The Wayne Fair

What it wasn't—What it will be

The Fair is over and is now launched for the future. A great many thought it would prove to be an entire failure. They were happily disappointed. It was not a failure, but a success in every way. No fair minded person could find fault with it. Every person was happy and all the exhibits were good. The races were the best ever had in this county. Now, the question is, What will be next year? Arrangements are already under way to make the fair next year more than twice as good as it was this year. Any business that does not grow and get better each year is not entitled to the patronage of the public. We wish to again remind you that this store grows, and is today much larger than it was last year.

Our stock is nearly a third greater and our prices are lower than ever before, considering that nearly everything has advanced during the last year. If you have not been in this store since our fall stock has arrived, just step in and see clothing piled up as high as your head, ready for fall and winter trade. No town in the state the size of Wayne has as large a stock of clothing as you will see here.

If you have ever failed to find what you want in the past in Wayne, give this store a trial and you will be agreeably surprised, for you will find here a high class of clothing, shoes, and, in fact, everything that men and boys wear, and at satisfactory prices. If it was possible we would compel every man in Wayne county to come in this store and see what we have, for we know that "seeing is believing" and, as we are in a position to save every family money on their clothing, we think it right to have everyone see what we have.

It costs nothing to see our clothing and you will be treated courteously if you come in; whether you buy or not makes no difference here. We are always pleased to show you what we have. Why not visit this store before you buy any clothing this fall?

Next week we will tell you all about that famous STALEY FINE WOOL UNDERWEAR.

Perfect fitting, popular prices, musing underwear at Harrington's the leading clothier.

Mrs. Williams entertained her large S. S. class of little girls in a delightful manner on Monday after school hours.

Mrs. Lilly of Jackson, Neb., is visiting at the home of her son, Agent Moran.

Miss Julia N. Kelly of Sioux City, an experienced composer and an old acquaintance of the DEMOCRAT man's family, arrived here Monday to do duty on this paper.

Jas. Shannon and J. R. Manning were visitors from Carroll, Tuesday.

W. J. Weatherholt was a visitor from Hoskins Tuesday. Mr. Weatherholt figures there will be some "surprises" when the votes are counted next November. As a candidate for sheriff Mr. Weatherholt would surprise himself if he went after the goods real strong.

At the preliminary hearing given Wm. Liveringhouse last Saturday he was again bound over to district district court by Judge Hunter. Atty. Berry appeared to make out a good line of defense. Maude McRoberts, the defendant's alleged victim, told the story of the miserable affair, and her younger sister also testified, but there appeared something lacking in the evidence to prove defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The nine months' old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christenson, who live near Grace church, died last Saturday of cholera infantum, the funeral taking place at Grace church on Monday.

Mrs. Many and daughter returned to Chicago Monday.

Miss Jessie Tucker departed Monday for Auburn, Mass., where she will attend one of the best colleges in the country.

Miss Goldie Brookings writes the DEMOCRAT to send her paper to West Point, where we presume she is teaching.

Jas. Keenan sr. returned from Council Bluffs last Friday, leaving his son John about recovered from the gunshot wound of July 4th.

Dr. Cawley accompanied Chas. Nies to the hospital at Omaha, Monday, where Mr. Nies expected to have a slight operation performed.

Mrs. Will Rickabaugh and baby went to Sioux Falls Sunday on a visit to her sister.

C. B. Munson and Emil Hanson and family were passengers to Brookings, S. D., Tuesday.

The Omaha train due Monday evening reached here at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning owing to a freight wreck near Blair.

Bad Wreck on the Branch

The Bloomfield branch train had a bad wreck near this town Friday night of last week. Conductor Henderson had charge of the train, and as it neared Bloomfield a broken flange caused the rear coach to run off the track, giving the passengers a terrific shaking up. A traveling man was the only individual in the coach being seriously hurt, he having two ribs broken, but postal clerk, Joe Benesch of this city suffered worse injuries, being thrown to the floor of his mail den and literally covered with boxes, etc. Mr. Benesch was brought home and his principal hurts being found to be an aggravation of an old complaint. The DEMOCRAT is told the railroad company has already settled with him for $1,000 damages and that he will have to go to the hospital and take about a three months' lay-off.

