Wayne, - Nebraska.

A Winside Version.

Tribune.—But the greater part of our citizens followed the ball team to Wayne, the running of the trains making that town available. About 225 tickets were sold here for Wayne, and all had the usual 4th of July experience. The committee on sports who forced the crowd to go over a mile upon Pile's play grounds and see a game played on plowed ground, evidently understood everything else but base ball. It was a poorly managed affair, but if a winner had some ball players it might have been a fair game. As it was it proved to be a slow, tedious, one-sided game and everybody was glad when it was over.

There was a very large crowd who seemed good natured, although there was a small shower to make the street muddy and disagreeable. Many of the Winsiders remained over for the midnight freight to see the fireworks, which they say were a regular fizzle, but most of them were tired enough and glad to get home on the 7 o'clock train. Take it all through, Wayne did very well and by avoiding the old tactics of holding everybody up, the town made friends from a class of people who expected to be robbed from start to finish.

O. N. Eicher Escapes.

A message was received last week that Nick Eicher had escaped from the Lincoln jail house shortly after landing there. The DEMOCRAT is told that Eicher will not be hunted for very strenuously, but he wants to keep away from his old haunts. As long as he gives Wayne a wide berth the people up here won't care whether he is in the asylum or United States senate.

Harvester, cream separator, cylinder and Linseed oils. Plano Standard twine the best made.

VOGEL'S HARDWARE.

Miss Louise Dornberger was quite surprised last Friday evening to receive a letter from her sister, Marguerite, stating that she had been married July 5th, at Panama, Ia., to Jesse McMath, the young man having gone there a week previous. The young couple will make their home in Panama. The bride was for some time a compositor in this office and a very competent young lady who can no doubt swing the rolling pin as well as make a pie. Mr. McMath was with Jake Dornberger, his wife's father, all spring carpentering and has many friends here who will wish him well. The DEMOCRAT extends its best wishes.

Mrs. Pauline Biegler returned from Sioux City Sunday where she has been staying with her sister, Mrs. Henry Taylor.

John Dobbin returned to Laurel Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Phillo attended the Hagenbeck circus at Sioux City Saturday, being guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swan.

Ray Reynolds took in the circus and ball game at Sioux City Saturday.

About twenty-five Wayne people attended the Hagenbeck circus at Sioux City Saturday.

FOUND—A black jacket east of the Welch farm south of town. Owner can have same by paying for this notice. Call at this office.

Wm. Nies was in town Monday, going up the branch line.

Billy Baden is Bound Over.

Yim Nelson finally landed a solaplexis on little Billy Baden, Judge Hunter last Monday afternoon binding the defendant over to the district court in sum of $200, which bond was promptly furnished by Billy's friends. F. A. Berry assisted County Attorney Siman in the prosecution, and A. A. Welch appeared for defendant. The evidence was somewhat to the effect that Baden, who is a very small man for the size of his fighting qualities, threatened to make Nelson's innards look like junk in a butcher shop; also put the wheels in Nelson's head in the scrap iron category. Complainant Nelson, who is a great big fellow, no doubt figured it was cheaper to appear in court as plaintiff than defendant, in his effort to make bad Billy be good.

Mrs. Fred Thompson and baby and Neal Thompson were passengers to Westington, S. D., Monday.

Miss Edna Belyea was up from Sioux City to spend the Sabbath at home.

E. E. Reed and wife returned to Hartington Saturday after a couple days' visit with his old partner E. C. Tweed.

Jas. Fox was down from Randolph last week. Jim says there is just about as much booze as ever drank in in that town only it is handled a little differently.

Mower and Reaper sections of all kinds and Plano twine.

VOGEL'S HARDWARE.

Joe Chaon has moved from Thermopolis, Wyo., to Moscow, Idaho, where he directs the DEMOCRAT sent him.

Tom Berry was in town Monday on his way to Randolph.

A. J. Buffington of the German store spent this week with relatives at Bloomfield, taking a rest.

Louden hay carriers and barn door hangers. Loudon goods are good goods.

VOGEL'S HARDWARE.

Judge Boyd held an adjourned term of court here Monday, settling up a few equity cases.

