Vote for Zetta Rayburn for county treasurer.

It requires a good many "cart wheels" to secure one of those cart hats for women.

Balloonists are not likely to try passing on the same track, neither will they be troubled by speed ordinances.

The weather has been so nice that people do not suspect that some of us have nothing but our summer clothes to wear.

The winter's coming on
The summer now is ended.
The wise young man who gets cold feet Hooks up with his "intended."

If the weather holds good the foot ball season may live up a bit before it is over with. Up to date only seven have been killed.

The government has as good as lost $1,000,000 on the Jamestown exposition. It is time for the government to quit being grafted on the exposition business.

A man on his way from England to Kansas, where he was to be married, jumped overboard and was drowned. Never thought that marrying a Kansas girl was as bad as that.

It has cost American girls more than $200,000,000 to become the wives of titled foreigners and the whole dogged bunch of them wouldn't sell for thirty cents in any other market.

Chicago is a queer old town. Over there they are actually talking of going back to the teaching of reading writing and arithmetic in the public schools. And right in the foot ball season, too.

The London Lancet says the card parties aid disease, the bacillus spreading from soiled cards, causing colds, influenza and catarrh. There is still hope that some day there may be no more card parties.

Rudolph Erekis, a Plymouth county Iowa, farmer, has been awarded damages of $2,500 for injuries received when his team became frightened at an automobile. Seems as if it was cheaper to kill them outright.

The Aurora, Ill., board of health has given its opinion that peanuts are poisonous. They certainly are when the other fellow who has been eating them and drinking whiskey blows his breath in your face.

County Commissioner Cullen, of Wayne county, has such a large face that we often wonder why the barbers don't charge him 20 cents for a shave. —Clyde Ecker.

Perhaps the barbers don't consider it good—for a charge.

"Say, your face looks just a little dirty," said a friend at the depot the other day. Apologizing for appearances we dug up a handkerchief and began a desperate rubbing, but all to no effect as our friend kept stating: "Finally he peered over a little more closely and ejaculated: Well, I'll be—! Say, I believe its just a little 'air'!"

After a long and tedious sermon the preacher closed by saying, "And now Brother Jones will lead us in prayer." Brother Jones had fallen asleep. After repeating the remark several times the pastor, becoming somewhat exasperated, raised his voice to a high pitch, "Brother Jones will lead." This awakened Brother Jones, who exclaimed in his half consciousness, "Taint my lead; I just dealt."

Pat Coleman now tells how he escaped the '92-96 panic. Pat was then living on his farm south of Wayne, and when he had anything to sell he hauled it to Winer, got the coin for it and staked the money down at his home. When he wanted to buy anything he came to Wayne, penniless and poor and got it all on "tick." Say, that's meaner than "reignin'" in a game of euchre, by dad.

Here's a new one on the railroad pass. The road was being built through a grouchy farmer's land, and a barn stood in the right-of-way. The superintendent was finally appealed to and visited the farmer, fixing it up proper and agreeing to write the hayseed when the barn must be moved. Later the building was moved and a year after the farmer, meeting the superintendent, asked him why he did not write about it as agreed. The railway man assured him he had written, and the farmer, pulling out a document, asked, "this it?" "Sure it is," replied the superintendent. "Well, by golly," said the agriculturalist, "say, I thought that was a pass, and I've been riding all over with it for a whole year."

"The other day I was in a village general store, endeavoring to make a sale of jewelry, when a farmer entered," said a traveling man.

"Give me," said the farmer, "a half pound of tobacco, three bars of soap, five yards of blue baby ribbon and a pair of good suspenders."

"The articles were brought forth, inspected, approved and wrapped up. They came to 95 cents.

"Yes," said the farmer, "95's right, but there's the discount. You advertise a five per cent discount don't you?"

"We do sir," said the clerk, but only on purchases of one dollar or more."

"On the counter lay a basket of pocket combs marked five cents apiece.

"Well, I'll just take one of these," said the farmer. "That'll make us square."

The jokesmith's brow is wrinkled
And his mind is filled with fear;
His job is somewhat shaky,
For about this time of year
There is nothing he may draw on
To forge his jokes together,
For the summer joke, the ice man joke,
And jokes about the weather,
Have all been hashed and reshaped
And the Easter bonnet joke,
With the joke about the corn crop,
Have both been put in soak.

