A Big Cattle Sale.
The Combination Offering of Shorthorns, at Wayne Dec. 10th.

Dec. 10 will be a red-letter day for the stockmen of Wayne county for that date the finest strains of the Shorthorn blood, from several states, will be put up and knocked down to the highest bidder at public auction. Loyd W. Prouty, one of the best known breeders of the state, is manager of the sale, and a large number of the animals to be sold are of high own breeding. Other contributors are Oartis Mosher, Cambridge, Iowa, A. Level, Fulton, Mo., Thos. Murry, McCredie, Mo. As will be noticed by their advertisement elsewhere in this paper, these cattle to be sold are the "pick of the herds" and it will be a grand opportunity for our farmers to get choice breeding stock at their own figures. Good cattle are just as cheap, or even cheaper, than scrub stock to raise, and all it takes to make the change is a start—a pair of these thorough-breeds. Don't miss the sale. It will be held in a tent and everything made comfortable for all visitors.

Not Found Elsewhere!

The Two Johns are peculiar people and there are many things found in this store you can not find elsewhere. If you step into this store you are always met by an experienced salesman who has an interest in the business and therefore has an interest in you. We have no salesman that works on a salary and whose only object is to make a sale. We could not sell the class of clothing we have if we had salaried salesmen. A clerk's object is to make a sale and a good profit for his employer. Our object is at all times to make customers and keep them for this store. Therefore we dare not sell anything that will not give satisfaction. If you go into any other store to buy a pair of arctics, the clerk will get you a pair like he sells to everyone and you will try them on and ask the price, which he says is $1.00 or $1.25. You go out and think he is a pleasant gentleman and you think you have made a good investment, but in a short time you find they are giving out. You go into this store to buy a pair of arctics, you are met by an experienced salesman and he inquires what kind of an arctic you want, what you want it for and how long you expect it to wear. He will tell you that we have good wearing arctics that are made to wear out winter of hard wear. We have others that are the kind others sell that will only wear a short time. He will tell you the price is $1.00, $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00, and if you buy the $1.50 or $2.00 kind you will only need one pair this winter, and that he finds the better kind the cheapest for hard wear. He desires to make a permanent customer, for he will be here next year to sell you another pair. A clerk don't know how long he will hold his job and the quicker he can make a sale the better he is satisfied. This is only a sample and shows why you will find things here you cannot find elsewhere. We own the building. We own the goods, (we buy for cash.) We have an interest in the business. We warrant every article we recommend to give satisfaction. Don't you think it will pay to investigate this store?

MORE CONFESSIONS.

Baridit Neidermeier Tells of Other Holdups He Has Committed.

Chicago, Dec. 1.—Peter Neidermeier, claimed to be the member of the quartet of young holdups, who for the last six months have terrorized Chicago, in another confession added several more crimes to the list of those which he committed with his companions, Van Dine and Reeski.

With parental love uppermost in his mind Neidermeier offered to tell Chief O'Neil the truth about the holdups which he committed, if the rewards offered for his capture and conviction. If you will guarantee me that these rewards will go to my mother I will confess, he will confess crimes which will startle you.

In order to make his word good Neidermeier told of a few crimes which he committed in such a manner, Chief O'Neil declared, as only one who was connected with them could do. Neidermeier refused, however, to divulge the names of his partners in the crimes referred to, pending proof that his mother would get the rewards in full.

A few of the additional crimes he claims to have participated in are as follows: Robbery of the Illinois Central limited express at Paducah, Ky. in which Barnes, one of the robbers, on his throat while he lay in a swamp. The others escaped.

Holdup of a stage at Butler, Ill., two years ago, and robbery of the Chicago and North Western train near New York, N. Y., last year.

Holdup and attempted robbery of Baltimore and Ohio train at Big Bear, Ill., last year.

