Craven, and objects and excepts to and complains of the action of the Board of Equalizations of Wayne county, Nebraska, had on June 14th 1906, in ordering the shares of stock in the Nebraska Land Company, a corporation, owned by them to be assessed to them, individually, and objects and excepts to and complains of the action of the Board in assessing to them individually based upon their shares of stock the following sums:

Name	No. Shares	Amount.
John T. Bressler	100	$10000.00
S. R. Theobald	25	2500.00
R. Craven	5	500.00
C. M. Craven	25	2500.00
Theo Duerig	25	2500.00
P. H. Kohl	30	3000.00
W. C. Wightman	10	1000.00
Henry Kellogg	30	3000.00
H. B. Craven	5	500.00

Whereupon the board after due consideration rejects said protests or complaints.
Board hereby makes a 12 per cent reduction on the assessed valuation of all horses in Chapin Precinct.
Board hereby makes a 12 per cent increase on the assessed valuation of all horses in Plum Creek Precinct.
Board hereby makes a 7 per cent increase on the assessed valuation of all horses in Logan Precinct.
Board hereby makes a 11 per cent increase on the assessed valuation of all horses for the town of Winslow.
Comes now Carl Bronzyskiand protests against the valuation of $44 per head on 72 head of cattle, and asks the same be reduced to $28 per head.
Whereupon the board reduces the valuation to $40 per head.
Board adjourns to August 7, 1906.
CHAS. W. REYNOLDS, Clerk.

Another Bad Storm.

The heaviest twenty-minute rainfall the DEMOCRAT man ever saw in Nebraska occurred last Saturday at about 6 p. m. Water flooded over the streets and sidewalks, running up on the high walk front of the First National bank, while at Stodden's saloon it ran over the walk into the barroom. The lightning was equally fierce, hitting an electric wire front of the Owen Shoe Co. and setting the curtains on fire in the store, the blaze being put out without calling out the fire department. In residences west part of town several families were severely shocked. S. B. Seace's house down near the Logan was struck, the bolt splitting the chimney in two, breaking nothing but the damper in the stove, then dividing one streak went through the floor and the other out the side of the house. An old lady sitting beside the stove was unharmed. Just east of town the rain assumed proportions of a water spout. Chas. Nies says it washed $75 worth of dirt off every hill on his place into the bottoms, so Charley will have to make his money out of the bottoms hereafter. Small grain was badly knocked down, and there was more or less hail in different localities.
Lightning struck the German church south of town, doing about $50 damage to the cupola and roof. Another bolt struck Herman Brundig's barn, just over the line in Cuming county, doing little damage.
W. L. Roberts, who lives on the Geo. Mellor farm south of town, says the storm blew down ten big cotton wood trees at his place, also tearing up a stack of hay. At Henry Rath's the wind picked up a hayrack and carried it a hundred yards, dropping it close up against a wire fence undamaged.

College Notes.

Rev. Wright impressed the students by and earnest talk at Chapel Friday morning.
Many visitors have been at the College during the month. All are welcomed at all school exercises.
Most of the members of the graduating classes have been elected to good positions for next year. There is a great demand for teachers.
Mr. Hutchins went to Carroll Friday evening to meet the school board and next year's teachers. He will be a good successor for Mr. Richardson.
Mr. Peters of the teacher's class decided to accept the principalship at Orchard in preference to a like position at Jefferson, S. D.
No classes met Wednesday. A few students spent the day at their homes but most of them enjoyed the exercises here.
Several students entered Saturday and Monday. Miss Luchsinger of Columbus, Miss Hennessey of Platte Center, and Miss Dunn of Lindsay.
In spite of the hard rain Friday evening, a large number of the students and all the faculty attended Prof. and Mrs. Pile's reception at their home. After refreshments all went to the Chapel and enjoyed the social.
The ball game Friday afternoon was attended by many of the students as no classes met from 2:30 to 4. Our boys won by a score of 3 to 1. Jim Pile and Lundak was the battery. The same teams played at Pilger Saturday and Pilger won.
Miss Chase met with a flattering reception at Chapel Friday. Several who were students here when she taught in the college from '08 to '02, are now in attendance and called for a speech to which she made a pleasant reply.
Former students know how much the returning of Miss Kingsburmeant to her department and school life in general and every student now appreciates her thorough class work, her broad helpfulness along all lines and her judicious encouragement.
Miss Stewart's students will give a musical during commencement week in addition to furnishing all the music for the various programs of the week. The large number in the department makes it necessary for Helen Pile to give her assistance in teaching.
One of the most interesting classes of the term is Prof. Buchanan's botany. The class has more than 60 enrolled. Many specimens have been gathered, analyzed and pressed.
Three large classes meet Saturday. Prof. Saunier directs an interesting class in Parliamentary Law and his experience enables him to advance a class rapidly in a term. Miss Chase takes charge of the general literature talks at the 1 o'clock period and the State Geography class which meets at ten o'clock. The work is popular with all grades of students.
Miss Grace Nelhardt has charge of the work in Rhodology, Reading and Physical Culture for the term. Her preparation along these lines when she was a student here and her success as teacher for ten years as teacher in the public make her very competent. She possesses the knack of making her work intensely practical as well as thorough. Her enthusiasm encourages students to their best efforts.
The grade book which contains an inventory of the year's work received much attention by members of the graduating classes. The satisfactory work receives comments and comparisons of various departments. All agree that the work in Algebra and Geometry under Fred Pile has been very strong throughout. He grades closely and his training in mathematical studies leads him to insist on thoroughness in every line and lesson of his subjects.
Mr. John G. Nelhardt of Bancroft addressed the 1 o'clock Saturday class on the general subject of poetry. The masterly address received the closest attention of more than 400 students and the favorable comments made by those present causes others to regret their absence. For an hour he thoughtfully presented the subject with faultless diction and proved himself a deep thinker. He remained over night as the guest of Prof. Pile and wife. He is an honored member of the Alumni and will attend the reunion August 10th.
Dr. Coniff was called up from Sioux City Monday to see Mrs. Robt. Baird. The doctor said there was a chance for recovery but that the patient was very ill. Mrs. Baird has been out of her right mind for several weeks and is in a most pitiable condition.
The democratic county convention will be held at the court house Aug. 11th. Formal call for same will be printed next week.
J. P. Larson made a trip to Wakefield Tuesday.
J. A. Beebe and wife spent the 4th at Coleridge.
Miss Marguerite Dornberger went to Panama, Iowa on a visit.
P. H. Kohl left Tuesday for North Dakota with a party of land-seekers from Wisner. Phil says he has sold over 6000 acres of land up there this season.

