County School Notes.

(By County Supt. Littell)

Mr. Hans Hansen will succeed his father, Richard Hansen as moderator of district 64.

The proceeds of Miss Henderson's entertainment in district 83 increased the library fund $15.55.

In a spelling match in district No. 67 held Feb. 16, Fern Davidson and Bartus Brandt won the laurels.

Miss Agnes Richardson and her school will entertain the public Friday evening Feb. 22, at her school house in district 16.

Grades from the state department are sent out from this office on the date they are received. Applicants for certificates can save postage by bearing this fact in mind.

The school in district 32 will give an entertainment Feb. 22. Miss McGill who teaches in this district gave a similar entertainment last year and made something over $50 for their library fund.

Miss Burson writes: "The pupils of district No. 40 will give a program and box social Friday evening March 1st. The proceeds will go towards buying an organ for the school. Everybody invited."

H. R. No. 356 provides for at least seven months school in all school districts of the state. Districts that heretofore have been unable to provide for seven months of school will be aided by their share of the $50,000 appropriation which the bill carries with it as means to make it possible for the weak districts to comply with the proposed law.

The free high school bill mentioned in these columns last week passed the committee of the whole in the senate February 15th and its exact duplicate H. R. No. 194 was recommended for passage by the house committee on the public schools. This bill in all probability becomes a law, unless considerable pressure is brought to bear within the next two weeks.

Several school patrons from different parts of the county have risen in righteous indignation and protested against the practice of some teachers who drill their pupils for special occasions during school hours. It may be that some of these same patrons would object if their children were kept after school hour for the same purpose. However, we are of the opinion that it is wiser and better to do most of the practicing after school hours, owing to the crowded condition of our programs.

The County Corn Growing Contest was decided February 16. The following were the winners in the contest for the greatest quantity raised from the 500 kernels sent out from this office last spring:

Willie Buetow, Wayne raised	300
Fred Green, Hoskins	300
Lester Dew, Hilger	298
Hazen Adkins, Wayne	276
Ernest Schluns, Carroll	275
Hirst Pond, Wayne	275

Corn Contest continued: The prizes offered on quantity: Dan Harrington Clothing Company, an over coat; Pres. Pile, a scholarship valued at $10; Walter Gaebler Hardware & Furniture Co., of Winside, a Stevens rifle; Marsteller & Peterson Hardware Co., a shot gun; Wayne State Bank, cash $5; County Superintendent, cash $5.

Senator Chas. H. Randall has introduced a bill in the senate, known as S. F. No. 248 providing "For an act prescribing terms of contracts under which public school districts shall employ teachers and providing means of enforcing the same." A part of Sec 1 reads as follows: "A teacher who breaks his or her contract with a public school district without first being released by a majority of the board shall have his or her certificate revoked by the authority issuing the same, which revocation shall make such teacher ineligible to be legally certified by any authority whatsoever in this state for a period of one year."

Sec. 2, of the same bill: "Except in a vacancy, it shall be illegal for a public school district in this state to enter into a contract with a teacher for less than a full term of school held in that district in any one year. Any public school district may at its discretion enter into contract with a teacher for a term not to exceed three years. Where a public school district contracts with a teacher for less than a full term of school held in that district in any one year, except in the case of vacancy, there shall be withheld from his share of the state apportionment of school moneys an amount equal to that required to pay the teacher for the remainder of the full term at the minimum salary provided in this act."

Sec. 3, provides for a minimum salary for teachers according to the grade of certificates held. Teachers holding third grade, or emergency certificates shall not receive less than $20 per month. Those having a second grade with merely "passing" grades shall not be paid less than $35 per month. Teachers having a "with honor" or "with credit" certificate and having at least one year's experience shall receive not less than $40 per month for the first year teaching in any district, and $42.50 per month for the second year's teaching in the same district, and $45 per month for the third year's teaching in the same district. Teachers who have had two or more years of experience and hold

A Peculiar Incident

Last Friday morning when O. A. King called for his mail, among the letters was one from Herbert M. Richmond, of Exeter, Nebraska. Mr. Richmond is a perfect stranger to King, but it seems that Mr. Richmond had a dream one night and upon rising the next morning put his dream in verse and sent it to O. A.

A Miner's Dream.

