Officials of most of the big life insurance companies state that a person who consumes not more than six or seven glasses of beer a day is as good a risk as a total abstainer, and one of the largest Insurance Companies in England found on a test covering 40 years that the death rate amongst a class who were moderate drinkers of beer was lower than amongst total abstainers.

Wm. House and his bride were the recipients of one of the liveliest charivari's ever pulled off in Wayne county, last Saturday night. Prof. Durrin's residence, where the parties had their marriage feast, was simply buried with all the old riffraff and junk that the neighborhood could furnish. Old bugles, washing machines, and tinware enough to last the gay groom and his bride another 72 years. There were men, women and a "million kids" to make it pleasant for the inmates. During the riot one man was knocked down and a middle-aged widow got badly slapped in the face. The trouble arose over Mr. House's refusal to "loosen up" as requested. Marshal Miner was called on to relieve the tension.

Rev. Osborne delivered a most interesting address at the union meeting of the Christian Associations Sunday afternoon. The meeting was well attended and all enjoyed the exercises very much.

Walter Power was among the former students who visited friends and heard the speeches by Mr. Bryan. Miss Beechel, who is one of the teachers at Magnet under Mr. Power, was also down Friday.

Mr. Bryan spoke to the students at chapel Saturday morning and, as was to be expected, his talk was very much of a treat. He took as his subject "Faith." Mr. Bryan was a guest of President Pile while in the city.

A number of new students enrolled the past week and the first of this week. Among those who enrolled are: Mr. Fuller of Stanton, Mr. Lux of Crawford, Mr. Golder and sister of Naper, Mr. Vargason and sister of Bassett, Miss McKeegan of Bancroft.

Many visitors were on the hill last week and more especially on Friday and Saturday to hear the speeches of Mr. Bryan. In addition to those already mentioned were Miss Jennie Anderson of Wakefield, who is now teaching in Dixon county, also Miss de Groot who teaches at Emerson.

Since it has been decided to have school mornings, another change has been found necessary. Hereafter, the literary programs will be given on Saturday evenings at 7 o'clock instead of Friday evenings. After the program next Saturday evening, a social will be held in the gymnasium.

Gott-House.

At the residence of Prof. and Mrs. R. Durrin last Saturday occurred the marriage of Wm. House and Mrs. Gott, a sister of Mrs. Durrin. The ceremony was performed at high noon, Rev. Osborne officiating, the wedding being attended by relatives of the contracting parties.

A Solid Liquid.

Captain Biglow of Yale, was talking about an applicant for the football team.

"He will never make a football player," said Captain Biglow. "He is as different from a football player as a bottle of brown fluid is behind last summer was different from beer."

A man with a motor cycle stopped at a mountain inn. He was lunching one sultry afternoon and asked for a bottle of beer. The landlady took from a cupboard a bottle hung with cobwebs. He dusted it and set it before the cyclist with a flourish.

"It's the thunder," he said. "The cyclist opened the bottle, poured a little into a glass and drank it."

"Landlord," he said, "this is very thick and muddy beer."

The landlady lifted the glass and looked at it. He tilted it from side to side. It was to thick and muddy that it would scarcely spill.

"It's the thunder," he muttered. "It's the thunder that has done this."

"Well, thunder or no thunder, I After a girl has been engaged twice she doesn't consider it necessary to tie up her love letters in baby ribbon."

FAMILY'S SKIN TROUBLES.

Eczema, Heat Rash and Scalp Affections. Heat Rash and Scalp Affections. But California Cures Them.

"My wife had eczema for five or six years. It was on her face and would come and go. We thought we would give the Cuticura Remedies a trial. We did so, and she has never had a sign of eczema for four years. I myself used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment some time ago for falling hair. I now have a very heavy head of hair. We used Cuticura Remedies for our baby, who was nearly bald when young. She has very nice hair now. She is very fresh, and we had so much trouble with her that we would bathe her with Cuticura Soap and then apply Cuticura Ointment. It would dry out so much quicker than anything else. Mr. H. B. Springmire, 323 So. Capitol Street, Iowa City, Ia., July 16, 1904, and Sept. 10, 1904."

Dobbins—It should say it does. It draws about nine-tenths of my salary every week.

Atchison Globe Sights.

"A man feels as ill at ease in a dry goods store as he does in a kitchen. The man who has had his hair cut by a barber is not so interesting as a fellow citizen."

Women are naturally more graceful than men, except when they attempt to talk.

"Talk to a man and see how quickly they turn away from you. It is not so with a woman. She will emerge from the conversation of soft coal."

Almost any woman can attract more than possible attention from a married man, if she is a little sympathetic. Every married man is looking for a comfort.

When a woman is never seen sewing that doesn't indicate laziness. Perhaps she is just busy with her needle, and is doing all her sewing in the back room, up stairs.

A Cure that Has Held Good Four Years.

Mrs. Mary Crawford, of 1130 West Third Street, Wilmington, Del., says: "Some years ago I began to feel weak and miserable, and one day awoke from a nap with a piercing pain in my back that made me scream. For two days I could not move and after that I had backache and dizzy spells all the time. My ankles swelled and I ran down dreadfully. I was nervous and had awful headaches. I wonder that any medicine could do what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for me. They cured me four years ago and I have been well ever since."

ADVICE TO VICTIMS.

FEELS READERS HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM AT HOME.

Directions to Mix a Simple, Harmless Preparation and the Dose to Take—Overcomes Kidney and Bladder Trouble Promptly.

There is so much Rheumatism everywhere that the following advice by an eminent authority, who writes for readers of a large Eastern daily paper, will be highly appreciated by those who suffer:

Get from any good pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargon, three ounces of Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Shake these well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime; also drink plenty of pure water.

