R. H. JAMES Real Estate, Farm Loans.

There are a large number of people seeking land on which to build a home, and the important question that should first present itself is: Where shall I go? I would answer that by saying, Go where land can be bought at a reasonable price in a

SURE CROP COUNTRY

A country which produces a crop only in periods of heavy rainfall and in times of normal rainfall suffers the ravages of drouth. is not a safe place in which to invest one's savings of many years. Poor crops cause land values to depreciate. After a careful study of localities in the Dakotas I have found a SURE CROP COUNTRY, in Ransom--the Banner County of Southeastern North Dakota, where choice lands are selling now at $20 to $35 per acre on easy terms. These lands are of the best quality and they raise a fine crop EVERY year, which insures a rapid advance in land values. NOW is the time to buy. I can secure excursion rates any day. For descriptive matter and further information call on or address

Large samples of grain from Ransom County can be seen in my office.

THREE YEARS IN THE PEN

Letter from Louis Edison.
Porterville, Cal., Sept. 24, 1905.
Well Brother Goldie, I have made another move, am going to give all parts of this country a trial, and when I have found out which part comes nearest to what they call paradise I will settle down and then I expect to live right along forever. You see I have tried the fish country, the garden country, the pop and prunes country, and lemons, so enclosed find a dollar to extend my subscription again and please change the address on the paper from Santa Rose to Porterville, and oblige as ever respectfully yours,

Wm Livinghouse Gets a Light Sentence.
Just after the DEMOCRATS had all been mailed last Friday morning the jury in the Livinghouse trial brought in a verdict of guilty and a recommendation of mercy for the defendant. Saturday afternoon Judge Boyd returned to Wayne, having gone home on the ten o'clock train Friday morning, and the prisoner was brought before the court for sentence, a motion for a new trial by his attorney, J. A. Berry, being over ruled. When asked if he had anything to say Livinghouse replied in the negative, but Mr. Berry asked for executive clemency on the ground that there appeared some doubt as to the defendant's guilt, that the defendant had always protested his innocence to him and he could not have made a strenuous effort to get an acquittal had he believed the man guilty. The court in passing sentence stated that all the evidence pointed defendant out as the guilty man, that it was really alarming the number of such cases that occurred and that in his opinion the limit of the law was none to severe. But the jury in this case had recommended mercy and that he was going to give the accused the benefit of his sympathy; that the defendant be sentenced to three years in the penitentiary at hard labor and pay the costs of the trial. In commenting further on the enormity of the crime Judge Boyd said: "There isn't any of us realize the gravity of these offenses until they are brought home to us." Livinghouse evidenced no change of countenance over the order that sent him to prison, in fact the DEMOCRAT has been told that he was well satisfied to get off so lightly. In such cases there is usually a great deal of evidence of guilt or innocence leaks out after the trial, and the DEMOCRAT has learned enough about Livinghouse the past week to remove the slightest doubt of his not deserving all he got. Mr. West, father of the girl, says that it was about the first of November, 1904, that he first committed the crime, and not towards the latter part of that month.
Fred Schmidt, formerly of Carroll, writes the DEMOCRAT to send him the paper to Tolley, N. D., where he is engaged in the merchandise business.

That's what our patrons did with their butter and eggs last Saturday, while the Fair Store was closed, and our business on Monday was a regular boomer. A Bad Steer.

One of S. V. Auker's steers raised a great deal of excitement in the north part of town last Monday morning. The animal's first victim was Oscar Lewis, the brute tossing him about and giving him bruises on neck and body. Then he, the steer, wandered into Frank Hood's yard where the Hood cow was grazing. About this time Sid Relyea came along the walk and John Short drove down the street in his express wagon. "Look out, Sid, that steer will get you!" and at the word the crazy brute went after the carpenter, knocking him down and at the same time he would roll away the steer would give him another jolt. "Finally holding Mr. Relyea to the ground with his head. Mr. Hood was in the Schuster yard, next door, and ran to Relyea's assistance, a broom-handle being the only thing he could pick up. With this he attracted the attention until they all had time to get on the porch at the Hood residence, where the horribles bovine gored the woodwork. Messrs. Ted Perry, Lifty Gildersleeve and others helped get him into safe quarters.
That delicious pure apple juice the bakery.

A Dixon County Candidate.

Jim Coyle, whom all the old settlers of Wayne well remember as one of the busiest boys Wayne ever raised, was in town Tuesday, having dropped into Wayne county a few hours while campaigning Dixon county in search of votes to land him in the office of county clerk of that provincial ball of wax. Jim looks well and says things look good to him in his ambition, and the DEMOCRAT hopes he can get there with a creditable majority. Years ago, when times were so hard in Wayne that people couldn't afford to buy booticks for desert, Jimmy was the "head push" of a big family of boys and girls, and when in his early teens he went out alone in the world to make Wayne history, his boy sent home his monthly remittances for years, just as regularly as the pay day made its rounds. Then Jimmy got married, is now the father of an interesting family of boys and girls of his own, and it isn't wishing him too much to hope that he will "get there in jollities" as well as in the good habits and bright deeds of his youth.

