To those who are Suffering

FROM WEAK EYES FROM POOR SIGHT

...Dr. M. ERSLER...

the well known expert optician of Sioux City, Iowa, will again be at the Union Hotel, Wayne, Neb., Saturday, Oct. 29

His 7th visit to Wayne, Nebraska. Since Dr. Ersler has been visiting Wayne he has demonstrated to his patrons that he can fit eyes with glasses where others utterly fail. He can refer you to hundreds of people in Wayne and vicinity. My examinations are thorough, painstaking and scientific. I use no drugs or medicines in my methods. My instruments are the best known to science.

Most head aches are caused by defective eyes and can be cured with glasses. My lenses positively cure headache, nervousness, giddiness, lightheadedness and all pains in and around the eyes, give perfect sight and relieve all strain of the eye muscles. If you have children whose eyes are crossed either constantly or occasionally, or who complain of having any trouble with their eyes at school, bring them to me and have their eyes corrected.

If you have any trouble whatever with your eyes, it matters not if you tried others and they failed to give relief, give me a trial. It costs you nothing to find out whether or not you can get relief. I have fitted thousands and can fit you too.

Take Notice—I give a written contract in every case I undertake. I guarantee to give results or refund the money. Union Hotel, Wayne, Nebraska, October 29.

Teachers at Emerson

"The very best and biggest district convention we have ever held," is the way one teacher compliments that body of young idea shooters upon their Emerson meeting held last Saturday. The DEMOCRAT understands there were over 200 in attendance and some prominent educators of the country, among them Prio. J. W. Crabtree of the Perb normal, W. H. Clements, president of the Fremont normal, deputy state superintendent, J. C. McBrien of Lincoln, who is said to have delivered a very fine address. Pres. Prie gave a splendid talk on "Power is Knowledge." The following resolution was passed: Be it resolved by the members of this association that the next legislative be requested to enact a law that shall require a minimum amount of professional training as an additional qualification for teachers receiving the various grades of certificates, and that shall also fix a minimum salary to be paid to teachers according to the grade of certificate held.

The Wayne county teachers who attended were: Katherine Green, Nellie Jones, Mamie Wallace, Abigail Manning, Elsie Riniker, Gertrude Gregg, Emma Schwirin, A. E. Littell, John Saunty, Nellie Palmer, Mrs. Maria Wolfe, W. E. Richardson, E. R. Gibson, Alice Wadsworth, Pearl Sewell, Claude Wright, Blanche Bell, Mary Richardson, Ida Heyer, Edna Britton, Mary Paulski, Jennie Vennerburg, Nellie Herner, Vera Rubree, Edith Mead, Christens Lundquist, Faye Britton, Gertrude Bayes, Anna Ellis, A. T. Weeces, Jennie Waddell, Veda Pilger, Maggie Carroll, Anna Gustafson, Mary Farr, Ella Grier, Cora Lawyer, Sarah Jenkins, Nellie Ross, Inga Madson, Leroy Ruggles, Amy Hanson, Gwen dollas Davis, Hattie Schalthels, Grace Goss, Myrtle Robinson, Harry Ziemer, Minnie Wright, Vern Embree, Della Spencer, Elsie Porter, Vera Garlock, Edith Hannegan, County Supr, Bright, T. | T J Kuey            | 21 93  |
| boiler              | 21,000 |

Kuey the boiler man was present and by turning in a warrant previously made to his credit received another covering full cost of the new boiler and interest on the first payment to date. The committee appointed to look up the matter of opening up Logan street across the tracks, failed to report, Aldermen Williams and Roe both being absent. Judging from the discussion of the project it is unlikely the present board will do anything in the premises. The matter of securing insurance on the new plant was left to the finance committee. A petition from W. M. Wright, asking that his land west of the cemetery be excluded from the corporate limits of the city, was granted. Mr. Wright's petition was directed to the district court, and as there appeared to be reasons why the claims of petitioner were just and equitable, the council voted unanimously to let him get the property out.

Mrs. Powell Bound Over.

