

School Books

Adopted by the Wayne County officers association, on sale at Wholesale Price. Also make Exchange at Publishers rates.

- Crayons Note Books Slates
- Inks Pads Busywork
- Pens Penholders Papers
- Dictionaries School Organs

A large line of School Supplies always on hand.

M. S. DAVIES
Book and Music House.

See Us FOR Builders' Hardware

Let us figure on your bill; We can save you money. We have the best line of PAINTS in this town and are prepared to prove it.

If you want a Top Buggy, Spring Wagon, Surrey, Farm Wagon, or Truck we can fix you out, both as to PRICE and QUALITY, just a little better than anybody in Wayne. If you don't believe it call and see. STOUATON WAGON, BEST THERE IS. We have cheaper wagons, however, if you want them.

TERWILLIGER BROS.

Jones' Book Store

THE PLACE TO GET

School Supplies.

Everything the School Needs

WE SUPPLY THE

SCHOOL BOOKS.

Adopted for use in Wayne County. Call on us for

Desks, Dictionaries, Crayons Etc

Jones' Book Store

OTTO A. VOGET

Late of Stern's Conservatory of Music, Berlin, Germany.

will make Wayne his place of residence and desires to take some pupils for private instruction on Violin and Piano.

Call at Music Department Jones Book Store, Wayne, Neb.

Henry Giese went to Jefferson, S. D., yesterday to visit his parents.
Do you own a Threading Machine? Lease it in the Northern Fire Insurance Company. A. N. MATHENY.
W. H. Billiter of Carroll was the only passenger to the state fair at Lincoln yesterday.
The Malleable heats more water, bakes quicker with less fuel than any other.
Butter and eggs wanted at Gandy's.

BESSIE AND BLUNT.

He is "Worn and Thin," While She Still Hits the High Places.

HE HAULS HER TO THE POLICE.

And the "Old Man" is Galled From Wayne, but Love isn't so Warm as it Was—Last Summer.

(From Last Night's Tribune.)

Although barely two months have passed since they were married at the parsonage of the First M. E. church in Sioux City, following a sensational elopement, in which the bride escaped from her home in male attire and was arrested at South Sioux City, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Blunt are deep in domestic difficulties.

Yesterday the husband, smarting with jealousy and suspicion, roughly seized his pretty young wife as she was walking down Fourth street and dragging her into the jewelry store of W. H. Beck demanded that the police be telephoned.

"Send for an officer," he called loudly. "I want this woman taken to the station."

Mrs. Blunt protesting vigorously demanded to be released.

"Let me go," she cried. "I won't go to the station."

Mr. Beck ordered Blunt to leave, informing him that no disturbance would be permitted in the place.

He His Own Politician
"If I can't get an officer from here I'll take you to the station myself," Blunt shouted.

He tightened his grip on her wrist and pulled her through the door into the street. Linking his arm in hers he started for the station, and despite her objections headed her there and into the office of Captain Anderson, where he declared he would prefer charges against her.

Mrs. Blunt, her black eyes snapping fire, demanded to know the reason for the outrage. Captain Anderson said he didn't know.

"Why, this man is insane with jealousy," she said, pointing a stinging finger at her husband, who stood by scowling. "He's crazy. He accuses me of all sorts of things and I'm bothered to death."

"You're only 17 years old," Blunt shouted, "and it's time with your acting up that the police took care of you."

Captain Anderson sent Blunt out of the room while he talked over the trouble with the wife. She said never since their marriage July 8, her husband had acted queer.

They Parted Sunday.
"Why I can't speak to a man but he gets mad," she said, "and he's grown so worn and thin too, I hardly know him. We had frequent spats and last Saturday he threatened to leave me. He bought a new gap and I believed what he said. Sunday I went to stay with a friend, Mrs. Anna Hutchinson, who lives near the corner of Grand and Stephen streets. I've been there ever since and haven't tried to hide at all."

Blunt for more than two weeks has been harassing Chief Davenport and trying to get him to take Mrs. Blunt in charge. He declined to swear out a warrant and the police would have nothing to do with the case.

Chief Davenport, who attended the wedding, told the young man not to make a fool of himself, but he persisted in calling up by phone and annoying the chief almost to the point of distraction. The row terminated in the disappearance of Mrs. Blunt Sunday, since which time Blunt has been trying to locate her, while not busy with his work at Seymour's laundry where he went to work shortly after the marriage.

Her Father Called Here.

After Blunt and his wife had told their stories the chief advised them to make up. Mrs. Blunt didn't appear willing to meet her husband half way, but they left the station together, Mrs. Blunt afterwards going to the Hutchinson residence, while Blunt wired to his wife's father, W. H. McNeal, postmaster and editor of the Wayne Herald, to come on and help settle the trouble. Mr. McNeal arrived last evening and after a conference with the police was told where he might find his daughter. The husband had been kept in ignorance of her whereabouts.

This morning Mr. McNeal had a conference with his daughter, but what decision was reached is not known. Up to noon the couple had not been reunited.

This is the culmination of a romance which began early in July. Blunt was working for a laundry at Wayne and became acquainted with Bessie McNeal, a girl barely 17 years of age. They met clandestinely, in opposition to the wishes of Mr. McNeal, and on the evening of July 6, Bessie defied her boy's clothing jumped into a rig furnished by her lover and fled with him to Wakefield, where they boarded a train, taking a seat in the smoker.