There is nothing now to joke about; The weather's simply fine, And the jokesmith's occupation Is to sit around and pine.

—Manson Democrat.

Perhaps, by dad, you democrats wonder why the Wayne Herald, a republican paper, is "agin" Supt. Littell, while this DEMOCRAT thinks Archie is nearly all right. It's a short story, and as the DEMOCRAT got the benefit of the incident it is no more than fair to Littell that we tell it. Early in 1907 the professor began furnishing the Herald a column of school notes, of general interest in the county. I made a personal request of Mr. Littell that the DEMOCRAT also be given the courtesy of publishing the same. To this he readily agreed and instructed Editor Lundburg to let us have second chance at the copy. The Herald either failed or refused to do this, so the superintendent made two copies, one for each paper. Then Lundburg refused to use the matter at all, and not only that, he has, Littell tells me, given the schoolman the "frozen face" ever since. Two years ago, when the DEMOCRAT had the county printing, Supt. Littell turned over a lot of printing to this office that his successors had always sent to outside shops. There may be merit in the complaints about the county superintendent, but this writer is only human, politics be blowed! and we owe Mr. Littell at least the courtesy of this little item.

Light and Water Up.

The city fathers had quite a busy meeting Monday night, taking an adjournment, at a late hour, until Friday night of this week.

C. H. Fisher was present with a petition, duly acknowledged by resident free-holders of the district desiring the extension of the water works, and on motion same was accepted and authority given the water committee to have plans and specifications drawn and advertised for bids on the work. The extension runs two blocks, west of the standpipe, includes two hydrants, and will cost about $800.

Ordinance 163, regulating the cost to consumers of water, was read and passed on to a final reading, for publication this week. It raises the meter rate on water from 15c to 25c per thousand gallons, and the minimum rate to meter patrons to $3.00 per annum, same as heretofore.

Ordinance 164, relating to lights, was read over by Clerk Witter but was not exactly what was wanted and was laid over until City Attorney Berry can fix up its defects. The intention of the council is to raise flat rates fifty per cent on electric lights, making the 8-candle power, 60c, 16, 76c and the 32 $1.80 per month. It also provides a minimum rate of 75c per month to all patrons, whether they are on meter or flat rates, that is, no party can use electric light for less than 75c per month. The council is no doubt right in the decision that it doesn't pay to hire an electrician to chase about reading meters, and a city clerk to follow him, to collect a bill of 30 or 40 cents. In no other city is the minimum rate less than $1.00 per month. Where no light is wanted for any considerable time, it will be arranged to disconnect from the plant, thereby cutting off the necessity of reading meter and making any collection. The members of the council figure that with an all-night service there would or should be no kick on these rates. The all-night service went into effect last Monday night. This ordinance will probably be passed at next meeting.

The council also expects, when the proper time arrives, to levy a tax to cover the expense of fire protection for the city of some fifteen or twenty-five dollars per annum each on the forty odd street hydrants, and a similar levy for streets and other city electric lights. Under the present arrangement property owners who do not use city water nor municipal lighting, pay nothing for these valuable privileges, the city's water and light patrons paying practically all the expense.

Olson Still Passes.

THE DEMOCRAT has a copy of an affidavit, dated Oct. 25, 1907, by Claude Perkins, secretary of the Nebraska State Railway Commission, giving a list of the attorneys at the present riding on railway passes, and we notice among the list A. R. Olson of Wisner, candidate for district judge against Judge Graves. It was reported by some republican papers that Olson had sent in his passes after being nominated, but such is not the case, the report being circulated for the effect only on the voters.

New Horse Farm.

G. F. Moles of Allen, this week bought the 20 acres of land and residence of Bert Brown that Mr. Brown a few weeks ago got from Madden in a land trade, price $5000. Mr. Moles will move here March 1st and go into the Percheron horse business on a large scale, importing and breeding. This will add to Wayne's industries and wealth to considerable extent, and we hand Mr. Moles a cordial welcome.

Geo. Stringer and wife went to Stanton Tuesday for a few days visiting.

Miss Mamie Wallace and her mother, and Miss Manning were Sioux City visitors last Saturday.

