Messrs and Mesdames W. H. McNeal, E. J. Raymond, Wilson Rickabaugh, Miss Lucy Miller, Carl Surber, Gene Leahy, N. E. Stodden, Leonard Elsing, Wm. Buetow and Frank Tracy and Frank Weible of Winside were among the passengers to Sioux City yesterday morning.
Willie Hoage is back from Kansas and from the way he describes that country to his mother the latter says they will sell the Kansas land now and keep the Nebraska farm that has been on the market for some time. Kansas is all right—once in awhile—Nebraska all the time.
H. W. Billiter was down from Carroll last Saturday. He says his son-in-law, P. G. Burress, will arrive here from France with a bunch of 16 horses about next Tuesday. The animals with the exception of three or four brood mares are all thoroughbred Percheron and Belgian stallions.
Way Meister & Bluechel are turning out goods lately isn't slow, turning out a carload of those Great Western Manure Spreaders last week, and receiving another carload of Mandt Wagons, and a carload of Buerkens Wagons, and another carload of Great Western Manure Spreaders are on the road from the factory.
Dan Martin has rented the Newton house east of the German store and expects to make his home in Wayne, Mrs. Martin taking treatment from Dr. F. M. Thomas. Mr. Martin disliked leaving Gettysburg, S. D., where he says about everything bought makes him big money. He thinks the country about Gettysburg is simply o. k.
Dr. Jenkins of Omaha preached an excellent sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday. He took for his subject "Hope and the Hope of the Christian." As well as being one of the most profound theological students, the doctor is also a good reader of human nature, and his discourse was deep, logical, but not comprehensive and a treat to those who heard him.
Ray Reynolds went to Carroll Monday to assist in invoicing the Beebe & Francis stock of goods, Ed. Johnson of Wayne and J. W. Johnson of Carroll having traded the implement business in that town for Mr. Francis' interest in the store. Bert Francis and his brother will run the implement trade and Messrs Beebe and the Johnsons the dry goods and groceries, at least until after the November election.
Yesterday morning when Lou Kloppe's hired hand went out in the pasture to take up a horse to put to work he found the animal missing, and after a hasty search came to the conclusion that the horse was stolen. Sheriff G. S. Mears was called up and after conferring with President Strahan of the anti-horse thief association they decided to hunt for the horse before notifying the community of the supposed theft, the result being that the sheriff soon found the body of the brute in the creek where it had presumably fallen in and been drowned. The horse was an extra good one, worth about $200.

Hoskins News.
From the Headlight:
Mrs. Geo. F. Drevson returned Saturday from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends at Ames.
The corn around Hoskins is now out of danger of frost and the farmers can congratulate themselves on having a splendid crop.
Mrs. Henry Boehmen and children left Wednesday morning for Omaha where they will visit friends and take in the Ak-Sar-Ben.
"Another huggin' bee?" Yes, that's it. Don't forget, it's Saturday evening October 5th. You'll miss it if you miss it. You will be the only one at home.
A. W. Barge left Wednesday night for Hartington where he will enjoy a short visit at the home of Mrs. Barge's parents. Mrs. Barge preceded him last week. Arthur Whittiker is taking his place at the depot.
In selecting a candidate for county assessor the west end wants to go very careful and know they are going to get a square deal. Land values are set next year and they stand for four years at the prices then arrived at.
F. P. Andrews, a former editor of the Headlight passed through here Tuesday on his way to Chicago. He has sold out his interest at Meadow Grove and make a short visit with his friends in that city and will then look up another location.
The switch board for the telephone service arrived Tuesday evening and will be put up as soon as the wires reach here which are expected by the middle of next week. A load of poles have been secured and will be used in the construction of new lines around town.
Last Saturday night some sneaking thief forced entrance to John Werner's chicken coop, stealing several chickens and John's Christmas goose. A man that will deliberately do such a trick as this, must be branded as the dirtiest kind of a sneak. The party that did the deed is under surveillance and it would not take much of a complaint to send him where he justly belongs.
Last Saturday Will Mittelstadt was taken to the Luthern Hospital at Sioux City to be operated on for appendicitis but it is feared that it will be of no avail. On Tuesday morning word was received that he was in a serious condition and his wife and near relatives were immediately called to his bedside. Mrs. Mittelstadt left on the morning train Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. Mittelstadt, father and mother of Will, Mr. and Mrs. Hechman, the latter a sister, and Carl Mittelstadt. At last reports his condition was very critical and no hopes were entertained.
Yes, Lundburg, you are right that majority should rule, but, that majority should be obtained by fair and honorable means. August Ziemer was clean and capable, but his opponents in the primary misrepresented him, and not only that, but lied as black lies as the devil himself could tell, in order to win out for Winside, and not Chapin as represented. If Mr. Farran is so slack that he will allow his friends to go out in a campaign and resort to rot to win the nomination for an office that is really a detriment to the one that gets it, we cannot imagine how he expects to gain the undivided support of the republicans of Wayne County. They went out and represented Ziemer as being pledged when he was not, and before long we will publish a few of Farran's pledges and state to whom he made them.
Piano Tuning.
Mr. J. A. Page, of Omaha, will be in Wayne shortly after Oct. twenty-first, tuning pianos, cleaning and repairing organs. Mr. Page is a graduate of the Nebraska State School for the blind, where he completed a course in this particular line of work. Mr. Page wishes to state clearly that in case the work is not satisfactory, no charges are made for time or labor. Have done work in Wayne before and have given excellent satisfaction to some of its best musical people. Persons wishing work done of this kind may leave orders with Fleetwood & Johnson, at the furniture store.