Luck has come my way at last, pard;
Listen, and I'll tell you how.
You gave me half your money once
And I'll repay it now.
I have always been a miner,
Working day by day for gold;
I had a good mine partner,
But was starving, and I sold.
It brought a little money,
So I left the mines for home,
And settled on the farm, Jack,
But my thoughts would ever roam.
One night as I lay dreaming,
A man wearing robes of gold
Appeared beside my bed;
He seemed a man both wise and old.
He spoke, "I am King Solomon;
Go not to dig for gold;
Money makes more if handled well,
I leave thee this." Behold!
A paper fluttered to my side,
I took it up and read
Then looked around in mute surprise—
No man stood by my bed.
I woke; the paper was not there,
But I had read it well;
My memory clung to the words
As to a magic spell;
They told me of King Solomon,
The mine that was to be
The best that ever gave its wealth
To bless humanity.
Did I buy stock? Of course I did!
I got it for a song,
And now it's climbing up the hill
And taking me along.
We're rich, my boy, I never told
Truer or gladder tale,
For some is yours and some is mine,
And none of it for sale.

In response to the invitation of Mrs. Keefe the members of all the clubs met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wright last Thursday evening. A talk by Mrs. Keefe and a number of the club members was greatly enjoyed.

The ladies aid society of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Duerig on next Thursday afternoon at three o'clock. Mesdames Duerig, Horn and Gildersleeve will serve the society with supper.

The ladies of the Pleasant Valley society, and their husbands, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Wright last Thursday, taking "full baskets" of substantial and delicate eatables, such as only a Nebraska housewife knows how to prepare. The ladies took forcible possession of Mrs. Wright's kitchen and served a dinner fit for the men-angels.

About a dozen ladies served a birthday surprise on Mrs. Jas. Perdue last Saturday afternoon. Her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Stringer, served excellent refreshments. Mrs. Perdue was presented with a number of loving remembrances of the occasion.

A new club, organized by those ladies who do not belong to any of the old ones, has been formed in Wayne. It bears the significant name of "The Cultured Club."

The male auxiliary of the U. D. club give a swell Washington party to the ladies this evening. We are as much in the dark as to where it is to be held as the ladies who have to hunt for it.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Philleo a number of young women assisted by Mrs. Keefe the state president and Mrs. Reed the district president of the Federation, organized what is to be known as the Culture club. This new club will meet on Tuesday afternoon. The members are Mesdames E. B. Philleo, Buchanan, Davis, Surber, Naffziger, Johnson, Lundberg, Littell, Culler, King. They meet with Mrs. Davis next week.

The following program of illustrated songs will be rendered at the M. E. church Sunday evening at 7:30: My Mother's Bible, Miss Farr; Where is my Boy To-night, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson; The Ninety and Nine, Miss Stinson; Tenting on the Old Camp Ground, Ralph Emery; Home, Sweet Home, Alma Farr; Jesus Lover of My Soul, Misses Rennie and Stinson; My Mothers Prayer, Mrs. Main; God be With You Till We Meet again, Mrs. Blair.

A farewell reception was given Tuesday evening at the M. W. A. hall, by the Royal Neighbors, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Royal Wright, who leave shortly for their new home in South Dakota. After a short session of the camp a program was rendered consisting of music, recitations and dialogues. Near the close a useful set of sold silver teaspoons was presented Mr. and Mrs. Wright by Mrs. Crossland, on behalf of the order, in her usual easy and pleasant manner. The program was then concluded with instrumental music rendered by Mr. McNeal and Miss Hattie Weber.

Messrs and Mesdames Bressler, Orr, Davies and Williams entertained the Acme club ladies and their husbands at a four course 6 o'clock dinner last Tuesday. The dining room presented a gala appearance, being decorated and festooned with the national colors, while the unique center piece of each table was a log of a cherry tree entwined by amylax and ferns with a souvenir Mt. Vernon hatchet stuck in the top. The other rooms were decorated in club colors, Jonquils being the flowers used. The evening entertainment consisted of short sketches of a number of Civil war songs and folk songs illustrated by a stanza of each being sung by Mrs. Blair accompanied by Messrs Davies on the piano and Weber on the violin. Each gentleman related some reminiscence of the war. While the talk by Mrs. Keefe ended a most delightful evening, one of the "red letter" days of the Acme club. The out of town guests were Mrs. Keefe, of West Point, president of the State Federation, Mrs. Reed of Madison, vice president of the third district of the Federation, and Mrs. Neihardt of Bancroft, a former Acme club member.

Women's Clubs.