Atty. F. A. Berry left Monday evening for Bartlett, in the western part of the state, on legal business.

Mrs. Thos. Kingston and Mrs. J. E. Brown, mother and sister of Mrs. L. L. Way, were arrivals from Stanton Monday on a visit.

A. B. Clark will sell 69 head of Scotch and Scotch Topped Shorthorns at Wayne, Nebraska, Wednesday, November 13. See his advertisement elsewhere.

"Bet Your Life."

Long ago it was written that a man could not serve both, and Chancellor Andrews is a living testimonial to the truth of the old writing. When Chancellor Andrews began fishing for that blood-money which John Rockefeller gave to the Nebraska university he necessarily put behind him the allegiance, which he owed to the cause of Justice and Truth, and then and there entered into a compact with the cause of Evil, personified in that man who had accumulated more money by unfair and unlawful means than any other man of ancient or of modern days.

Not long after the compact was made the chancellor began teaching the wicked doctrine that the pursuit of wealth should be the chief occupation of young men. He also taught that in every day affairs the smothering of truth and the telling of a lie was excusable. From bad, he has gone to worse. His adulation of men of money, his constant fawning at the feet of wealth, his all the-time apology for crimes committed by wealthy men has at last made the very name of Andrews a shame in Nebraska and a disgrace to the great free university of which he is the recognized head.

The latest evidence of the selling of Andrews' soul to the powers of evil was evidenced last week, when the chancellor went down to the home-place of predatory wealth in the East, and there delivered an address in which he advised the visiting of the death penalty upon editors who castigate the criminal rich. He made a fervid plea for charity in behalf of the rich criminals of the land. He declared that the greatest danger confronting the republic was reckless public criticism of the wealthy men whose money makes prosperity in America. It was just such a speech as John Rockefeller might have made. It was a speech which ought to bring about the immediate withdrawal of Chancellor Andrews from the leadership of a university which he disgraces by his presence.—Columbus Telegram.

Vern Fisher, son of John Fisher, is the new assistant at the power house.

Lee Burker was in Emerson Monday night where he is leader of a band that he schools one night per week.

SUPPLEMENT

To the Nebraska Democrat

Wayne, Neb., Oct. 31, 1907.

Winside News.

From the Tribune.

Mrs. Holgren and children returned from a visit "back east" last Wednesday evening.

P. F. Faanabaker was up from Omaha Saturday and reports that the Mineral Springs business is booming.

Mrs. John Dimmel returned from a visit in New York City Friday evening. Her daughter, Miss Ungerl has been keeping house for her during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith left yesterday for a trip to Missouri and Iowa to visit relatives and friends, and will be absent about three weeks. M. H. Boyle will look after Mr. Smith's business.

Last week the Wayne Democrat said that "Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holcomb left Winside for Goldfield, Nevada, to make their future home," all of which was news to Winside people and "the girl he left behind him." The Tribune don't know who the joke is on, Lloyd, the lady who happened to be going out west on the same train, but different destination, or the girl left behind.

Jerry Jorgenson, who drives one of the dray teams just escaped being injured by a switch engine in the yards here last Thursday. He attempted to cross the track in front of the engine and the pilot struck one of the horses, injuring one of its hind feet so badly that it is doubtful if the horse does not lose its hoof and have to be shot. Jerry escaped without injury.

The Woman's Club will give a supper on Halloween night in the opera house, proceeds for the benefit of the public library, a public enterprise which the Woman's Club founded. Every fall they find it necessary to buy new books, so as to keep up to date and to add interest, and now the people of the town and vicinity have an opportunity to assist the good work by patronizing the supper next Thursday evening. There will be a program of some kind after supper, which will commence to be served at 5:30, and everybody is expected to have a good time.

Carroll News.

From the Index.

G. D. Burnham, of Sholes, is now making dates for sales this fall and winter. He has proved to be a first class auctioneer. His terms are reasonable. You may make dates at this office.

Mrs. S. F. McManigall, candidate for county superintendent, was in this office Saturday afternoon and interviewed the print with a regard to her candidacy. She seems to have many friends hereabouts who are working zealously in her behalf.

