HEARST IS HEARD FROM.

Not the Presidential Candidate, But Jimmy, the Jolly Horseman.

(From the Norfolk News) Wayne, Neb., Feb. 3.—Editor Norfolk Daily News: I see by the Daily News that Kay Bros. are negotiating for a new caterpillar for Norfolk, which I believe will be of great interest to your little city as well as the horse interests of this part of the state. The only thing that has kept Wayne from having a race meeting every year, with good liberal purses, is the difficulty of getting a big field of horses here for one meeting. The expense of shipping in and out for only one meeting would hardly justify the horsemen, but should Norfolk induce Kay brothers to open up a track there, we could arrange two meetings and induce a large and good field of horses to make the two places together, with large crowds from far and near. We could arrange our dates so as to follow or come before Sioux City, making three good meetings on a direct route with short shipments, insuring a large field of horses.

There are, during the summer season, about 25 head worked here. My racing stable had been from three to six head until last season when I only raced two, but not without some success. I started Union Medium Jr. at Sioux City and raced at the Nebraska state fair, through Missouri and as far east as the Illinois state fair, winning every start, reducing his record to 2:15 1/2 the fifth heat in a race. I will have at least five head to race another season, besides others that are in training here, expecting to race. So you see there are good racing stables within a stone's throw of your city who would be glad to take part in our new enterprise.

Yours respectfully, JAS. HURST.

Why Not Do It Right.

There is no excuse for wearing poor fitting clothing. If you want to have your suit made to order don't expect to have it fit unless an expert clothing man takes your measure. To take a measure for a suit and get it in style, and a fit, requires experience. We have had experience and know all about how a suit should be made, and if you leave your measure with us you will get a fit and the latest style. Anyone can take your measure for a suit, but how will it look is a question to be answered. It costs no more to have us take your measure and then you are certain it will fit and is in style. The right way to do anything is to have someone do it who knows how. We know how to make suits to order that always fit and please. A great many so-called made-to-order tailors are frauds. Every suit we take measure for is made to your measure and we guarantee a fit or no sale. Why not do it right and let us take your measure and get a stylish suit and a perfect fit? Spring samples just arrived. Call and see them.

LINCOLN FIRE CAUSES A SEVERE PANIC

One Hundred Roomers Driven Out Into the Street With Scant Attire.

OF UNCERTAIN ORIGIN

The Building Was Used as a Lodging House and Also Contained Several Offices—Was Recently Inspected by Fire Chief.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 29.—Fire of uncertain origin in the McMurtry block drove over 100 people from their rooms and the block, many of them in their nightclothes and wrapped in blankets.
Only the cozeness of the firemen and Police Officers Bently, David and Gardner, and a fireman, and doubtless saved many from injury. The fire started in the basement under the feed store of a grocery store, and though little damage itself completely filled the four-story building with smoke and in several instances almost suffocating
the roomers, several of them being carried downstairs from the second and third floors by means of ladders.

CONVICTION OF FORMER MAYOR OF MINNEAPOLIS SET ASIDE BY COURT.

EVIDENCE WAS NOT GOOD

The Decision, Rendered by a Divided Court, Was a Surprise to Both The State and the Defense In the Case.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 1.—The supreme court Feb. 1 in the appeal of former Mayor A. Ames of Minneapolis, held that the indictment under which he was convicted was good, but the evidence guilty. He was convicted of receiving money for the murder of a woman.
The court was divided, the majority setting aside the conviction of Ames.
The majority report was written by Justice Loring, joined by Justices
Stuart and Collin. It was a surprise to the defense as well as the state. The dissenting justices were Brown and Lovely.

Easy Traveling To California

There is one way of going to California that affords all the ease and comfort at a minimum of expense—the Burlington way.

For many years the Burlington has been taking thousands of people annually to California. This travel has increased each year because the service given was the best to be had for the money.

The Burlington through tourist sleeping cars run via Denver through Colorado's mountain scenery, through Salt Lake City—by far the most interesting route to the coast.

Write me and I will tell you all about the Burlington.

The Magnet Mail is weary over the wobbling ways of the corkscrew accommodation, and husily wails: "If the railroad company will forgive us and return to the old schedule we will never say another word. It used to be about two hours late but now the noon train gets here in the evening, and the evening train not until the next morning; at present they are about two hours behind. Apropos of the slowness of the train service numerous stories are told; this one is true: Conductor Burnham has a four month old pup which he prizes very highly, and which he rides back and forth on the train. On day last week as the train pulled out of Randolph Burnham missed his pup and worried all the way to Bloomfield about him, but to his surprise and delight as he approached his home Mr. Pup trotted down the road to meet him, wagging his tail as if to inquire where he had been so long. This is a true story."