MEISTER & BLUECHEL.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Whittaker and baby were visitors at the Moran home Saturday till Monday afternoon when they returned to Craig.
Miss Mason was a visitor to Sioux City Monday.
N. B. Truth, St. Paul, June 31, '06.—I've lived so long, I remember well when the Mississippi was a brook. My good health and long life came by taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c at Raymond's drug store.
A. F. Brenner was in town Monday, going to Bartington for here. Andy is fatter and better looking than ever.
Fred Benishoff piloted A. B. Nicholas to South Dakota Monday on prospective land business.
H. S. Ringland arrived home last Saturday from his six weeks outing at Colorado Springs, looking "fitter than a fiddle." Mrs. Ringland and the children will not return until fall, although now enjoying the best of good health. Harvey says he saw Den Sullivan, he being now a member of a big retail shoe house, doing a splendid business. He also Louie Hansen and other ex-Wayneites.
Mrs. Geo. Rowher was a visitor from Carroll Monday.
Wm. Wholer was a visitor from the south county line Monday.
Ole Nelson was a visitor from Wakefield Saturday and paid his respects to the DEMOCRAT.
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reynolds and baby were arrivals from Fullerton Tuesday on a visit at the C. W. Reynolds home.
Mrs. Weber and Mrs. Donnelly of Bellingham, Wash., sisters of Mrs. Henry Stampf arrived last Sunday on an extended visit with relatives.
Walt Miller went to Iowa Tuesday on some peculiar mission he refused to divulge.
Tom Lound was here from Winslow to get his rice horse.
Dr. Ellis moved Monday to the new Emil Hanson house in the east part of town.
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Surber went to Laurel Saturday morning to visit over Sunday with her brother, Charles Nichols.
A. G. Parker was taken to Sioux City last Saturday to take treatment at a hospital, although it is unlikely that medical skill will do the old gentleman more than temporary relief, he having been falling very fast the past few weeks, and tall appearances being near the end of a more than usual eventful life. Mr. Parker has held some of the best positions under the government, being at one time chief of the forest reserve of the central west. He was chairman of the state convention of Wisconsin, and nominated Robt. La Follette for office the first time Wm. La Follette ran for office, having known the great statesman from boyhood. Mr. Parker has at times been well off, and says that he had quit politics a few years earlier he might have quit a fairly rich man. The past few years he has been selling life insurance, and while almost penniless has some relatives in Sioux City well able to care for him the rest of his years.

An Elegant Store.

That is what everybody who says of Miller & Ahern's fine establishment when they visit it. The arches, one to be made soon, make the double room an ideal place to conduct a large business. In the rear of the south storerom a "resting parlor" has been fixed up for tired shoppers. Wash bowl, mirror and a couple of beds for sleeping infants make it a comfortable resort for the tired farmers' wives. Mr. Ahern says the firm has enjoyed a phenomenal business of late, and in course of a few weeks the house of Miller & Ahern will be a permanent fixture as one of the largest department establishments of the state.
Wm. Larson has been laid up with rheumatism the past two or three weeks but is now able to get out again.
Poet, historian and novelist, John G. Nelhardt, was a visitor from Bancroft over Saturday and Sunday.
It has caused more laughs and dried more tears, wiped away diseases and driven away more fears than any other medicine in the world. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c tea or tablets. Raymond's drug store.
The fire bell and power house whistle scared all Wayne people out of about seven years growth last Sunday night. The whistle was especially vicious in breaking the late evening Sabbath, leading the disrobing denizens to imagine that the Boyd hotel or somebody's restaurant must have broken out in blazes. It was nothing but the explosion of a lamp in the Newton mill building, a party driving by in a buggy and seeing the blaze, raced his team up Main street and made the alarm a little strong.
The DEMOCRAT has been running on short help the past few weeks. In an endeavor to locate a firstclass printer, and think we have one coming next Monday, a gentleman who has been foreman in a daily newspaper office for a long time, and a man whom we expect to be a top-notch in all lines of the printers' craft.
Ben Patrick, the man who got four years for raising a check on Asher Hurlbert two years ago, has been paroled by Gov. Mickey, and is now at Wallace, Neb., where Sheriff Mears sent his grip to him last week.
Jay Jones re-opened the bowling alley the past week due to 4th of July enthusiasm.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Owen the former a brother to "Nin," who came here from Virginia a few months ago to make their home, returned to the old southern home first of the week, soon tiring of this strenuous Nebraska town.
The D. A. Hall family moved to Sioux City last Monday, much to the relief of the people in the east part of town, although others may have a hard time over their departure.
Drayman White was quite badly hurt Tuesday while unloading a load of beer, taking a fall that wrenched his wrist so that he will be laid up for a while.
Homer Wheaton and C. O. Fisher had a little argument over an old account, last Monday morning, the result being that Homer took a punch at the old gentleman's face.
The Odd Fellows held installation of officers Monday night, R. W. Ley being installed as Noble Grand, and Wm. Larson Vice Noble Grand. After the ceremonies Mr. Ley "set up" the ice cream and cake.

