How Many Women Can Make any Man Happy

It is said that "a man's heart lies next to his stomach." That being true, every man ought to be happy on Thanksgiving for if a full stomach will make a man happy there is at least one day in each year that all men are satisfied. It is not possible to keep man's stomach full all the time, therefore it is necessary to use other means to keep a man happy all the time. Let us suggest a few things that never fail to make a man comfortable, and when a man is comfortable he is happy. Compell your husband to wear Staley underwear and he will be comfortable, free of rheumatism and bad colds, and no man ever fails to treat his wife well who wears Staley. Any woman who will keep her husband warm will make him happy. Kuppenheimer suits never rip and the buttons stay on. They fit and our price fits any purse. A Kuppenheimer suit on top of Staley underwear will make a man forget he ever had any trouble and his wife will look like a bride all the time. With a pair of Sells shoes and our arctics that wear all winter no man can have cold wet feet. Who ever heard of a man who was not happy who had warm feet all the time. To top the whole matter, get him one of our hand made caps that are silk lined and do not hurt the head, and his mind will be free of anything but praise for his good wife. If you want a divorce or would rather be a widow don't buy Staley underwear for your husband. Don't forget that the only place you can buy these things is here, and that it cost less to buy clothing here than elsewhere. Trade with us and life will always be pleasant for all the family.

Hear the Crash?

Of the Last Big Slash in all Prices on Merchandise at Wilson Bros.

Record Breaking Sales

The greatest "going out sale" of general merchandise ever held in this town will soon be a thing of the past. Jan. 1st Wilson Bros., after seven years successful business, will be sold out complete. It is a fact that can not be disputed that Wilson Bros. have saved the people of this county thousands of dollars the past three months. They have done an immense business and sold all lines of general merchandise at or below cost. This last thirty days of 1903 will see the remainder of their stock go at any price. During this sale the grocery department has been kept stocked up with staple articles, the same being sold at a big reduction from regular prices. A very fine assortment of ladies' coats and jackets, dress goods and clothing is still in the stock. If you don't see what you want, it at least won't cost you anything to look for it, and if you do find it you save at least one-third of the money spent anywhere else in town. Call early and see our latest big reduction on everything in sight. WILSON BROS.

J. M. Straban came over from Malvern to eat Nebraska turkey.

Mrs. A. A. Welch entertained the Davies and Goldie families at a big dinner party.

You are passing up a good thing if you neglect to look over Wilson Bros. stock of goods for your winter purchases. Wilson Bros. are selling for half or less regular prices, to close out completely by Jan. 1st.

There May

Be other heating stoves as good as the genuine Round Oak, but we have never been able to discover them. Somehow or other they don't come up to the mark. We cannot depend on them as we do on the genuine reliable Round Oak. That always satisfies our customers. It is no trouble to show it and tell all about it. Call on on any time.

Terwilliger Bros.

Cotton Blankets, cheaper than sheets. THE RACKET. Henry Kellogg and wife came home this morning from the ranch.

Mrs. Lort Holle of Laurel is visiting relatives Wayne.

Jim Miller is the champion goose getter. Three big geese were put up at the bowling alley yesterday and Jim carried off the whole bunch playing "rubberneck."

Four firemen were burned to death in Omaha yesterday.

The supreme court of Nebraska has knocked out that portion of the new revenue law pertaining to insurance companies, and will no doubt find the whole bill unconstitutional for the reason that it now appears to be of no material benefit to the republican party.

John Barker and son arrived in town last night.

R. Philleo says the marriage of his daughter Clara to Geo. Wilbur was a complete surprise to about all their relatives. Mr. Philleo thinks they have gone to Lincoln on their wedding trip.

Otto Voget left yesterday for New York city where he gets a good position as music teacher.

Frank Kruger has installed a pianette in his saloon, a nickel-in-the-slot music box of large dimensions.

Ralph Crockett was the lucky winner of a $40 pipe set at Temple's cigar store, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ench and children from Carroll ate turkey with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Cook.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Philleo were down from Carroll yesterday, to attend the Wilbur Philleo wedding.

"The quietest Thanksgiving ever had in Wayne," was the general verdict on yesterday's festivities. Even the saloons had a lonesome, misused look—judging from exterior appearances.