It is claimed that there are few victims of this dread and torturous disease who will fail to find rapid relief in this simple home-made mixture, and in most cases a permanent cure is the result.

This simple recipe is said to strengthen and cleanse the eliminative tissues of the kidneys so that they can filter and strain from the blood and system the poisonous acids and waste matter, which cause not only Rheumatism, but numerous other diseases. Every man or woman who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good, and may save you from much misery and suffering after a while.

From the Washington Star. "I suppose you have made a profound study of political economy?"

"What?" the man asked Senator Sorghum.

"Even if you know all about it yourself you can't explain it to the other people so that they will understand it."

THE HEAPER OF COALS.

Mrs. Panny Crosby, the author of hymns, is still, though 51 years old, in first youth. She is a native of New York.

"Not long ago," said a New York clergyman, "I visited Mrs. Crosby in Bridgeport, and she was so full of life and vigor that I shall soon forget some of the youthful memories that she recounted."

"Our talk turned to the subject of children, and she said that she had a son, one day from school in a bad humor. Another boy, Jack Jones, had given him a thrashing, and he wanted revenge."

"What?" the man asked.

"Willie thought he would try this method. He did not see Jack Jones till the next day at recess. Just as he was buying a pile for lunch Jack appeared and said: 'Look here, I licked you yesterday, but I didn't give you enough. Now I'm going to lick you again.'"

"And he planted a hard blow on Willie's little stomach."

"Willie was stunned and groined, but instead of striking back he extended his pile to Jones."

"Here," he said, in a kindly voice, "I'll give you this. I make you a present of it."

"Jack Jones, in glad amazement, fell upon his knees greedily, and it had soon disappeared."

"Gosh, it was good," he said. "What did you give it to me for?"

"Because you struck me," said the heaper of coals.

"Instantly Jones hauled off and struck in again."

"Now, go and get another pile," he said.

TREMENDOUS GROWTH OF MILWAUKEE CONCERN.

Mayer Boot and Shoe Company of Milwaukee, With Pacific Coast Branch at Seattle, One of the Largest Concerns in Country.

Milwaukee can be proud to be the home of the Mayer Boot and Shoe company. Next to the name of Milwaukee's great breweries comes the country-wide reputation of Mayer boots and shoes. Mayer shoes are made in Milwaukee and are sold by the Mayer Boot and Shoe company, which has persistently refused to lower quality to enable it to sell shoes at a lower price, and by maintaining its honest and superior quality and keeping in the front ranks in style, it has gradually won the confidence and respect of the public. It has purchased Mayer-made shoes year after year—who look at the Mayer trade-mark as positive evidence of style, comfort, and superior quality.

This quality policy so consistently pursued has resulted in beautiful and rapid growth. In the twenty-five years since the Mayer Boot and Shoe company began operations it has outgrown six factories. And in the last six months, during which the factory used to be the largest in the building, the volume of business has so greatly increased that even with this new annex the output lags far behind the demand.

Including the new Seattle factory, which has just been completed, the total capacity of the Mayer Boot and Shoe company exceeds 6,000 pairs a day. This remarkable output, together with the inability of the Mayer company to build factories fast enough to keep pace with the demand, is most convincing evidence of the high quality of Mayer footwear.

In the first place the Mayer shoes are genuine. While good style is an important factor, comfort is always a greater consideration; while conspicuous extremes are avoided, refined dressiness is always secured. The exceptional durability and splendid wearing quality of Mayer shoes are due to the use of only the best leather and the employment of only the most experienced and skillful workmen. From the wide range of styles you are certain to find one which pleases. The best known variety is the "Honor Roll" fine shoe for men; the "Leading Lady" (the shoes); the "Martha Washington" comfort shoes for refined dressiness; the "Yerma" cushion shoes; if you want a dress shoe, a work shoe, or a shoe dressy enough for general use, yet sturdy enough for rough use, it is our belief that you can't do better than to ask your dealer to supply you with one of the Mayer brands.

MORE OR LESS HUMOROUS.

"Put Blame on the Old Man." The young man returned from his trip, and was again at his desk in the office.

It was the day after his return that the partner called him to his desk and said: "Now that you're married, Mr. Quills, I must tell you that I will be considering your treatment of me."

"I don't quite understand you, sir," exclaimed the young man, in surprise.

"Oh, that's all right," said the partner, "but there's nothing like taking time by the forelock. I suppose you won't be here at night yet?"

"Certainly not."

"And it's none of my business if you have. But when you do stay out some night, be considerate. Remember that I have a reputation for fairness; and humane treatment of everybody in this office that would like to retain it. Don't tell your wife that you're sorry you're late, but that that slave-driver at the office piled work upon you to such an extent that you had to take it. The tyrant you work under gave you one-and-a-half hours for dinner, and told you to get up at 11 o'clock. He was in the office before leaving for the night. Just invent some other excuse, you know."

"Oh, that's all right," said the young man, for a minute or two, and then asked anxiously: "Well, if I should be late, what shall I say?"

"Oh, put it on the senior partner, as I do. He can stand it."

"The Heaper of Coals." Mrs. Panny Crosby, the author of hymns, is still, though 51 years old, in first youth. She is a native of New York.

"Not long ago," said a New York clergyman, "I visited Mrs. Crosby in Bridgeport, and she was so full of life and vigor that I shall soon forget some of the youthful memories that she recounted."

"Our talk turned to the subject of children, and she said that she had a son, one day from school in a bad humor. Another boy, Jack Jones, had given him a thrashing, and he wanted revenge."

"What?" the man asked.

