Winside News.

From the Tribune.
Have you noticed that there haven't been any drunk men in Winside lately.

Mrs. Holtgren and children departed for Illinois yesterday to visit with relatives.

No republican in the county cares to lock horns with Charley Reynolds. Wise heads.

Mrs. Bostetter and daughter of Wayne were guests at the Mettlen home yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Pittenger of Albion is visiting at the home of her brother, Sam Reichert.

Misses Trix Miller and Maud Lound attended exercises at the college in Wayne Tuesday night.

We notice that a lot of men in this town have the very bad habit of helping the women wash.

Did you ever take notice that when a girl shows you her photo she always says "it isn't a bit good?"

Some of the papers roasted the Wayne Chautauqua without, we believe, any real cause for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. A. Waddell went to Pierce the first of the week after a string of bass.

E. W. Tucker got his finger in the way of a ball Tuesday night with disastrous results. He's now on the bench—in the park.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hintz of Grand Junction, Colo., are visiting at the Herbert Lound home. Mrs. Hintz and Mrs. Lound are sisters.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider a few days ago. Carl tried to keep it a secret but we're all going to smoke on him just the same.

The village board has passed an ordinance making it unlawful for any one to keep hogs or more than two cows within the limits of town north of the track.

One night this week, Sam Reichert, dreaming that the house was on fire, leaped from an upstairs window, thru the screen, to the ground below. He was quite severely bruised.

The Ennis family have gone to Eagle Grove, Iowa, to reside in the future. The little man made a great fight to stay here but the female head of the family laid down the law and he succumbed.

It looks as if Winside would not have any candidates this year. Our patriots would all rather hold down a seat in the park in Winside than mingle with the statesmen at the county capital.

The black dog that has been making his home with the little girls about town, is up against the dog tax and the kids are planning to throw in all their pennies and keep him with us. Otherwise he must go to the place where no dog ever gets back from.

Rev. Hughes publishes the Nebraska automobile law in his Pender Republic. Our reverend friend, with his 400 pounds of fat, no doubt realizes that if he ever meets an auto there will be a smash-up and he wants the machine to get off as lightly as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McElrath departed for their new home in University Place last Saturday much to the regret of their friends here. Having taken a prominent part in church and lodge affairs, they will be greatly missed. Here's hoping them prosperity and happiness.

It won't be long until the schoolman's fair, will be out in the country in the good pure air; teaching by day and spooning by night, and otherwise having a time that is right. The schoolman always has the bean at her feet, she is so trim and dresses quite neat; she looks pious and dignified, and this as a rule, has the boys all going—even to school.

The Wayne C. C. Band will give a concert and ball at the Winside Opera House on Friday evening, Aug. 16. This will be the musical event of the season. After the concert, the Band orchestra, assisted by Messrs. Hansen and Kreidler, will furnish the best of dance music. Come and hear some good music and have a good time. Tickets—concert and ball per couple $1; concert single admission 25c.

Hoskins News.

From the Headlight.

Miss Dora Green left Monday noon for Allen, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. H. Hecht, for a couple of weeks.

E. O. Behmer was down to Wayne Monday afternoon and was appointed administrator of the Albert Roed estate by County Judge Hunter.

J. A. Hill, a surveyor from Randolph will be here Monday and start the work of surveying and platting the First Addition to Hoskins.

S. D. Relyea, wife and daughter, Mrs. Olmstead, and eastern relatives, arrived today and are visiting at the W. E. Gleason home east of town.

Arnold Pfeil, who has been suffering the past three or four weeks with appendicitis, does not seem to regain his usual good health and will go to Sioux City next Tuesday to be operated on.

The editor was down to the county capital and while parading up and down the streets, in one of the store-windows we saw a young guy huggin' a model. It did seem awful to see the sight and then glance up and down the street and realize how numerous and anxious the Wayne girls were. Say, you young guys, get father Lundberg's permission and have a real huggin' bee and you won't have to squeeze cold dumplings.

One on the Little Swede.

Hoskins Headlight: Be that as it may, but has the legal democratic editor of the Herald who is able to twist his principles into almost any position to suit almost any condition, shown that the Herald was run for the purpose of furthering the interest of the republican party of Wayne county. His mind is a practical con-tortionist, and if the Barnum & Bailey show but knew such a living curiosity was in existence they certainly would capture it: Get a pair of mid road populist feet, upon them place the carcass of one of those sour-wine prohibitionists, then upon the shoulders place the largest green pump kin, filled with the idea of democracy capable of being twisted into republicanism, and you will have a subject fit to edit the republican organ of our county capital. "The tastes and appetites as well as the mental calibre of people, is easily determined by the kind of entertainment they prefer." Right you are, and if Goldie's story of the poor widow is true, it shows plainly that Bro. Lundberg's principal "tastes and appetites" is to feather his own nest with the filthy lucre, taken from the widow with a house full of hungry children. Far better a "huggin' bee as the real article" than a covetous appetite and a taste to prosecute the lawless in order to ply the hold-up game.

Start a System of Sewerage.

At the city council meeting Monday night Mayor Ley made the welcome statement that Wayne must start right away to built sewerage, and that he firmly believed the town could go ahead now with the project and have a tolerably complete system in four or five years. No city ever needed sewerage worse and had the natural advantages to put in a system that Wayne has. The DEMOCRAT believes the proposition should take precedence of 4th of July celebrations, carnivals or chautauques, and that a popular subscription could be solicited, say by the commercial club, to put the scheme through next year. Wayne is a net-work of cesspools and sink-holes. Every owner of a cess-pool should gladly give a couple of hundred dollars towards the proposition, and it would be a paying investment for large property owners to put in five hundred or a thousand dollars, individually. The unsightly strings of disease-breeding shacks that line the business alleys of the town, are enough to make every good citizen want to give his last dollar to obliterate them. The commercial club could get ten thousand dollars in ten hours, if it goes after it properly, and it is no more than proper that the people who are more directly benefited and well able to pay for it, should stand the brunt of the expense, rather than the taxpayer of small means and light income.