Mrs. E. Cunningham is visiting friends in Iowa.

Just a short time left now to buy goods at less than first cost at Wilson Bros.

S. H. Welch has been in Oacola the past ten days visiting his wife and child.

J. W. Bartlett and wife leave Monday on their trip to California.

Dietrich might as well quit talking the "tissue of falsehood" argument and wait until he gets into court, that is, if he is in half so big a hurry for a hearing as he pretends to be. His loud-mouthed, continued denials that do not deny, are merely the mutterings of the slab.

Geo. Philer was in Omaha Tuesday. Charley Reynolds and his little nieces, the Misses Beebe, went to Fullerton Wednesday to give thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Philleo came home Wednesday from Omaha, where Fred did some good work on the grand jury.

Miss Johanna Ahern came home from Chicago, where she is attending the University of Chicago, to spend Thanksgiving. She goes back Monday.

Billy Rickabaugh received a letter from John Barker Wednesday, stating that he would be here for business tomorrow, Saturday, to permanently hold down a chair in the Rickabaugh shop. John will also organize a band and orchestra and put Wayne on the map where she used to be in the music line.

On Tuesday County Judge Hunter united in marriage H. F. Cunningham to Miss Winifred A. Allen of Boscomb, Wis. They will make their home at Randolph so the DEMOCRAT understands. Here's good luck to you "Flem," if you did come it a little on the q. t.

Grandma Jones, mother of Mrs. M. S. Davies, celebrated her 85th birthday yesterday. The DEMOCRAT wishes her many more such happy occasions.

Terwilliger Bros. Sell Their Improvement House

Tuesday of this week E. B. Cook from Creston, Neb., bought the Terwilliger Bros. stock of implements, and takes possession right away. Mr. Cook returned to Creston, Wednesday for his family—wife and two children—and will live in the Ramsey house west of the Presbyterian church. The new man has the appearance of being a hustler and will no doubt "make the wheels go some." Call and see him.

One of the social functions of last week was the reception tendered the M. E. ministers of this district and the ministers of Wayne by Prof. and Mrs. Pile. Bishop McCabe of Omaha was the guest of honor. The large parlors were made more beautiful by a profusion of cut flowers. Messames Dawson, Farr and Beebe assisted Mrs. Pile, also a number of the college young ladies.

Editor and Mrs. Lundburg from Carroll and Miss Laura Lundburg went down to Lyons yesterday to do the turkey with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lundburg.

Mrs. Will Rickabaugh was in Sioux City Tuesday to visit Mrs. J. R. Rundell at the hospital. Mr. Rundell has been with his wife nearly all week and the DEMOCRAT understands that the patient's condition is very unsatisfactory and that she will be brought home to Wayne tomorrow.

Miss Lucy Miller won the piano in the Republican contest, having some four thousand more votes than Miss Goss.

J. H. Massie received a telegram Wednesday stating that his brother living near Rising City had become paralyzed and was in bad shape. He left yesterday morning to visit him. Judge H. H. Moses left yesterday for California where he will spend the winter. There was too much salt in the water here in Wayne for the esteemed judge.

Atty. John Berry and Miss Emma Berry of Sioux City and Fred Berry of Ephraim, spend Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Berry. A. B. Jeffery hands the DEMOCRAT a "cease" to send the paper to his daughter Harriet, who is teaching school near Hartington, and couldn't get along without her. Mr. Jeffery says his son Mark finds it "slow" in Washington, and the DEMOCRAT figures it only a question of time until they return to Nebraska.

Don't wait, have your photos taken for Christmas.

Funeral of D. C. Montgomery

Edgar, Neb., Nov. 25.—The body of Rev. D. C. Montgomery, formerly of Wayne, arrived in Edgar from the Philippines last week. It will be remembered that Mr. Montgomery was appointed by the United States government in 1902 superintendent of schools in the Philippines and on October 31, 1902, was assassinated near Manila, and robbed of $600 which he was carrying with him for the purpose of paying teachers' salaries. The body on arriving in Edgar was taken to the residence of his sister, Mrs. O. B. Canfield, where it remained till the funeral, which was held from the M. E. church at 1:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. W. M. Porter of Nelson preached the sermon, Rev. H. C. Crosthwaite and Rev. L. E. Humphrey assisting in the services. The remains were interred in the Edgar cemetery with appropriate Masonic ceremony.—Norfolk News.

