Wayne Horse Thief Association.

About 75 of Wayne county's horse owners met at the court house last Saturday and organized an anti-theft association to be known as the above. Frank Strahan was elected president, R. A. McEachen, vice president, W. H. Gildersleeve, secretary and J. M. Cherry, treasurer. On motion the rules and by-laws of the Norfolk association were adopted and all farmers invited to join the association by calling at the First National bank, Wayne, and leaving a dollar initiation fee. It was decided to have a captain in each precinct, to be chosen by the president, and precincts represented at the meeting filled out as follows: G. S. Meers for Wayne, Ike Walden Carroll, Henry Bays, Chapin, Will Lessman, Logan township, Dixon county, John Hadley, Sherman, Chan Norton, Hunter, Geo. Hofeldt, Strahan.

F. M. Griffith went to Omaha Monday to look for feeders.

Mrs. Chas. Welch left Tuesday morning on a visit to her son at Alexandria, S. D.

Will and John Kay of Wakefield were at Wausa over Monday night to look at some land, but the continued rains sent them home without doing any business.

C. M. Craven and J. T. Bressler left Tuesday morning on a trip to North Dakota.

John Koefoed went to Lisab, N. D., Tuesday where he has bought a half section of land.

Cherokee Democrat: Mrs. Cheney Chace of Wayne, Neb., arrived in the city Tuesday for a few days visit with relatives. Mrs. Chace is a sister of the editor of the Democrat. A little less than thirty years ago she taught school at Wausa, when there wasn't much but grass and weeds growing in the places they now call streets. I know all about it because I used to stand the liveryman off for rigs to take it down Monday mornings. No, I didn't come back alone.

Willis Kortright a son of Geo. Kortright, is editor of the Fairfax Sun. Review and is having all sorts of amusement in the way of libel suits. Willis got after a republican "gang" in Gregory county, although his paper is republican, and two criminal libel suits have been filed against him, he stating in last week's paper that if his friends did not put up $500 bonds for him he'd have to "lay 't out," at present being in the custody of a deputy sheriff.

John Shannon was a visitor from Carroll Saturday.

Geo. Jensen was down from Carroll Saturday and became a subscriber to the DEMOCRAT, the only paper that prints all the news irrespective of persons, creed or previous term of servitude.

Gene Leahy of Wausa was in Sioux City Monday and spent the night in Wayne.

W. L. Robinson was down from Carroll Tuesday, having accompanied his sister, Mrs. Lewis, this far on her way home to Stella, Neb.

There were a large number of voters after their second, naturalization papers last Saturday, before Clerk of Courts B. F. Feather: Christ H. and Magnus Beckmann, Hans Gotsch, Otto H. Krueger, Henry P. Christ Langbohn, Conrad Kniss, Earl Wetsch, Wm. F. Schreiber.

The DEMOCRAT has no intention to be other than fair in discussing the political situation, particularly as to local candidates. However, the public should be fully informed on all the doings of the men who hanker to become public servants for the coin there's in it. Sizing up your choice of a county attorney remember that A. R. Davis, the republican nominee, is indirectly responsible for the past four years service of our present incumbent, Mr. Davis didn't want a nomination against Guy R. Wilbur; and no doubt figured H. E. Siman would make a better victim. But the people of Wayne county were the victims in this instance, while the law firm of Welch and Davis has been a large beneficiary because of County Attorney Siman's incompetency. Two years ago Mr. Davis made a strenuous campaign for Siman—because if that gentleman were not elected the place would not fall an easy prey to Mr. Davis' shoes this year. This fall there can be no question that the firm of Welch & Davis is not responsible in a large degree for the nomination of H. E. Siman for state representative. What uses they may have for him will no doubt develop later on, but the DEMOCRAT is informed by a reputable citizen of Wayne that Mr. Davis has confessed Siman's weakness; that Harry can't be elected, but that he had to be nominated. The proposition before the voters is, does Wayne county want a coterie of two or three men to run the politics of the county and continually fatten themselves at the public? Mr. Davis ought by every right to have a walk-a-way in this contest, figuring the republican majority he has on his side, but the best interests of the county demand his defeat, do as you will with him.

A Big Stone Setting.

Possibly five hundred years from now the corner stone of the college auditorium, put in place last Friday afternoon, will be "uncovered" and imagine the surprise of the future natives when the hollow stone gives up its treasures. The ceremonies were eagerly attended by Wayne people, the band leading the procession from Main street, and the grand lodge officers of Masons being in charge. Among the visitors taking part were Grand Master, Z. M. Baird, Harlington; Grand Master, H. A. Cheney, Creighton; Grand Chaplain, F. M. Drullner, Emerson; Past Grand Master Judge Evans, Yakota City, Past Grand Master John Ehrhardt, Stanton and Grand Orator Rev. E. C. Horn of Wayne and other local members.

The lodgemen were entertained by President and Mrs. Pills in the evening.

Miss Edna Relyea was an over Sunday visitor from Sioux City.