BY DAD

Wayne has a few boy-mad girls, but they are not all that way. Last Saturday evening there was quite a commotion in the west part of town over the peculiar disappearance of a certain young lady, she not being missed until a young man called to see her. The other members of the family went out on a search and after awhile located the girl locked up in a vacant house, the inmates of which are away at the lakes. The house was locked from within and no amount of coaxing would persuade the fair prisoner to release herself; she just wouldn't see that fellow. A couple other girls entered a window and effected a capture of the hidden one much to her discomfort and the amusement of two or three of the neighbors.

Went to church last Sunday, by dad, the first time in five or six years. Rev. Osborne preached a very learned sermon—so my wife told me; she going also to show off her new clothes—but I was more interested in noting the changes time had wrought with the individual members of this exclusive Presbyterian flock than in what both of the poor Jews 4000 years before Christ. For instance John T. Bressler sat right in front of me—but his head didn't offer any obstruction to our view of preacher and pulpit; in fact I was truly repentant for any meanness I had ever been guilty of toward this pioneer of Wayne county. But although getting old and bald John still presents a good front, and when he handed round the plate I felt so durn'd small within that I shelled out all my Sunday cigar change and later had to—smoke on my face. Remembering the proud, seemingly impenetrable and agnostic features of H. G. Leisenring, M. D. LL. D., of years ago, I was almost moved to tears to take heed of his now absolutely docile and humble appearance as a supplicant for salvation from this world's grievous troubles. "Is marriage a failure?" would receive an unanimous negative vote, else by dad had better been listening to a 40 years "dissertation" on the "d-d" Jews. The next in line—barring the neatly, ah, stylishly robed women folks who do not like to be told of time's encroachments—was R. H. James, who, instead of being the immaculate dresser of a few years ago, who used to run out of Omaha to "see one of Wayne's best girls," is now fatter, forty, trying to push all the hair off the top of his head, and evident ly not a bit "stuck on himself." Glancing up on the pulpit there appeared a picture of long, long ago; a Miss Gamble. I wonder how many years this church will have a young and handsome soprano singer to gamble on? W. O. Gamble and his good wife have done more for the Presbyterian church choir than "any old family" this side of the Red sea. Aside from the above subjects there was much more to cogitate upon, even to the cracks in the ceiling of the late Rev. Montgomery's church, whose corner stone does not rest upon this DEMOCRAT. But this is enough for one occasion. Next Sunday I am going again to hear the Rev. Van Dyke Wight, and all you old sinners of the latter years of the 19th century better attend also, for if it does your spiritual welfare no good, you will at least be brought face-to-face to the naked fact that the "world does move," and all that is contained there in.

Sam Davies says that if the peek-a-boo shirtwaists get much more openworkish the men will have to wear blinders like horses that shy.

It is said that the short-sleeved dresses are very popular with mosquitos and the ants and the openwork bosomy a delightful invention.

One thing is being determined to a nicety, and that is that politicians can no longer lead the voters around by their noses and tell them what they must do.

Richard Pearson Hobson predicts war between the United States and Japan within the next decade. Of course if Hobson lives to see it the war won't last long.

We've heard about the babes in woods.

The place where Willie slid.

But the thing that pleased her friends the most.

Is what our Katydid.

The papers are making altogether too much fuss over Thaw and White. If the dirty whelps were both dead, together with a lot more of their like, the world would be better off.

A little love, a little wealth.

A little home for you and me.

It's all I ask except good health.

Which comes with Rocky Mountain Tea. Raymond's drug store.

D. E. Miller, one of the men who staid in that bad town cut in the Basin country, stopped me on the middle of the crossing the other day, and said: "Say, Goldie; how would you like to take a little something real good?" "Right in the humor and drouth for it," I replied; and then the would-be-dispenser of cheap mineral waters finished with: "All right, we'll take it some day," and turned on his heel.

When the 500 visitors, who came down on the Bloomfield and Norfolk trains, were parading up Main street, a Winside man said to a Carroll man: "wonder why they have no band playing?" "Band!" answered the other visitor; "don't you hear that phonograph? that's pretty good music for Wayne to give us;" and, by dad, that was all they got for the greater part of the day.

