Our County Convention

There was a very light attendance at the democratic county convention held last Saturday afternoon; the business to attend was light, and farmers being right in harvest there were a number of precincts unrepresented. The convention was called to order by Chairman James, who read the call, and Mr. James was elected temporary chairman and Geo. Wilbur secretary. A committee on credentials, C. A. Killion, W. S. Goldie and Chas. Reynolds, found Brenna, Chapin, Hoskins, Sherman, Wilbur and Winside precincts not represented in the convention by regularly elected delegates. Delegates present were: Deer Creek--A. J. Mason, H. C. Bartels, M. L. Halpin, Dan Maher, John Rosacker. Garfield--Jos. Dobbin. Hunter--Martin Muth. Hancock--Jacob Reichart. Logan--Otto Fredrickson. Leslie--C. A. Killion. Plum Creek--Geo. Thies. Strahan--Nick Cullen, and full delegations from Wayne. On motion temporary organization was made permanent. The chair appointed the following committee to select delegates to the state, senatorial and representative conventions: Messrs Mason, Goldie, Massie, Fredrickson and Dobbin, the following selections being made: State--Henry Ley, J. H. Mitchell, F. A. Berry, R. B. Leonard, P. H. Kohl, W. S. Goldie, Walter Gaebler, C. W. Reynolds, E. R. Lundberg. Senatorial--R. H. James, A. H. Hower, Ed Cullen, J. M. Cherry, J. W. Ziegler, Silas Dillon, Geo. Wilbur, Ed Carroll, G. H. Dreveson. Representative--Jas. Britton, Joe Dobbin, Geo. Weatherholt, R. H. Ley, A. J. Mason, Theo. Barnhardt, F. O. Hilder, J. H. Massie, W. S. Goldie.

For candidate for county attorney F. A. Berry was the unanimous choice. This distinction for Mr. Berry is not so distinctive when it is observed that Wilbur & Berry are the only democratic attorneys in the county, but, as Bro. Berry is one of the best and foremost members of the profession the distinction redounds to the honor of the party at least. The county central committee was then selected in so far as possible, the precincts not represented being left to fill in by the committee men present. P. H. Kohl was elected chairman for the ensuing year, and Geo. Wilbur secretary. The following resolutions, handed to the secretary, were then read and received the "stamp" of approval by the convention: We, the Democrats of Wayne county, Nebraska, assembled in County Convention set forth the following resolutions: First--In the Hon. Judge Parker, our candidate for president, we recognize a great leader and believe that in his hands as president our nation will be blessed with a safe and conservative administration, such as the business interests and laboring classes of this country desire. Second--We denounce the action of the last Legislature with its Republican majority for the enactment of what is known as "The New Revenue Law" by means of which the taxes of the state has been increased over Forty (40) per cent. Third--It is the sense of this convention that the delegates selected by this convention to attend the State convention use their best efforts to effect fusion on state officers on a just and equitable basis and that their efforts be directed towards securing the nomination of Hon. W. H. Thompson of Grand Island for Governor, believing that the people of this state have had enough of "Our Man Mickey," the election of two years ago showing that W. H. Thompson's popularity at home was such that he secured several hundred more votes than the candidates on the balance of his ticket and "Our Man Mickey" ran several hundred votes behind his ticket in his home county and we believe that "Our Man Mickey's" acquaintance has so broadened over the state that his defeat is a certainty. Fourth and last we reaffirm our allegiance to the Hon. W. J. Bryan and heartily approve of his actions at the St. Louis convention and believe that he is the greatest political leader of modern times and point to him with pride.

McKillip's Long Hair.

Edgar Howard says: "The worst thing republican editors can raise against Pat McKillip is his hair and they are not disturbing that very much. Never worry about McKillip's long hair boys. He has won a thousand victories while wearing that hair, and he will carry it to congress. In his capacity as cow-boy, farmer, lawyer and banker he has been a success. As a congressional candidate he will keep his record good as a winner. Let his hair alone. It may be a consolation to McCarthy to have the republican writers trying to tie the knots in Pat's hair, but it will not make any votes for McCarthy. This is to be a campaign of brains rather than hair and McKillip is long on both."

Am I Right?