The subject that started talk of sewerage was the "vile matter" that runs from the Boyd hotel and is a stench in the nostrils of the people about the elevator and flouring mill. The fuss over this matter is old enough to have formed a crust. Years ago it was a semi-annual subject with the city council, and every time a kick was registered the aldermen waxed eloquent and religiously indignant for its instant abeyance. Frequently the city marshal has been instructed to arrest the parties guilty of the digression, and Marshal Miner stated that he had notified a former Boyd landlord at least twenty-five times that his employes must quit using the trough built from a hotel to the drainage canal to carry off filthy water etc. A couple of years ago it was ordered by the excited town council, that the connections to the hotel be cut off. Last Monday night it was unanimously agreed that this should be done first thing next morning, and that if the hotel people persisted in making a nuisance at that place they should be brought up before the bar of justice. Wonder if the stench and "hot air" in the council chamber will continue "ad infinitum."

On the subject of dogs, Marshal Miner reported he had killed about fourteen, and Clerk Witter that about eighty had paid taxes, only two of the number being females. It was observed by a member that if the city paid fifty cents each for burying sixty more the town would be better off.

Another old relic of the Pispensstock administration made its appearance in the shape of a $63.80 bill from Marsteller & Peterson, dated, from October last.

The matter of having the mayor appoint a "purchasing committee" for the purpose of keeping tab on all supplies and expenses was argued pro and con. The numerous long statements of account coming before the council of various miscellaneous purchases by city employes and of which the city had no definite knowledge, gave rise to the advisability of putting a curb on the practice. It was temporarily arranged that the mayor must be "seen" hereafter before such indigent debts were contracted. The bills of expense made by the recent chautauqua as to the electric lighting were laid over until the sum total could be ascertained.

Bills were allowed as follows:
H. S. Ringland, ft & ex, $73 19
express, 7 92
DEMOCRAT, printing, 13 95
John Sport, draying, 9 30
Brown Coal Co, 97 88
Gerald Porter, street grading, 17 25
Geo. Heady, labor, 24 00
Geo Stringer, repairs, 14 20
Marsteller & Peterson, sup, 63 80

E. M. Smith was an arrival from California last week. He reports Tom Holtz, who works in the same lumber office with him, as doing well.

A. Tidrick returned from South Dakota last Friday. He went there expecting to sell his farm but it looked so good to him he decided to keep it.

S. E. Auker went out to the western part of the state Friday night, to visit his father and possibly pick up a few carloads of cattle if they looked good to him at present prices.

Wm. Shorten was in town last Saturday calling on old friends. Billy is now in the land business with parties dealing in western Nebraska lands and he tells the DEMOCRAT they are doing all kinds of business.

Atty. M. O. Cunningham of Omaha, was a passenger to Bloomfield Friday night. He said that Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Merrill would be in Omaha this week on a visit but they would probably return to Colorado without coming to Wayne.

John Coleman of Plum Creek says the old saying that a mule and lightning never kick twice in the same place has proven a fraud in his neighborhood, the electric fluid having kept on pounding a post in his fence until it was reduced to kindlings.

Blaine Skeen of Wayne caught for Pierce in the Plainview game Tuesday and came down on the evening train and visited over night with old friends. The past year Blaine has been managing a farm near his home and has not paid much attention to the national game. However he has not forgot his cunning behind the bat. —Pierce Call.

Savage, the millionaire owner of the great Dan Patch, king of pacers, and Cresceus, king of trotters, must think pretty well of the Interstate Live Stock Fair at Sioux City when he will send these priceless animals there every year. They will be at the Interstate Fair again this year and, in addition to this, Mr. Savage is hanging up a purse of $5,000.00 for a 2:12 pace.

The Interstate Live Stock Fair, which is held every September at Woodland Park, Sioux City, is growing better each succeeding year. This year the Association which conducts this Fair is offering for purses and premiums the almost unbelievable amount of $60,000.00—$25,000.00 in purses, $35,000.00 in premiums. Only the state fairs of Minnesota and Wisconsin are offering so large an amount of money in purses.

Hobart M. Gable Piano Character

Character is as essential in a first-class piano as in a first-class man. The difference is in kind and not in degree. In its relation to the Piano, character means tone, the soul of the instrument; the one trait that gives it a distinct individuality. To win lasting approbation a piano must have this sort of character. If the tone be musical and sympathetic the effect is enduring because it appeals to an aesthetic sense that never tires of beauty in sound.

King Edward VII. possesses an extraordinary power, said privilege which he never exercises, but at which even his majesty himself probably does not realize. He is the sole possessor of the right to name the tidal rivers, such as the Thames, the Mersey, the Dee, the Tyne and many others. That part of the constitution around the coast which lies between high water and low water mark also belongs to his majesty, and he may grant or withhold any title, he thinks fit, while theoretically every inch of ground in the kingdom belongs to him, and he may grant or withhold the sole right to print the Bible, the book of common prayer, and all acts of parliament in the United Kingdom; and if he liked he could forbid the printing of any or all of them anywhere within the British dominions.

Many persons have wondered how strawberries got their name. They are not native to this country, but people for hundreds of years, but their corresponding name appears for them in the great majority of languages, and their fragrance mainly is set forth in the name by which they are called in the English language. "Strawberry" is the long stop of the vine, and it is the long stop of the vine, brought however, that in ancient times the Anglo-Saxon berry hunters brought the word is a corruption of "strawberry," which is the name of the vine, and the berry vines is believed to be erroneous.

After all, the loyalty which Napoleon won through a hundred victories was lukewarm compared with the loyalty which he secured from his subjects in those days was born. When the czar Alexander was with the allies in Paris, he ordered the execution of Robert, and was seen by the Comtesse de Bologne just entering his box. "The eyes of the boys were turned to the executioner," she observed, "and an attitude so strictly military that they did not dare to raise their hands from their seats." "What is the matter?" I asked a Russian officer. "Oh, he is not a murderer," she answered, "but he has just passed by, and they have probably managed to touch him."

An interesting and definite plan has now been put forward for the celebration two years hence at New York and the Hudson river of the centennial of the birth anniversary of the discovery of the river by Henry Hudson and of the one hundredth anniversary of the date of the first application of steam power to navigation. There is to be an eight day celebration, beginning on Monday, September 17, and ending on the Saturday following. It was on September 19, 1609, that Henry Hudson sailed from Rotterdam, and on the 24th he was north in his passage up the river to which his name has been given.