The Sioux City Journal of yesterday undertook a strenuous task—telling the public "what congress did not do."

FOUND—Lady's long, brown coat, in south of town. Owner can recover it by paying for this notice.

There was considerable of a celebration in town Monday afternoon, it costing one man $31.70 in police court next morning. When I asked Marshal Miner why the fine was so excessive he said it was the fellow's second offense. "When was the other time?" I asked, and George replied: "Thirteen years ago." "That's unlucky, isn't it? He can't get away from it next time, either, by dad, because it will be 'three' again "Skidoo!"

Here's a little something from Bryan that is particularly refreshing to those who missed yesterday's papers: London, July 4.—William J. Bryan was the central figure at the annual independence day dinner of the American society at the Hotel Cecil tonight. Nearly 500 members and guests surrounded the society's board and cheered patriotic sentiments with the peculiar zest born of exile.

Amba-sador Whitelaw Reid and Mr. Bryan engaged in some sharp, but good humored rallery and banter over political differences, the crowd evidencing its enjoyment of the report with cheers and shouts of laughter.

Mr. Reid, in responding to Sir W. B. Richmond's graceful proposal of his health, said with reference to Mr. Bryan: "At home as a citizen I have openly and squarely opposed him at every stage of his conspicuous career. I am reasonably sure that when I return home that I shall continue to do the same. I believe he tonight is as well satisfied as I am, though by different reasoning, that the country we both love and try to serve has not been ruined by its gold standard."

As the official representative of the American people, without distinction party, I am glad to welcome him here as a typical American whose whole life has been lived in the daylight and one whom such a great host of my countrymen have long trusted and honored.

Mr. Bryan, rising amid laughter and cheers, said:

The temptation to political speech is strong within me. I have not had a chance for ten months. However, I will restrain myself. With reference to the ambassador's remarks on gold, I wish to say that when I see the progress my country has made, walking on one leg, I wonder what it would have done walking on two legs. It is pleasing to testify that the ambassador not only has fought me, but that he has done it well. No American rejoices more than I that he is 3000 miles from his base. While abroad I have met many good republicans—holding office—and I only wish there were enough of them abroad to take all the republicans out of the country.

Scotty Huff Drowned.

Herman Henry yesterday afternoon received a telephone message from Omaha apprising him of the drowning of Scotty Huff on the night of the 4th, at Lake Manawa. A landing platform on a bathing pavilion collapsed about 11 p. m., immersing 150 people in the lake. The papers yesterday gave only one fatality, that of an Omaha girl, but it is probable that young Huff's body was not found until yesterday noon. Plumber Huff went to Omaha this morning to accompany the remains to Wayne, and the funeral will probably be held tomorrow. Deceased was about 23 years of age and has lived in Omaha for some years. His sister Ethel clerks at the German store, and the family is well known and among the older residents of the county.

Rev. Van Dyke Wight, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church, will preach here next Sunday. Dr. Wight is now considered one of the best pulpit speakers in the state, and it will be a treat for his old friends in Wayne to hear him again.

Among 4th of July visitors were Fred Volpp, Scribner; Chas. Maxwell and family of Randolph; Mort McManigal, Wausa; Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Pender; Mr. and Mrs. Cleyberg, Nacora.

"Ludlow Twine" Best on the earth, at Meister & Blucher's, the New Implement and Buggy Firm.

Next on the program will be the Wayne race meet, Aug. 15, 16 and 17. The County Commissioners meet next Monday, the 9th.

The races on the 4th were a big feature, a Stanton man winning $5, and Harry Ringer $3, for being the swiftest kid runner.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Johnson, Omaha, last Thursday. Grandpa W. O. Gamble doing quite well, thank you.

Geo. Griffith and Miss Kate Gamble were victims of the only 4th of July runaway. They were east of town, in the evening, for a drive, when the horse ran away and the young couple had to walk home. A broken tibia on the buggy was all the damage sustained.

Before you buy your TWINE come in and see the "Ludlow;" Best on Earth, at Meister & Blucher's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCabe are in Lincoln.

W. H. Morris and wife are visiting at Malvern, Ia.

Atty. E. R. Lundburg spent the 4th in Hoskins and says the town put up a cracking good time. A band of 23 pieces furnished good music from early morning till late at night. The parade was just fine, some of the floats costing from $15 to $20. The Wayne Commercial club ought to take a trip to Hoskins or Magnet, next 4th, and see how live people do things.

Billy Baden was up before the "Intoxicated board" yesterday but escaped a trip to the Lincoln jag house. A complaint against him to keep the peace, filed by Jim Nelson was continued.

4th Drew Big Crowds.