The preliminary hearing of Mrs. E. C. Powell, charged with assault on commit murder, was heard before Judge Hunter Monday afternoon, and after taking the evidence of Mr. Powell and defendant walking examination, she was bound over to district court, which convenes next month, under $1000 bonds. E. C. Powell was accompanied by his brother William and deputy sheriff Kelso of Wisner. He stated that Mrs. Powell had acted queerly at supper time, objecting to some imaginary motions of the hired man. That the shot, inflicting a scalp wound, woke him up in the night, and getting out of his room and then returning he was met by his wife who shot him again, the bullet going through his mouth. Welch & Davis were attorneys for Mrs. Powell and in reply to the query that the defendant would plead insanity at trial Mr. Davis said he did not at this time know. Mrs. Powell is still in jail, laublike and evidently o. k. mentally. She does not appear to be badly worried over the serious charge against her.

The DEMOCRAT has said no word about the candidates for county attorney, believing that the people of Wayne county know Mr. Berry and Mr. Simon just as well as the DEMOCRAT. Of course we want to see Mr. Berry win out, and of course he is greatly handicapped politically because the county will likely vote three or four hundred republicans. The DEMOCRAT would just like to call attention to this one fact, that voters take the time and care to mark their ballots properly, so that Mr. Berry will have an equal show for an election. Of course there are many other reasons why the democratic candidate should be elected aside from the fact that he is a democrat, but republicans who can properly size up the situation will vote for Mr. Berry just as readily by taking their own judgment of the matter rather than upon any suggestion or prejudiced advice from the DEMOCRAT.

After Faithful Service of Fifteen Years, Thomas J. Marshall Is Arrested.

When He Was Arrested He Had Letters on His Person and Immediately Confessed to Taking Them.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 11.—After long and faithful service in the postal department, Thomas J. Marshall, a railway mail carrier, was arrested and charged with rifling letters.

Marshall has been in the service fifteen years, and was the head messenger in charge of the Lincoln-Billings run. As he stepped from the train he was taken in charge by inspectors Moore, Sinclair and Schlauss.

Marshall lives at Greenwood, where he has a wife and three children. He was a member of the Lincoln Post, No. 1, and has been in high esteem.

Marshall was bound over to the federal court last evening, his bond being fixed at $1,000.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 11.—The temptation of turning to mercenary means as the annual election parade, proved too much for "Fainting" Bertha Liebecke.

The first advice the police had that Miss Liebecke had played a contract was when S. S. Combs called at the police station to report the loss of $140, which amount, he said, had been taken by a woman.

Combs, who says he lives at Ross, Wyo., said he came to Omaha to take his wife to the hospital. A woman approached him and he took her into himself, he said. They engaged a room at the corner.

Supreme Court Holds That Legislature Can Void Tax System. The court has ruled in both the authorities of Richardson county and the members of the Omaha Real Estate exchange.

The Omaha case was an original suit in the supreme court for a mandamus to compel the city council to convene as a board of review and listen to protests against taking the figures of the city of equal value.

The suits were brought under the old law, but the new law is practically the same as the old law, the decision will apply in regard to the constitutionality of the new law.

GREAT SHAKE-UP IN ROCK ISLAND SYSTEM

$500,000 President Is Swept Out of Power and Leaves Road.

HE FAILED TO MAKE GOOD

Loree Brought Eastern Methods to Western Road and Failed—Spectacular Rise of the Moore Party in Past Eight Years.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The greatest sensation in railroad circles in years was sprung when L. F. Loree, head of the Rock Island system, and the highest salaried railroad official in the world, resigned very suddenly after a week of conflict with B. L. Winchell, managing head of the system.

Mr. Winchell, who has won the great contest, will gain tremendously in influence in consequence and will undoubtedly become the active head of the great system.

Mr. Loree, nine months ago, came to the Rock Island system from the Baltimore and Ohio, where he was president. In order to induce him to make the change he was given a cash bonus of $500,000 and a salary of $75,000 a year.

Mr. Winchell, who is now president, is said to have the Moors, who own the Rock Island, have been much displeased with the change. Mr. Loree plans to make of the system the greatest transport power in history.

Following the last annual report, which showed a net gain of $1,000,000, the Moore brothers hastened to ascertain the reasons. It is said they could not find out why the net gain was a gross error in applying eastern methods to western conditions.