A sketch of what women's clubs have done for Wayne. The first club was organized in Wayne 22 years ago. The following poem was written and read by Mrs. Henry Ley at the literary entertainment given at the College last evening:

It is often asked by strangers,
"If Wayne is a club town?"
We answer, "Yes," but modestly say
"Of not very great renown."
I will tell you all right here
What the clubs have done for Wayne
Men say, we stretch it I fear Much we have accomplished just the same.
When the first club of Wayne had its meeting
The public had much to say,
The boys they laughed; the men they jeered,
But all in their good natured way
We will all be neglected now, no doubt
With our dinners and suppers to get,
When we think of all the housework
We wish they had never met.
But as time went by and no man died
Of this dreadful neglect
We heard them say in whispers low—
"They did better than we could expect."
And when we raised the necessary money
To put down a good sidewalk
They had the grace to feel ashamed
Because they had made too much talk.
It is so different with most men
When we women brag what we can do,

You must first show them the money,
Before they'll have confidence in you.
So we went to work with a right good will—

That was years ago, and we're working here still.

In order to make money
We have tried almost every plan.

But find we've always had the best success

In filling the inner man.
We've given dinners and suppers by the score

For by this method we always made more,

And our treasury grew fatter than ever before.

Now having made the funds necessary
We decided to start a public library.

Our start was small just a few hundred red books

Our cash being limited, we cared not for looks,

We felt quite confident if we worked by ourselves

That with constant labor we could soon fill our shelves

We have eleven hundred and seventy-five books in all.

Strangers, when you come to Wayne give us a call.

We have a librarian, just up to date.

And our books are the latest, I am pleased to relate

We've also succeeded in bringing to our town

The very best speakers of the day.

In having the regular lecture course

And the pleasure of seeing Shake-spear's best play,

For the best of talent, we're always willing to pay.

We sent money to the negroes for their education,

And to the Orphans' home, another organization

Oh! we have done wonderful things.

In our own imagination.

For almost every poor generation,
And we've brought the men to a realization

That we're worthy now of their better consideration.

Though it all have the feeling,
Make a success we must,

And in all our dealings
Be upright and just.

With this for our motto—
What else can we need,

With patience and labor
We can't help but succeed.

When asked to write a paper,
I exclaimed with a sigh—

Oh! I can never do that Mine are always so dry.

Then a happy thought struck me
Of our past year's work

And why should I from a duty shrink
Our study was of fountains and poets of the lake

Why not all this water just for my sake—

There's no need of my paper being dry

With all this lovely water supply
There are many lovely ladies in this
Wayne town of ours—

Don't smile and say I'm just throwing flowers,

I am perfectly sincere and know that I am right.

For a town of its size, they're unusually bright.

In all the country round
A more intelligent class of ladies could hardly be found.

We may not all be handsome when it comes to looks,

But we make up for it in our knowledge of books.

College Notes.

Mrs. Keefe, President of the State Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Neihardt of Bancroft, and Mrs. Reed of Madison were the guests of Mrs. Pile this week.

Mr. C. L. Culler visited the College Monday morning. He conducted the chapel exercises and gave a short talk to the students. Mr. Culler is interested in young men and women and all were glad to hear him.

An enjoyable social was held Saturday evening, the Crescent Literary society having arrangements in charge. The physical culture room is well adapted to entertainments of this kind.

Several former students were on the hill Saturday, visiting friends and looking over the new building. Among those noticed were Misses McGee of Maignet, Blanche Goss of Wayne and Claire Coleman of Wayne.

Classes have been reciting in the new building for a week, and everything is moving along smoothly. Examinations will be held in all the classes this week, and in most cases, good results are looked for.

The Art Exhibit which is being held in the physical culture room is well attended by the students. The pictures are of great value, not only from a financial point of view, but educational as well.

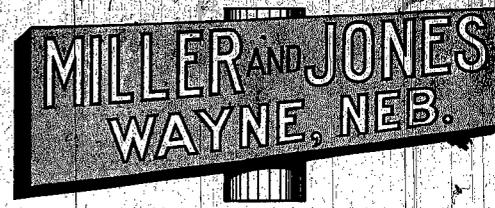

Those in the Commercial department who have completed the work of the course received their diplomas at chapel Wednesday morning. There are fifteen who have completed the prescribed work. There will be another class of graduates next term.

The graduating classes met Saturday and elected the following officers for next term: President, N. B. Mack of Pender; vice-president, Mammel Boshart of Joy; secretary, Mary Williams of Emerson; treasurer, Heyman Rindquist of Royal.

The office force has been busy the past week enrolling the present students, so that time the last of this week may be devoted to the enrolling of new students. The next term begins Tuesday, Feb. 26, and judging from present indications, a large number will be in attendance.

Mr. James Britton spoke to the students Saturday afternoon on the subject "Bankruptcy." Mr. Britton not only explained the details of the Bankruptcy

"Don't trifle with a cold," is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry warm clothing are the proper safeguards against a cold. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established type cold is to the germ of diphtheria what honey is to a bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. Sold by Raymond's drug store.