STRAYED—From W. O. Gambel's farm one gray gelding, weight about 1200, has halter headstall on, Saturday Nov. 21. Leave information at this office.

Is your farm for sale? List it with Phil H. Kohl. S. H. Welch came home from Oacola Wednesday and reports the arrival of a girl baby to herself and wife on Monday last. Mother and child doing nicely.

In her suit against Chas. Ashton of the Ponca Journal, for damages growing out of the campaign of a year ago with reference to Congressman McCarty, Miss Anna Shieby of Sioux City got the worst of it, the jury bringing in a verdict for defendant, and practically vindicating McCarty of any evil doing.

Miss Clara Philleo and Geo. R. Wilbur were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents at noon yesterday, only the family relatives of each being present. Rev. Birrell performed the ceremony. The DEMOCRAT wishes the newly wed an abundance of health and happiness, and they certainly commence life under the most propitious circumstances. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Ponca where they will pass a portion of their honeymoon.

The biggest and best slash made yet is on the remainder of Wilson Bros. stock of winter dry goods and clothing. No such bargains were ever before offered in the town of Wayne.

STOVE UP?

GREAT COMBINATION SALE SHORTHORNS

TO BE OFFERED AT PUBLIC SALE AT

Randolph, Dec. 9, and Wayne Dec. 10

105 Head of High Class Shorthorns

Contributed by Curtis Mosher, Cambria, Iowa; J. A. Leavell, Fulton, Mo.; Thos. F. Murry, McCreddie, Mo., and Loyd W. Prouty, Randolph, Neb. This combination sale contains the best bunch of Shorthorns ever offered in one sale in Northeast Nebraska. Good individuals and representing many of the leading American and English families with from one to five Scotch tops.

The largest portion of these are either bred to or sired by such noted bulls as: Ancient Hero 117899, by the Celestial Imp, Spartas Hero and out of Imp, Autumn Glade; Victor Myric of Shadyland 153367 by Thompson & Co.'s great Victor Myric 24 out of Alexandria B; Baron Burgomaster 10165, by Imp, Burgomaster; Judge Sybil 190077 by Fredrick Hero, and out of Princess Oara. Prince Charles 10587, by Imp, Fro Con- grandson of the noted Imp; Merry Hampton; Velvet Seal of Elmhurst 138128 by Spartas Seal, he by Imp, Spartas Hero, out of Maid of Iowa 24 by Cupbearer 24; Kirklevington Duke 31st by Duke of Vermillion, out of Kirklevington Duchess 26th, and others.

Curtis Mosher will sell 7 bulls and 35 cows and heifers and Loyd W. Prouty will sell 10 heifers at Randolph, Neb., Dec. 9, 1903. The following day, Dec. 10, 1903, Prouty & Leavell will sell 12 bulls and 43 cows and heifers at Wayne, Neb. Mr. Prouty consigns 17 head from his Floral Hill herd—the tops from a herd of 70 head—that he had intended to ship to Missouri, every one a good one. The Prouty-Leavell offering was selected from some of the best herds in Missouri, special attention being given that everyone should be a breeder.

The Mosher offering was selected by Mr. Mosher from some of the best herds in Iowa. All of calves of breeding age will either be bred (most of them to pure Scotch bulls) or have call at side. No attempt has been made to fatten as the cattle have been taken direct from bluegrass pastures and are offered in breeding condition. The bull offering is especially strong. With possibly one or two exceptions every one is fit to head the best herds in the land.

Come to the sale and buy some good cattle at your own price. Terms cash or bankable notes on 6 to 12 months time at 8 per cent. Sale in a comfortably seated tent. No postponement on account of weather. Sale begins at one o'clock each day, Dec. 9 & 10 '03

THE DEMOCRAT

W. S. GOLDIE, Editor and Publisher.
Subscription, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID IN ADVANCE $1.00.

There is much grief and expense in store for the Pierce Leader. That paper has started a piano contest.