"Willie thought he would try this method. He did not see Jack Jones till the next day at recess. Just as he was buying a pile for lunch Jack appeared and said: 'Look here, I licked you yesterday, but I didn't give you enough. Now I'm going to lick you again.'"

"And he planted a hard blow on Willie's little stomach."

"Willie was stunned and groined, but instead of striking back he extended his pile to Jones."

"Here," he said, in a kindly voice, "I'll give you this. I make you a present of it."

"Jack Jones, in glad amazement, fell upon his knees greedily, and it had soon disappeared."

"Gosh, it was good," he said. "What did you give it to me for?"

"Because you struck me," said the heaper of coals.

"Instantly Jones hauled off and struck in again."

"Now, go and get another pile," he said.

TREMENDOUS GROWTH OF MILWAUKEE CONCERN.

Mayer Boot and Shoe Company of Milwaukee, With Pacific Coast Branch at Seattle, One of the Largest Concerns in Country.

Milwaukee can be proud to be the home of the Mayer Boot and Shoe company. Next to the name of Milwaukee's great breweries comes the country-wide reputation of Mayer boots and shoes. Mayer shoes are made in Milwaukee and are sold by the Mayer Boot and Shoe company, which has persistently refused to lower quality to enable it to sell shoes at a lower price, and by maintaining its honest and superior quality and keeping in the front ranks in style, it has gradually won the confidence and respect of the public. It has purchased Mayer-made shoes year after year—who look at the Mayer trade-mark as positive evidence of style, comfort, and superior quality.

This quality policy so consistently pursued has resulted in beautiful and rapid growth. In the twenty-five years since the Mayer Boot and Shoe company began operations it has outgrown six factories. And in the last six months, during which the factory used to be the largest in the building, the volume of business has so greatly increased that even with this new annex the output lags far behind the demand.

Including the new Seattle factory, which has just been completed, the total capacity of the Mayer Boot and Shoe company exceeds 6,000 pairs a day. This remarkable output, together with the inability of the Mayer company to build factories fast enough to keep pace with the demand, is most convincing evidence of the high quality of Mayer footwear.

In the first place the Mayer shoes are genuine. While good style is an important factor, comfort is always a greater consideration; while conspicuous extremes are avoided, refined dressiness is always secured. The exceptional durability and splendid wearing quality of Mayer shoes are due to the use of only the best leather and the employment of only the most experienced and skillful workmen. From the wide range of styles you are certain to find one which pleases. The best known variety is the "Honor Roll" fine shoe for men; the "Leading Lady" (the shoes); the "Martha Washington" comfort shoes for refined dressiness; the "Yerma" cushion shoes; if you want a dress shoe, a work shoe, or a shoe dressy enough for general use, yet sturdy enough for rough use, it is our belief that you can't do better than to ask your dealer to supply you with one of the Mayer brands.

Praises Peruna as a Catarrh Remedy

Mrs. E. M. Tinney, 825 E. Nueva St., San Antonio, Tex., writes: "During 1901, I suffered from a catarrh which various other remedies failed to relieve."

"Six bottles of Peruna, which I used entirely, cured me. I feel like a new man and my health is restored. I therefore cheerfully recommend Peruna to all who suffer from this disease."

Mrs. Ellen Nagle, 414 2nd Street, Iowa City, Ia., writes: "I have often heard Peruna praised and it is more widely known than any other medicine. I really was well a few weeks ago, when I caught a bad cold which settled all over me. The doctor wanted to prescribe, but I told him I was going to try Peruna and so for a bottle and tried it. It felt much better the next morning and within five days I had not a trace of any lameness or any cough."

"I consider it the finest cough remedy."

It is said there are 350,000,000 idle eggs in Chicago cold storage houses. The public, however, will have suspicion that some of them have been "working."

Whether we are going to have stringent times or not it is a pretty good idea to pay your debts and try and save up a little for the "rainy day." The melancholy days have come—The saddest of them all

When we can't tell whether it's winter Or d—date in the fall.

Taft ran up against a mule in the Philippines and escaped. But wait until he runs up against the democratic mule.

Before leaving for California John Benning paid a couple years ahead and instructed us to send the paper to him at "St. Peter." The other day a local acquaintance got a letter from him in which he took occasion to hand out some compliments to "my friend, Ole Goidy" for not sending the "boy dods." The name of John's postoffice could only be learned by referring to the postmark on the envelope which read "San Pedro, Cal.," somewhat different from "St. Peter." It will be a little "Guggenheimer" on you when you get back to Wayne, William.

Suppose you don't know, Mr. Reader, why the DEMOCRAT was a day late last week. Well, we couldn't very well tell you last week, but its "all over now." In clipping items from the Hoskins Headlight, which were printed in the supplement, we got hold of a hot one fully describing or dissecting Ed. Carroll's views on the saloon question. The article was presumably a personal interview Editor Nellor had had with Mr. Carroll on the subject of a saloon at Sholes. This supplement was printed (1420) on Tuesday, and Wednesday we got a letter from Mr. Carroll requesting that we not publish it. Thursday Mr. Carroll came down to see about it, and denied the interview, said he had taken special pains to tell Editor Nellor to simply "keep still," etc. It was thought best to re-print the entire edition, hence the delay in getting the paper out.