BY DAD

It's all right, Henry, you can win it in a walk.

Among the list of high-toned matrimonial ventures I notice that "Le Olla Blanche and Mr. E. Arthure" of Omaha are in it. Funny why some people ape the customs of the dagos.

Norfolk wants a corn palace, or at least the News advocates having one. That's an ancient scheme, why not get up something new, an automobile regatta, for instance. Norfolk should have something fast to agree with the general tone of the town.

I'd like to get a yob picking corn—if you'll just bring the corn to this office.

Funny how this Ak-Sar-Ben and the Methodist conference both land in wicked Omaha the same dates, isn't it? Such an indiscriminate exhibition of levity, boisterousness and booze is enough to make the great host of parsons go out and raise a big row over every saloon in the state.

"Got some awful bad news this morning," remarked Fred Benschopf yesterday in a mournful tone of voice. And then when asked what had happened the sleuth collector replied: "Just got a letter saying my mothe-in-law was coming to make us a visit." And then Fred laughed as though he enjoyed it—the expected visit.

Don't be fooled into believing that Miss Zetta Rayburn can't be Wayne county's next treasurer. The DEMOCRAT announced Miss Rayburn's candidacy weeks before the republican candidate's name was mentioned in this connection and by all that is fair in business or politics she is the party who should have no opposition "by arrangement" in preference to any other candidate. Sixteen years of not only faithful but most capable service as an assistant, at a very modest compensation, ought to be worthy of promotion at the hands of the people whom she has so well served. If there were no such thing as politics in it Miss Rayburn would be tendered this compliment unambiguously. If we have to fight for her rights let's make it a good battle.

A couple of Wayne married ladies whose matrimonial voyage has been short and strenuous, got to exchanging confidences about their "family skeletons" the other day when one hoarsely whispered to the other: "say, M—, you can't guess what I found among things the other day! A little withered up bouquet that you gave him years ago." Now, by dad, I suppose you wonder how some people hear so much. Why, I'm one of the durn'd "skeletons."

The DEMOCRAT believes there is nothing better in the way of recreation, exercise and a trend to modernness than dancing, taken in modertion. There is nothing more enjoyable to young people, especially, and only those whose early education has been sadly neglected by a prudish and ignorant belief that "to dance was to go to hell," will look at the matter in any other light. A great deal has been said of late, among local papers, as to the county superintendent of Wayne county issuing an order that teachers must not go to dances. We don't know whether Prof. Littell dances or not, but the report that he forbid others to do so was all a joke at home, taken in all seriousness by outsiders. Mr. Littell simply advised against an over-indulgence of the pleasure on the part of the school teachers, or to not let the after-weariness of the ballroom interfere with school duties.

The Wausa Gazette says: "Let them take a brisk walk out in the fresh air after school hours, instead of cantering around in a close sweltering dance hall until two o'clock in the morning." That's well enough said, by dad, but if they know how to dance well they'll walk gracefully when they walk; they will stand erect and be healthier, happier and be better looking people than all the round-shouldered, hump-backed prohibition, anti-dancing fanatics in—Wausa.

Rev. Hughes, of the Pender Republic, says Mark Murray, of the Pender Times, ought to be in the penitentiary. This is a criminal libel and if we were in Mark's place, we would either be sent to the pen or send Rev. Hughes there. We are fast losing the respect we once had for Rev. Hughes.—Lyons Mirror.