BY DAD.

An aggrieved young lady, who recently subscribed for the DEMOCRAT before leaving Wayne for a nearby town, writes me: "I won't use papa's favorite expression and ask: 'Where is my paper?' though I feel inclined to." By dad, we are sending the DEMOCRAT most every old place nowadays and a thorough search may find one there. We may miss one occasionally, and the postoffice department loses a good many, which often leads me to wonder "where in hell they all go to."

Judge Boyd did a nice turn for the jurors last week when jurymen Morris asked the court to excuse him as he wanted to get married—finish up a better piece of court work. When the jurymen all reported in the morning the judge asked all those who wished to be excused to please stand up. Judge Boyd then singled out Mr. Morris of Carroll, and explaining his symptoms to the other jurymen, said he could go on condition that he get his less fortunate brothers a box of cigars to while away the hours of disrepute. Mr. Morris was very glad to do this, and hereafter Sheriff Mears will see that the mono-ony of court is smoked out by similar occasions of pleasure.

Earl Gibson recently had a small local in the DEMOCRAT advertising his place, Lenore Terrace, for sale, and says that out of four prospective buyers he has on the string three of them "saw the ad in the DEMOCRAT" and the other didn't say where he learned of the opportunity. It takes some people a good while to learn that the DEMOCRAT "leads 'em all" as an advertising medium, and in this particular the circulation doesn't cut so much figure, for about everybody burrows if they are not regular subscribers.

John McGinty says there was a tragedy down the track last Monday. Robt. Baird's turkeys were out for their morning constitutional, and like their owner took the railroad track for it. Flannigan's freight came along, and although Flannigan blew the whistle and did his best to scare away the Thanksgiving thoroughbreds, one big gobbler stuck to his trail and lost his head and wings in the mix-up with Flannigan's freight. Robert felt badly over his loss, but there may be some profit in the experience. He has quit walking home on the railroad track.

Rev. Duley, who was attending court last week, says that in his plea to the jury on the Liveringhouse case, County Attorney Siman gave them a biblical quotation as follows: "He steals my purse, steals trash." Harry is just about as familiar with the bible, by dad, as I am, but it appears to me that that particular excerpt from antiquity originated in a poker game.

As evidence of the safety of the average politician, Bert Brown went out in his yard and chased the Auker steer out of his yard, just before the animal gored Sid Relyea to the ground. The steer no doubt knew what he was about, by dad, and that anybody who would run against Jack Cherry for county treasurer this fall was too swift for a wild steer from the plains of Nebraska.

As publisher of the DEMOCRAT I have been asked why this paper took so much interest every campaign in the election of a democratic candidate for county judge. No doubt a great many readers figure the DEMOCRAT a little strenuous on this point, as well as unsuccessful. There are tricks in all trades—except a country paper, and while we have worked tooth and toe nail for the election of many democrats whose success meant no financial gain to the DEMOCRAT, the success of a democrat for judge means a whole lot to a democratic paper, where the republican office holder lives strictly up to the motto: "To the victor belongs the spoils." As a matter of fact the office of county judge is the only one that is good business for a newspaper. The law gives that official arbitrary power to place all his publications which the patrons of his office pay for, in whatever paper he chooses, and with our present incumbent there has never been much question about taking advantage of all the law allows in this particular. On numerous occasions friends and readers of this paper have endeavored to have their probate court publications published in the DEMOCRAT, but with one exception in the past two years they all failed to secure us the business. This is not meant for any "slam" at Judge Hunter, but is simply an explanation and request that the voters, who have any desire to do the DEMOCRAT a good turn, and also put a man in this office who will be impartial and willing to please the people who are forced to do business with him, take advantage of the opportunity. It does not look very favorable, I mean the election of John H. Massie, but it is possible, and every little help makes it more probable. This is rather a selfish way to view matters of public concern, but it is at least a frank statement to make. The theory also holds good, we believe, with the attorneys and other parties who do business in the county court, and the peculiar feature of the whole matter is that for the past eight or ten years scores of democrats, many of them good friends of this paper, have assisted in keeping a partisan republican in this office; a man of whom the DEMOCRAT is not going to say one evil word as a neighbor and citizen, but whom, after eight long years past—and probably eighteen more ahead—we would like to see retired to private life—if only to get his second wind. There's no "contempt of court" in this piteous appeal, is there judge? They say "hope springs eternal" and by dad, it looks like it with us in the matter of the election of a new man to the office of county judge.

