Commissioners' Proceedings.

Wayne, Nebraska, July 25th, 1907. Board of Equalization met as per adjournment. Present, R. Russell and J. F. Stanton, commissioners, J. W. Ziegler, county assessor, and Chas. W. Reynolds, Clerk. Absent, E. W. Cullen, Commissioner, and chairman of Board of Equalization.

On motion R. Russell was elected chairman of this meeting. On motion it is hereby ordered that 10 per cent raise be made on the assessed valuation of all personal property in Deer Creek Precinct, Wayne County, Nebraska, not including the Village of Carroll.

On motion it is hereby ordered that the stock of the Nebraska Land Company be assessed individually to the resident stockholders.

Whereas, on June 11th 1906 a protest having been filed by the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Ry. Co., objecting to the assessment of Lot 1, Block 2, Winside, for the reason that it is used for right of way and station ground purposes and therefore not subject to local taxation.

On motion same is ordered stricken from the list for the year 1907.

Whereas, on June 11th, 1907 a protest having been filed by Charles L. Culler, showing a gross error in the assessment of Lot 1, Block 6 Lakes Add. to Wayne, wherein it was assessed at $2000, and asking that the same be reduced.

On motion the assessment is reduced to $

Whereas, on the 12th, day of June 1907, Lena Stodden by her agent A. N. Stodden, filed a protest against an assessment of $1635 for the reason that the same is too high, made so by the raise of $300.00 on saloon fixtures, and the assessing of a cash register at $100, by the County Assessor of Wayne County, and asking that the assessment, on saloon fixtures be reduced to the original figures and the cash register to $75.00

It was moved and seconded that the protest be rejected. Voted as follows: Ayes, Ziegler, Russell and Reynolds; Nays, Stanton. Whereupon the protest was declared rejected.

Comes now the Village of Carroll, by Richard Closson, its attorney and complains that John Beach, has bought 2 acres of land off the east side of the S. W. 1/4 of S. W. 1/4 of sec. 27, 27, 2 and that 95 per cent of his house is located on the said two acres and should be assessed as property in the said Village of Carroll. That the reasonable value of the house and the land is $800.00 and that the personal property is of the value of $1865.

After due consideration the Board orders that the house and real estate with the valuation of $800.00 and the personal property to the value of $1865 be assessed as in the corporate limits of the Village of Carroll.

Board orders a valuation of $765 placed on a part of n. w. 1/4 of n. w. 1/4 of sec. 22, 25, 4, including a residence, belonging to Fred Panning.

Whereupon Board adjourned to August 8th 1907.

CHAS. W. REYNOLDS, Clerk.

Hobart M. Gable Piano Character

Character is as essential in a first-class piano as in a first-class man. The difference is in kind and not in degree. In its relation to the Piano, character means tone, the soul of the instrument; the one trait that gives it a distinct individuality. To win lasting appreciation a piano must have this sort of character. If the tone be musical and sympathetic the effect is enduring because it appeals to an aesthetic sense that never tires of beauty in sound.

R. P. Williams and wife left Tuesday, he to the reunion at Neligh and Mrs. Williams to visit her son Richard at Elgin.

Martin Kirwan's sale of western horses was well patronized last Saturday. The animals averaged about $40 per head.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Siemers last Saturday morning, which accounts for those long, steady steps of its daddy.

"Dad" Miller left Tuesday for the far east. "Dad" is a pretty lively boy for a 70-year-old, and has lots of the young sports beat a city block.

H. W. Pond and wife were up at Wausa over Sunday visiting at the home of his niece, Mrs. Elmer Noakes. Wednesday they left for their home at Sanborn, N. D.

Al Sherbahn's bird dog was run over by the train last Friday morning and had the bark knocked out of him for keeps. Undertaker Short was master of ceremonies at the funeral.

Leslie Welch accompanied E. Cunningham west last week. Les goes to Idaho to work for Banker Moore, of Omaha, expecting to take a job with a surveying gang. A little roughness will do the young man good if he doesn't sow too many wild oats.