John Prince was a visitor from Winfield Saturday.

Ed. Merrill came up from Lincoln last Saturday.

Dennis Kelleher returned last Saturday evening from a two week's stay at St. Joseph's hospital, Sioux City. Mr. Kelleher is trying to get that old trouble he had with the big swelling on the side of his face eradicated from his system. He had even more severe treatment this time than a year ago, and will have to go back occasionally to see Dr. Jepson, who operated on him. He expects to be entirely cured of the affliction, which is something similar to lumpy-jaw.

John Finn returned from Carroll to New Castle last Saturday afternoon where he visited his brother in law, Jim Stanton. Mrs. Stanton was in a very critical condition all last week, but is now out of danger and recovering.

Ed. Bartlett was a visitor to Sioux City Monday.

Mrs. A. A. Wollert and baby went to Council Bluffs on a visit last Monday.

Chas. Beebe accompanied his sister down from Carroll Monday morning.

The Rufus Rastus Minstrels which are to appear at the opera house next Saturday night, are said to be playing to capacity business everywhere and are pleasing the people. The first part introduces a number of clever comedians and an excellent singing contingent while the "Olio" contains some high class specialties, such as Great Layton, who does some wonderful stunts on the high wire, the famous Albernarle quartette, who render popular songs and southern melody, the marvelous Drako in feats of contortion, the quaint duo, James and Moody, parodists and witty conversationalists, Strauder and Strauder presenting comic toy scenes and Congo serenades beside several other turns that are said to be clever and high class. The entertainment as a whole is reported to be the equal if not superior to any organization of its kind.

C. H. Johannes of the Columbus German paper, and August Bottocher, a merchant of that city, were in town Saturday afternoon on their way up the branch to attend some Sons of Herman doings. Mr. Johannes is one of the smartest editors and politicians in the state. He says Platte county is going to roll up an enormous majority for Shallenberger and Graves.

J. W. Bartlett and O. A. King went to Randolph Tuesday to attend the installation of the Baptist pastor at that place.

Speaking about horse thieves, John Prince tells an interesting incident that befell him a few years ago while taking a bunch of horses from Missouri to Iowa. Mr. Prince got on the wrong trail down in the Missouri jungle and finally landed in a gully where he heard a strange horse whinner. Making a little investigation he found eleven head of horses all tied up in an almost inaccessible hiding place, and not a human soul near them. John hurriedly remounted and retraced his way, and when he arrived in the next Missouri town for night some strangers began to take his horses out of their stalls and examine them. He was also requested to tell where he was from, whom the sheriff was of his county, (being the latter official himself) when satisfied as to his identity he was told by the Missourians that eleven head of horses had been stolen in that vicinity, and when given a description of the animals he was satisfied it was the same bunch he had discovered that day. He made a deal at once to go with a party in search of the horses, and if found he was to receive a share of the reward offered. When arrived at the place the drove was found same as the day before and were taken charge of at once without waiting for the horse-thieves to appear. Mr. Prince got $147 for his trouble in the recovery.

ANDY CHANCE ACQUITTED

And Wayne County Foots the Bills to Air a Family Row

After being out a few minutes Tuesday noon the jury in the case of State of Nebraska vs. Andy Chance, brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The trial of Andy Chance on charge of assaulting his wife, was as attractive to a couple hundred men last Monday, as a sugar bowl is to flies in fly time. There was considerable delay in getting the affair started, County Attorney Siman being late owing to delayed trains. Then a jury had to be empaneled, the fortunate fellows of the job being O. H. Burton, Sam Miller, C. R. Winslow, J. W. Wright, A. T. Witter and Gus Wals. Judge Hunter's office being packed full and many more unable to get on the inside, the party adjourned to the court room. In examining the jury Attorney Siman for the prosecution and Berry for the defense, created no little amusement, they were all so short on acquaintance with the parties, particularly the plaintiff. Gus Wills was sure the only time he had been to her house was to kill a couple of hogs. A. T. Witter admitted having "neighbor'd" with the defendant, but when asked if he had ever neighbor'd with the plaintiff, moved uneasily in his seat and stammered out a "no, sir!" The two lawyers had lots of trouble as to what they would agree on, and were at times considerably frustrated. Atty. Siman even forgetting to make a statement to the jury of the case. When Mr. Berry did so there were many objections, but the court ruled to allow the whole thing to come out. The facts of the whole miserable affair were practically as printed in the DEMOCRAT last week. Mrs. Chance was the first witness and testified that her husband was hiding in Will Weber's lot, near her home, and jumped over the fence and kicked her twice, stamped her two or three times, first serving Blanche, her daughter in the same manner. That he got off a whole lot of "rigamarole," one statement being that he "didn't give a damn if she went to eternity." "Where is your poor old father, tonight; and with a string he pulled them in," and, "what been buggy riding with Fred Brown, have you!" She said she had not spoken to her husband for ten months and that she had quarreled with him for 23 years. That the assault was made between 12 and 1 o'clock. Blanche Chance being called testified practically to the same circumstances. She said she called for Mr. Beck, as loud as she could. That after committing the assault her father "moseyed off towards Craven's." She also admitted calling her father an "old, low, dirty," and that she told him to go down and stay with Mrs. Hoguewood.