Shakespeare stands for all that has been and is today highly successful in plays, from a standpoint of dramatic art, though it is universally admitted that "The Taming of the Shrew" alone might be the product of the pen of a twentieth century genius so modern and up-to-date are its idiosyncracies and situations, while still happily retaining the majestic splendor which glazes and gleams always from the works of the unrivaled and immortal dramatist. This fact is so evident and theoretically plain that those unfamiliar as yet with the "Taming of the Shrew" can see what it is worth to enjoy a play that is wholly abreast with the times and yet behind a play that is the achievement of a man who lived centuries before Christ.

The governor of Pennsylvania has won the familiar title of "Penny" and he appears to be about that size.

Staley Underwear

This is our twenty-ninth year selling Staley Fine Wool Underwear and we have yet to find a man that has worn Staley underwear that is willing to wear any other kind. That alone should convince anyone that Staley underwear is superior to any other make. It may seem strange to some that we continue to advertise this well known underwear, but we will never be satisfied until every man in Wayne county wears Staley and we will continue advertising it until all are convinced that they can't afford to get along without it. There are some things in business that cannot be understood. One of them is that men may know that they need Staley underwear, but because they are trading at some store where they don't have Staley, they fail to come here and get what they know they ought to have. Now if Staley underwear was high priced and they couldn't afford to wear it, there would be a good excuse for not buying it, but Staley underwear is made for the poor as well as the rich and every person can afford to wear it and enjoy health and be comfortable. Come in and look at it, feel it and find out why so many wear it.

How It's Made

It is made to fit, not stretched to cover. The seams are sewed with a double over-stitch that makes a smooth seam that will never rip. This stitch is only to be found in Staley underwear. You will always feel comfortable wearing Staley. Try it and you will wear no other.

Why It Is Better

The wool used to make Staley is pulled (not sheared) which leaves the end of the fiber smooth and this underwear will not irritate the skin as do all other kinds of wool underwear. The wool is put in a solution before it is washed that burns out all the foreign matter. This is an expensive way to treat wool and therefore not practiced by other manufacturers, and for that reason anyone can wear Staley even though they cannot wear other kinds. We have never found a man that could not wear Staley fine wool underwear.

45 Different Kinds

Staley underwear is made in 45 different kinds. We can satisfy you, no matter who you are. We please the rich and poor alike. We fit anyone at same price, big or little. We have it in union suits. We have all colors. It will wear so long that you will forget what you paid for it before it wears out. We guarantee it to give satisfaction.

Why You Should Wear It

The best medical authority in the world contends that wool underwear is the only underwear fit to wear. If you will ask your doctor what kind of underwear he wears he will tell you Staley. Now if it's good enough for him it should be good enough for you. You don't have to wait until you are broken down in health before you buy Staley, wear it now, and keep well, don't wait until rheumatism gets hold of you before buying Staley. Avoid bad colds that may lead to lung trouble by wearing Staley fine wool underwear. Come in and let us show you this underwear.

Rheumatism Cured

If you will come in we will give you the names of more than fifty cases of rheumatism that have been cured by wearing Staley underwear. We do not claim that everyone that has rheumatism will be made entirely well, but no matter how bad you may be you will receive benefit by wearing Staley. It will keep your blood warm and your skin dry which is a great relief to those having rheumatism. You will never be without Staley if you once wear it. You can't afford to die as long as you can get Staley wool underwear at our price.

In Jail

No one wearing Staley underwear, except the sheriff, has been found in jail since we came to Wayne. You need Staley underwear.

No One Has Died That Wore Staley

We have sold thousands of suits of Staley underwear during the six years we have been in Wayne, but no one has died that wore Staley since we came here. Why not live and enjoy life by wearing Staley underwear? Think this matter over and decide to visit us this fall. We will do you good.

No Divorce

No one has asked for a divorce in this county in six years that had on Staley. Every good wife should see that her husband wears Staley underwear. They need it.

The Mason Democrat prints this story, which will be new to some. The sheriff of a neighboring county took a patient to the insane asylum at Cherokee not long ago and was waiting in the main reception room with his charge when a very sane acting man came into the room and took a seat. The fellow was a "fruity" and was going around to see what was to be seen, but the sheriff supposed him to be one of the attaches of the institution. He was somewhat surprised when the fellow asked him what time it was, for there was a fine large clock on the wall of the room.
"There's the clock right up there," was the reply of the sheriff to the man's question.
"But it is not right," replied the "fruity."
"It is right," said the sheriff and, comparing it with his watch, added, "It is right."
"No it isn't," declared the maniac. "Why isn't it?" asked the sheriff.
"Any 4-3 foot ought to know if it was 'right' if wouldn't be in here!" retorted the affy individual and he arose and walked out.

