Bids by Marsteller & Peterson and Otto Vogel, to put new iron roofs on the boiler house were opened, the former being $78, and the latter $57.65. The contract was awarded to Mr. Vogel.

Atty. Berry presented a proposition to take up several old decreed ordinances and make a new one covering all the points the old ones failed to stand good for as intended they should. On motion Mr. Berry was instructed to draw up a new ordinance, and scratch off ordinances 11, 20, and 144 all pertaining to crimes and misdemeanors. 144 was passed a year ago and it was supposed to annual number 20, but it failed to be good for any purpose under its construction.

Plans and specifications for the new wiring of the town for electric lights were gone over. The new wire gives the plant one hundred per cent. more power. Electrician West tells the DEMOCRAT that the new specifications are simply plans of the present system exactly, the only improvement being heavier wire. As the city has gone to considerable expense for expert information on the subject, it didn't get much for the money expended, Mr. West's version being correct.

The G. O. P. Convention.

The "big doings" that the Democrat anticipated last Saturday, in the republican county convention, were after all quite mild and about the usual thing. The Hon. Edward Rosewater arrived on an early train, but if it had not been for the handful of democrats about town who admire the old scrapper for his fighting qualities, he would have received a decidedly chilly reception from the local politicians. As it was Mr. Rosewater found time to read the previous evening's Sioux City Tribune all over four times between the scattered handshakes given him. But the old man made good later.

The afternoon train from the west was an hour late which delayed the convention until after three o'clock. When called to order A. A. Welch presided as chairman and G. S. Mears as secretary, throughout the meeting, the temporary organization being later made permanent.

On call of precincts Leslie, Logan and Hancock were found unrepresented, there being a total of 66 delegates present. The first thing sprung on the program was a resolution by A. R. Davis, endorsing J. F. Boyd's fitness for Congressman McCarthy's shoes. In fact the whole proceedings were largely a Boyd-Welch-Davis plan of campaign, the previous meetings held in John T. Bressler's office being evidently knocked into a cocked hat by the smoother tactics of the above gentlemen. The resolution was passed with a whoop, of course, and when M. S. Moats of Sholes got up and made a similar claim for E. Rosewater, for United States senator, a thick, sickly silence fell on both ends of the Wayne part of the party. Finally F. M. Northrop found voice to refer the resolution to the committee on resolutions—which would mean instantaneous death to it—and a vote by precincts was called for. About this time some of the rural delegates commenced to "wake up" to Mr. Northrop's signals, and when the vote was taken it was found that the farmers wanted Rosewater just about as badly as Messrs Welch and Davis want Boyd. A vote to endorse Mr. Rosewater—for Washington—was better than three to one. The Bee stinger then made quite a speech, a tolerably good democratic talk. After explaining that he had been for over forty years a builder of the great state, made a fearless fight for the "plow holders" as well as other classes, paid the Roosevelt administration some jutey compliments, he jumped into another channel and proceeded to tell his hearers what was wrong with the country. He dwelt for some time on the fact that during McKinley's administration, with an expensive war on our hands, the expenditures by congress were only five hundred millions, whereas they were now eight hundred millions—in time of peace and prosperity. That the internal revenues on luxuries such as tobacco, liquors, etc., were as high as we could stand, and that the tariff could not be made to bring in any more revenue. What else was there to do, to meet these growing expenditures of government? Mr. Rosewater said it was an "income tax," which had been declared unconstitutional by the supreme court. To perfect an income tax he would have a states' constitutional convention for a revision of the constitution. That when the present constitution was written it was to govern only three and a half millions of people, whereas we now had over eighty millions and greatly changed conditions. He then landed pretty hard on the insurance "steals," the corporations and railroads, although in the case of the latter two he would be fair with them, but they should not "constitute our providence." Discriminations, rebates, etc., must be abolished in finishing Mr. Rosewater told the convention what he would do—if sent to Washington, one of the things being "no federal machine in this state," and that "every community will elect its own postmaster."

Judge Boyd then made a few remarks, but was as silent as the sphinx on the railroad question—they are too good to the judge. A committee on resolutions, Messrs J. J. Williams, E. W. Huse and Richard Closson, brought in a stirring message, strong on anti-pass laws, which considering that Ex Representative Williams helped manufacture it, and a district judge—who rides on a pass had just been endorsed for congress, might be taken just that seriously.