BY IDA

Who do you want for mayor?
"Gov. Sheldon will veto a Straight Two Cent Fare Bill," was the headline in Tuesday's dailies, and still you people insist that the governor is against the railroads. But the bill has not passed yet.

A recent Washington dispatch says: "Mrs. Nicholas Longworth has a new fad which is sure to be taken up by the women of Washington's smart set. She has discarded all the magnificent jewels received at her wedding and is now wearing only the old-fashioned gems which belonged to her mother." Hully, gee! But even at that Alice would look good.

It seems as if we ought to, in some way, get a national holiday out of the Thaw trial. In the first place it was a trial to the mother, and even since "it" has been trying somebody. Just now the public is being tried, and it seems as if the great event should be commemorated in some way. Let's call it "Dirty Day," and everybody get nasty.

One of the best stories in social circles is on a lady who is trying to "earn" a dollar for that paragonage fund. Every day she does not speak cross to her hubby he gives her a quarter, and whenever she does get mad at the little man she has to give him 10 cents. Latest reports are that the wife is hopelessly in debt, and figuring with Jim Britton, another Presbyterian, for a course in bankruptcy.

With apologies to the Herald prophets, a funny thing happened to the DEMOCRAT scribe the other day. A farmer called me out to his wagon and pulling out his wallet, said in a whisper: "I want you to send me your paper, and you stop the Herald for me." I told him I wasn't looking for a fight and my monkey wrench was badly wrecked, etc., etc., but that made no difference to him. "I don't care if they get mad at you, stop it anyway for me." We fixed the matter up so that I got his money, all right, you bet, by dad.

Isaac was a horse trader. He had a number of horses on hand and was short of feed. He sent young Ike to a near farmer to inquire what he would charge to board the horses. Ike came back with the report that the farmer asked three dollars per head a month. "You must get 'em down, it's too much, talk to 'em again." Ike went and came back saying that the farmer was down to two dollars. He was dispatched off again, the price was still too high. The farmer came down to one dollar half time and the next time to fifty cents per head. "Ah," said the happy father, "they're smart, fifty cents is cheap enough, but go and ask the farmer how much he will allow me for the manure." Ike came back and said "The farmer said that at that price there wouldn't be any manure."

I tried something of that kind with my oldest daughter (who for smartness takes after her ma). Every month she brings home a school card that quotes her as being "excellent" in every study and deportment she gets a dollar, and when "good" appears in any degree she gives me 50c. Up to date the little scamp—with the aid of Miss Cunningham, her teacher,—has gotten all my spare dollars. This is a paid "ad," by dad. The "princess" will pay for it.

The other day one High school girl wrote a note to another girl—so the teacher would see it—saying "Miss and Mr. were driving up hill and they were so heavy the horse got stuck." The teacher, of course, got the note and, it is said, replied to the naughty student that it ain't so. Now, this does not apply to a certain landlord, because as he says he drives two horses.

Child's Burns to Prove Fatal.

The 3 year old son of Ned Lloyd was the victim of a terrible accident last Thursday. The child was heard to scream, being outside the house, and when assistance arrived his clothing was a seething mass of flames. His poor little body was burned up to his chin, and Dr. Lelsinger when called said there was poor chance of the boy surviving. Friday he was very low but heart stimulants were administered, and he is now getting better. It is surmised the little chap was playing with matches.

Today there appears no hope of the child recovering, and it is unlikely he can live but a few hours longer.

As you know I lived in Wayne county about 20 years, and moved close to Pender four years ago. I can't get along without your valuable paper."

Norfolk has withdrawn her petition to the legislature for a state summer normal school. Wayne should send that city a vote of thanks—in a horn.

Morning subject at the Methodist church Sunday will be "The Geometry of Heaven." An illustrated song service will be held in the evening at 7:30.

Wm. Schreiber was down from Hoskins yesterday to see about a car in which to ship his household effects, etc. to Lost Springs, Kansas, where he will farm in the future.

Rev. Parker Smith yesterday united in marriage Miss Elsie Kesterson and Albert D. Marsh, the ceremony taking place at the parsonage. The young couple live in Leslie precinct.

The "Strong Players," Savidge Bros. troupe, held down the boards and played to good houses last week. The show is highly spoken of, Mr. Savidge having a very capable bunch of actors.

The mild weather has caused lots of sickness in town and country. According to our Wilbur correspondent the schools have been closed in that precinct on account of diphtheria.

Next Wednesday is the date of Dr. Cadwell's next visit to Wayne. The last visit of the noted specialist she was kept very busy and her patients are requested to call early next Wednesday.