WAXED—Three or four hundred bushels of oats at a cent above market price. J. M. Pile.

Winside Tribune's Editorials and Pres. J. M. Pile's Reply

The fact that A. E. Littell was nominated on the first ballot after a spirited three handed campaign, speaks well for the Winside professor. Mr. Littell is a young man unusually endowed with brains and his chances for election are good. He is entirely independent of the college so that no half baked teacher will get a certificate through favoritism if he wins out. It is to be hoped that his opponent will be as free from subtle influences so that in any case the county will have a superintendent who does not believe that the sun necessarily rises and sets within the sacred grounds of the Wayne college.—Winside Tribune, September 14.

The Fletcher Times chuckles in unholiness because its hated contemporary let a twenty dollar bill betting that another fellow did not have a first grade certificate. That other fellow simply went down in his pocket and pulled out a certificate, from Wayne college of course, and pocketed the money. When Bro. Hubbard has lived longer in this world of care and trouble, particularly in the neighborhood of Pile's institution, he will find that any one who is able to possess a certificate.—Winside Tribune, September 23.

Wayne, Neb., Oct. 2nd, 1905. To J. C. and N. B. Eckert, Editors and Publishers of the Winside Tribune: Next to the last paragraph in the first editorial column of the Tribune of September 28th is absolutely false as far as it refers to the Wayne Normal. No school in the state can issue a teachers' certificate. Graduates of Normal schools whose courses of study, methods of teaching and management, and thoroughness of work meet the requirements of the law and the approval of the state superintendent are issued state certificates by the state superintendent. This school does meet such requirements and approval as well as the approval of the state University and the graduates of our higher courses receive life state certificates and a certificate of admission to the sophomore class of the University.

No teacher of Thurston county nor candidate for county superintendent of that county holds a teachers' certificate from this school nor from the state superintendent on account of having completed a course of study of this school. Both Fowler and McBrien, as state superintendents, have issued certificates to our graduates. Every one knows them to be true men and able educators who would not issue a certificate to a person not fully entitled to it.

Direct statements and insinuations in former issues of the Tribune with reference to this school seeking or receiving favors in any manner from the present and former superintendents of this county are absolutely false. This school has never asked—through its president, its teachers, its trustees, its students nor in any other way—a superintendent of this county for a favor to either student or teacher. Lundberg, Bright and Elliott are fair men and strong educators who would not show favors to friend or foe in the issuing certificates. Any assertion to the contrary is not only false but unjust to every teacher and school in the county.

Most of the teachers of the county live in the county and but few if any counties of the state have a stronger body of teachers. Prominent educators have frequently complimented Wayne county on her successful school work. I am confident that teachers of this county, all of whom hold certificates issued by either Fowler, McBrien, Lundberg, Bright or Elliott, are fully and fairly entitled to them. This school and everyone connected with it are intensely interested in advancing every educational interest. We shall continue to do whatever we can do fairly to advance every teacher, every school boy and school girl, and the community at large. Wayne county can congratulate herself on the record of such superintendents as Lundberg and Bright. We are interested in having the progress made by them continued and increased, and shall take such part as is our right in electing a superintendent who is as able and will be as fair as his predecessors.

In conclusion, I emphasize the fact that the school, its officers, teachers, students and patrons have their rights which will be defended. The records, the work, the management of the school are always open to visitation and inspection. Should you so desire, you will be given every opportunity and assistance in learning the facts of the school's relation to every other educational and business interest of our city, county and section of the country. I request you to give this letter the same prominence in the Tribune that was given to paragraphs above mentioned. Very truly,
J. M. PILE.

H. S. WELCH, Jeweler

Joe Trigg in the Register and Leader: Some newly married couples should be looked up by the old folks for thirty days after the ceremony, as if left to make a "bridal tower," they inflict upon the traveling public a degree of veridant conspicuousness and saccharine dactylogy which it is impossible to ignore and difficult to refrain from making fun of. Such a couple occupied a seat behind us in the car a few days since. He was tall, lanky, loose jointed, awkward in the extreme—first trip on the "keers" evidently. His hands were large and encased in a pair of fawn colored kid gloves. Two 50 cent seal rings were worn outside his gloves. He wore an ill-fitting $10 ready made, black suit, a lilac cravat, a very high collar, and a red buttoniere. He sported a large amount of watch chain, and on his shirt bosom a gem of the first water, which must have cost a quarter at least. His feet he kept under the seat with his grips. He wore his derby cocked jauntily on one side of his head and stroked an insipid mustache with an air of proprietorship which was very fly, indeed. She was short, fat and pudgy, not positively homely, for every woman looks to a certain extent pretty and attractive the day she is married, if never before or after. She was neatly and not overdressed. Her voice was harsh, raspy; her head full of silly nonsense. They had a time over some chewing gum, and by talking loud enough for all to hear, succeeded in attracting the attention which they evidently sought. Still they were happy, very much so. To see the veridant bridegroom gaze on his bride was worth a quarter. His look and expression was simply unutterable. He just wanted to eat her, evidently. The Register man leaned back in his seat, pretended to be asleep, and took it all in. The years will come and go, but never will they forget that wedding trip, and twenty years from now will be ready as anyone to laugh at the newly married couple on their wedding trip.