The grading out of Main street opposite the Perrin hotel, and making a clear view to the new iron bridge from up-town, is a great improvement in appearances. The same should have been done on the hill where the stand-pipe stands, giving a view of the College grounds. The city would present a thousand times better appearance had this hill been partly removed to be lower part north and south.

The Meister and Bucher families arrived from West Point Monday, and moved into Sheriff Meers' big house.

Henry Ley came up from Crystal lake Monday morning, going back after dinner. Crystal lake is going to be a great summer resort in a few years, and it won't be very long before we can get there on the trolley cars.

County Treasurer Cherry's semi-annual statement appears in this paper, and it looks good—to the printer at least.

El Jones accompanied Adolph Keiper, H. H. Tangeman and Alex Abl to South Dakota Tuesday.

W. L. Robinson of Carroll took a crowd of land seekers to South Dakota Tuesday, among them being John Shannon, B. P. Peterson and F. S. Battey.

Sam Williamson was down from Carroll Tuesday. The old veteran is having a great deal of discomfort from bad eyes and a cancer on his temple.

Obituary.

Scott E. Huff, was born Dec. 21, 1881, in Potawatamie county, Ia. He came to Wayne with his parents in 1884, and lived here until three years ago, he took a position in a mercantile establishment at Omaha as bookkeeper. His tragic death, on the night of July 4, 1906, by drowning at Lake Manawa, Omaha, brought deep gloom to his mother, three brothers and four sisters, who mourn his untimely end. The funeral services were held at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30, the sermon being delivered by Rev. Benjamin of the Norfolk Baptist church. A large concourse of friends paid their respects to the memory of the young man, whom it appears was very highly thought of and well liked by those who knew him.

Deceased was a member of the Fraternal Life lodge in which he carried $2,000 insurance. He also had $1000 in the Pennsylvania Mutual Co. The Omaha papers in speaking of the tragedy in which five young women of Omaha lost their lives, stated that it was a case of the survival of the fittest, the only man drowned being weakened by an operation he suffered for appendicitis only last April, and in this condition was unable to combat strong men, who pushed the others down in crawling out of the death trap.

City Council Doings.

The city dads had another long drawn out session Monday night, and Clerk A. T. Witter is considering whether it pays to hold his job or no, when he is compelled to work all day collecting and sit all night and listen to the aldermanic music. The annual appropriation for the year was figured out and the park commission given a one mill levy.

BY DAD
Independent republican Bryan clubs are being organized in Iowa. It will be too bad if after stealing all Bryan's democratic thunder the republicans steal our candidate also.

If denatured alcohol is what we want why was it necessary to put off getting it until January 1907? Go ask Standard Oil.

Chris. Grant, the clothing clerk is composing a new song, entitled "The Girl With The Brown Arms Who Doesn't Help Mother." Both the words and music are said to be quite catchy.

"Adam," said Mother Eve, "I wish you would put a few cut worms on my favorite fig tree." "What, and have all the nice leaves bored full of holes?" "Certainly, I wish to make an open work shirt waist."

And now "they say" the reason we didn't see that $500 worth of 4th of July fireworks is because $499.70 worth was exploded north of the standpipe. That, by dad, makes the account balance on fireworks.

Wayne is getting so bad, generally speaking, that even Pat Coleman says he had an uncontrollable desire to treat a couple of young girls on the 4th, but was so afraid that somebody would see him at it that he "skidded" for quieter quarters. Pat's legs are like mine, they won't stand for any shooting.

Plano Standard Twine at Vogel's Hardware.

Don't look down on the town kicker, rather look on him with charity. Remember it is not his fault the creator run out of long ears and was short in his supply of hind legs when he made him. No matter if he has only two legs and his ears are not quite as long as those of the ass, it still denotes that he is the connecting link between that and the human family.

Many a man who is continually talking reform has a knife up his sleeve or is working some kind of a graft.

Here is a warning which all should heed. A Philadelphia dispatch says: "To introduce a straw through the holes of a peck-a-boo waist and tickle the shoulder of the owner, Judge Kochersperger has decided, in assault and battery and punishable by confinement in jail. While Mrs. Mary Wittek and her husband were returning from Westchester the car where they were riding was attacked by mosquitoes. Joseph Bruce producing a straw applied it to one of the perforations. Mrs. Wittek slapped at it. Bruce held his hand and repeated the action until the car was in an uproar until the husband caught him."