Although W. H. Root belongs to the Randolph lodge of I. O. O. F. yet the Carroll boys rejoice as much and feel as proud as the Randolph lodge in the fact that W. H. was elected to the office of Grand Conductor at the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F. that was held in Omaha last week. This election places Mr. Root in a position to attain the highest office in the gift of the Odd Fellows of the state. We congratulate you brother Root.

Roy Billeter and the Eksman boys this week purchased a Deering corn husker this week of T. E. Evans & Sons. The same was set up Wednesday and taken into the corn field of Geo. Yaryan's west of town and given a trial. Much interest was taken in the machine to see if it would work right. It proved on its trial that it was a success. The machine husks clean and shells very little of the corn. There is little doubt that it will be but a short time until the demand for men to husk corn will be very light. This machine it is said will get over eight acres in a day. Just to show the difference in machines it can be said that the Anson boys bought an Appleton husker made at Batavia, Illinois and gave it a trial and it proved a failure. So any one has in mind to buy a machine should make a careful investigation before buying.

The wrestling bout between Wasm of Lincoln, and Columbus Danielson, last Saturday night was a great exhibition. It took 38 minutes of the fiercest kind of a scrimmage for the visitor to put Danielson down the first fall. The second taking 30 minutes. NO man will ever wear a more stylish suit than our Hart Schaffner & Marx Varsity-sack suit.

There's distinction in it; gives a "so-different" look; high-toned. You'll miss a good thing if you don't see and wear these clothes.

The new fabrics are very fine; browns with rich stripes in harmonious colors; grays of various shades and kinds. We can fit you perfectly in these goods; and they're all-wool, perfectly tailored. We'll sell you a suit or an over here at the right price.

Jake Dornberger was at home from South Dakota over Sunday, going back to work on Monday. Jake wears a "set" of sideburns and now looks like an "English Jew."

Atty. Wittke of Randolph was in Omaha Friday on the Chaon divorce case. A newspaper man of that city says this is the liveliest case ever stirred up with a stick.

Rev. Karpenstein accompanied Jake Heimbuuehner to Sioux City last Friday to see a specialist about a bad foot the latter has had for some time, the result of an injury.

When you build a fence why not buy the best, ask your neighbor what fence he likes the best and he will tell you the Pittsburgh Perfect, bought of MARSTELLER & PETERSON.

Warren Closson, ex-editor of the Randolph Reporter, was in town Friday on his way to Sioux City. Warren is now in business with E. W. at Sholes and trying to live down his newspaper experience.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Cook write from South Dakota that they will return to Wayne this week. They also report a new grand-daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. J. Hankins, proving the South Dakota climate is just as good as Nebraska's.

J. H. Wright says the DEMOCRAT was in error in stating that he had quit house-moving. J. H. says his sons will run the store at Dixon and he will continue his present business.

He was in Sioux City Friday last helping the boys get stocked up.

H. B. Miller (Uncle Henry) was here from Winside Monday going up the branch line to call on old friends and relatives. Mr. Miller does not look a day older than when he left here several years ago and says he feels as good as ever. He will spend the winter hereabouts and in Illinois, returning to Washington in the spring.

"A Neckel" was a regulation bid of Henry Wesselschmidt at the sale of J. D. King's old nick-nacks last Saturday. Mr. Wesselschmidt is one of the wealthy farmers of the county, owns the finest of farm residences, but a neighbor says he has a ten acre lot loaded with stuff he has bought at sales, it being a fad the old gentleman enjoys.

John Miller, brother of our H. B. Miller and father of Mrs. A. H. Carter, died at the home of his daughter in Winside last Saturday, having come recently from his home at Malvern, Mo., for a visit with his Winside relations. H. B. Miller arrived here from Chelan, Wash., Sunday evening, and Monday the remains were shipped to Malvern for burial, Conductor Ora Miller, nephew of the deceased, accompanying the body.

Fred Berry and Miss Jessie McCor mick were married last Friday at Dakota City. The evening previous they came to Wayne for a short visit at the home of Mr. Berry's parents. The bride is a handsome looking young lady and her father in law, F. A. Berry, says she is a hustler. Fred is still studying medicine, getting acquainted and wooing a bride at his boarding house.