Minor holdup and robberies in and out of Chicago were mentioned by Neidermeier. But in all cases he was careful to point out that his associates in crime, merely giving sufficient outline of the crimes to warrant Chief O'Neil in believing that Neidermeier was telling the truth.

When Neidermeier went back to his cell it was with the assurance that his mother would get the money. A Special Agent Wiley of the Chicago and North Western promised him that if he would tell the truth he would get the reward of $50,000 for his capture and conviction of the Chicago station robbery after Neidermeier started the robbery at the Chicago station.

Gen. Reyes Hopes to Have His United States Keep Hands Off the Isthmus.

THIS COUNTRY TO BLAME

Francisco Manolas, a Colombian Lawyer, Complains of This Country's Actions—Colombia's Army of 10,000 Ready.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 23.—General Reyes, representing the government of Colombia, arrived here on the way to Washington.

Before his departure General Reyes gave out an interview much on the line of what has been published in the press. He said that he was going to see the president with his colleagues, and hoped to have the United States disallow the Colombian claims and allow the Colombians to regain their lost territory.

The United States would not agree to let the Colombians send an army of 100,000 men across the mountains to Panama, and meeting only the 2,000 isthmians, would soon be defeated.

SENATOR CARMACK MAKES HOT SPEECH.

Pays His Respects to Iowa's Leaders in Liberal Tariff

TALKS OF CUBA MEASURE

Makes an Earnest Plea for More Reciprocity and General Tariff Revision—Classic Roast for Mr. Roosevelt.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The senate today adopted the resolution offered by Senator Carmack for the appointment of a committee to investigate the effects of the vote by which the Newlands joint resolution providing for the annexation of Cuba was referred to the committee on relations with Cuba, was adopted, and the understanding that the resolution itself should lie upon the table for future discussion.

The Cuban reciprocity bill was made unfinished business, Carmack addressing the senate in opposition to the bill. Until the senate either passes or rejects the Cuban bill no proposition to adjourn the extra session will be entertained by the senate.

Senator Carmack began by saying the president had urged ratification of the Cuban treaty with reasons which appear to have been the basis of the senator's dissent. "He told us," said the senator, "that we must ratify it to save our honor and help our trade."

"If this measure would reduce the price of sugar, it would be an argument for its passage. It is a question of duty and the tariff would be added to it. The authors of the sugar tax promised that if the tariff was reduced they would pay this sum for this treaty. It required us to give up not only the right to reduce taxes, but reciprocity with other countries."

Mr. Carmack referred at length to the reciprocity policy of Blaine and McKinley, and to the policy of the Democrats of Iowa in which the latter said that every line of the wisdom of Blaine had been eliminated from the tariff.

Continuing Carmack declared that Dooliver was right when he said his party was a party of protectionists. "But it would demonstrate to the people," said the speaker, "that we are not protectionists."

He said Governor Cummins had appointed a committee to investigate the affairs of the Iowa National Bank. "The committee," he said, "will report to the legislature."

SAYS HE HYPNOTIZED HER

Lyons County Business Man Indicted on Evidence of a Woman

Rock Rapids, Ia., Dec. 1.—A most remarkable case involving hypnotism and crime is brought before the Lyons county court by the indictment of James Donovan of Little Rock, this county, for rape and seduction of Violet Bowen, aged 24.

Donovan was a jeweler and land man at Little Rock. Miss Bowen was his little cousin. Thirteen months ago he left her in the hands of a hypnotist. Next day the Bowen girl disappeared, leaving a letter saying she would not return. Later a letter came from Don attacking her and the girl had gone away together.

The pair lived in Council Bluffs and later, for about a year, in Des Moines. From Des Moines Donovan wrote and induced his wife to join them. The two women lived with him some time in Iowa, but then went to Adrian, Minn., and the Bowen girl became a mother.

Induced to Make Complaint. At Adrian, friends succeeded in breaking up the marriage. Donovan was convinced that she should prosecute him, before the grand jury in this county, their old home.