The handful of defeated democrats are in about the same condition as a hotel keeper in Missouri, whom I heard Mr. Bryan tell about, last Friday night, at the supper given him by Mr. and Mrs. Kohl. This landlord had a peculiar hobby, a theory that the world turned over every thousand years, that is, the same things and people who are on the earth now would repeat the same operation every thousand years. He exploited this evolution to his guests, and up their departure would say, "meet you again in a thousand years, sir." One day a couple of gentlemen who had listened to this "hot air" for forty-eight hours, bid the ramrod goodby with the request to kindly charge their bill, they would pay it on their next trip, "a thousand years from now." "Aha!" quoth the wily Missourian, "but I remember now; you d—d (*) rascals stopped with me a thousand years ago and you promised to pay up this trip." It may look like "a thousand years" to some of these local democrats, but it is only about long enough to take one crooked political breath.

* Bryan didn't say "d—d," but I know the Missourian did.

Mary sat upon a pin But showed no perturbation. For some of her was genuine But most was imitation.

A Wayne man says his wife is so taken up with breakfast foods that she chews his whiskers every night, thinking they are shredded wheat biscuits.

Our money always goes fast and sometimes comes fast. Instance that for $10,000,000 in gold that is coming over on the Lusitania.

The police station of Buffalo burned on Friday and many valuable papers were destroyed, among them Czolgoz's confession. But it would have been burned long ago if Czolgoz had taken it with him.

A man at Aurora, Ill., has lived fifteen days on an exclusive diet of beans. Another fellow, a boiler-maker, tried onions for an exclusive diet, but after the eighth meal other men refused to work in the same boiler with him, so he had to give it up. Dr. Allen, the food specialist, has lived more than sixteen days on peanuts. Not many of us would care to get into a boiler with either one of them.

Some amusing things are being told about the strenuous campaign Mrs. McManigall put up. For instance, she "went right after them," and at one place where she would have to crawl through a wire fence to get to a corn husker, near the road, she just Hellowed out: "Will you please come over here to fence, or will I have to climb over the fence?" Our historian says he "came over to the fence."

Manson Democrat: Down in the pleasant little city of Knoxville a large, well built, handsome building rears its head against the outline of the sky. About it are clean lawns and pretty trees and well kept grounds. Within its walls there is comfort and cleanliness and good cheer. There is good, wholesome, nourishing food and plenty of it, for the inmates; nice, clean beds, spread with daintiest linen; there is medical attendance that is the best that money can buy for the inmates, who are cared for and pampered and petted like children. And who are the inmates? The helpless, almost hopeless drunkards of the great, intelligent state of Iowa—men who have allowed their selfish appetites to literally devour their manhood, sap their strength both physical and mental, and render them useless, as well as dangerous, members of society.

Out upon the desert plains of arid Arizona, down in the sandhills of lonely and half civilized New Mexico, up among the mountain tops of Colorado and scattered all over this great domain wherever there is the faintest hope of regaining lost vitality and health, broken-hearted consumptives, whose home address is somewhere in Iowa, alone and among strangers, turn longing, loving looks toward "home" and sigh and weep for the loved ones left behind, for the home in the pleasant little town, or the old homestead nestled among the trees along some country road, where their footsteps trod in childhood to and from the country school; then merrily tripped to and from the happy gatherings so dear to youth; then took them out through the lane and up the road to the great highway of life; then home again to say "Goodbye" for perhaps the last time on earth before going to the "Land of the Lingerer," to seek health, hollower-eyed, weak hopeless and heart-sick. Not one good meal, not one clean bed, not one drop of medicine, not one pretty flower, not one cheering, helpful word is ever given them by the great state of Iowa, which feeds and pets and pampers and helps its miserable, wife-beating, besotted, dishonest, unmanly, disreputable and altogether despicable drunkards, and treats them as honorable guests.

Great God! Isn't it almost enough to make an honest man's mind give way to hopeless insanity! A year ago it was "great Scott! what a lot of money we could have won had we known it!" This time it is "gee wizz! what a lot of coin we might have lost had the other fellows known it."

Charley Killion was up from Leslie precinct yesterday with the republican election returns and suggested that we better change its name to the "Wayne Republican." It will have to be "A Wayne Democrat," first, by dad.

C. M. Craven, one of the republican boosters for Chas. Beebe, perhaps unintentionally explains the situation thusly: "County politics is a funny proposition. I know Charley Beebe got a hundred democratic votes in Wayne, and he lost out, you might say." It was undoubtedly this peculiar brand of democrats who elected Mr. Beebe, and the result is as plain as the nose on your face. When the republicans are divided the democrats can win, but when the democrats are split open as they were in Wayne, a democrat stands no more show than the proverbial snowball.

Hats off to the "Bloody First." In a poll of the city—on faithful promises—Miss Rayburn was to have an "even break" in the Third, 48 majority in the First, and 7 majority in the First. The latter gave her 8 majority, but the other two wards turned up a magnificent—bunch of prevaricators.

What is a democrat? Or what is a democrat?

Anyway, some of you democrats won John Soules is the only popular democrat in the city.

Anyway there are not so many defeated candidates this season.

It was too much "all in the family."

Bold Horse Thieves.

The DEMOCRAT man was called out of bed last Sunday morning to print a few postal cards, offering $650 in cash for the capture of thieves who stole four horses, a spring wagon and harness from Chan Norton some time during Saturday night. Early Sunday morning Sheriff Mears began phoning and kept at it until he had circulated the news all around the county. Mr. Norton and others traced the robbers about ten miles south of Wayne, by means of a peculiar shoe on one animal. Then they came to a bridge, where the shoes had evidently been pinched off. Monday morning Sheriff Mears went to Norfolk and from there on south, but didn't find a scent of the trail. The property stolen is described as follows: One gelding wt. 1000 lbs., one gelding 1200, two mares about 1100 each; one mare has white foot, the other both hind feet white. Small gelding has lump on right ankle, kind family horse, will single foot some. Three of the horses have foretop clipped. Heavy spring wagon, covered with mud. Harness has three tugs spliced on the ends. One old bridle and one new bridle. Sheriff will pay $50 for thieves; Association will pay $500 for county; Owner will pay $100 for return of property.