S. B. Scace tells the DEMOCRAT he expects to leave Wayne, family and all, in about a month for southwest-ern South Dakota, where he some time ago contested a number of claims and expects to homestead three of them. Mr. Scace says he loves Wayne and her people, and being one of the pioneer hustlers of the county his judgment ought to stand in the matter, but he is going west to Greely out new homes for his sons.

Last Saturday Rev. C. N. Dawson and family drove to Norfolk. Returning, when a mile from the town the horses became frightened at a steam thrasher and started to run. Rev. Mr. Dawson, who was driving, was thrown out and against a barbed wire fence. His hands were slightly cut and his shoulders bruised. About the time the horses started to run, the double-trees broke and they became detached from the buggy. After this they circled about and were caught. While the women were badly frightened, Rev. Mr. Dawson was the only one in the party who was injured.—Stanton Pickett.

Andy Chance went to Sioux City last Saturday.

Hoskins News.

From the Headlight.

Mrs. S. F. McManigal was in town from Wayne Thursday meeting the voters of Hoskins precinct.

Bill Meas purchased a long eared gentleman jass ack with which to hold down his Dakota homestead.

E. H. Carroll was down from Sherman precinct Thursday, looking up the prospects for him getting a few vote down here.

August Rehmer, southwest of town was in Saturday and informed us that he had already begun picking corn and that it is turning out about 40 bushels per acre.

Joseph Dobbin purchased fifteen colts at Smith Brothers' sale in Norfolk Monday. While taking them to his home north of town he had the misfortune to have three badly cut in a barb wire fence.

The Standard Bridge Company are, according to reports, doing all in their power to defeat Carroll for commissioner. It would seem that they had some assurance from his opponents as to what they can expect.

Henry Klopping, democratic candidate for county assessor, was meeting our people Thursday. Mr. Klopping is a good capable German farmer who knows that a bunch of bananas is worth more than thirty cents. Does Witter?

Magnus Eckman loaded a car with horses, cattle, farm machinery and household goods Monday night for Huron, South Dakota, where he will make his future home. His family followed Thursday morning, Magnus going with the car.

It will be remembered that Farran got five votes in this precinct at the primary election. The Headlight can guess so close on who they are that generally they scratch the seat of their trousers and hike along. Funny part of it all is they are all democrats, and little trailers of Cullen, who go about doing his biddings.

At the beautiful farm home of Mr and Mrs. Charlie Falk, on Thursday, occurred the marriage of their daughter Martha to Albert Joehens, Jr. Jannen performing the ceremony.

Both these young people were raised in this vicinity, their parents being among our earliest settlers. They need no introduction to our people but are held in very high esteem by all who know them. They at once go to housekeeping at the farm of the groom two and a half miles south of town. None but relatives of the contracting parties were present but numerous and handsome were the gifts. The Headlight joins the many friends of this happy young couple in wishing them many little joys to cheer and brighten life's journey.

The Winside Tribune three weeks ago very wisely asked us, "who lied," "where they represented Ziener as being pledged" and "what pledges had been made by Farran?," Now the Tribune has a right to ask these questions, and we have the right to answer at our leisure. Of course they will dubb us "mud-dauber" because we don't see fit to follow their's as well as Cullen's dictates. We were only home a day and a half this week and a lack of time forbids going into the subject, but next week, much to the Tribune's satisfaction (?), we shall dish out the proof of the pudding and let Mr. and Mrs. Jones and all the little Jonases chaw, CHAW, CHAW. The statements made by Farran won't look very good to the average voter, especially if our "mud-daubers" are in working.

You have seen this trademark before, have you not?

And so have millions of others.

They have come to associate it with the highest possible stove merit.

It means to you the possibility of reducing your fuel expenses to a minimum, if you buy a Buck's.

Let us show you their many advantages.

Society Notes.

Miss Nettie Craven entertains a big crowd of young people at a spook party this evening.

The little folks will have their Hollowe'en party at the home of Mrs. A. N. Matheny tonight.

The U. D. club will have a scare-crow spook affair tonight, but only the wise ones will find the proper location.

The Acme club had a very jolly party at the home of Mrs. Hamer Wilson Tuesday evening, Mesdames Jacobs, Wilson, Blair and Walter Weber being hostesses to the club.