For fifteen years I have catered to the public, a dispenser of the best wines, whiskies, brandies and beers that can be bought in the markets. Have tried to please every patron, and respected every man who has been too good for the saloon but has gotten his liquors elsewhere. Now we have put up every tribute exacted--and they have been excessive--by town and state, and feel like asking the people who use intoxicants to patronize the place that deserve your trade so long as we give you only the best goods at the lowest prices. Ten or fifteen per cent of every dollar you spend at my place goes to educate your children and to pay for public improvements. From a moral standpoint this may seem like a peculiar condition of affairs, but it is what the people voted for--don't blame the saloon-keeper for it. Well, this is a long speech for me to make, so come in and take something--on a tin roof.

Oh! Oh! Ouch?

That tooth does hurt me so when I take a bite of ice cream or take a drink of cold water. I know I should have it attended to. Yes, and I will go to Dr. Eells for so many say he is such a good dentist and does not hurt very much, no matter how bad the tooth is.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 PER YEAR; IF PAID

BY DAD.

What do you think of Bishop Potter and his Christian jag factory?—Bibby. Very "d-d much." See?

A Muscatine woman has been arrested for stealing onions. She will probably be sent up. Here, here, put down that brick.

Bailey, of the Britt Tribune, has some ideas about tributary poetry. He says: "The Algona Advance got worked for an obituary poem last week that jars the ear worse than the falling clouds. The poor child was dead enough at first, but that poem heaps the sand upon its grave. When will people who can't write a rhyme that could be heaped through a rail fence without catching the slivers, ever know enough to keep their foolish gush home and not add insult to injury by putting the poor dead people in verse after they can't help themselves? It requires some firmness to deny space to an obituary poem but we have to do it sometimes just the same."

By dad, it's too bad such eloquent political organs as the Norfolk News are not printed in New York state—where they are needed. Why Editor Huse wastes so much good wind for Roosevelt here in Nebraska is a conundrum. Say, Huse, we'll vote for Teddy if you will just give "your man Mickey" a "double cross." What do you say?

Well, by dad, I for one am not alarmed if the ladies do adopt more mannish styles in the art of dress this fall. No need to hide my clothes under a pillow because somebody else arises first. Get into my clothes by mistake? Well, I'm from Missouri!

So far as this democratic newspaper is concerned, "the money question is still an issue." It will be so long as some people are so mighty slow about paying their subscription account.

Just five months more of leap year left and a lot of old maids in stock. If you don't get a move on you "this load of poles." Teddy Roosevelt's "hope" you may drop.

By dad, how would be an opportune time for Congressman McCarthy to build another public building at Wayne on paper.

Not every girl you see on the streets with her sleeves rolled up has been helping her mother wash the dishes.

At Sioux City on Thursday four dairymen were arrested for using formaldehyde to preserve their milk. The people there prefer to wait until their babies are dead before they are embalmed, hence the trouble. Here in Wayne, by dad, we'd just as lief have a little poison in some of the milk, that is sold, as not.

Dr. R. L. Cosner

(Successor to Dr. Ivory)

High grade dental work at reasonable charges

The Sioux City Tribune notices that the men who were to pay $10,000 for the best Rosebud prizes have mysteriously disappeared and a whole lot of fellows who were advised their farms were "approximately" worth $3000, will fail to show up for them—at Bonesteel.

Des Moines undertakers have fixed a price of $2.50 for shaving dead men. The men will not kick.

The railroads say "Berge is too d-d honest," to be governor. What will the voters say about it?

A pair of deaf mutes were married at Sioux City the other day. It is reported to have been a quiet wedding, and the groom is a lucky fellow in more ways than one. She can't even hear him come home in the morning.

Flour is getting so high we will have to cut out "our daily bread" and take it every other day.

The Boston Bloomer team is again making dates in the northwest. The name of the manager is G. E. Gaul. He has to have lots of it too.

It pays to be honest. A New York street car conductor, supporting a family on a $1.50 a day and saving enough to carry him through medical college, found a purse containing $1,500. He was sorely tempted, but remembered that "honesty is the best policy" and when a well-dressed woman boarded the car and tearfully announced the loss he returned it to her. She was profuse in her thanks and opened another well filled purse, took out a coin and handed it to the conductor. It was a 25 cent piece. As the conductor didn't have any change he modestly refused to accept the whole quarter, but the woman laid it on the seat and left the car. He will have the quarter framed.

Call and see our fine line of soaps, GANDY.