A committee of two from each commissioner district was selected to select delegates to the various conventions, the following being the result of their labors and same accepted: To State Convention—Dr. J. J. Williams, Rodney Merrill, Gus Schroeder, R. R. Smith, E. W. Huse, I. W. Alter, W. H. Gildersleeve, J. T. Bressler, Frank Tracy.

To Congressional Convention—A. A. Welch, Ed. Owen, W. G. Sears, Aug. Ziemer, A. R. Davies, H. E. Siman, J. W. Johnson, Richard Closson, E. A. Gildersleeve, Harry Prescott, L. E. Peterson, Bert Brown and M. S. Moats.

To Senatorial Convention—W. H. McNeal, Charles Beebe, C. D. Jones, A. Bohlender, C. Templin, Peter Kautz, F. M. Northrop, J. J. Williams and C. Lewis.

To District Representative Convention—S. E. Aker, Frank Benson, Louis Owen, Joseph Jones, Henry Bey, Harry Prescott, E. H. Wright, John Bannister, and Luther Swanson.

In county politics B. F. Feather was nominated for clerk of the district court; A. R. Davis county attorney; Ed. Owen county commissioner of the 2nd district.

Richard Closson of Carroll tried hard to get a resolution passed binding the delegates to the representative convention to vote for a Wayne county man, and that the convention proceed to name the candidate. H. E. Siman whom the DEMOCRAT understands is a receptive candidate, and F. M. Northrop fought against the measure, and it was lost by a decisive vote. The DEMOCRAT is told that R. D. Merrill of Carroll is a candidate for this nomination, and this is why preferment was asked for from the county convention.

STRAHAN'S HORSES ARE HURT.

Sioux City Journal: Frank Strahan, of Wayne, Neb., met with a disastrous accident to his horses last week when he shipped his racing stable from Forest City to Mason City. The car was bumped severely and the pacer Union Medium, Jr., 2:14, by Union Medium, 2:31, was thrown down. A shoulder was ruined for the time being and a tendon in his foreleg injured Sweet Child, which was in the car with him also was mutilated. She is by Sol. 2:11, and although rated as a green one has done a mile in 2:17.

These two horses were booked to come to the Interstate fair races here. The probability is that they will not be able to race again this season. Mr. Strahan is a director of the fair association and anticipated starting over the Woodland Park course. The horse Union Medium, Jr., was in excellent form previous to the accident and Mr. Strahan had it all framed up to show that he had the goods.

C. R. Munson and D. E. Miller departed Tuesday morning for Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, on a land trip.

BY DAD.

By dad, I wonder if that republican committee on resolutions figured that the democratic county officials had been doing bad business, when they, the committee, took special notice of the republicans, to-wit:

We commend the efficient and business like administration of public affairs by our present republican county officials.

I don't believe the county has been paying for any outside assistance for any democratic county official the past—four years; it appears to me quite a number of republicans have spoken about E. W. Cullen's special fitness as a county commissioner—he was needed in preference to a republican because he had the executive ability to discharge such duties. I don't know why the administration of Sheriff Mears should be particularly "commended," when Grant says there isn't any business to make that office of any particular value to a fellow. Perhaps County Attorney Siman is entitled to special "commendation," or County Judge Hunter, or B. F. Feather—but what's the matter with our J. M. Cherry, county treasurer, or Charles Reynolds, county clerk? Haven't they done their whole duty? Such narrow, bigoted "resolutions" as these are certainly of the "peanut" variety of poll politics. The politician who drafted them is qualified and entitled to a seat in a republican state legislature. They are the sort of public guardians the railroads are looking for.

Men are queer. Wouldn't there be a roar when they went home to their meals if they had to climb upon a high stool in front of a table where there was no cloth and eat their meals in that fashion, yet a majority of men when they go to a restaurant will pick out the high stool and feed board with no cloth on in preference to a good comfortable chair and a cloth covered table. A man will borrow a chew of tobacco and most of them will set their teeth into the plug right over where some other man gnawed a chew. Offer him a piece of pie at home from which his wife or one of the children had taken a bite and he would holler his head off. At home he will not drink out of a cup or glass from which some one else of the family had been drinking. Call him into the back stall of a livery barn, pull out a bottle and he will stick the neck of the bottle half way down his throat in order to get a swig, after half a dozen other fellows have had the neck of the bottle in their mouths. A man is a queer duck, so says the Atchinson Globe.