Persons who happened to be in tall buildings this morning, says the Rochester Union and Advertiser, or on the streets of New York, would probably have seen one of the most wonderful mirages that have been noted in this city. The mirage was seen in the office of the chamber of commerce the mirage was plainly visible to the naked eye, the Canadian shore loomed up as if it were a few miles away, and the limits of the city. By the use of field glasses the outlines of buildings along the shore could be seen, and many who witnessed the phenomenon all agreed that it was the clearest mirage they have ever seen.

One of the peculiar phenomena of the Arctic regions is "sea smoke." Bacteria which rise from the water when the temperature is 15 degrees below zero. As the bacteria and human bodies emit this vapor, which changes into tiny ice particles which fill the air and make a light haze, the rest of the air is 10 to 20 degrees free, and the vapor, which rises from the water, which has culminated in the marriage of Alfred Sater, of Stillwater, N. D., and Esther Willis Hansen, of Christiana, Minn.

One winter evening twelve years ago Sater was skating with several companions near the home of Mrs. Hansen. The boys encountered a beautiful girl and Sater's companions barred him to kiss the prettiest of the girls. Sater thereupon skated to Miss Hansen and imprinted a kiss upon her lips, which she returned with a sparkling with a resounding box from the hand of the indignant miss.

Sater's affair afterward came to America and took place in North Dakota. But the memory of that stolen kiss and the pretty Haxen-haired girl who checked his ardor and sparkled with indignation, remained with him. Last year he again visited Christiana and met the girl who had been his still there, renewed his acquaintance under more auspicious circumstances. Miss Hansen came to visit a sister in law, and on her way back to North Dakota farmer heard of it he also came home. So solicitous was he that Miss Hansen finally consented to become his bride.

Rich Men Haled In Land Fraud Probe
Grand Junction, Colo., Aug. 15.—Ralph Kelly, special agent of the grand jury office at Washington, completed his investigation of the charges of conspiracy to defraud the government made against the Redlands Irrigation and Power company, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the west. Mr. Kelly, who is here on a tour of inspection, will probably be cited to appear before the next session of the federal grand jury at Denver, to answer charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States government out of 5,000 acres of the Redlands irrigation project in Colorado.

Girl Slays Lover Who Forgot "Date"
St. Louis, Aug. 13.—As a result of a quarrel over an appointment she claimed her sweetheart failed to keep, Theresa Sullivan, 22, is under arrest, charged with the killing, last night, of Michael Sanders.
It is alleged that she stabbed him with a pocketknife several times, severing his jugular vein so that he bled to death.

Fire Sets Off Dynamite
Boulder, Colo., Aug. 13.—Fire that started at 1 o'clock this morning in the Colorado and Southern freight depot here, destroyed the depot with a vast quantity of freight and dynamite. A 100 feet elevated powder house containing 1,000 pounds of dynamite which exploded, injuring 100 persons and breaking the glass in every building in the city as well as in hundreds of residences.

Business life is believed of many of its burdens, mused the editor of the Metal Worker, Plumber and Steam Fitter, but with sympathy of effort which Frenchmen call esprit, he has set his feet among all in the same enterprise. It is unfortunate, to say the least, when the Frenchman returns to his own country and employs that the old man will die.

Amputating a horse's leg at the fetlock joint, Professor Udrikski, of the veterinary school at Bucharest, has reported the loss of a leg, which was artificial leg that enables the animal to walk about and take exercise.

CANNON NOMINATE CANDIDATE NOT ON PRIMARY TICKET

Attorney General of Nebraska Rules Voters Cannot Choose Nominees at the Polls.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 13.—Two more opinions have been rendered by the attorney general's office on different phases of the primary law.

One of them holds that voters at a primary election can not nominate as the candidate of their party any man whose name is not printed on the ticket. The other is that the primary law does not require sample ballots to be printed, as is done in advance of general elections, and that the number of candidates to be printed for the office of each party is left to the discretion of the county clerk.

There is nothing the matter with the sweet corn, anyway

Or course coffee makes lots of people nervous—the kind some people make Considerable scuffling around town the past week, probably all due to the extreme heat.

How many men are there in the penitentiaries who worked hard when they were boys?

Of course coffee can beat Norfolk playing ball, or at anything else excepting immorality.

Isn't it funny that so many people remain poor when there are so many advertised chances to get rich?

The College students have about swamped the railroad accommodations the past week, going and coming.

Just now there are a lot of fellows playing base ball who ought to be at work in the harvest fields. The Sioux City team, for instance.

Walter Wellman writes that his gas apparatus is working perfectly. It always did. But it is to be hoped Walter will not make it work overtime.

It is officially announced that the Jamestown exposition will be completed, even to minor details, in ten days. Will there be another formal opening?

Mr. Mansfield is reported ill at Ampepsand. Why in thunder doesn't he get away from it? First thing he knows he will have to undergo an operation for it.

The secretary of the Standard Oil company says the octopus has no intention of advancing the price of oil. Possibly it has no idea of paying that fine in the near future.

It is probable that a good many of the telegraph operators were more anxious for a vacation than for a strike. Venienced while the telegraphers' strike is on, but the public will save a lot of money.

The Golden Jubilee edition of the Sioux City Tribune, issued on Saturday, was certainly a peach. It was a credit to the Tribune people and the fact that such a paper is possible is a fine advertisement for any city.

"Only the coolness of the Wayne sheriff prevented a lynching," according to the daily papers, referring to the taking of Jim Robley in Wayne. Such absurd statements by the press give an idea of how much truth there is in accounts of events elsewhere.

We poke a lot of fun at women's summer wearing apparel, but just the same a lot of us men would like to go around with as few clothes on us as some of the women wear. The trouble is that if we did we would either die of pneumonia or be arrested for indecent exposure.

Jimmie Noonan, who is deep on research and who has made a thorough investigation of all cases presented to his notice, says he firmly believes in that theory of a young Iowa doctor that the ankle is placed between the foot and the knee in order to keep the calf away from the corn.

in Winside's sidewalks. Sam Rehbert played an awful prank on himself one night last week. He dreamed the house was on fire and jumped out of an upstairs window, being considerably bruised up, but it woke him up, also.

Paul Walters, formerly of Carroll, is now clerking at John Dimmel's refreshment parlors. Paul is a young man of good qualities and well-liked by people who have social or business relations with him.