After hearing the rest of Jas. H. Hyde doesn't appear like such a bad fellow.

When the eight-hour day for printers is established there will probably be a rush of county editors, who are printers, to the cities. Ten-hour pay for an eight-hour day means working twelve, fourteen and sixteen hours a day and hustling to get money to pay the other fellow.

Don't laugh at the girl who still wears the white shoes and the peckaboo waist, or the man with the straw hat. It may be all they have.

Good house for rent. R. H. JAMES.

Every time President Roosevelt whacks his big stick down in a rotten place in the public service our pops a United States senator. When the buzzard begins to circle around a yellow spot in the financial world and investigation started to find what's dead out pops a United States senator. Every time a stockholder of a moneyed concern who believes he is being robbed by his fellow grafters kicks the top off the graft out pops a United States senator. The first shot out of the box in the Equitable Life exposure was a United States senator. The first whack of the big stick on land grafter in Oregon exposed a United States senator. The explosion of a small bomb under a St. Louis politician quick graft nailed a United States senator. One random shot at the Panama scandal threatened to expose two United States senators. The tobacco frauds, now being investigated, will catch a United States senator. There are but ninety of him in all but he seems ubiquitous.—Eldorado, Kansas, Republican.

A Stove Bargain

COLE'S HOT BLAST is a great stove. It sells under a positive guarantee to those who find it in fact over a lower draft stove of the same size. On any condition it shall be replaced according to directions and set up within a good time. Another thing—Cole's Hot Blast will burn soft coal, lignite coal, coke, hard coal, wood, or any fuel without any change in the stove.

FOR HARD COAL it gives greater heat than any time burner with one-half the coal, because it is all tight and has twice the positive radiating surface.

Scientific Construction.

Air-tight and gas-tight construction throughout. A patented steel collar connects the air draft to the stove body and cannot open by action of the fire heat. The patented compound hinge on the lower draft cannot warp and the draft door closes airtight by its own weight. The patented smoke-proof feed door prevents smoke, dust or gas escaping when fuel is put in the stove. Perfect results, therefore, from any fuel. The heavy fire box protects the points where other stoves burn out first, and insures great durability. Cole's Hot Blast makes

Baptist Church Notes.

The annual meeting of the trustees and finance committee was held Wednesday evening at the church parlors. The receipts for the past year were reported as $1,800. The general expense of $1,147, missions $340 and debt on parsonage of $400 paid off. The report also showed a pleasing increase in church membership and Sunday school attendance. At the close of the business session the ladies served nice refreshments and a good time socially was enjoyed by all present.

The gunshot Wednesday Fisher scored 24, Miner, 22, Witzer, 21 and Frank Berry 21.

Harry Whalen was an arrival from Dakota Wednesday and says he is going to Omaha today enroute to the coast.

J. F. Feather has been appointed registrar of the and deaths for the east half of Wayne county. The appointment being made by the state board of health.

You can't skip that ad of John Kate's, Staley Underwear, any more than you can get through the coming winter without this line of clothing.

The intermediate bowlers about town will have to keep their shoes well-leaved these days or they will be nabbed up and transported to Lincoln. A peace official of the city tells the Democrat there are about half a dozen continual bowlers under surveillance at present and upon the first infraction of the peace they will be made subjects for the state.

Editor Gibson is putting up a mammoth building at Magna, according to Printer McDonald who is going up there to work for him on the Mail. The structure is 80 feet long and two stories high with an observatory on the roof.

John Kate says Lou Holtz has an elegant store and fine clothing business at Randolph, and is also putting up a $4000 residence.

The Democrat man took a run up to Winside last Saturday and it mentions the fact simply to state that in the matter of fine stores that burg has Wayne skinned a city. Wally Gasbler has just completed a double-decker, hardware and furniture, that is a beauty and about as near perfect in the planning as a double store can be made.

The board of insanity was convened Wednesday to act upon the actions of Street Commissioner John Farmer, who was taken in charge by the sheriff previously, and he was ordered taken to the lunatic ward at Lincoln. Sheriff Means leaving yesterday morning with him for that place.

Misses Lena and Sophia Bohmert, who have been visiting their uncle, A. G. Bohmert the past month, returned to their home at Neligh yesterday.