Sheriff Mears took Hans Petersen, a farmer living west of Carroll, in tow last Saturday, the unfortunate man having gone insane. The sheriff left Saturday for Lincoln with him.

Wm. Ellison of near Concord called on the DEMOCRAT yesterday, being on his way home from Bonesteel where he filed on a claim. Mr. Ellison says there is some excellent country up there but all in the drawing over 500 pay for what land they get, and he didn't think there would be over 1500 Blings under the present ruling. His number was 184, but so many dropped out that he got the 151st choice.

Hi Grigg's father arrived from Mapleton, Wis. this week. The old gentleman rode a wheel the first 150 miles then came by rail.

Don't forget to place your orders with the Palace Livery for conveyance to the picnic grounds next Thursday, the 18th. Families of four will be hauled to the grounds for 50c, and more than four at 10c each. Phone 134.

F. M. Skeen tells the DEMOCRAT he will be a candidate for county attorney this fall, by petition of the "independent republican voters." Just whom the "independent republican voters" are is a conundrum. F. M. Skeen did not put us onto F. M. says he can't get a nomination in the regular way from his party, and he proposes to run without the aid or consent of any. He says he will canvass the whole and elect "Frank Skeen county attorney" if it can be done. Here's hoping he will at least be able to infuse some life into local politics, though the DEMOCRAT has serious misgivings as to Bro. Skeen ever wearing the ermine.

Postmaster Tracy was down from Winside yesterday.

Too Much Medicine

A peculiar law suit was on tap in the local county court Wednesday. Atty. Young of Stanton and Weather, by and Koenigstein of Norfolk being outside help in the case. Gas Scheede, who lives in the northwest part of the county, was defendant, the trouble arising over a bunch of cattle Sheriff Mears took away from Scheede some time ago on an execution, and which Mrs. Scheede later replevined, claiming the stock was hers. A flaw was found in the transcript of the judgment and execution from the Douglas county court, and therefore the case relinquished here after a jury had been empaneled to try it. The original cause of the strife, as told the DEMOCRAT, was inaugurated a year or two ago when a quack doctor appeared at the Scheede place and offered to cure her of some ailment for $150. A bargain was struck, but the doctor having some difficulty in writing Scheede's name, got the latter to write it, giving address also. About a year later a note turns up in Omaha against Scheede for the $150, and suit being brought for collection in Douglas county, defendant upon advice of his attorney, as the DEMOCRAT understands it, made no defense, a judgment being rendered and a transcript being taken to Wayne county, Sheriff Mears, in the ordinary course of events, levying on the cattle as aforesaid. It is probable the matter will next appear in the district court and the opinion is expressed by some that Scheede will have to take his overdose of medicine.

Off for the Far West

A Wayne young man was missing yesterday, also a Wayne young lady, Frank Whitman, who has been working on Payne's dray line, was the lad, and a daughter of Pete Zeenan the girl. The DEMOCRAT understands they were married yesterday evening while enroute for the far west, Colorado, Utah, or California, any old place to get away from "the old man."

A Very Bad Storm.

Reports have been coming to town all week of the big storm of Monday night. A strip of territory north east of Wayne appears to have gotten it the worst from the hail, although small grain that was sown was greatly damaged in places all over the county. W. A. K. Neely had some two dozen window glasses knocked out by hail, and at W. O. Gamble's place, eight miles north of town, the hail could be scooped up by the bushel any time of the day Tuesday. Immense damage was done to corn over a large scope of country, and coming right upon the season of harvest it makes business for some people look quite dubious.

Near the German church north east of town the most severe damage was done, Henry Frederickson's corn being about a total loss. W. A. K. Neely, W. O. Gamble, Ted Perry and the party on the old Everingham farm are all heavy losers. A peculiarity of the storm is that it cleared out patches of the crops, some places doing little or no damage directly in the path of the hail.

W. O. Gamble was out yesterday over the storm belt and has arrived at the conclusion that the report of damage to the corn crop has been greatly exaggerated. He says though that he saw over a thousand acres of oats in the field that is a proposition to save. One man who lives on the creek northeast of town had fifteen acres bound and shocked, and it was all washed clean away except three shocks. Chris Wishoff has at least fifteen loads of oats, hay and apples washed in a pile in his pasture.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baird and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bartlett leave tomorrow for Boston. The fare for the round trip is only $35.

Will Jastram Moves to Franklin, Neb.