A big barn dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Westerhouse last Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Westerhouse have the most beautiful country home in Nebraska.

A. G. Howard and wife left first of the week for Gothenburg, and after a short visit they will go to Idaho, their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Howard will be greatly missed by Wayne people.

Some of the young people served a serehade on John Thieson and his girl last Monday night. John says they were a little early with the goods, but he offered to "buy" for the crowd, anyway.

Auction dates for E. Cunningham can be made at this office, for any time after Nov. 15th. If you contemplate having a sale next winter better get booked now for this veteran auctioneer if you want him.

A crowd of young and old people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Thompson last Wednesday evening. The evening was spent with dancing and playing games, continuing until late hours of the morning. Light refreshments were served.

Frank Brink, the alleged slayer of Bessie Newton, at Ponca, last February, got away from the asylum at Norfolk Monday, a free man. The law is certainly a farce in this instance, and it is the best incentive to "brain storms," and murder that could be devised.

R. Ritz, who lives near Altona, last week bought the 320-acre farm of J. D. King, that Dennis Kelleher lives on. The price paid was $70 per acre for the half section. It is a fine price and a fine farm. This deal puts J. D. out of business in Wayne County. He is now selling his household goods, etc., getting ready to move to California.

City Councilman Craven takes just exceptions to an item relating to the council proceedings, as published last week by the DEMOCRAT. Mr. Craven is quoted as saying that he "had been unable to find anyone who knew anything about the bill," and there the article rests in so far as Mr. Craven is concerned, for it was the DEMOCRAT's comment that it was "simply a sample of the business methods last year." While in the explanation business the DEMOCRAT might also state that it was not its purpose to take a "slam" at any of the old councilmen, that the "gig" was meant only for Ex-Mayor Piepenstock, whom "the DEMOCRAT elected to that office" a little over a year ago, and for which, we are not yet ashamed of, even if William did make, as some people believe, a very poor go of it.

SUPPLEMENT To the Nebraska Democrat Wayne, Neb., July 4, 1907.

Dan Roush's Sudden Death.

It was about two years ago that Dan Roush told the DEMOCRAT man that the doctors said he, Roush, might drop off any time owing to a diseased heart. Tuesday afternoon Dan was about town as usual; but when driving to his residence for supper had an attack that made him stop on the road until it left him. After eating the evening meal he suddenly lapsed into unconsciousness and passed to the other shore. His daughter, Mrs. Milt La-Croix, sprang on a horse and made a wild race the half mile to Main street for a doctor, but there was no earthly help for the stricken man. Mrs. Roush has been in a serious condition since the death of her husband, and therefore the funeral will be held at the residence. Deceased was one of the pioneers of Wayne county, honest and respected by all who knew him.
Jake Roush and sister, Mrs. Cunningham, arrived today from Elm Creek, and another sister, Mrs. Nat Long, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Long are here from Iowa to attend the funeral.
The funeral will be held tomorrow forenoon (Friday) at ten o'clock.

Muth Bound Over.

At a preliminary hearing held before Judge Hunter Tuesday afternoon the charge against Charles Meyer was dismissed, but John Muth was bound over to the district court in the sum of $200.00 on a charge of assaulting Fred Wrobel with intent to do great bodily injury. But little evidence was given except the statement of Dr. Leisenring, who attended Wrobel's injuries and the story of plaintiff and that of Muth's companion, whom, it appears, had been largely instrumental in stopping the fight. No defense was offered, but Attorney Davis, for defendant offered a motion that the court dismiss the defendant for the reason that not sufficient evidence had been offered to constitute such complaint, and further, that the prosecution had failed to show the assault had been committed in Wayne county. In a statement to the court County Attorney Wilbur said he would dislike very much to have defendant discharged because of any negligence on his part; that he believed the evidence given made it plain the alleged crime took place in Wayne county, but if not he requested to re-open and dispose of that technically, which Judge Hunter allowed him to do, and then bound the young man over. It appears there had been more or less quarrelling among the parties previous to the incident at issue; it was also not proven that defendant used brass knuckles, as heretofore stated, but the condition of the defendant and the time and place made a serious matter. Young Muth realizes the situation he is in now and is mighty sorry for it. He objects to the statement that he is a "bad man," and tells the DEMOCRAT he never had any such trouble before, also denying that he used "knuckles," although appearances are that he did use some sort of a weapon.