What's the matter with making the election of John Massie unanimous? The show at the opera house—all this week—is not playing to very big business.

An important change in a couple of Wayne business houses takes place next week.

Homer Wilson and John Bressler left today for Washington, D. C., to attend the national convention of bankers.

Does Not the Name Suggest It?

A brilliant event is anticipated by theatergoers in the forthcoming production of "The Taming of the Shrew" which in a most modern managerial sense, is a whirlwind of rollicking merriment in which the dashing role of Katherine as played by Margaret Ralph is the chief element. The popularity of this sparkling comedy is probably due to the fact that it differs from most Shakespearean plays to the extent of its seeming to be solely for the amusement of an up-to-date audience. Its very modern situations in a way places it within the reach of every one's sense of humor alike, and the audience does not sit and wonder what it is all about, as is too often the case when Shakespeare comes to town. However, his comedies are as thoroughly for laughing purposes as his tragedies are for tears. This is especially emphasized in "The Taming of the Shrew." Does not the name suggest it?

Normal Notes

Mid-term examinations were given in many of the classes last Friday.

The programs of the Literary societies began at 7:30. All who desire to attend should get to the hall by that time.

The members of the graduating classes have been assigned their places on the literary programs for their work instead of their orations.

During Prof. Pile's absence Friday, Miss Neilhart had the didactic work and gave a talk on primary teaching. She will take charge of the class several days during the term.

Misses Evelyn and Eleanor J. Frey of Martinsburg, enjoyed a visit from their mother from Saturday until Monday. The young ladies are here for the year and each will complete a course next August.

The Philomathean society held charge of the regular student social Saturday evening and headed the matter in a most satisfactory manner. The students are taking hold of the social features of the school very nicely.

Prof. Pile will attend the state meeting at Lincoln of the superintendents and principals to be held 12th, 13th and 14th. He is on the program for Thursday night. Supr. Davidson of Omaha and Prof. Beavy of the University give addresses the same evening.

More than $100 worth of biological and chemical apparatus and supplies has been added to the science department the past month. Prof. Buchanan is proving a strong man for the work and no doubt, the work will not fall short of that of former years. Mr. Wm. Kirt of Council Bluffs spent Saturday and Sunday as guest of the family. He went through the "1904 quarantine" with us and was a member of the ball team of that year. He was a popular student and is now managing a large farm owned by him and his father.

Mrs. H. S. Ringland and son Joe went to Omaha Monday to visit at the home of Geo. Damon.

Will Cunningham was an arrival Tuesday from North Dakota, where he owns some farm lands.

S. A. Bruner Killed.

S. A. Bruner, a former Wayne county citizen, but for the past five years a resident of Charles Mix county, South Dakota, was instantly killed at Savanna, Illinois, by a passenger train Sunday, Sept. 17. He was on his way to Chicago with a shipment of fat cattle and was standing on the railroad tracks at the town named tarrying to other parties and did not notice an incoming passenger train until it whistled for him, when instead of getting out of the way, in his sudden fright jumped right in front of the engine and was almost instantly killed. The many friends of the family in this county deeply sympathize with his stricken wife and family.—Herald.

VOTE FOR JOHN H. MASSIE COUNTY JUDGE

MASSIE SHOULD BE EVERY MAN'S CANDIDATE

with his empty tomato can and dynamite biscuits depict the life of a genuine American hobo. Hooligan had no money and didn't want any, but I am glad that Wayne hasn't any Hooligans. If she has I have never had the pleasure of meeting them for it seems that nearly every man that I meet tries to instill into my youthful mind the old maxim: "It is better to give than to receive." So I have to give. (Don't tell anybody, but it is to pay up what I owe the other fellow.) In other words this seething, surging mass of humanity are all after the almighty dollar.

Stop for a Moment and Reason

If I could sit in my office with you and demonstrate to you beyond question that I had an investment which would yield you a handsome profit of a hundred per cent, you would take me up. Listen: We have an investment that will do much better than that. You say you don't believe it. Wait a moment. Be fair with me and meet me half way. Come into my office and look over the views, read some of our literature. (The company stands back of every word printed.) Read some books on geology and get acquainted with the mining business; see some of the specimens of ore from the King Solomon. In other words, come to my office and make a thorough investigation and if you are not satisfied that it is a good investment don't put any money into it. You say you would not know ore if you saw it. Hooligan would know that much. Any man with horse sense can tell ore from country rock.

Once More I Ask You to Reason

One hundred thousand horse power can be generated in the Ten Mile river, which we own and control for one mile. Two railroads within a stone's throw from the tunnel. Machinery installed and working day and night. A tunnel proposition requiring no hoisting or pumping machinery. Ore handled but once, gravity does the rest. This past week men have been at work over the tunnel line and have opened thirty-one veins of highly mineralized ore from the surface which President Dinsmore writes certainly means riches for all that hold stock in the King Solomon. In the tunnel the shale is constantly changing for the better according to the report of Superintendent Myers. People are coming into my office every day and purchasing stock. Will you be next?