Biggest death record in history, is what the 4th of July did for the American people. Some sixty killings to date, and Gen. Tetanus not yet heard from, and likely to swell the list to a hundred and better. Beats the world what damples people make of themselves having a "good time on the 4th." I know one ordinarily sensible woman in this town who bought a lot of the "infernal fireworks" to amuse the children with, and after seeing them "fire the things off" could not but figure it was an interposition of Providence that none were killed. A hundred mangled to death and thousands maimed for life, every year, is certainly a "hell of a way" to show our love of country.

Talk about advertising not bringing results! By dad, they come too soon for the good of the Democrat. Two weeks ago Ed. Mitchell handed in a couple of for sale locals and a dollar to pay for a month's run of them. One insertion was about all that was necessary to sell the whole caboodle, and now I'm wondering how Ed. is going to get his money back from—Herman-Mildner's.

I guess, by dad, most everybody did celebrate in Wayne last 4th. Three big, fat bed bugs got estray, or drunk on lemon, and were left at this office (we do all the advertising) for their owner.

N. B.—They are dead bugs now. Starved to death.

By dad, it is reported that certain Wayne hotels are going to have a fire sale.

KEEP COOL.

COPYRIGHT 1906 BY THE BUSTER BROWN CO. CHICAGO No. 24

We have pretty fans that will help you keep cool and we shall now sell them to you cheaply.

In fact we are now growing more anxious to close out all our Summer Goods. Many of our lines are getting thin, but one of a kind is perhaps all you wish. We try to give our patrons bargains the year round, reserving of course a profit for ourselves, but we are now willing to throw away our profit just to get rid of our Summer goods. You know our usual prices; Come see what they are now. If our reductions do not seem as great as in other stores they claim they make, can it not be that their price was a fictitious fake—Sale price in the beginning?

Our Temptations are:

White Bed Quilts

"Ludlow Twine" Best on the earth, at Melcher & Blucher's, the New Implement and Buggy Firm.

Mrs. Chas. Beebe and daughters were down from Carroll Wednesday. C. J. Rundell went to the reunion at Okadale Tuesday, taking his peanut roaster and D. E. along to make expenses, as he put it.

There was quite a lot of excitement at the depot Monday afternoon as the 2:15 train was ready to pull out. A traveling man who arrived on the Bloomfield claimed to have been touched for a hundred dollar watch. He had left his coat on the train while he went up street to get a drink and after getting on the Norfolk train missed the timepiece. His suspicion was that a certain party who was on the first train had taken it, and the 2:15 was held here until the marshal could go through the fellow's clothes, but the watch could not be found and the 199 people looking on all had a theory as to how and where he had hid it. A few minutes after the passenger had pulled out the engineer of the Bloomfield train picked up the watch in the coach, just where the half-drunken traveler had dropped it, and took it on to Emerson to return to the owner.

Ben Elliott and family left Tuesday morning on a three weeks visit with his brother, Jas. Elliott, who years ago worked for Wm. Piepenstock.

Carroll is going to have a two days carnival Aug. 9 and 10.

IS NO QUARTER FOR THE GERM

When Meat Inspection and Pure Food Laws Get in Operation.

Authorities in Unison

Washington, July 10.—When the meat inspection law and the pure food law are both in effect he will be a canny farmer who gets any dubious meat products to the consumer. A double dose of inspection is being organized for the products of the packers, which in operation will give a piece of mind about the meat which is an anarchist would have if it could walk down the main street of St. Petersburg with a tub under his arm and a roasting fork in his maw.

There were fears on the part of the packers and the food manufacturers that a clash might take place between the authorities entrusted with enforcement of the two laws. Instead of clash there will be a friendly cooperation. "From the hoof to the can" will be the jurisdiction within which Dr. Melvin's force of inspectors will follow the great through process of the millions of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, who will trail it "from can to consumer. These gentlemen have conferred about their plans for handling the business, and the assurance is given that a friendly cooperation will be maintained which amounts to an offensive and defensive alliance. They are especially anxious to demonstrate that two law departments are not a conflict of jurisdiction."