The 4th of July, 1906, was a beautiful day to get 'em, and Wayne got them good and plenty. Everybody who had anything to sell must have done a good business as there was little for the visitors to do except "blow themselves," and they did that good-naturedly. The entertainment was pretty thin, might say there wasn't even a band, but the boys must have had other work to attend to, and it's business before pleasure with Wayne people. However, the little dog ran up the ladder and jumped into his net—while ten thousand people caught their breath in short pants. Tommy Savidge walked the tight wire, in tight, and it was a good exhibition for—tight people, as it was "free." There was also a good ball game between Winside and Wisner—so good that after seeing a few innings of it a Winside man ran all the way from the College diamond to Mildner's saloon to drown himself—in the booze of forgetfulness. The scare resulted in a score of 14 to 7 in favor of the 14. Other prime attractions were the phonographs, Whalen's, Witter's and Leahy's ice cream parlors; three saloons, etc. In the evening, after the crowds had largely dispersed, the Commercial club band played a few; the $500 worth of fireworks were shot to pieces, and there were a number of "balloon ascensions." The bowery and the opera house furnished places for the patriotic young folks, who danced till daylight.

Altogether it was "a glorious 4th," and it will be years before Wayne will see another one just like it.

Greatest Show on Earth.

Is the Carl Hagenbeck menagerie and clyous which appears in Sioux City tomorrow. It takes three trains of 60 cars each to move this immense aggregation of animals and people. In 1893, at the World's fair where the DEMOCRAT man first saw it, it was great. At St. Louis it was the best attraction of the fair, and it is said to be even bigger and better today. The tricks performed by the herds of wild animals would be considered impossible unless seen through your own optics. A lot of Wayne people are going down tomorrow, and it is probably the best opportunity we will ever have to take the children to this great educational exhibition.

The K. P. man at the head of the state lodge was here yesterday and carried away the local order's charter.

The Herald says H. B. Shoales will move to Wayne from Coleridge.

Rev. Osborne is out on his homestead this week.

Mrs. Thos. Craig was up from Omaha to spend the 4th and visit her son and old friends.

A young woman, whose name could not be learned come very near being killed yesterday morning. After the 7:30 train started she tried to get on, and fell between the platform and cars, and had it not been for another lady standing on the platform, would have been dragged under the wheels. By holding on to the fallen girl's dress the bystander kept her away from the wheels until the train stopped.

CHOICE

IN NORTH AND SOUTH DAKOTA

FOR SALE BY

Northwestern Land Companies

We offer for sale, in the eastern part of the Dakotas, choice farm lands on such terms and at such low prices as to make it easy for men of small means to acquire homes of their own free from debt within a comparatively short time. We own all these lands absolutely, and they are the choicest farm lands that can be found in the localities where they are situated. They were carefully selected by our own expert land examiners when we purchased them. We give perfect abstracts and full warranty deeds.

We have lands for sale in the following named counties in S. Dak., where corn makes all the way from 25 to 50 bu. per acre: Aurora, Beadle, Brown, Brule, Clark, Codington, Day, Deuel, Edmunds, Faulk, Grant, Hand, Jerauld, Kingsbury, McPherson, Miner, Potter, Roberts, Sanborn, Spink and Walworth counties.

And in N. Dak., in the famous red river valley the best wheat country in the world: Barnes, Benson, Cavalier, Dickey, Eddy, Grand Forks, Griggs, La Moure, Nelson, Ransom, Rolette, Sargent and Stutsman counties.

The following are the various plans on which we offer to sell these lands:

CROP PAYMENT PLAN On this plan we require a cash payment of only one-fifth. The purchaser is required to break forty acres or more of each quarter section each season until at least three-fourths of the land is under plow, and deliver to us one-half the crop each year, the proceeds to apply on the purchase money and interest. INTEREST ONLY 6 PER CENT, payable annually. The purchaser is given ten years in which to pay for the land out of the crops if one-half the crop does not pay the purchase money and interest in a shorter time. A great many purchasers have paid for the lands out of three or four crops. At any time after one-fourth of the price is paid the purchaser may, if he desires, change the plan to an INSTALLMENT PLAN under which he will pay the balance of the purchase money in equal annual installments.

THE CROP PAYMENT PLAN insures success. There will be no danger of losing the farm under foreclosure, as the only claim is for one-half the crop.

All the money the purchaser needs is enough to make his cash payment and buy his team and implements. We will assist good farmers to construct suitable buildings if necessary, adding the cost to the price of the land. A thrifty man is absolutely certain to succeed in making himself independent. This is an Unusual Opportunity to get choice land on easy terms.

INSTALLMENT PLAN On this plan one-fourth cash is required; the balance in annual installments, at 6 per cent annual interest. The installments may be distributed over ten years if desired.

PRICES Prices range from $12.50 to $35.00 per acre, according to location, improvements, etc. Land values are rapidly increasing, but prices are still much lower than in the older settled states, although the lands are better and more productive.

BIG EXCURSION on July 10th and 17th. You had better buy before they harvest their big crops. Land will be from $3 to $5 higher after this crop is harvested.

A Trip To Old Mexico.

(by Frank L. Girton.)

The magnificent altar containing the frame holding the sacred Tilma or Holy Virgin is a mass of white marble, exquisitely carved and wrought with gilded bronze. On the right of the Tilma is the figure of Juan Diego most beautifully carved from solid marble. At the top of the frame holding the Tilma are three angels, also carved from marble, kneeling and facing Juan Diego. Surrounding this high altar is a silver railing weighing twenty six tons and said to have cost over $2,000,000. The dome of this magnificent church is a mass of gilding relieved with festoons of pink roses; the pannels are frescoed with figures of the Virgin of Guadalupe and of angels with scrolls, and allegorical attribute of the Virgin. I was told that some years ago a number of artists and scientific men were permitted to examine the Tilma, on which the image of the Virgin so miraculously appeared, but they were unable to say that the colors were put on in any manner known to art; they all agreed that the picture was not painted and its miraculous origin is yet to be determined. The Tilma has remained in this church for four hundred years; its colors are bright and fresh, while other pictures as old are faded and worn, and it is no wonder that some people believe in this legend.