Congressman McCarthy was in town Tuesday morning enroute to Emerson from up the branch line. It's a deplorable incident, but a fact nevertheless that not a single individual shook hands even, with the redoubtable congressman except—the DEMOCRAT man. Asked how things were looking, Mac answered, "fine, everything looks good." When we gently interjected that he perhaps hadn't yet "been in Wayne county," he replied, "no, but I've heard from there. That eminent and distinguished gentleman known as the Hon. Gene Huse is accountable for that." Then to the interrogation mark that perhaps somebody who was looking for Judge Boyd's old shoes might have helped the distinguished Huse, Mac gave a hearty laugh and replied, "Yes, that's a great scheme. They've got one of those same kind of fellows in Madison, Antelope, Pierce—in every county in the district." The congressman boarded the train with a sprightly step, and acted as though he was strictly "on," and able to wade through to a successful finish.

By dad, they tell me the hair fairly flew over that item in these columns two weeks ago about the Wayne lady meeting the Wakefield gent. A public indignation meeting was called in Wakefield and a certain old coos, whom it appears had started the scandal, was called "on the carpet" and an explanation demanded by—friends of the lady in question. The main points in the story were that he had seen this lady and the Wakefield man in the opera house—down there. The alleged "Wakefield man" proved an alibi that was convincing of his innocence, and then the certain old man—who had a grudge against the Wayne woman—told about what he actually "saw." It seems the fair visitor from Wayne was hurrying to the train when she began to loose her skirts. Having a key to the opera house she stepped in there to arrange her wardrobe, and just while she was in the act, this mean old rooster, imagining there was something doing that he could "undone," he slipped in also. While there was nothing wrong with the scene that met his gaze, it made him "skidoo," alright, and hence the whispered scandal, that had just as much foundation, perhaps, as 90 per cent. of such hot air usually has.

They all get a holiday but father, And he works hard every day, Sweating like a big buck nigger Just to keep the "wolf away." Mother has gone to Crystal Lake And paddles with her feet in the sand, Jennie sticks close to the hammock And Henry hangs on to her hand.

Mark Murray of the Pender Times and Rev. Hughes the big preacher, are having a sheet of a time—at least the parson is to hold up his end of the pen sketch. Perhaps some of you fellows wonder how that chief of the "All Star Co." was able to wear $20 dollar pieces for buttons on his prince Albert and waistcoat, but it's nothing to wonder

A prominent Wayne republican says, in excuse of J. F. Boyd's railroad pass record, that McCarthy "is just as bad." Perhaps Mac is, but he isn't sitting as a judge between the people and the railroads every month in the year. Fact is that if J. F. Boyd takes such a bribe as a railroad pass it ought to defeat him for the office of road overseer. If we were going to have a lawsuit with a railroad corporation, we'd rather have a highwayman sit as a judge on the case than a man with his pockets full of passes from

ORR & MORRIS COMPANY

Cummins With a Whoop.

Gov. Cummins won a clean straight victory yesterday at Des Moines, the railroad people behind the candidacy of Geo. D. Perkins being completely routed. The result is of great national importance, as was the Folk victory in Missouri and the La. Follette elections in Wisconsin. The next in line is Nebraska—the railroads as a governing power and dictatorship in politics has got to go down and out.

A Shutout by Ponca.

The Poncaites put it all over the literary athletes last Wednesday, making the score look like 9 goose eggs to 6 tallies at the home plate. A big crowd saw the game and say it was worth the money. Ponca had about all the expert ball players from her part of state to help "skin us."

Scott Holbrook, wife and child, were passengers to Norfolk from Omaha yesterday morning. Scott has been in the hospital at Omaha since last March and is a mere shadow of his former self.

The Misses Derby, from Bellwood, Neb., nieces of W. O. Gamble, are guests at the home of the latter.