For the defense Will Hoguewood was first put on the stand. His story was that he was going home with Chance about 9 o'clock. When at Dr. Nieman's residence they saw Mrs. Chance and daughter drive past. About this time Atty. Siman objected to Atty. Berry rigging in any of the preceding chapters and a red-hot argument arose in which Siman wanted to bet $10 to 10 he was right, and Berry wanted to bet that $50 was more money than Siman had, etc., etc. The court over-ruled the objection and told the jury to take what was pertinent to the case. Hoguewood said they went back down town; that the ladies drove east past the Baptist church and Fred Brown got in the rig. That they then went to the Chance home but the women were not there, then down town; talked to Marshal Miner, and went to Eli Donawitz's livery barn. That about an hour and a half later they were near the Chance residence when Mrs. Chance, her daughter and Fred Brown drove up. George Wads-worth the next witness, said he had been called out of his home by Will Hoguewood to see the affair, which was practically the same version as given by the others. Chance took the stand and admitted the circumstances of booting the women, also stated what led up to the fracas. The lawyers made, valid and plain on either hand and the jury pulled down the blinds.

In opening the case Atty. Berry demanded the fair prosecutors put up bonds for the costs of the suit, but Judge Hunter over-ruled the request, and the county will pay for the advertising the parties obtained.

In voting for county attorney it is well to recollect that A. R. Davis has been acting in that capacity to a large degree. In the Bill Liveringhouse case he and Siman made such a botch of the job that Liveringhouse was ordered to be given a new trial by the supreme court. State vs. J. H. Wright Atty. Davis assisted Mr. Siman and "right" was acquitted, the county as usual holding the sack. In the matter of Wayne county vs. S. B. Seace, Welch & Davis were assistants and the county was way in the hole. At the present time the same firm has been hired to take care of the county's interests in the Wayne fair grounds. It doesn't appear that Welch & Davis—since Davis arrived from Iowa—and H. E. Siman have been a paying proposition for Wayne county except in the distribution of county funds. They are three of a kind, all looking for a berth this year. Mr. Welch to take Judge Boyd's place—when Boyd goes to congress, H. E. Siman to be state representative, A. R. Davis to be county attorney. It's money in your pocket, Mr. Tax payer, to vote for Graves, Adam Pilger and George Wilbur.

King Edward's Clocks.

During the coming season, when the King and Queen are away from Sandringham and the park and grounds are occasionally open to visitors, the platform of Wolverton, the station of Sandringham, is now and again occupied by bands of neon who complain angrily that they are half an hour too soon for their train. They have not discovered in time that all the clocks at Sandringham are kept half an hour fast.

This is a curious fancy which the King shares with several of his friends. Lord Pembroke, for instance, whose clocks at Wilton house are half an hour fast. At no place, however, is the scheme carried out more thoroughly than at Sandringham, where all the clocks in the house, articles and kennels, and even the church clock, are kept exactly half an hour fast.

A well known scientific writer visiting Sandringham recently from Hants, and finding himself at the station with twenty minutes of leisure, occupied them in an interesting discourse to some fellow sufferers of the kind of human beings of whom he said, "that in the private rooms of a punctual and business like man such as the King the clock is never out of gear."

There is nothing unusual in this. You know how the half-hour mowls in a roomy winter, the weather and the clock will be continually white or clean. You know how the clock will be continually white or clean. You know how the clock will be continually white or clean.

The Good Laxative Story

It is a story of a man who was suffering from constipation. He had tried many remedies, but nothing worked. Finally, he tried Castoria, and it worked perfectly. He was cured.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years' married life often makes in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a peach which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant points, drains and weaknesses, but too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form are restored to the fact of the world. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It eradicates the habit-forming drugs, medicinal roots, most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

WAS A REAL SURPRISE.

From the Washington Star. When a woman is married, her rather good-looking husband several years her junior reached his office the other morning he had just been summoned to the telephone.

"What is the message to be sent?" "Some creature telephoning to him, perhaps."

So she remained in the ante room. Her husband was in the main office, but he did not know that she had arrived.

"Hello," he said in the phone. "Who's that?" "Oh, Jim, I'm here, I'm here, I'm here."

"(It's that horrid, flirtatious James Swain talking to me,)" she thought, "and she is telephoning to me."

"Dear sure, thoroughbred, you say," she went on, "but I'm not here, I'm not here, I'm not here."

"(Oh, how can I keep my hands off her!)" muttered the jealous wife. "Look at that! She is telephoning to me."

THEY CURE ANEMIA

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Anemia, whether it results from actual loss of blood, from lack of nutrition, or from nervous causes, is due to a deficiency of the vital fluid. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood. They do that by giving the system the material with which to build it.