Go East and Grow Up! Etc.

Andover, Ohio, Sept. 25th. 1905. To the DEMOCRAT.

This town is in the northeast corner of the state on what is known as the Western Reserve, and in an early day called New Connecticut.

The farmers who read your paper may be interested in hearing how the farmers do here.

This is a dairy country, and has been for many years. The milk is made into butter and cheese in factories. I visited one factory where the milk from twelve hundred cows is made up. One day with 1 was there, there was received eighteen thousand pounds; the next day eighteen thousand one hundred and forty five pounds was received.

The milk is hauled in by five routes: one about three miles in length, one eight, and the others about five each; there is one team to each sort. Each man's milk is weighed separately and the proceeds of the factory divided in the proportion of the milk furnished by each.

The factory is owned by the patrons.

The night's milk is run into vats. In the morning the cream is skimmed off, and made into butter. The factory is now making 150 lbs of butter a day, and sells at the factory for twenty cents per pound. The morning's milk is run into the same vats, the whole warmed up to the proper temperature remitted added by which the curd is formed—the whey drawn off, the curd salted, put in hoops and the remaining whey pressed out. The whey is run off some ten rods to another building, where the sugar of milk is extracted, after which the whey is run to the hog yards. There were 100 fat hogs in the yards which I think would average 250 lbs. They are making 45 cheeses each day, which average 40 lbs. The cheese has been selling all summer, as fast as made at twelve cents per pound. Four men do the work.

I am told by the man who operates the factory that the cows will make, on an average, from 550 to 600, depending on the fall feed. Some dairies of selected cows will average $80.

Good farms with good buildings can be bought here for from $50 to $60 an acre, within three miles of town. A farm of 725 acres, within a mile of Ashtabula, with a barn on it, was bought last spring for $6,000. These lands are not unproductive, worn out land, but lands which this year are producing 40 bushels of corn and 25 bushels of wheat, and 50 bushels of oats. A few weeks ago a farm of 65 acres, five miles from Geneva, a town of 2,000, and five miles from Ashtabula, a town of 14,000 inhabitants, within half a mile of two railroad stations, and one electric road station, with a good house, a barn 30 by 30 feet, stone basement, a horse barn 20 by 30 a granary 16 by 24, and a large orchard, was sold for $3,000, buildings in first rate repairs.

City Dads' Doings.

The city council held a short session Monday night, allowed a few bills and passed over a lot more. Councilman Duerig was installed in Ex-Alderman Grigg's position. Owing to the absence of City Clerk Witter at the court house, where the case of Mrs. Dixon vs. City was on for trial, Tom Fritts acted as clerk pro tem. The following bills were ordered paid:

Ernest Koefoed, who has been attending court here the past week and visiting his brother John, says Axel, his brother, who went to Chicago a few years ago, is now doing splendidly, having the foremanship of a cement gang and drawing a salary of $5 per day and expenses. The DEMOCRAT would like about a half a day's worth of Axel's grease, to pay for the wheels that went round in the DEMOCRAT's sanctum years ago.

Frank Whitney went up to Randolph Wednesday morning to play with the band there the three days of the races.

G W Crossland says the DEMOCRAT was somewhat misinformed as to the cause of the fire at his place last week. A door blowing shut blew out a lighted burner of the gasoline stove, and when Mrs. Crossland entered the kitchen the dripping oil had become ignited. She attempted to carry out the stove and her little son got hold of one end of it; the boy stumbled against the doorway and the stove fell, breaking off the tank, the oil being spilled out and setting the kitchen on fire.

Later accounts in the daily papers are to the effect that the DEMOCRAT was far from the facts last week in regard to Mrs. Yager's troubles out in Los Angeles, Cal. Jackson, sheriff, who alleges that Henry Bradshaw, of Worthing, S. D. and R. U. Bradshaw, of Sioux Falls, S. D., as officers of the corporation, transferred the property to themselves personally.

J. J. Sherman and wife of Chicago are guests at the L. M. Owen home.

A. A. Selmers is very ill with a bad attack of typhoid fever.

M. S. Davies returned last Saturday from North Dakota. He was not badly smitten with the country.

John Weir and Henry Howlett of Roland, Wl., were in town for several days the past week, going home Tuesday.