At meetings of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, Mr. Loree was elected chairman of the executive committee of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad company, and B. F. Youkum, chairman of the executive committee of the Rock Island and St. Louis railroad company.

Mr. Loree's resignation came after a week between him and the principal owners of the system. At these conferences were William H. and James H. Moore, president and chairman of the Rock Island board; Robert Mather, vice president and general counsel of the Rock Island; and Robert Mather, vice president and general counsel of the Rock Island company. At these conferences there developed differences of opinion as to methods of management, and the result was the resignation of Mr. Loree.

It is believed it may be called, was largely by Mr. Loree, supreme executive head of the Rock Island system, and the Rock Island railroad, those methods and policies have been differently applied from the beginning.

Mr. Winchell, who was elected chairman of the system, is the sole executive head of the system, and is powerfully subordinate to the owners.

Two Men in Charge.

The future of the Rock Island, with its two million miles of more than 15,000 miles of track, will be handled by two men—B. L. Winchell and Robert Mather—and it is understood they have agreed to divide the property what it should be. Five years ago neither of these men was widely known in railroad circles.

Mr. Winchell will be in complete control of the operation of the property, with the aid of Mr. Mather as chairman of the executive committee, while Mr. Mather will be in charge of the financial and other matters of the Rock Island company of New Jersey, the security-holding corporation, and the Rock Island railroad.

Neither railroad nor financial history furnishes a parallel to the rise of William H. and James H. Moore and D. G. Reid, and nothing in railroad history since the Moors acquired it three years ago.

GERMANS AT ST. LOUIS

Celebration of Their National Day One of the Big Events of the Exposition.

St. Louis, Oct. 10.—One of the largest demonstrations that has characterized the world's fair, attracting thousands, is the celebration of the German national day, which is being observed here today. Not only was almost the entire German population of St. Louis in attendance, but also a large number of the United States augmented the vast assemblage.

The principal visitor of the occasion was Baron Speck von Sternburg, German ambassador, bore a greeting received by cable from Emperor William, and a number of other distinguished citizens of America.

Carl Schurz of New York delivered an address in which he placed his emphasis on the fact that Germany values most highly the friendship of the United States, and that rumors of the German-German are canards conceived by agitators.

Dr. Theodore Lewald, commissioner general of the German exhibit, was assisted by Dr. F. C. Riehoff, German consul in St. Louis. Many distinguished German guests participated in the celebration.

Beautiful October weather prevailed and served to draw thousands to the celebration. The program included the usual calisthenics and gymnastics performed by Turner societies and classes of children. At the conclusion of the exercises, the German national day after which addresses were made from the balcony of the German national pavilion.

President Dr. Francis, of the exposition, and Mayor Wells of St. Louis, delivered addresses of welcome.

Baron von Sternburg said in his address:

Gentlemen and Friends: To greet you in a friendly and fraternal manner on your great work is a source of special honor and joy for me. Never before, probably in the history of the world, has it happened that 50,000 men of German descent, from all parts of the world, should be gathered together in one place.

I am convinced the millions of Germans who planted the traditions of the fatherland in America, and who have faithfully guarded them and left them to their children, will be proud to see from their eternal home with pleasure and pride upon the younger generations of Americans, the fruits of their noble heritage, brought to light and honor upon the German exhibit in America, and employed in the peaceful development of their new home.

The German exhibit, which is the pride of the fatherland with pride and thankfulness, America owes her astonishing progress to the German people.

You are all aware of the warm interest the German emperor takes in your life and work. He has sent you a message of German accomplishment and knowledge and has asked you to take part in the principal games among the dazzling treasures of this exhibition. It proclaims that both Germany and America are proud to have adopted a country which has produced similar great things in this astonishing development.

His majesty the emperor requested me to convey his imperial greetings and congratulations to those countless citizens of the fatherland who have been at the world's fair at St. Louis, and not pass without the celebration of a German day.

May this glorious day be celebrated in unbroken harmony and with a worthy testimonial of the important part played by the German people in the peaceful and fruitful development of the great trans-Atlantic republic.

William, I. R. Romanitz, October 6, 1904.