"As a girl," says Mrs. Jessie Fink, of 190 Mill street, Chicago, "I suffered from nervous indigestion and when I was eighteen years old I was reduced in weight to 95 pounds. I was almost nervous, couldn't eat or sleep, was short of breath after the least exertion and had headaches almost constantly. I had a doctor, of course, but I didn't seem to get any much better. Finally my vitality and strength were so reduced that I had to take to my bed for several weeks at a time."

"While I was in bed I read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I stopped all other medicine and began to take the pills. Soon my improvement was very noticeable. My strength began to return, my stomach gave me no pain and as soon as I began to take solid food I gained in weight. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills certainly saved my life. I am now perfectly well and have regained my normal weight. I feel that the pills did me. Williams' Pink Pills are a wonderful medicine."

These celebrated pills are recommended for stomach troubles, indigestion, nervousness, and debility, as well as for all other ailments of the system. They are sold by all druggists and chemists. Price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50. Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Big Farm Auction Delayed On Account of Rain

Will Take Place Oct. 30, '06

The big sale of Dan Martin, four miles north of Carroll, to have taken place last Tuesday, was postponed until Tuesday Oct. 30th. This is a bonafide auction sale of a big lot of horses, cattle, hogs, machinery and household goods, as Mr. Martin has sold his farm and is leaving the place. A large amount of hay and grain will be sold. Look up last week's DEMOCRAT for particulars or see bills. There is a lot of good stock and everything needed on a big farm to be disposed of.

C. H. Randall, a republican candidate on state ticket, came near being badly injured last Monday night. He saw the lodge light in the Mellor building and went up the north stairway, walking back and falling down the long, dangerous stairs at the rear. The gentleman was considerably bruised up and ruined a good umbrella in the descent. When he hit the bottom a woman opened a door and yelled: "Did somebody fall?" "I should say so," responded Mr. Randall, as he picked himself up.

Chas. Beebe of Carroll was an arrival from Bonesteel Wednesday morning where he went to settle up his brother's estate. Mr. Beebe says there was over a foot of snow at Bonesteel and it had been coming down since last Saturday.

'Jack,' the big blacksmith who has been working for Geo. Stringer, made his getaway last Monday morning, his woman going with him. The DEMOCRAT is told that 'Jack' sold his furniture to several parties, Walt Miller being first on the spot and getting the whole works for $10. There are some other stories out about the couple, but they are gone now and probably will never come back.

Herman Mildner left Monday on a several days visit to his brother-in-law, Carl Fuchner, at Plankinton, S. D.

The city council had an electric light expert here from Omaha first of the week to endeavor to connect both dynamos to work at the power house. The employees there appear to be having considerable difficulty of late but Mayor Piepenstock says they have matters well straightened out now.

Joe Barley was in town Wednesday. He is now with the Great Northern road, North Dakota.

That's what the Wayne merchants are trying to do to the Wayne Herald and Democrat. This week a whole page ad for Miller & Ahern is "laid away" for lack of room and printers to get up the type. BRYAN COMING

The Great William Jennings Nov. 2nd.

The announcement that Bryan would make a trip through the Third congressional district, leaving Norfolk the morning of the 2d, and journeying on down the line on a special to Omaha, has made such papers as the Norfolk News "spit cotton lint." The News is sure now that Graves has been as wicked as Boyd, and rode on passes since he wore pads instead of pants.

From 10 to 11 A. M.

Will be Bryan's time in Wayne, and he will put in just one hour at the opera house talking state and national politics. The DEMOCRAT hopes lots of the farmers will come in and hear him, for Wayne is largely republican and there are a lot of g. o. p. politicians in this burg who hate like hades to hear the truth told in a political sense. William J. Bryan "is the biggest man in the world, nobody disputes it, and everybody should be proud of the opportunity to see and hear him."

A fifteen year old son of Section Boss Bradford at Hoskins was up before the justice there yesterday charged with stealing old copper from a peddler. The case was postponed until this morning.

Mrs. J. D. Haskell of Wakefield entertained a large party of ladies from Norfolk and Wayne Wednesday, and a dozen stately dame of Wakefield. At the Wakefield depot the ladies were met and labeled, that forming an introduction for each. A grand supper was served by the hostess and a most excellent time was enjoyed. The invited guests from Wayne were Mesdames Main, Chace, Wightman, Welch R. and F. G. Philleo, Epler, Davies, H. B. Jones, Leisenring, Tucker, Dana Harrington and Bressler.

Rev. Parker Smith and wife are in Iowa to visit 11 sister who is dangerously ill. The chicken pie supper advertised by the Baptist people for tomorrow evening has therefore been called off.