The National Pawnshop, formerly the residence of Montezuma is a place of interest where all tourists enjoy themselves for at least an hour. This institution is conducted by the government and loans money to the needy at a much lower rate of interest than demanded by other money-lenders. Everything imaginable can be found here found here and as a rule they are very honest in telling you the value of any article jewelry such as diamonds, opals, watches, etc. are very cheap.

Adjoining the Pawnshop is the hat establishment of Zolly Hermanos, the oldest in the trade. It is said to have been established away back in the forties, and is the leading one in the manufacture of the magnificent Mexican Sombreros.

Another national institution, the Library formerly the Convent of Sao Austin, is well worth visiting for it contains over two hundred thousand volumes, many of which are very ancient.

Chapultepec Castle, the summer residence of the president, is one of the chief attractions of the Republic. The castle was commenced by Niceroy Galvez, upon the summit of a high hill, in 1783 and completed in 1785. The site is a superb one, reached by a winding carriage road one side and a steep foot-pathe on the another, while the other sides are precipitous with almost perpendicular cliffs. The castle is surrounded by a fine park of two hundred acres, containing great cypress trees covered with a sort of Spanish moss. One of these giants is 176 feet high and 46 feet in circumference at the trunk. A short distance from this tree is a large rock covered with ancient hieroglyphics. Admission may be had to the castle by securing a permit from the Governor at the National palace. There are a number of sentinels on guard at the entrance of the garden, but you retain your permit until you reach the entrance of the castle where attendant who guides visitors through the principle halls, rooms and gardens takes it up. You pass through the garden to the overhanging gallery on the opposite side, and look out over the broad spreading plain of the "wonderful valley of Anahuac."

The magnificent battles all description; it is wondrous to behold, and the memory of it lives with you forever. To the right is the battleground of Mojino del Rey, where a large and magnificent monument is erected to the memory of the cadets who fell in the defense of the Castle from the assaulting Americans in 1847. There was so much grandeur in the view that my eyes kept constantly wandering to the terrace and I gazed over the valley to the blue rim of the mountains miles and miles away, as the magnificence was so far superior to the interior of the castle.

But in speaking of the interior, you can imagine the luxurious beauty of the decorations due the Viceroy of Spain but mostly to Charlotta, the wife of the great Maximilian.

The family rooms of the president consist of a magnificent suite, reception room, private room, bed chamber, dining hall, smoking and card rooms, large dancing hall, etc., all of which were elegantly furnished and decorated in a most artistic manner. The stairway leading to the upper floors has all the surrounding walls the coats of arms of all the rulers of Mexico from the Toltec twins of 1474 to the republic of today.

From this stairway you pass out and find yourself at the same point where you entered and you take one more look at the valley below for memory's sake. President Diaz is very courteous to all visitors and is unlike most rulers, there are no secret service men around when he is in his castle. He gives you a very favorable impression of Admal Dewey. An excursion trip in the "sight seeing automobile" makes a tour through the park surrounding the castle and is a trip well worth taking. It also gives you a chance to see the American Colony; the well Mexican homes as well as the anony ones of the poor; together with a glimpse of the business part of the city. I might here speak of some of the prominent establishments conducted on most modern principles. In the jewelry trade the leading firms are Dienez Hermanos and E. Sommer, both houses carrying an immense stock of the very finest diamonds, opals, rubies, doublets, etc. The first place mentioned covers a half block and the interior is all furnished in solid mahogany with a solid plate glass mirror surrounding the entire room, and is claimed to be the finest in the world. I have seen the Diamond Palace of San Francisco and Lenz Brothers store at Dallas, Texas, which is considered the finest this side of New York, and I can say with out hesitancy that there is no comparison between them. Three other establishments, that have no superior and hardly an equal in the state are first: the large crockery and brick a-brac house of D. Hillebrand & Co., which is a model of beauty and elegance; and secondly, the gun store of Quintana Hermanos, fitted up in exquisite style and stocked with arms of the latest inventions. Thirdly the saddle house of Labadie Independencia which without doubt is the handsomest of this continent. It is the headquarters for both Mexican and American saddles and is arranged in a most peculiar manner but at the same time very attractive.

Among the many beautiful suburban trips that can be made in a few hours might be mentioned Tacubaya (Mexico's Monte Carlo) where the famous bull fights are held, and the villages along the Vega Canal; the charming village of San Angel with its floating gardens and orchards; Tlalpam and Coyocan, containing summer residences of the wealthy Mexicans; Tacuba, where the famous "Noche Triste" tree is located under which Cortez wept when he was defeated; all of which, are very interesting.

