Ho! For South Dakota

I am going to Potter county about March 1st. Potter county lays on the Missouri river, second county north of Pierre. It is moderately rolling with rich black soil, all underlined with yellow clay—no sand, no hard pan, no alkali. Good water 15 to 60 feet. I will refer parties to Chas. Worth, Ross Strawgo or Wm. Larson.

He also intends to look over the land in the western part of Nebraska, near Scott's Bluffs, and will make a choice between the two localities for his future home.

Fire partly destroyed the farm dwelling of Will Gamble, four miles south of town, Tuesday. It started from a defective chimney and about six feet square of the roof was burned away when the flames were discovered by Mr. Gamble. He was just returning from Wayne in company with another man, and was nearing the house when the smoke and flame burst through the roof. Quick action on their part with buckets of water soon put the fire under control. The loss is about $50 and fully covered by insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. Walden were visitors from Carroll Tuesday. Mr. Walden reports that Phillee & Co. made a deal with T. H. Evans last Friday for the sale of their implement business, and put up money to bind the bargain, but that when the invoice was well under way the sale was declared off by the buyer. It seems that the stock went into money a little too fast to suit Mr. Evans.

Commissioner Cullen was detained at Winside on account of the dangerous illness of his wife's mother, while Commissioner Owen welcomed the advent of a baby boy at his home. A number of very important matters are up for consideration at this session of the board.

As I have decided to quit farming, I will offer all my remaining property at public auction, Tuesday Feb. 27, commencing at 10 o'clock.

As we intend to cross the "pond" for Europe in the spring with a view of staying there if we like it, it follows that everything will be sold without reserve. If you have seen my sale bills you have noticed that I have not as much to sell as some others, but my stock is all of good quality. You will not be called upon to bid on scrub stock of any description. I invite your special attention to my brood sows, of which I never had better. My machinery is all in good shape and most of it nearly new.

If you invite you all to come, and see for yourself whether the above is true and buy if you find anything you need. VICTOR CARLSON.

CARROLL NEWS.

From Carroll Index.
Miss Edna Longnecker came up from Wayne Saturday to spend a few days with friends here.

The sad news of the death of Mrs. William Henry Jones at Wales, Iowa, on Monday Feb. 12th. was received this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brown and Mrs. Jud Garwood of Wayne were in town Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Garwood's baby.

There is to be considerable moving around in the business circle of Carroll within the next few days. M. S. Linn is to move into his own building when W. E. Liddle will move into the corner building vacated by Mr. Linn. It is also reported that Oscar McCay will start up in business at Liddle's old stand.

Quite a serious runaway occurred Monday on the road east of Hill Mick's place. Bert Emos and Mr. Bonham of Wayne were driving in a single rig. The team became unmanageable and Mr. Bonham in the excitement leaped from the buggy, sustaining a severe shakeup, but suffering no broken bones. It was at first thought he was injured internally, but an examination proved otherwise. The team was finally stopped without much damage.

Russell Sage will be a spendthrift and Mrs. Hetty Green will squander all her money in living like a queen.

We will have perpetual motion and a bridge across the sea, The "niggers" will be white folks and old Ireland will be free; John D. will be a pauper, every printer have a "roll".

We shall see white blackbirds flying when Wellman finds the pole.

Mr. Cummins will be a senator and Leslie Norton Shaw will be our honored president; and Teddy's son-in-law will be the King of Sulu. Nobody then will hear

A kick against the railroads, or the foam upon the beer. The life insurance grafters will pay back what they stole, And transact business on the square When Wellman finds the pole. —John Dalton in Mason Democrat.

Don't Butt In.