Use Your Machine On This

Sam Temple last week received the following letter from D. E. Miller, Red Deer, Alberta, Canada:
I promised to write you a letter soon as I got one of them "Swiss Pieces". Well, Mr. Temple I have falled so far, the only one I got was at home, the only difference is, that it is the same old way as it was in Nebraska.
Well, I am well satisfied with my home out here and like the country fine, every thing looks very prosperous, and people are making plenty of money. I like this town as well as I did in Wayne, there are some very nice people living here, the town is about the size of Wayne, has electric lights, water works and sewerage, and well located on the banks of the Red Deer River. I went down to the river last night and caught a fish that weighed 6 pounds. I wish you were here with your cigar store, I can't get any good tobacco out here, but the "BOOZE" is sure fine, there are 4 saloons in this city. You ought to come out and buy some of this cheap land, it will grow into money fast, the land I got out on the lake is now worth $15.00 per acre, but the land, that Munson and I bought together is not worth much, I will take what I gave for it. Well, my old friend hope you are having a good trade and that everything is all O. K. and expect to get a letter from you very soon, give me all the news. How is our friend Rolley, tell him I took a drink at his expense today.

Kortright in the Darklight.

Fairfax, S. D., June 2—Willard I. Kortright, formerly of Sioux City, but now famous as the "fighting editor" who edited his newspaper, the Fairfax Sun-Review, from his cell in the county jail, where he was kept in default of bonds when arrested for libel, has sold his paper and gone to Minneapolis. The purchaser is Judge Starobor. It is not known whether or not the paper will be continued. Rumor is that some of the paper's creditors are unhappy over Kortright's departure.—Sioux City Tribune.

Winside's Great Day.

There was probably over a thousand people from Wayne and vicinity in Winside yesterday, and anywhere near five thousand celebrators in that little city. About five hundred people rode on the cars and nearly every kind of a vehicle in Wayne was pressed into commission to "get to Winside."

The day was ideal for the eagle to soar and everybody was in it from little "B" to big "B." Winside took good care of her company; the business men and ladies put up a splendid parade; the sports were good and the little park "fuller" than it has ever been before.
The Rebeokah lodge took first and the Royal Neighbors second prize, for getting up the most artistic floats. In the business class A. H. Carter got 1st and Tom Lound 2d. In calisthumpians Hyatt took 1st premium and the mule 2d. The races, rope pulling, rag chewing, ball game, with Stanton were all exciting, although John Dimmel's 17 fanged devil fish was the principal attraction, and where a good many of the boys got a fair start.
Stanton won the ball game in a walk.

Ed. Johnson and wife and Miss Fleetwood and J. W. Johnson went to Sioux City. Leonard Elsing and family to Pender. Fisher Fryer and wife to the lake. E. C. Tweed and wife to Hartington.

More evil lurks in a poor little kiss than all the divorces put together, according to Dr. D. L. Bass of the Calvary Baptist church, Cairo, Ill. Here is one instance where the DEMOCRAT is "agin the rum traffic." All the microbes in christendom may be in "one poor little kiss," but, by God, we'll take those dear old home kisses with wife and babies, "if it kills us."

Mayor Levy drove his team of ponies over to Crystal lake the other day, and the next morning he had three ponies instead of a pair. There is no telling what the lake won't give up when the life line is out.

Charley Shults and C. R. Munson had a little talk on the street the other day in which the anti-saloon prosecutor got a severe tongue drubbing. Mr. Shults has evidently got the land man who enticed him into a big deal squirming, and of course there are plenty of people who would like to see the fun pulled off.

Winside is going to have water works, local parties buying the bonds. John Dimmel's "only was opportunity" is going to furnish enough liquid for the natives to wash their feet.