FUNERAL OF MR. PAYNE

Simple Ceremonies at St. John's Church, Washington, Precede the Departure of Remains.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Although the official funeral services in St. John's church today over the body of the late Henry C. Payne, postmaster general, were held in a very simple manner, the official Washington filled the nave of the church. Brilliant as were the uniforms of the army, navy and marine corps, the solemnity of the scene was only enhanced by the deep mourning which enveloped the deep mourning of the family and personal friends of the deceased.

Said by side with Mrs. Payne at the funeral procession was winding its way slowly through the streets of the city, and the postal carriers in uniform to the Pennsylvania station, where the body was taken to Philadelphia. The interment will be in that city.

WASN'T A TAME BEAR

This One Provoked It by Attacking Two Tourists and Killing Them.

Cody, Wyo., Oct. 10.—James Wilson and his nephews, Pennsylvania, while hunting in the mountains of Wyoming, came suddenly upon a supposed tame bear in the timbered part of the park. The bear, which was supposed to be a tame bear, attacked the party and killed two of them. The bear was then shot and killed.

STORM A SCHOOL.

Italian Women Plan a Riot and Attack a Public School.

New York, Oct. 10.—False rumors that a plot was on foot to destroy a public school in the upper section caused a riot of several hundred Italian women of the pupils, requiring a force of police reserves to quell the disturbance. The women, who were armed with knives and stones, were driven away from the school entrance and had not a peaceful word to say. The riot was caused by the rumor that the school was to be destroyed.

HAD SEAT OF HONOR.

Booker T. Washington Addresses the International Peace Conference in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 10.—Booker T. Washington's speech delivered before the international peace congress, Booker T. Washington arranged the Belgian government for the alleged outrages in the Congo Free State, declared that he had evidence of abuse and cruelty and said that the state of affairs was a blot on modern civilization.

Introducing Mr. Washington, Robert Trent Paine, president of the congress, acting as toastmaster, referred to him as "the greatest African American throughout the country, but especially in Boston."

At this the distinguished company rose and greeted Mr. Washington. He did no other guest of the evening. Mr. Washington was seated at the head of the table beside Mrs. Lund, daughter of Herr John Lund, of Norway.

After acknowledging the unusual and special reception, Mr. Washington said at once publicly and earnestly denunciation of the wrongs which he alleged were perpetrated on the blacks of the Congo.

"I have testimony direct," he said, "from Dr. Sheppard and from the lips of Dr. Johnson, two men who have gone into the African continent, and whose story of sacrifice is one of the duties of the civilized world, that the influence of the civilized world should be felt and should free these people from the barbarities they are now suffering."

"Their villages have been burned, their people murdered and slain, and their own eyes human hands hung up to dry to be presented to the Belgian king. He said that the soldiers did their duty."

"And these atrocities are committed for the sake of a few dollars' worth of grandeur. Europe should set a better example to my people in Africa. I speak for them; yes, as I speak for the white of Europe, for no man can speak the one without lowering his head."

"Race hatred never settled any problem on earth. The way for one color to have a greater degree of superiority over another is by a degree of kindness, of thoughtfulness and of brotherly love. No race is free, no individual is free, by passion and brute force."

NOT THE DIVORCE

Methodist Conference in Chicago Proposes a New Law for Illinois.

BUT ONE DIVORCE CAUSE

Aside From This, Divorce and the Right to Remarry Would Be Denied Absolutely, But Separation Allowed.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—"Separation" is a substitute for absolute divorce, except for the one scriptural cause and a change of the Illinois statute to conform with the new law proposed by the Rock River conference, which commenced its annual session Wednesday in the Evanston Avenue church.

The conference is moved by a desire to minimize the divorce evil, and the opinion seems to be that a law providing for "separation" will, in the right circumstances, fit general favor.

The Rev. Nathan H. Axtell, temporary chairman of the committee on divorce, said:

"Divorces are increasing so alarmingly and the courts have been given such power in granting them that we deem it necessary to take a positive stand, call upon the legislature to act, and if possible, call a halt on the divorce mills."