A. H. Carter, one of the oldest merchants in Winside, sold his store and goods to Robert Morrow, the latter being at present on a farm near Winside. The change in possession will not take place until next February.

Lightning struck and played a peculiar prank with the residence of Chace Shaw last Saturday night. It spread out after hitting the roof and split up three hips of it, then making as many divisions in its course to the earth. No one was hurt, but a barber who rooms at the residence was badly stunned. About $150 damage was done to the residence.

Shoals Chics.

Mrs. Asher Hulbert and daughter, Lottie, visited in Wayne last Saturday. Tom Jones is erecting a new barn 28x40 on his farm, one mile east of Shoals.

We have a new landlord in our burg now. We have not learned his name, but Clossen says he's alright—of course Elmer knows.

John Kinney is building a fine residence. He sold the house he is living in to Homer Fitzsimmons. Homer expects to move the building to Shoals.

Shoals is building an up-to-date school house with four rooms. A contractor from Norfolk has the contract, and the building is expected to be finished for the next term of school.

Asher Hulbert finished last Saturday putting up 75 tons of fine timothy hay on the Geo. Bush farms. He also has 45 acres of up-land hay to put in stock yet and has 200 acres of fine flax as we ever saw, which will be ready for harvest in about two weeks.

The oats harvest is about finished around here and is considered a very light crop and of poor quality. Ora Stevens brought one load to Shoals that only weighed out 19 pounds to the bushel. The corn in these parts look fairly well, the recent rains and warm nights is just the stuff for the corn.

John Thompson who moved from here to northwestern Kansas last fall, came back last week on a business trip. The old man is well pleased with the country down there and thinks he will stay there the remainder of his days. His wife left him about eighteen months ago, taking with her their three youngest children.

During an electrical storm some time ago, lightning struck the Perlich saloon and somewhat demolished the east end of the building, it looked as if Carrie Nation had been at work there with her little hatchet. There was a five-gallon keg of Dan Patch whiskey, that was knocked from a shelf on the east and landed in the middle of the floor unhurt. We know that it will take something quicker than lightning to overtake that Dan Patch booze. We got a dose of it once and we made the trip around the world in ten hours.

Great is The Tribune.

The Sioux City Tribune issued a magnificent Jubilee edition last Saturday in honor of Sioux City's fiftieth birthday. The big paper was full of interesting reminiscences of old times and the "used-to-be's," but no one appreciates a re-bash of those "pre-historic" times as much as do the living relics who had part in them. It only lacks about a dozen years of fifty since the DEMOCRAT man's family landed in Sioux City and took up quarters in the old farmers' home. The then western extremity of 4th street. The Floyd valley—now a network of railways and packing plants—was a mass of weeds, brush and timber, where the early inhabitants held picnics, while north of 4th street there was little else than bluffs and scrub oaks. "Indians and steamboats" were the chief attractions in those days. This special edition of the Tribune also gives the frontier history of Nebraska and South Dakota counties, the following being reference to Wayne County:

Wayne county was organized by proclamation of Governor Butler in the fall of 1870. No definite legal boundaries were given until a legislative enactment of 1881, and eight years later, when Thurston county was created, it yielded up some of its acreage to that district. The first election was held September 5, 1870, and the following elected:

Commissioners—M. T. Sperry, W. E. Durin, Isaac Miner.
Clerk—C. S. Hunter.
Treasurer—B. F. Whitten.
Sheriff—A. D. Allen.
Judge—A. A. Fletcher.
Surveyor—W. G. Vroman.
Superintendent—R. B. Crawford.
Coroner—Nathaniel Allen.
Mr. Whitten did not qualify as treasurer, and George Scott, another old settler, was named.

Mr. Whitten and a man named Bean, were the pioneers in this county, and they came in the summer of 1868. William Jones came a few weeks later. All went back east and brought their families. In the same year a colony headed by William Graves, arrived. The first postoffice, Talice, was established near the Logan bridge in 1870. The first school was opened at LaPorte in 1871, the entire county being one school district. This county voted $88,000 bonds to aid the Covington, Columbus and Black Hills road, only fifty electors being resident in the county. The road never complied with the conditions, and the bonds were never issued. The only trouble with the Indians occurred over the killing of a man named Manson, engaged in breaking land, by five young Winnabagoes, who had been told by their medicine man that they must kill a white man in order to become real braves.) One of the Indians was Whitebreast, son of the Winnabago chief. They were given up by the Indians, and sentenced to prison for life. The town site of LaPorte was laid out in 1874, by Solon Bevin, who built the first house and started the first store. The development of the county was retarded for years by reason of the fact that most of its land was held for speculation of non-residents, who bought it for a few dollars an acre. This fact led the residents to vote bonds and levy taxes lavishly, but with better prices for land the title passed to actual settlers.

Lapote was made the county seat in 1871, but Wayne, which was laid out in 1881, soon outstripped it and took this honor away from it.

Mrs. Jas. Jeffries returned Monday from a visit in the western part of the state.

Mrs. Van Bradford and children came home from Hoskins Tuesday afternoon.

The Wayne Commercial Club band give a concert and dance at Winside tomorrow (Friday) evening.

P. Beck went to Lynch Tuesday morning where he is interested in the saloon business with Ed. Williams.

Mrs. Joe Barley and children came down from Orchard Tuesday, where Mrs. Barley has been visiting her parents.

Kate & Raymond will move into the ware house north of the depot Sept. 1st, where they expect to do a lot of chipping in the incubator business.

Rev. Ernst will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday morning. There will be no evening services in any of the churches the balance of this month.

Mesdames McClune and Kugler, sister and niece of F. M. Skeen and Mrs. S. M. Barley, were arrivals from Houston, Texas, the last of the week for a visit with relatives here.

Jas. G. Miller and J. Woodward Jones are both in Chicago buying fall and winter goods. Mrs. Miller and son Donald left today for the windy city, she going to buy millinery for the big store.

J. R. and John W. Morris, and Mrs. Frank James and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, of the Welsh settlement, left yesterday for Alberta, Canada. The gentlemen have brothers living in that country and Mrs. Jones a daughter. Frank James came as Wayne to see them started.