What's the situation this week? Up at Vermillion, S. D., the people are being pestered, also—with millions of gnats.

If some women think anything besides what they say, their thinking apparatus must be kept awfully busy.

There may be but one blind man in the United States senate, but there are always a number of fellows who can't see.

Did you ever notice at a picnic that the woman with the prettiest hosiery gets the most mosquito bites on her ankles?

Luther Burbank, the plant wizard, is at work in order to produce an odorless onion. It will be real nice when we can buy all the onions we want without a scent.

There are fourteen million dollars in the Pennsylvania state treasury. There would be several million dollars more if they could get back what was stolen.

When they get to making print paper from corn stalks the paper trust will have the pith taken out of it—Sioux City Journal.

Oh, snucks! There is said to be a famine in golf balls and the price is going to be very high. Those who can't buy balls may still be able to reach the price of Scotch whiskey, however.

The deaf-mute ball team from Kansas City, is billed to play Wayne July 20th, so Sam Davies says, and Sam or John Kate are the only parties who "hear" of such events.

Take a look at the homes in Wayne about which unsightly weeds are permitted to grow and you can pick out the people who will allow the snow and ice to accumulate on their walks next winter.

The only interesting thing about Sioux City's ball team these days is the loud howling the Journal and the Tribune are doing over it. The Journal very effectively uses the hammer, and the Tribune its trowel.

The preacher-editor of the Pender Republic last week printed a libelous item on this paper, but considering the source and the fact that the poor cuss isn't responsible for his "brain storms" as he calls them, the matter is unworthy of a decent man's notice.

Carrie Nation, as an argument against the saloon, is a depreciating quantity. Once she held levies and receptions in front of the bars. Now she is arrested and is kept behind the bars. Such characters never did the cause of temperance any good.

The Atchison Globe says: We will leave this to mother: Isn't the dish cloth hanging above the kitchen sink cleaner looking than the clamoris skin daughter tucks in the front of her shirt waist to occasionally get out and use to dust her face with powder?

According to republican advices from Washington, Mr. Bryan's "friends" are advising him that he ought not to seek the nomination for the presidency next year. No names of Bryan's "friends" are mentioned, however. Queer bits of news those Washington space fillers get hold of.

At Sioux City last week two men were arrested for fast driving of automobiles. One of them was Herb Pelton, who has a reputation for being a reckless driver. He ran over and killed a dog belonging to F. L. Wirick, secretary of the Interstate fair association, who narrowly escaped himself. It wasn't so bad for the dog, but if Wirick had been killed he would still have to go to hell.

The Waterloo Reporter, referring to the Adams Express company's $24,000,000 melon says: "When a public service corporation can pay regular dividends as good as capital employed is in the habit of returning, and then divide a 200 per cent, profit, it is hardly anarchy or populism to wonder if the rates in vogue cannot be reduced to the basis of reasonable returns. If such a situation confronted a railroad the whole official directory that couldn't run too fast would be hung on the nearest cross-arm or friendly branch."

Nebraska boys and girls, deprived by statute from earning a few dollars during vacation, can run the steets, get drowned in the rivers and get educated to all kinds of mischief. And poor, struggling parents, deprived of the little help their children might give them, can struggle along as best they may. It is alright for boys and girls to study so hard in school that both intellect and physical strength are impaired and in some cases death takes shining marks, but they mustn't work even in respectable, sanitary places. In this country neither young nor old should be deprived of the privilege of earning a living.

Just inside of one of the drug stores in Columbia City there is a blackboard which is used very affectively for advertising therson being got up in a very catchy manner. For instance, the following was written on it the other day to catch the eye of young lady customers: "Have you a sweetheart? If so buy him a bottle of Florida water." A young man who dropped in for a glass of soda water saw it. Next day he was passing by with his girl and as they were going to get some soda he told her to read the sign. He spoke before he looked, for to his dismay the inscription on the blackboard was: "Have you a baby? if so use sterilized milk."