It is probable that Mr. Lauman will not get back to Wayne for a week as he has some relatives in that part of Iowa. It appears that the fellows with the outfit stole some robes near Webster City and in getting away the city marshal and some aids got the fellows cornered and they had to leave the rig to make their escape, the marshal being wounded by the same fellow who stopped at the Boyd hotel the Sunday of the robbery, according to the description given Sheriff Meeks of him. "The other fellow was captured, but was later let go upon putting up a strong 'con talk' that he was not a member of the party."

Mr. Meister of Meister & Bluechel, left Wednesday night for West Point.

Prof. Wilson says that Dr. Thomas E. Green's lecture, "The Key to the Twentieth Century," which will be given at the opera house next Tuesday evening, Oct. 30th, is one of the best given upon the American platform.

Remember that tickets for the entire lecture course consisting of three famous lectures and two musical attractions, are only $1.50 for general public, and $1.00 for college and High school students. Secure your tickets early.

Atty. Berry and Andy Chance were in Wakefield yesterday. The DEMOCRAT understands the gentlemen are turning something over that will make recent developments look like 20 cents.

Wm. Dammeyer and A. N. Stodden got home from Texas Wednesday.

Meister & Bluechel inform the DEMOCRAT that it is impossible to obtain cornhusking machines from the factory, the firms building them being a year or two behind on orders. The machine that takes the ears off costs $300 and snaps 20 acres per day, another convenience taking off the husks when desired.

Ten days more until election. The politicians and office seekers are very busy now, although it has been a quiet campaign aside from newspaper agitation. Next week, the last issue of the DEMOCRAT, we will try and cut most of it out.

You will find on another page an item referring to Welch & Davis "not" being responsible for the nomination of H. B. Siman as state representative, kindly cut the "not" out.

The city power house got in double work Wednesday night. The two dynamos and two boilers worked in conjunction, and Mayor Piepenstock says, used less coal than one boiler did formerly. When the new wire is in use patrons can expect the very best of service.

Adolph Seelmeyer, who works for E. A. Chichester, had a bad accident Wednesday morning. He was trying a horse in the barn when the animal got scared and jammed him against the stall, breaking his shoulder blade. Dr. Leisenring reduced the fracture.

THE RACKET

BY DAD

It will be amusing news to those who recollect how E. Cunningham used to pound the air and swear by all that is holy that he'd do up all "free pass" politicians and their ilk, to learn that Eph is now writing to use "red hots," weekly appearing in the Wayne Herald, for the notorious railroad pass gang, Sheldon, Searle, Eaton, Brian and Boyd.

Percy Edwards was down from Carroll last Saturday and gave the DEMOCRAT a very amusing incident that happened to Clevie's steam threshing outfit with which he is employed. They were going to thresh for Ervin Porter, west of Carroll, and one of the boys told Porter to be sure to be ready for them last Friday morning and not forget a little green briar to feed the engine. Early Friday they set the machine, steamed up and were just ready to grind out the grain when it was discovered that Porter had completely forgotten to have any coal on the place, for the engine, although the engineer was all provided for. Work was suspended for the week and the drinks all on Porter.

It is reported that Sam shot his dog.

An Iowa girl committed suicide by eating match heads, or rather drinking water in which the bell ends of matches were soaked. She was bound to cross over on a light stomach.

A little boy out walking one day met God "Say, God," he said, "how much does a million dollars seem to you?" "About a penny," said his Creator. "And say, God, how much does a million years seem to you?" "Oh, about a minute," "Say, God, lend me a penny, will you?" "Yes, in just a minute." Western S. S. Magazine.

Wherever Hon. Geo. L. Sheldon goes in his campaign over the state he adds strength to the whole republican ticket as well as to his own candidacy. Lincoln Journal.

By dad, that is a peculiar state of affairs, isn't it! Wherever Geo. Sheldon goes he tips his colleagues, Eaton, Searle and others up the back because they failed to properly adjust railroad matters in this state. Then Sheldon, himself, has been in the strongest kind of a position—a leader in the senate for years—to do a part of the big and great things he now promises the people he will do if elected governor. Agata, C. H. Johannes of Columbus was on the Bloomfield train coming to Wayne last Monday morning and he says he heard no less an authority than Judge J. F. Foyd tell his seatmate in the car that Sheldon "was a frog" where ever he went; a regular icicle." Of course Foyd didn't know Mr. Johannes was listening. What do you voters of Wayne county think of your reformer (?) Sheldon, anyway?

If defeated for congress don't you suppose or believe Judge Hoyd will again ride on passes?

Sioux City is going into the business of making fuel from stock yards of fat. The awful stuff they get in the papers down there ought to keep the town warm.

Jim Finn was buying bread all last week while Mrs. Finn was away on a visit. Jim says it took some ten loaves of bakers' bread per day, and it was just like feeding straw to hogs. He says the "ayne merchant who sold it to him said it was the bachelors' bread and Jim thinks so too.

Lauman's Horses Found.
Tuesday Sheriff Means received a phone call from Webster City, Iowa, giving a description of a team and buggy taken from a couple of fellows at a place, that exactly tallied with the team stolen from Rick Lauman on Sunday, Oct. 14th. Mr. Lauman left Tuesday afternoon to recover the outfit.