While fixing a leak in the court house eaves the brother-in-law of Geo. Grunemeyer, carelessly stepped off the sill onto the plastering, and he went right through into the court room, just missing the arc light. The man straddled a sill in his fall or he would have dropped to the lower floor.

A large number of Wayne Baptists are attending the annual Northeast Nebraska Association at Norfolk, which commenced last Tuesday and ends tomorrow noon. Among the Wayne delegation is Rev. and Mrs. Smith, Prof. Davies, J. W. Bartlett, Mrs. Huff, Mrs. Kellogg and mother, Mrs. Bostedder, Misses Pearl Hughes, Laura Conger, Kamp, Jennie Olmsted, Cross, Brookhauser and John Soules.

Late College Notes.

Alumni Day last Friday was such as to be remembered by the large number present. Chapel exercises continued from 7 to 12 with speeches, music, class songs, yells and a general good time. The luncheon superintended by Mrs. Pile was enjoyed by more than 200 of the members who gathered in the shade on the lawn where neat boxes of good things were eaten amid general conversation of class groups.

President J. M. Pile is very grateful to County Superintendents Teed of Dixon, Perdue of Madison, Miller of Cedar, Pilger of Pierce and Marshall of Knox for their services as members of the Normal teaching force for the summer term. These men are among the most successful superintendents of the state and each spent a month in giving instruction in the Normal. In addition to their class work each gave several lectures to the student body along general lines.

About 20 people are busy with paint, calomine, paper and are putting things in shape for September opening. Contractor Merton with his men, is putting finishing touches in the new College. A gang under the management of Mr. Neiland, is going over all the buildings to make everything in good order for the incoming body. The out-look is for a full house this fall. The full enrollment will be larger than ever and matters will be made ready to care for all who come. The faculty is taking a needed rest, except the President and he never does. So the good work closes and another three weeks will hear the big bell and greet many new faces.

The Alumni banquet for Friday evening was prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Whalen. At 6 o'clock the officers, trustees and speakers were arranged in order and marched to the banquet hall (new gymnasium) then followed this year's classes and those in town by members of '06, '04 and so on down the line. After the five-course menu was dispersed of amidst class songs, yells and splendid music by the brass quartette, Prof. Sautrey to toastmaster started the oratorical portion, which was a high order. Messrs. Sautrey, Rahn, Elliott, Wright, Power, Raubach, Mack; Misses Reed, Kelley, Vernerberg, Williams, were the speakers. Prof. Pile closed the program at 10 o'clock. This was the end of 1907 school year.

A list of positions by students not of the graduating classes: J. A. Guttery, principal at Howells; Walter Power, principal at Magnet; James Simonin, principal at Hoskins; Jennie Vernerberg, principal at Carroll; Archie Burnham, principal at Waterbury; Mabel Bruner, intermediate at Bloomfield; Mae Mullen, intermediate at Norfolk; Alice Zingg, primary at Platte Center; Mrs. Bentley, primary at Tilden; Miss Conover, intermediate at Harrison; Miss Black, primary at Magnet; Miss Taylor, intermediate at Madison; Miss Young, intermediate at Carroll; Miss Pilger, intermediate at Plainview; Miss Marsh, grammar at Bristol; Miss Dixon, grammar at Spencer; Miss Ellington, primary at Orchard.

The exercises Thursday evening were the most pleasant of the week. The address of Mr. Davis was highly spoken of by all who heard it. The giving out of diplomas, state certificates and prizes was carried out in something of an original way. Fred Pile called the class roll and each paused in front of the stage while the president handed the diplomas and the presiding officer the certificates to the graduates. Eleven $20 prizes were awarded as follows: Effie Burnham, "Bressler Prize" for greatest improvement; Ardilla Van Corneil, "Tucker Prize" for best oration; Etta Conover, "Misses Prize" for best recitation; E. D. Lundak, "Crayon Prize" for best debate; Irene Lemmon, "Craven Prize" for best debate; (the latter two were a tie); E. D. Lundak, "Leisenring Prize" for rank in scientific class; J. A. Chocinea, "Theobald Prize" for rank in teachers' class; Arthur Anderson, "Harrington Prize" for rank in certificate class; Annie de Groot, "Jones Prize" for rank in music class; P. R. Herrell, "Ley Prize" for rank in commercial class; W. L. Campbell, "College Prize" for honor roll; Theodore Halla, "Alumni Prize" for best thesis on normal work.

Carroll's Special Train.

Chairman Johnson, of the stock show and carnival, stated yesterday that complete arrangements had been made with the railroad company for a special train to leave Carroll Friday evening, the 23d, at 9:30 o'clock, which will run to Wakefield. This will give all visitors an opportunity to go by train. Don't forget that Carroll puts up the best show in Northeast Nebraska, and take at least one day off to show your appreciation of the bustling proclivities of the little city.

Sudden Death of J. M. Strahan

The Wayne county relatives and friends of J. M. Strahan were shocked yesterday morning to receive a telegram about eight o'clock that J. M. Strahan had dropped dead at his home in Malvern, Io. No particulars were received excepting that he fell on the wage scales at his place, probably having exerted himself in weighing stock. Yesterday the D. A. Jones, Conger, Larison, and Strahan families left for Malvern, Beverly and Percy Strahan and Ross Jones going this morning. Frank Strahan left yesterday morning on the 7:30 train for Shenandoah, Io., to attend the races there, but was intercepted at Pender and given the sad news of his father's death.

J. M. Strahan was one of the best known men in south-western Iowa. He was one of the best and kindest of men, shrewd and industrious, leaving a fortune of some half million of dollars. The DEMOCRAT would like to have a tribute from 'who's who' on the life of this grand old man, for 'who's who' can do the subject justice as it deserves.

Randolph will have a three days' carnival the latter part of the month.

Billy Wills and a friend are away out in the mountains of Wyoming, taking a pleasure trip in a covered wagon. Writing from Keystone William says it gets so cold nights that it freezes up their liquids but he is regaining his health.

Prof. Durrin is in Winside today.

R. Ferrin and wife went to Grand Island this morning to visit their daughter Blanche.

Leslie Crockett went to Bloomfield yesterday where he takes a job in the Commercial hotel.

Not many Wayne people went to the Dixon picnic today.

Alex Holtz returned home Tuesday night from Canada. He had a very enjoyable trip.