FRANKLIN, Neb., Aug. 8, 1904. FRIEND WALT:—A few weeks ago I wrote you to send my paper, the DEMOCRAT, to Homer, Neb., for the present. Now, please send it to Franklin, Neb., as this is where I have decided to live, for a while at least. I left Sioux City four weeks ago while my folks were visiting at and around Homer. I sold my shop in Sioux City before I left there. I have seen quite a little of Nebraska lately. I think south central will suit me pretty well. The wheat crop here is good and poor, from 7 to 30 bushels per acre is the yield. The poorest is what was sown in corn fields in the fall and the best was drilled in early on fall plowing. This is all winter wheat. The crop promised 35 to 40 bushels till about a week before harvest then it rained every day and the hot sun cooked the berry. We have had good rains of late and the corn crop promises to be heavy. Peaches and apples will be a big crop.

The new boiler for the city power house is being put in today. It is quite a mammoth piece of machinery and necessitates considerable ingenuity and care upon the part of Manager Fritts to get it properly placed without accident. A Warning to Mothers

Too much care cannot be used with small children during the hot weather of the summer months to guard against bowel troubles. As a rule it is only necessary to give the child a dose of castor oil to correct any disorder of the bowels. Do not use any substitute, but give the old fashioned castor oil, and see that it is fresh; as rancid oil nauseates and has a tendency to gripe. If this does not check the bowels give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and then a dose of castor oil, and the disease may be checked in its insipidity and all danger avoided. The castor oil and this remedy should be procured at once and kept ready for instant use as soon as the first indication of any bowel trouble appears. This is the most successful treatment known and may be relied upon with implicit confidence even in cases of cholera infantum. For sale by all druggists.

Railroad Revenue Law is a Dandy

The following figures compiled from the county treasurer's books, is a good example of what the railroads did to the state of Nebraska when they got a lot of cheap tincompoos in the state legislature to frame the present revenue law: Also see table above.

In 1903 the state tax for this county was $17,945.00, county $33,778.33.

In 1904 the state tax is $23,297.78, county $36,888.16.

In 1903 the railroads paid the state in taxes $2129.00, the county $4007.52.

In 1904 the railroads pay the state $2332.54 and pay the county only $3687.35.

The railroads thus pay this county $320.17 less than a year ago, while the county pays the state $5,362.78 more than in 1903.

The following shows the amount of taxes paid the state by Wayne county during the six years of democratic economy and following four years of extravagant republican rule:

Year	DEMOCRAT RULERS	COST WAYNE COUNTY

Fusion Wins Out

Geo. W. Berge for Governor, the Choice of Populists and Democrats.

For Governor: GEO. W. BERGE, Lancaster County.

Lieutenant Governor: DR. A. TOWNSEND, Franklin County.

Auditor of State: J. S. CANADY, Kearney County.

Treasurer State: JOHN OSBORN, Pawnee County.

Commissioner: A. A. WORSLEY, Boyd County.

Supt. Schools: A. SOFTLY, Perkins County.

Secretary State: R. E. WALKER, Richardson County.

Each party placed presidential electors in the field, facing only on state offices.

George W. Berge is a prominent attorney of Lincoln, and a populist since 1890. Canady, Osborn, Worsley and Softley are populists, the balance of the ticket being democrats.

The platform adopted by the democrats reads:

"We, the democrats of Nebraska, in state convention assembled, hereby reaffirm the principles of democracy as asserted and defended by Jefferson, Jackson and Bryan, and approve the platform adopted by the democratic national convention at St. Louis. We pledge our hearty support to Alton B. Parker and Henry G. Davis, the nominees of that convention.

"We point with pride to the splendid record made by our distinguished fellow citizen, W. J. Bryan, and take this opportunity of again expressing our profound appreciation of his steadfast devotion to democratic principles.

"We denounce the republican state administration for its subservience to railroad and other corporation influences, for its extravagance in public expenditures, its carelessness in the management of state institutions and its utter disregard of the public interests.

"We promise a careful and economical administration of the state's business to the end that the people may obtain the best possible results at the smallest possible expenditure of money.

"We promise that the nominees of this convention will not, if elected, accept at the hands of any corporation favors in any form and that the acceptance of any such favors by any appointee under these nominees shall result in his immediate discharge.

"We favor the enactment of a law that will effectually prohibit lobbying in the state legislature, in county boards or in town or in town or city councils. The penalty for the violation of such a law should be imprisonment in the penitentiary.