Respect! why you surely never had respect for a man of Hughes' stamp. The DEMOCRAT simply considers him a sort of an "irresponsible," and being a preacher, is entitled to sympathy instead of reproof. The only way to get along in this world with such people as "Rev." Hughes is to let them religiously alone, and the DEMOCRAT is in error in referring to the poor idiot even in this instance.

Tell you what, these people who take carnival outings in prohibition villages are just as likely to run up against a proposition as a fellow is in—Sioux City. This "party who was old enough to know better," too, happened to meet his wife, or rather she "happened" to meet him. Putting his hand in his pocket he pulled out a V and said: "Here, —, take this and go have a h—l of a time: I'm just having a h—l of a time, and you ought to have one too-hoo!" Sam Davies says he was there, so guess it must be true.

Talking about voting for a candidate for county commissioner, Mr. Farran is an unknown quantity to us, having merely met the gentleman, but by dad, Wayne county needs men like Ed. Carroll on the board and he's worth just a million average men in that position. If you have any regard for the condition of county finances or the amount of taxes you must pay you'll hire Carroll to pull the county out of debt. He is already thoroughly posted on the present condition of things at the court house and capable of the job in hand. There wouldn't be any question about whom you would put on the job if it was your private business that was at stake.

Wonder if the price of clothespins has been raised yet?

"When whiskey goes up 2 cents a gallon no one notices the rise," says the Marshalltown Republican. That's one difference between booze and kerosene."

Just as soon as the "amity" had broke out 1,700 girls started across the Atlantic to this country. What we need, however, is plain "bired girls."

A revivalist at Sioux City says there is enough beer in that town to float the largest ship in Uncle Sam's navy. Most Sioux City people will be satisfied if a few "schooners" float their way.

Oysters are said to be smaller this season than usual. A spy glass should be provided with each dish at church socials.

The Thurston county physicians, in convention assembled, agreed to advance the price of their professional services 33 1/3 per cent. Everything is going up. It even costs more than it used to go down.

The late corn got its whiskers singed by Jack Frost Saturday morning. But the ears were not badly pinched.

John D. Rocketteller has lost $100,000.00 in the last ten years. That's what comes of playing golf and not attending to business.

The county clerk of Dakota county has refused to have the names of the democratic candidates for county offices printed on the ballots where such names were "written in" at the primary election, and interested parties have asked for a mandamus to compel the clerk to put on the names as regular democratic nominees. Judge A. A. Welch will sit as referee in the matter. Practically the same condition exists here in Wayne county as to the democratic candidates for county treasurer, judge, assessor and sheriff, but barring a court decision to the contrary our democratic county clerk will no doubt put them on the ballot as the regular party nominees. In the mean time petitions have been circulated, and signed up by the necessary electors to put these party nominees in the field by petition if republican authorities decide they cannot run as democrats. The primary law, if interpreted to forbid the office seeking the man, and to prevent the public from defeating an aspirant who files for office where the well-being of the community or state may demand it, is certainly great legislative stuff.

That's a measly looking delinquent tax list—from a printer's viewpoint. No sheriff's sales, no chattel mortgage foreclosures, and everybody paying up taxes, while all the dead ones print their "last will and testament" in the republican press—the only kind too green to burn while being read down there—what the de'il is a poor democratic yoke going to do—if he doesn't get a dollar and a half?

No wonder some people go to church at every opportunity and vote the prohibition ticket. By dad, after having business or social experiences with a few of them it is easy to understand they need something—to keep them out of the penitentiary.

Moses-Chubb.

The marriage of Miss Edith Moses, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franz Moses, and Chester N. Chubb of Sioux Falls, was solemnized at the bride's home in Bremen precinct yesterday morning at ten o'clock, Rev. Osborn of the Presbyterian church officiating. Only a few intimate friends and relatives were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Chubb have left on a wedding trip of several weeks in the New England states, the former home of the groom, after which they will be at home to their friends in Sioux Falls, S. D.

The bride is one of the fairest and most brilliant of Wayne county's host of bright daughters and for a few years past a most successful teacher in the Wayne and Sioux Falls schools. Mr. Chubb—is good as he looks—is also a prize catch. Anyway we'll all join in the rice throwing and good wishes, and hope they "may live happy ever afterwards."

Notice To Subscribers.