The DEMOCRAT understands that Andy Chance has or will apply for a divorce from Mrs. Chance. In the trial Tuesday morning he testified that he told her a year ago he'd kick her till her nose bled if she didn't quit going with Brown.

Vote for Jas. Stanton for county commissioner.

The Norfolk News has a fit every day these days over the inevitable defeat of J. F. Boyd for congress. Boyd is the News' candidate. That paper and the railroads are believed to have been back of the whole scheme to defeat J. J. McCarthy for a nomination, and it is not improbable at this time that Editor Huse was simply looking for a good excuse to bolt McCarthy when he charged the latter with doing the News an injury. Anyway the News is powerfully worked up over the way Judge Graves is knocking its railroad man Boyd out of the race, and nothing is too mean for that paper to put in print about the democratic candidate, although it never offers any proof whatever, but simply by insuendo and cowardice starts something for every other cheap state of a republican sheet to take up and pass around. It is simply a case of thief howling thief to cover up the deplorable tracks of its own candidate. Like the howl about Sheldon being opposed by the railroads and Shallenberger having their support, when every circumstance under Heaven gives the lie to such statements.

Verne Tower, who lives with his father near Laurel, lost a thumb and finger Thursday of last week by getting caught in a cornsheller. The young man had to quit school and help his father owing to the scarcity of farm help.

GIANT MEAT TRUST IS REPORTED AT CHICAGO

Sir Thomas Lipton and American Packers Said to Be in Merger as Big as Steel Trust.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The authority of close business associates of Sir Thomas Lipton, a millionaire packer of England and famous in the country as a challenger for international yacht racing honors, the great packing companies of the United States have agreed to merge and form a trust rivaling in magnitude the steel corporation.

The packers involved in the deal aside from Sir Thomas Lipton are: Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Nelson Bros., Cudahy, Packing company, and the International Packing company, the latter institution being controlled by English capital.

J. Ogden Armour, president of Armour & Co., is said to be the president of the trust. The directors will be chosen from the heads of the other packing concerns.

The organization of the new merger trust will not cause any changes in the packing industry as it will be in the nature of a trust, and will be controlled by the packers themselves.

The proposed merger has plants in Chicago, Hammond, Ind., Kansas City, Mo., Omaha, Neb., St. Louis, Mo., St. Paul, Minn., Minneapolis and other cities.

The merger is expected to result in a more efficient packing industry and to reduce the cost of meat to consumers.

Where Sheldon is At.

A few hide-bound-and-foot-republican papers—like the Wayne Herald—are taking a few pokes at the Pender Republic for bottling the nomination of J. F. Boyd by the railroad politicians, but the Republic is not the only patriotic republican paper doing this sort of work. The Blair Pilot, a paper of more influence than even the Republic, has the following to say of its gubernatorial candidate:

"When and where, and in what way, did you exhibit any opposition to the railroads prior to the time, in your second term as senator, when you 'turned turtle' because they did not support you for president pro tem. of the senate?"

Is it not a fact, Senator Sheldon, that the notorious sifting committee of the senate of the legislature of 1905 was selected in a secret meeting in your private room in the Lindell hotel. Is it not a fact that this committee, selected in your private room, was composed of men known to be friendly to the corporations? Is it not a fact that underlying the selection of this committee was a bold scheme to strangle and defeat legislation objectionable to the corporations.

Senator Sheldon you are telling the people now they are being robbed by high freight rates.

The rates in force now are the same rates in force in 1903 when you were in the senate, and the same as in 1905, when you were again in the senate.

Turn to the senate files, Mr. Sheldon, for either or both of these sessions and point out if you can, one single bill introduced by you reducing these rates. Turn, if you can, to any page of the records, and point out any bill voted for by you reducing these rates.

Another Paper Flops.

The Ledger at Stewart, Neb., which has been a republican paper ever since it was established twenty-four years ago, is now supporting the democratic ticket. The Ledger last week in an article headed "Why the Ledger Rolled Over," says:

"The abuses that the republican ticket promises to correct are products of republican legislation.

The leaders have adopted a reform plank, not because they believe in reform, but because public sentiment demands reform. The democrats have been demanding reform for years when there were not a hundred red cents in it. The republicans want reform because there are millions in it for those honest. One platform is honest, the other dishonest."

Sheldon, the Shammer.

Here is a case in point. The Lincoln Journal, in its report of Mr. Sheldon's speech at Ponca, publishes this:

"The speaker (Mr. Sheldon) said that in the last legislature the republicans were the ones who introduced bills and fought for rate regulation."

"Honestly, now, isn't Geo. L. Sheldon a bit ashamed of that? Aren't his friends and admirers disappointed that he could have said that?"

It was the republicans who introduced the bills and fought for rate regulation in the last legislature, said Mr. Sheldon. But since all the bills were defeated the audience must conclude that it was the democrats and populists who voted them down and frustrated the efforts of Senator Sheldon and his brother "reformers."