Archbishop Keane, of the Catholic archdiocese of Dubuque, in a sermon declared that walking delegates who are promoters of strife and a spirit of discontent should be taken by the throat and forced out of the communities where they seek to foment strife. lay in the calm discussion of the situation by employers and employes direct, he said. And Archbishop Keane is right, at least as to the first proposition, only the punishment he suggests is not severe enough. However, if the walking delegate were deprived of the opportunity to stir up strife he might have to go to work, and that would be pretty good punishment.

Some sore-eyed prohib has started a report that the DEMOCRAT is "knocking" or trying to "knock" on the chautauqua proposition. The story is an absolute falsehood, the only ground for such rumor being that the management of the chautauqua has seen fit to do all business for the entertainment with our worthy contemporary, the Herald, and both being now one and a part of each, that course is perfectly proper. It is true that the DEMOCRAT man refused to do a lot of newspaper boosting for nothing, after we were satisfied that the anti-saloon element, that has the proposition in charge, were making it a partisan affair in so far as the newspapers were concerned. The chautauqua will be a big success and there appears no reason why the DEMOCRAT should throw its pearls to the "swine."

It would appear that even the church-going people are somewhat troubled with this new disease in Wayne, a microbe that sprouted from Munsonitis, and may be termed "damndifficairtiveness." For instance, the concert given at the M. E. church last Friday evening by Mrs. H. A. Moler and Miss Buffington was a miserably attended affair, only a fraction of the M. E. people attending. The musical was gotten up as a sort of benefit for the ladies, who have done so much for the church in the singing department, and it merited a big attendance, not only from the fact that the ladies were entitled to a liberal patronage, but for the reason that the entertainment was first-class and more than worth the money. Miss Buffington, especially, has surely earned the well-wishes and appreciation of all attendants at the M. E. church, if she has not received any of their dollars. The DEMOCRAT, while not much of a church-goer, is ashamed of the "niggardliness" of Wayne people in this instance.

Normal Notes.

Helen File and her friend Miss Pettit visited Mrs. Keefe of Walthill over Sunday.

There will be no school the 4th, but school will continue as usual on Friday. A number of the students will spend the day at their homes.

Mr. Guttery who is the principal at Howells for next year entered school last week. Mr. Guttery is preparing himself for a state certificate.

In order that the afterdoons during the ten days, chautauqua may be free, the afternoon classes will recite Saturday morning for the remainder of the term.

Misses Amelia and Minnie Reeves of Madison, were visitors at the college last week. This was their first trip to Wayne since the new buildings were built and they were agreeably surprised at the many improvements, made on the hill.

Dr. Young, Supt. of the Norfolk Asylum, was a visitor at the College last week. He was in Wayne for the purpose of finding some young men for attendants at the hospital.

Dr. Herron, accompanied by Mrs. Herron, visited the college Friday. At the Chapel exercises, Dr. Herron gave a very fine talk, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present.

Neal B. Mack who was the delegate to the Young Men's Christian Association at Lake Geneva, returned the first of last week. He reports a very enjoyable as well as instructive trip.

Mrs. Marshall and baby daughter, accompanied Supt. Marshall to Wayne Saturday. She visited over Sunday returning Monday to her home in Center, while Mr. Marshall remains to instruct in the school.

A very good ball game was played Saturday between the College team and the Pilger team. The game was free from the customary disputes over the umpire's decisions. Pilger won the score of three to two.

John Power who has been principal at Magnet for the past two years was elected to the principalship of school at Stuart. Mr. Power is a hard worker, and all are glad to see him secure this well-deserved promotion.

A lawn social was given on the campus Saturday evening by the Young Men's Christian Association. The social was a success financially, and the proceeds amounting to some thirty dollars, will be used to pay the expense of the delegate sent to Lake Geneva conference.

Several members of the graduating class received notification last week of their selection to positions for next year. Mr. F. W. Meyers, goes to Harrison, Neb., as principal of the school, while Mr. Huckleberry will fill a like place at Merriam, Neb., Miss Beechel was elected for the intermediate department at Magnet and Miss Sullivan was elected to a position in the Bartley school. There are very few of the members of the graduating classes who do not have good positions for the coming year.