They Were Married Next Day.

The disguise worn by Bessie was so transparent that the passengers soon were aware of the situation and when Blunt and the girl stepped from the train at South Sioux City they were taken in charge, on orders of Mr. McNeal, by Marshal Kloster. Blunt was locked up and later he and his bride were taken back to Wayne, where the affair was adjusted and Mr. and Mrs. McNeal gave their consent to the marriage.

Mrs. McNeal came here with the young folks and after a good deal of shrimping found Rev. O. A. Norem, who performed the marriage at the First M. E. church parsonage, Rev. Dr. McKaig being absent.

While the guests were waiting for the minister Blunt went out for a walk and becoming confused lost his way and didn't arrive at the house until his bride had fainting and Chief Davenport and Maron Thurston had been sent for. The wedding was finally celebrated, Chief Davenport gave his blessing and the young couple remained in Sioux City.

Blunt went to work for Seymour's laundry. They took rooms at Brown's boarding house, corner of Seventh and Douglas streets, and until the present difficulty have lived there.

The boarder knowing Blunt was jealous, he have chafed him unmercifully and this together with his other troubles drove him to seek his wife in broad daylight and drag her to the station.

You can break engagements and your word but you can't break the Malleable Range.

"The Racket" is looking and preparing for a big fall trade. New goods have been arriving every day for the last month, and this week Mrs. S. R. Theobald is in Chicago, buying Ladies' Wraps, Tailor made Suits, Dress Goods, Waistings, and novelties. When these goods arrive, which will be in a week or two, their stock will be thoroughly up-to-date, and complete in every detail. No more complaints given out after Oct. 7.

THE RACKET.

The general public as well as the democrats have reason to defeat the election of Charles Beebe as county clerk this fall. Such a contingency insured the supremacy of John T. Bressler as Grand High Chief of the county's official business; it gives W. H. McNeal practically a cinch on all there is in sight; and the devil alone knows how much more. While we all admit Mr. Beebe is a nice man, etc., he has never failed upon any occasion, in the knowledge of the DEMOCRAT, to show his most abject allegiance to Boss Bressler, and the latter's little man Friday, McNeal.

Users of Malleable Ranges will have no use for chalk in the hereafter.

Egg-O See at Gandy's.

Barking Dogs :

Never, or hardly ever bite so you can notice it, even if they are "hungry" and whining for—a little advertising. We want everybody to know that the

Big, Closing Out, Sacrifice Sale

at our store is a "hammer" and the goods are moving out with a gratifying rapidity. The public appreciates a good thing when they see it, and there has never been a "bigger snap" put before the Wayne county people. Join the crowd and get a great big stock of good goods for mighty little money.

Prices That Talk Out Loud!

Dress Goods Department

25, 30, 35 to 50 cent goods, all go at 21 cents
55, 60, 65, 75 to 80 cents, all in this sale at 47c
All 10-12½ and 15c waist goods at 5c per yard
All 15-20-25 to 32 waist goods at 10c per yard
All Calico's 5c per yard
Children's dresses for 25c
Shirt waists for 25c
Ladies Wrappers 50c
Carpet, Rugs, Lace Curtain, Matting and Linolums at Big Reductions

In Our Shoe Department

We will sell you:
$2.00, $2.50 and $2.75 men's shoes for $1.00
$1.25, $1.50 and $1.75 men's work shoes 95c
$1.50, $1.75 and $2.00 men's shoe 85c
$1.50, $2.00, $2.50 and up to $3.00
Ladies' shoe for $1.00,
$1.00, $1.25 to $2.50 Ladies' shoes 65c
75c to 1.25 Boys' for 50c

IN MEN'S HATS we can fit you out with the cheapest headgear you ever wore. Straw Hats 10 and 15c. Men's and Boy's fur hats 75c, $1, $1.50 and $2 Hats for 50c. $1.50, $2, $2.50 hats all at $1.00, $2.50, $3.00 and $3.50 hats, to be closed out at once for only $1.50. These hats are good styles.

Grocery Department

Sugar $5.50 a sack
Wagner Tomatoes 10c a can
Blair corn, 3 cans for 25c
3 pkg. of Egg-O-See for 2c
2 pkg. Grape-nuts for 25c
2 pkg. Cream of Wheat for 25c
Crackers N. B. C. soda box 6½
5 lb. pkg. Oatmeal 20c
In fact everything in Grocery Department at Big Sacrifice

Crockery Department

White ware Glass ware and decorated ware
Covered Turine 50c
Plates 25 and 40c a set
Large Bowls 10c
Cups and Saucers 35c a set
Odd dishes at 5c, 10c and 15c
In fact, everything at almost ½ marked price

Just a Short Time

Is left us to close out this big stock. Don't fail to see it. You don't have to buy what you do not want, and your money refunded for anything not exactly as represented. Bring in your butter and eggs, and get highest prices.

MOST RESPECTFULLY YOURS,

WILSON BROS.

The Fact That

We have not been in the Hardware and Plumbing business long makes little difference to any one, nor will it when we have been in business 25 or 50 years. It is the price that counts. We have justly earned the reputation of being lowest in price and we propose to hold it.

If You are Building See Peterson & Berry.

want Tools
Paint (Patton's Sun Proof) ditto
Range, Stove or Heater, a Furnace
Plumbing

Peterson & Berry