Nebraska Echoes

During all the excitement, Andy Olson did not get his picture into the newspapers.

Most of the papers were late last week waiting for the retriback. A few were captured.

The author of these lines is several lengths in the rear of Rev. Hughes as a poet. We understand that the latter will give a limited number of lessons. Better try him before you "make" any more.

A school's aim at Pender, Rode to Thurston on a tender. It was her only chance. To attend a dance. As she had no bean to tend her.

Julian D. Graves, of Peru, is on the prohibition ticket again this year. Last year because his name was on the ballot Judge Guy T. Graves lost a seat in congress. Nearly 600 votes were cast for the "dry". Graves that were intended for the judges, and as Boyd's plurality was only 300 it is not to be questioned that Judge Graves was the choice of a plurality of the voters of the Third district, as their representative in congress. This year, as the two Graves' names are not very far apart on the ballot, probably a number will make the same mistake again.

"Uncle Dick", Hodgson, of Winside, voted for no women candidates. He says: "My mother was a woman and my wife is a woman and while I haven't got anything against the women, yet I don't believe in letting them hold office. If we elect a woman to one office, another woman will want another office, and so on till we get all women officers, including a woman sheriff. When we give the women the offices we will then have put on skirts and let them wear the pants."

Heretofore, the horse thieves, who have been raiding north Nebraska for the past three years, have been satisfied to steal only one team at a time. This fall they have become bolder and are taking two.

Some day a farmers' posse will catch them far from town. They'll lead them to a nearby bridge. And let the coroner cut 'em down. After all the firing proved a blessing to the town of Verdigris. The row of wooden buildings that were burned have been replaced by modern brick structures.

The Plainview Republican believes the Sioux Indians have a future before them if they become citizens. This excellent paper says: "After they become citizens a Sioux can sue a Sioux, take a chew, smoke a few, and take a drink or two, when feeling blue, as white men do."

Citizens of Honelle are going to present a petition to Congressman Boyd praying for the removal of the tariff on wood pulp. There's no doubt that Mr. Boyd will have the duty taken off as soon as he gets to Washington.

The average oats yield for 1907, according to Land Commissioner Ryder, in Dixon and Dakota counties was nearly twenty-four bushels per acre while the counties bordering on these two only showed up about nineteen. They say "figures don't lie," so the two D's have a big crop coming.

O'Neill is to have another newspaper to mix in the affairs of the "most political" county in the state. The O'Neill papers during the campaign reminded one very much of an attorney's brief for a man who is charged with murder, larceny, perjury, forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses.

Horse thieves are now making their annual visits to this part of the state and, in spite of the numerous anti-horse thief associations, manage to get away with the goods. We'll soon hear from the corn husking liar.

Because he is a good-natured young man, Superintendent Teed, of Dixon county, takes every bunch that is handed to him with a smile and without protest. Even if it be a lemon, he doesn't seem to care. But for these lines, contributed by a Ponca citizen apparently without fear are given, we wish to deny that Mr. Teed used the language attributed to him. We have known him ever since he was 42 years of age and can say positively that his swearing vocabulary is limited to just "judge" and "gimme a match." So it is with a shamed face that we submit the following, signed by the initials J. V. P.

A school's aim in living at Ponca, In attempting to ride a broncho, Fell on her head, And Mr. Teed said, Humorist Julius Hulf, of Norfolk, says the reason the Mormon missionaries, who are holding services in north Nebraska, don't sing more is because they each have six wives.

In answer to the plea that county judge should be a lawyer, Rev. Drullinger, candidate for that office in Cedar county, says that he originally intended to be one; but swapped places in the middle of the stream and became a preacher. He is to be commended for making such a great change in so short a time. His opponent, Mr. Dodge, doesn't have this argument to meet. He is a lawyer now and always intended to be one. In fact his parents insisted upon it from the time as a mite in the cradle, he orally assented a bill of exceptions, so ably against being raised on a bottle.

There is only one misstatement in the stories published all over the county in regard to Julia St. Cyr, "the only woman lawyer in the United States." She isn't a lawyer.

It is reported that trains on the Newcastle branch will soon run to the new towns of Maxwell and Wyout. These two places ought to make lively little towns.

Silas Tomkins, of Farber, Holloway, writes: "My daughter kinder eggens on marrying."

Every candidate gets my praise. For one case think that's going to lose. And I take off in, but to Rev. Hughes "Judge" Nielson may get in. He has a special chance to win. By holding his own in the "Devils' Nest." Marcus Murray can do the rest.

I don't care much which way it goes. But I want this: then all else. Perhaps next year the outburst will dawn. If a majority vote for Cecil Boughn. Clyde T. Ecker, in Sioux City Tribune.

Not to be outdone by any of its esteemed contemporaries, The Commoner or Not-Department has decided to institute a missing word contest. It will send the winners several pieces of jewelry in the shape of "L'Esperanza" with the final word missing in each one of them. The object is to supply the best obtainable word. Here goes:

There was a young fellow from Nide Who wearily walked a long mile At the end of the snout He remarked with a grin It seems to be time for a

The first prize is a set of three, bone collar buttons, the freight on which must be prepaid by the winner. Second prize, a copy of the president's St. Louis speech. Third prize, a mental photograph of the Missisippi river pilot whom the president discharged. Contestants will be required to send seven dollars with each answer, which in no case will be returned. We need contestants for all drafts, checks, postal notes payable to the architect of this department.

