

What Have We To be Thankful For

Next Thursday is the day set for all the American people to return thanks to Almighty God for the blessings they have received during the past year. We believe every one has good reason this year to be thankful. If you do not remember anything that you should be thankful for look over the following list: If you are alive you have reasons to be thankful. If you have a wife and she lives with you, you should be thankful. If she has left you, buy a new suit here and she will come back. If you are sick you should be thankful that you can buy Staley Underwear of us and get well. If your wheat failed, you should be thankful that you have corn and that you can buy the right kind of clothing of us to husk it. If your hogs died of cholera you ought to be thankful that your cattle are alive and that our calf skin coats are within your means. If your business has not been successful the past year you should be thankful that ours was, for with a small sum you can be clothed here. If you are going to be married you have reason to be thankful, for if you buy your wedding out-fit here your wife will never leave you. If you did not make any money the last year you ought to be thankful that we did not bust, for a dollar will buy more here than elsewhere. Think it over and you will find reasons to be thankful to God for the many blessings you have received. If you trade here you will prosper and enjoy good health, for which everyone should be thankful.

There was something doing down the line last Saturday when John Mala, a white man from Noraky claimed he had been robbed of fifty dollars. Mala hails from Boyd county and had been out shucking corn south of town. Some of the boys who had been next to him for the drinks began to get shy, when Marshal Miner was called in and going through the husker's pockets found four ten dollar gold pieces and some silver. That settled the question of having been touched, and Mala proceeded to have a good time. Going out of town he fell out of his rig, and upon coming back the marshal got him again for a night's lodging, and Squire Feather donated a fine in police court next morning.

IOWA GETS NO MEMBER

Cousins Fails to Land a Place on the Ways and Means Committee.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Iowa will not be represented on the ways and means committee of the new congress.

Speaker Cannon announced the committee today. The list of members of Iowa is not included in the list.

A strong effort has been made to secure for Cousins the place which, it was claimed, Iowa ought to have, which it lost when Dooliver was promoted to the senate.

Dooliver had by far the largest vote toward the long service claimant. Cousins failed to get the promotion. Speaker Cannon is not particularly in sympathy with that faction in the party, and it is said he cannot be expected to favor Cousins.

Cousins fails to get the coveted promotion. Had he been placed on the committee it is said Cousins aimed to make himself one of the principal voices of the standstill party.

Speaker Cannon announced the ways and means committee as follows: New York, Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, Grosvenor of Ohio, Tawney of Minnesota, McCall of Massachusetts, and C. C. Calver of California.

Advertising Rates

The three Wayne papers have made an agreement to charge a uniform price for all advertising and job work. Rates have not been advanced, especially, the object being to avoid "cutting prices" and give every patron of the papers equal service for the money expended.

Hereafter we will charge 25 cents for cards of thanks; 5 cents per line for all letters of condolence, resolutions of respect, etc. 3 cents per line for all church entertainments, dinners, suppers, etc, where the object is to raise money.

The rate to transients for display advertisements will be 10 cents per inch per issue for a month, and 20 cents for single issue. Locals 5 cents per line.

Absolutely no deviation made from above rates.

The Norfolk News should change its tune of "Stand up for Nebraska," to "Go to the penitentiary for it."

This is the time of year when a man begins to fear that his wife will decide to buy him a box of cigars for a Christmas present and leave the selection to the shopkeeper.

Once in a while you will see a young man running in debt just to show the other chap that his credit is good. In a few short years the other chap will have the best credit.

In the east the fashion now is to have the stockings dyed to have the exact shade of the gown so that when the skirts are lifted the eye is not offended by contrasting colors. That may be all right for a lot of spindle-shank-ed society heifers, but for the girl with the trim ankle the fashion is not likely to become popular.

All over the country the railroads and manufacturing concerns are laying off men and cutting down expenses in every way possible, and yet many people who have good jobs are dissatisfied and strikes continue. There will be many empty stockings the coming Christmas and many hungry stomachs before the winter is over.

Yardell Outlook: In his message the chief executor President Roosevelt treats only with the Cuban treaty. He avers that the Cubans are trying hard to do justice to the United States, and are adapting our rules of government and have done astonishing changes, and is fast coming to the front since peace was restored and they became a nation.