It turns out that there is no real conflict of jurisdiction between the two departments. The chief of the bureau of animal industry. The latter will boss the inspection of live stock and the inspection of the products of manufacture down to the point where the product becomes the subject of the meat inspection. Dr. Wiley will step in to assume charge. He will watch the progress of the product from the establishment where it is made up to the consumer. Dr. Melvin will attend to the sanitary and health arrangements of packers and the inspection of the products in which the food articles are prepared, as well as to the inspection in its present stages. Each will do its good common sense investing in ample supply of samples in open market and subjecting them to the processes of analysis and testing. The dates on the cans, it is true, but Dr. Wiley will not take long to decide the date of a date is a fatal date in the law.

Promptly Condemn It. When he finds any meat that isn't clean, he will condemn it. It is confidently expected that this policy, vigorously followed, will very soon put an end to the practice of adulterating products till they get showy or poisonous. Microbes and bacteria are the greatest enemies of the consumer. The inner works of the human mechanism will be driven out of circulation.

Up to the top of this system of dual inspection will be the secretary of agriculture, with general authority over the entire matter. He will see to it that the two agencies of inspection in Chicago, where he will meet the managers of the packing companies, and in St. Louis, where he will meet the managers of the packing companies, and take up the matters concerned with the enforcement of the two laws.

The secretary is likely to be in Chicago a week or more, investigating in person the conditions of the industry and informing himself of the improvements already made and learning exactly what is planned for the future.

It isn't possible to give any schedule of the dates for visiting different cities," he said. "That will depend on the business of the packing institutions." This will take him to St. Louis, Chicago, and St. Paul. It is evident that in the near future the American meat industry will be seen to have been brought under the supervision and legislation of the government.

There is going to be a campaign of public relations to convince the world that American meats are what they have long been recognized to be—the best in the world.

MADE FROM FLAX WHOSE OIL HAS BEEN EXTRACTED; OATMEAL SEED CAKE, FROM SOUTHERN STATES, AND THE PEANUT CAKE FROM EGYPT AND OTHER EASTERN COUNTRIES.

Denmark's Rake Off.

Why, Denmark sells England $35,000,000 of butter a year that it makes from milk produced by breeding these by-products of ours, that we something vastly better use because we have the ability to produce it. A large proportion of American farmers make their living producing the things we use to other countries. They know in England that our meats are not as good as theirs. They know in England that our meats are not as good as theirs. They know in England that our meats are not as good as theirs.

CONDITIONS GOOD.

Chicago, July 10.—The report of the joint committee of the Chicago Commercial Association and Illinois Manufacturers' Association appointed to inspect the public health conditions in Chicago, together with the report of the experts who accompanied them, has been made public by the committee. "That a board of experts of this character employed by professional dealers and guided and influenced by an official authority, should find a thing of necessity and something of luxury, should find the product wholesome and generally clean, is a thing of inspection efficient seem to your committee to cover the situation.

As a result of this investigation we ourselves have been instructed in the conditions and surroundings of the plants carefully protect the quality of the product.

CARELESSNESS CAUSE

Death of Six Fourth of July Celebrants Due to Inefficient Arrangement.

Omaha, Neb., July 10.—Owing to the fact that Manawa, Ia., where six persons were killed on the night of July 4 by the collapse of a platform built for a boat landing, is a part of the old bed of the Missouri river there was an unexpected tragedy in that state of Iowa or Nebraska. To prevent any miscarriage of justice through a mistake of jurisdiction, the coroners of both Pottawattamie county, Iowa, and Searcy county, Nebraska, have met in conference. The jury last evening returned a verdict placing the blame for the accident upon the Manawa Amusement company and the contractor, the Omaha and Great Northern Railway company.

The verdict says the platform was carelessly constructed and that the management did not have a sufficient force of attendants to handle the crowd which gathered to attend the fireworks. The street railway company is said to own the grounds and buildings, which are leased to the amusement company.

Alhambra, Cal., July 10.—Five Yosemite valley stages were held up Saturday by a lone highwayman, who obtained a considerable amount of money and jewelry. The robbers were halted in rapid succession at a curve in the road near Alhambra at the moment they were about to depart, and a year ago, relieved several wealthy tourists of their valuables. The stages were traveling sufficiently far apart to prevent their being thrown overboard when the vehicle reached the turn in the road the highwayman, whose fencing the robbers had stolen goods, threw over his head, stepped out, pointed a gun at the driver and commanded the passengers to get out. The women passengers screamed, but the robbers began without delay to search their valuables. The highwayman directed all passengers to throw out their money and jewelry, and when the order met with compliance directed the driver to move on. The second stage arrived within a few minutes after the first and the driver and passengers suffered a like experience. The procedure was repeated until all five had been halted and robbed, when the bandit disappeared in the brush.