Any time the democrats put up the best men for county offices, at the proper time, and make an acceptable campaign, they can be elected. The election this week demonstrates that much.

Harry Mahler went to Emerson today to see his younger brother who is very ill with muscular rheumatism.

Dennis Kelleher will move up near New Castle March 1st.

Lee Buroker went down to Emerson yesterday.

Hank Suhr this week bought a brand new Ottaway B. corn sheller from C. W. Hiscox.

Chas Robbins some time ago bought the general merchandise business of Chas. Beebe at Carroll, and next Monday an invoice of the stock will be commenced. Mr Robbins was very successful as a previous owner of the same business and says it is the best thing he could find to take up again. Mr. Beebe and family will no doubt at once move to Wayne.

Wm. Harmer, the young farmer in the Welsh settlement near Carroll who was kicked by a horse a week ago, died from his injuries, the funeral being held yesterday at one o'clock. Deceased was a highly esteemed young man, and leaves a widow and one child.

Mrs. Walters assisted by Mrs. Karo, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Hunter gave an old party at her residence Thursday evening for the Degree of Honor people which was largely attended.

The evening was pleasantly passed in games assisted by some splendid music furnished by members of the order. In solving the mysteries of the owl puzzle, Miss Ethel Juhlin and F. A. Berry carried off first honors and Mrs. Berry and H. E. Griggs were awarded the booby prizes. Mrs. Walters and her assistants proved themselves good entertainers as well as good judges of what it takes to satisfy the appetites of a hungry crowd.

The aged father of Mrs. Chas. Culler died at Dakota City Tuesday. Great preparations had been made to celebrate deceased's 50th wedding anniversary next Monday.

Sioux City Journal Burns.

Early Wednesday morning at 3:45 o'clock, the plant of the Sioux City Journal office caught fire, presumably from a newboy dropping a Election.

Wayne county democrats are no doubt disappointed with local results. It had been expected that Messrs Carroll and Kloppling would be elected by even some of the republican leaders, although the past few days work by republicans and democrats made victory for the democratic candidate for county treasurer look dubious. It was a quiet campaign and light vote, the general view being that all the candidates up were capable, honorable and worthy of the confidence of the people.

The state is more strongly republican than ever, Wayne county being a fair sample of the increased vote for the R. O. P.

Judge Graves was an easy winner against A. R. Olson, having some 800 majority.

In adjoining counties local tickets were pretty well split up, the candidates getting the most votes generally elected.

In Dakota county the republicans made a clean sweep with the exception of county superintendent. In Pierce the democrats elect all but treasurer and clerk. Madison county went republican, the democrats only electing judge and commissioner. Thurston county, where it was real warm, democrats elect treasurer, sheriff, clerk of courts, superintendent, the republicans getting clerk and county judge.

A daring theft Jack wrought last night On daring little Rose; He stole some things he wanted, right Beneath her very nose.

'Tis to be hoped that if fair Rose Returned the blissful smack, Jack did not overlook a bet.

But turned and kissed her back. That may be as they do this job. Down in the Sunny South, But if Jack lived here in the North, He'd kiss her on the mouth.

—The Commoner. Why rouse again the bitter strife, And North and South war hot? Let's all agree to compromise—

Jack kissed her on the spot. —St. Louis Dispatch.

Why so much racket over a kiss, Or e'en about the spot? It Would interest us more if we Had been the one who got it.

—Birmingham (Ala.) Age Herald. Yet Jack perhaps had little glee, Though on the mouth he kissed her; We have as yet no proof you see, That Rose was not his sister.

—Chicago Record Herald That smack smacked not of family ties. The truth's not far to seek; If Rose were Jack's dear sister, he'd Just peek her on the cheek.

—New York Tribune. Come out of it, ye cynics here, Your lines show envy's tips; Let not age scoff while Jack impales The Rose tints of her lips.

—Omaha Bee. Now, if dear Rose would wander here, We'd "PRESS" this lovely daughter— The Bee's plain hint, is just my dear, A sample of Rose-water.

—Norfolk Press. It all depends, the kind of Rose, By dad, what would we do, For 'Thurston had a Rose, you know, A nature fakir grew.

336 Republican

Wayne county gives Judge Reese a plurality of 337 votes. Chas. Beebe has a majority of 167 over Miss Rayburn, the vote in Wayne being a tie. B. F. Eathar has a majority of 566, G. S. Mears 763, Supt. Littell 313, Jones for surveyor, 540, Dr. Williams, Williams, coroner, 521, A. T. Witter, county assessor, 39, Geo. Farran for commissioner, 115. Hoskins gave Farran 17 votes and Ed. Carroll 123, Winside returning the compliment by giving Farran 78 to Carroll's 10.

There isn't enough consolation in the returns to warrant the DEMOCRAT in putting up a tabulated statement.

W. M. WRIGHT.

A. N. Matheny and I. W. Alter were elected justices of the peace. Mr. Matheny was on the republican ticket which accounts for his election.

Sheriff Mears telephoned his wife today that they, presumably Fred Benschoff and himself, had trace of the horse thieves to west of Norfolk where they lost the scent, and that they would be home tomorrow.

A Handful of Chaff is removed in preparing every pound tin of

Barrington Hall The Steel Cut Coffee

This chaff is the yellow cellulose skin evidently placed by nature around the heart of the berry to protect it from insects. It certainly was not intended for human use as tests have proven, that, when steeped alone, it is undrinkable.

Its removal, therefore, leaves only the best part of the coffee, which can be used and its delicious flavor enjoyed without fear of ill effects.