There was some pretty hard "rubbering" at the depot Wednesday evening, when the Sioux City train pulled in, and there was plenty of cause for it. It was decidedly the rawest and nerviest exhibition of social depravity has ever witnessed. Such incidents may go on "Clark street," Chicago, or the "scarlet corners" of Omaha, but we'll bet they won't last long in Wayne—judging from the remarks made by citizens on the occurrence.

Wendel Baker of Carroll sold a car of cattle on the Sioux City market Wednesday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Kroger yesterday morning.

Marshal Miner took his little son to Omaha yesterday for a surgical operation. Some weeks ago the lad was playing "4th of July," springing from a ladder to a trap. He over-stretched his jumping ability and fell, and now has a very stiff arm, that a local physician says will need cutting.

Losr—Child's sunhat, between D. A. Jones' farm and Henry Kloppling's Flinder please return to the DEMOCRAT.

Miss Annie Lowery and Joe Baird left yesterday afternoon for Boston.

J. E. Strahan tells the DEMOCRAT that the Medium, the horse hurt at Forest City, Minn., is now in the care of the state veterinarian there and in possession of the railroad company responsible for the injuries to the animal. The best veterinarians pronounce the injuries permanent, but there may be a chance to put the horse back on the track. No settlement with the railroad company will probably be made for some time, and in speaking of the loss Mr. Strahan says it is decidedly problematical; the racer was seemingly ready to win some good races, looked good for a big proposition.

Mrs. D. A. Hall was an arrival from Sioux City Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Brown and children went to Crystal lake Wednesday.

Jake Dornberger visited his son George at Wausa over Sunday.

August Whitler threshed and marketed his fall wheat Wednesday. The yield was 40 bushels per acre and of fine quality, it brought 62 cents per bushel, or $24.80 per acre. Who says 800 land in Nebraska does not bring good interest, if properly farmed.

Fred Brown was at Crystal lake this week arranging for his family to camp there a few weeks.

The prohibitionists have nominated a full state ticket, and of course we'll elect it.

A seven-year-old son of Sam Miller and a ten year-old of J. W. Gullion, recently threw coal at the cars as they were passing through town. Monday a railroad detective was here looking the lads up, but when he saw how small they were he passed the matter over with just a little scare for the boys.

Billy Wills and Charley Seace will be home from the Basin country this week. Billy writes his folks that the climate out there isn't fit for a white man.

The Wayne races, August 15, 16 and 17, will bring a large number of fast ones to go for the money. It will be the biggest event of the kind Wayne has ever pulled off.

Arrange to take a couple of days off and see the Wayne races and stock show Aug. 15, 16 and 17.

Dr. G. H. Richards of Tronto, Can., is a new physician at Winside. The doctors must figure that there is going to be lots of business in Wayne county from now on.

The 18-months old son of Adolph Kieper died Tuesday night, the funeral being held yesterday at the German Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. Karpenstein.

Private money to loan on farms; no applications to make out.

A. N. MATHERY.

Alex Holtz left yesterday afternoon for Duluth.

Dr. W. D. Hammond went to Cherokee, Ia., yesterday to assist his brother R. W. Hammond in some surgical work.

Jas Coyle was in town yesterday from Ponca.

The wife of Geo. A. Brooks, of Bazille Mills, committed suicide in Denver this week by taking carbolic acid. Mr. Brooks is well known in Wayne.

Notwithstanding items in this paper that might be taken to tend otherwise, Wayne county democrats as well as republicans would be pleased to see A. A. Welch succeed J. F. Boyd as district judge. The DEMOCRAT understands that Mr. Welch only stands third in line for the place, providing Boyd is elected to congress, which seems unlikely since he could hardly be elected if nominated. The prospects are that McCarthy will win for a nomination, and Judge Graves beat him to a stand still at the polls.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Kimball were at the J. W. Bartlett home over Sunday.

The Herald states that Dr. Nieman is coming back to Wayne to resume his practice. We are afraid the doctor won't find much to resume.

Special Notice.

Mrs. Wm. Benschoot extends an invitation to members of the Missionary and Aid societies of the Presbyterian church, and others who may wish to come to a picnic dinner at her country home on Thursday Aug 9th.

Mesdames Larson, Henry, Thoma, Holtz and Conger gave a reception last evening in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Welden of Peru, Neb.