Mrs. S. E. Aufer, assisted by Mrs. Fond and Mrs. Clarence Corbit entertained the aid society ladies of the M. E. church last Thursday evening at the Aufer home east of the city. A most enjoyable time was had.

The young ladies entertained the young men with a mask ball last night Wednesday, at the opera house. It was a splendid ball, enjoyed by the large audience as well as dancers. Leroy Ley as a "Teddy Bear" took the cake and berries.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. D. King at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Main last Monday evening, that was a "love feast." Mr. and Mrs. King were presented a handsome vase, the presentation speech being made very happily, by Rev. Sharpe.

Artistic invitations have been issued by the "witches" of the Monday club to their "pumpkin heads" for tonight, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Northrop. The invitation bears a pen sketch of Witch and a pumpkin, and is a swell affair. The real fun of the evening will be "finding an affinity."

Mesdames F. M. Skeem, L. L. Way, S. B. Scace and W. H. McNeal gave a very large party Tuesday afternoon of this week, there being about ninety ladies present to enjoy the "Kensington." It being too dark to do any fancy work the ladies spent much of the time talking, as all society ladies are skilled in the art. Very fine refreshments were served and a most enjoyable afternoon spent.

College Notes.

Miss Hewens spent the vacation between terms at Lincoln.

Mr. A. R. Herrell was elected president of the graduating classes at a meeting held last week.

On account of the speech by Mr. Bryan Friday evening, the literary for this week will be held Saturday evening.

Prof. Pile will give the first of the one o'clock talks next Saturday. On succeeding Saturdays, various members of the faculty will address the students. The meetings are very well attended.

Robert Elliott, who is a graduate of this school, was last week elected President of the Junior class at the State University. He also has secured a place in the University Debating team.

Roy Hutchins, a member of the Scientific class, has gone to Verdigrée where he will take Mr. Lundak's place while the latter is campaigning for the office of county superintendent of Knox county.

The new term opened Tuesday with a very good attendance. In addition to the former students, a number of new students enrolled. More young men are in school than usually the case at this time of the year.

Prof. Pile went to Lincoln Wednesday evening. He attended the meeting of Superintendent and Principals. He returned Saturday and reported a very pleasant time and a good meeting. He met a number of former students.

The classes this term will recite Saturday morning and there will be no school work Monday morning. In the past the work has been none or less broken up on Monday, and it is hoped that this method may prevent that trouble hereafter.

The graduating classes have had several additions this term. Among those who joined the classes were Misses Nellie and Bessie Cash, who were in school two years ago. Miss Nellie received the prize for the highest rank in the Teachers' Professional class in 1906.

Dr. S. F. Meek of Chicago visited at College from Wednesday until Monday. Thursday evening, he gave his lecture on "Mexico" before a good audience. Dr. Meek has done considerable traveling in Mexico on Scientific expeditions and is well acquainted with the people and their customs.

A very pleasant reception was held in the Chapel Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the new students. Several of the teachers made short talks and after the program all repaired to the gymnasium where the remainder of the evening was spent in playing various games.

Bert Francis of Carroll was in Sioux City yesterday.

Mrs. A. H. Ellis was a visitor to Omaha yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Mellor are at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Miss Kreidler of Fullerton is a guest of the Craven families.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Strahan were visitors to Sioux City yesterday.

E. H. Carroll was down from Carroll yesterday. Ed. says politics look all o. k. to him.

Supt. Littell and Sheriff Mears were "fixing things" in Hoskins over Wednesday night.

Mrs. J. T. Bressler is spending a couple of weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Barker, in Illinois.

Miss Queenie Mellor accompanied McKnight on a trip to Idaho and writes her friends that she is having a lovely time.

Something Doing! At Rundell's!

In the Flour Business. Each day brings forth enquiries about SEAL OF MINNESOTA flour. Neighbors and friends who have tried it do not hesitate to recommend it. It's the pronounced superior bread-making qualities of Seal which has won the approval of so many housewives of Wayne and vicinity. Ninety per cent of the people are interested in flour; an article which will produce a white, nutritious loaf of bread. Why not avail yourselves of the opportunity of using the best the market affords? It costs no more; in fact less as it goes farther.

Our Guarantee

"Try a sack of Seal of Minnesota flour, and after a thorough trial, you do not find it to be the BEST YOU EVER USED, bring back the empty sack and get your money."