The party who found a halter last Wednesday on the road from the fair grounds to town, will do the DEMOCRAT a good turn by bringing it to this office.

Tells the Story.

The most talked about small city in Nebraska is Wayne. There is always something to be seen in the daily news paper regarding Wayne, and on the railroad trains one always hears talk of that town, which is said to be the liveliest burg of its size in the state. I once wondered why Wayne should be such a good town way up there toward the north pole, and why every body knew something about the place. It is all plain now. I have been making an investigation, and find that the business men of that town are the most vigorous advertisers in the state. Last week each of the Wayne papers carried more than seven hundred inches of advertising for the merchants of that town. That tells the story, and tells it true. —Columbus Telegram.

The Editor's Retribution.

In Seltzer avenue, close to the pit,
Where the geysers of brimstone sputter and spit,
There's a thick heated chamber, dug out with a scraper,
For the chap who writes on both sides of the paper.
At the Molten hotel, in the Sulphuric glass,
Where the temperature's 998 in the shade,
There is a bed on the griddle that never gets damp,
Awaiting the querist who encloses no stamp.
At the gates of Perdition, the name's on the door,
Where living volcanoes their catarracts
pour,
There's a quiet resting place on a cauldron
of flame,
For the chump who neglected to sign any name.
—John H. Vale in Inland Printer.

An amusing incident in taking testimony in the "tragedy" of Maude McRoberts last Saturday was when Atty. Berry was questioning Maude's younger sister, aged thirteen, about Livinghouse's visits to the girls' room. "Did you pull the curtains down that night?" asked the attorney, kindly. "No sir." "Did you go to bed and leave the curtains up?" "Yes, sir." "Did you always leave the curtains up?" "Yes, sir." "You never pulled the curtains down?" "No sir." "Did you have any curtains on your windows?" "No, sir!"

Bailey, of the Britt, Iowa, Tribune, has discovered a new method to get rid of mosquitoes. Rub alum on your face and hands. The mosquito takes a bite, puckers its buzzer, so that it can't sting. It sits down in a damp place, tries to dig the pucker loose, catches its death of cold, and dies of pneumonia.

The horse show promoters send the DEMOCRAT copy for an even $750 worth of advertising, with the courteous suggestion that the DEMOCRAT editor will be "welcome." Wonder how many long-eared animals in the country will partake of this kind of vitiation and be found on exhibition with the hoyses?

First Idiot.—(In district court room) "Who is that stranger over there with the big fall face?"
Second Idiot.—"Don't know, but expect he's one of the out-of-town lawyers."

First Idiot.—"Guess he must be he looks like he'd put in lots of time before the bar."

Charley Martin has got the coming county campaign down just right to suit—the DEMOCRAT. If all of Charley's candidates are elected we are going to give him a job on the reportorial force of this paper.

And now the best up-to-date joke is on P. G. James. P. G. and his engineer were in Sioux City and had lots of difficulty finding a bed for the night. Being directed to a boarding place P. G. rang the bell and enquired for a room, receiving a "yes, indeed," reply from the landlady. "What are the rates?" asked our thrasher friend. "35," replied the lady. Then Mr. James explained that he had a friend, an engineer, to room with him, but that didn't make matters any easier from a financial standpoint.

The Herald says Wayne needs a sewerage system, costing $20,000. Well, the prospects are, judging from the city's present finances, that the only wash we get will be what the saloon men throw in with a drink and that for a good many years to come.

If you are acquainted with John Messie tell your neighbors what sort of a man he is and what kind of a county judge he will make.

The Hoskins Headlight is already mourning the departure of Frank Besser to take up the duties of county clerk at Wayne. The editor of the Headlight is in knee-breeches yet and can't see over a very high fence.

If twelve men sat up all night to wrangle over a difference of $1.30 between two neighbors, why can two or three men be doing much harm in sitting up half a night over $1.30 worth of good beer?

Talking about the sympathy racket in politics, a republican says Charley Reynolds ought to be elected again since Frank Benson has one leg and Clerk Reynolds not any at all.

Councillor Andrews has recanted on free silver. Probably the worthy councillor has been seduced by Rockefeller gold.