Rev. Ringer left this morning or Stella, Neb., to visit friends, it being his charge here coming to Wayne.

The Baptist young people had a picnic at Bressler grove last Tuesday.

Invitations have been sent out for the marriage on Aug. 8th of Charles Henry Fisher and Miss Elizabeth M. Ellis at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Alonzo Henry Ellis.

If you want to sell your lot or house and lots see A. N. Matherly. He has some customers for them.

"The All Star Comedy Co." moved to Randolph Monday, for a week's engagement, and from there will likely go to Carroll. The individuals included in this company are certainly a jolly crowd of ladies and gentlemen, and made many friends here. Their tent was crowded every night and the entertainment was of such merit that people kept going for the whole week.

John Kate has perfected arrangements to start an incubator factory, having leased the old laundry building on North Main street for that purpose.

The ladies' aid society of the Episcopal church served a suppers on Mrs. E. Martin yesterday afternoon, intended for a birthday party but a few days late. Mrs. Martin was presented with some nice presents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Richardson and two youngest children left yesterday for a visit at Lincoln, Ashland and Omaha. Mr. Richardson has a brother at Lincoln whom he has not seen for 18 years.

Dr. Warren, Eye and Ear specialist, will be in Wayne August 10 and 11. Two days at Boyd hotel.

Democratic County Convention.

The democrats of Wayne county, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in county convention at the court house in the city of Wayne on Saturday August 11, 1906, at 2:30 o'clock P. M. for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at the general election in November for the following offices to-wit: county attorney and clerk of the district court to fill vacancy; to select county delegations to the state, congressional, senatorial and representative convention; to select the county central committee; and for such other business as may properly come before the convention.

Given Up To Die

B. Spiegel, 1204, N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was completely cured." Wayne Pharmacy.

The express companies have such a complicated tangle of tariffs under which they have been plundering the public, that they have requested of the Interstate Commerce Commission an extension of time in which to prepare rate schedules for publication under the new law. As the express companies have been charging "all the tariff will bear" in most cases and a little more than it would bear in many transactions, you now have an opportunity to obtain more just charges by appealing to the commission.

Another Good Man gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear, the kidneys are strengthened and you soon are sound and well. A. R. Bals of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times a night, and had a severe back ache and pains in the kidneys and was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure. Wayne Pharmacy.

When Mr. Gompers and the other labor leaders presented the bill of grievances against the republican party to President Roosevelt, the latter asserted with considerable heat that the eight hour law had been rigidly enforced. It is somewhat disconcerting to now be informed by Mr. Roosevelt that from this day on the law is to be enforced. Somebody has blundered, but of course it can't be the president.

Cured Hay fever and summer Cold

A. J. Nusbaum, Batesville, Ind., writes: "Last year I suffered for 3 months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not react my case. I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate my case. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar and it quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success. Wayne Pharmacy.

A Hot Weather Ballard.

Within a humid four-room flat a loving couple strolled, at times descending to their knees and praying for the cold.

The husband was a heavy cuss he never had been slim—

Four pounds of talcum powder was a stinky dose for him.

He wore some thin pajamas, fastened with the thinnest hooks,

Because they kept no boarders and didn't care for looks.

The wife was in a wrapper more or less de-colle.

And while they marched around the flat these words she heard him say:

CHORUS.

"This prickly heat is killing me, my precious angel-face!

It seems so hard that I should die—the last of all our race.

Take all my life insurance when my form is 'neath the ground

And build yourself a summer home way up at Puget Sound."

His breath grew faint and fainter; he wobbled round the place;

He drank a cooling highball, then he fell up on his face.

The coroner blew in next day according to the law,

And said: "This is the warmest flat which I have ever saw,

Excepting one apartment from the truth I'm bound to tell—

The dainty little dwelling that I have in New Rochelle."

Now in the wilds of Puget Sound the wife is growing gray

And thinking of the sentence her husband once did say:

CHORUS.

"This prickly heat is killing me, my precious angel-face!

It seems so hard that I should die—the last of all my race.

Take all my life insurance when my form is 'neath the ground

And build yourself a summer home way up at Puget Sound."

—Wm. F. Kirk, in New York American.