"The new law, it is felt, should be fixed by the state of August, 1897, at 50 per cent, for the first 600,000,000, and for the following issues, the gold reserve to secure 800,000,000 rubles in bank notes issued for circulation need not exceed 600,000,000 rubles. Bank notes which are circulated over and above that amount, at a rate of at least 100 rubles to the dollar, should be cancelled by the end of August, 1904, of 344,000,000 rubles, namely, gold in circulation, 325,000,000; gold in bars, coin and assignment, 19,000,000; gold abroad, 91,000,000."

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE

Episcopal Convention Outlines Plans for Reducing the Evil of Divorce.

Boston, Oct. 10.—The report of the commission on conformity in regard to marriage and divorce to the Episcopal convention submitted today is as follows:

The commission having met and organized, appointed Bishop Doane chairman and Dr. F. C. Riehoff secretary. The commission was appointed, and in response to the note addressed by the Episcopal conference, the following resolutions of other religious bodies, a conference on the subject of marriage and divorce was held on the 15th of January in St. Bartholomew's parish house, New York. The Rev. Dr. Roberts as secretary.

The commission has held numerous meetings and in representative attendance and in interest and in directness of result. The following are the results so far attained:

"In recognition of the fact that the evil which should exist between Christians is not the result of a legal divorce, but of a lack of a spirit of Christian unity for each church represented, the commission has urged that the civil authority will allow, to enforce the marriage contract, that no person or persons whose marriage such ministers have good reason to believe is not a true marriage, should be permitted to officiate in the church in which they are members."

"The commission has also urged in reference to the question of state and national legislation, that the report of which the closing paragraph is:

Harmony Possible.

"That it is possible to produce harmony in the laws of the several states, which may be seriously doubted. It would require a declaration of the law, which is not a part of the law, but that the statutes of the several states upon the subject of divorce should be changed by uniformity of action, so that the original uniformity should be restored. ### Drafts all Over the World

The State Bank issues drafts payable in any of the leading centers of the principal foreign countries as well as the United States and Canada.

These drafts can be obtained for any sum over $1.00.

The party named as payee can deposit them to his credit in regular bank or, upon proper identification, convert them into cash at the bank upon which they are drawn.

Bank drafts cost less than Postoffice or Express Money Orders and are safer.

Nichols-Surber

The DEMOCRAT overlooked a wedding of last week which occurred the evening of Oct. 5th, when Elsie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols was united in marriage to Mr. Leonard Bertrum Surber, Rev. Duley performing the ceremony. About thirty-seven guests were present and a bountiful wedding supper followed. Later in the evening a party of Wayne ladies drove out to the Nichols home and gave the happy couple a joyous charivari, singing Junita and Home Sweet Home. Later in the night the men folks followed with "Our Old Kentucky Home," etc. Mr. and Mrs. Surber will make their home for the winter with the parents of the bride.

A False Alarm

It has been reported around that Henry Kloppling, democratic candidate for state representative, had withdrawn. Mr. Kloppling yesterday asked the DEMOCRAT to make a vigorous denial to this statement; that he was in the race to win out and that he would get out and make a hustle in a day or two.

While Otto Hinrich was out hunting the first of the week he accidentally shot himself in the right hand. He had his gun standing on the ground with his hand over the muzzle when it went off and injured the third finger on the right hand so badly that it had to be amputated.—Waukefield Republican.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Martin of Wayne were here last Saturday. They came over to engage the services of Dr. Bowman to remove a cancer from the left breast of Mrs. Martin. They came to the right place and the right doctor. The Picket has all faith in Dr. Bowman's skill to remove any cancer he can get at. Mrs. Martin is a sister to Mrs. George McLeod and Miss Westfall.—Stanton Picket.

When W. E. Andrews, the republican who spoke at the opera house last Friday night, endeavored to tell the people that Bryan only had one speech, he dropped into a bad hole. But it is amusing to hear these eastern feather-weights, pets of the administration, come west to tell us Nebraskans what ails us. Just imagine this bantam, who hasn't as much intelligence as a Nebraska schoolboy, trying to belittle W. J. Bryan's oratorical ability!