No user of coffee should fail to try Barrington Hall. Besides being more healthful and delicious, it is more economical, as a 35-cent pound tin will make from 15 to 20 cups more of delicious beverages than will the same amount of ordinary coffee.

Political Defeat.

The one unpleasant feature in politics is that some have to be defeated; it is a business where they cannot all succeed. There are no doubt some people who were not satisfied with the way election turned out, but all true, American Citizens should find no fault when a majority of the people decides who shall fill the offices.

Now, it is just the same in Business as it is in Politics. All business men do not succeed, as the methods they use in conducting their business does not suit the people. There are no doubt some business men in Wayne county who do not like our methods of clothing the majority of the Men and Boys of Wayne county, but, our methods suit a large majority of the Men and Boys of Wayne county, and we are therefore satisfied that our business methods are right, and that our is due to the fact that every article in our store is first bought right (which takes years of experience to do) then it is priced right to our customers. You will never find an article in our store marked "$1.98" when it is worth only $1.75, and our cast-iron rule of one-price-to-all suits a majority of the people of Wayne county. The lines of goods which we sell are the best in the country.

This is just the time of year to buy our pure gum SNAG-PROOF overshoes, as one pair will last you all winter. They cost a little more than the ordinary kind, but will out-wear two pair of any other make. They are PURE GUM, and this is the only store in Wayne where the genuine SNAG-PROOF rubber foot-wear is sold.

If you want to enjoy good health and be comfortable during the cold winter months, now is the time to prepare for it, and comfortable living in cold weather is best obtained in a suit of STALEY underwear. Besides good health and comfort there is no ripping, no tearing, it stays as it is made.

You will find our line of Duck coats the best in town. They are made full length, 32 to 34 inches long, and the weight of the duck will be just what we tell you it is, and we sell you Duck coats cheaper than any other store in Wayne. You will make a mistake if you buy an Overcoat or a Fur coat before you first look over our line, as there are none better to be found and our prices are right.

If you were disappointed with the election returns, come to our store and let us clothe you. It will soothe the pangs of disappointment and you will be trading where a large majority of the Men and Boys of Wayne trade.

After The Thieves.

Tuesday afternoon the DEMOCRAT man received a letter from Fred Benson saying he was on track of the Norton horse thieves, going to O'Neill Wednesday. Sheriff Mears left in the same direction, and the Sheriff of Stanton county is also in the same section of the country looking for them. Yesterday Chan Norton, of whom the animals were stolen, got a message from a farmer near Bancroft, stating that a man with four black horses had come to his place early Monday morning; that as soon as he, the farmer, went out to meet him with a lantern, the fellow pulled out in the road and drove on, that the animals appeared jaded. After conferring with the sheriff down there Mr. Norton left this morning for Decatur and a search of that country will be made, it being an ideal vicinity to hide stolen horses.

Will Not Speak.

County Supt. Littell requests the DEMOCRAT to announce that State Supt. McBrien will not speak at Winside tomorrow, Friday night, as advertised. The date having been cancelled.

Winside News.

From the Tribune. The annual convention of Wayne county Sunday schools will be held in Winside next year.

The Tribune understands that steps have been taken towards building an addition to the Methodist parsonage. This improvement is very much needed, for the parsonage is really too small for the pastor and his family.

Some excitement was caused in Winside last week by the presence of the sheriff and county attorney a couple of days, and the arrest of a young man of the town, through the instigation of a girl who resides here but the Tribune is not going into details of disgusting the affair.

Mrs. Frank Perrin had an old-fashioned carpet rag bee Tuesday afternoon, her sister, Mrs. Keifer, of Missouri, being the guest of honor. Royal Neighbors and near neighbors to the number of about twenty-five were invited, and all gave evidence of having enjoyed themselves. A delicious lunch such as Mrs. Perrin is famous for preparing, was served.

Sam Reichert went over to Humphrey last Saturday, in response to a telegram from his mother who had missed the train and was stranded there, and they both returned Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Reichert has been away for several weeks visiting at Lincoln and Albion, and her trip home was a rather difficult one because of the poor train connections. But she arrived safely at last, much to the joy of Sam who has been keeping bachelors hall.

Great Western Endless Apron Manure Spreader

SPREADS ALL KINDS OF MANURE AND FERTILIZERS

THE GREAT WESTERN Endless Apron Manure Spreader will handle all kinds of manure, commercial fertilizers and mulching regardless of their condition. It will handle manure from the feed-yard. It will handle fresh stable manure, regardless of what the manure contains. It will handle manure with corn stalks, cobs, long, wet or dry straw. It will handle wet straw manure, straw stack bottoms, whether rotted or not. It will handle cow manure fresh from the gutter—as our bats are close together—sheep manure fresh from the sheep sheds, the refuse from the hog yards, fresh turnip or sugar beet tops, clover chaff, sawdust and mulch of all kinds. It also handles various kinds of commercial fertilizers such as dry bone, salt, lime, ashes, etc. In fact there is nothing in the manure, mulch or fertilizer line that cannot be spread either broadcast, or in trenches or drills, from the thinnest sprinkle up to the heaviest layer, more economically, better and quicker with the GREAT WESTERN than can possibly be done by hand or by any other method.

THE WAGON GEAR

The wagon gear or truck is one of the important features of the GREAT WESTERN Spreader. It must be built to not only carry the load, but to furnish traction power to operate the spreader. Special pains have been taken to make it exceptionally strong, substantial and durable. The front axle is made of 1½-inch cold rolled steel, over this a heavy wood axle cap which carries a big 16-inch Malleable Iron fifth wheel. Built so strong and durable that no brace is required which would interfere with the wheel in making a short turn. It turns in its own length. The rear axle is made of 2-inch cold rolled steel. BOTH REAR WHEELS DRIVE THE AXLE by pawls and ratchets similar to those used in a mowing machine.