Reflections of a Bachelor

New York Press: What keeps most people poor is the fear that they can't afford to appear not to afford things other people have.

Maybe the good wouldn't die so young if they weren't so lonesome.

Generally we wait till our bread gets stale before we cast it upon the waters.

The devil gets pretty nearly what he is looking for when he hits upon a foolish woman who means to be good.

It is not courage to admonish the cook; it is suicidal irresponsibility.

The prose with the poetry is that the same hand that rocks the cradle spans its contents.

It takes a widow to look so scared when lights begin to go out that a man hasn't heart to disappoint her.

It takes a good deal of belief to make one feel as comfortable as a little bit of faith.

It is demanding how interesting a wife can be if she is somebody else's.

It beats anything how natural it is for a girl in the dark to make a mistake and sit down in a man's lap.

Marrying for money is as easy as cashing counterfeit bills at a bank.

The way to catch a woman is not to chase her.

It is a good thing for a man to have a temper, so his wife will think one in the family is enough.

Man makes the money and money makes the man.

After a man has been whitewashed he looks as if he had fallen into an ink barrel.

Nothing makes a woman so proud as to see the point of a story after she has laughed at it.

No man will ever understand woman till he can explain why girls string so many ribbons where nobody ought to see them.

A WOMAN'S COMPLEXION

It is rank foolishness to attempt to remove sallowness or greasiness of the skin by the use of cosmetics, or "local" treatment, as advocated by the "beauty doctors." The only safe and sure way that a woman can improve her complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, which can only be accomplished by keeping the liver healthy and active. The liver is the seat of disease and blood pollution. Green's August Flower acts directly on the liver, cleanses and enriches the blood, purifies the complexion. It also cures constipation, biliousness, nervousness and induces refreshing sleep. A single bottle of August Flower has been known to cure the most pronounced and distressing cases of dyspepsia and indigestion. New trial size bottle, 25 cents; regular size, 75 cents. At all druggists.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., escaped the surgeon's knife, by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have very best wishes from Miss Alice Bailey, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga. — 8000 Fortifolif original of those letters proving genuineness cannot be produced."

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.

They Don't. Detroit Tribune: "We forgot to state that a rising young magazine poet could hardly afford to take chances like Alfred Aus."

Many School Children Are Sickly. Mother writes: "My daughter, a child of 10, has been sick for 24 hours, and is now in bed. She has a fever, and is very weak. I have tried many remedies, but nothing has helped her. I have heard of your Vegetable Compound, and I have ordered a bottle. I hope it will do her good."

TOYS FROM GERMANY. This is the Time When They Pour into the United States. New York Sun: From September to the end of this time when the larger part of the toys we buy from Germany reach our ports. Most of them come to New York and are distributed by wholesale houses to jobbers and retailers all over the country. Germany is the largest manufacturer of cheap toys. Fully 50,000 persons give all their time to this industry. Enormous quantities are consumed at home, and the entire export of toys to the value of over $13,000,000 annually.

Most of the raw materials used in the industry are produced in Germany. The one product that has more to do with development than any other is the wood grown in the forests of Bavaria, Thuringia and the Erzgebirge, which is especially suitable for toy-making. Two cities are famous all over the world as the greatest centers of this production. They are Nuremberg in Bavaria, and Sonneberg, near the Thuringian forest, in the little principality of Meiningen. The country hamlets surrounding these cities are almost wholly associated with the industry. Fully four-fifths of all the toys exported from Germany come from Nuremberg and Sonneberg.

Germany's largest foreign customer for toys is Great Britain, and we are not far behind. Last year we imported German toys to the value of $2,000,000, and the profit differences between the products of Nuremberg and Sonneberg, due to the different materials used, Sonneberg and the towns around it produce generally made of wood and paper mache. Hundreds of skilled wood carvers and cabinet-makers employed in the industry work round Sonneberg. In Hammer, for example, toy ships, large and small, are carved by persons who have never seen a sea or even a model of a ship.

Hobby horses are the chief product of Bamberg. Most of the wooden toys are made in the Schalkau and Ebnath districts, where produce rattles, wagons, jumbies, whistles and Noah's arks in great quantities. The little village of Neustadt is famous for its tin toys, and its tin toys are made in the village of Neustadt. At least twenty villages clustered around Sonneberg contribute to the toy industry. Hundreds of women and girls in Sonneberg devote themselves entirely to the making of clothing for dolls, which they then produce in endless variety at prices all the way from one cent to a dozen to $100. Sonneberg dolls, made chiefly of paper mache, are gradually being displaced by dolls made of wood and paper. They are not fragile in structure nor sensitive to cold and climate, which are the objections raised to the wax products.