See our list of actual users of SEAL; what they say of it will interest those who are not real certain that we have the best flour obtainable.

The Indications Are

That this is to be a very cold winter and we are prepared for just such a season. If you have an overcoat to buy, and want one that will keep you warm, and want it up-to-date in style and fabric, and for less money than you can buy it elsewhere, come and see us. An overcoat is a deceiving garment to any one not an expert in clothing. We have had the experience necessary to know all about a good overcoat, and our stock is up-to-date, we have no old styles to show you, if you come here to buy your overcoat you take no chances.

We Know We are Right

From the number of sales we have made this season on Fur Coats and to people who have shopped around, both in Wayne and at Sioux City, and then come back to us to buy their fur coat, we know our prices are right, and you can not buy a poor Fur Coat at this store. We have had 21 years experience in selling furs, and have sold every kind made, our experience has taught us that there are only a few kinds of fur overcoats that are good wearers, we will not sell a Fur Coat that will shed. If you buy a Fur Coat from a Merchant who has not had experience in Furs, and only thinks of making the sale, you take your chances on getting a coat that will wear satisfactory. Some fur coats look well, but do not wear good, some Fur Coats rip, and others shed, some get hard and will crack. Our Fur Coats are the best made, and our prices are lower than elsewhere.

If you fail to look over our stock of Fur Coats and Overcoats before you buy, you will make a mistake. Our husking mitts are made of 10 oz. cotton flannel, and have two thumbs. They are the BEST husking mitts in Wayne, and we are selling them at per doz. 60c

This Drug Store For PARTICULAR

PEOPLE

During the time that we have conducted a drug store in Wayne we have aimed to suit those who are most particular as to what they buy and who desire better than ordinary service.

We find it pays to cater to the "Quality" seekers. When we suit them our methods are sure to please those who are less particular.

In buying Drugs and Druggists' Sundries, there's more at stake than just dollars and cents. We realize this and protect our customers by carefully selecting everything we sell.

Tomorrow, Friday evening, there will be a box social held in the Strahan school house three miles west of town, taught by Miss Marion Hyde. A hay-rack party will go out from town, the rig being at the corner near Miller & Jones store from 8:00 to 8:30 to take out all who desire to go. Bring your "boxes" for supper.

Walt Sberbahn was a passenger to Sioux City Tuesday, from Bloomfield, where he has just gotten out of quarantine for the small pox. Walt's appearance would indicate that he had the disease in a malignant form, being very badly marked up temporarily at least. Mrs. Sberbahn also had the sickness. Walt says there are about twenty-five cases in Bloomfield still under quarantine, and about seventy-five cases in all.

Lawyer (?) Elmer Thomas was here from Omaha Monday, but the DEMOCRAT does not know what for unless it was as counsel for Munson in the land litigation P. H. Kohl has started against the anti-saloon sleuth. Thomas' business in the county towns has evidently been falling off of late, for we notice that he is taking a fresh chew out of Omaha, making the saloons of that city remove all door screens so that the preachers, women and children could peer into the "hell holes" and see and hear what was doing.

When A. T. Witter, republican candidate for county assessor, was assessor of the city of Wayne in 1903, the records at the court house shows, that he only found 193 personal taxpayers in the whole town. In fact the list looks so scant that it would appear there were few people owned personal property here. Men as prominent as Geo. L. Miner, who has been city marshal for the past twenty years, were not assessed. The total valuation of personal property, aside from the banks, is $31,643.91. In 1904 the population evidently doubled for the books show 429 schedules of personal property taxpayers, a total valuation of $84,424.49. This work was done by R. H. James and J. H. Massie. In 1907 there were just even 500 schedules returned by Assessor Massie, a total valuation of $82,996. The DEMOCRAT believes that taking the records for it taxpayers outside of the city of Wayne, at least, will be interested enough to quit husking corn long enough at least to go and vote for Henry Kloppling, one of our very best business-men farmers for the office of county assessor.