And yet what is the fact? The fact is that there were but nine democrats and populists in the last legislature! The fact is that the senate, where Sheldon sat, was unanimously republican!

And the biggest fact of all is that every anti-pass bill, every bill to reduce freight rates, every bill to increase railroad taxation, every bill to establish direct primaries, every reform measure of every kind that was introduced, in either house or senate was defeated, and defeated by republican votes.

With these plain and undeniable facts to make the record, the World-Herald submits there is something tricky and unreliable about the man who tells his audience that, in the last legislature, the republicans were the ones who introduced bills and fought for rate regulation.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Speaking of Geo. C. Sheldon, candidate for governor, the Pender Republic, "republican to the core," says "he has a railroad record in the senate that is without a law." As Sure as Fate

Since the Wayne Herald, a paper that has denounced "free passes" every month in the year except the intervening time between the republican nomination of the pass-bribed politicians and election day, is now tired of such tommy-not, perhaps the following from the Coleridge Blade, nominally a republican sheet, will give the Herald something else to write wash:

"We want to vote for no wolf in sheep's clothing on these vital issues. What is Boyd? We ask those republican papers who have said that they knew. Why was McCarthy turned down on a third nomination in this district? He was the only congressman rejected in the whole Nebraska delegation. It was not because of his third term aspirations, because a majority of the other Congressmen are standing for a third term. It was not because he failed to endorse Roosevelt's policies, because he endorsed them in every detail. It is hard to believe that the party laid down over the Huse and McCarthy quarrel because so great a paper as the Omaha Bee has never been able to dictate the nominees of the republican party in the state. He scattered seeds just like the other congressmen, look after the rural routes and the post-offices etc., just like the other congressmen did, so why, we ask was McCarthy turned down alone among them all? What was the real reason, the true inwardsness of the McCarthy revolt? Those who know must answer this question and answer it honestly. We ask the Plainview Republican: What did it mean when said by McCarthy that it was defeated on a renomination that it would be the railroads and corporations that did it. We know Bro. Cresslin personally and are sure that he is on the square; we feel certain that when he makes an assertion, he knows whereof he speaks. And we ask him fairly, and will agree to reproduce his explanation, in what respect did he mean that McCarthy's defeat would signify a corporation victory? Other republican papers that we saw making statements to the same purport were the Emerson Reporter, Ponca Journal, Bancroft Blade, Winfield Tribune, Allen News and Wakefield Republican. More republican papers may have made the same statement and we overlooked it. Now these papers, each of them, owes it to the independent voters to explain just exactly what was meant, and it is absolutely necessary to Judge Boyd's success that they do so. No corporation hypocrit goes with the independent voters this year. As sure as fate he will place his little o. k. opposite the name of Judge Graves on November 6th if this uncertainty and darkness which screens the Boyd candidacy is not at once incontestably cleared away. Remember, the Blade agrees to reproduce explanations and be fair in this contest.

A Serious Charge

The DEMOCRAT is informed by an interested party that Andy Chance went to Ponca yesterday to file complaints against his wife and Fred Brown, charging the parties with adultery, and that the sheriff will arrive today to get the parties. The alleged offense is said to have been committed at Wakefield, at the hotel there, particulars of which have been obtained in the past few days. The DEMOCRAT is told that both Mrs. Chance and her daughter were at Wakefield with Brown, but only the wife and Brown are charged with the offense. Sheriff Maskell is expected to arrive here this morning.

"Contemptible" and "Dirty."

Windsor Tribune:—A contemptible, dirty lie, is being sent out by little wad of big Huse, designed to be thrown to the voters too late for the friends of Judge Graves to deny the insinuating falsehood. One Evans, still smarting over the fact that his own county once repudiated him by an overwhelming majority and elected Graves, makes a statement that at one time, in Omaha, he did not see Mr. Graves buy a ticket. He dares not say that no ticket was bought, but simply that he did not see it done. Yet this silly insinuation is circulated to call attention away from the Boyd pass record, and they think the people will not find out the lie in time to register in the polls. But it will not work. This last resort of the railroads to throw slime on an honest man simply shows that no lie is too mean or no tactics too contemptible for them to use in trying to elect the man they have selected to represent them in congress.

College Notes.

Quay Barney came down from Hartington Friday to visit his brother and sister till Monday.

A few students drop out this term for two months' outside work and will return after the holidays. A number of new students will enroll Monday and Tuesday. Attendance next term will be larger than this.

Mrs. Pile entertained the members of the faculty and the teachers of the city schools Wednesday at a 6 o'clock dinner. The evening was pleasantly spent and all enjoyed getting better acquainted with each other.

On the first Saturday evening of the next term, Nov. 3rd, the musical department will give a recital. This will be followed by a faculty reception for all students, and a short social. The public is invited to the musical.