Their work is done almost exclusively of wood, paper, porcelain and glass, working them up into hand-made toys in the homes of the workers. The toys are made by hand and are of a high quality. They are made by hand and are of a high quality. They are made by hand and are of a high quality.

TACT AND COURAGE OF GENERAL GORDON

As a Leader He Was Dearly Loved by the Soldiers Who Served Under Him.

WAS A GREAT ORATOR He Did More by Word, Deed and Pen Than Any Other Southern Man to Restore Harmony Between North and South.

Chicago Inter Ocean: "The army which fought the confederate cause in the great civil war has lost the last of its lieutenant generals. Following by a few days the death of Longstreet, Lieutenant General John Brown Gordon died on January 10th.

John Brown Gordon never exercised independent command, and that is the point which distinguishes him from the other being known as a great general. That he was a great man for years before he was called to the command of the well-known southern army as a captain, and at the surrender of Appomattox he was lieutenant general commanding one of Lee's army. Without previous military experience, without military education, without military training, he showed great capacity in subordinate command. Gordon was bold, he was brave, he was loyal to his leader, and he was a fighter. Because of his fighting instinct and his fighting insight he was a power on the battlefield. He was a man who could see and take quick advantage of an opportunity.

His Soldierly Qualities. Two incidents related in Fitzhugh Lee's book, "The Army of Lee," illustrate Gordon's soldierly qualities. Toward the close of February, 1862, General Lee, as is known in the letters of the day, was advancing on Grant's front and the capture of Richmond a month before either event. He was ordered to break through the fortified line slowly extending around the right of his position. Port Steadman, two miles from Petersburg, and 150 yards from the confederate line, where the pickets of the army were stationed, though hopeless, was gallantly made an attempt to break through the line. Gordon was selected to make the attack with his corps, formerly Ewell's, and a detachment of cavalry. His object was to capture the fort, thrust the storming party through the pickets and into the main line of the enemy, and then to break through the line on the right and left of it, under the impression that the fort would be captured. There were two main forts. The pickets that had been commanding the fort were on the main line. The pickets were on the main line. The pickets were on the main line.

His Dash and Daring. Fitzhugh Lee says: "On this occasion Gordon rode to the head of the column forming for the charge, took on his hat, and galloped to the captured line, and General John B. Gordon rode to the head of the column. He was in the dash and daring inferior to no other general of the war. He was in the dash and daring inferior to no other general of the war. He was in the dash and daring inferior to no other general of the war.

Health Before Wealth. Nine out of ten ailments first show themselves in constipation. Nature's warning, if left unheeded, means chronic trouble later on. Medical statistics show that a greater number of people suffer from constipation than from all other diseases combined. A great talk is made about consumption, but if the truth were known, constipation kills more people than any other disease. It is the most common of all diseases, and it is the most dangerous. It is the most common of all diseases, and it is the most dangerous. It is the most common of all diseases, and it is the most dangerous.

General Gordon, removed to Georgia. General Gordon was graduated in 1852 from the Georgia state university, and a few months later was admitted to the practice of law. In 1858 he enlisted with the volunteer confederate soldiers, and was elected captain of his company. He was promoted to major in 1861, and to lieutenant colonel of the Sixth Alabama Infantry in December, 1861.

At the battle of Seven Pines during the gallant advance of his brigade, Gordon was severely wounded, and the command devolved upon Gordon as senior colonel. At Malvern Hill he again commanded the brigade, and led it in the magnificent charge delivered against the federal position by Hill's division. Commissioned major general on November 1, 1862, he was assigned to the command of a gallant brigade of Georgians, the "Thirteenth," twenty-five thousand strong. EIGHT DOLLARS DOES IT.

It Made Gobs of Grief for Sholes People

There was a big crowd of Sholes citizens in Wayne yesterday, the commotion being caused by the arrest of the Sholes banker, Geo. D. Nieland, for wrongfully making out a deed to $8 worth of Sholes real estate. It appeared J. L. Beaton, the man who originally owned the townsite, sold a small piece of ground to Wm. Evans. Mr. Beaton had Banker Nieland make out the deed and supposed that Mr. Evans had secured the title until the real estate transfers in a Wayne paper disclosed that Nieland was the purchaser instead of Evans. Then Mr. Evans went after Mr. Beaton to get his rights, and Beaton had Nieland arrested, County Attorney Siman being called here Tuesday to begin the prosecution. The witnesses here yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. Beaton, Marvin S. Moats, Banker Nieland, Nels Howard, Wm. Evans and Harry Jones. After getting into court the defense took a continuance to Monday, Feb. 15th. The contract price of the ground was only $8, but if it was 80 cents or $80,000 it would cut no figure, probably with the litigants.