Married.

Fullerton Post: A most interesting social event was the wedding at the Methodist church last Thursday morning of Miss Effie Leona Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Morgan, and Mr. Herbert J. Theobald of Madison, Wis.

The church which was thronged by the friends of the young people, was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, yuccas, pines and sweet peas. As the hour set for the ceremony approached, Miss Ida Kinyon began to play that sublime old wedding march that has guided so many footsteps to happiness. The bride party entered from the vestry led by the ushers, Messrs Perry Theobald of Wayne and Edward Morgan, following whom were the bridesmaids, Miss Ada Morgan and the master of ceremonies Mr. Ira Von Forrell of Chester, then the maid of honor, Miss Myra Morgan and lastly the bride on the arm of her father, who conducted her to the altar where he gave her to the waiting bridegroom and together they stepped under the historic wedding bell. The marriage ceremony was conducted by Rev. W. W. Theobald of Madison assisted by Rev. Vallow. After the ceremony the wedding party was entertained at an elegantly appointed luncheon at the home of the home of the bride's parents. The bride was radiant in a handsome white gown of French swiss with lace inserts, over tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, and the bridesmaids wore dainty and becoming frocks of white batiste and carried pink roses. Mr. and Mrs. Theobald left on the evening train for Colorado and will spend their honeymoon at various mountain resorts, after which they will return to Madison to make their home.

Knows More Now.

One thing is certain; William Jennings Bryan knows a whole lot more in June, 1906 than he did in November 1896.—New York Dispatch.

Naturally. For since then the whole field of Republican graft has been uncovered and it has been shown that the defenders of the "national honor" and the "saviors of society" who rallied so tumultuously to William McKinley were a lot of common thieves, robbers of widows and orphans, bribetakers, poisoners and respectable crooks who in some cases have had to flee the country to keep out of jail. Mr. Bryan only guessed the truth in 1896. He knows it now.—Johnstown (Pa.) Democrat.

Hans threw his hands skyward.

Story of a Dollar.

There was a rounded dollar in the jeans of Farmer Jones, which tuncefully jingled with a similar bunch of "boppers." Aid Farmer Jones that same plunk took and payed a debt he owed and so it went a traveling on a debtor lightning road. It visited the editor, who sent it on to Gray, who owed a bill to Jenkins, and he paid the same that day. And Jenkins bought goloshes for to keep his "tootsies" dry and the shoe man paid a grocer by the gentle name of Frye. Now, Frye, who needed flour, paid it to the mill, which wanting wheat for grinding paid it back to Jones' "till." And thus it was Jones' dollar, after paying debts a score, went round the whole home circuit some more and then some more. But one day a "cat" mouse in Chicago or Key, There came a whalin' booklet most wonderful to see. It had a million pictures, it told a million tales, and had for sale most everything from nutmegs down to whales. It said the retail merchant was a robber in disguise, and that Anasias was no longer prince of lies. And Jones, he read the volume and reveled in the same. He swallowed all it gave him and went against the game. He sent the same round dollar for a skin milk butter churn; he got it; and found it wasn't worth a tinker's dern. The carpet for the parlor and the "all wool" suit for Bill—the found was three furtis shoddy and the rest as good as nil. And the spell fall hat for Susie conched in words so sweet and clear, was— breathe the whispier gently—a vintage yester-year. And so this good round dollar and others of the same went off the home circuit against the "cat" house game. The butcher and the banker, and the tax collector, too; the grocer and the miller and others not a few no longer saw the dollar on its debt removing way. It has joined the "cat" mouse profits—it has gone and gone to stay.