The republican press should at least let up on Tammany crookedness while discussing the Dietrich affair.

Inman & Nellor are making an ideal county newspaper out of the Bloomfield Journal, something it has never been before.

The W. C. T. U. is still worrying over Smoot. Isn't it funny how some kinds of women will chase after things that are nasty.

Judge Barnes need not feel at all proud of the record he made in landing the supreme judgeship. Barnes' majority was 9,025, and the republican regents 21,483.

John D. Rockefeller's personal share in the profits of the Standard Oil Co. for the year amounts to only $28,000,000. Never mind John; he a good Sunday school boy and you may get more next year.

The doings of Editor Rosewater in Washington, as faithfully chronicled by the Omaha Bee, are calculated to show the people of Nebraska that once upon a time they missed an opportunity to inject a statesman into the United States senate.—Norfolk Press, rep.

Now, if Ed Anderson, the deposed captain of the Sioux City police force, would just make a clean breast of all he knows about Mayor Cadwell, Chief of Police Diveport, Hopkins & Rhudda, et al, the Sioux City papers would have no time to spend on Nebraska's indicted United States senator.

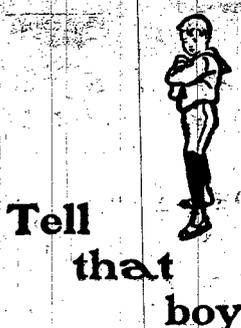

Another cheap screw of a politician has turned up, this time in Iowa. J. U. Sammis, built after the architectural design of our Senator Dietrich, was appointed revenue collector for the northern district of Iowa, but he had only been in office a short time before he commenced to get in his graft on the appointive subordinates. Like Dietrich, Sammis terms the charges "a tissue of falsehoods," and "will make answer in due time."

The following from the Mankato, Minn., Free Press is a hint of how careful and conservative the average newspaper is:

A newspaper has a legal right to publish whatever an individual has a right to circulate orally. In other words, an individual has no more right to make criticism and accusations on the streets than a newspaper has in its columns. This is something the average man doesn't know; if he did he would keep his mouth closed more than he does.

There is a good deal of truth in what Bill Barlow says about the possibilities of success in life. Aside from the necessity of being industrious and all that sort of thing, one must studiously observe the rule of regulating living expenses, invariably making the same less than the income. That is the plain road to financial independence. Mr. Barlow says:

Though many men make a failure of life, yet it would seem as though everybody could succeed if he would. Apparently, it is a perfectly plain proposition to use a western term. The man who is sober, industrious and economical always succeeds—is certain to win in the game in spite of anything and everything. He fills his flishes and straightens, and catches his third card to two pair every time. The boozefighter, the loafer or the high-roller wonders why—overlooking the fact that it is simply a question of adhering closely to a few simple rules which always spell success. If you aren't getting along as you ought, it is because there's a leak somewhere in your manner of life. Better find and plug it.

Tell that boy whose appetite is missing that there's a present for him in each package of "Vigor"—baseballs, jack-knives, tops—a hundred things.

He will be willing to try a dish of it, with cream, for to-morrow's breakfast. After that, the rest. He'll want it every meal, and in a week will have the beginnings of a healthy appetite, strong muscles—and a collection of toys that will be the envy of the boy next door.

"Vigor" will do

Then tell that boy, too—and they can "swap" presents.

Sweet, crisp flakes of wheat—scientifically cooked and toasted—ready-to-serve.

10c. for large packages—all grocers.

Nebraska editors don't print obituary poetry if they can possibly help it, but the country papers sometimes have to do it, or offend desirable friends. Obituary poetry is almost invariably so bad as to be amusing; we always read it, and get a good deal of comfort from it. The worst obituary poem we have seen in years appeared a week ago in a Nebraska weekly paper; we can easily imagine the humiliation and disgust of the editor, as he handed the copy to the foreman; and he has our sympathy. One verse runs as follows:

"To the parents and friends and relatives, her death was an awful shock; we thought she was growing better, but she died at seven o'clock.—Lincoln News. All of which reminds us of an incident wherein some four verses of "original" obituary poetry were submitted by a lady friend of the deceased and publication requested. The editor recognized each of the verses as being appropriated bodily from a series of "Memorial" cards issued by an eastern house and sent broadcast over the country to the relatives of any person whose death appeared in current newspapers. It was courteously declined for "lack of space to print," and the editor wagered the bookkeeper a cookie that the contributing lady would "stop her paper" within twenty minutes of the receipt of the courteous editorial note returning the manuscript. The editor won the wager by twelve minutes margin.—Nebraska City Tribune.