But the most interesting and important one is the trip to Cuernavaca, which is seven-ty-four miles southwest of Mexico City. Words fail to tell of the beauty of this region which is one of the scenic marvels of the world. Here a most delightful vacation may be enjoyed. A paradise for the mountaineer, geologist, naturalist and mineralogist. The climate is wonderful. The situation commands more grand and lovely views and is greater in variety than any city I ever visited in all my travels. It is 4921 feet above the sea level, at the base of pinedad and snowcapped mountains, at the edge of an enormous valley shut in by volcanic hills and mountain; plantations of sugar, rice and coffee, orchards oranges, bananas, mangoes and other fruit fringe it, thus producing one of the most delightful combinations of scenery and climate.

The main attractions at this pretty little place are the Morelos Baths and Swimming Pools which were built by Cortez for the poor, containing fourteen wash-tubs and still in use; the falls of San Antony which are of great beauty; Cortez Palace built in 1531, now used as the State Capitol; the sugar plantation founded by Cortez in 1530 still running and using the same process as was used in his time; the residence of Maximilian which cost $1,250,000; and last of all the beautiful Boarda Garden, built by a rich miner in 1643 and it is a spot of beauty indeed. The garden covers a number of acres of ground and is located in the heart of the city.

Mexico is yet in its infancy. But few have any idea of Mexico's resources, of its history, past and present, of its magnificent scenery and of its quaint customs. A tour of this republic combine the pleasure of an European trip with the acquisition of knowledge of a country lying adjacent to the American border.

Modern methods are being introduced to make Mexico one of the healthiest cities on this continent, and no money is spared to make it one of the most beautiful. Public enterprise has been aroused and many Americans as well as Germans, Canadians, French, etc., are flocking there to make investments. It is a mystery to me why so many American people take trips abroad when there is such a grand, glorious and beautiful country to see that is superior in a great many respects than that of Europe. The American tourists, who have visited Mexico, can but admire the public buildings, the churches, the drives of the city; he can be but charmed with the public concerts, executed by native artists artists, who have no superior anywhere. And where in the wide world can anyone see so much beauty, not alone of nature, but also of nature's noblest production, the charming daughters of the Mexican Republic.

R. Karo opened up his new market on the 4th, and is now running in good shape, having the nicest, cleanest and best location in the city. Mr. Karo says he has already a good trade, and of course it will grow as people become accustomed to the new shop.

Bryan A Conservative.

When told that the "conservative" democrats were climbing into his bandwagon, because he, Bryan, had changed from a radical to a conservative, Mr. Bryan said:

"I am not responsible for the phrases used in regard to me, but I am responsible for my position on public questions. That position ought to be well known. Take the trust question, for instance, as it seems upmost just now. My position is that private monopoly is indefensible and intolerable. That was the democratic platform in 1900 and the plank was incorporated in 1904 and it is the only tenable position.

There is some talk of controlling the trusts—you might as well talk of controlling burglary. We do not say they shall only steal a little bit, or in some particular way but that they shall not steal at all. It is so of private monopolies. It is not sufficient to control or regulate them—they must be absolutely and totally destroyed. Corporations should be controlled and regulated, but private monopolies must be exterminated root and branch. Now you can call that a radical doctrine. Yet it is more conservative to apply this remedy now than to wait until predatory wealth has had by its lawlessness brought odium on legitimate accumulations.

What used to be called radical is now called conservative because people have been investigating. The doctrine has not changed, but public sentiment is making progress."

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in the worst form," writes Marion Lee of Duareath, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." Wayne Pharmacy.

Storz

THE ingredients of Storz Beer are the best obtainable. Barley malt made from the choicest grain grown in the west, Bohemian hops imported direct at three times the cost of American hops. Artesian water, pure and sparkling from a 1,400 foot well. The high quality of these ingredients greatly increases the cost of making Storz Beer. Yet you pay no more for it than for common beer. Always order Storz Beer. Get quality. Get your money's worth.

A Trip To-Old Mexico.
(by Frank L. Gorton.)

architectural decorations I ever saw. Except in the general form of these churches there is nowhere any repetition of design. The artists seemed to have had free play to express their love of beauty in towers, domes and facades. Towers and domes of such beauty, anyone of which I would like to see in the United States, are common in the Republic.

The fascination in pursuing the study of the towers and domes is that there are no two alike. The style is the same however, but each architect followed his own ingenuity in constructing an object of beauty. There is a touch of decay everywhere, a crumbling and a defacement of colors, but in nearly everyone there is some unexpected fancy.

The famed Cathedral, which is opposite the National palace is the most ambitious house of the Christian Church in the west. It was commenced in 1573 and completed in 1731 at a cost, estimated at $2,000,000. It is built upon the site of the Great Aztec temple which the Spaniards destroyed when they conquered the city in 1521. It is one of the greatest pieces of architectural and sculptural work that has ever been accomplished by human skill and labor. Our architects of today, with their learned profession, could not design and execute in such a skillful manner as these ancient architects. There are two enormous bell towers or with two smaller ones in each. The chimneys are certainly enormous. I have often heard of the "Chimneys of Mexico" being so wonderful that I never dreamed they would thrill one's soul as they did. The building measured 337 by 177 feet interior; the height from the roof to the floor is 179 feet. The towers are 803 feet high made of solid stone the same as the walls, while the roof is in arches of brick and cement. The entrance is very richly carved in white marble between the towers, with their bell-shaped caps and crosses of stone, make it one of the handsomest in the world. Surrounding the whole is the magnificent dome and lantern of graceful proportions, handsomely painted in pictures of sacred history, among which is the Assumption of the Virgin. The immensity of the church is apparent immediately upon entrance. Twenty massive fluted columns of stone separate the nave from the aisles and support the vaulted roof, that under the lofty dome is shaped in the form of a Latin cross.