Sheriff Grant Means was importuned to put his handcuffs on the octopus man last Saturday, when the expert claimed he could get out of any pair of handcuffs ever made. Grant said he hadn't them with him, and the faker wouldn't let him put them on him anyway because he couldn't get them off as he did the ones with the false spring that were used to dupe the crowd with. "King, down at Stanton, played that trick on one of these fellows," said the sheriff. "He was in the crowd and was called upon to officiate and noticing the performer's handcuffs were exactly like a pair he had in his pocket, he deftly changed the irons while the smart alex was talking to the crowd. Then when he got 'em on the fellow he skipped out, and was gone an hour, and returned to find his man unable to get aid enough from the spirits to unlock the wristlets."

An amusing incident happened while Mr. Bryan was changing cars at Wakefield. A man shook his hand and said: "Mr. Bryan, you are a d— sight better looking than I thought you was." Mr. Bryan answered with a smile that won't wear off: "My friend, you have been reading the republican papers."—Concord World.

The young man who is looking for an opportunity to rise in the world won't find what he is looking for by loafing about saloons.—Bixby.

If "the old man" knows what he is bringing up the boy to be, the young man will rise—on the old man's boot. But, by dad, there isn't much difference between loafing in the saloons and loafing on the street, in the post-office or at the depot. The saloon bam goes to hell a little quicker, is all.

It was the evening performance of the octopus, on Main street, last Saturday night. The "spieler" had just announced that thirty-five persons could crowd around the tank in the wagon at one time, and Frank Krueger led the regiment in, Herman Mildner came next, and he was followed by Ed. Ellis, and the wagon was half full. The lady was just ejaculating "I'd like to know how 35 men like you people are going to get in here," when her eye lit on the DEMOCRAT man, and she hollered: "Keep-a-coming, plenty of room here now."

There was quite a party in Herman Mildner's bar-room, the other day (I simply heard this story) and they were discussing the merits of Herman's tailless ratter, a likely purp, as full of tricks as a glass of old rye. "I tell you," said Herman, directing his remarks to a traveling man present, "I hate to part with that little dog, but he has to go to Omaha in the morning." "That so?" replied the kind-hearted man of the road. "Yes," continued Herman, "we are going to send him to Hayden Bros. tomorrow, got to do it." "And what the devil are Hayden Bros. going to do with the bob-tailed dog?" questioned the "easy mark." "Oh, they're going to re-tail him, is all," said the witty saloon man. They threw plenty of water on the visitor, and when he came to he threw water at the crowd—for a wash.

If it keeps on raining, until Nov. 8th the waters of Salt Creek will be high enough to float Mickey.

Don't any of you democrats worry about McKillip getting the worst of it in a joint debate with McCarthy. The only occasion the two candidates ever came together the congressman had to take water, acknowledging that the tariff on lumber needed planing out. That being true Nebraskans have no use for a tariff on coal, tin ware, clothing or anything else we have to buy. Vote for McKillip, he's a man of the people while McCarthy is a cog, and a light one, in the gearing of a machine.

BEACH AND BOWERS.

The Oldest Minstrel Show on the Road Plazes a Yankton Audience.

Saturday evening a Yankton audience was privileged to again witness a performance of Beach & Bowers famous minstrels. Bobby Beach and Otis Bowers started in the minstrel business together twenty-three years ago and have kept learning and improving in their chosen profession ever since. They have now the oldest and best show of its kind on the road.

Otis Bowers is a whole show in himself and would be worth the full price of admission, when it has the proper amount of bump-and-bum, and his legs are not far behind in catching the plaudits of the multitude. The House band number on the program gives him an opportunity which he accepts to the limit and, he, also, keeps in the whole game from start to finish. He is probably the best drum man on the road today with the exception of...

than those usually traveling with a minstrel company, might be mentioned Jimmie and Chas. Allman, and James, the latter for a long time employed by Harris, the famous song writers, to render his popular ballads.

In specialty work the Smith Bros. lead the world as all-round athletes, and their balancing acts on their flight of stairs are never equalled on any stage. Altogether the show is great, and every one of the twenty men with it is a star in his own particular line.—Press Dakotian Yankton.

The above attraction will appear at the Wayne opera house, Saturday evening Oct. 29.

A WIFE'S CONFESSION.

Of course every one knew when they were engaged and everyone pretended to be surprised when they suddenly broke off. It was first said she had broken it off, then that his heart had changed, but finally she confessed that she had been so irritable, so depressed and blue that she had driven him away. Her good looks were getting him, pale and hollow-checked, with dark circles around her eyes. Suddenly all society was pleased again to hear of the engagement being renewed, and it was not long before a beautiful and radiant bride was taken to the altar.