Donovan is represented by Parsons & Fisher, and the state by Attorney Fisher. The defense claims that experts in hypnotism agree it cannot be employed for the purpose of inducing a woman to do criminal acts.

PRESIDENT'S GUESTS.

The Butte Working Men Cast Just as Big Ballots as Anybody Else.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Regarding the reception at the White House Tuesday of the representatives of the Butte labor organizations it was pointed out authoritatively that the president's policy has been to extend the same throughout his administration. His view, it was stated, is that he is president of the people, not of the employers, capitalists, farmers, bankers, everybody, and that a reputable individual of one class has the same right of access to the president as any individual of any other class.

Of the president's guests from Butte today two or three were old friends of the president. They had long standing invitation to visit him at the White House, and the others had participated in the reception and dinner given to him on the occasion of his visit to Butte last spring.

Japan is Displeased With Russian Intention and Disposed to Insist on Early Answer. London, Nov. 27.—The Times' Tokyo correspondent cables that the far eastern situation shows no improvement. It is equally undesirable that the Russian government were submitted last month, but the Russian government has not yet given an answer to the ultimatum. It is feared that unless some basis of an agreement shall be arranged before the opening of the Japanese winter, a rupture of relations may possibly be carried beyond diplomatic control.

London, Nov. 27.—The Times' Pekin correspondent referring to the publication of exaggerated accounts as to the number of Russian troops reviewed at Peking, says that the Russian government has largely increased, and is still increasing, her garrisons in Manchuria. IOWA BANK CLOSES.

Receiver Named for the State Bank of Germania, Kosciusko County.

Algonia, Ia., Nov. 23.—Judge Quartz has appointed Frank Weimar of Leasport to be receiver for the State Bank of Germania. The institution has $25,000 capital and $40,000 deposits. It is unable to convert real estate into ready money and allowance of overdrafts has consisted with good banking. It is said to be the reason for the receiver's proceedings. The assets may meet all demands.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 27.—Police officials were notified today by William Welsh Harrison that his county home, "The Towers," at Glenside suburb, was robbed yesterday of jewelry valued at $25,000. The thief is believed to be a man named Harry G. Smith, who was arrested last week. The man disappeared yesterday.

New Orleans, Nov. 27.—Fire early today destroyed the plant of the National Biscuit company and damaged considerably a number of surrounding warehouses and other property. The loss is $25,000.

Dr. J. C. CLARK,
OPHTHALMOLOGIST EYE SPECIALIST

If you have Headache, Nervousness, Inflamed, Blurring or Watery Eyes, floating specks, dizziness, weak memory, pains in the top of the head or down the back of the neck, etc.,

CONSULT DR. CLARK

No matter who has failed in your case before. The exhaustion of the nerve supply caused by Eye Strain is the cause of such troubles. I measure the eye and its nerve supply by the science of Ophthalmology and can tell the exact amount of strain on the nervous system, and by my methods of fitting and adjusting glasses positively remove the cause and all symptoms of eye strain, and nature does the rest. If you have glasses that do not stop such troubles they are not properly fitted.

Cross Eyes Straightened

Without operations. Positively no drugs or operations in my methods. Spectacle lenses my only therapeutic. Beware of imitators. Consultation confidential.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKES
Ashburnham, Ontario. Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy.

Respectfully yours,
E. A. LANGFELDT,
Rector of St. Luke's church.
This Remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Barcus is Willing

George Stringer has just put in place in his blacksmith shop a Barcus horse holder, that is a machine that holds the most vicious or wildest horses, and absolutely secures the animal from any chance injury. The machine is quite a novelty as well as practicable, and owners of bad horses are invited to call and see it, especially those having ugly horses that need shoeing.

Bilious Colic Prevented

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be warded off. Hundreds of people who are subject to attacks of bilious colic use the remedy in this way with perfect success.

THE DEMOCRAT

WAYNE,
W. S. GOLDBIE, Editor and Publisher.
SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID IN ADVANCE $1.00.