In conversation with Ed Zessin, the trouble man for the telephone company, the first of the week, we were informed that the telephone company was working on a new device that, since completed, would indicate at the central office of the telephone company just what receivers were down when a party was using the line. The Star-Mail trusts that the new device will soon be brought into service, as it is almost impossible at times to make the party line with satisfaction. We do not see why one should be so inquisitive as to rush to the phone and listen when a conversation is held between two neighbors. As a rule when a party from town wishes to converse with a party in the country, it is on a business matter that concerns no one but the parties engaged in the conversation, and for that reason no lady or gentleman would listen and furthermore it is annoying to the parties interested to hear the children crying, the organ playing or the talking machine grinding out a back number of stale jokes and many other things too numerous to mention.

As stated above we trust the new addition to the telephone will soon make its appearance and trust that until it does people having phones on the party lines will answer the call of their own phone only.—Madison Star.

The Carroll Index has taken a wise precaution and labeled its "heavy" items "editorials."

Money may be the root of all evil, but just now rural routes are responsible for most cussing.

If they are putting the lid on some of these bad laws, the old hen continues to work her shell game just the same, and even cackles about it.

It looks as though the Sioux City Journal had for once taken a stand on a proposition in politics. The Journal is unquestionably for Perkins for governor in preference to Cummings.

Pat Crowe can make more money "behind a bar" in Omaha than he did or could stealing young Cudahys at $25,000 each. Every policeman in Omaha will boost for Crowe's nest won't they?

It doesn't follow that if a grass widow holds up a train a posse of deputy sheriffs will be sent after her. The chances are, however, that if she held it high enough every deputy sheriff and peace officer in this vicinity would turn to rubber.

I don't believe in this thing putting large amounts of money into campaigns for the purpose of corrupting the young voters. If I ever get to be a county chairman and any candidate sends me $400 or $500 to pay the expenses of his campaign, I believe I will follow the example of others and stick the whole business down in my own jeans. That's lots better than corrupting a lot of people.

If there is anything decent about the DEMOCRAT this week you can lay it to the fact that "By Dad" has been kept locked up for a week at his humble domicile, the Mrs. By Dad and three children all having the measles simultaneously, and the former having quite a serious time of it. Owing to so much sickness in the community it was impossible to get a nurse, and not even a hired girl, so it has been without any exception the most strenuous week the DEMOCRAT man has ever put it.

Rev. Hughs, according to the Pender Republic will count the votes in the Republic piano contest. It will be remembered that Rev. Hughs has been making strenuous efforts to reform Pender people, and his getting mixed up in a piano contest looks peculiar to an outsider, for as the DEMOCRAT understands it a newspaper piano contest is just a little worse than a poker game.

Manson Journal: Here's a story about Swede John which has never before appeared in print: Several years ago Swede John was a member of a coterie of working men who kept bachelor quarters in Fort Dodge. The nationality of the men included Germans, Irish, Swedes and Americans and among them was a son of the Emerald Isle who had ruined himself, mentally and physically, with strong drink. He had fought many a hard battle with John Barleycorn and lost them all. One night he lay on his bed suffering the agonies of delirium tremens. Swede John was the only one at his side. Suddenly the suffering man felt a strange sensation around his heart and he became imbued with the idea that he was dying.

"Run for a doctor, quick!" he shrieked.

Job lost no time in running for a doctor, but he failed utterly to find one. Then his patient begged him to get a priest. He ran as fast as he could to the rectory, but the priest was not there. Back to the man's bedside he rushed with the disappointing news. Craving spiritual consolation of any kind, the suffering sinner begged Swede John to pray for him. Down on his knees by a chair went John, but not a word did he utter.

"Why don't you pray?" begged the poor, delirious sufferer.

"Gude Gawd," replied John. "Ay don't know how! Vat in hal vill I do? Ay can't pray in English an' Yees Christ can't understand Swede!"

The Basin (Wyo) Republican of last week contained the following references to Wayne people:

C. C. Blake, while in Cheyenne, appeared before the state board of Charities and Reforms and secured a permit for D. E. Miller and J. R. Rundle, of Wayne, Neb., to bottle, sell and dispose of the waters of the famed Thermopolis Hot Springs for the next fifteen years. These waters are becoming more and more of a beverage wherever they are known, and we are glad to see the above named parties become interested.