Even the Sioux City Journal has to come forward with some absolutely false statements in Senator Dietrich's defense. The Journal says: "It was desired to change the location to another part of town, and Mr. Dietrich built a building with the expectation of having it utilized." The facts are that Mr. Dietrich had a building that was of apparently no use, that is, it could not be rented because of its location. The statement that the building was first leased for postoffice purposes at some $2200 per annum and later cut down to $1400—a still very large amount more than it was worth—has never been denied. Nebraska readers of the Journal wouldn't put any more credence in the Journal's editorial utterances than in Senator Dietrich's statement that he is simply blackmailed.

Mr Frank Jones of Vista enrolled a few days ago for a few months work in the commercial department.

No classes recited yesterday but the work continued today with all students present. None remained away only on yesterday.

Among the recent arrivals are Misses Hermy and Ward of Elk Point, S. D. All are taking the review classes to prepare for teaching.

A large street lamp has been placed on the front porch at the college building and one at the south dormitory near the dining room.

Prof Pile met many former students on his trip to Madison county last week and found all doing well for themselves, their community and the college.

Mr Frink who lives east of the college came in Tuesday morning and invited six of the lady students to "Thanksgiving" dinner with his family. He came for them yesterday morning. The college extends thanks for his kindness.

Miss Tripp and Miss Eaton enjoyed yesterday at the home of Mr Palmer. They went out for dinner and returned to the college in the evening. It is pleasant for the students to occasionally be invited to the homes of our citizens.

Prof Pile and family took dinner at Prof Gregg's home yesterday and for a few hours got away from business cares. This term is a very busy one as many classes must be cared for and advertising for spring and summer is being sent out.

Rev Duley of the Baptist church attended chapel exercises Tuesday. He conducted the services and gave the students a most practical, hopeful and encouraging talk. No chapel talk of the year has been enjoyed more than this one. Come again and often.

Rev Johnson of Coleridge, Rev Warren of Emerson, Rev Gately of Bancroft were entertained at the college last week Wednesday and Thursday. The former conducted chapel Thursday morning. He and Rev Warren addressed the students in strong, thoughtful addresses.

About 20 new students are expected next week and which the enrollment will not increase much until the first of January. Last year 44 students entered the first week in January. With a like increase this year, the attendance will be largest ever had for any term.

At the meeting of the graduating classes Monday evening a constitution was adopted, officers were elected and proper committees appointed for carrying on the work of the classes. The officers are: Ray Lane, president; T Saunty, vice president; Laura Lundborg, secretary; Frank Meinke, clerk; Win Rohan, marshal.

A number of new catalogues are being sent out this week. The catalogue contains 40 pages and is full of views containing 100 pictures. A circular of the summer term will be ready by January. All these with some small circulars and cards kept on hand make quite a display of advertising matter.

The president of the alumni association has appointed a committee composed of members elected and proper committees appointed for carrying on the work of the classes. The officers are: Ray Lane, president; T Saunty, vice president; Laura Lundborg, secretary; Frank Meinke, clerk; Win Rohan, marshal.

The new Revenue Law which went into effect makes it compulsory with the County Treasurer to collect and forward personal taxes before the 1st day of February following the year for which they were levied.

You will therefore please read the following, which is Section No. 154 of said Revenue Law enacted by the last legislature.

Section 154. The County Treasurer is hereby required, during the month of December of each year after the personal taxes for the year have become delinquent to notify by mail all persons of their delinquent personal tax, and unless the same is paid by the 1st day of February following, distress warrant will be issued therefor. The treasurer shall, on and after the 1st day of February next after the personal taxes of the last preceding year have become delinquent, collect the same, together with interest, and costs of collection by distress and sale of personal property belonging to the person against whom levied in the manner provided by law for levy and sale of personal property and execution distress warrants shall be issued against all persons having delinquent personal tax for the year 1903, and for each year thereafter, and each such warrant shall include all delinquent personal taxes of the person against whom issued, unless such person shall, on or before February first, file with the Treasurer an affidavit that he is unable, by reason of poverty, to pay any such tax, in which case distress warrants shall not issue until ordered by the county board.