President Roosevelt is bound to get Summers near right—in Nebraska.

Might as well get to practicing on that figure "4," it will be here be-4 you know it.

With Bryan in Europe and Cleveland saying he won't have it, prospects do look blue for the democracy.

Editor Gibson used to think being born, getting married and doing were the three great trials of life on this mundane sphere, but he has enlarged upon the category of curses and added a piano contest.

Some of the republican papers have finally concluded that Summers "has the backing of the administration," but most of the little jackpots will wait until Dietrich is ducked three times and out before giving him up—then they will all want to jump on his carcass.

For the 'steenth time state officials are "looking over the ground" at Norfolk preparatory to rebuilding the insane asylum. The continued delay appears to lie in the fact that when Norfolk is visited the visitors find all the people of the burg eligible to the asylum, and therefore become disheartened over the prodigiousness of the job.

John C. Sprecher of the Schuyler Free Lance thusly sticks it into reformers who reform for party only: "What good is a law unless it is enforced? What good is a party platform unless that party will loyally stand by it? And the only way for a party to stand by that platform is to draw the line on its officials and turns down every man who fails to prove loyal in every sense to the party principles and platform pledges. How ridiculous it is for an editor to talk reform and advocate the cause of the people and then be ready to support anybody nominated by his party whether they are loyal to reform and anti-monopoly principles or not."

"It's a pretty hard winter this Summers," is what Senator Dietrich thinks about it.

Dr. Voldeng, the superintendent of the asylum for the insane at Cherokee, is out in an interview in which he speaks very positively against the incarceration of inebriates in the insane asylums. Dr. Voldeng says the drunks are nothing short of criminal, that they are demoralizing to the crazy patients, filthy in their habits, lazy and impudent. All of which is true in nearly every case. The drunkard is a common nuisance, whether he be high-toned or just a common gutter snipe. The world has no use for him and he is considered even worse than the hopelessly insane. Its up to the drunkards to reform.—Manson Democrat.

That's right. It is high time to quit making heroes of drunkards. A drunken man is always a nuisance and every nuisance should be abated.—Cherokee Democrat.

The printer-philosopher of the Verdel Outlook, John Wamburg, thusly soliloquizes on the evil doings of the day:

It matters not where you stand, nor who you are, if you cannot live up to the rights of righteousness, you will be branded among the black sheep, and the public voice will hamper you until your last right is sacrificed. Stand up for morality, honor, and the goods of this world, and happiness and prosperity will be your comrade as long as you are recognized as a living man on this mortal coil. * * * While sins and evil doings are the leasing sciences of this world to day, a man is but a man, and woman is but a woman. Yet, why is it that so many go astray? Think of the many a mother's loving son that can be found in the penitentiaries, and which can be traced from his first glass at "bar" and sitting at the poker table. Why then is it that so many young men will still indulge in this rash violation of the law. You may go to these places and perhaps find one of your comrades wearing the stripes, with his character, and reputation lost, and perhaps many a year branded as a non-citizen of the universe.

A Nebraskan Abroad

The London correspondent for the New York World, referring to Mr. Bryan's visit, says:

Both at the National Liberal club dinner and at the American society's banquet Mr. Bryan's oratory made a profound impression. No other speaker at the American society's banquet has ever evoked anything like the enthusiasm Mr. Bryan did by his flight of real and natural eloquence, in which he painted his ideal of America's mission among the nations.

At the National Liberal club his purely British audience appreciated more too keen insight and happy phrasing of the less rhetorical part of his address, although the rhetoric also was greatly admired.

Everyone who meets Mr. Bryan confesses to being fascinated by his simplicity and straightforwardness of manner. He is voted every where to be an altogether delightful and charming personality.

It is not at all surprising that the personality that has charmed and the oratory that has captivated thousands of Americans have made similar impressions among our English friends.—World-Herald.