The subscription rate on the DEMOCRAT in past years has been $1 per year in advance or $1.50 per year if paid as delinquent. On and after December 1, 1907, it will be $1.50 per year in advance. Until December 1st all back subscriptions may be paid at the $1 rate, and from one to ninety-nine years may be paid in advance at same figure. Now is the time to straighten these little accounts up to your advantage. Positively nothing but the $1.50 rate goes after December 1, 1907. Stand up for—prosperity.

Nothing is spared, quality of material, workmanship or finish, and with the many new patent improvements, it excels all others made, and stands in the market today without a rival. Be sure you get the genuine, they are branded T. G. Mandt on side of box and hind axle. Sold by MARSTELLER & BLUMBERG.

Was a Great Match.

Spectators who saw Wasem of Lincoln, and Columbus-Danielson, of Wayne, wrestle last Saturday night, say they got their money's worth. Wasem missed connections at Norfolk and had to drive across the country, not getting here until nearly nine o'clock. It was soon seen that in so far as muscles were concerned the visitor had the best of it, being also the heavier man by thirteen pounds. However, Danielson is a magnificent specimen himself, though no doubt out of hard practice. It took Wasem twenty-seven minutes to put the local down the first bout but in doing so the ligaments in one of Danielson's feet were badly strained, the injury being greatly to his disadvantage the rest of the evening. Thirty-two minutes later Wasem got the second fall and won the money, there being $50 on the side and house receipts of some $70.

City Dads' Doings.

The city council held a long-drawn out session last Monday evening, the matter of extending the water mains or water district of the city, from Main street west two blocks on Eighth being the chief subject of argument. The trouble with the council is to know how to do the business legally, so that the property taken in can always be held for water tax. The matter of paying for the work is also a serious problem, the city finances at present being just about "from hand to mouth." The question was finally continued to an adjourned meeting to be held next Monday night when the matter will be definitely decided for this year at least, more time being needed to look into the legal phase of the proposition.

On motion of Alderman Craven it was decided to at once get out all the fire fighting apparatus, especially those and test same under water pressure to see what kind of a fire the probably defective and rusty material could cope with, the supposition being that new hose is needed.

Upon report of Street Commissioner Heady, sidewalks were recommended to be put in at Francis M. Skeen's Mary L. Britton's, Jas Bush's and G. A. Nieman's. The Democrat understands the above are all residence walks except Mrs Britton's which fronts the store building west of the State bank, and which has been in horrible condition for months past. A resolution was passed by the council that the city attorney be instructed to properly draw up notices to above parties to build sidewalks, and upon failure to do so on their part the city would tax the work up to the property.

Mission for Catholics.

On Sunday Oct. 6th, at 10 a. m., a mission will open in St. Mary's church at Wayne, and continue for one week. The Rev. F. A. Strubinger, a Redemptorist of the St. Louis Province will conduct the mission. This reverend gentleman has over twenty years experience in missionary work, is equally proficient in the German and English languages and all are exhorted to attend his mission; that they may renew their zeal in struggling for that which is above the material things of earth, their eternal salvation. For the best of us at times become so engrossed in the perishable things of earth, that we are liable to forget the principle reason for our existence here; and hence need to be aroused from that spiritual sleep which leads to eternal destruction.

Another Muck Raker.

The pastor of a Chicago church is advertising himself extensively in the papers, and incidentally drawing larger audiences and getting proportionately greater collections, by a series of sermons on the subject of "Women and Booze." His remarks on these two important elements in human happiness and misery have not been eulogistic of either, but rather a general indictment against the two of them severally and in combination—more especially in combination. In short; he alleges that lovely women, at least the species Americana, is on the highway to a drunkard's grave.

Whereupon appeared the defendants in person and by their attorneys, and remarked that they were much pained to note that the reverend gentleman's female associations were such as he described, and that it was

Business Still Increases!

Orders continue to come, both by 'phone and in person. There is a reason. We have what the people want. It's a satisfaction to know our many, many customers are satisfied. Good goods and right prices combined with prompt and diligent service is the secret of our success.

High Grade Oil

Every housewife is interested in oil. Those smoky chimnies' offensive odors can be eliminated if you use our high-grade oil. Cut out the coupon in last week's paper and secure 1/4 gallon free, also new wicks for your lamps. If you see our wagon about town hand the driver your card—Johnnie will deliver it free of charge.

Winter Apples Bought

To those having Winter apples to sell—bring in one or two bushels which would be a fair sample of those you have for sale—I will be pleased to make you a bid. Also potatoes. I need 500 bushels more.