I would therefore ask all people who were assessed by their respective assessors, for any personal property last spring, to call at the office in the month of November and pay the said personal tax, or if not convenient for you to call, write for statements which will be sent you on application.

Hoping that you may assist me in the enforcement of this law without resorting to execution, I beg to remain most respectfully yours,
FRED VOLPE, County Treasurer.

New Way of using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that it they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some up on the dummy that the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

A Stricken Family

Last week the DEMOCRAT made mention of Joe Bishop going out near Elgin, Neb., to attend the funeral of his wife's sister, Miss Eva Vernon. Mr. Bishop got there Friday morning and during the funeral services of the young lady, held in church, Mrs. Vernon, mother of deceased, became very ill and had to be carried home, where early Saturday morning she passed away to join her much beloved daughter. The doctor said it was nervous prostration and heart trouble, the poor woman having cared for her daughter seven weeks, the latter dying of typhoid fever. Mrs. Vernon was 53 years of age. She leaves a husband, two sons, aged 14 and 26, and the daughter, Mrs. Bishop. Without sending any message to his wife here in Wayne, Mr. Bishop waited until the second burial had taken place, but the news of her mother's death had been anticipated by the daughter, having told her husband when he departed that her sister's death would surely kill her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Bishop expect to soon move out there to keep house and care for the bereaved father.

It appears an agent for a music house left the organ with Hall some three years ago. Recently the music people hired Atty. Northrop to recover the instrument. Mr. Hall wanted $10 for keeping the music box, and Northrop thought that too big a haul for something that didn't sing, so he represented the organ. Then Hall hired Atty. Berry to act the thing for him, and there you have the whole story—except that the lawyers got the organ and the music house and Hall the singing.

BY DAD

Little Willie is somewhat irreverent, but doesn't mean to be. He had been hearing a lot about Santa Claus being a fake and he was somewhat disgusted when he went to his mother to unburden himself. "Mamma," said he, "I have learned that this whole story about there being a Santa Claus is a fake, and I expect this Jesus business will turn out the same way."

An exchange says a girl recently sent her photograph to her best fellow and wrapped it up in a newspaper on which was printed an advertisement of a stove firm. A portion of the print adhered to the photograph and the young man was very much startled to see staring him in the face in bold black type the following words: "See name on log!"

That's a well-worn yarn going the rounds of the papers, but I've got a better one. Some years ago when corresponding with a certain young lady she sent me a clipping from a daily paper, on one side of which was notice of a musical she was interested in, and on the other—blame my eyesight if it wasn't just within the environment of a little advertisement of "lost manhood restored," etc. Well, I was pretty laxy in those days and sent the clipping back with a request for information as to which side of the thing I was to read. That's a long time ago; an awfully long time ago; hum!

A young man went sparring, in Winside he reports say, by tod, and ad got into a fracas with his girl's folks, the young lady taking a shoe after him, and the old man a rifle.

It's going to be the hardest winter for thirty-five years according to "Doc" Burson's chronometer—his whiskers.

Most everybody about the county appears to have seen that "ad" of the Republican in the DEMOCRAT, offering two and one-half years subscription at a dollar, but it is a sad, sullen, unsatisfactory fact that the only lone-some individual who called to take advantage of the bargain day price was drunk, and he refused to take it because we wouldn't throw in a piano or two and a copy of Webster's unabridged.

Sam Davies got so many piano votes that he could hardly lug the jag up to the office Tuesday night. Somebody asked him what he had in his gripe and Sam laconically replied: "Oh, it's that contest that's got me!"

No, by dad, the DEMOCRAT was o k for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Robert Baird kindly brought us in a fat fowl and a dozen fresh eggs, and Oscar Franks put up the "Tom and Jerry." In a few days we shall recover sufficiently to withstand the shock of a Christmas stuffing.