P. Lundburg, John Lewis and G. W. Jones, of Wayne, Neb., came in Friday night from Garland. They will stay around Basin a week or two and look at the real estate bargains that are offered by the various real estate firms of Basin.

Mr. Louie Volpp was a visitor from Bloomfield this week.

Wedding Is Postponed.

Norfolk News: Miss Florence Gaylord would have been Mrs. Emil Matthes today but for a telephone call to the County Judge at Wayne just as Mr. Matthes was ready to sign the license. A Norfolk business man told the County Judge that Miss Gaylord was but fourteen and he got his information just in time to stop the issuing of the license, and today it waits in Wayne all ready for the signature. Miss Gaylord and Emil Matthes of Stanton took the early train to Wayne Monday morning expecting to be married and with the knowledge of Mrs. L. M. Gaylord, her mother. No parental objections had been raised to the union, except the youth of the couple. Miss Gaylord will not be eighteen until Friday, and Mr. Matthes is just a little more than twenty. When they reached Wayne they went to the hotel, where Miss Gaylord remained while Mr. Matthes hid himself to the court house to secure a license to marry. In the meantime a Norfolk business man, who had ridden up on the same train, informed the sheriff of the contemplated marriage and stated that the prospective bride was but fourteen years old. Sheriff Mears immediately went to Miss Gaylord and talked to her about it. She asserted her true age, but he decided to stop the issuance of the license until he could talk with her parents in Norfolk.

The sheriff and the judge then talked to Mr. Gaylord over the telephone but the young folks had decided to put off the wedding and so returned to Norfolk Monday evening unmarried. Many untrue rumors were rife upon their return and they have kept closely to the Gaylord home since.

Commissioners' Proceedings.

Wayne, Nebr., Feb 20, 1906. Board met as per adjournment. President, Ed Owen, chairman, R. Russell and Chas. W. Reynolds, clerk. Bids for the building of bridges and the furnishing of lumber for Wayne county for the year 1906 were duly opened as provided by law. No business completed. Board adjourned to February 26th, 1906. CHAS. W. REYNOLDS, Clerk

For South Dakota lands see A. N. Matheny.

A series of revival services will be held at the Bethel church, northwest of Hoskins, Neb., commencing Monday evening, Feb. 26. Rev. George I. Samson, pastor of this church has secured Rev. R. H. Cantwell as evangelist. All are cordially welcomed to these meetings.

Advantages of Using Incubators.

It is becoming plain to every practical poultry raiser that March, April and early May is the season of profitable chicken hatching for general farm use. The pallets to supply next winter's eggs must be gotten out in March and April if of the larger breeds, and not later than May if of the smaller types.

The cockerels if intended for market, if hatched in March, will bring from thirty to forty cents a piece when they weigh 1 1/2 to 2 pounds, and at a fraction of the cost for feed it would take to bring a June hatched chick up to that price. Again if one wishes to get out 100 to 150 early winter layers, he will find depending on setting hens very disappointing business. It would require the service of no less than 40 hens for nine weeks to hatch and rear to weaning age sufficient to supply the required number of pullets, even if one doubled up the flocks and set some hens twice. In nine weeks' time, right in the most profitable laying season, you can readily figure for yourself that the hens could easily lay enough eggs to pay for a good incubator and brooder large enough to hatch and raise as many chicks and at less trouble. Then, too, not one in a hundred are so fortunate as to get enough easy hens to set thus early in the season. Your incubator is always ready, always in the dry, and will hatch your chicks in uniform flocks of the same age and size. If kept from older fowls, chicks will be free from lice mites and all contagious diseases which in itself is quite an item. With a good machine of sufficient capacity your hatching operations are over and out of the before hot weather comes instead of dawdling along the whole season, then waiting on the caprices of a bunch of contrary setting hens.