HOW THE MAIN FRAME IS MADE

The main sills are made of OAK and measure 2x6 inches. The cross sills are OAK, mortised into the side sills, and each cross sill is held in place by two draw bolts. The two center sills are made of OAK and run from the front cross sill to the rear cross sill. This construction alone, being made of OAK, is very stiff and substantial and for any ordinary machine would be plenty strong enough, but in addition it has two diagonal iron truss rods, as you will see by examining it. This makes it absolutely impossible for the frame to twist out of line. Come in and let us show you the construction of this wonderful machine.

The Famous Lightning Triple Gear Feed Mill

Equipped With Chilled Steel Burrs

The Famous Lightning Triple Gear Feed Mill has gearing entirely enclosed and bearings run in oil, and can be oiled from outside while machine is in motion. It is equipped with three large roller bearings, thereby reducing friction which makes it much more durable and lighter draft. The gear is supported by extra heavy base. It is also equipped with three friction plates that are adjustable so that wear can be taken up after the mill has been used five years so that the master cog will run as true as when new, which also prevents gearing from breakage. The burrs (which are eighteen inches and have nine lugs to force the feed and make three revolutions to one of sweep) are made of the hardest chilled steel and are adjustable so they can be "turned up" in the mill, insuring perfect grinding and durability, and are independent of framework of the mill and are easily and quickly removed.

It also has a conveyor which delivers the ground feed at one place, enabling the user to take it direct from the mill in a measure. The mill is built on well established principles and the success we have had with it has more than justified our expectations and this mill stands at the top of all triple gear mills.

...CAPACITY...

It will easily grind 20 to 40 bushels of cob meal or shelled corn per hour; 10 to 16 bushels Kaffir corn, wheat, rye, barley, oats and corn on dry grain. We also have a power attachment for this mill that can be used with three horse power and up.

Bryan's Address

Wayne, Neb., Nov. 8.—The fact that several hundred people failed to get in to the opera house Friday night to hear William J. Bryan is not as significant as that hundreds stood up, jammed up, crowded into every corner and nook of the building and remained there from 8 to 10:45 o'clock. The opera house will seat 1,000 people and it is estimated that there were nearly 2,000 in attendance.

Mr. Bryan arrived here on the 6 o'clock train and was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Kohl, where he met a few of the local democrats and a reception was tendered him. Mrs. Kohl, serving an extraordinary fine four-course menu.

So great was the applause that greeted Mr. Bryan at the opera house that the audience was warned against stamping of feet for fear the galleries would fall.

Mr. Bryan, after a few remarks on local and state candidates, spoke of the recent money panic; that in his opinion it would not last long, as conditions were vastly different than in 1893. He advocated a law taxing banks for the protection of depositors. The speaker also dwelt upon the income and inheritance tax, tariff, etc. He designated the democratic plank President Roosevelt had put in use, to the discomfort of the G. O. P. leaders. He advocated putting on the free list all articles now controlled by trusts and monopolies.

Mr. Bryan has spoken in Wayne on several occasions before, but this speech was his masterpiece. It was a non-partisan, vote-getting speech.

Mr. Bryan was entertained over night by President and Mrs. Pile at the Nebraska Normal, and addressed the student body in the chapel at 8:30 Saturday morning. Bloomfield and intermediate towns came down with a special train to hear the speech Friday night. An effort was made to reserve seats for the visitors, but so great was the crush when the doors were opened that every seat and all the standing room was filled in just twelve minutes, and many of the excursionists failed to hear Mr. Bryan.—World Herald.

Chaon Divorce Case.

The first round in the Chaon divorce case occurred at Omaha last Saturday when the matter of temporary alimony was argued before the court. Mrs. Chaon, by her attorney applied for $150 attorney fees, for $100 as suit money and for $40 per month temporary alimony. Senator G. W. Witsee of this city, representing A. F. Chaon, put in a well placed objection to these amounts and argued the case in a manner as to induce the court to put the temporary alimony matter on the bargain counter with a 50 per cent discount tag attached.

Mrs. Chaon will receive about half the amounts she asked for, or $120 attorney fees, $50 suit money and $20 a month for support during the pendency of the suit.—Randolph Times.

Tuesday morning at his home in the settlement, five miles west and two south, William Hamer met with a serious accident. He had gone to the barn to hitch one of his teams to go to the field to husk corn. While he was hitching them up one of the animals kicked him terrifically in the ribs. The result was two fractured ribs and internal injuries. It is these latter that are causing most of the trouble. It seems that the both kidneys and the heart are affected. Since the accident the patient has suffered greatly, only at times resting easy. It is to be hoped that he will recover but the conditions are such as to cause much apprehension.

Saturday night there was a fire scare at the Shannon ranch. For a time it looked as though there would be something doing. The cause was a stack of new alfalfa hay that had become heated and from natural combustion burst into flames about dusk. It was first noticed by a party who was passing along the road who immediately informed the Shannons. The alarm was sent to town and in a short time a crowd was there fighting the flames. By hard work they were soon under subjection. It was very fortunate that that the blaze was discovered when it was as the stack was located near the outbuildings. The Shannons are grateful to those who assisted and wish to thank them for their efforts.

Married—Tuesday evening, Oct. 29th Miss Margaret Jones and Luther David Evans. The ceremony occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Jones, Rev. Vincent Jones officiating assisted by Rev. Carter. The bridal couple were preceded down the stairs by little Misses Jones and Laura Evans, flower-girls, carrying white roses. The bride was beautifully gowned in navy blue silk, the