Hoskins News.

From the Headlight:

W. F. Schreiber returned last evening from Kansas where he went last week to purchase land. After looking over the country he got 160 acres near Lost Springs, Kansas. He reports crops looking fine winter wheat going on the average of 40 bu to the acre, corn in the silk and stands 8 to 10 feet high and prospects are that it will go 60 bu per acre. On the place he purchased he says are all kinds of fruit trees fine buildings, good water and everything a man could wish for.

Fred Elchoff drove Robert Baird to Wakefield last Sunday so that Robert could get away without interference on account of the hearing he was to attend Monday.

Everything comes "to him who waits". Two years ago it was decided that H. E. Siman should be county attorney another term, and then the office should go to A. R. Davis, and Mr. Siman should go to the legislature. More recently the "machine" has broadened out to make Judge Boyd congressman and A. A. Welch district judge—in Wayne county, but the DEMOCRAT is told there is a certain lawyer in every county in the district "promised" the judgeship. Of course this is republican schemes—none of the DEMOCRAT's business—but possibly there are a few individuals about Carroll who have not heard about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Miller returned from Chicago last Friday, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ahern left Sunday for the same place. The young merchants are leading a strenuous commercial existence these days, and will soon be in the "Marshall Field" class.

Robert Baird left suddenly last Sunday. A complaint had been made by one of Robert's brothers that cited him to appear before the hebraic board on Monday, and when he learned of it Robert got busy getting away to Boston. Later the DEMOCRAT learned that no complaint had been filed, simply a rumor of one that scared Robert.

Cantwell who conducted Evangelistic meetings at the Baptist church here several months ago, has disappeared and his friends in this part of the state are very anxious about him. Official Notice.

Notice is hereby given subscribers to the DEMOCRAT, who reside outside of Wayne county, that subscriptions must be paid up in advance at once or names will be stricken off the "docket." We have been a little careless in this regard the past three months and must now insist on all being paid up. Be good enough to attend this little matter promptly and save us the annoyance of taking off your "John Henry" and putting it on again, just to get a remittance. There is no profit in these subscriptions where they are allowed to lag, and become a drag on the business.

Andy Graham, the celebrated land man of Wisner, was in town last Saturday. Mr. Graham is a large holder in the Nebraska Land Co and is making things hum for that corporation. D. K. Hern In Jail.

Sunday's Omaha Bee gave an account of the jailing of D. King. Hern, in that city, for being short in his accounts with the piano firm of Schmolzer & Moeller. Hern has led a devious and rather troubled path through this vale of tears. Years ago he was the hardest drinker in Wayne county. The Keeley institute, at this place failed to "phaze" him after weeks of treatment. Then he went to Missouri and reformed, got married and the DEMOCRAT believes joined the church. Coming back to Wayne some seven years ago he went to work for M. S. Davies, selling pianos. Then he went into business for himself, and in a few months, although he sold lots of music boxes, he came into the DEMOCRAT sanctum and announced that he "was going up on the hill to board with Sheriff Cherry." It appears Dr. Williams and another party had "stood good" for Hern, and he lost some five or six hundred dollars gambling on the board of trade instead of paying his bills with the money. His wife made a hasty trip to her folks in Minneapolis and "raised" the coin to get her husband out of the jaws of jail, Hern remaining in town and no procedure being made against him. Then they moved to Omaha and only a few months ago the DEMOCRAT got a reference blank from an eastern piano house to fill out—as to Hern's honesty, etc. It is unlikely that D. King ever got any credit on the strength of that recommendation. Hern and his wife both affected plenty of religious fervor and were long on prohibition, extravagance on other people's money, and, of course, were always given the glad hand by the church people. The DEMOCRAT man used to be a friend of the Herns, but their hypocrisy, his dishonesty and lack of any substantial qualities, would disgust the devil himself.

F. H. Von Saggern, of Hooper was in town Monday on his way to Bone steel.

Harper Space was an arrival from Bush, Wyo., Monday morning, looking tanned and westernized. He left Will's and his brother Charles at Denver, they expecting to leave there Monday for home. Frank Hood, he said, had not worked a day since going to Denver, and was going out tenting in the mountains, fishing and hunting, Frank's long suit.