Flower Pots and Jardiniers

Have all sizes. Call us up; we'll fill your orders subject to approval.

Seal of Minnesota Flour

Everything on the table may be a "little off;" a husband late to dinner may find the soup a little chilly; the coffee was good once and the pie slightly burned while the good housewife was holding a conversation with her neighbor over the back fence. He does not allow all this to mar domestic happiness if the bread is good, and it will be if Seal of Minnesota Flour is provided. It's the great flour from the great flour state. A trial will convince you of its superiority.

Dinner Sets

I invite the ladies to come and inspect my line of Dinner Sets. Offer some excellent values in these lines, which must be seen to be appreciated. Have you seen my 100-piece French Haviland Dinner Set? It's a beauty, trimmed in genuine gold. The city stores get $100 for this set; my price, however, is $85. Come and see it.

Holiday Goods

The time for buying holiday goods is near at hand. A number of shipments have already arrived, with more to follow. My system of ONE PRICE TO ALL and everything marked in plain figures will prevail. Lines will consist of everything from the dainty 100-piece sets of Haviland china to lines which will conform to the demands of those with sparsely filled purses. My showing of German china, elaborately decorated, new shapes and snappy designs, will excel anything of the kind ever shown in Wayne.

Also hand painted Jap China, a direct importation. A line of salads from 25c to $3.00. This holiday stock must be seen to be appreciated. Open for your inspection about October 20.

Try Us on Groceries

You will not regret placing an order with us. Everything in season. Early orders receive prompt attention.

Our Line of Pipes

Should command the attention of smokers. Most everything in all shapes and sizes. Prices 25c to $10.00. Without doubt it is the most complete line in town.

too bad that he should have judged the whole of womankind according to the standard of his own limited associations, and that he was either a liar or a fool, or possibly both, and a few more remarks to the same general tenor and effect.

And the war is on. The preacher comes back with further charges against the sex; crowds go to his church, not for worship, but for amusement; his pulpit has become more like a political forum or a vaudeville stage than fount of healing for wounded spirits. Possibly, however, the collections are increased.

Evidently this particular minister is a muckraker. It might do him some good to reflect on the great truth that there is such a thing as temperance in language and habits of speech as well as in gastric indulgence.—World-Herald.

Farm Bargain.

It is composed of 160 acres deeded land and 640 acres school land, 800 acres in all. The quarter deeded land has a good six room house, all newly papered and repaired inside, good barn, cattle shed, well never failing water, wind mill, about half under cultivation. School section all fenced and grows mammoth crop of hay, lease paid to Jan. 1st, 1908. Lease runs 4 years from next January at an annual rental of 10 cents per acre. Deeded lies level with a slight raise on the East side, fifteen miles North of Pierre, South Dakota, half a mile from a Post Office, half a mile to school, all fences on school section and assignment of lease on same, fully paid to Jan 1st, 1908 goes with deeded quarter. For further information, and price and terms, see A. N. Matheny, Wayne, Neb.

School Notes

County Superintendent Littell. An educational rally will be held in Winsing, Friday evening, Nov. 1st. Supt J. L. McBrien will deliver the address.

Parents' who have children, between the ages of seven and fifteen and who expect to send them to school only during the term required by law, would do well to send them the first two-thirds of the year.

In school district No. 68 is, without a doubt, one of the most pleasant school rooms in N. E. Nebr. Such conditions contrasted with that in many schools give rise to the hope that all the boys and girls attending the rural schools may in a few years, at least be granted healthful surroundings, or better still, surroundings that will create in them a love for the beautiful.

A teacher's attitude in regard to teachers' gatherings designed for professional culture, is an infallible index to her interest in her school work. School officers and patrons are beginning to realize this, and the sooner indifferent teachers catch the point, the sooner will they place themselves in line for promotion.

You Can Easily Operate This Typewriter Yourself

Don't worry your correspondent. Don't write him anything by hand that it takes him time to make out—that may leave him in doubt—that he can't easily read.

And don't fill out legal papers or card memos—or make out accounts or hotel menus in your own hand writing.

It looks bad, reflects on your standing, makes people think you can't afford a stenographer, and is sometimes ambiguous.

You can write out your letters—make out an abstract—fill in an insurance policy—enter your card memos—make out your accounts or a hotel menu—or do any kind of writing you need, on any kind, size or thickness of paper, space any way you want on

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer. You can write any of these things yourself if you do not happen to have a stenographer.