The momentous question, "Does the union man violate the mandates of trade unionism when he allows his wife to mend a rent in his overcoat," was debated in a heated way by the Central Labor union of Philadelphia. The decision of the union was finally in the affirmative and the overworked housewife is relieved of another link of the chain of domestic slavery. The union man's wife is still permitted to prepare his meals and saw the wood, though there are organized cooks and sawyers. Her emancipation comes along slowly, says the Sioux Falls Press.

The First National bank at Lyons was "cracked" for $1500 early Tuesday morning, the robbers making their get-away in gaudy shape.

If Senator Dietrich is innocent there is something very rotten in Nebraska politics, and there may be, anyway.—Sioux City Journal.

And if guilty! Simply another indication that the state has been redeemed?

Twenty men from twenty different parts of the state found true bills against Senator Dietrich, and yet such things as Edward Roseward have the nerve to stand up and say the indictment was simply the result of a political scrap.

The Sioux City papers announce the anti-saloon league there has about concluded to give up the work and leave it to the officers to enforce the laws. And it might be said that the latter have apparently at least been the more successful in working a graft.

The signs of the time say this is the opportunity to quit going into debt; pay up what you owe, and get ready for a season of closeness in the money market. About everything you buy may perhaps be from ten to twenty per cent cheaper ten months hence. Your credit, at least, will not be worth any more.

If these reports about Senator Dietrich have been given circulation to discredit him at home and abroad, it is a dastardly piece of business. If he is guilty of having accepted cash for federal appointments the people of Nebraska who elected him governor were as wickedly deceived as was the Hastings banker who paid $13,000 for a wedge of potential containing gold to the value of $6.75.—Bixby.

Don't you fool yourself, nor try to fool the people. There wasn't a man voted for Dietrich for governor deceived in any particular. Dietrich was a republican; never mind his color.

Republican papers and republican politicians are loath to believe that Dietrich, quick Dietrich is guilty of selling postoffice appointments. But what they really mean by this presumption is that the senator, if guilty, will not be proven so, and is therefore innocent. The Democrat is satisfied beyond any reasonable doubt that taking bribes for securing official appointments in the government service is almost as common as riding on railroad passes when elected by the people to legislate against the railroads, and one is as bad as the other, and there are plenty of populists and democrats who would turn the trick just as quickly as a republican would do so.

The Enforcement league at Arlington, S. D., is up against a rather curious proposition. The Sun, published at that place, says: "The Enforcement league is up against a rather curious proposition. Mr. Angle, one of the detectives employed by the league, deposed that he had played poker at the gambling house which the league was after, and had won money over the table, and afterwards had lost a considerable amount more than he had at first won. He claimed on the witness stand that he was promised his expenses by the league, and as that must include his losses, will that mean his total losses, or the net? If merely the net, then they become a party to the game on account of his gains, and if the total, they become his stakers, with no part in the winnings. If the league is going to buck the tiger it will pay them to hire men who can't net them a little now and then. It would be too bad if the church societies were compelled to begin to hold sociables to make up the deficit. We have an opinion that the league's idea of expenses did not include a stack of whites and reds for backing a hotball flush against an ace full."

"Some people are expressing sorrow for Judge Sullivan," says the Pender Times. "Don't do it. Sullivan is a young man, possesses one of the best legal minds in the state, has been chief justice of this great commonwealth without the aid or consent of any railroad on earth. From a $2500 salary from the state, he will readily acquire a practice of many times that amount. Don't worry about Sullivan but shed your tears for poor old corporation ridden Nebraska."

A lady contributor to the Coleridge Blade, thusly rips a few slits into the thing called "man."

Passing discussion of the abstract right of mankind to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness and granting that the lords of creation somehow have a right to order women's privileges, and purely as a public policy, I think women voting would be of great benefit to men. The average man is wholly lacking in moral courage. He can fight the physical battles but how few men dare to openly denounce that which they know is wrong if such a stand threatens the loss of a little trade, or the ridicule of neighbors? The average man is such a concealed mortal that he thinks he is a little better than a god and would feel mortally hurt if everyone did not consider him a "good fellow." He will come home and unburden himself at a great rate in the bosom of his family and anyone'd think him a perfect lion but it generally turns out that he is merely "An ass in a lions skin," for when he comes out to face the world he is as meek as a snow bird at a cat fair. It is really too bad that the average man is such a moral coward and the suggestion by "A Subscriber" that men's wives go to the polls and "fix" their hubbies' ballots is a bright idea. For goodness knows they need someone to steady their nerves and usually turn to the man behind the whisky bottle.