Robt. Priedhard of Carroll was a passenger to Allen this morning to attend a hog sale. Robert is gathering up the finest bunch of Duroc Jerseys in Northeast Nebraska. At Lincoln last week he paid $210 for a brood sow.

C. J. Rundell has just had patented a spade and shovel grip, a swivel handle that fastens above the shovel of the shoveler. It is a simple affair that ought to go into general use, and likely to make C. J. independently wealthy.

T. W. Morn and family have been unable to get to Wayne from South Dakota the past week owing to wash-outs and train wrecks between Chamberlaine and Sioux City. He wired yesterday that they would get home the last of the week.

W. R. King of Winslow was a passenger to southern Kansas this afternoon, having received a telegram this morning that his brother was killed there by a threshing machine engine he was operating, going through a bridge.

D. S. McKicker is looking longingly for some 20 below zero weather. Mac has only about half his usual crop of ice harvested and ice will be ice next summer if the coalmen don't get another good pull at our leg this winter. In either event the public is in for a limb-stretching.

The notorious Harry Hirsch, dressed in the "height of the bowery," paraded up and down the depot platform on Monday evening, with that high-headed swagger he was wont to assume when all mankind is too infinitesimally small for his recognition. Harry has evidently struck a new gait or "fence."

Kate & Porter are taking an average of about twenty orders a day for X-ray incubators, and they will be able to furnish daily a fraction of them for this season. There ought to have been a quarter million dollars invested in a factory last year, than a million could have been made out of the enterprise.

Shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Porter left last Thursday morning for Ponca, a telegram was received for him stating his mother was dead. The funeral was held Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Porter returning to Wayne Monday morning. Deceased was fifty-nine years old, her husband, Dr. Porter, being a well-known physician.

Hats Off to Judge Welch.

The Wayne delegation to Lincoln, or part of it, got home this morning, bringing a district judge—A. A. Welch—with them. Mr. Welch received the appointment yesterday from Gov. Sheldon and is being warmly congratulated by his friends. Mr. Welch has always been so unfortunate in politics that it did appear possible it was not probable that he would not get the appointment.

The official proclamation will not be made public by the governor until Saturday.

The Methodist parsonage was a veritable bee hive Saturday afternoon when more than 100 of the juniors assembled to enjoy a social hour. Miss Nellie Strickland won the honors in an intellectual contest while Master Agler received the highest mark for his shrewdness in seeking the lost Gake, sandwiches and pickles were served.

Jos Overman was a visitor from Hoskins Tuesday. Joe traded horses with Lou Becker, then Becker wanted to trade back and Joe wanted $25. A compromise was made by Becker giving Overman an order for 50 bushels of oats. When Joe went after the oats Lou just laughed at him, so Joe came to Wayne to take proper measures to secure possession of the good horse again.

As an evidence of the plethoric condition of the farmers' pockets these days, it is only necessary to glance over the DEMOCRAT's list of readers. Some of them are checked up to 1910, but it is an uncommon thing to strike a two-year gait ahead. They either like the paper or want the publisher to skip out with the bundle. Yes, there are a few still in arrears, but they'll come round in the spring.

The Wayne Herald is going into the plant contest business. We wish our neighbor success with the proposition and properly conducted the scheme is a great subscription getter, but the DEMOCRAT prefers putting in all its energies into making a newspaper, and have the public come and buy if the public wants it. There is plenty of grief in the newspaper business itself without trying to give somebody something for nothing.

Ask your neighbors how they like the new coffee—the German American, with the bird on every package. It is harder to please the public in coffee than in almost any other article, but in three weeks time several hundred of the Wayne families have found perfect satisfaction using the German American brands. Try them at once and the vexing problem of "good coffee" will be solved for all the time. Sold only by Furchner, Duerig & Co.

Our Correspondents.

There are some oddities in the world connected with the sphere of woman that deserve mention. One is that women are everywhere. They are everywhere. Everywhere the passenger meets the woman conductor armed with her bag and her thermos, the American girl and as her masculine competitor, and much more. In the shoe stores and in the department stores, and in the telegraph offices in every town, young women are invariably the chief operators. And they do their work well. They do it to offset this in a clean hotel or boarding house and in many residences men do the work of the kitchen and the laundry and always "takes care" of the sleeping rooms in the hotels of the city.

A Bangor man, says the Kennebec Journal, in his effort to describe the coldness of the world, spoke of a shed that was "too cold to keep wood in," and this was the limit until this morning. A blizzard from the Mount Desert concerning the weather down there last week. A fisherman of Otter Lake, in the state of Maine, was killed by the warmth of a gasoline heater in his home that it jumped into the boat and set it on fire. A man in the city of Detroit, went to the barn to water his stock. He fell and upset a bucket of water on his head. The water hit his boots first to the floor. He had to take his boots off to get away.