"Representatives of the corporations and of other interests should be heard before the regular committees of legislature, county board, or town or city council, or before the open session of the main body.

"We promise the repeal of the Ramsey elevator law and the enactment in its place of the Brady elevator bill, a measure framed in the public interest and defeated by the republican legislature at the behest of the elevator trust.

"We favor the enactment of a statute abolishing the fellow servant law.

If Maushal Smith rings the curfew a little out of time these days' people should not mind it and excuse him for of course it is expected that he will be a little excited under the circumstances, and one of these days it will be his own little boy that will have to scamper for home when he hears the bell. The happy event occurred Sunday morning and mother and child are doing well and it is thought that Henry will recover in time.

A very severe hail storm visited this section last Friday afternoon, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The icy substances came down in all sizes, from five inches in diameter to much smaller, and lasted for several minutes. To an observer the storm seemed to have formed right over Winside, and in a short space of time, the extreme heat of the afternoon was changed to a very decidedly cool atmosphere. The storm only covered a narrow strip being the worst northeast of town where it devastated the gardens and cut the corn leaves all to pieces. The Norfolk paper reports it very bad in that vicinity, doing considerable damage to vegetation.

Wedding Bells

West Point Democrat.

Tuesday morning at 11:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Losch the marriage of Arthur L. Tucker and Miss Blanche Losch was solemnized.

It was one of the most elaborate functions of that nature ever occurring in this city. The spacious and elegant home was most beautifully decorated. The color scheme being carried out in pink, white green, roses, asters, ferns, palms and sunlax were used in great and charming profusion.

The bride was attended by only little Helen Thompson and Abbie Black, as flower girls; and Master Richard Lecher, the brother of the bride, acted as ring bearer carrying the wedding ring on a beautiful American beauty rose. The bride was charming in her bridal robes of white blonde over silk. She wore no jewelry, save a diamond brooch, the gift of the groom. The groom was attired in the conventional black.

The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. C. A. Gleason, of the Congregational church, in a particularly beautiful and impressive manner; the ring service being used, but especially adapted and prepared by Rev. Gleason for this particular occasion.

The music during the ceremony added much to its beauty. The ceremony was followed by an elegantly appointed breakfast of six courses.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker left on the 2 p. m. train for Omaha and other Nebraska points. They will be at their home to their friends at Cedar Rapids, Nebraska, after October 1.

The bride is a graduate of our high school. She also spent four years at the State University and one year at the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston, Mass. She is a beautiful and talented young lady.

The groom is the Cashier of the Cedar Rapid Valley Bank. He is a graduate of Cornell college, and a most promising young man.

We cannot help but mention the rice shower given them at the depot by their many young friends. May their happiness and success be according to the number of the rice grains—manifold.

The guests numbered only the relatives and most intimate friends of the family. Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, and two Misses Tucker, also Mr. W. Tucker, the father, mother, sisters and brother of the groom, Mrs. Huse, of Norfolk; Mr. Kenelm King, of Omaha; and Mrs. B. F. Ewing, of Sioux City. The guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Kloke, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Black, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoar, Mr. and Mrs. M. McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. George Korb, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Miller.

Miss Helen Black, Gladys Korb, Hattie Goldsmith, Emma Miller, Mona Kloke, Mary Thompson and Ethel Kelso.

Ralph Rundell came home last night from Crystal Lake and says they certainly had an immense time in camp. Plenty of good fishing in the lake, and one of the most remarkable wells ever heard of, where a dozen different ropes brought up as many different forms of liquid refreshments. Manager Berry will arrive home tomorrow, and the boys say he is completely cured of his stomach trouble.

Tom Bell went to Pierce last night to see his brother-in-law, Dr. Alden, who is very low with appendicitis, also a nephew, Ollie Cagle, who was sandbagged at the Norfolk fireman's tournament and received wounds from which he will die. Theo. Bell, Tom's brotner, has been in Pierce all week.

The DEMOCRAT's candid opinion is that W. H. Thompson would have polled more votes for the office of governor on a straight democratic ticket than Geo. W. Berge can corral as a fusion candidate. Two good republican votes could be found for Thompson for every one pop vote Mr. Berge can get.