Man's cowardice is alone sufficient reason for woman's right to vote as a good public policy. Look around you at the things that do vote. Isn't it a shame! The argument that a woman couldn't vote and run a house is about as sane as to say a man can't vote and run a barn.

The "trail of the serpent" which is frequently visible even where there is a beautiful, loving Eve, has an odor. It smells like brewed hops and stewed corn steeped in tobacco juice, and looks like a voter.

All the arguments against equal suffrage because it creates discord in the home could as well apply to religion; as to women's ignorance of politics with equal force to negroes and ignorant whites; as to vulgarity at polls with equal force at public socials, dances, secret order functions and so on. She could go to war if necessary, is always enduring more privations than men without a murmur, earns her living and does more work for less wage, pays taxes, and if married makes a mountain out of a mole-hill man and gets him started right.

If, from the standpoint of public policy, women should not vote, then in all fairness, from the same standpoint, why should not men be detained in homes for the feeble minded.

From what the DEMOCRAT has been told upon several occasions this investigation of Senator Dietrich for selling postoffice jobs could be fruitfully followed into Wayne, although of course it wasn't Dietrich got the rake off here. We would just like to get such a hitch on some of these cheap politicians—pay them a money consideration for an appointment—for the fun of making them jump straight up forever afterwards.

COLLEGE NOTES

The enrollment time for this term is fully up to expectations and is larger than last year.

A well attended social was given Saturday evening under the management of the officers of the literary societies.

The exercises of the literary societies will begin at 7:30 each Friday evening. The doors will be locked at that time.

Miss Pilger of Norfolk visited friends at the college Saturday afternoon and attended the social. She is succeeding nicely in her work.

Miss Maud Carmichael of Doushain has returned to college to complete the Commercial course. She was here several terms two years ago.

The union meeting of the Y W C A and Y M C A Sunday afternoon was well attended and enjoyed. Rev Dawson made a splendid address to the young people.

Prof Pile went to Emmett this morning where he lectures this evening. On tomorrow evening he will lecture in one of the large school houses near the center of Madison county.

The new order of chapel exercises add somewhat to the interest. As a rule the large majority of the students attend the exercises and with the number of new books all can take part.

Rev Mead of Butte gave a chapel talk to the students last Thursday. He came down Wednesday morning to spend a day with his daughter who is a member of our graduating class.

The Bishop and pastors of this district took supper at the college Thursday evening after which all went to the lecture. The college folks were pleased to meet them and hope so have them call again when they can see the work of the college.

Ten new students enrolled Monday for the winter. Most of them will take the common branches of the commercial course and return again next winter to finish the course. The young men from the farm are enrolling earlier than usual.

Mr Kirwin of Dixon county, Messrs Barr and Burwhille of Stanton county and Mr Bohart of Holt county are former students who entered this week for several months study. They find many acquaintances in attendance.

The members of the graduating classes were called together Tuesday for preliminary organization. Subjects for term orations were assigned and plans made for Monday evening meetings for class drill. This work will be under the direction of Prof Pile.

The music department had 56 piano lessons the first week of the term and doubtless all the time will soon be filled. The elocution and physical culture work opened up well. We are pleased to see this work taken by so many students and we shall give them the very best.

One pleasant feature around the college in cold weather is the excellent heating systems in the college building and ladies' dormitories. These buildings are always comfortable regardless of the disagreeable weather outside. Of course it requires full and close attention to keep buildings in such condition.

Miss Chapman, Miss Loebberg, Miss Kartz, Messrs Grant, Maloney, Jensen are among the new students from Madison last week. All are here for the winter and are strong students. More will be here soon from there.

Allie Johnson of Stanton, John Wendt of Newcastle, Miss Lycum of Stanton, Mr Harttrauf of Crawford, Mr Hilleman of Dakota City, Mr Kirwin of Emerson, Mr Pischel of Niobrara, Mr Faubel of Hader, Miss Washburn of Winside are former students who have returned this term.

Messrs John and Thomas Sletten of Hartington, Miss Brandt of Lincoln, Miss Lambert of Foster, Miss Helgeson of Jamesville, S D, Mr Beechel of Fairfax, S D, Miss Armour of Dakota City, Miss Littell of Pierce, Messrs Person and Ralph, Miss Johnson of Pilger, Miss Stayton of Winside are new arrivals.