He regained her good looks, her former pliant disposition and strong nerve all through a secret remedy given her by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It made two more lives happy and a radiant bride more beautiful than she had ever appeared before.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for such diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus or Falling of the Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

Mrs. O. O. Scripture, of Prescott, Minn., Box 36, writes: "For nearly two years I was a great sufferer with ulceration and enlargement of the womb, also suffering with nervousness and was run down—a perfect wreck. I discovered for several years ago I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets. I can stand on my feet and work hard all day. I feel that I am worth living and shall ever feel grateful to you and shall always recommend your medicine to all who are suffering in any way."

The Lincoln Evening News, a staunch republican paper makes the following caustic comments on the state campaign that are worthy of the observation of all republicans.

Whether the republicans elect the Legislature or lose it, whether Mickey or Berge is elected governor, one thing stands out as plain as a pikestaff—there must be a cutting down of expenses of government, of taxation or whichever party falls in this duty will be wiped off the map at the succeeding election.

If the revenue law did not exceed else than to call attention of people to the increase in their taxes, an increase that has been steady until this year, when, in instances, it leaped way up, it has served a most useful purpose. It has aroused that element of the population which has been too busy with its own affairs to pay much attention to matters of government. Here in Lincoln it is difficult to find a business man who is not sore to the quick over taxation.

Many of them, who find their taxes doubled or tripled, have been investigating the tax rate in other cities and they affirm that it is much more there than elsewhere. They insist that if the ratio of increase in the past decade is kept up for ten years more they will be simply taxed out of business.

A few weeks ago an Iowa man of wealth and business experience came to Lincoln for the purpose of removing hither his wholesale dry goods house, now located at a prosperous city in the Hawkeye state. He was very favorably impressed with Lincoln and its advantage as a shipping center and the desirability of locating here as a city from which to easily reach the entire state appealed strongly to him. He had made up his mind to come to Lincoln until he reached the question of taxation. Then he threw up his hands. The taxes here would be just three times what they are up in his present location, with the same capital invested. He passed Lincoln up.

Taxes in Kansas City are about 1 per cent as compared with over 2 per cent in Lincoln. It must be manifest that this is a handicap upon the jobbing houses already established here, and it has already proved a deterrent to expansion of the jobbing trade in the matter of new houses. This is a serious question threatening as it does one of the foundations of the city's prosperity. With business conducted on the close margin that competition forces, a difference of 1 per cent or less in the matter of taxes is sufficient to spell failure, where equality would mean success.

There is no desire or intention upon the part of the jobbers of this city to evade payment of their just share of taxes but they do not believe that local government is being conducted along necessary lines of economy. Some campaign orator comes along and tries to smooth the ruffled feathers by assuring a jobber that the state is getting bigger and it costs more to administer its affairs; that it needs new buildings for its universities and its institutions of various kinds and that it costs money to expand. But when he takes down the reports of offices and sees that there has been no increase in number of inmates as in taxes, when he goes up to the state house and sees the same number of people taking life easy as before while the fund for expenses keeps growing, when he drops in on the legislature and sees the same number of hangers on and superfluous clerks as before, he is prone to ask, where is the necessity for more money? When he goes to the court house and looks over the records he finds immense sums spent for the building of bridges, all going into the pockets of the favored contractor who emerged from a lawsuit with his tail feathers pulled. He finds what seems an unnecessary number of officers employed to transact the public business, and when he goes to the city hall and examines the financial budget he finds many items that he believes he could cut out without detriment to the public service. Just here is where the campaign orator loses his time and work.

All of this has had one good effect; it has stirred people up and as long as they're main active and alert there is always hope for reform. Taxes must come down. If they don't the political party in power will suffer.

A Des Moines justice has had the sand to fine a masher $50 and send him to jail because he couldn't pay. He accepted a young lady who "looked good" to him and just then a policeman "looked good" to her and she had the street loafer arrested. There are a few of these insulting despicable smarties in Wayne who need the same kind of a dose.

The Long Island 300-mile auto race was a decided failure, only one man being killed and less than a half dozen injured.