A Wisconsin editor parted from his wife, and as he tells it, he just installed a talking-machine in his office and never even missed her.

According to the decision of a Philadelphia judge, a promise of marriage given on Sunday is not binding unless renewed on a week day. Sunday contracts are declared worthless, and a promise of marriage is a contract. The Pennsylvania girl who is confronted with a Sunday promise can get him to repeat his words Monday, and will be well. She isn't much of a girl, anyway if she can't hold him until 1 o'clock Monday morning.

The following effusion dropped in on the DEMOCRAT Tuesday morning with the snow, and being so much superior to "snow poetry" I take pleasure in printing it even though the miserable case or cases who wrote it forgot to tell who he or she was:

"THERE ARE OTHERS"

By heaven, there are other hearts than mine, When I look o'er this earth and find More misery than my soul contains Burning, a million other brains. Myself, what am I to despair, When groans and weeping fill the air, With misery, stalking o'er the earth, In every breast, at every hearth. My own head white with winter's care, With misery stalking everywhere, Why don't my soul rise up in strength And help give joy, both breadth and length. The narrow compass of my poor soul Should widen out from pole to pole, Instead of walling at my poor fate, Do good before it is thus too late. But I am bound, both hands and feet, Helpless I am, to those I meet I've offered alms, but it turned to dust, I've sown good seed but it died with rust. I mean't I'll well, when I came to earth, But the things I've done, have all given birth To things that now I would all undo If I had the power, to half see through. "EXPENSES."

Wayne, Neb., Nov. 24, 1903.

The notorious Democrat of Cherokee says this is "bellyache" day. Plant a little "green briar" on your acre, brother, that brings it to earth.

John P. Gaertner this week received a funeral car that discounts anything in the state out side of Omaha or Lincoln. It is a master-piece from the carriage builders and a vehicle anybody might feel proud to ride in. It took $1200 of John's good money to get it, but Mr. Gaertner says nothing is too good for his patrons—they have to get the best if they patronize him. If one of the lively barns do not put in a big team suitable to haul the carriage John will get them himself, as the car requires a big team to draw it. The old horse will be sent in to the factory and refinished in white. This item is "all on the dead," by dad.

Everything that remains in the Wilson Bros.' stock of drygoods, groceries, crockery and clothing must be cleaned up on or before Jan. 1st. One big, long slash is being made on everything left in the stock. Call early for the best bargains.

Nick Cullen says he's a justice of the peace, now, and he wants to let all the young people know it, and states that he will marry the first seven couples that stand up before him "free gratis," providing he is allowed, to kiss the bride. I think, by dad, that Nick will get tired about that time. One bride was all we wanted for kissing.

The infant geography class of the ward school were up for a recitation one day last week, and the teacher asked: "where's the capital of Nebraska?" Up went a begrim'd little fist, and being told to proceed replied: "It's down on the corner; Oscar Franks runs it."

Joe Baker, the barber, and his partner have moved into the room formerly occupied by G. W. Albee, in the First National building, for their sleeping apartments. The boys had been bunking in a room over the State bank, but a couple of weeks ago Messrs Wilson and Whitaker, the restaurant men, got a room up there, unbeknown to the barbers. The first night the new lodgers were in bed when Joe Baker went up to roost, and as Joe went past the "unoccupied" room one of the new men let go of an unearthly groan. Baker stopped dead in his tracks, and in a few moments came another bloodcurdling noise. Joe ran to the head of the stairs and yelled to his partner to come quick, there was somebody dying. He has also been wearing his hair pompadour ever since.

We are not only "closing out" but selling goods for less money than retailers can buy them. Do not take our word for it. Come in and see what we can do for you. Wilson Bros.

Did you ever notice a woman when she isn't talking—what a struggle it seems to be?—exchange.

Yes, that is when she has to stop—to think of what to say next.

The Cherokee Democrat says: Thanksgiving day was founded by the pilgrims who landed on Plymouth Rock. If you can't secure a turkey for your Thanksgiving day dinner you might be able to land on a Plymouth Rock. Now, up at Winside they land on duck. At least it was a waddle.

Oscar Franks has quit husking corn since the snow came. That cooled O. D. off.