For you can easily learn, with a little practice, to write just as rapidly, and as perfectly, as an expert on the OLIVER. Because the OLIVER is the simplified typewriter.

You can adjust the OLIVER to any reasonable space—you can write on any reasonable size and thickness of paper, right out to the very edge, without the aid of any expensive attachment or special skill, and your work will be neat appearing, legible and clear.

For the OLIVER is the typewriter for the doctor, the lawyer, the insurance agent, the merchant, the hotel proprietor—or any man who does his own writing.

The names of delegates who will attend should be sent to F. H. Jones, Wayne.

James Ahern opened his new General Merchandise Store last week. James looks familiar with the old store which has been an Ahern Establishment almost continuously for 27 years. The room has been painted and re-arranged, a new lighting plant installed and every convenience provided for making the store light, roomy and attractive. A fresh new stock of Dry goods, groceries and Men's Furnishings, well displayed and arranged makes the store look very inviting. Much care and time have evidently been spent in getting ready for their new venture and no doubt Jim will make a success of it.

Great Missionary Meeting

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Synod of Nebraska met in Wayne Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

This is an event the Wayne ladies have long been looking forward to and the whole affair passed off very successfully. Through the entertainment committee composed of Mesdames Funston, J. G. Mines and Durin. The fifty visiting ladies were placed in homes ready to welcome and entertain them. The church was simply decorated in green foliage and scarlet blossoms. The choir composed of Mesdames Morris, Buchanan, Misses Gamble and Nangle, and Messrs Gamble, Morris, Sweet and Buchanan finely rendered anthems for the evening sessions and in the absence of the pastor, Reverend Ringer presided. Wednesday afternoon was devoted to a conference of work among the younger members, the Mission Bands, S. School, and Christian Endeavor Societies led by Miss Porter of Central City. This was followed by an Executive Committee Meeting.

Wednesday evening, Mrs. Harrington in a very gracious manner gave the words of greeting, stating that one reason for wanting the meeting at Wayne was a selfish one on the part of the society, that during the previous years one or two members would enjoy the privileges of the delegate, coming home much enthused and with broader working powers, while this year all could avail themselves of both the pleasure and profit. She spoke of Love as the key note or mainspring of all good work and the inspiration of all great accomplishments. A happy response was given by Mrs. Claybaugh of Omaha.

Mrs. Conklin, secretary of Young People's work, then talked on "Hopeful Outlook," having her report all nicely arranged on a large placard making it easy to understand her report and was not so tiresome as statistics are apt to be. Miss Petrie, of New York, made the address of the evening. Miss Petrie is a cultured, fluent speaker and her address is spoken of as being away above many of the high priced ones heard in Wayne. Her position being to inspect the work done by the different teachers sent out, her travels necessarily give her a good insight into human nature of which she is good at depicting. She told of the mountain whites and of visits made among them, in some places taking long horseback rides to reach them her talk appealing to those who had seen much of the frontier or backwoods life where a Sunday school or meeting is a God-send, and where the "teacher" and her ways, clothes, etc., is the one bright spot in many a lonesome woman of girl's life. Her talk contained many amusing incidents and was highly appreciated by those present.

Thursday morning was a very full one and the most interesting of the day sessions, the ladies being so interested it was hard to leave the church for the mid-day meal. After many short talks and a solo by Mrs. A. B. Davis, came election of officers, which was a re-election of those of last year. The society did well to retain Mrs. Tilden as president, as she makes a very proficient presiding officer using much tact and guiding all affairs in a smooth manner.

Thursday afternoon opened with a praise service led by Mrs. McCluskey of Laurel. Short addresses by Mesdames Conklin and Petrie and a talk on Sunday schools and Missions by Mrs. Haskell of Wakefield, the latter having personally visited the missions established by the American board in Rome, Italy. She was able to give a very graphic picture of the place and their surroundings. Mrs. Clark who has a beautiful voice, clear as bell, rendered some plantation melodies. After the minutes of the meetings were approved and reports of committee were read came "In Memoriam" for two of the much beloved officers of the society, who had passed away during the year.

Mrs. Kerr, of Omaha, in a brief discourse spoke feelingly of Mrs. Robinson while to Miss Irwin, of Omaha, was given the privilege of paying tribute to Mrs. Clarke, who was also her friend. The congregation joined in singing "Asleep in Jesus." In the evening a full church was present to listen to the discourse of Miss Jewett from Persia, and Mrs. Clark of Georgia. Miss Jewett who thirty-six years ago traveled for two months and a half to reach Persia, being there continually ever since, was well fitted to talk on the subject "Is Persia Progressing" that it decidedly was soon learned from her interesting chronicles. The speaker is too modest about bringing in her own personal adventures and accomplished work which would have pleased her hearers.