On Ohio Bridges.

To the DEMOCRAT. I have been spending a few days with one of the commissioners of Turnbull county, Ohio. He informs me that oak lumber is now worth here $25 a thousand and as a timber bridge is of short life, they are building the frames of their bridges of steel, and are experimenting with cement for the floors, instead of plank.

They have built one bridge 80 feet long and 36 feet wide. Steel frame and cement floor, which has now been in use a year. It has thus far given entire satisfaction, although it is where there is a large amount of travel over it, and a street railroad goes over it.

Would it not be a good idea to try this kind of bridge in Wayne county? To get a permanent foundation for the buttments it would be necessary to dig trenches three or four feet below the surface of the stream, then driving pilings reaching to the bottom of the trench; then build up to the necessary height with cement. If suitable wings were put in the bridge would be a structure that would last, and while the first cost would be more than a wooden one, it would probably in the end be cheaper.

H. H. MOSES.

The faculty at Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., were so well pleased with Miss Helen Pile's proficiency in the German language that she was selected as teacher in the preparatory department, an honor as rare as well deserved.

Mrs. A. H. Hall went to Omaha Wednesday to undergo another operation, the third or fourth, the DEMOCRAT is told.

The residence of Gene Hise was put under quarantine Sunday, one of his little girls having a very light attack of diphtheria.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Welch went to Omaha Wednesday Mr. Welch sr. being here to look after the jewelry store.

Phil Sullivan is expected home from the hospital at Council Bluffs this week.

Visitors to Omaha Wednesday were Messrs. and Mesdames Wm. Hiepenstock, Mellick Robbins, Mrs. Hosterder, Mrs. Jas. Elliott, John Finn, Dave Surber, Dan McMangal, and several others.

Henry Schorer made a trip to North Bend last Saturday.

It looks as though Pat Crowe and Alexander Dowie would finish at about the same time.

Clem Allspaugh, who has done good service on Payne's dray line, has gone back to his trade and taken a job as meat dispatcher in Frank's shop. Clem is a dandy with the meat ax.

A Fall in Clothes.

That's what you find by going to see Schorer the tailor, for your fall suit. He has the nobbies, newest patterns, best styles, cheapest prices and best workmanship in the state. Before deciding on a ready-made suit, see how much better, finer clothes for the same money you can get from the new tailor. Over State Bank.

Our Advice

Is to have your teeth attended to now, before they get worse and cost you more money. Remember the rush of work and cold weather will soon be here, so do not delay longer, but go to Dr. Eells and have your dentist work done.

Church Dedication.

The dedication of the Salems' church, which is located seven miles southeast of town, will take place next Sunday, Oct. 8th. The morning service will begin at 10:30. In this service the new church will be dedicated by the local minister, and Rev. Arthur Graber and Rev. T. Herrmann assisting. In the morning service Rev. Arthur Graber from Talmage will preach. Rev. C. Ringer and Rev. Herrmann from Tilden will preach in the afternoon service.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to his wife and that they be spread upon the records of the lodge and published in the newspapers of Winside and Wayne and also that the Charter of the lodge be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days.

Mr. Wheeler bought her a $2,000 automobile and they put in about all their time riding about the veldt in the vicinity of Johannesburg looking after Mr. Wheeler's mining interests. As indicating the "prosperity" in that country Mrs. Wheeler says her husband cleaned up over 50,000 pounds last year ($250,000), and that he has been doing about that well for several years.

Drafts all Over the World

The State Bank issues drafts payable in any of the leading centers of the principal foreign countries as well as the United States and Canada.

These drafts can be obtained for any sum over $1.00.

The party named as payee can deposit them to his credit in regular bank or, upon proper identification, convert them into cash at the bank upon which they are drawn.

Bank drafts cost less than Postoffice or Express Agency Orders and are safer.

Here's the way the Beacon, published at Spirit Lake, Ia., shines in a recent issue: Earl Tiffany is in the reform school. He was not a particularly bad boy, but his father is dead and his mother wanted to marry again and so she shifted her income bracket upon the broad shoulder of the state and was ready for a second trip to the altar. She ought to have a happy honeymoon. As she melts in the arms of her lover of fifty-three, she ought to feel so good to know she will not be further troubled with the fruitage of a former flame. Her little boy has lost his faith in motherhood, but he is out of the way. The baby she bore to another man may be hard eating and dwarfing in duration more or less, but he will not be around under foot to inspire reproach in the heart of the man who has taken his father's place. With a mother's love and care and a fair chance in the world the lad might have made her eyes glisten with pride in the days to come, but when there is a chance to marry right now what's the use of waiting for what might happen after a while. The state will do the best it can to direct the feet of her boy into the paths of good and useful manhood while the mother unmolested by her offspring basks in the love of a man who took her into his cold and clammy arms when she abandoned the incubance of a previous life union. As the poet says: "There's nothing true but women, and you can't always bet on them."