The inference from the Hoskins Headlight that Geo. Farran, republican candidate for county commissioner, is only a continuation of the present system, Standard Bridge business and all, is well taken. Sometime before the primaries were held and after August Ziener of Hoskins had announced his candidacy, the DEMOCRAT man took a run up to Winside to see what could be done about getting a democratic candidate in the field. We were told—by democrats—that it was "all fixed;" that Geo. Farran would be the man; that he had always been a democrat until quite recently, and that he was good enough for us, etc. It was also stated that should Mr. Ziener defeat Mr. Farran for the nomination, a democrat—E. W. Cullen—would run against Ziener and defeat "that dutchman up at Hoskins." As a matter of absolute fact it was a Winside democrat who first suggested Farran as the man to go against Ziener. There practically is nothing to all this, excepting that with a county heavily burdened with Standard Bridge debt, it is improbable there can be any change with Mr. Farran on the board in place of E. W. Cullen. Mr. Carroll, the real democratic candidate, is not only well posted on "every turn in the road" on county affairs, but he is opposed to the present system of doing business, and favors good roads and good bridges at economical and out-of-date methods. As a matter of fact republicans have no choice in candidates in so far as politics is concerned. One is a "warmed over democrat," and the other the real article. But vote for the competent business man, E. H. Carroll, if at all interested in the most important body of Wayne county officials.

At the recent teachers' meeting in Emerson 200 postal cards were mailed by those in attendance to relatives, friends, sweet hearts and affinites.

An Irishman vouches for this, so it must be so: Down in Platte county, where almost every voter has acquired the uncheerful habit of voting the democratic ticket, a meeting was held to arrange for a barbecue. Some one present suggested that it be held a certain Friday, whereupon an Irishman arose and said: "Does not the gentleman remember that the democratic party don't eat meat on Friday." It is needless to add that the barbecue was not held on Friday.

Phil Clarke, candidate for clerk of Knox county, has issued another campaign card that reads: "I certainly do like the babies—all candidates do. It would be a queer and very foolish one that did not; but if this turrible campaign keeps up 'muck longer I'll begin to likin' the mummies and gals."

Silas Tomkins, of Tarbox Hallow, writes: "The grate joke now is to say you have your corn out, an' when sum fellar looks surprised you say, out in the field."

The chief issue at stake in the Thurston county judgeship fight seems to be who will get the "legals."

George S. Farran, republican candidate for commissioner in Wayne County, is a nephew of the late Sir Charles Farran, chief justice of India, and several of his cousins are in the corral with the "hoods" back in old England. His father, became estranged from his kin by his marriage and came to America.

An editor has received this letter: "I must write and tell you how much I have enjoyed your paper. You surely are a lovely writer. Please stop it." The editor does not know whether the author of the letter wants him to stop writing "lovely" or stop the paper.

The republican candidate for superintendent in Thurston county is making his canvass riding a white horse. His opponent should go him one better by using the democratic party emblem.

Not many can claim that it is against the laws of Nebraska to hunt before daylight or after dark.

There will be "bug doings" in Hoskins soon, as "Aug. F. Ruhlson bought the Gruber farm and will move she same on his place in the northwest part of town." At Hadar tomorrow "the Concordia and Union bands of Hadar will play in unison and separate on Main street."

When the "punkin" is in the kitchen and the housewife gets the pot, And you hear the fire a roaring which makes the oven hot, You know then what's coming and there's a sparkle in your eye, You are thankful that its autumn, the time of "pumpkin pie."

For sixteen years Miss Zetta Rayburn has been deputy treasurer of Wayne county and during that time has personally met every voter in the county several times. She has always been kind and accommodating to the "patrons" of the office and now that she is a candidate for the office itself, her opponents are considerably worried lest their candidate comes out second best on a week from next Tuesday. Then the treasurer's office has been a "hoodoo" to the republicans for twenty years. In spite of a comfortable republican majority, the democrats have succeeded in holding the office. If Miss Rayburn's popularity will win her the office, she will gain much fame thereby. Her picture and biography will be published in the metropolitan press and it stands to reason that she will receive many offers of marriage. Perhaps from these, a true affinity may be discovered, and after she puts down the mantle of public office, there will be a vine-covered cottage somewhere where she can retire and spend the remainder of her days in quiet and comfort, playing the piano and chirping to the canaries.

We always supposed that nobody but politicians lived at Center, but it seems they are unfortunate enough to have a poet also.