The DEMOCRAT is informed that Congressman McCarty will not attend the old settlers picnic next Thursday. Burckett and McKillip will be the chief political attractions and a effort is being made to get Geo. W. Berge, a fusion nominee for governor to attend. The grounds are being put in good shape for the picnic.

Attention! Singers!

Every singer in the city is invited and urged to come out tonight and every night hereafter and join the chorus for the Old Settler's day concert. Prof. Leo G. Kratz commenced his drill last evening with 30 voices and a good start was made. If the singers of the town come out the chorus will be a grand success. Mr. Kratz is a splendid conductor and Wayne has the singers. Come out tonight!

The democrats are so certain of carrying New York that there are about twenty candidates for Governor.

Atchison Globe Sights.

Do the parents and the balance of the family count? An Atchison girl telephoned to a girl friend to come over; that she was "lonesome". It was learned that her mother, father, two aunts and four brothers and sisters were in the house when she telephoned.

"You seem to despise book agents," writes a subscriber. We have reason to; the way we have been worked by book agents is scandalous. Lately, by screaming lustily, we have escaped for as much as a year at a time, whereupon an agent comes along with a new graft, and catches us.

A woman moved into a strange neighborhood. The following Monday morning she was out in the yard hanging up her wash. The woman living next door was also hanging up her wash, and said to the stranger: "And so you play the piano, too." And that's the way they became acquainted.

An Atchison man was lately elected delegate to the national meeting of his lodge in San Francisco. He will be much pleased over his "victory." Still, he will be compelled to neglect his business for two weeks, and he has a very active competitor. The competitor will not fail to take advantage of his rival. This lodge business ruins many a good man.

These cat fights that occur around your house at night; who starts them; the boy cat or the girl cat? At our house every evening a girl cat belonging to a neighbor, appears on the lawn. Soon thereafter there is the doggiest fight going on you ever heard of. But we never see the boy cat; he knows he's dirty dog and keeps out of sight. But the girl cat walks to the meeting place as bold as you please.

Speaking of strange experiences: An Atchison woman who was a widow when she came here, relates that her husband would never get up for breakfast, being of a lazy disposition. On the morning when her experience occurred, she called him, then stood in the door and scolded for half an hour. Getting no response she ran down stairs, got a bucket of water and threw over him. As this didn't awaken him, she took a closer look, and found he was dead.

More Mickyism

For almost two years Mr. A. B. Allen, Governor Mickey's private secretary, has been permitted by the chief executive to draw a salary from the state while at the same time devoting almost all of his time to the duties devolving upon him as secretary of the republican state committee. While the headquarters remained at Lincoln Mr. Allen, with some show of propriety, was able to fill both offices. Now that the headquarters have been removed to Omaha, while the state house remains in Lincoln, it has been found necessary to throw propriety to the winds.

Doubtless Governor Mickey's son, whom nepotism places on the payroll as a clerk in the governor's office, is a very efficient young man, and amply able to attend his own duties and those of Mr. Allen as well while the latter is in Omaha doing political work for which the state pays him. But the statutes and the proprieties alike seem to require Mr. Allen's attendance at Lincoln. He should have the good taste to resign either the one office or the other, and if he has not, the governor's well known and immaculate morality should prompt him to call the matter to his secretary's immediate attention.

It is not undeserving of notice, while the subject is up, that Secretary Allen is not the only republican pensioner who draws pay from the state for services rendered his party organization. Harry Lindsay, after being appointed clerk of the supreme court, served for several months as chairman of the state committee. And now that another chairman has been elected in his stead it is found that Mr. Lindsay delegates his duties as clerk of the court to a deputy and devotes his time assiduously to "helping out" in the republican state headquarters in the Murray hotel in Omaha. Attention is called to these little things more in sorrow than in anger. If democratic clerks and officeholders were doing the work Lindsay and Allen are doing there would be loud and uninterrupted outcry on the part of the republican press. But under the circumstances the republican press may be depended upon indignantly to take the World Herald task for every mentioning of the matter.—World Herald.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Bosche's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without the old and tried remedy in the home—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can speedily be cured by German Syrup; so can bronchitis and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size, 75c. All drug stores.

Delicate Family Problems. My admiration goes so voluntarily to the man or woman who is able to maintain a sound friendship with those relatives who have been acquired by marriage. It is not always the easiest matter in the world, though one of the most important. From the least good will and hearty liking of your wife's people or your husband's family, when you can and do command it, you give thereby good qualities of heart and some very good methods of manner, and you also show that you know how to make the most of the advantages for popularity.