Mrs. Morris rendered "Crossing the Bar" and Mrs. Clark by request sang some plantation melodies which were greatly enjoyed by the audience. She plainly shows her Caucasian ancestry in feature and gave in a perfect manner a brief account of the work being done for the freedmen "The Black Man's Only Hope" was her subject.

After the offering and prayer the assembly adjourned until next year when it will convene at Central City, in the Kearney Presbytery.

College Notes.

Mrs. Brazil of Wagner, S. D., brought her daughter down to remain the school year.

Miss Rockwell of Hubbard enrolled Monday and will remain the full year to complete the teachers' course.

Miss Wilkins of Homer enrolled in the Commercial department Monday. She will also take shorthand.

Miss Grunwald of '05 class spent Saturday with her three sisters who are enrolled for the year in the teachers' course.

Mr. Dougherty of North Bend spent a few days last week visiting college friends. He will return to school again as soon as his crop is housed.

Miss Josie Richardson, the assistant in the Pilger school, spent Saturday and Sunday with faculty and other friends on the hill. She enjoys her work very much.

Principal Harvey Raubach came up from Creston Thursday morning and remained until Saturday evening. He has a pleasant school and will prove a good man for the town as well as school.

W. L. Campbell writes an interesting letter from Anselmo. He is enjoying his first experience as a teacher and principal. He has a good town, a good school board and will make an excellent school. He has three assistants.

The officials of the Crescent literary society managed a good social Saturday evening. The attendance was good and the entertainment lively. The ladies of the Y. W. C. A. will direct the social next Saturday evening.

Mrs. Crossland talked to the Y. W. C. A. members Sunday afternoon and Rev. Ringer to the Y. M. C. A. Both talks are reported excellent. The officers feel very grateful for such assistance and hope to have several such talks this fall and winter.

E. O. Blackstone of Pilger spent Sunday on the hill. He was a member of the '05 class, taught as principal the following year at Harrison and last year at Callaway. He is now candidate for county superintendent of Stanton county. His school work has been successful.

A pleasant and ever welcome visitor on the hill spent Saturday night and Sunday with friends. This refers to big Frank Driscoll of '06 class. He is a fine fellow and well liked as a student. After last year's teaching he went into the elevator work and is located at Pilger.

Mr. A. E. Ward took supper with the family Saturday. He spent a few hours looking over grounds and buildings. He is now secretary to Congressman Boyd. For several years he was superintendent of Cedar county schools and during that time Pres. Pile frequently assisted him in his teachers' institutes.

The next term of school opens Oct. 28th. A number of new students will enter then. Scarcity of help on the farms has kept many from entering this term. The graduating classes are building up nicely. We hope to have several to prepare to take up teaching for the schools which need teachers after the holidays. Many country schools will pay $50 per month.

Winside News

From the Tribune.
Miss Clara Schneider came home from Fremont Thursday to attend the funeral of her baby sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ramsey left last evening for Oscar's claim near Phillips, S. D. May good luck attend them.

The six weeks old babe of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneider died Thursday morning and the funeral was held Friday afternoon at St. John's Lutheran church, Rev. Press officiating.

Carl Schneider, who was charged with selling liquors without a license, appeared before Judge Welch at Wayne and plead guilty. He was fined $100 and costs, and the second charge was dismissed.

Harry Siman drove to Wayne yesterday morning to transact a little business that was not in the legal line and yet it was too. He went to get a troublesome tooth silenced. E. W. Tucker went along to hold his head.

The Tribune hears that Chas. Hoffmann, who now resides at Hiorman, and who was formerly section boss at Winside, will return to Winside and reside in the house which he owns here. Mr. Anderson, the present section boss goes to Pender.

Mrs. H. C. Miner, sister of Mr. L. E. Rayburn, returned to her home at Tecumseh last Saturday.

Mrs. J. H. Weaver of Wakefield was a visitor at the Rayburn home last Friday.

Mrs. G. S. Mears and son went to Omaha last Friday for several days visit with her folks.

H. C. Candor and Chas. Beebe were visitors from Carroll last Friday.

Prof. Pile went out to Rushville last Friday to buy a carload of potatoes. Prof. Pile says it takes about 5,000 bushels of "Irish lemons" to feed the college students. Years ago we heard they didn't feed 'em anything but taters at the college, but we didn't believe it then.