Our Florsheim Shoes for spring are all in and the styles are nicer than ever.

The Jonesboro Enterprise says: The famous tonic, Peruna, has had quite a run at Fordyce, and Dr. Hartman wrote to the druggist there to secure some testimonials. One testimonial so far unpublished, read as follows: "Dear Dr. Hartman—I took seven bottles of your Peruna for worms. I now have snakes. Despondently yours"

A dispatch from Berlin says that "every calf in Germany will be vaccinated." In this country the girls kick when they get it on one.

The boys at the court house are having considerable fun this week at the expense of the clerk of courts. It seems Mr. Kuhl had been buying some coal of R. Phillo for his residence with whiskers on. That is, the whiskers were on Kuhl. Recently the clerk cut off all superfluous endowment of this sort, and Sunday was about his residence when Mr. Phillo drove past. "Bellow!" called the coal dealer, stopping his quadruped, "who lives here now?" "Otto Kuhl," answered the gentleman of that cognomen. "Oh, I thought so," queried the dealer. "But say, I didn't suppose Mr. Kuhl had a son as old as you are!"

A German scientist claims that the human hand contains about 800,000 microbes to the square inch. I never counted that many, but, by God, I need to feel a good many more than that when I held a warm-hearted girl's hand.

This ought to be a great year for you girls who are determined to get married. For the first time in eight years they now have the privilege of popping the question without subjecting themselves to unpleasant criticism. See that your hats are on straight, girls; blow up your hip expanders and butt in. Don't be discouraged if you are refused a few times.

It is said that a Winside young man who had occasion to use the "phone a few evenings since, laid his lighted cigar in a chair, took down the receiver, and just as the Central girl answered a friend came in and was about to sit down on the cigar, when the young man exclaimed, "Look out, you'll burn your pants!" He tried hard to explain and it is to be hoped "Central" forgave him.

If there is anything that brings an old cub to realize that he is a has-been it is to ponder a moment on the ghostly methods he follows with regard to the tender sex as compared to the olden days of love-love calf-hood. One day this week a couple of handsome, happy schoolma'ams called on the DEMOCRAT to sell us a ticket to some picture graft affair, and they were turned down so sharp they must have thought the DEMOCRAT man was a whiff of a blizzard. Ten years ago, by God, what a difference in the morning! We'd gone bankrupt right on the spot; taken all the tickets Miss Petticoat could carry in her pockets and been wild to buy more of them.

Query for the Sioux City Journal: If Bieglow paid captain of police Ed. Anderson, $1300 per annum for the privilege of operating slot machines contrary to the ordinances, what do the gambling houses put up to Anderson's superiors for the privilege of doing business at the old stands?

By God, between Jim Hurst's horse talk in the Norfolk News and F. M. Beck's political projectiles in the Sioux City Tribune, it looks as though Wayne would stay on the map for a while, anyway, if only held there by air pressure. Jim says: "I started Union Medium Jr. at Sioux City and raced at the Nebraska state fair through Missouri." Frank's story of Roosevelt doesn't cover quite so much territory as that, but he has become imbued with the belief that if President Roosevelt gets the nomination and enough people vote for him he stands as awfully good show to be elected.

These Sleepy Eye flour makers are onto their job alright. If you buy Sleepy Eye, and don't like it, you can get your money back providing the sack has not been opened."

Little G. O. Chace was telling her papa the other day she didn't care whether he got her a regular ticket or a favoring ticket to the picture show. Asked what a favoring ticket was the little miss explained that it was the same thing they put in pies—seasoning—season ticket.

This day settle it. Billy Dammeyer is getting out a new brand of cigars and calling them "By Dads." Isn't that perfectly horrid? Well, you can all have a smoke on me—if you have the price. Billy says they will be wee little ones but awfully good all the way up. He expects to set the world on fire by the sale of them.

"Few people can realize what a mammoth influx of humanity will result the minute thattaNdaffiosinbr opened."—Norfolk News.

Wouldn't that jar your jeans? I asked Sam Davies, who has been to most all kinds of "openings," what the News was talking about, and he said it was a new one on him but if he got an invitation to it he was going to see the thing through.