T. J. Snyder Gets Nine Hundred Dollars Damages

T. J. Snyder is home from Sioux City where he had commenced an action against Dr. J. N. Warren for some $5,000 damages, alleged sustained by a mistake the doctor made when he operated on Mrs. Snyder a year or two ago for appendicitis. Some wire, the DEMOCRAT believes, was left in the wound, necessitating a second operation. Dr. Warren, according to Mrs. Snyder, settled the matter by paying him $900 damages.

Mrs. Fred Phillo, entertained a company of ladies at a "Finnel" party this afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Gep Goldie.

Bill Jones went to Carroll and Randolph yesterday, just when he was much wanted man in the case of Brown vs. L. N. McKee.

In the 2:17 trot Lady Almoner won, Niagara C 2d, Reuben W 3d, Winnie Blake 4th, Lee Allerton 5th; time 2:20. In the races at Randolph Wednesday, Annie Woodcock won the 2:20 pace, Little Rebel, Frank Strabon's horse second, it being a hard fought race between the horses. Time 2:18 The Hartington ball team defeated Randolph 4 to 3. Attendance about 3,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Corbit moved to Wayne this week and will spend the winter here, planning to move to the Corbit farm just east of town in the spring and let the old folks come to the city to reside permanently.

Mrs. C. A. Berry left last Sunday for a few weeks' visit in New York.

Late news from Phil Sullivan is to the effect that he is getting better.

Chas. Chace came up from Stanton Monday to visit his father.

Work for Messie for county judge, he's the man we need in that official capacity.

The first meeting of the Monday club was held at the home of Mrs. Wightman this week, the program consisting of interesting accounts of the summer trips, followed by a delicious luncheon served by the program committee consisting of Mesdames Wightman, Main and Epler.

The officers for the year are, Pres. Mrs. Tucker, Vice Pres. Mrs. Mellor, Sec. Mrs. Lydenring, Treas. Mrs. Cunningham.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Chace with the following work: Prehistoric Times—Mrs. Wightman Fossil Wonders of the Animal World—Mrs. Norshrop

Roll Call

Mrs. A. A. Welch entertained a number of ladies at tea Tuesday evening complimentary to Mrs. Geo. P. Goldie of Sioux City.

Mesdames M. S. Davies and J. T. Bressler go to Lincoln Monday, delegates from the Acome club to the state federation meeting of women's clubs.

A number of Wayne ladies went to Winfield yesterday to attend a big party given by Mesdames Frank Trady, Len Jones and L. S. Needham of that burg.
Mr. and Mrs. R. Phillo entertained a company of friends last Tuesday, the guests being mostly those who had taken the trip to Yellow Stone Park. The company had a very jolly time during the verbal trip in the Park. Nice refreshments were served.

Winside News.

F. M. McElrath is suffering with blood-poison, the result of stepping on a rusty nail.

Dr. Cherry reports the visit of the stork at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pritchard, who live northwest of Winside. It is a boy.

The Tribune regrets very much to announce the serious illness of C. E. Miller. He has been ailing for some time but was determined not to give up, but his condition became so bad last week that he was unable to leave his bed and now perhaps will have to go to Sioux City to consult a specialist.

A little bird whispered to the editor that one of Winside's young business men was about to become a benedict. The happy event will take place within a few weeks. Now don't all be guessing.

Winside people are getting tired of the fake entertainments which the town seems to be harassed with. If there is an old cheap John show traveling through the country it seems that they always hit Winside. The affair in the opera house Tuesday night was only a repetition of several that have struck town during the summer. They advertise something "big," but people who attend their entertainments would sell themselves pretty cheap the next day.

County Atty. Siman says that the Holdabler family, mention of which is made in another place in the Tribune, has caused this county a whole lot of trouble and now it will probably be necessary to bring them back from Illinois for they are Wayne county's charge.

Low Jones moved his household goods to town last week and stored them in the Carter building. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will occupy the rooms over Carter's store as soon as Will Trenn vacates them and Mr. Jones has accepted a position on Charley Miller's dray line.

The Wayne county democrats held the stand to put up a complete ticket anyhow, and for a wonder. It is a good one.