Mrs. L. L. Way went to Hot Springs, S. D., yesterday.

Mrs. W. M. Wright and son Fred, left this morning for Duluth. Fred will not return to Wayne, but go on to the coast.

Geo. Savidge went to Tekamah this morning where he puts down four eight-inch wells for the city.

Agent Moran and wife returned last night from Dakota, Paul Pinion going to Thurston this morning.

J. W. Mason went to Wakefield this morning.

Otto Sebald was an arrival in town Tuesday, going to Sioux City this morning.

The First National bank will be closed tomorrow during the funeral hours of the late J. M. Strahan at Malvern, Io. Messrs and Mesdames Hamer Wilson, R. E. K. Mellor and W. H. Morris and John Larison left this morning to attend the funeral, which presumably, will be held tomorrow afternoon.

A large number of Wayne young folks will go to Winside tomorrow to hear the concert by the Wayne band and take in the after-dance.

W. H. Gilderleeve and wife left this morning on a month's trip to Denver and Yellow Stone park.

Will Crossland goes to Lincoln Sept. 1st to study book-keeping. Weldon quits the postoffice and goes to work for Dan Harrington, Postmaster McNeal wanting to engage a new clerk.

Dan Harrington left today for the east to finish buying fall goods. He will return next week with Mrs. Harrington and Natalie.

Miss Pearl Sewell visited the first of the week with friends in Grandolph.

The county commissioners are in session today.

Some dangerous looking cracks appear in the stone bases under the corner house tower. An expert examining it this morning stated that the tower was too cumbersome and heavy for the plan of the foundation. Commissioner Stanton says he wouldn't stay in the sheriff's office for anything, but Grant Means stated in reply that he was willing to risk it for another couple years.

J. R. Randall is buying and barreling home-grown apples and shipping them up the branch.

F. H. Kohl and wife went to Crystal lake today.

Fox, the cripple who has been in Wayne all summer, returned to his home in Illinois today.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gaertner left this afternoon. Mrs. Gaertner to visit her folk at Bellevue, Io., and Frank to Dubuque.

Markets today: Wheat 70; corn 40; oats 34; barley 42; hogs 85.30.

BY JAD

What's the matter with "Old Settlers" picnic proposition?

They say man is never too old to learn, but I wonder if Pat Coleman will ever know how to play euchre.

The Sioux City Packers ought to get Editor Closson of the Carroll Index. Dick can play ball better than any of them.

Editor-Lawyer Lundburg says he didn't get any of the Mildner-Martin "swag." Alright, Elmer, all your friends will understand that it wasn't your fault.

There are a whole lot of people in Wayne who should have heard Rev. Baker's sermon on love, last Sunday, who didn't, although many of the needy ones are overly devout church members. It isn't always best to love your neighbor better than yourself, especially your neighbor's wife, but commend me to some of these good, scholarly people for whom you have about "broke your back" for years to help along, and who at the first faint instance stick it into you and slander you behind your back. "Know em?" of course you find them out, but "love" them just the same.

The first number of a magazine that I ever edited got me into trouble. This particular issue, my pride because it was my first, had not been issued two days before a man stopped his subscription to it. I didn't blame him for that, exactly, except that he said I had insulted the memory of his wife. I looked over the number and found I had published an article which referred to an inscription on his wife's tombstone. The inscription read: "Sarah Hackett Lord, she was Thine." We had a very small printing office; it happened that the compositor had run out of "e's," and he had to leave out an "e" somewhere, so he thought the safest "e" to omit was the last one—fatal choice!

Still worse was to come to me, however, from that fatal first magazine, when letters began pouring in on me from irate mother-in-law, because I had printed in that same issue the story of the commercial traveler who received this telegram from his wife: "Mother just died. Shall I embalm, cremate or bury?"

And the man sent this answer: "Embaln, cremate and bury. Take no chances."

I was fortunate in comparison with a friend of mine, however, the editor of a humorous weekly, who lost the subscriptions of more than fifty women, who were mother-in-law, after one of his early numbers, because he published the joke of a man who wrote this note to his doctor:

"My Dear Doctor: "My mother-in-law is at death's door. Will you come quickly and pull her through?"

A peculiar thing happened the Norfolk 2:15 train Monday afternoon. After it stopped at the depot here a plank was found driven between the trucks and floor of the car next to the tender. The engine had to be uncoupled before the obstruction could be removed. It had no doubt stuck up in a bridge somewhere and might easily have caused a bad accident.

Allen News: Roy Wilson's new home is well under way and will be quite an addition to that part of town, but seems pretty large for just Roy to live in—however, he explains that by saying his mother may come here to live (?). It's another girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts—this makes a pair of queens, which beats a pair of jacks—the Earl did kinder hanker for a young baseball player.

The following few lines from W. C. Jastram, Franklin, Neb., would indicate that crops are not as good in the southern part of the state as up here: Friend Walt—Enclosed please find draft for $3.00 to apply on subscription on your worthy truth sheet. It is very dry here. In fact it is "d-dry." The prospect for corn in this immediate vicinity is not very good. But we are enjoying the best of health and eat three times a day, and have abundance of the best drinking water in the world.

Lincoln news, in World-Herald:—"A complaint to the state railway commission today from a shipper of cattle at Wayne caused the Aldrich maximum rate bill to be enforced. The shipper had been charged the full limit of freight, 23 cents, on a shipment of cattle from Harrison to Wayne. The Wayne agent had insisted that the only rate he had was 23 cents per hundred to Sioux City, and as that was an interstate rate he could not grant the 15 per cent reduction. The railway commission took the matter up with the Northwestern railroad, the latter quickly deciding to grant the reduction and make the refund. The reduction made the rate 24.85 cents." On this shipment the refund to the Wayne shipper was some $150. Two shipments of cattle were made from Harrison to Wayne. The rate from Harrison to Omaha is 23 cents, and the local party was charged 28 cents to Wayne a much shorter haul.