J. F. Hammers was in Sioux City last Friday.

A meeting was held at John T. Bressler's office Tuesday night to see what could be done about having a 1908 chalet. The whole proposition was finally put in the management of a committee of nine chaletauqua enthusiasts. The people of the town, generally speaking, appear to take very little interest in the matter at this time; probably more "en-crossed" with how to buy coal during a long, hard winter.

The next car of Great Western Endless Apron Manure Spreaders will be here in a day or two. You won't buy no other after examining it.

Fred Eickhoff, the expert well digger, came near being "all in" again last Thursday. He was bringing up an old cave on the Mellor farm west of town when the whole earth caved in on him. Fred crawled out, just like "walking on the water," saving his life and trowel. "You can't kill a Dutchman," says Fred, and we guess water is about the only thing that would finish him.

THE NATIONAL PURE FOOD LAW

stipulates that no deleterious substance can be used in the manufacture of beer; that all ingredients must be pure and healthful.

Storz Blue Ribbon Bottled Beer

has always been within the requirements of such a law. We do not have to change our method of manufacture one iota to fully comply with the new law. Our general guaranty of purity has been filed with the Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., and awarded serial No. 3011. Your money cannot buy purer, more healthful or more delicious beer than STORZ.

Poland China boar, Perfection Keep On, No. 127321. JOHN COLEMAN.

A Fair Question.

It is far from the intent of The Telegram to stir up the "nasty mud-puddle" in which lies the official record of Judge Reese. We shall leave that work for those republican newspapers which have heretofore declared that the record of Judge Reese was so bad that he must not be thought of as a candidate for Supreme Judge. But in this connection we deem it only fair to propound an innocent question to the Omaha Bee, which is now supporting the candidacy of Judge Reese. A few years ago the Bee said in effect that the supreme bench would be disgraced by giving Judge Reese membership on that bench. Today the Bee says Judge Reese ought to be elected as a member of the supreme court. Our simple question to the Bee is:

IF THE ELECTION OF JUDGE REESE WOULD HAVE BEEN A DISGRACE TO THE SUPREME COURT AND TO NEBRASKA TEN YEARS AGO, WHY NOT A DISGRACE AT THIS TIME? We believe this is a fair question, and deserves a fair answer, and we trust Editor Rosewater may be pleased to give the answer. The people of Nebraska would like to know by what process Judge Reese has been purified during the last ten years. According to the Bee there were some nasty spavins and ring-bones on his official record ten years ago. What manner of medicine has been used to take the blemishes off the black public record of Judge Reese? If he was a judicial crook ten years ago, how and by whom has he been given absolution? If his record on the bench was a disgraceful record ten years ago how and by whom has it been cleaned?—Columbus Telegram

The trouble with John C. Sprecher of the Schuyler Free-Lance is that whenever an expulsiotic or democratic candidate comes up for state office he loses no opportunities to put the screws to him for real or imaginary faults, notwithstanding how rotten and palpably ignoble said candidate's adversary may be. For instance Sprecher is always for the dirtiest yellow dog in the republican manner unless forsooth the democratic candidate is as spotless—as John C. Sprecher. The only deduction to be made is that the Free-Lance man is full of prunes.

On Wednesday Evening, Sept. 18, 1907.

(By a Washington Jonadab)
Come let us hear the story,
That by Trickett will be told
Of the cleansing of a city,
In which now no beer is sold!
The story is a grand one,
And descriptive of the hour
That has come to Kansas people
Since they closed up the SALOON.
In that story he will tell you
How inside of thirty days,
The Attorney-General's action
Did the breweries amaze;
How he used the little padlock
That changed their boasting tune,
And now gingers rear the door knob
(Of the Kansas beer SALOON.
He will tell of the reduction
In all sorts of crime and vice;
How the youths now walk the city,
No temptation to entice;
How the banks do "trusting" business,
From the dawn to rise of moon;
And the blinds are hanging dimly
On each Kansas beer SALOON.
He'll describe the revolution
With an eloquence his own,
And explain this simple method
By which vice was overthrown;
He will show how every city
In this country very soon
Can have shutters nailed up tightly
On the damnable SALOON.
Trickett is the father of Mrs. John Julin, formerly of Wayne. It was while on a visit, with his daughters, to Washington, D. C., where he made a prohibition speech, that the above was written for him.