Postmaster McNeal called Pat Minnahan down, for smoking in the post-office the other day, and Pat says he's going to carry it up—the smoke—to the supreme court, and prove to the postmaster that this is another republican law that is unconstitutional—when a democrat does the smoking, by dad.

It is surmised that in due time the women will discover that Senator Smoot is not a bad man, that he is not a polygamist, and that there is no possible excuse for expelling him from the senate. They may also discover, if they watch real close, that he is one of the senators who do not support one woman in Washington and another at home.

By dad, Tom and Jerry ain't worth a cent to set type.

The DEMOCRAT has been told of several parties that Treasurer Volpp had no legal right to advertise delinquent taxes as per his notice. Mr. Volpp says he has and that the excess fees for same will be far in advance of what he gets for the work and that it simply makes his office a lot of extra labor with no appreciable compensation therefor.

THE BEST EVER IN WAYNE
It Will Fill that Long-Felt-Want, Be the Hungry Man's Joy.

It will be with no small degree of pleasure that Wayne county people and those accustomed to eat here occasionally welcome the new and natty cafe to be opened up next Monday by Wilson & Taylor, in the Boyd building on lower Main street. Aside from the fine new quarters it will be very agreeable to have first-class men in the business, parties who are not only competent in their work but are strictly temperate and are coming to Wayne to stay and grow up with the town.

Mr. Wilson tells the DEMOCRAT that they will serve meals and short orders, in fact keep everything the appetite calls for that can be procured in edibles. They will also put in a line of Balduff's candies, bonbons and chocolates and fine cigars.

If you want a good square meal, oysters and fish any style or a sandwich that is "good to eat," don't fail to visit the new place. The DEMOCRAT will guarantee that it will all be A. No. 1.

HOSKINS
There seemed to be some misunderstanding about the pigeon shoot Wednesday. There was no turkey in it as some thought.

Mrs. R. G. Rohrer entertained some lady friends from Dakota City Thanksgiving.

Mrs. H. C. Hect and her family came over from Belden to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

Miss Reed of Winside visited at the Rohrer home last Friday.

There was a dance at the Ball Thursday evening.

Geo. Colbert has bought out Mr. Strickland and rented the restaurant building from A. Johnson. Now Hoskins is again provided with a meat market and a restaurant.

H. S. Strickland and family left Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with relatives in Kansas.

James Elliot and family visited at the Averil home last Sunday.

The Tribune is mistaken. There is no correspondents war in Hoskins. The Herald correspondent has rows enough on his hands without tackling the DEMOCRAT scribe.

Blacksmith Wilbur is going to leave Hoskins and locate in Eader where we hope he will be successful.

Chas. Ohlund was a Norfolk visitor Monday.

Mrs. Robert Templin is enjoying a visit with her father from Albion.

The spelling school last Friday evening was all right so the children say.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Ziegler of Fonda, Iowa, who have been here on a visit to friends left for home Wednesday.

Geo. Miesky was in town Tuesday night to meet a sister and family from the east who came to spend Thanksgiving.

Once more Thanksgiving has come and past and we find a good many things great and small to be thankful for, not the least of which is that we are not the poor Herald correspondent.

OUR California excursions are popular for many reasons. One of them is the care and individual attention paid to our guests.

Carefully selected men act as special conductors of these parties. They have a thorough knowledge of all points of interest enroute, and know how to do the best thing in the best way. They make traveling easy.

These Personally Conducted Excursion parties run twice a week, via the Scenic Route of the World—through Denver, the Rocky Mountains, Salt Lake City, etc.

I shall be glad to send our California booklet to you free, and it will help you in planning your western trip. Write for it.

MILLIONAIRES' POOR STOMACH.
The worn-out stomach of the overfed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of a standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower rouses the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size 75c.

Drafts all Over the World

The State Bank issues drafts payable in any of the leading centers of the principal foreign countries as well as the United States and Canada.

These drafts can be obtained for any sum over $1.00.

The party named as payee can deposit them to his credit in regular bank or, upon proper identification, convert them into cash at the bank upon which they are drawn.

Bank drafts cost less than Postoffice or Express-money Orders and are safer.