Messrs McNeal, Kate, Sam Davies and the DEMOCRAT met in the ball game at Winside Tuesday, between the K. P. lodges of Carroll and that city. The ball players and the Wayne visitors—excepting the scribe—were most gorgeously decked out in fine raiment, many of the costumes fair and fit for female forms. A parade was made from the hall to the ball grounds, drums beating and voices cheering the grotesque bunch of heroes. Strong features of the game were Atty. Siman's bustle, that he lost at 1st base, Cap. Boyle's pitching, County Supt. Littell's catching and Banker Tucker's grunts when the ball came towards his part of the pasture. Editor Closson also put up a great game as pitcher for Carroll, winning the argument by 8 to 3. Immediately after the circus the local K. P.'s set up a most excellent supper in the park, at which all the visitors distinguished themselves. Mr. Kate made a little talk that was a "perfect dream," and Editor Closson finished the banquet with a toast to the ladies. Winside K. P. people are certainly the extreme limit when it comes to doing onto others as you'd have others do to you.

The Wayne Normal closed its year's work last Friday with Alumni Day program which was attended by about 250 members of the Alumni association, all of whom were present at the 6 o'clock banquet in the evening. This has been a great year for the Normal. The total registration was more than 1,700 while the attendance for the summer term just closed was 747. Commencement exercises began August 2 with 83 graduates from the Teachers' and Scientific departments. The programs for the week have been of a high order and largely attended. The commencement play given Saturday evening at the opera house was a fine production by the department of elocution. The baccalaureate sermon Sunday by Dr. Bithell, of Norfolk, was enjoyed by many citizens as well as students. The large chapel was crowded when faculty and graduates marched to their reserved seats. The contests by class members for prizes for orations, debates, recitations and essays were of great interest. Eleven $20 prizes, given by business men of Wayne, were awarded Thursday evening after the diplomas and state certificates were presented by Pres. J. M. Pile. The address to the classes by Attorney A. R. Davis, of Wayne, was strong and eloquent and pleased the audience. The Alumni Day proceedings were full of pleasure for members. The chapel speeches continued from 9 to 12, followed by a luncheon under the campus trees. The basket ball, base-ball and tennis games were exciting. The banquet in charge of H. Whalen began at 6 p. m. and closed at 10. The toasts, class songs and yells, together with splendid music by a brass quartet, furnished an evening long to be remembered by faculty, trustees and alumni members. All the graduates have good positions for September. The outlook is for a large enrollment for the new year which opens September 2.

Announcements
I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination for county clerk, subject to the will of the Democratic voters of Wayne county at the Primary election, to be held September 30, 1907.
CHAS. W. REYNOLDS.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of county superintendent, subject to the wishes of the republican electors at the primary to be held Sept. 3d.
Respectfully,
A. E. LITTELL.
To the republican voters at the Primary to be held Sept. 3d, I announce myself a candidate for the office of county treasurer of Wayne county.
Respectfully,
CHAS. S. BEEBE.
I hereby, respectfully, announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Judge of Wayne County, Nebraska, subject to the decision of the Republican Primary election Sept. 3d, 1907.
E. HUNTER.
I hereby announce myself as a candidate for county assessor, subject to the wishes of the republican electors at the primaries to be held Sept. 3, 2907.
A. T. WITTEBER.
To the Republican Voters of Wayne County, Nebraska.
Upon, not only the earnest solicitation of friends throughout the county, but the unrelenting demand of my home people, I have consented to allow my name to go before the primaries as a candidate for the nomination of County Commissioner from the Third District, subject to the will of the Republican Voters of Wayne County.
AUGUST ZIEMER.
I have, at the solicitation of my friends in Chapin and Garfield precincts consented to become a candidate, before the Republican primaries, for the nomination for County Commissioner of the 3d commissioner district. These precincts have never had a commissioner and at this time feel that they are entitled to such recognition. I therefore, at this time, announce myself as a candidate for such nomination and join with the republicans of Chapin and Garfield precincts in asking for the support of the Republicans of the 3d commissioner district, at the primaries September 3d.
If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.
Respectfully,
GEORGE S. FARRAN.

Phenomenal Yield of Wheat.
SHELTON, Neb., Aug. 12—(Special.)—One of the phenomenal yields of wheat for which this part of Nebraska has become famous was threshed yesterday on the Pounder farm, northeast of town, and was probably the largest in the state this year. The field contained seventy acres, and the average machine measure yield was a fraction over forty-nine bushels to the acre. As the quality was of the very best, the crop will weigh out over fifty bushels. The land was leased by Mr. Joshua Greenwood, and his two- thirds of the crop will amount at the present prices to over $2,000.

MICRO-DRAMA-GRAPHS

From the Billboard. A short play often has a long run.

A fine drama is not necessarily a play on words. Harsh criticism is rarely honest and never just.

There is no use in an actor roaring like a volcanic quarry because a critic ignores him. The manager didn't, else he wouldn't be on the job.

Everyone has a pet nightmare, yet most of us go home on the trolley. Some people seem to think it more difficult to discuss a play than to write one.

It is curious that a matinee idol should often be a josh-er. There is no use in an actor roaring like a volcanic quarry because a critic ignores him.

Some people buy gold because they have something to show about. Farmers admire a cut price grocery until he cuts the price of eggs...

There isn't as much difference between a croaking laugh and a snigger as you might imagine. Any kind of an excuse goes with a man...

Now, up and up, don't you remember more vividly the whippings your father gave you, than the many kindnesses he showed you...

ANOTHER INVESTIGATION

AND ITS RESULT

S OHN G. ROBERTS, of Denver, the mining man who was employed by prospective investors to make a minute examination of the properties of the King Solomon Tunnel & Development Company, of Frisco, Colorado, has finished his work and has submitted to them the following report. There is perhaps no man in Denver better qualified to make an examination of this kind, and none whose word will carry more weight with those who know him or look up his record. In his forty-four years of practical mining and milling in this state he has made money, not only for himself but for others and now enjoys the well earned comforts to be had by a residence in Denver where he is educating his family. Inquiry reveals the fact that he bears an unblemished reputation and comes from sterling old Welsh stock long known for their uprightness and reverence for truth and morality. His father, the Rt. Rev. Griffith Roberts, is well known on various fields in the middle west where he has held pastorates. As the report is too voluminous to give it all below, I will just give it in part. He says:

"The first thing which impressed me on arriving was the natural advantages surrounding this property, such as unlimited water power, abundance of timber, means of handling rock and testing ore at a minimum of expense, and railroad facilities unexcelled.