Andrew Carnegie thinks there should be a peace tribunal with power to enforce decisions. That's right. We should have peace if we have to fight for it.

"Most people think the way to get even with an enemy is to get ahead of him," says Snap Shots in the Sioux City Journal. However, a good many try to get even by sneaking up behind.

Any farmer who doesn't know how to select good seed corn can learn all about it by calling on most any Neb. editor.

Mont Pelée is said to be getting active again. It has given those near it plenty of time to get away since the last eruption.

At Williamsport, Pa., on Saturday the Carlisle and Bucknell football teams played a desperate game, said to have been notable for free fighting between the teams. Twice the police were called on to separate the belligerents. There must be some wise policemen at Williamsport. How could they tell when the mob was fighting and when they were playing football?

The launching of a new from three to five million dollar battleship appears to be at least a monthly occurrence. That's the Rooseveltism of the times. Battle ships are worse than useless plunder for it costs millions of dollars to keep them afloat. What use can you tax payers out here in Nebraska make of them?

John Dalton in Masson Democrat: "Poor devil! He's better off dead." How often those words, seemingly thoughtless and cruel, are spoken of some unfortunate who has just died. But in how many cases are they all too true. The life just gone out has been a failure and has ended in miserable death. There is a weeping widow with swollen eyes and aching heart left behind and little children are clinging helplessly to her skirts, open-eyed and wondering what it is all about, not knowing they are piercing their mother's heart with daggers of anguish every time they ask why papa does not come home. It is a sad misfortune that brought them together and every year has seen the early capacity and inclination of the husband decrease, with a corresponding increase in his appetite for liquor, his propensity for gambling, his aversion to labor. It is drink or it is gaming, or it is laziness or some other pernicious and damning habit that is the cause of it all. Friends may plead with him, wife and children may implore him, but his stubborn, selfish spirit, dulled to decency and made desperate by his excesses, impels him to go on until merciful death takes him away out of the sight of earthly eyes forever. "Poor devil! He's better off dead," his friends say, as they pile the last spadeful of dirt on his grave and turn away. There will be no more abuse and neglect of the faithful wife, no more shame and humiliation for her, no more agonizing worry as to where he is all through the long, weird hours of the night. The children will stop coming and the mother will get some comfort in life in giving them a mother's love and care and hoping that some day they will care for her. But it could have been different. Oh! why was it not different! Why should the best years of an honest woman's life be blighted by a gnawing! Why could not the light of hope and love and happiness shine on that home and never be eclipsed by the awful shadow of despair! Ah, yes, he intended to reform all the time, but it is now too late and the poor devil is better off dead! Why cannot all men be men and some of them not beasts!

Presidential Elections will make no Change.

No matter which candidate is elected Foley's Honey and Tar will remain the people's favorite remedy for coughs, colds and incipient consumption. It cures colds quickly and prevents pneumonia. A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared me some medicine and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried Foley's Honey and Tar and eight doses cured me. For sale by the Wayne Drug Co."

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originate Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. For sale by Wayne Drug Co.

Whatever else you pass up don't neglect to hear George Berge talk next Wednesday night at the opera house. Mr. Berge will abuse us plenty, but is simply explaining conditions and making a pledge for a change providing he is elected governor. Everybody will concede that we have had too much of Mickey.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale at Raymond's drug store.

Notice To Teachers.

The next examination will be held on Friday and Saturday, November 4 and 5, 1904. No examination in September and October.

Am I Right?

For fifteen years I have catered to the public, a dispenser of the best wines, whiskies, brandies and beers that can be bought in the markets. Have tried to please every patron, and respected every man who has been too good for the saloon but has gotten his liquors elsewhere. Now we have put up every tribute exacted—and they have been excessive—by town and state, and feel like asking the people who use intoxicants to patronize the place that deserve your trade so long as we give you only the best goods at the lowest prices. Ten or fifteen per cent of every dollar you spend at my place goes to educate your children and to pay for public improvements. From a moral standpoint this may seem like a peculiar condition of affairs, but it is what the people voted for—don't blame the saloon-keeper for it. Well, this is a long speech for me to make, so come in and take something—on a tin roof.