The delegates of the Y W C A to the state meeting held at York, Misses Bailey and Kuper, returned the first of the week and report an excellent meeting both as to the number present and the work done. A full report of the meeting will be given to the association next Sunday afternoon.

Most of the outside work on the college grounds will be finished in another week if the weather remains favorable for outdoor work. Messrs Foote and Jett have been very busy getting everything fixed for the cold weather. With the five buildings and various little repairs, they will find but little spare time all winter.

The review classes in the common branches are well filled. Several who are in the graduating classes are taking one or two review studies each term while the majority of those classes will take two terms work and teach in the spring. There is a shortage of teachers in all the adjoining counties, and some now engaged will not teach a spring term but attend college.

The attendance from this county this year is in excess of what it was last year and the same is true of three of the nearby counties. The following counties are represented in present enrollment: Wayne, Dixon, Cedar, Dakota, Thurston, Burt, Cuming, Stanton, Madison, Platte, Boone, Hall, Holt, Knox, Antelope, Pierce, Boyd, Lancaster, Cherry, Dundy, Dawes.

The terms' work is divided about like this: Prof Pile teaches analytical Geometry, review grammar, arithmetic, divics and diacitics, Mrs Bright, geography, U S History, general history, arithmetic and grammar. Prof Gregg, chemistry, physics, physiology, agriculture, orthography. Prof Wolfe, book-keeping, penmanship, actual business, commercial law, commercial arithmetic, letter writing. Miss Folk, latin, german, rhetoric. Miss Beauchemin, elocution, reading, physical culture. Mr Yaught, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, mental arithmetic. Miss Relyea, shorthand, typewriting. Mr Dilworth music.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure-suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

BY DAD.

Well, it's all over Dietrich!

It might Albee different if it wasn't for those feathers, what?

Now the turkey commences to gobble up a fellow's Christmas surplus.

The Mrs. By Dad is doing some shopping in Sioux City this week. She went off with 30 cents and expected to bring home an automobile or flying machine with her trading stamps.

The only thing that hurts Billy Dammeyer is that he hasn't got a newspaper in which to roast by dad. Billy isn't so wise as some other great Williams. The only thing that hurts by dad is a newspaper. Now is the time to subscribe, only one dollar per year, and if the Republican gets any cheaper we're going to raise the price.

According to dispatches, the Dietrich affair is growing like a mushroom, $10,000 is estimated as the amount Dietrich received from the sale of postoffice, and it is declared that he even brags of his good graft. Dietrich was both a dampfool and an ignoramus. To bad this little affair will disqualify him from running for Governor next year, for there is no question but what he could be elected.

Sam Davies says it is now proper to measure Squire Feather's shoes. Why not prove it by the feathers, by dad.

The meanest proposition a fellow ever goes up a raint is an ingrate, and probably a newspaper man can give you as much information on that score as anybody.

The moon will draw to a pair of queens and fill on Thursday, Nov. 19, with the sign in the ram. This will be a good time to delish on your geese and begin stall feeding them for Thanksgiving.

A few days more of this cold snap and Hob Armstrong won't a find losing his jack.

All you men folks want to keep an eye on your clothing. One of the churches is going to have a rummage sale. By dad, I'd like to see the animal that can wear my old pants. Now, don't all you fellows say you spider first.

Everything but the sporting houses in Sioux City is now giving trading stamps. They would-bead if they could advertise in the papers—Cherokee Democrat.

Well, they are stamped, just the same, trademark and all.

Now, what's the matter with looking up some other post office grafters who are not United States senators?

And this is the first time, and for something over one hundred years, that a United States Senator was indicted. Stand up for "Nebraska redeemed."

Here is a splendid one to clip out, preserve and read occasionally—the more you read it, the better: Before you push a brother down, Think twice, Before at others sins you frown, Think twice, For who are you, in judgment hall Your brother to the bar to call? Tomorrow you may slip and fall— Think twice, Beware the stinging gibe and gulp— Think twice, Lest you yourself should feel the whip. Think twice, Withhold the gossip's idle sneer, The thrust that draws the bitter tear, For fortune's favoring gale may veer; Think twice, Is charity a quickened art? Think twice, And does it thrill both hand and heart! Think twice, The merry you to others show That mealy you to others show That mealy you shall some day know! With others faults be kind, be slow— Think twice.