Young Wright Wrong Again.

Last Friday morning, about daybreak, B. P. Peterson, who works for R. Philo & Son, was surprised to see young Johnny Wright, the 16-year-old anti-saloon witness, coming out of the bowling alley window, in rather suspicious manner. When Jay Jones opened up the place he was advised to see if anything was missing, and he soon found a lot of cigars and tobacco absent. A number of young men found the "youthful burglar at the fairgrounds, and being informed that the "jig was up," the boy "coughed up" where the goods were at. Sheriff Mears took the lad in charge and later on he was ordered to the reform school by Judge Hunter, being taken there on Monday by the sheriff.

CALL SCOTCH WHISKY BE SCOTCH IF NEVER IN OLD SCOTLAND?

Uncle Sam's Booze Court, the Pure Food Board, wrestles With Question.

Washington, July 1.—"What is Scotch whisky? Can whisky be Scotch whisky if it is not made in Scotland?"

The highest court in Great Britain is hopelessly split on these questions, and they have been put up to the whisky court of the United States—the pure food law board.

It is in the case of Scotch whisky, which is sold as Scotch whisky, that the Scotch whisky court is appealed to the authorities to decide, once for all, what is and what is not Scotch whisky, and they are finding out some curious things.

In the first place, although Scotch whisky is a very ancient institution, it is only in the last few years that the Scotch whisky court has been established to decide on what it is. In the famous Forth case the London police court was asked to give a decision on what Scotch whisky was. Its decision was to the effect that Scotch whisky is any distilled spirit made from malted barley.

But in the London police court, from which the case had gone up, it was held that Scotch whisky must be made in Scotland.

SOLDIER FIRED, DUE TO RECITING "FACE ON BARROOM FLOOR"

New York, July 1.—That sounds like the scaping of gas from a punctured balloon was merely a sigh of relief emitted by officers of the United States army.

WIFE

HE TENDS THE CHILDREN

Husband, Testifying in Divorce Suit, Says He Surrendered Latchkey.

ROCKEFELLER'S NEW HOUSE TO BE BUILT
ENTIRELY OF STONES

Philadelphia, July 1.—The $500,000 house which John D. Rockefeller is building at Locust and Hillmont streets, Philadelphia, is being built of stones.

WILL PROBE ALLEGED TELEGRAPH TRUST

Washington, July 1.—Federal control of the telegraph companies! It sounds strong but it is contemplated by no less a personage than President Roosevelt.

It develops today that when the president sent Labor Commissioner Neill to investigate the telegraph companies, he had in mind the striking telegraphers.

ALL PEACE BEFORE
TROOPS CAME—DAVIS
WITNESS FOR HAYWOOD DECLARES
THERE WAS NO LAWFULNESS
BEFORE THEN.

Denver, July 1.—William F. Davis, of Goldfield, Nev., one of the most important witnesses for the defense was first called to the stand for testimony.

UNDER BORAH'S SEARCHLIGHT

The arraignment of Davis by Senator Borah was a searching and chiefly devoted as far as it proceeded to the Bunker Hill and Sullivan affair.

Keep Your Head Up.

Has the world and his wife gone a-traveling? The in-coming trains and out-going trains are crowded to their capacities; the ticket agents are the busiest beings in Christendom, while the depots fairly swarm with their great grist of humanity. Whither goest thou, I was minded to challenge the passers by as they swarmed in tan out of the great swinging doors at the station yesterday night, but instead I fell to counting the number of people who carried their heads up, and their shoulders square; on the fingers of one hand I could keep record, while the round shouldered beings would require an exhaustless supply of numerals.

Keep your head up; half the battle of life is won if you can meet the world square shouldered. The health-giving, exhilarating oxygen can never circulate through a pair of cramped lungs. Did you ever know an eminently successful statesman who was round-shouldered? How would the epaulets of a general look upon a pair of humped shoulders? Keep your head up, throw your shoulders back, look the world square in the face and remember that a "bent up double man was never made." The Creator intended you to be as straight as you sapling; don't spoil the work of a master mechanic by inexcusable carelessness.—St. Louis City Stylus.