The annual report of the surgeon-general of the United States army, covering the death of the Western States army has first place, with 28.8 in every thousand admitted to medical treatment. In the German army the rate is 10.5. In the British army it is 1.8. In the Dutch 2.4 and in the British 2.1.

Rich deposits of asbestos covering hundreds of acres and containing thousands of tons of the valuable mineral have been discovered in the mountains of northern Luzon, Philippines. Samples examined in the bureau of geology of the United States department of the interior, and pronounced excellent in quality with only 1 to 2 per cent. of silica. The deposits are found in the form of veins and in the fields of asbestos are within a few miles of good harbors.

Military circles have been convulsed over a case of discipline that recalls the story of the man who refused to meet the impossible obstacle. An officer ordered an enlisted man to go to church and the man refused. The officer ordered the man to go to the mess and the enlisted man had no right to refuse. This extraordinary situation has been solved by the commandant who sent the man to another post as a mark of disapproval, and sending the officer to another post on temporary duty.

It costs much money to get a piece of legislation through the British parliament. The government has proposed a scheme for a part of the country where their undertaking would be a good every enterprise and contribute to the wealth of the whole country. The bill ought to have gone through almost no outlay of money. But the bill is given an estimated cost the sum of $2,000,000 before a nod was turned or a brick laid.

How sensitive deer are in the matter of their ears is shown by the hearing of a deer at Pellham, N. D., where three men were charged with slaying in a deer pen in Buehler park. The deer heard the shot and pulled down from the racks about ten shillings worth of hay, which the deer would not go near the pens as the men had slept there.

RICH WOMEN CAUSE RUIN OF STORE GIRLS

Bishop Williams in Drastic Letter Sermon Scores Femi- nine Members of Society.

RAPS THE BARGAIN LUST

When Country Maids Try to Live a
$4 a Week, the "Something Else" Suggestion is Sure to Come.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 19.—Bishop Williams at a noon Lenten service yesterday, attacked largely by society women, declared that the ruin of the girls employed in the big department stores.

"The girl goes to the city," Bishop Williams said, "and begins to work in a department store managed by representative Christian men. The store is about $4 a week. She cannot support herself on this.

"Then there comes the suggestion and I have heard it backed up by the actual words of the so-called Christian employes that there are other things she can do."

"Who is responsible? For my sister, in your unholy lust for bargain goods, have made conditions such that your less than modest sister is crushed to the mud of the pavements."

LEARN TO WINK AND WINK WELL, SAYS PROFESSOR

Starling Tells London Institute Eyelid Practice Fits Girls to Be Wives.

London, Feb. 19.—Professor Starling caused a sensation by glorifying in "Mr. of winking" in a lecture on "Eyes," in London institute.

"The eyes," he said, "are a real exercise to wink, although blinking is very simple. The effectiveness of fine eyes can be measured by the number of winks. The beauty of Spanish women's eyes lies in their peculiar gift in this connection. In the present day women devote some of the time to the management of their eyelids, but the best fitted for matrimony."

SNOW IN A BALLROOM RUINS $500,000 OF GOWNS

Lights Go Out at Swell Dance of Philadelphia Bachelors and Cold Balls Peit Revelers.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 19.—The bachelors' ball, the most elaborate and magnificent function of Philadelphia society, was held at its close in the "feature of the evening" ruined $500,000 worth of gowns.

It was a miniature snowstorm, coming with absolute darkness, that wreathed heaven, turned a snow storm, not exactly the kind of a one that the buds and younger matrons of Philadelphia society appreciated.

"The bachelors' ball is even more exclusive than the famous assembly of the city," it is stated in the program, "and it is surprising that it has been so remarkable. The lights in the ballroom were suddenly extinguished, and the dancers found themselves in the heart of a snow storm—but the dance went merrily on.

It became darker and then suddenly the lights came on, and the snow was found to be actual snowflakes, around which could be found no romance. For five minutes the dancers were pecked with these and it suddenly turned to a snow storm and the surprise was over.

It was estimated $500,000 worth of costumes were ruined.

WINDOW JUMPING MANIA PUTS GIRL IN A HOSPITAL

Viola Helms, of St. Louis, Al- ways Thinks She Is on the Ground Floor.

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 19.—With both legs broken by a fall of fifty feet, Miss Viola Helms, a patient in the city hospital, is a dancer of the "ground floor." She has been in the observation ward, jumped from a third-story window of the hospital Tuesday night.