The Saturday lectures for the term closed last Saturday with an interesting talk by Fred Pile on Eastern colleges. He visited a number of these during his two years' at Colby. Students have appreciated these meetings and attended them all. These lectures will continue the entire year.

The officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons and the officers of the Wayne Lodge were entertained by Pres. and Mrs. Pile last Friday at dinner. Messrs. Baird and Dullinger of Hartington, Cheney and Brown of Creighton, Judge Evans of Dakota City, Mr. Erhart of Stanton were the grand officers present.

The laying of the cornerstone Friday was witnessed by students, teachers and a hundred more visitors. The ceremony was very interesting and the addresses by Rev. Horn and Mr. Welch were excellent. The music by the band was appreciated.

SUPPLEMENT

To the Nebraska Democrat.
Wayne, Neb., Oct. 26, 1895.

An Anti-Pass Record in Black and White

When one remembers that up to five years ago it was considered quite honorable to be owned by the railroads and wear the railroad collar in the shape of a pass, it is the more significant that Judge Graves fully appreciated the evil of this practice, and was unselfish and self-respecting enough to refuse to accept such a favor even at that early day.

The following letters show Judge Graves' position on the subject, and it is so admirable that one cannot escape the conviction that he has a high moral sense of official propriety and honesty. In fact Mr. Graves, according to Ex-Senator Manderson, solicitor of the Burlington railroad, was the only judge in Nebraska save one who was conscientious enough to refuse a Burlington pass:

Burlington & Missouri River Railroad in Nebraska.

Law Department,
Charles E. Manderson,
General Solicitor, Omaha, Neb., Jan. 3, 1900.

Hon. Guy T. Graves,
Pender, Neb.

My Dear Sir:—
I have your favor of the 1st, inst., return annual pass No. 845 for the year 1900 over the Burlington system west of the Missouri river.

I fully honor and appreciate your motives in returning this pass and yet I think it due you and myself that you should understand the reason that prompt action of this sort.

When I came to the Burlington employment four years ago I found that the practice had been sold transportation to all state officials and all judges, both state and federal, through the system. This practice has been continued during the last four years and it is the rarest happening that the transportation is returned. Until this year, but one judge, and he is a district judge, returned his transportation. I wrote him stating that the acceptance of the pass placed him under no obligation to the road or its officials; that the road was prompted to send this transportation recognizing the facts that public officials in this section and particularly judges are poorly paid and it was a legitimate and proper thing for the railroad to contribute transportation to them in the interests of the public service and a contribution to the public rather than to the individual. Upon my making this explanation to the judge in question he accepted and used his transportation.

This year there have been a few who, like yourself, have returned their passes and some whom I have addressed upon the subject upon receiving the explanation retained their transportation. I realize that this is a matter for each individual to decide for him self and I return the pass to you that you may take such action as you deem best with this explanatory letter before you.

So far as this corporation is concerned it does not ask nor does it expect, to receive at the hands of honest and fearless judges, any different treatment from any other litigant. The officials who manage its affairs have every confidence in your sense of right and justice and feel that it will be treated in every respect with fairness and that the accept or objection of transportation will not figure in matters that may come before you for judicial determination.

Assuring you of my high esteem, I am,
Truly yours,
Charles F. Manderson.

For each year following the date of above letter a pass has been sent to Judge Graves with the same results. These passes form an interesting display, none of them having ever been signed or finger marked. They are brand new and in good trim, showing no hard usage. It isn't necessary to print a picture of them. In the old days when the G. O. P. wanted to blacken a man's anti-pass reputation, they would have the railroads issue him a pass which they would photograph, and then print a copy of it showing the pass with the victim's name plainly written on it, regardless of the fact that the victim never used it. The public did not then know that on the back of the pass was a certificate that the holder of the pass must sign before presenting the same for passage. W. H. Thompson suffered from this kind of fraud a few years ago when a candidate for governor in fact it was a favorite method of the railroad tools.

But just ponder on the Ex-Senator's letter as solicitor of a railroad company. Think of a man who once represented Nebraska in the United States Senate taking up so much space trying to convince a district judge that it was honorable to wear the collar of the company while trying to serve all the people. The practice was to give transportation to all state and federal office holders in Nebraska, says the senate. No wonder Nebraska has been crushed under her burdens of oppression when the whole office holding force from top to bottom was owned by the railroads. What sort of justice could a farmer or merchant expect with all of his agents (office holders) in the secret pay of the railroads that carry his products? But the day of the pass holder is passing so quickly it makes a sense of the fellows who still linger in the ranks dazed, Judge Boyd for instance, is all in a whirl, his pass record confronting him on every turn. He even tries to get comfort out of it by openly admitting his evil practices, saying he did use the pass up till it was nominated for congress, and asks if it isn't mainly to admit it. He, in fact, shouts it from the housetops.

A few days ago a friend told him that it was very interesting for a maiden who had had her vertice and had reformed to keep mum about it, than to brazenly herald it to the world and declare it womanly.