In case of stomach and liver trouble the proper treatment is to stimulate these organs without irritating them. Oicno Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them like pills or other cathartics. It does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Uacle Joe Millard might think he is a candidate for re-election to the senate, but he is not. He isn't as much of a candidate as Lorenzo Crouser, and the grand old chief of the Foundables has no more show than a spavined horse in a free-for-all running race. Mr. Millard was an accident; his election came through a combination of circumstances over which no one appeared to have much control. To speak of it as a horrible accident might be a putting it too high and a stick to many. That he had said that he would like to be his own successor may account in some measure for the unanimity with which the voters of Douglas county turned to Mr. Rosewater as the least of several local evils. Mr. Millard was named as a one-term candidate. Let him be content to fulfill his mission and slip back into the obscurity from which he so unexpectedly emerged.—Bixby in State Journal.

Gard of Thanks.

Here is one that was actually printed in a newspaper:

"I wish to return thanks to my many friends for their kindness during the sickness and death of my beloved wife Marie. I also thank Rev. Gibbons, and especially undertaker Hibbs for the efficient way in which he handled the corpse, and tried to make the scene a pleasant one. I also thank my friends for encouraging me in my furniture business. I think I have shown them that I can furnish the articles in my line as cheap as they can be purchased in the east."

The Fish Trust, protected by the republican tariff from 20 to 40 per cent and over, is making hay while the sun shines, by taking advantage of the public antipathy to embalmed beef and other packing house products and has raised the price of fresh meat and salt fish to the usual plundering point of tariff protected monopolies.

The College boys will play ball at Carroll Saturday.

Miss Power of Ponca, enrolled this week and will remain until the close of the year. Her two brothers have been here for some time.

The entertainment in the Chapel hall Monday evening by Prof. Phipps and wife of Chicago, was greatly enjoyed by everyone present.

Dr. Taylor the oculist, spent nearly all of last week with us, and examined eyes for a number of people during that time. He also gave some interesting and instructive talks on "the eye and its culture."

The Commencement program has been completed and was sent to press last week. A number of Alumni have written they will be here and a grand time is anticipated for commencement week.

Miss Dunn, intermediate teacher at Lindsay, enrolled Tuesday for the remainder of the year.

She takes one more year's study at the Boston conservatory of music, and has been promised a solo position in one of the big churches there upon her return.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL.

Big Celebration and Grand Reunion of the Pioneers at Jackson, Nebraska July 17th and 18th.

Fifty years ago, June 1, 1856, the Father Tracy Colony landed upon the fertile soil of Neb., and the next day founded the old town of St. Johns, in Dakota county, which stood a short distance northeast of Jackson. The first Catholic church of Nebraska, and South Dakota was established here.

The occasion is to be commemorated with a great celebration and reunion of the pioneers, their children and grand children, at Jackson, July 17th, and 18th.

There will be reduced rates on all rail roads.

A. A. WOLLERT

BY DAD

Some funny things happen to the registrar of births and deaths, especially since people have caught on to the fact that there is a heavy penalty for neglect or refusal to comply with the regulations. Registrar Davis tells me that he recently received a postal card modestly announcing the arrival of a baby at the home of a Wayne county farmer. Mr. Davis sent them a blank to fill out, and was considerably mystified when it was returned to find the paragraph "white or black" filled in with the word "light." Thinking there might be something "colored" about the circumstance, he soon had an opportunity to ask the fond father how the baby was light colored, and the latter told him it wasn't white and it wasn't black, and they concluded it was a "light" one.

It doesn't take a republican sheet very long to make a falsehood out of truth to serve a purpose political. The Norfolk News editorially quotes Bryan as saying, in his repartee with Ambassador Reid, that he was ambitious to put this country on a 16 to 1 basis, and then it goes on to wonder what effect the refusal, on Bryan's part, to drop the silver idea will have on his candidacy.

The following clipping is from a "What to Eat" magazine:

The bite of a girl may be as productive of poisonous germs as improperly prepared foods, according to the state reports of Prof. W. D. Miller of the University of Berlin. In a lecture at Middletown, Conn., the professor said that a bite of pretty girl would often bring a quicker and more horrible death than the bite of a serpent. Prof. Miller, who has made a special study of the bacteria of the mouth, said that only a short time ago he experimented on a beautiful girl in Germany, and found that an arrow dipped in saliva from her mouth would send its victim in death throes more terrible than one dipped in the venom of the most deadly snake.

That being the case I wonder what the bite of one of these plain American girls, here in Wayne, would do to a fellow.

An exchange says to "boil your ice before using it in your drinking water." By dad, it's nicer to not use any drinking water—and much cheaper—if you have to buy ice to boil in it.