The girl is the daughter of Mrs. Sophia Allen, 323 Laclede avenue. She had been employed as a stenographer in a Kansas City firm about three months ago when her mind began to wander.

On one occasion she tried to poison herself, and several times she attempted to jump out of windows. Just before she was taken to the hospital she jumped from a window in her home and sprained her ankle.

When asked why she jumped, she declared that she was in the habit of doing that, and also that she thought she was on the ground floor.

MAKES "LUCY," "LUCILLE" MAN ASK DIVORCE

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 19.—The elaboration of her baptismal name "Lucy" into "Lucille" is but one instance, declares Frederick B. Hammel, of the city court, of the mania which has seized the wife before and after she forsook in 1902, the manly simplicity of Platinium, for the more elaborate name of St. Louis. The couple is reciprocally suing for divorce.

MARK TWAIN APPEARS IN A WHITE DRESS SUIT

New York, Feb. 19.—Mark Twain has had made for him an evening suit of white broadcloth as immaculate as newly fallen snow. The occasion covered with the same material. When he attains himself he undoubtedly will wear with the same material as the white dress suit. The genial humorist has long been in rebellion against the somber claret-brown effects borrowed from the court of France. Mr. Clemens has decided that his new evening wear shall be supplemented by a white Spanish cloak which can be thrown on.

WRECK ON NEW YORK CENTRAL FATAL TO 22

New York, Feb. 19.—Twenty-two dead, two fatally hurt and 145 other more or less seriously injured is the result of the wreck of an electric express train from the New York Central at Two Hundred and Fifth street, and West End avenue Saturday night. The train, which was carrying 1,000 passengers, according to hospital and police reports, was wrecked at about 11:30 p. m. and the death list may yet be heard it backed up by the actual words of the so-called Christian employes that there are other things she can do. The cause of the wreck is a matter of speculation. All night inspectors of the New York Central department, Coroner Schwannecke and Assistant District Attorney Smythe, together with other members of the district attorney's staff, endeavored to ascertain what brought about the derailment. At the West End avenue police station were eleven mangled bodies, three of them unidentified. The cause of the wreck is a matter of speculation. All night inspectors of the New York Central department, Coroner Schwannecke and Assistant District Attorney Smythe, together with other members of the district attorney's staff, endeavored to ascertain what brought about the derailment.

COMMERCIAL COMMISSION DECIDES IT WILL NOT LET HIM TESTIFY AT ALL

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—Edward H. Harriman, president of the Union Pacific system, was refused permission to testify before the Interstate Commerce commission during its current investigation of the affairs of the great organization, which he is commanding spirit. When the administration of the New York some weeks ago, Mr. Harriman had been summoned to testify, but was refused permission to do so. He was then asked to go to Mr. Harriman's home and have a semi-private hearing, but this was also refused. He was then asked to go to New York at a later date and hear what Mr. Harriman had to say in the most public fashion. Other officials of the Harriman roads were also summoned to testify, but were refused permission to do so. The fact is the government is in earnest in this fight on the Harriman roads, and believes it now has enough evidence to bring in a bill against the roads, and the greatest interest has been manifested in the coming session of the Interstate Commerce commission. But it is not out of consideration for the feelings of Mr. Harriman that the government is refusing to let him testify. The fact is the government is in earnest in this fight on the Harriman roads, and believes it now has enough evidence to bring in a bill against the roads, and the greatest interest has been manifested in the coming session of the Interstate Commerce commission.

Winside News,

From the Tribune
Mrs. Grace Cavanaugh goes to Omaha Sunday to be gone all the week buying millinery goods for Carter's store.

There will be a masquerade ball at the Winside opera house, Feb. 22d, to which all are invited. An orchestra from Emerson will furnish the music.

Geo. Jones and wife, parents of Miss Edith Jones, our popular assistant at the post office, left this week for Wayne where they have rented a house and will make their home.

Wm. Thielhold and family have returned to Winside, his car having arrived Tuesday night. He went to Kansas last fall, but didn't seem to like the country and so returned to a good steed.

Ag. Schrumpp has ordered nine acres for emigrants, most of whom will leave Winside next week. Men that want cheap land have to get it some other place, as most of the land in Wayne county is commanding a large price.

Louie and Arthur Bleich, cousins of Gus Bleich, arrived last Thursday from Levit, Neb., for a visit at the Bleich home. Arthur has decided to remain in Winside and attend school. He has only been in this country about six months.

Since witnessing the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde performances last week, some of our brave ladies, those who are not even afraid of a mouse, dare not go down cellar for potatoes without taking the lamp, two or three members of the family and all the cats and dogs around the house.