There are fourteen chapels in the Cathedral, seven in each aisle dedicated to the various saints, each decorated in its own particular style with pictures of scenes from the lives of the respective saint. The most noted of these chapels is that of San Felipe de Jesus, where are reserved some of the relics of this saint, and in front of which is the font in which he was baptized. In this chapel rest the remains of the first emperor of Mexico, August Yturbe, beneath a monument erected for the honored memory of "The Liberator." The choir is enclosed within a high railing of richly carved woods, and in the center of this enclosed place is a large octagonal stand of highly polished dark wood for the music books, that have their notes so large that they can be read from the seats around the railing. Two immense pipe organs of magnificent beauty, rise almost to the roof and give forth music which you could sit and listen to for hours. I went to church Sunday morning just for the sake of hearing the music, and I do not doubt but that the organist would do honor to Clarence Eddy.

In the rear of the choir is the Low Altar, which is most handsomely carved in pure gold, where at any time may be seen the devotees kneeling in groups about the base of the altar.

The main or high altar is the most imposing in the building of the six altars. It is of magnificent proportions and is said to have cost a fortune in its ornamentations, gilding and carving. The rich carvings and gildings are the special admiration of the Mexicans. Its top reaches to the arches of the roof, and you will wonder with amazement the beauty that may be seen upon this altar. A Mexican artist, greatly added to the beauty of this altar by his images and pictures, among which are the Assumption and the Epiphany. From the towers a splendid view can be had of the city, and here I might speak of the wonderful spiral stairway built of solid stone, reaching from the floor to the roof of the tower. It gives you an idea that the steps were carved out of solid stone and extended to a height of 300 feet. An admission of twenty-five cents is charged; the hours being from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. It is well worth a trip to the top of the tower to obtain a view of the city, but while climbing the stairs you have an imagination that you are never going to reach the top, for it seems as though you are going above the clouds owing to the high altitude which affects almost all of the people.

The church of Guadalupe which is situated in the little village of Guadalupe about 5 miles from the city of Mexico, is one that is as beautiful if not superior to that of the Cathedral in its sculptural designing and ornamentations. It is the holiest shrine of all Mexico and its legend the prettiest of all legends. The legend runs as follows:

A pious Indian, Juan Diego was returning from early mass, when he heard someone singing and looking up a lady appeared before him and asked him to go to the bishop and tell him that he was her wish that a temple should be built in her honor on that hill. He did as she ordered but the bishop refused to his end and sent him away. He went back to the lady and told her how the bishop treated him, and she sent him back the second time; this time the bishop sent him back and told him to bring some unmistakable token to him of the truth in his story. The Indian returned to the lady and delivered the message of the bishop. At that moment she caused some flowers to grow beside them and gave him orders to take some of them to the bishop, and no flowers were ever known to grow on this hill. The Indian gathered some of them up in his tilma (a Mexican cloak) and departed for the bishop's house once more and upon arriving he dropped the flowers at the holy father's feet and as the bishop raised the tilma with the flowers in, behold upon the tilma appeared the image of the Virgin, Holy Mary, in the most beautiful colors. The bishop now believing that the Indian was sent by the lady immediately called to construct a church in her honor and called it the church of Guadalupe. And from that day to this the church of Guadalupe has been the favorite place of worship for the Indians.

Upon entering the great doorway there is a bewildering sense of the gorgeous magnificence of the scenic interior, and one stands almost in awe, with indecision whether to move on or stand there, and so great is the beauty of the ensemble that it is hardly possible to fix the eye on individual objects; before entering there was a pre-eminent object of seeing the famous Tilma, but for the moment even that was forgotten in the glorious harmony of color.

Good For McCarthy.

Congressman McCarthy made a good fight in congress last Wednesday against the apologists for the lumber trust. By request of Senator LaFollette a bill had been introduced by McCarthy to cede to the state of Wisconsin several thousand acres of government lands, which were to be added to the Wisconsin forest reserve. The bill was opposed by congressmen who were understood to voice the sentiment of the lumber trust, which desired to get possession of the forest lands. In the oratorical contest McCarthy was pitted against Mondell of Wyoming, and Lacy of Iowa, two of the best talkers in the whole house. The bill was passed, and our congressman was warmly congratulated. It is not often that The Telegram has opportunity to offer congratulations to our republican congressmen from this district, nor to any other republican congressmen, because we usually find them talking and voting with and for the trust and tariff robbers and against the interests of the people. But when we do see McCarthy on the right side of things we do not hesitate to give him the praise his due. In that contest with the lumber trust McCarthy was on the right side, and his conduct reflected credit upon the people of his district. We shall be pleased to have more opportunities to commend our congressman. He could be of great service to his country if he would cut loose from railroad influence and voice the real sentiments of the majority of the people in his district. We believe he is becoming more independent every day, and perhaps before the session shall close he may break loose entirely from bad surroundings, and cast more votes in harmony with the views of his home people.