There are all sorts of hogs in this country. Here is one told about by an exchange, whom we have all met. He was a small, nervous, wiry-built man with whiskers and talked rapidly as he ate voraciously at the table in a western town. He grumbled a great deal at the food, but managed to stow away a considerable quantity of it for a man of his inches. It was supper time—or dinner as some people call it—and he first ate some cold slaw, mush and milk and a sour pickle, then some fried tripe, a big sirloin steak, frankfurters and sauerkraut, roast, warm biscuit, baked potatoes and coffee. He wound up with some griddle cakes and maple syrup, stewed prunes, assorted cake and a glass of milk and, a few minutes later, while picking his teeth in the lobby of the hotel, we heard him telling a friend "this damned hotel grub, is killing me by inches."

Some Seasonable Advice

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year, to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

A St. Louis preacher has abandoned the pulpit and taken up the practice of law. He no doubt came to the conclusion that men will give more to keep out of jail than they will to keep out of bed.

Full of Tragic Meaning

Are these lines from J. H. Simmons of Casey, Iowa. Think what might have resulted from his terrible cough if he had not taken the medicine about which he writes: "I had a fearful cough, that disturbed my night's rest. I tried everything but nothing would relieve it until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which completely cured me." Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Raymond's Drug Store. Guaranteed; 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

"Please Smile AND Look Pleasant."

When a woman says "I am racked with pain," the word "racked" recalls the days when she stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with rope and pulley until the very joints cracked. Today an attendant saying to the tortured woman, "Please smile and look pleasant." And if the woman "racked with pain," is expected to smile through her agony and to make home happy. She can't do it. It is again the remedy, generally speaking, the racking pains of ill-health such as headache, backache and "bearing-down pains" are related to derangement of the organs of the digestive system. When this condition is removed the general health is restored, and with health comes back the smile of happiness. Any woman may regain her health at home without offensive questionings or examinations by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Sick women should consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. Such letters are treated as sacredly confidential. "It afforded me pleasure to relate the wonderful results of your great medicine, especially your Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. J. H. Stubbins, of Jersey, N. J., Box 282. "My wife has been using it for nearly three years, and she is now suffering with bearing-down pains, acting in back, and many other complaints which could not do any heavy work or washing but can do all a mother can do. She no longer fears the result, as she has found that your medicine is so good, it is worth trying. It has cured her of her worst troubles. They are my constant companions—once used, always kept. Give me your name. The People's Common Sense Medical Advice is sent free on application. Write for a free copy of the book containing full directions and several colored plates. It is sent by mail for 10c. Send stamps for the book. Address: Dr. J. C. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y."

The democratic candidate for governor of Ohio is the president of a clothing store in a large company. This is a bad year for presidents of life insurance companies.—Siox City Journal.

Mr. Bryan has sailed for foreign shores, but the republican press will not forget to keep right on abusing him.

A Judicious Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by Raymond's Drug Store.

The laws passed by the last legislature which escaped Governor Mickey's veto are getting knocked out by the courts. District Judge Day, of Omaha, has just declared the anti-cigarette law unconstitutional on the ground that the giving away of the papers cannot be prohibited. There is little left of this session's work and the less left the better.—Schuyler Free Lance.

In Milwaukee the grand jury has returned about 150 indictments against municipal officers. If it keeps on there will be some question as to what made Milwaukee famous.

Superintendent C. H. Bright and Mrs. Bright sailed for the Philippines September 6. They go to take places as teachers in the Philippine schools. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bright have been regarded as especially strong teachers. Mr. Bright has served as Superintendent of Wayne county for nearly four years. Mrs. Bright has been teaching in Wayne normal college.—Nebraska Teacher, Lincoln.

The Schuyler Free Lance says: A ready they are booming Patrick E. McKillop for governor on the democratic ticket another year. He made a fine run against Congressman McCarthy here in this 3d district last year and that gives him a start. He spent plenty of money in his congressional campaign and no doubt would in his gubernatorial fight, so will be a good piece of timber for a forlorn hope.

Wayne county has been particularly fortunate in its superior meats. Mr. Bright has been an especially strong executive and so was Superintendent Lundberg before him. The commissioners have just appointed Mr. R. I. Elliott who is worthy to follow these men. He has won his spurs in a difficult position and has shown his ability to handle the large affairs of a county system of schools.—Nebraska Teacher, Lincoln.