"O where is my wondering boy tonight" should be the watchword of the mothers—yes, and fathers too, of Winside now days before the marshal does his duty some night and runs a few of them into the city basille. People all over town are not going to be disturbed by rowdism without making some complaint. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Hoskins News

From the Headlights:

Miss Grace Bell went to Wayne Saturday and is spending the week with her sister, Lotie at the Normal.

Mrs. Sonnekin returned from Norfolk Monday, where she visited a brother and is now visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Zutz.

You can imagine how excited Gus Schroeder was when he received the following note from one of his much valued patrons: "Please do not send me any more meat yet, I butchered myself."

R. M. Waddell arrived from Sioux Rapids Ia., Tuesday evening and is visiting his father, A. T. Waddell and his sister Mrs. Chas. Long. He will go to Meadow Grove and Loretta to visit relatives before returning to his home.

On Tuesday afternoon a meeting was held at the Woodman hall for the purpose of trying to create an interest in building an elevator in Hoskins to be owned and operated by the farmers. A. J. Ziemer was elected president and D. E. Nellor secretary.

On last Saturday Mrs. C. E. Smith severed her connection with the hotel, turning it over to the Shultz sisters and on Sunday left for Florence, Neb., where she will spend the balance of the winter. As to what she will do in the future she is undecided.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lanckben of Saturday and only lived thirty minutes. The infant was taken to Randolph Monday morning for burial. Mr. and Mrs. Ladgebahn certainly have the sympathy of the entire community in this their sad misfortune.

The Henry Miller farm near Bega was recently sold to Chris Maas of Wakefield. The purchase price was $65 an acre. Mr. Maas intends to move to the farm in a few days. He was here on Friday and bought several hundred bushels of oats of Oliver Hanson for feed and seed.

T. E. Barnhardt has been selected assessor of Hoskins precinct, Joe Dobbin of Garfield, James Hamilton of Hancock will each check over their neighbors' property next year. County Assessor J. W. Ziegler, is to be congratulated upon his selection of so competent men in these three precincts.

John Malm a cousin of the Asplin boys arrived from Sweden Thursday of last week. He is a bright looking young man of 18. The day after arriving he started to school, which goes a long way to show that he is of the desirable kind of emigrant who will make a good citizen and the country will be better off with his being in it.

STRAHAN PRECINCT.

Wm. Kleper is attending German school in Wayne this winter.

Ed Dolan who has resided on the Pullen ranch the past year will move to Dakota this spring.

Mr. Ira Anson has rented the J. C. Jensen farm for the coming year which looks rather suspicious.

Mr. Haugh and his father in law, Mr. Fox, have rented the place H. H. Tangeman has been farming the past five years.

The house occupied by Ray Hurst has been moved to a higher location, where they will feel safer when we have another flood like last spring.

This fine weather has greatly delayed corn shelling, and the farmers intending to move are wishing for colder weather so as to get their corn shelled before that time.

Farmers are getting ready to move as the first of March is approaching. Moving is very expensive, but can be largely off-set by leaving behind no address and a careful selection of unpaid bills.

Miss Leonora Tangeman spent Saturday and Sunday of last week in District No. 39, where she caught her fall and winter. She spent the bus supper given by Miss Mable Tucker, who is teaching there now was a great success. The proceeds amounted to $31.75 which will be used to purchase a bell and other improvements for the school house.

Miss Grace Patton, who with her parents, moved to Willow City, N. D., about three years ago writes: "This is the last Thursday in January. It was about four feet on the level over the fence posts in some places. The drifts are so high in our trees that we can not see the road. There has been only one train here in eleven days, and that was found up the line for four days. There is no sugar, yeast, kerosene, coal or wood to be had in Willow City or any other town for miles around, and as there are no trains there is a perfect famine. People burn any thing they can get a hold of. Schools are all closed all around for lack of fuel. Two car loads of coal came in late Saturday night and before Sunday noon it was all gone. Papa cut up one of our granerys and we burn that. We consider ourselves lucky to what some people who have to burn straw. When we can get anything it takes $10 to buy a ton of coal, $9 a cord of wood, $4 a sack for a flour." This makes us feel very thankful that we still live in Nebraska.

Press for Sale.

Owing to making a change in the location of the DEMOCRAT plant and the need of a press to do book work on, we have for sale a Col. quarto cylinder press, that has done service in the newspaper business a good many years but is in good condition to do newspaper or bill work. This press would cost five or six hundred bought from the foundry as it now stands, but it can be purchased of the DEMOCRAT for less than its real worth.