The bluest bucker of the year is Joe Plug of Papillion who wants to wager $500 that he can pick 20 bushel of corn per hour for 10 hours, or 200 bushels. He will have to pull out the plug to do it and then some.

Pat Minnihan claims to be quite a "shucker," himself, but he gets out in the field to do it and not behind the bar. One day last week Pat dropped his hunking pin at the end of the rows, when he went in to dinner, and when he got back to the field the peaky peg had over half a load piled on the ground, having done that much before losing its momentum of the morning.

It is generally reported that a married man who lives on "Piety" hill caught another man in his home last week, one night, and the first mentioned looked as though a brick house had fallen on him when he got away. "It isn't a bit funny how some people will take chances on things of this sort."

Ed Reynolds wrote or sent word to Eph Cunningham, from Fullerton, that he fully and freely forgave the ex-editor of the Republican for all the mean things that paper once upon a time had to say about Edward. Well, old father time does make some strange bed fellows. Possibly some time in the future I may have to shovel coal with such fellows as Alter, King or L. P. Orth, but I hope not, by dad.

The DEMOCRAT man was scared out of several pounds of avordupois Monday morning. It was just after seven o'clock, and when we were about at the corner of Franks' saloon we noticed an awfully lot of people standing around in twos and fours, and a second look discovered they were all Indians, and a hard-looking crowd at that and enough of them to massacre the whole village. But they were just enroute for Omaha, 42 of them, on some liquor cases.

And now the coal man smiles a smile that puts a printer in the hole.

"By George! I wish I was in California!" exclaimed Judge Moses Monday morning, as the frosty fumes flew from his flakers. Well, Judge, it's a cold day when we get left, ain't it?

President Roosevelt backing up Summers will give Dietrich some frosty Knox.

The fellow who offers two and a half years of the Republican for $1.00 might as well have made it two hundred and fifty. There are no takers.

It is now Wilson Bros. turn to laugh. When a town paper isn't worth 30 cents a year for lighting fires or to put on the cranberry shelves, it ain't no great shucks for advertising purposes.

The latest news from Washington is that Attorney General Knox handed District Atty. Summers a warm rebuke for not going after Senator Dietrich last summer. That Summers will not be removed, that Dietrich will stand trial on the Hastings and other charges, and that the wicked senator and E. Rosewater are on their way home from Washington, a nice pair of dampfools to "stand up for Nebraska," by dad.

Flap your wings and fly To see "Birds of a Feather." This is not Albee's cry. So never mind the weather. How's that, Squire you old

By dad, that little "ad" of R. E.

James' doesn't look much like a warp in the money supply. All we lack is the fair upon which to grow the mortgage.

Bed comforts, cheaper than you can make them are now selling at The Racket.

By dad, the Norfolk News now admits that Senator Allen and Congressman Bryan were the only two men who ever "repeated" Nebraska in the halls of congress, and that Thurston was a "lamentable failure." That Dietrich was an "accident," etc. When the republican party gets big enough to select her representatives without the permission of the railroads or any other monopoly, this DEMOCRAT will help push a good thing along. If the republican party cannot furnish such men as Allen and Bryan why not cling to the men instead of the party?

The cheapest cheap thing that comes to Nebraska these days is the bargain counter editorials of the Sioux City Journal on the Dietrich indictment. The Journal ought to engage the service of a Missouri Jackass; the people need to be shopp.

The Methodist people have decided to at once erect a $3000 parsonage, a part of that amount being already in the treasury. As the matter of a respectable residence was the only difference between Rev. Dawson and some of the elders it is possible that Rev. Dawson may remain with the congregation. This little difficulty of this church is a practical demonstration of the christianity publicly displayed by church people who have more ice packed around their hearts than faith or charity. Rev. Dawson greatly pleased these people; conference was petitioned to return him; he then requested that the old parsonage be fixed up; two or three people who won't be able to draw 20 per cent on their money in the place they are headed for appear to have bucked because they were boss, and by nature a little tight in the hat-band. Mr. Dawson resigns, and let a fine parsonage is to be built. An attendant of the church now tells the DEMOCRAT that two certain pillars (?) of the place object to Mr. Dawson because of his request for necessary repairs. No, of course this is no affair of the DEMOCRAT'S. We don't belong to the church and never will until the managers exhibit some of the symptoms of being followers of the meek and lowly Jesus. Shame on them!