"In the next 400 feet after crossing the Golden Centre at least three lodes are discovered on the surface, a few assays giving $40 per ton. From this group to the end of the property six or eight veins are seen, but not developed. To examine these last was the most laborious experience of my life, four of them being in the Horseshoe which is an excavation in the side of Peak No. 1, 2,500 feet long, 2,000 feet wide and 800 feet deep. The perpendicular depth from the apex of these veins to the tunnel level is nearly 4,000 feet. Just think of the vast stoping ground when the tunnel is finished!

"An interesting item if furnished about this group. Two men while prospecting here found a large chunk of ore rolled out of one of the crevices. The broke it up into smaller pieces, took it to market on two burros, and sold it for a little over $2,800. Can a better record be found anywhere?

Now about the Placer Claim: It is located on the west side of the Blue river, one mile below the town of Dillon, and consists of about 360 acres. I believe this Placer Claim alone is worth all the stockholders have invested or ever will invest. The Reliance Dredge Company, doing deep placer mining nearby cleaned up $1,000 a day last season and $80,000 when pulling up for the winter.

Would say in conclusion that I have the utmost confidence in the honesty of the officers of the King Solomon company and fully believe that all stockholders will be treated alike."

"Faithfully submitted,"

"JOHN G. ROBERTS."

Time and again different engineers have been over our property and in each case their reports are very favorable. The above report by Mr. Roberts is made by a man whom we had never seen, and we did not know he was coming until he appeared on the property with a crowd of investors who had hired him to make an investigation for them.

I Have Taken Quite a Number Out This Summer to See the Property and Every One of Them Has Invested. Now is the Time to Buy.

The Football of Dirty Politics.

That the Lincoln Journal has turned venomously on United States Senator Norris Brown and State Chairman and Deputy Attorney General Rose and accused both of misfeasance if not actual misfeasance in office, shows how bitter has become the fight between the two factions of the republican party.

The charge against these leaders of the opposing faction is made for the Journal by Roscoe Pound, who displaced Judge Reese as dean of the state university law school, and who was formerly a commissioner of the supreme court. So pointedly and directly is it made that the Journal probably has good ground for its exultant surmise that it "will certainly start something in Nebraska." This accusation against Brown and Rose is a counter charge to the charge against Judge Sedgwick that "the Bartley bondsmen were released from a $500,000 liability to the state on a technicality by a decision in which Judge Sedgwick participated after the legal liability of the bondsmen had been established."

Dean Pound asserts that the "technicality" was a glaring and obvious mistake committed by counsel for the state on appealing the case from Douglas county. The mistake was originally made by Attorney General Prout, at a time when Brown was his deputy. Later, Brown became Attorney General with Rose his deputy, and failed and refused to correct it. Dean Pound says:

The fault was obviously that of counsel of the state (a) in not filing a properly authenticated record in the first place, (b) in not correcting it when the defect was challenged, (c) in not attempting to correct it afterwards, though afforded abundant opportunity. Similarly, the miscarriage of justice in the suit against the Lincoln Journal for $85,000 damages for theft of copyrighted supreme court reports, is also laid at the door of Brown and Rose, for filing a defective petition in the first place, for failing to amend it when they had the opportunity, and for offering to amend it only after the term of court in which judgment was rendered had expired when, "as every lawyer knows, it is irretrievably too late."

On the Journal's part this is an unparalleled exhibition of ingratitude. It was repeatedly charged, last fall, that the Journal's vehement championship of Brown for senator was due to the fact that, through Brown's dereliction as attorney general, the Journal won that damage suit. That the Journal, which then ridiculed the charge, should now sustain it and fling it in the teeth of Senator Brown, in the effort to defeat the senator's preferred candidate for supreme judge, speaks volumes of the character of republican politics in this state.

The whole miserable story is a stenches in the nostrils of Nebraska. The one fact that stands out clearly is that republican officials, whether on the bench or in the attorney general's office, betrayed the interests of the people and made justice a farce. And now the factions of the party, both tarred with the same filthy stick, are firing at one another blast and counter-blast of crimination and recrimination. They are making the high office of justice of the supreme court the football of dirty politics. They are creating a fierce antagonism between the supreme court and the attorney general's office, as the Journal itself admits, that is certain to cost the state dearly. They are doing more than has ever been done in the state of Nebraska before to bring the supreme court into odium and disrepute.

The issue before the republican primaries is not so much Reese and Sedgwick, as it is Harry Lindsay, former state chairman and now clerk of the supreme court, against the present chairman Rose, who aspires to be clerk. The methods employed are not such as befit a contest over a judgeship, but such as always mark a bitter struggle between greed and unscrupulous opponents.

What has become of "republican reform" in Nebraska?

Comes now John T. Bressler, Theo. Duerig, Henry Kellogg, A. E. Bressler, Phil H. Kohl, H. B. Craven, R. Craven, S. R. Theobald, C. M. Craven, W. C. Wightman and object and except to, and complain of the action of the Board of Equalization of Wayne county, Nebraska, had on June 26, 1907, in ordering the shares of stock in the Nebraska Land Company, a corporation, owned by them, to be assessed to them individually, and object and except to, and complain of the action of the Board in assessing to them individually based upon their shares of stock the following sums:

NAME	No. SHARES	AMOUNT
John T. Bressler	100	$10,000
Theo. Duerig	25	2,500
Henry Kellogg	30	3,000
A. E. Bressler	6	600

Whereupon the Board after due consideration rejects the complaints of John T. Bressler, Theo. Duerig, Henry Kellogg, A. E. Bressler, Phil H. Kohl, H. B. Craven, R. Craven, S. R. Theobald and C. M. Craven and W. C. Wightman to the assessment individually, of their respective shares of stock in the Nebraska Land Company. The last legislature passed an act authorizing the assessment of a poll tax of $2.50, to be paid in cash, upon every male inhabitant in each road district, being over the age of 21 years and under the age of 50 years, except those specially exempted by law. Whereas, it appears that all were assessed with a poll tax of $3.00 under the old law, be it Resolved by this board, That the assessment of $3.00 be reduced to $2.50 and the county clerk ordered to spread upon the tax list a tax of $2.50 against those subject to poll as shown by the assessor's books.

Whereupon board adjourned sine die. CHAS. W. REYNOLDS, Clerk.