By Jennie E. Stewart, Allen, Nebr.
The question now to decide is what kind of an incubator to buy. There are several hundred kinds made, but all experienced poultry raisers use the Cyphers. Nearly all incubators hatch chickens under favorable conditions, but it is now a well established fact that hot water machines do not hatch healthy chickens as the hot air machines.

The Cyphers incubator is the recognized hot air machine and is the only one used by large poultry plants and government experiment stations. It needs a Cyphers incubator because it needs no attention and will hatch more and healthier chicks than any other incubator made and you can have 90 days to prove it. Your money returned if not satisfactory. If you intend to buy an incubator, now is the time to place your order. JOHN H. KATZ.

Bad Boys In Wayne County

I believe Wayne County has fewer bad boys than any county in the U. S. We come in contact with boys every day and see them at all hours on the streets, and it is our opinion that no town in the state has better boys than Wayne. But we find boys are bad to wear out shoes, and we have a shoe called "Good For Bad Boys" which we have sold for more than 20 years. No boy can wear out these shoes, unless he gets them too large to commence with, as they wear so long that he will out-grow them. These shoes are made without linings, are all double, making them free of ripping and no linings to wear out. Then the leather is made especially for these shoes, being soft and pliable and will resist wear better than any shoe manufactured. If you have had trouble in getting shoes to wear try "Bad Boys' Shoes" and you will settle that question to your satisfaction. We have the exclusive sale in Wayne for "Bad Boys' Shoes". Try a pair and see if your boy can wear them out.

We have always contended that eggs should be sold for cash the same as other farm products, but owing to the way eggs are bought it seems impossible for any one to buy them for cash and meet competition. Our customers have wanted us to take eggs in trade as they desire to get desirable work clothes, such as we always sell, by trading eggs. We have concluded to take eggs and will hereafter receive eggs same as cash at the highest market price. Let us have your eggs.

ATCHISON GLOBE SIGHTS.
People lose a lot of time every day telling their troubles.
After most of us are out of our teens the joker has more to do with our valentines than Cupid.
People are not only old enough to know better, but to do better; that's what is so discouraging.
A man who means to do better, and doesn't, is only a shade better than a fellow who wouldn't do better for anything.
It is a sign some people have been told by the doctors that they can't get well when they begin to be more charitable.
The neighbors never find out how much valuable jewelry and silverware a woman has in her home until after a burglar has broken in.
When a girl thinks she is a singer, it is not until after her father has bankrupted himself in having her voice trained, that she wakes up.
After a bachelor gets the notion in his head that he is a good catch, he is cautious in all his movements as a cat that is crossing a strange yard.

Every man who is a business failure has, according to his wife's version, a "too trusting disposition."

It must be hard to be the wife of a preacher and have to make one's excited idea of a preacher and poor opinion of a husband, meet on equal terms.
The only time it is not impolite for a man to yawn is when he is all alone in his room, and then, particularly as he grows older, and more tired of people, is the only time when he doesn't feel like it.
A definition of friendship not found in the dictionary: When a woman is asked to stand in the receiving line at a party: When she goes to the milliner and chooses the mourning hats to be tried on before the funeral.
The third day after a woman receives an inheritance, she discovers that she has always wanted to move the body of some dead relative from somewhere to somewhere else, and can do it now that she has money.
There are some people who will be mysterious even if their mysteries ruin them.
About all the climbing up in the world some men do, is when they get on the water wagon, and they soon fall off.

A little girl who received "hundreds" of valentines will receive "hundreds" of proposals of marriage. If it just as easy to fib about one as the other.

An Atchison woman is such a gossip that when people say anything before her she feels as though they had planted a mine that is sure to blow up and do harm.
We never see a milkman's horses without admiring them for their courage. Think of the women they see coming out in their kitchen clothes without running away.
It may be a gift if a woman has a voice for singing that moves the people but it is more important in the long run if she has one that is effective in getting the baby to sleep.
The first day a boy starts to school he hears, "Come straight home without stopping on the road to play," and he hears the same thing from the lips of some woman till the end of his life.