How Beautiful.

The following pretty tribute from the pen of Edgar Howard of the Columbus Telegram to the memory of Theodore Tilton, who recently died in Paris, is beautiful and we willingly republish it: "One of the brightest intellects that ever gave light to Americans was dimmed one day last week in Paris. A quarter century ago Theodore Tilton was the peer of his fellows in the literary and intellectual world, and for him was everywhere predicted the crown of greatness. But one day Henry Ward Beecher, and trouble came to the door of Tilton's home, and peace departed from that home, and since that day poor Tilton had lived a secluded life in Paris. Perhaps Tilton was wrong in his accusation which he filed against his wife. She hitherto had been splendidly loyal to him. She protested her innocence always, but her husband could not believe her, and all the balance of his life he walked beneath the shadow of a sorrow too great to be even mentioned to others. I could never understand the latter life of Tilton. His former life had been an example of optimism, and his voice had been a message of cheer. To take that example and that message away from a world which needed both was the Tilton I learned to love and admire, I heard him deliver his lecture "The Problem of Life," long years ago, and in all the years since that day, I have carried in my memory the closing sentence of his masterful plea for the Christian life. Referring to the effort of Bob Ingersoll at that time to rob Christians of their hope Tilton said; If that Christian faith in which my mother went to sleep, and in which my father lived and died; if that Christianity be a fraud, then for my part, I desire to be sweetly cheated to the end. And when I learned that Tilton was dead my first prayer was that, even though he walked beneath a shadow very dark, he still held firm to the faith of his father, so that over on the other side in the day when all secrets shall be revealed, he may be able to lift the veil of the earth-time, and in the light of Paradise behold the wife of his youth in the innocence she claimed, and find that his suspicions regarding her were not better than a hideous dream.

Bixby's Best Verse.

Last week I received this letter from C. W. Taylor of the Chicago Tribune: "Something like a year ago—perhaps more—I found the inclosed clipping in an exchange, and out it out, having missed it when it appeared in your own column. I have carried it about with me ever since, and have read it numberless times. It appeals to me with peculiar force, for "our little girl" who passed over the border nearly twenty-two years ago, "would have been a woman grown today" — "If she had lived"

I never read these lines without realizing that the old pang, though soothed by time is still there. Nobody, it seems to me, but a father who has passed through a similar experience, could have written so beautiful and touching a poem. Can you read Longfellow's "Resignation" without a tightening of your throat? I can't. And these lines express the feelings and awaken the emotions just as poetically and effectively. From the bottom of my heart I thank you for them.

The lines to which he alluded are as follows:
If she had lived—
Our little girl who went from earth away,
Whose form has rested long with kindred clay,
She would have been a woman grown today,
If she had lived.
If she she had lived—
They tell us it it would be no less than crime
To call them back across the sea of time,
Earth had been sweet—its joys much more sublime
If she had lived.
If she had lived—
I see the precious toys, the little chair,
The tiny ribbon and the lock of hair;
This earthly home had been more wondrous fair,
If she had lived.

And, after all, who would forget? The most sacred spot on this green earth is a little, low mound out at Wyuka, covering the precious dust of one who has been gone for almost thirteen years. What means this depth of human affection, this longing to meet again, if this shimmer of light between the rising of the sun and the going down thereof is all there is of life? Surely we are fearfully and wonderfully made, and some day, somewhere all the problems that vex us now will be fully answered.

Dear Lord this fact is clear to me in deed,
There are some riddles that we can not read;
Some things occur which we must be content
To look upon in fear and wonderment.
No day goes by but storms destructive sweep
The land unchecked, and o'er the vasty deep
From subterranean furnace fires a breath
Volcanic comes, and thousands taste of death.
Things come to pass—we can not answer why,
We only know that man is born to die,
And after that—love inspires all men
To hope that, dying, he shall live again;
A recompense for all the toil and tears
And disappointments of life's fleeting years.
How glorious beyond the river, Styx,
The great reunion in Thy kingdom,
BIX.