Weapons That Win. If the situation is such a one as I have outlined above, and with lamentable frequency I find that with her own self-esteem and her marital happiness to maintain, can well one, and only one, set of weapons in order to win. She must be tactful, and she must pursue the never failing profitable policy of the sweetest politeness.

The Wisdom of the Serpent. Now, when you are married, your troubles with your relations-in-law begin as a rule, and may be very serious. In the first place, my husband was a charming fellow, but his family were very stern, very proud, very conventional Virginians, and through my maiden days I had frequently been told that I was a most attractive young person. I knew that I was beautiful, and I knew that my husband's manner could ever be other than delightfully ingratiating until I went to visit in the home of my dear mother-in-law. To you, I received a shock. Everything was civil, but it was as plain as could be made that they did not like me.

Others Would Have No Chances. Bug—Are you entered in the Bugville athletic games? Yes; but they won't let me compete in the jumping events.

Conquests at a Household. It is only fair to conclude that a bride's new relatives, with rare and beautiful exceptions, regard her from a critical standpoint. They are not so much on the lookout to identify her failings than her virtues. They are not apt to be kind and sympathetic to the nice man who has married, and they have an ugly little way of magnifying her faults and magnifying her virtues.

TEAL DUCK IS NOT FLESH.

Why It is Eaten in Lenten Season—and From the New Orleans Times-Democrat: "Did you ever know that teal duck is not flesh?" Inquired one of a party of gentlemen who were discussing the high price of fish since the winter season began. "I have never known a teal duck is not flesh, even if it is a fowl," it is the same as a winged and feathered teal duck could be eaten safely at one for fish during the Lenten season or any Friday. I did not know that was a fact until a few days ago when I happened to be invited to a luncheon whereat sat one of the great dignitaries of the Catholic church, the archbishop of New Orleans. He was astounded when a teal duck was served at every plate. But I knew that there were some who were not of the orthodox of the arms of the church government in fact sat at the same table and had a duck before him, as I said nothing just at the moment.

Why It is Eaten in Lenten Season—and From the New Orleans Times-Democrat: "Did you ever know that teal duck is not flesh?" Inquired one of a party of gentlemen who were discussing the high price of fish since the winter season began. "I have never known a teal duck is not flesh, even if it is a fowl," it is the same as a winged and feathered teal duck could be eaten safely at one for fish during the Lenten season or any Friday. I did not know that was a fact until a few days ago when I happened to be invited to a luncheon whereat sat one of the great dignitaries of the Catholic church, the archbishop of New Orleans. He was astounded when a teal duck was served at every plate. But I knew that there were some who were not of the orthodox of the arms of the church government in fact sat at the same table and had a duck before him, as I said nothing just at the moment.

Not a Little Dear, but a Very Great Deal!

"My darling," exclaimed Arthur, "is it really that you consent to become the wife of a poor man? Remember, dear, I have nothing but my own money, and I am not a very rich man, perhaps, waiting for years, we could build a home."

"Yes," she replied in the same tone. "I am poor, dear, and I am young, you know, and can work, but..."

"The next day Arthur handed his intention of the thing up to London again, much to Ida's regret. "You know darling, my principals are getting impatient, and would never get me out into their bad books now!" To which Ida agreed reluctantly compelled to agree.

Arthur smiled somewhat at this reply, and then he went to Cranford Glen the next day (Thursday), arriving at the family "little station" about an hour after he had been admitted by a new butler, much to his relief. He did not want to be recognized, but he was sure to be recognized, who is my guardian? I was told he was here."

"And so he is," replied Arthur. "Darling, don't you understand? I am Sir Arthur Hayes, and..."

"What a lovely name," said Mr. Arthur James, and a journalist," she said wondrously, but smiling mischievously at the white. "It is perfectly true, dear. My name is Arthur James Hayes, and up to the present, I have been carrying my name as Arthur Hayes, but now, coming over here the day you upset the trap, but changed my mind as I thought it would not be recognized. You know the rest, dear, and I wish, whatever you are laughing at, Ida, that you had been standing by the window, her shoulders shaking with suppressed laughter."

"You're not angry, then, darling? I was afraid I should not win you in the state of your mind, but I thought I had to resort to the next best means of managing matters!"
