa, last Saturday to visit relatives and returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Mettlen returned to Wayne Saturday after a two weeks visit with her daughter Mrs. Candor.

Mrs. M. J. Dendinger and children went to Norfolk Monday to visit during Firemen's Tournament.

Railroad Rumblings

A special to last night's Sioux City Tribune, from Lincoln, reads:

The fight naturally divides along the line of the Hill-Harriman railroad lines. Years ago the Union Pacific landed John M. Thurston in the United States Senate, after a long and stubborn faction in state politics has been the Burlington and for ten years its way has been undisputed. Under the direction of the Burlington politicians, the state was retrieved from Fusionism.

But now the Union Pacific, the Northstar and the Rock Island forces have rallied. The organization of the legislature of the last session of the legislature was a compromise between the North Platte, the Union Pacific territory; and the South Platte or Burlington section. Discord and strife were manifested all through the session and the house and senate frequently disagreed.

At the recent convention held in Lancaster county, the Burlington leaders unmasked their batteries, Judge J. B. Barnes of Norfolk was endorsed for supreme judge and it was indicated that a regent might also be named from the same section of the country. The choice of Judge Barnes will undoubtedly be made unanimous when the convention meets in Lincoln August 18.

All this is the clever maneuvering of the South Platte men to gain the advantage in the senatorial contest of 1904. They will then insist that the Platte country has been recognized and the South Platte with forty-five of the 133 members of the legislature and more than half of the approximate republication majority will stand for a South Platte man.

Senator Dietrich of Hastings, Congressman E. J. Burckett of Lincoln and J. P. A. Black of Bloomington, are in a Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Lays, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hemorrhages and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could notice a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize I am entirely cured." This remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

Mr. Dietrich will undoubtedly have opposition from the other two and the Union Pacific men are credited with a desire to make a raid and capture the senatorship for an aspirant in northwest Nebraska and thus establish the old time Union Pacific supremacy.

The Burlington men are on the alert, and this is the cause of the gallant after-you-my-dear-Alphonse attitude of the South Platte men on the judgeship question.

Yellow Jacket. A preacher came at a newspaper man in this way: "You editors do not tell the truth. If you did you could not live; your newspaper would be a failure." The editor replied: "You are right, and the minister who will at all times and under all circumstances tell the whole truth about his members, alive or dead, will not occupy his pulpit more than one Sunday, and then he will find it necessary to leave town in a hurry. The press and the pulpit go hand in hand, with whitewash brushes and pleasant words magnifying little virtues into big ones. The pulpit, the pen and the gravestone are the great saintmaking triumvirate." And the great minister went away looking very thoughtful, while the editor turned to his work and told of the surprising beauty of the bride, while in fact she was as homely as a mud fence.

The DEMOCRAT has no "sliding" scale of prices on job printing. Every patron gets the same figures. We do not cut on one customer and then take advantage of the next one to make it up.

Good Short Stories

The other morning a man who, from his dress and speech, had the appearance of being an Englishman, entered a Broad street cafe and, approaching the bar, asked for a "half and half," says the Philadelphia Ledger.

It seems the bartender was a young man new to the business, but he did the best he knew how, and set out the drink. The customer smiled, looked critically at the beverage, tasted it, and then asked, "Where is the porter?"

"Out washing the windows, sir," cheerfully responded the bartender.

Andrew Carnegie tells a story on an American in Scotland that illustrates well the imperturbability of the Scotch temperament, says the Boston Post.

The American, a bicyclist, came to the shore of a lonely lake and saw in a boat a man examining the depths of the water with a water telescope. The man conducted this examination languidly. He would pause every little while to light his pipe and to converse on the weather or some such indifferent subject with a friend who sat upon the bank, now reading a newspaper and tossing pebbles idly into the stream.

The American got off his bicycle to rest, and in the interval of silence he said to the man seated on the bank:

"What is your friend looking for? Oysters?"

"No. My brother-in-law," was the reply.

W. J. Lampton, who has had some experience in Breathitt county and other sections of the feud land of Kentucky, was talking about the peculiarities of the mountaineers, says the New York Times.

"One day," said he, "I was making inquiries about a man who had been recommended to me as suitable for a rather responsible position, but whom I had never heard of."

"He isn't a very well known man in the community, is he?" I asked.

"'Mebbe he ain't knowed ez well ez 'ome,' was the response in a tone of apology, 'for he hain't killed nobody yit, but he's mighty promisin'."

An old lady recently bargained with a cabman standing outside Colchester railroad station to take her into the town, says Tit Bits.

The sun being agreed upon the same repaired into the station and soon reappeared with two parrots in cages, which he handed up to the cabman. Again she journeyed to the platform and brought out two cats. A third trip she made bringing back a daintily dressed fox terrier and a fourth expedition was interrupted by cabby exclaiming:

"Beggins' your pardon, ma'am, but you ain't expecting a flood, I hope?"

"Dear me, no," was the reply; "whatever made you ask that question, cabby?"

"Oh, it's all right, ma'am, said John. 'I thought I'd ask 'cos I ain't certain as 'ow my 'orse can swim, and I fancied by the look of your baggage that you were 'a'inkin' my keb for a Noah's ark.'"

We have them all at the DEMOCRAT office. Four distinctive lines and they are beauties. We can save purchasers just about 40 per cent on these goods from canvassers' prices. There is a big discount on all this stuff, and it is that discount the traveling salesman lives on. All the DEMOCRAT makes is reasonable cost of printing. We have a line of goods that are only put in the printers' hands. Call at office, or when not busy phone the DEMOCRAT and we'll bring around the samples.

A Most Liberal Offer

All our former readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we give this year make, which includes this paper The Iowa Homestead, its Special Farmers' Institute Editions and the Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their kind. We add, for local, county and general news, our own paper, and make the four one year only $1.25. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named, which we club with our own, are well known throughout the West and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Iowa Homestead is the greatest agricultural and live stock paper of the west. The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer, while the Special Farmers' Institute Editions are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this real offer, as it will hold good for a short time only. Samples of these papers may be examined by calling at this office.
